Christ, are fourteen generations.

<sup>22</sup> (Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying,

1 The wise-men out of the east are directed to Christ by a star: 11 they worship him, and offer their presents. 14 Joseph fleeth into Egypt, with Jesus and his mother. 16 Herod slayeth the children: 20 himself dieth. 23 Christ is brought back again into Galilee, to Nazareth.

NOW when <sup>a</sup> Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came wise-men <sup>b</sup> from the east to Jerusalem,

<sup>3</sup> When Herod the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

<sup>5</sup> And they said unto him, In Bethlehem of Judea: for thus it is written by the prophet,

6 And thou Bethlehem in the land of Juda, art not the least among the princes of Juda: for out of thee shall come a Governor<sup>h</sup> that shall rule my people Israel.

7 Then Herod, when he had privily called the wise-men, enquired of them diligently what time the star appeared.

8 And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go, and search diligently for the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also.

9 When they had heard the king, they departed; and lo, the star which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was.

10 When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy.

11 And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and fell down, and worshipped him: and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto him gifts; gold, and frankincense, and myrrh.

12 And being warned of God<sup>k</sup> in a dream, that they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country another way.

13 And when they were departed, behold the angel of the Lord appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the young child, and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I bring thee word: for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him.

14 When he arose, he took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt:

15 And was there until the death of Herod: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, Out of Egypt have I called my son.

16 Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked of the wise-men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the coasts thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had diligently enquired of the wise-men.

17 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by<sup>m</sup> Jeremy the prophet, saying,

18 In Rama was there a voice heard, lamentation, and weeping, and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children, and would not be comforted, because they are not.

19 But when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeareth in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, 20 Saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel: for they are dead which sought the young child's life.

21 And he arose, and took the young child and his mother, and came into the land of Israel.

22 But when he heard that Archelaus did reign in Judea in the room of his father Herod, he was afraid to go thither: notwithstanding, being warned of God in a dream, he turned aside<sup>n</sup> into the parts of Galilee:

23 And he came and dwelt in a city called Nazareth: that it might be fulfilled<sup>o</sup> which was spoken by the prophets, He shall be called a Nazarene.

CHAP. III.

1 John preacheth: his office, life, and baptism: 7 he reprehendeth the Pharisees, 13 and baptizeth Christ in Jordan.

IN those days came<sup>a</sup> John the Baptist, preaching<sup>b</sup> in the wilderness of Judea, 2 And saying, Repent ye: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

3 For this is he that was spoken of by the prophet Elias, saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

4 And<sup>c</sup> the same John<sup>f</sup> had his raiment of camels hair, and a leathern girdle about his loins; and his meat was<sup>g</sup> locusts and wild honey.

5 Then went out to him Jerusalem and all Judea; and all the region round about Jordan,

6 And were baptized of him in Jordan, confessing their sins.

7 But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees come to his baptism, he said unto them, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

8 Bring forth therefore fruits<sup>h</sup> meet for repentance:

9 And think not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham.

10 And now also the ax is laid unto the root of the trees: therefore every tree which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

11 I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance; but he that cometh after me, is mightier than I, whose shoes I am

 14 But John forbad him, saying, I have need to be baptized of thee, and comest thou to me?
 15 And Jesus answering, said unto him, Suffer it to be so now: for thus it becometh us to fulfil all righteousness. Then he suffered him.
 16 And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water: and lo, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw <sup>1</sup> the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him:
 17 <sup>1</sup> And lo, a voice from heaven, saying, <sup>2</sup> This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

THEN was <sup>1</sup> Jesus led up of the spirit into the wilderness to be tempted of the devil.

2 And when he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he was afterward an-hungred.

3 And when the tempter came to him, he said, If thou be the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread.

4 But he answered and said, It is written, <sup>1</sup> Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.

5 Then the devil taketh him up <sup>2</sup> into the holy city, and setteth him on a pinnacle of the temple,

6 And saith unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down: for it is written,

7 Jesus said unto him, It is written again, <sup>1</sup> Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

8 Again, the devil taketh him up into an exceeding high mountain, and sheweth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them;

9 And saith unto him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me.

10-Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee

hence, Satan: for it is written, <sup>1</sup> Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.

11 Then the devil leaveth him, and behold, <sup>2</sup> angels came and ministered unto him.

12 <sup>1</sup> Now when Jesus had heard that John was <sup>1</sup> cast into prison, he departed into Galilee;

13 And leaving Nazareth, he came and dwelt in Capernaum, which is upon the sea coast, in the borders of Zabulon and Nephthalim:

14 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying,

15 <sup>1</sup> The land of Zabulon, and the land of Nephthalim, by the way of the sea, beyond Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles:

16 The people which sat in darkness, saw great light; and to them which sat in the region and shadow of death, light is sprung up.

17 <sup>1</sup> From that time Jesus began to preach, and to say, <sup>1</sup> Repent: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

18 <sup>1</sup> And Jesus, walking by the sea of Galilee, saw two brethren, Simon <sup>2</sup> called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea: for they were fishers.

19 And he saith unto them, Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men.

20 And they straightway left their nets, and followed him.

21 <sup>1</sup> And going on from thence, he saw other two brethren, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in a ship with Zebedee their father, mending their nets; and he called them.

22 And they immediately left the ship and their father, and followed him.

23 <sup>1</sup> And Jesus went about all Galilee, <sup>2</sup> teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of sickness, and all manner of disease, among the people.

24 And his fame went throughout all Syria: and they brought unto him all sick people that were taken with divers diseases and torments, and those which were possessed with devils, and those which were lunatick, and those that had the palsy; and he healed them.

25 <sup>1</sup> And there followed him great multitudes of people, from Galilee, and from Decapolis, and from Jerusalem, and from Judea, and from beyond Jordan.

the earth, 14 the light of the world, the city on an hill: 15 the candle: 17 that he came to fulfil the law. 21 What it is to kill, 27 to commit adultery, 33 to swear: 38 exhorteth to suffer wrong, 44 to love even our enemies, 48 and to labour after perfectness.

AND seeing the multitudes, <sup>a</sup> he went up into a mountain: and when he was set, his disciples came unto him:

2 And he opened his mouth, and taught them, saying,

3 <sup>b</sup> Blessed are the poor in spirit: for their's is the kingdom of heaven.

4 <sup>c</sup> Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

5 <sup>d</sup> Blessed are the meek: for <sup>e</sup> they shall inherit the earth.

6 Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: <sup>f</sup> for they shall be filled.

7 Blessed are the merciful: <sup>g</sup> for they shall obtain mercy.

8 <sup>h</sup> Blessed are the pure in heart: for <sup>i</sup> they shall see God.

9 Blessed are the peace-makers: for they shall be called the children of God.

10 <sup>k</sup> Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness sake: for their's is the kingdom of heaven.

11 <sup>l</sup> Blessed are ye when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of <sup>m</sup> evil against you <sup>n</sup> falsely, for my sake.

12 <sup>a</sup> Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great <sup>r</sup> is your reward in heaven: for <sup>s</sup> so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

13 <sup>t</sup> Ye are the salt of the earth: <sup>u</sup> but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be troden under foot of men.

14 <sup>v</sup> Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid.

15 Neither do men <sup>w</sup> light a candle, and put it under <sup>x</sup> a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house.

16 Let your light so shine before men, <sup>y</sup> that they may see your good works, and <sup>z</sup> glorify your Father which is in heaven.

17 <sup>aa</sup> Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil.

18 For verily I say unto you, <sup>ab</sup> Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled.

19 <sup>ac</sup> Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do, and teach <sup>ad</sup> them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

20 For I say unto you, That except your righteousness shall exceed <sup>ae</sup> the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven.

21 <sup>af</sup> Ye have heard, that it was said <sup>ag</sup> by them of old time, <sup>ah</sup> Thou shalt not kill; and whosoever shall kill, shall be in danger of the judgement:

22 But I say unto you, That <sup>ai</sup> whosoever is angry with his brother without a cause, shall be in danger of the judgement: and whosoever shall say to his brother, <sup>aj</sup> Raca, shall be in danger of the council: but whosoever shall say, Thou fool, shall be in danger of hell-fire.

23 Therefore <sup>ak</sup> if thou bring thy gift to the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath ought against thee;

24 <sup>al</sup> Leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way; first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift.

25 <sup>am</sup> Agree with thine adversary quickly, whiles thou art in the way with him; lest at any time the adversary deliver thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and thou be cast into prison.

26 Verily, I say unto thee, Thou shalt by no means come out thence, till thou hast paid the uttermost farthing.

27 <sup>an</sup> Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, <sup>ao</sup> Thou shalt not commit adultery:

28 But I say unto you, That whosoever <sup>ap</sup> looketh on a woman to lust after her, hath committed adultery with her already in his heart.

29 <sup>aq</sup> And if thy right eye <sup>ar</sup> offend thee, <sup>as</sup> pluck it out, and cast <sup>at</sup> it from thee: for <sup>au</sup> it is profitable for thee, that one of thy members should perish, and not <sup>av</sup> that thy whole body should be cast into hell.

30 And if thy right hand offend thee, cut it off, and cast <sup>aw</sup> it from thee: for it is profitable for thee, that one of thy members should perish, and not <sup>ax</sup> that thy whole body should be cast into hell.

31 It hath been said, <sup>ay</sup> Whosoever shall put away his wife, let him give her a writing of divorcement:

32 But I say unto you, That <sup>az</sup> whosoever shall put away his wife, saving for the cause of fornication, causeth her to commit adultery: and whosoever shall marry her that is divorced, committeth adultery.

33 <sup>ba</sup> Again, ye have heard that <sup>bb</sup> it hath been said by them of old time, <sup>bc</sup> Thou shalt

<sup>2</sup> Therefore <sup>1</sup> when thou doest thine alms, do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do, in the synagogues, and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily, I say unto you, they have their reward.

3 But when thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth :

4 That thine alms may be in secret : and thy Father which seeth in secret, himself <sup>5</sup> shall reward thee openly.

5 ¶ And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are : for they love to pray standing in the synagogues, and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily, I say unto you, They have their reward.

6 But thou, when thou prayest, <sup>6</sup> enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret ; and thy Father which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly.

7 But when ye pray, use not vain <sup>7</sup> repetitions, as the heathen do : <sup>8</sup> for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking.

8 Be not ye therefore like unto them : for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him.

9 After this manner therefore pray ye : <sup>9</sup> Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name.

10 Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.

11 Give us this day our <sup>10</sup> daily bread.

12 And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

13 And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. <sup>11</sup> For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

14 <sup>12</sup> For, if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you :

15 But <sup>13</sup> if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

16 ¶ Moreover, when ye fast, be not as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance : for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear unto men to fast. Verily, I say unto you, They have their reward.

17 But thou, when thou fastest, <sup>14</sup> anoint thine head, and wash thy face ;

18 That thou appear not unto men to fast, but unto thy Father which is in secret : and thy Father which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly.

rupt, and where thieves break through and steal :

20 <sup>a</sup> But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal :

21 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

22 <sup>a</sup> The light of the body is the eye : if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light.

23 But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness !

24 <sup>a</sup> No man can serve two masters : for either he will hate the one, and love the other ; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. <sup>a</sup> Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

25 Therefore I say unto you, <sup>a</sup> Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink ; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment ?

26 <sup>a</sup> Behold the fowls of the air : for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns ; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they ?

27 Which of you by taking thought can add one cubit unto his stature ?

28 And why take ye thought for raiment ? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow ; they toil not, neither do they spin ;
29 And yet I say unto you, That even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

30 Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which to-day is, and to-morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith ?

31 Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat ? or, What shall we drink ? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed ?

32 (For after all these things do the Gentiles seek :) for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things.

33 But <sup>a</sup> seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto you.

34 Take therefore no thought for the morrow : for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

CHAP. VII.

<sup>a</sup> Christ ending his sermon on the mount, reproveth rash judgement, 6 forbiddeth to cast holy things to dogs, 7 exhorteth to prayer, 13 to enter in at the strait gate, 15 to beware of false prophets, 21 not to be hearers only, but doers of the word : 24 like houses built on a rock, 26 and not on the sand.

JUDGE <sup>a</sup> not, that ye be not judged.

2 For with what judgement ye judge, ye shall be judged : <sup>b</sup> and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again.

3 <sup>c</sup> And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye ?

4 Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, Let me pull out the mote out of thine eye ; and behold, a beam is in thine own eye ?

5 Thou hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of thine own eye ; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye.

6 <sup>a</sup> Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you.

7 <sup>a</sup> Ask, and it shall be given you ; seek, and ye shall find ; knock, and it shall be opened unto you :

8 For <sup>a</sup> every one that asketh receiveth ; and he that seeketh findeth ; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

9 <sup>a</sup> Or what man is there of you, whom if his son ask bread, will he give him a stone ?

10 Or if he ask a fish, will he give him a serpent ?

11 If ye then <sup>b</sup> being evil know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask him ?

12 Therefore all things <sup>a</sup> whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them : for <sup>b</sup> this is the law and the prophets.

13 <sup>a</sup> Enter ye in at the strait gate : for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat :

14 <sup>a</sup> Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it.

15 <sup>a</sup> Beware of false prophets, <sup>a</sup> which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are <sup>a</sup> ravening wolves.

17 Even so <sup>a</sup> every good tree bringeth forth good fruit ; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit.

18 A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.

19 Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down and cast into the fire.

20 Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them.

21 ¶ Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

22 Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works?

23 And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.

24 ¶ Therefore, whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock:

25 And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not: for it was founded upon a rock.

26 And every one that heareth these saying of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, which built his house upon the sand:

27 And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell, and great was the fall of it.

28 And it came to pass when Jesus had ended these sayings, the people were astonished at his doctrine:

29 For he taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes.

CHAP. VIII.

2 Christ cleanseth the leper, 5 healeth the centurion's servant, 14 Peter's mother-in-law, 16 and many other diseased, 18 sheweth how he is to be followed: 23 stilleth the tempest on the sea, 28 driveth the devils out of two men possessed, 31 and suffereth them to go into the swine.

WHEN he was come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him.

2 And behold, there came a leper and worshipped him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

3 And Jesus put forth his hand and touched him, saying, I will; be thou clean. And immediately his leprosy was cleansed.

4 And Jesus saith unto him, See thou tell no man; but go thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer the gift that

Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

5 ¶ And when Jesus was entered into Capernaum, there came unto him a centurion, beseeching him,

6 And saying, Lord, my servant lieth at home sick of the palsy, grievously tormented.

7 And Jesus saith unto him, I will come and heal him.

8 The centurion answered and said, Lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldest come under my roof: but speak the word only, and my servant shall be healed.

9 For I am a man under authority, having soldiers under me: and I say to this man, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it.

10 When Jesus heard it, he marvelled, and said to them that followed, Verily I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no not in Israel.

11 And I say unto you, That many shall come from the east and west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven.

12 But the children of the kingdom shall be cast out into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

13 And Jesus said unto the centurion, Go thy way; and as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee. And his servant was healed in the self-same hour.

14 ¶ And when Jesus was come into Peter's house, he saw his wife's mother laid, and sick of a fever.

15 And he touched her hand, and the fever left her: and she arose and ministered unto them.

16 ¶ When the even was come, they brought unto him many that were possessed with devils: and he cast out the spirits with his word, and healed all that were sick:

17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying, Himself took our infirmities, and bare our sicknesses.

18 ¶ Now when Jesus saw great multitudes about him, he gave commandment to depart unto the other side.

19 And a certain scribe came, and said unto him, Master, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

20 And Jesus saith unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.

him, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father.

22 But Jesus said unto him, Follow me; and let the dead bury their dead.

23 ¶ And when he was entered into a ship, his disciples followed him.

24 ¶ And behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, inasmuch that the ship was covered with the waves: but he was asleep.

25 And his disciples came to him, and awoke him, saying, Lord, save us: we perish.

26 And he saith unto them, Why are ye fearful, O ye of little faith? Then he arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm.

27 But the men marvelled, saying, What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him!

28 ¶ And when he was come to the other side, into the country of the Gergesenes, there met him two possessed with devils, coming out of the tombs; exceeding fierce, so that no man might pass by that way.

29 And behold, they cried out, saying, What have we to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of God? art thou come hither to torment us before the time?

30 And there was a good way off from them an herd of many swine, feeding.

31 So the devils besought him, saying, If thou cast us out, suffer us to go away into the herd of swine.

32 And he said unto them, Go. And when they were come out, they went into the herd of swine: and behold, the whole herd of swine ran violently down a steep place into the sea, and perished in the waters.

33 And they that kept them fled, and went their ways into the city, and told every thing; and what was befallen to the possessed of the devils.

34 And behold, the whole city came out to meet Jesus: and when they saw him, they besought him that he would depart out of their coasts.

CHAP. IX.

2 Christ curing one sick of the palsy, 9 calleth Matthew from the receipt of custom, 10 eateth with publicans and sinners, 14 defendeth his disciples for not fasting, 20 cureth the bloody issue, 23 raiseth from death Jairus' daughter, 27 giveth sight to two blind men, 32 healeth a dumb man possessed of a devil, 36 and hath compassion on the multitude.

AND he entered into a ship, and passed over, and came into his own city.

2 ¶ And behold, they brought to him a man sick of the palsy, lying on a bed: and Jesus seeing their faith, said unto the sick of the palsy; Son, be of good cheer; thy sins be forgiven thee.

3 And behold, certain of the scribes said within themselves, This man blasphemeth.

4 And Jesus, knowing their thoughts, said, Wherefore think ye evil in your hearts?

5 For whether is easier? to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Arise and walk?

6 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (then saith he to the sick of the palsy,) Arise, take up thy bed, and go unto thine house.

7 And he arose, and departed to his house.

8 But when the multitude saw it, they marvelled, and glorified God, which had given such power unto men.

9 ¶ And as Jesus passed forth from thence, he saw a man named Matthew, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he saith unto him, Follow me. And he arose, and followed him.

10 ¶ And it came to pass, as Jesus sat at meat in the house, behold, many publicans and sinners came and sat down with him and his disciples.

11 And when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto his disciples, Why eateth your Master with publicans and sinners?

12 But when Jesus heard that, he said unto them, They that be whole need not a physician, but they that are sick.

13 But go ye and learn what that meaneth, I will have mercy, and not sacrifice: for I am not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

14 ¶ Then came to him the disciples of John, saying, Why do we and the Pharisees fast oft, but thy disciples fast not?

15 And Jesus said unto them, Can the children of the bride-chamber mourn, as long as the bridegroom is with them? but the days will come when the bridegroom shall be taken from them, and then shall they fast.

16 No man putteth a piece of new cloth upon an old garment; for that which is put in to fill it up taketh from the garment, and the rent is made worse.

17 Neither do men put new wine into old bottles: else the bottles break, and the wine runneth out, and the bottles perish: but they put new wine into new bottles, and both are preserved.

18 ¶ While he spake these things unto them, behold, there came a certain ruler and worshipped him, saying, My daughter

20 ¶ (m And behold, a woman which was diseased with an issue of blood twelve years, came behind him, and touched the hem of his garment:

21 For she said within herself, If I may but touch his garment, I shall be whole.

22 But Jesus turned him about, and when he saw her, he said, Daughter be of good comfort; n thy faith hath made thee whole. And the woman was made whole from that hour.)

24 He said unto them, q Give place: for the maid is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed him to scorn.

25 But when the people were put forth, he went in, and took her by the hand, and the maid arose.

26 And || the fame hereof went abroad into all that land.

27 ¶ And when Jesus departed thence, two blind men followed him, crying, and saying, Thou son of David, have mercy on us.

28 And when he was come into the house, the blind men came to him: and Jesus faith unto them, Believe ye that I am able to do this? They said unto him, Yea, Lord.

29 Then touched he their eyes, saying, According to your faith, be it unto you.

30 And their eyes were opened; and Jesus straightly charged them, saying, r See that no man know it.

31 s But they, when they were departed, spread abroad his fame in all that country.

32 ¶ t As they went out, behold, they brought unto him a dumb man possessed with a devil.

34 But the Pharisees said, u He casteth out devils through the prince of the devils.

35 * And Jesus went about all the cities and villages, v teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness, and every disease among the people.

36 ¶ w But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion on them, because they || fainted, and were scattered abroad, x as sheep having no shepherd.

1 Christ sendeth out his twelve apostles, enabling them with power to do miracles, 5 giveth them their charge, teacheth them, 16 comforteth them against persecutions, 40 and promiseth a blessing to those that receive them.

2 Now the names of the twelve apostles are these; The first, Simon, b who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother; James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother;

3 Philip, and Bartholomew; Thomas, and Matthew the publican; James the son of Alphaeus, and Lebbeus, whose surname was Thaddeus;

4 c Simon the Canaanite, and Judas d Iscariot, who also betrayed him.

5 These twelve Jesus sent forth, and commanded them, saying, e Go not into the way of the Gentiles, and into any city of f the Samaritans enter ye not:

6 s But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.

7 h And as ye go, preach, saying, i The kingdom of heaven is at hand.

8 Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils: k freely ye have received, freely give.

9 l || Provide neither gold, nor silver, nor m brags in your purses;

10 Nor scrip for your journey, neither two coats, neither shoes, nor yet n staves. (¶ For the workman is worthy of his meat.)

11 ° And into whatsoever city or town ye shall enter, enquire who in it is worthy; and there abide till ye go thence.

12 And when ye come into an house, salute it.

13 p And if the house be worthy, let your peace come upon it: q but if it be not worthy, let your peace return to you.

14 r And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear your words, when ye depart out of that house, or city, s shake off the dust of your feet.

15 Verily I say unto you, t It shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrha, in the day of judgement, than for that city.

 17 But beware of men: for <sup>z</sup> they will deliver you up to the councils, and <sup>a</sup> they will scourge you in their synagogues.
 18 And <sup>b</sup> ye shall be brought before governors and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them and the Gentiles.
 19 <sup>c</sup> But when they deliver you up, take no thought how or what ye shall speak: for <sup>d</sup> it shall be given you in that same hour what ye shall speak.
 20 <sup>e</sup> For it is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Father which speaketh in you.
 21 <sup>f</sup> And the brother shall deliver up the brother to death, and the father the child: and the children shall rise up against their parents; and cause them to be put to death.
 22 And <sup>g</sup> ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: <sup>h</sup> but he that endureth to the end, shall be saved.
 23 But <sup>i</sup> when they persecute you in this city, flee ye into another: for verily I say unto you, Ye shall not <sup>j</sup> have gone over the cities of Israel, <sup>k</sup> till the Son of man be come.
 24 <sup>l</sup> The disciple is not above his master, nor the servant above his lord.
 25 It is enough for the disciple that he be as his master, and the servant as his lord. If <sup>m</sup> they have called the master of the house <sup>n</sup> Beelzebub, how much more shall they call them of his household?
 26 Fear them not therefore: <sup>a</sup> for there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known.
 27 What I tell you in darkness, that speak ye in light: and what ye hear in the ear, that preach ye upon the house-tops.
 28 <sup>o</sup> And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.
 29 Are not two sparrows sold for a <sup>p</sup> farthing? and one of them shall not fall on the ground without your Father.
 30 <sup>q</sup> But the very hairs of your head are all numbered.
 31 Fear ye not therefore, ye are of more value than many sparrows.
 32 <sup>r</sup> Whosoever therefore shall confess me before men, <sup>s</sup> him will I confess also before my Father which is in heaven.
 33 <sup>t</sup> But whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven.
 34 <sup>u</sup> Think not that I am come to send peace on earth: I came not to send peace, but a sword.
 35 For I am come to set a man at variance <sup>v</sup> against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law.

 36 And <sup>x</sup> a man's foes shall be they of his own household.
 37 <sup>y</sup> He that loveth father or mother more than me, is not worthy of me: and he that loveth son or daughter more than me, is not worthy of me.
 38 <sup>z</sup> And he that taketh not his cross, and followeth after me, is not worthy of me.
 39 <sup>a</sup> He that findeth his life, shall lose it: and he that loseth his life for my sake, shall find it.
 40 <sup>b</sup> He that receiveth you receiveth me, and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me.
 41 <sup>c</sup> He that receiveth a prophet in the name of a prophet, shall receive a prophet's reward; and he that receiveth a righteous man, in the name of a righteous man, shall receive a righteous man's reward.
 42 <sup>d</sup> And whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones, a cup of cold water only, in the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you, He shall in no wise lose his reward.

CHAP. XI.

2 John sendeth his disciples to Christ. 7 Christ's testimony concerning John. 18 The opinion of the people, both concerning John and Christ. 20 Christ upbraideth the unthankfulness, and repentance of Chorazin, Bethsaida, and Capernaum: 25 and praising his Father's wisdom in revealing the gospel to the simple, 28 he calleth to him all such as feel the burden of their sins.

AND it came to pass, when Jesus had made an end of commanding his twelve disciples, he departed thence to teach and to preach in their cities.

2 <sup>a</sup> Now when John had heard in the prison the works of Christ, he sent two of his disciples,

3 And said unto him, Art thou he that should come, or do we look for another?

4 Jesus answered and said unto them, Go and shew John again those things which ye do hear and see:

5 <sup>b</sup> The blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and <sup>c</sup> the poor have the gospel preached to them.

6 And blessed is he whosoever shall not <sup>d</sup> be offended in me.

7 <sup>e</sup> And as they departed, Jesus began to say unto the multitudes concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness to see? <sup>f</sup> A reed shaken with the wind?

8 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? behold, they

8 Luké 7. 26. 10 For this is he of whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

11 Verily, I say unto you, among them that are born of women, there hath not risen a greater than John the Baptist: notwithstanding, he that is least in the kingdom of heaven, is greater than he.

12 And from the days of John the Baptist, until now, the kingdom of heaven suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force.

13 For all the prophets, and the law, prophesied until John.

14 And if ye will receive it, this is Elias, which was for to come.

15 He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

16 But whereunto shall I liken this generation? It is like unto children sitting in the markets, and calling unto their fellows, 17 And saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned unto you, and ye have not lamented.

18 For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, He hath a devil:

19 The Son of man came eating and drinking, and they say, Behold, a man gluttonous, and a wine-bibber, a friend of publicans and sinners. But wisdom is justified of her children.

20 Then began he to upbraid the cities wherein most of his mighty works were done, because they repented not:

21 Woe unto thee, Chorazin! woe unto thee, Bethsaida! for if the mighty works which were done in you, had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes.

22 But I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgement than for you.

23 And thou, Capernaum, which art exalted unto heaven, shalt be brought down to hell: for if the mighty works which have been done in thee, had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day.

24 But I say unto you, That it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom, in the day of judgement, than for thee.

25 At that time Jesus answered and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes.

26 Even so, Father: for so it seemed good in thy sight.

27 All things are delivered unto me of my Father: and no man knoweth the Son but the Father; neither knoweth any man the Father, save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son will reveal him.

28 Come unto me, all ye that labour, and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

29 Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls.

30 For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

CHAP. XII.

1 Christ reproveth the blindness of the Pharisees concerning the breach of the sabbath, 3. by scriptures, 10 by reason, 13 and by a miracle: 22 he healeth the man possessed that was blind and dumb. 31 Blasphemy against the Holy Ghost shall never be forgiven. 36 Account shall be made of idle words: 38 he rebuketh the unfaithful who seek after a sign, 49 and sheweth who is his brother, sister, and mother.

AT that time Jesus went on the sabbath-day through the corn; and his disciples were an-hungred, and began to break the ears of corn, and to eat.

2 But when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto him, Behold, thy disciples do that which is not lawful to do upon the sabbath-day.

3 But he said unto them, Have ye not read what David did when he was an-hungred, and they that were with him,

4 How he entered into the house of God, and did eat the shew-bread, which it was not lawful for him to eat, neither for them which were with him, but only for the priests?

5 Or have ye not read in the law, how that on the sabbath-days the priests in the temple profane the sabbath, and are blameless?

6 But I say unto you, That in this place is one greater than the temple.

7 But if ye had known what this meaneth, I will have mercy, and not sacrifice, ye would not have condemned the guiltless.

8 For the Son of man is Lord even of the sabbath-day.

9 And when he was departed thence, he went into their synagogue:

10 And behold, there was a man which had his hand withered. And they asked him, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath-days? that they might accuse him.

11 And he said unto them, What man shall there be among you, that shall have one sheep, and <sup>k</sup> if it fall into a pit on the sabbath-day, will he not lay hold on it, and lift it out?

12 How much then is a man better than a sheep? Wherefore it is lawful to do well on the sabbath-days.

13 Then saith he to the man, Stretch forth thine hand: and he stretched it forth; and it was restored whole, like as the other.

14 ¶ Then <sup>l</sup> the Pharisees went out, and <sup>m</sup> held a council against him, how they might destroy him.

15 But when Jesus knew it, <sup>n</sup> he withdrew himself from thence: <sup>o</sup> and great multitudes followed him, and he healed them all,

16 And <sup>p</sup> charged them that they should not make him known:

17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying,

18 ¶ Behold, my servant, whom I have chosen; my beloved, <sup>q</sup> in whom my soul is well pleased: I will put my spirit upon him, and he shall shew judgement to the Gentiles.

19 He shall not strive, nor cry; neither shall any man hear his voice in the streets.

20 A bruised reed shall he not break, and smoking flax shall he not quench, till he send forth judgement unto victory.

21 And in his name shall the Gentiles trust.

22 ¶ Then was brought unto him one possessed with a devil, blind and dumb: and he healed him, inasmuch that the blind and dumb both spake and saw.

23 And all the people were amazed, and said, Is not this the son of David?

24 ¶ But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, This fellow doth not cast out devils, but by Beelzebub the prince of the devils.

25 And Jesus knew their thoughts, and said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself, is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself, shall not stand:

26 And if Satan cast out Satan, he is divided against himself; how shall then his kingdom stand?

27 And if I by † Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your children cast them out? therefore they shall be your judges.

28 But if I cast out devils by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God is come unto you.

29 ¶ Or else how can one enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man? and then he will spoil his house.

30 He that is not with me, is against me; and he that gathereth not with me, scattereth abroad.

31 Wherefore I say unto you, <sup>u</sup> All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men: <sup>v</sup> but the blasphemy against the Holy Ghost shall not be forgiven unto men.

32 And whosoever speaketh a word against the Son of man, <sup>y</sup> it shall be forgiven him: but whosoever speaketh against the Holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, neither in the world to come.

33 Either make the tree good, and <sup>z</sup> his fruit good; or else make the tree corrupt, and his fruit corrupt: for the tree is known by his fruit.

34 O <sup>a</sup> generation of vipers, how can ye, being evil, speak good things? <sup>b</sup> for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh.

35 A good man out of the good treasure of the heart, bringeth forth good things: and an evil man out of the evil treasure, bringeth forth evil things.

36 But I say unto you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgement.

37 For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned.

38 ¶ Then certain of the scribes and of the Pharisees, answered, saying, Master, we would see a sign from thee.

39 But he answered and said unto them, An evil and <sup>d</sup> adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given to it, but the sign of the prophet Jonas:

40 ¶ For as Jonas was three days and three nights in the whale's belly: so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.

42 ¶ The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgement with this generation, and shall condemn it: for she came from the uttermost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and behold, a greater than Solomon is here.

43 ¶ When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, <sup>h</sup> he walketh through dry places, seeking rest, and findeth none.

<sup>m</sup> and the last state of that man is worse than the first. Even so shall it be also unto this wicked generation.

46 ¶ While he yet talked to the people, <sup>n</sup> behold, <sup>his</sup> mother and <sup>o</sup> his brethren stood without, desiring to speak with him.

47 Then one said unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to speak with thee.

CHAP. XIII.

3 The parable of the sower and the seed: 18 The exposition of it. 24 The parable of the tares, 31 of the mustard-seed, 33 of the leaven, 44 of the hidden treasure, 45 of the pearl, 47 of the draw-net cast into the sea: 53 and how Christ is contemned of his own countrymen.

THE same day went Jesus out of the house, <sup>a</sup> and sat by the sea-side.

2 <sup>b</sup> And great multitudes were gathered together unto him, so that <sup>c</sup> he went into a ship, and sat; and the whole multitude stood on the shore.

3 And he spake many things unto them in parables, saying, <sup>d</sup> Behold, a sower went forth to sow;

4 And when he sowed, some seeds fell by the way-side, and the fowls came and devoured them up:

5 Some fell upon stony places, where they had not much earth: and forthwith they sprung up, because they had no deepness of earth:

6 And when the sun was up, they were scorched; and because they had no root, they withered away.

7 And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprung up, and choked them:

8 But other fell into good ground, and brought forth fruit, some an hundred-fold, some sixty-fold, some thirty-fold.

9 <sup>e</sup> Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

10 And the disciples came, and said unto him, Why speakest thou unto them in parables?

11 He answered and said unto them, Because <sup>f</sup> it is given unto you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given.

12 <sup>g</sup> For whosoever hath, to him shall be given, and he shall have more abundance: but whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away, even that he hath.

13 Therefore speak I to them in parables: because they seeing, see not; and hearing, they hear not, neither do they understand.

14 And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Esaias, which saith, <sup>h</sup> By hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and shall not perceive:

15 For this people's heart is waxed gross, and <sup>i</sup> their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed; lest at any time they should see with <sup>their</sup> eyes, and hear with <sup>their</sup> ears, and should understand with <sup>their</sup> heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.

16 But <sup>k</sup> blessed are your eyes; for they see: and your ears; for they hear.

17 For verily I say unto you, <sup>l</sup> That many prophets and righteous men have desired to see <sup>those things</sup> which ye see; and have not seen <sup>them</sup>; and to hear <sup>those things</sup> which ye hear, and have not heard <sup>them</sup>.

18 ¶ <sup>m</sup> Hear ye therefore the parable of the sower.

19 When any one heareth the word <sup>n</sup> of the kingdom, and understandeth it not, then cometh the wicked one, and catcheth away that which was sown in his heart. This is he which received seed by the way-side.

20 But he that received the seed into stony places, the same is he that heareth the word, and anon <sup>o</sup> with joy receiveth it;

21 Yet hath he not root in himself, but dureth for a while: for when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, by and by <sup>p</sup> he is offended.

22 <sup>q</sup> He also that received seed <sup>r</sup> among the thorns, is he that heareth the word; and the care of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, choke the word, and he becometh unfruitful.

23 But he that received seed into the good ground, is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it; which also beareth fruit, and bringeth forth some an hundred-fold, some sixty, some thirty.

24 ¶ Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man which sowed good seed in his field.

25 But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way.

26 But when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also.

27 So the servants of the householder came and said unto him, Sir, didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares?

28 He said unto them, An enemy hath done this. The servants said unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up?

29 But he said, Nay; lest while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them.

30 Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but <sup>a</sup> gather the wheat into my barn.

31 ¶ Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, <sup>t</sup> The kingdom of heaven is like to a grain of mustard-seed, which a man took and sowed in his field:

32 Which indeed is the least of all seeds: but when it is grown, it is the greatest among herbs, and becometh a tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in the branches thereof.

33 ¶ <sup>u</sup> Another parable spake he unto them; The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took and hid in three † measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

34 <sup>x</sup> All these things spake Jesus unto the multitude in parables; and without a parable spake he not unto them:

35 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, <sup>v</sup> I will open my mouth in parables; I will utter things which have been kept secret from the foundation of the world.

36 Then Jesus sent the multitude away, and went into the house: and his disciples came unto him, saying, Declare unto us the parable of the tares of the field.

37 He answered and said unto them, He that soweth the good seed, is the Son of man;

38 The field is the world; the good seed are the children of the kingdom; but the tares are <sup>z</sup> the children of the wicked one;

39 The enemy that sowed them, is the devil; <sup>a</sup> the harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels.

40 As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the fire; so shall it be in the end of this world.

43 <sup>c</sup> Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun, in the kingdom of their Father.

44 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto treasure hid in a field; the which when a man hath found, he hideth, and for joy thereof goeth and <sup>e</sup> selleth all that he hath, and <sup>f</sup> buyeth that field.

45 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchant-man, seeking goodly pearls:

47 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a net that was cast into the sea, and <sup>g</sup> gathered of every kind:

3 ¶ b For Herod had laid hold on John, and bound him, and put him in prison for Herodias' sake, his brother Philip's wife.

4 For John said unto him, c It is not lawful for thee to have her.

5 And when he would have put him to death, he feared the multitude, d because they counted him as a prophet.

6 But when Herod's birth-day was kept, the daughter of Herodias danced † before them, and pleased Herod.

7 Whereupon he promised with an oath, to give her whatsoever she would ask.

8 And she, being before instructed of her mother, said, Give me here John Baptist's head in a charger.

9 And the king was sorry: nevertheless, for the oath's sake, and them which sat with him at meat, he commanded it to be given her.

10 And he sent, and beheaded John in the prison.

11 And his head was brought in a charger, and given to the damsel: and she brought it to her mother.

12 And his disciples came, and took up the body, and buried it, and went and told Jesus.

not depart; give ye them to eat.

17 And they say unto him, We have here but five loaves, and two fishes.

18 He said, Bring them hither to me.

20 And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the fragments that remained twelve baskets full.

21 And they that had eaten were about five thousand men, besides women and children.

27 But straightway Jesus spake unto them, saying, Be of good cheer; it is I; be not afraid.

28 And Peter answered him and said, Lord, if it be thou, bid me come unto thee on the water.

29 And he said, Come. And when Peter was come down out of the ship, he walked on the water, to go to Jesus.

30 But when he saw the wind || boisterous, he was afraid; and beginning to sink, he cried, saying, Lord, save me. || Or, strong.

CHAP. XV.

1 Christ reproveth the scribes and Pharisees for transgressing God's commandments through their own traditions; 11 teacheth how that which goeth into the mouth doth not defile a man: 21 he healeth the daughter of the woman of Canaan, 30 and other great multitudes: 32 and with seven loaves, and a few little fishes, feedeth four thousand men, besides women and children.

THEN came to Jesus scribes and Pharisees, which were of Jerusalem, saying,

2 Why do thy disciples transgress the tradition of the elders? for they wash not their hands when they eat bread.

3 But he answered and said unto them, Why do ye also transgress the commandment of God by your tradition?

4 For God commanded, saying, Honour thy father and mother: and, He that curseth father or mother, let him die the death.

5 But ye say, Whosoever shall say to his father or his mother, It is a gift by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me,

6 And honour not his father or his mother, he shall be free. Thus have ye made the commandment of God of none effect by your tradition.

7 Ye hypocrites, well did Esaias prophesy of you, saying,

8 This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me.

9 But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.

10 And he called the multitude, and said unto them, Hear, and understand:

11 Not that which goeth into the mouth defileth a man; but that which cometh out of the mouth, this defileth a man.

12 Then came his disciples, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the Pharisees were offended after they heard this saying?

13 But he answered and said, Every plant which my heavenly Father hath not planted, shall be rooted up.

14 Let them alone: they be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch.

15 Then answered Peter and said unto him, Declare unto us this parable.

16 And Jesus said, Are ye also yet without understanding?

17 Do not ye yet understand, that whatsoever entereth in at the mouth, goeth into the belly, and is cast out into the draught?

18 But those things which proceed out of the mouth, come forth from the heart, and they defile the man:

19 For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies.

20 These are the things which defile a man: but to eat with unwashen hands defileth not a man.

21 Then Jesus went thence, and departed into the coasts of Tyre and Sidon.

22 And behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same coasts, and cried unto him, saying, Have mercy on me, O Lord, thou son of David; my daughter is grievously vexed with a devil.

23 But he answered her not a word. And his disciples came and besought him, saying, Send her away; for she crieth after us.

24 But he answered and said, I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel.

25 Then came she, and worshipped him, saying, Lord, help me.

26 But he answered and said, It is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it to the dogs.

27 And she said, Truth, Lord: yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their masters table.

28 Then Jesus answered and said unto her, O woman, great is thy faith: be it unto thee even as thou wilt. And her daughter was made whole from that very hour.

29 And Jesus departed from thence, and came nigh unto the sea of Galilee; and went up into a mountain, and sat down there.

30 And great multitudes came unto him, having with them those that were lame, blind, dumb, maimed, and many others, and cast them down at Jesus' feet; and he healed them:

31 Insomuch that the multitude wondered when they saw the dumb to speak, the maimed to be whole, the lame to walk, and the blind to see: and they glorified the God of Israel.

32 Then Jesus called his disciples unto him, and said, I have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days, and have nothing to eat: and I will not send them away fasting, lest they faint in the way.

33 And his disciples say unto him, Whence should we have so much bread in the wilderness, as to fill so great a multitude?

34 And Jesus saith unto them, How ma-

CHAP. XVI.

1 The Pharisees require a sign. 6 Jesus warneth his disciples of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees. 13 The people's opinion of Christ, 16 and Peter's confession of him. 21 Jesus foresheweth his death, 23 reproveth Peter for dissuading him from it: 24 and admonisheth those that will follow him, to bear the cross.

2 He answered and said unto them, When it is evening, ye say, It will be fair weather: for the sky is red.

3 And in the morning, It will be foul weather to-day: for the sky is red and lowring. O ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the sky; but can ye not discern the signs of the times?

4 <sup>b</sup> A wicked and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given unto it, but the sign of the prophet Jonas. And he left them, and departed.

5 ¶ And <sup>c</sup> when his disciples were come to the other side, they had forgotten to take bread.

6 Then Jesus said unto them, <sup>d</sup> Take heed and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the Sadducees.

7 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have taken no bread.

8 Which when Jesus perceived, he said unto them, O ye of little faith, why reason ye among yourselves, because ye have brought no bread?

9 <sup>e</sup> Do ye not yet understand, neither remember the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many baskets ye took up?

10 <sup>f</sup> Neither the seven loaves of the four thousand, and how many baskets ye took up?

11 How is it that ye do not understand, that I spake it not to you concerning bread, that ye should beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the Sadducees?

12 Then understood they how that he bade them not beware of the leaven of bread, but of the doctrine of the Pharisees, and of the Sadducees.

13 ¶ When Jesus came into the coasts of Cesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, <sup>e</sup> Whom do men say that I, the Son of man, am?

14 And they said, <sup>b</sup> Some say that thou art John the Baptist; some, Elias; and others, Jeremias, or one of the prophets.

15 He saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am?

16 And Simon Peter answered and said, <sup>i</sup> Thou art the Christ the Son of the living God.

17 And Jesus answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Simon Bar-jona: <sup>k</sup> for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but <sup>l</sup> my Father which is in heaven.

18 And I say also unto thee, That <sup>m</sup> thou art Peter, and <sup>n</sup> upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.

19 <sup>o</sup> And I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth, shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth, shall be loosed in heaven.

20 <sup>p</sup> Then charged he his disciples that they should tell no man that he was Jesus the Christ.

21 ¶ From that time forth began Jesus <sup>q</sup> to shew unto his disciples, how that he must go unto Jerusalem, and suffer many things of the elders, and chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and be raised again the third day.

22 Then Peter took him, and began to rebuke him, saying, <sup>r</sup> Be it far from thee, LORD: this shall not be unto thee.

23 But he turned, and said unto Peter, Get thee behind me, <sup>s</sup> Satan: thou art an offence unto me: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but those that be of men.

24 ¶ <sup>t</sup> Then said Jesus unto his disciples, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

25 For <sup>u</sup> whosoever will save his life, shall lose it: and whosoever will lose his life for my sake, shall find it.

26 For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? or <sup>v</sup> what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

CHAP. XVII.

1 The transfiguration of Christ: 14 he healeth the lunatick, 22 foretelleth his own passion, 24 and payeth tribute.

AND <sup>a</sup> after six days, Jesus taketh Peter, James, and John his brother, and bringeth them up into an high mountain apart,

2 And was transfigured before them: and his face did shine as the sun, and his raiment was white as the light.

3 And behold, there appeared unto them Moses and Elias talking with him.

4 Then answered Peter, and said unto Jesus, Lord, it is good for us to be here: if thou wilt, let us make here three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.

5 <sup>b</sup> While he yet spake, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them: and behold, a voice out of the cloud, which said, <sup>c</sup> This is my beloved Son, <sup>d</sup> in whom I am well pleased; <sup>e</sup> hear ye him.

6 <sup>f</sup> And when the disciples heard it, they fell on their face, and were sore afraid.

7 And Jesus came and <sup>g</sup> touched them, and said, Arise, and be not afraid.

8 And when they had lifted up their eyes, they saw no man, save Jesus only.

9 And as they came down from the mountain, <sup>h</sup> Jesus charged them, saying, Tell the vision to no man, until the Son of man be risen again from the dead.

10 And his disciples asked him, saying,

11 Why then say the scribes, that Elias must first come?

12 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Elias truly shall first come, and <sup>k</sup> restore all things.

13 <sup>l</sup> But I say unto you, That Elias is come already, and they knew him not, but have done unto him whatsoever they listed: likewise shall also the Son of man suffer of them.

14 <sup>m</sup> Then the disciples understood that he spake unto them of John the Baptist.

15 <sup>n</sup> And when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a certain man kneeling down to him, and saying,

16 Lord, have mercy on my son: for he is lunatick, and sore vexed: for oft-times he falleth into the fire, and oft into the water.

16 And I brought him to thy disciples, and they could not cure him.

17 Then Jesus answered and said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him hither to me.

18 And Jesus rebuked the devil; and he departed out of him: and the child was cured from that very hour.

19 Then came the disciples to Jesus apart, and said, Why could not we cast him out?

20 And Jesus said unto them, Because of your unbelief: for verily I say unto you, <sup>o</sup> If ye have faith as a grain of mustardseed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place, and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you.

21 Howbeit, this kind goeth not out, but by prayer and fasting.

22 <sup>p</sup> And while they abode in Galilee, Jesus said unto them, The Son of man shall be betrayed into the hands of men:

23 And they shall kill him, and the third day he shall be raised again: and they were exceeding sorry.

24 <sup>q</sup> And <sup>r</sup> when they were come to Capernaum, they that received <sup>s</sup> tribute-money, came to Peter, and said, Doth not your master pay tribute?

25 He saith, Yes. And when he was come into the house, Jesus prevented him, saying, What thinkest thou, Simon? of whom do the kings of the earth take custom or tribute? of their own children, or of strangers?

26 Peter saith unto him, Of strangers. Jesus saith unto him, Then are the children free.

27 Notwithstanding, lest we should offend them, go thou to the sea, and cast an hook, and take up the fish that first cometh up; and when thou hast opened his mouth, thou shalt find <sup>t</sup> a piece of money: that take, and give unto them, for me and thee.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 Christ warneth his disciples to be humble and harmless, 7. to avoid offences, and not to despise the little ones: 15 teacheth how we are to deal with our brethkren, when they offend us, 21 and how oft to forgive them; 23 which he setteth forth by a parable of the king, that took account of his servants, 32 and punished him who shewed no mercy to his fellow.

AT <sup>a</sup> the same time came the disciples unto Jesus, saying, Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?

2 And Jesus called a little child unto him, and set him in the midst of them,

 3 And said, Verily I say unto you, <sup>b</sup> Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven.

4 <sup>c</sup> Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

5 And <sup>d</sup> whoso shall receive one such little child in my name, receiveth me.

6 <sup>e</sup> But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.

7 ¶ Woe unto the world because of offences! for <sup>f</sup> it must needs be that offences come; but <sup>g</sup> woe to that man by whom the offence cometh!

8 <sup>h</sup> Wherefore, if thy hand or thy foot offend thee, cut them off, and cast them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life halt or maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into everlasting fire.

9 And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes, to be cast into hell-fire.

10 Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, That in heaven <sup>i</sup> their angels do always <sup>k</sup> behold the face of my Father which is in heaven.

11 <sup>l</sup> For the Son of man is come to save that which was lost.

12 <sup>m</sup> How think ye? if a man have an hundred sheep, and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and goeth into the mountains, and seeketh that which is gone astray?

13 And if so be that he find it, verily I say unto you, he rejoiceth more of that sheep, than of the ninety and nine which went not astray.

14 Even so it is not the will of your Father which is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish.

15 ¶ Moreover, <sup>n</sup> if thy brother shall trespass against thee, go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone: if he shall hear thee, <sup>o</sup> thou hast gained thy brother.

16 But if he will not hear thee, then take with thee one or two more, that in <sup>p</sup> the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established.

17 And if he shall neglect to hear them, tell it unto the church: but if he neglect to hear the church, let him be unto thee as an <sup>q</sup> heathen man and a publican.

18 Verily I say unto you, <sup>r</sup> Whatsoever ye shall bind on earth, shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth, shall be loosed in heaven.

19 <sup>s</sup> Again I say unto you, That if two of you shall agree on earth, as touching any thing that they shall ask, <sup>t</sup> it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven.

20 For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.

21 ¶ Then came Peter to him, and said, Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? <sup>u</sup> till seven times?

22 Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times: <sup>v</sup> but, Until seventy times seven.

23 Therefore is the kingdom of heaven likened unto a certain king, which would take account of his servants.

24 And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him which owed him ten thousand <sup>w</sup> talents.

25 But forasmuch as he had not to pay, his lord commanded him <sup>x</sup> to be sold, and his wife and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made.

26 The servant therefore fell down, and <sup>y</sup> worshipped him, saying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

27 Then the lord of that servant was moved with compassion, and loosed him, and forgave him the debt.

28 But the same servant went out, and found one of his fellow-servants, which owed him an hundred <sup>z</sup> pence: and he laid hands on him, and took him by the throat, saying, Pay me that thou owest.

29 And his fellow-servant fell down at his feet, and besought him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

30 And he would not: but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay the debt.

31 So when his fellow-servants saw what was done, they were very sorry, and came and told unto their lord all that was done.

32 Then his lord, after that he had called him, said unto him, O thou wicked servant, I forgave thee all that debt, because thou desiredst me:

33 Shouldest not thou also have had compassion on thy fellow-servant, even as I had pity on thee?

34 And his lord was wroth, and delivered him to the tormentors, till he should pay all that was due unto him.

35 <sup>a</sup> So likewise shall my heavenly Father do also unto you, if ye from your hearts

2 Christ healeth the sick; 3 answereth the Pharisees concerning divorce: 10 sheweth when marriage is necessary: 13 receiveth little children: 16 instructeth the young man how to attain eternal life, 20 and how to be perfect: 23 telleth his disciples how hard it is for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God: 27 and promiseth reward to those that forsake any thing to follow him.

ch. 22. 13.

AND it came to pass, <sup>a</sup>that when Jesus had finished these sayings, he departed from Galilee, and came into the coasts of Judea, beyond Jordan;

2 <sup>b</sup>And great multitudes followed him; and he healed them there.

3 <sup>c</sup>The Pharisees also came unto him, tempting him, and saying unto him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause?

4 And he answered and said unto them, Have ye not read, <sup>c</sup>that he which made them at the beginning, made them male and female?

5 And said, <sup>d</sup>For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: and <sup>e</sup>they twain shall be one flesh.

6 Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

7 They say unto him, <sup>f</sup>Why did Moses then command to give a writing of divorce, and to put her away?

8 He saith unto them, Moses, because of the hardness of your hearts, suffered you to put away your wives: but from the beginning it was not so.

9 <sup>g</sup>And I say unto you, Whosoever shall put away his wife, except <sup>h</sup>it be for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery: and whoso marrieth her which is put away, doth commit adultery.

10 His disciples say unto him, If the case of the man be so with <sup>i</sup>his wife, it is not good to marry.

11 But he said unto them, <sup>j</sup>All men cannot receive this saying, save <sup>k</sup>they to whom it is given.

12 For there are some eunuchs, which were so born from <sup>l</sup>their mother's womb: and there are some eunuchs, which were made eunuchs of men: and <sup>m</sup>there be eunuchs, which have made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven's sake. He that is able to receive <sup>n</sup>it, let him receive <sup>n</sup>it.

13 <sup>o</sup>Then were there brought unto him little children, that he should put his hands on them, and pray: and the disciples rebuked them.

14 But Jesus said, Suffer little children, and forbid them not to come unto me: for <sup>p</sup>of such is the kingdom of heaven.

15 And he laid his hands on them, and departed thence.

16 <sup>q</sup>And behold, one came and said unto him, <sup>r</sup>Good Master, what good thing shall I do that I may have eternal life?

17 And he said unto him, Why callest thou me good? <sup>s</sup>there is none good but one, <sup>t</sup>that is God: but if thou wilt enter into life, keep the commandments.

18 He saith unto him, Which? Jesus said, <sup>u</sup>Thou shalt do no murder, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, 19 <sup>v</sup>Honour thy father and <sup>w</sup>thy mother: and, <sup>x</sup>Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

20 The young man saith unto him, All these things have I kept from my youth up: what lack I yet?

21 Jesus said unto him, If thou wilt be perfect, <sup>y</sup>go and sell that thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come and follow me.

22 But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful: for he had great possessions.

23 Then said Jesus unto his disciples, Verily I say unto you, That <sup>z</sup>a rich man shall hardly enter into the kingdom of heaven.

24 And again I say unto you, It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

25 When his disciples heard <sup>aa</sup>it, they were exceedingly amazed, saying, Who then can be saved?

26 But Jesus beheld them, and said unto them, With men this is impossible; but <sup>ab</sup>with God all things are possible.

27 <sup>ac</sup>Then answered Peter, and said unto him, Behold, <sup>ad</sup>we have forsaken all, and followed thee; what shall we have therefore?

28 And Jesus said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That ye which have followed me in the regeneration, when the Son of man shall sit in the throne of his glory, <sup>ae</sup>ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

29 And every one that hath forsaken houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name's sake, shall receive an hundred-fold, and shall inherit eternal life.

CHAP. XX.

1 Christ, by the similitude of the labourers in the vineyard, sheweth that God is debtor unto no man ; 17 foretelleth his passion ; 20 by answering the mother of Zebedee's children, teacheth his disciples to be lowly ; 30 and giveth two blind men their sight.

FOR the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder, which went out early in the morning to hire labourers into his vineyard.

2 And when he had agreed with the labourers for a penny a day, he sent them into his vineyard.

3 And he went out about the third hour, and saw others standing idle in the marketplace,

4 And said unto them ; Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right, I will give you. And they went their way.

5 Again he went out about the sixth and ninth hour, and did likewise.

6 And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing idle, and said unto them, Why stand ye here all the day idle ?

7 They say unto him, Because no man hath hired us. He saith unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard ; and whatsoever is right, that shall ye receive.

8 So when even was come, the lord of the vineyard saith unto his steward, Call the labourers, and give them their hire, beginning from the last unto the first.

9 And when they came that were hired about the eleventh hour, they received every man a penny.

10 But when the first came, they supposed that they should have received more ; and they likewise received every man a penny.

11 And when they had received it, they murmured against the good-man of the house,

12 Saying, These last have wrought but one hour, and thou hast made them equal unto us, which have borne the burden and heat of the day.

13 But he answered one of them, and said, Friend, I do thee no wrong : didst not thou agree with me for a penny ?

14 Take that thine is, and go thy way : I will give unto this last, even as unto thee.

15 <sup>a</sup> Is it not lawful for me to do what I will with mine own ? <sup>b</sup> is thine eye evil because I am good ?

16 <sup>c</sup> So the last shall be first, and the first last : <sup>d</sup> for many be called, but few chosen.

17 <sup>e</sup> And Jesus going up to Jerusalem, took the twelve disciples apart in the way, and said unto them,

18 <sup>f</sup> Behold, we go up to Jerusalem ; and the Son of man shall be betrayed unto the chief priests, and unto the scribes, and they shall condemn him to death,

19 <sup>g</sup> And shall deliver him to the Gentiles to mock and to scourge and to crucify him : and the third day he shall rise again.

20 <sup>h</sup> Then came to him the mother of Zebedee's children, with her sons, worshipping him, and desiring a certain thing of him.

21 And he said unto her, What wilt thou ? She saith unto him, Grant that these my two sons <sup>k</sup> may sit, the one on thy right hand, and the other on the left in thy kingdom.

22 But Jesus answered and said, Ye know not what ye ask. Are ye able to drink of the cup that I shall drink of, and to be baptized with <sup>m</sup> the baptism that I am baptized with ? They say unto him, We are able.

23 And he saith unto them, Ye shall drink indeed of my cup, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with : but to sit on my right hand, and on my left, is not mine to <sup>n</sup> give, but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared of my Father.

24 <sup>o</sup> And when the ten heard it, they were moved with indignation against the two brethren.

25 But Jesus called them unto him, and said, <sup>p</sup> Ye know that the princes of the Gentiles exercise dominion over them, and they that are great, exercise authority upon them.

26 But <sup>q</sup> it shall not be so among you ; but <sup>r</sup> whosoever will be great among you, let him be your minister ;

27 <sup>s</sup> And whosoever will be chief among you, let him be your servant :

29 <sup>y</sup> And as they departed from Jericho, a great multitude followed him.

30 <sup>z</sup> And behold, two blind men sitting by the way-side, when they heard that Jesus passed by, cried out, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, thou Son of David.

31 And the multitude rebuked them, because they should hold their peace : but they cried the more, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, thou Son of David.

32 And Jesus stood still, and called them, and said, What will ye that I should do unto you ?

CHAP. XXI.

1 Christ rideth into Jerusalem upon an ass, 12 driveth the buyers and sellers out of the temple, 17 curseth the fig-tree, 23 putteth to silence the priests and elders, 28 and rebuketh them by the similitude of the two sons, 33 and the husbandmen who slew such as were sent unto them.

AND <sup>a</sup> when they drew nigh unto Jerusalem, and were come to Bethphage, unto <sup>b</sup> the mount of Olives, then sent Jesus two disciples,

2 Saying unto them, Go into the village over against you, and straightway ye shall find an ass tied, and a colt with her: loose them, and bring them unto me.

3 And if any man say ought unto you, ye shall say, The Lord hath need of them; and straightway he will send them.

4 All this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying,

5 <sup>c</sup> Tell ye the daughter of Sion, Behold, thy king cometh unto thee, meek, and sitting upon an ass, and a colt the foal of an ass.

6 <sup>d</sup> And the disciples went, and did as Jesus commanded them,

7 And brought the ass, and the colt, and <sup>e</sup> put on them their clothes, and they set him thereon.

8 And a very great multitude spread their garments in the way; <sup>f</sup> others cut down branches from the trees, and strewed them in the way.

9 And the multitudes that went before, and that followed, cried, saying, <sup>g</sup> Hosanna to the son of David: <sup>h</sup> Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord, Hosanna in the highest.

10 <sup>i</sup> And when he was come into Jerusalem, all the city was moved, saying, Who is this?

11 And the multitude said, This is Jesus the prophet <sup>k</sup> of Nazareth of Galilee.

12 <sup>l</sup> And Jesus went into the temple of God, and cast out all them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the money-changers, and the seats of them that sold doves,

13 And he said unto them, It is written,

14 My house shall be called the house of prayer; <sup>m</sup> but ye have made it a den of thieves.

14 And the blind and the lame came to him in the temple; and he healed them.

15 And when the chief priests and scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children crying in the temple, and saying, Hosanna to the son of David; they were sore displeased,

16 And said unto him, Hearest thou what these say? And Jesus saith unto them, Yea; have ye never read, <sup>n</sup> Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast perfected praise?

17 <sup>o</sup> And he left them, and went out of the city into <sup>p</sup> Bethany; and he lodged there.

18 <sup>q</sup> Now in the morning as he returned into the city, he hungered.

19 <sup>r</sup> And when he saw <sup>t</sup> a fig-tree in the way, he came to it, and found nothing thereon, but leaves only, and said unto it, Let no fruit grow on thee henceforward for ever. And presently the fig-tree withered away.

20 And when the disciples saw it, they marvelled, saying, How soon is the fig-tree withered away!

21 Jesus answered and said unto them, Verily I say unto you, <sup>s</sup> If ye have faith and <sup>t</sup> doubt not, ye shall not only do this which is done to the fig-tree, <sup>u</sup> but also if ye shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; it shall be done.

22 And <sup>x</sup> all things whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive.

23 <sup>y</sup> And when he was come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came unto him as he was teaching, and <sup>z</sup> said, By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority.

24 And Jesus answered and said unto them, I also will ask you one thing, which if ye tell me, I in like wise will tell you by what authority I do these things.

25 The baptism of John, whence was it? from heaven, or of men? And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say unto us, Why did ye not then believe him?

26 But if we shall say, Of men; we fear the people; <sup>a</sup> for all hold John as a prophet.

27 And they answered Jesus, and said, We cannot tell. And he said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

28 <sup>b</sup> But what think ye? A certain man had two sons; and he came to the first, and said, Son, go work to-day in my vineyard.

29 He answered and said, I will not; but afterward he repented, and went.

 31 Whether of them twain did the will of his father? They say unto him, The first. Jesus saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, That the publicans and the harlots go into the kingdom of God before you.

32 For <sup>d</sup> John came unto you in the way of righteousness, and ye believed him not: <sup>e</sup> but the publicans and the harlots believed him. And ye, when ye had seen it, repented not afterward, that ye might believe him.

33 ¶ Hear another parable: There was a certain householder <sup>f</sup> which planted a vineyard, and hedged it round about, and digged a wine-press in it, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and <sup>g</sup> went into a far country:

34 And when the time of the fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the husbandmen, <sup>h</sup> that they might receive the fruits of it.

35 And the husbandmen took his servants, and beat one, and killed another, and stoned another.

36 Again, he sent other servants, more than the first: and they did unto them likewise.

37 But last of all, he sent unto them his son, saying, They will reverence my son.

38 But when the husbandmen saw the son, they said among themselves, <sup>i</sup> This is the heir; <sup>k</sup> come let us kill him, and let us seize on his inheritance.

39 And they caught him, and cast him out of the vineyard, and slew him.

40 When the lord therefore of the vineyard cometh, what will he do unto those husbandmen?

41 <sup>l</sup> They say unto him, He will miserably destroy those wicked men, and will let out his vineyard unto other husbandmen, which shall render him the fruits in their seasons.

42 Jesus saith unto them, <sup>m</sup> Did ye never read in the scriptures, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner: this is the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes?

43 Therefore say I unto you, <sup>n</sup> The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof.

44 And whosoever <sup>o</sup> shall fall on this stone, shall be broken: but on whomsoever it shall fall, <sup>p</sup> it will grind him to powder.

45 And when the chief priests and Pharisees had heard his parables, they perceived that he spake of them.

46 But when they sought to lay hands on him, they feared the multitude, because <sup>q</sup> they took him for a prophet.

CHAP. XXII.

1 The parable of the marriage of the king's son.
 9 The vocation of the Gentiles. 12 The punishment of him that wanted the wedding-garment.
 15 Tribute ought to be paid to Cesar. 23 Christ confuteth the Sadducees about the resurrection, 34 answereth the lawyer which is the first and great commandment, 41 and poseth the Pharisees about the Messias.

AND Jesus answered, <sup>a</sup> and spake unto them again by parables, and said,

2 The kingdom of heaven is like unto a certain king, which made a marriage for his son;

3 And sent forth his servants to call them that were bidden to the wedding: and they would not come.

4 Again he sent forth other servants, saying, Tell them which are bidden, Behold, I have prepared my dinner: <sup>b</sup> my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come unto the marriage.

5 But they made light of it, and went their ways, one to his farm, another to his merchandise:

6 And the remnant took his servants, and entreated them spitefully, and slew them.

7 But when the king heard thereof, he was wroth: and he sent forth <sup>c</sup> his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burned up their city.

8 Then saith he to his servants, The wedding is ready, but they which were bidden were not worthy.

9 Go ye therefore into the highways, and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage.

10 So those servants went out into the high-ways, and <sup>d</sup> gathered together all as many as they found, both bad and good: and the wedding was furnished with guests.

11 ¶ And when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man <sup>e</sup> which had not on a wedding-garment:

12 And he saith unto him, Friend, how camest thou in hither, not having a wedding-garment? And he was speechless.

13 Then said the king to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast him <sup>f</sup> into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

14 ¶ For many are called, but few are chosen.

15 ¶ <sup>h</sup> Then went the Pharisees, and took counsel how they might entangle him in his talk.

16 And they sent out unto him their disciples, with the Herodians, saying, Master, we know that thou art true, and teachest the way of God in truth, neither carest thou for any man: for thou regardest not the person of men.

17 Tell us therefore, What thinkest thou? Is it lawful to give tribute unto Cesar, or not?

18 But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said, Why tempt ye me, ye hypocrites?

19 Shew me the tribute-money. And they brought unto him a penny.

20 And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription?

21 They say unto him, Cesar's. Then saith he unto them, Render therefore unto Cesar, the things which are Cesar's; and unto God, the things that are God's.

22 When they had heard these words, they marvelled, and left him, and went their way.

23 ¶ The same day came to him the Sadducees, which say that there is no resurrection, and asked him,

24 Saying, Master, Moses said, If a man die, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

25 Now there were with us seven brethren: and the first, when he had married a wife, deceased; and having no issue, left his wife unto his brother:

26 Likewise the second also, and the third, unto the seventh.

27 And last of all the woman died also.

28 Therefore in the resurrection, whose wife shall she be of the seven? for they all had her.

29 Jesus answered and said unto them, Ye do err, not knowing the scriptures, nor the power of God.

30 For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as the angels of God in heaven.

31 But as touching the resurrection of the dead, have ye not read that which was spoken unto you by God, saying,

32 I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living.

33 And when the multitude heard this, they were astonished at his doctrine.

34 ¶ But when the Pharisees had heard that he had put the Sadducees to silence, they were gathered together.

35 Then one of them which was a lawyer, asked him a question, tempting him, and saying,

36 Master, which is the great commandment in the law?

37 Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.

38 This is the first and great commandment.

39 And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

40 On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

41 ¶ While the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them, 42 Saying, What think ye of Christ? whose son is he? They say unto him, The son of David.

43 He saith unto them, How then doth David in spirit call him Lord, saying,

44 The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool?

45 If David then call him Lord, how is he his son?

46 And no man was able to answer him a word, neither durst any man, from that day forth, ask him any more questions.

CHAP. XXIII.

1 Christ admonisheth the people to follow the good doctrine, not the evil examples of the scribes and Pharisees; 5 his disciples must beware of their ambition; 13 he denounceth eight woes against their hypocrisy and blindness: 34 and prophesieth the destruction of Jerusalem.

THEN spake Jesus to the multitude, and to his disciples,

2 Saying, The scribes and the Pharisees sit in Moses' seat:

3 All therefore whatsoever they bid you observe, that observe and do; but do not ye after their works: for they say, and do not.

4 For they bind heavy burdens, and grievous to be borne, and lay them on men's shoulders; but they themselves will not move them with one of their fingers.

5 But all their works they do, for to be seen of men: they make broad their phylacteries, and enlarge the borders of their garments,

6 And love the uppermost rooms at feasts, and the chief seats in the synagogues;

7 And greetings in the markets, and to be called of men, Rabbi, Rabbi.

8 But be not ye called Rabbi: for one is your Master, even Christ; and all ye are brethren.

9 And call no man your father upon the earth: for one is your Father which is in heaven.

10 Neither be ye called masters: for one is your Master, even Christ.

11 But he that is greatest among you, shall be your servant.

be? and what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world?
 4 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Take heed that no man deceive you.
 5 For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many.
 6 And ye shall hear of wars, and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet.
 7 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes in divers places.
 8 All these are the beginning of sorrows.
 9 Then shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill you: and ye shall be hated of all nations for my name's sake.
 10 And then shall many be offended, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another.
 11 And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many.
 12 And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold.
 13 But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.
 14 And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world, for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come.
 15 When ye therefore shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (who so readeth, let him understand:)
 16 Then let them which be in Judea flee into the mountains.
 17 Let him which is on the house-top, not come down to take any thing out of his house:
 18 Neither let him which is in the field, return back to take his clothes.
 19 And woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days!
 20 But pray ye that your flight be not in the winter, neither on the sabbath-day.
 21 For then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be.
 22 And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened.
 23 Then if any man shall say unto you, Lo, here is Christ, or there; believe it not.
 24 For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; inasmuch that (if it were possible) they shall deceive the very elect.

25 Behold, I have told you before.

26 Wherefore, if they shall say unto you, Behold, he is in the desert; go not forth: behold, he is in the secret chambers; believe it not.

27 For as the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even unto the west; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

28 For wheresoever the carcase is, there will the eagles be gathered together.

29 Immediately after the tribulation of those days, shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken.

30 And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven, with power and great glory.

31 And he shall send his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

32 Now learn a parable of the fig-tree; When his branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is nigh:

33 So likewise ye, when ye shall see all these things, know that it is near, even at the doors.

34 Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass, till all these things be fulfilled.

35 Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away.

36 But of that day and hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels of heaven, but my Father only.

37 But as the days of Noe were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

38 For as in the days that were before the flood, they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark,

39 And knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

40 Then shall two be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

41 Two women shall be grinding at the mill; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

42 Watch therefore: for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come.

43 But know this, that if the good-man

THEN shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, which took their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom.

2 And five of them were wise, and five were foolish.

3 They that were foolish took their lamps, and took no oil with them:

4 But the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps.

1 Thess.
5. 6.

5 While the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept.

6 And at midnight there was a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him.

7 Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps.

1 Or, going out.

8 And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil; for our lamps are gone out.

9 But the wise answered, saying, Not so; lest there be not enough for us and you: but go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves.

10 And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready, went in with him to the marriage: and the door was shut.

1 ch. 7. 21,
22, 23.

11 Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us.

12 But he answered and said, Verily I say unto you, I know you not.

13 Watch therefore, for ye know neither the day nor the hour, wherein the Son of man cometh.

14 For the kingdom of heaven is as a man travelling into a far country, who called his own servants, and delivered unto them his goods.

15 And unto one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one; to every man according to his several ability; and straightway took his journey.

16 Then he that had received the five talents, went and traded with the same, and made them other five talents.

17 And likewise he that had received two, he also gained other two.

18 But he that had received one, went and digged in the earth, and hid his lord's money.

19 After a long time, the lord of those servants cometh, and reckoneth with them.

20 And so he that had received five talents, came and brought other five talents, saying, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me five talents: behold, I have gained besides them five talents more.

21 His lord said unto him, Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

22 He also that had received two talents, came and said, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me two talents: behold, I have gained two other talents besides them.

23 His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

24 Then he which had received the one talent, came and said, Lord, I knew thee: that thou art an hard man, reaping where thou hast not sown, and gathering where thou hast not strawed:

25 And I was afraid, and went and hid thy talent in the earth: lo, there thou hast that is thine.

26 His lord answered and said unto him, Thou wicked and slothful servant, thou knewest that I reap where I sowed not, and gather where I have not strawed:

27 Thou oughtest therefore to have put my money to the exchangers, and then at my coming I should have received mine own with usury.

28 Take therefore the talent from him, and give it unto him which hath ten talents.

CHAP. XXVI.

1 The rulers conspire against Christ. 7 The woman anointeth his head. 14 Judas selleth him. 17 Christ eateth the pass-over: 26 instituteth his holy supper: 36 prayeth in the garden: 47 and being betrayed with a kiss, 57 is carried to Caiaphas, 69 and denied of Peter.

AND it came to pass, when Jesus had finished all these sayings, he said unto his disciples,

2 ¶ Ye know that after two days is the feast of the pass-over, and the Son of man is betrayed to be crucified.

3 ¶ Then assembled together the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders of the people, unto the palace of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas,

4 And consulted that they might take Jesus by subtilty, and kill him.

5 But they said, Not on the feast-day, lest there be an uproar among the people.

6 ¶ Now when Jesus was in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper,

7 There came unto him a woman having an alabastrer-box of very precious ointment, and poured it on his head, as he sat at meat.

8 ¶ But when his disciples saw it, they had indignation, saying, To what purpose is this waste?

9 For this ointment might have been sold for much, and given to the poor.

10 When Jesus understood it, he said unto them, Why trouble ye the woman? for she hath wrought a good work upon me.

11 ¶ For ye have the poor always with you; but ° me ye have not always.

12 For in that she hath poured this ointment on my body, she did it for my burial.

13 Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this gospel shall be preached in the whole world, there shall also this, that this woman hath done, be told for a memorial of her.

14 ¶ Then one of the twelve, called Judas Iscariot, went unto the chief priests,

15 And said unto them, What will ye give me, and I will deliver him unto you? And they covenanted with him for thirty pieces of silver.

16 And from that time he sought opportunity to betray him.

17 ¶ Now the first day of the feast of unleavened bread, the disciples came to Jesus, saying unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare for thee to eat the pass-over?

18 And he said, Go into the city to such a man, and say unto him, The Master saith, My time is at hand; I will keep the pass-over at thy house with my disciples.

19 And the disciples did as Jesus had ap-

20 <sup>m</sup> Now when the even was come, he sat down with the twelve.

21 And as they did eat, he said, Verily I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me.

22 And they were exceeding sorrowful, and began every one of them to say unto him, Lord, is it I?

23 And he answered and said, <sup>n</sup> He that dippeth his hand with me in the dish, the same shall betray me.

24 The Son of man goeth as it is written of him: but woe unto that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! it had been good for that man, if he had not been born.

25 Then Judas, which betrayed him, answered, and said, Master, is it I? He said unto him, Thou hast said.

26 ¶ <sup>o</sup> And as they were eating, <sup>p</sup> Jesus took bread, and || blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; this is my body.

27 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, <sup>q</sup> Drink ye all of it;

28 For this is my blood <sup>r</sup> of the new testament which is shed <sup>s</sup> for many for the remission of sins.

29 But <sup>t</sup> I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, <sup>u</sup> until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom.

30 <sup>x</sup> And when they had sung an || hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives.

31 Then saith Jesus unto them, <sup>v</sup> All ye shall <sup>w</sup> be offended because of me this night: for it is written, <sup>a</sup> I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered abroad.

32 But after I am risen again, <sup>b</sup> I will go before you into Galilee.

33 Peter answered and said unto him, Though all men shall be offended because of thee, <sup>c</sup> yet will I never be offended.

34 Jesus said unto him, <sup>e</sup> Verily I say unto thee, That this night before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.

35 Peter said unto him, Though I should die with thee, yet will I not deny thee. Likewise also said all the disciples.

36 ¶ <sup>d</sup> Then cometh Jesus with them unto a place called Gethsemane, and saith unto the disciples, Sit ye here, while I go and pray yonder.

37 And he took with him, Peter, and <sup>f</sup> the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful, and <sup>g</sup> very heavy.

38 Then saith he unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death: tarry ye here, and watch with me.

39 <sup>h</sup> And he went a little farther, and fell on his face, and <sup>h</sup> prayed, saying, <sup>i</sup> O my Father, if it be possible, <sup>k</sup> let this cup pass from me: nevertheless, not as I will, but as thou wilt.

40 And he cometh unto the disciples, and findeth them asleep, and saith unto Peter, What, could ye not watch with me one hour?

41 <sup>l</sup> Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.

42 He went away again the second time, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if this cup may not pass away from me, except I drink it, thy will be done.

43 And he came and found them asleep again: for their eyes were heavy.

44 And he left them, and went away again, and prayed the third time, saying the same words.

45 Then cometh he to his disciples, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

46 Rise, let us be going: behold, he is at hand that doth betray me.

47 ¶ <sup>m</sup> And while he yet spake, lo, Judas one of the twelve came, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves from the chief priests and elders of the people.

48 Now he that betrayed him, gave them a sign, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he: hold him fast.

49 And forthwith he came to Jesus, and said, Hail, master; <sup>n</sup> and kissed him.

50 And Jesus said unto him, Friend, wherefore art thou come? Then came they and laid hands on Jesus, and took him.

51 And behold, <sup>o</sup> one of them, which were with Jesus, stretched out his hand, and drew his sword, and struck a servant of the high priest's, and smote off his ear.

52 Then said Jesus unto him, Put up again thy sword into his place: <sup>p</sup> for all they that take the sword, shall perish with the sword.

53 Thinkest thou that I cannot now pray to my Father, and he shall presently give me more than twelve legions of angels?

54 But how then shall the scriptures be fulfilled, <sup>q</sup> that thus it must be?

55 In that same hour said Jesus to the multitudes, Are ye come out as against a thief with swords and staves for to take me? I sat daily with you teaching in the temple, and ye laid no hold on me.

58 But Peter followed him afar off, unto the high priest's palace, and went in, and sat with the servants to see the end.

59 Now the chief priests and elders, and all the council, sought false witnesses against Jesus to put him to death;

60 But found none: yea, though many false witnesses came, yet found they none. At the last came two false witnesses,

61 And said, This fellow said, <sup>a</sup>I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three days.

62 <sup>a</sup>And the high priest arose, and said unto him, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witnesses against thee?

69 <sup>b</sup>Now Peter sat without in the palace: and a damsel came unto him, saying, Thou also wast with Jesus of Galilee.

70 But he denied before them all, saying, I know not what thou sayest.

71 And when he was gone out into the porch, another maid saw him, and said unto them that were there, This fellow was also with Jesus of Nazareth.

72 And again he denied with an oath, I do not know the man.

73 And after a while came unto him they that stood by, and said to Peter, Surely thou also art one of them; for thy <sup>a</sup>speech bewrayeth thee.

74 Then began he to curse and to swear, saying, I know not the man. And immediately the cock crew.

75 And Peter remembered the word of Jesus, which said unto him, <sup>a</sup>Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. And he went out, and wept bitterly.

CHAP. XXVII.

1 Christ is delivered bound to Pilate. 5 Judas hangeth himself. 19 Pilate admonished of his wife, 24 washeth his hands, 26 and looseth Barabbas. 29 Christ is crowned with thorns, 34 crucified, 40 reviled, 50 dieth, and is buried: 66 his sepulchre is sealed and watched.

WHEN the morning was come, <sup>a</sup>all the chief priests and elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put him to death.

2 And when they had bound him, they led him away, and delivered him to Pontius Pilate the governor.

3 <sup>a</sup>Then Judas, which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders,

4 Saying, I have sinned, in that I have betrayed the innocent blood. And they said, What is that to us? see thou to that.

5 And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, <sup>a</sup>and departed, and went and hanged himself.

6 And the chief priests took the silver pieces, and said, It is not lawful for to put them into the treasury, because it is the price of blood.

7 And they took counsel, and bought with them the potters field, to bury strangers in.

8 Wherefore that field was called, <sup>a</sup>The field of blood unto this day.

9 (Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremy the prophet, saying, <sup>a</sup>And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him that was valued, <sup>b</sup>whom they of the children of Israel did value;

10 And gave them for the potters field, as the Lord appointed me.)

11 And Jesus stood before the governor: and the governor asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And Jesus said unto him, <sup>a</sup>Thou sayest.

12 And when he was accused of the chief priests and elders, <sup>a</sup>he answered nothing.

13 Then said Pilate unto him, <sup>b</sup>Hearest thou not how many things they witness against thee?

14 And he answered him to never a word, insomuch that the governor marvelled greatly.

1 Mark 15. 16 And they had then a notable prisoner, called Barabbas.

17 Therefore when they were gathered together, Pilate said unto them, Whom will ye that I release unto you? Barabbas, or Jesus which is called Christ?

18 (For he knew that for envy they had delivered him.)

19 ¶ When he was set down on the judgment-seat, his wife sent unto him, saying, Have thou nothing to do with that just man: for I have suffered many things this day in a dream, because of him.

20 <sup>k</sup> But the chief priests and elders persuaded the multitude that they should ask Barabbas, and destroy Jesus.

21 The governor answered and said unto them, Whether of the twain will ye that I release unto you? They said, Barabbas.

22 Pilate saith unto them, What shall I do then with Jesus, which is called Christ? They all say unto him, Let him be crucified.

23 And the governor said, Why, what evil hath he done? But they cried out the more, saying, Let him be crucified.

24 When Pilate saw that he could prevail nothing, but that rather a tumult was made, he <sup>l</sup> took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person: see ye to it.

25 Then answered all the people, and said, <sup>m</sup> His blood be on us, and on our children.

26 Then released he Barabbas unto them: and when <sup>n</sup> he had scourged Jesus, he delivered him to be crucified.

27 <sup>o</sup> Then the foldiers of the governor took Jesus into the ¶ common hall, and gathered unto him the whole band of soldiers.

28 And they stripped him, and <sup>p</sup> put on him a scarlet robe.

29 And when they had platted a crown of thorns, they put it upon his head, and a reed in his right hand: and they bowed the knee before him, and mocked him, saying, Hail, king of the Jews!

30 And <sup>q</sup> they spit upon him, and took the reed, and smote him on the head.

31 And after that they had mocked him, they took the robe off from him, and put his own raiment on him, and led him away to crucify him.

32 ¶ And as they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name: him they compelled to bear his cross.

33 And when they were come unto a place called Golgotha, that is to say, a place of a skull,

34 ¶ They gave him vinegar to drink, mingled with gall: and when he had tasted thereof, he would not drink.

35 And they crucified him, and parted his garments, casting lots: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, <sup>r</sup> They parted my garments among them, and upon my vesture did they cast lots.

36 And sitting down, they watched him there:

37 And <sup>s</sup> set up over his head, his accusation written, THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

38 Then were there two thieves crucified with him: one on the right hand, and another on the left.

39 ¶ And <sup>t</sup> they that passed by, reviled him, wagging their heads,

40 And saying, <sup>u</sup> Thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself. <sup>v</sup> If thou be the Son of God, come down from the cross.

41 Likewise also the chief priests mocking him, with the scribes and elders, said,

42 He saved others; himself he cannot save. If he be the King of Israel, let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe him.

43 <sup>w</sup> He trusted in God; let him deliver him now if he will have him: for he said, I am the Son of God.

44 <sup>x</sup> The thieves also which were crucified with him, cast the same in his teeth.

45 Now from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land unto the ninth hour.

46 And about the ninth hour <sup>y</sup> Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani? that is to say, <sup>z</sup> My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

47 Some of them that stood there, when they heard that, said, This man calleth for Elias.

48 And straightway one of them ran, and took a sponge, <sup>a</sup> and filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink.

49 The rest said, Let be, let us see whether Elias will come to save him.

50 <sup>b</sup> Jesus, when he had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up the ghost.

51 And behold, <sup>c</sup> the veil of the temple was rent in twain, from the top to the bottom; and the earth did quake, and the rocks rent;

52 And the graves were opened; and many bodies of the saints which slept, arose,

53 And came out of the graves after his resurrection, and went into the holy city, and appeared unto many.

54 <sup>m</sup> Now when the centurion, and they that were with him, watching Jesus, saw the earthquake, and those things that were done, they feared greatly, saying, Truly this was the Son of God.

55 And many women were there (beholding afar off,) <sup>a</sup> which followed Jesus from Galilee, ministering unto him :

56 <sup>o</sup> Among which was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joses, and the mother of Zebedee's children.

57 <sup>p</sup> When the even was come, there came a rich man of Arimathea, named Joseph, who also himself was Jesus' disciple :

58 He went to Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be delivered.

59 And when Joseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth,

60 And <sup>q</sup> laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock : and he rolled a great stone to the door of the sepulchre, and departed.

61 And there was Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary, sitting over against the sepulchre.

62 <sup>r</sup> Now the next day, that followed the day of the preparation, the chief priests and Pharisees came together unto Pilate,

63 Saying, Sir, we remember that that deceiver said, while he was yet alive, <sup>r</sup> After three days I will rise again.

64 Command therefore that the sepulchre be made sure until the third day, lest his disciples come by night, and steal him away, and say unto the people, He is risen from the dead : so the last error shall be worse than the first.

65 Pilate said unto them, Ye have a watch : go your way, make it as sure as ye can.

66 So they went and made the sepulchre sure, sealing the stone, and setting a watch.

CHAP. XXVIII.

1 Christ's resurrection is declared by an angel to the women : <sup>g</sup> he himself appeareth unto them.

11 The chief priests give the soldiers money to say that he was stolen out of his sepulchre. 16 Christ appeareth to his disciples, 19 and sendeth them to baptize and teach all nations.

IN the <sup>a</sup> end of the sabbath, as it began to dawn towards the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene, <sup>b</sup> and the other Mary, to see the sepulchre.

2 And behold, there <sup>c</sup> was a great earthquake : for <sup>e</sup> the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it.

3 His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow.

4 And for fear of him the keepers did shake, and became as dead <sup>men</sup>.

5 And the angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not ye : for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified.

6 He is not here : for he is risen, <sup>d</sup> as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay.

7 And go quickly, and tell his disciples, that he is risen from the dead ; and behold, <sup>e</sup> he goeth before you into Galilee : there shall ye see him : lo, I have told you.

8 And they departed quickly from the sepulchre, with fear and great joy ; and did run to bring his disciples word.

9 <sup>f</sup> And as they went to tell his disciples, behold, <sup>f</sup> Jesus met them, saying, All hail. And they came and held him by the feet, and worshipped him.

10 Then said Jesus unto them, Be not afraid : go tell <sup>g</sup> my brethren, that they go into Galilee, and there shall they see me.

11 <sup>g</sup> Now when they were going, behold, some of the watch came into the city, and shewed unto the chief priests all the things that were done.

12 And when they were assembled with the elders, and had taken counsel, they gave large money unto the soldiers, 13 Saying, Say ye, His disciples came by night, and stole him away while we slept.

14 And if this come to the governor's ears, we will persuade him, and secure you.

15 So they took the money, and did as they were taught : and this saying is commonly reported among the Jews until this day.

16 <sup>h</sup> Then the eleven disciples went away into Galilee, into a mountain <sup>h</sup> where Jesus had appointed them.

17 And when they saw him, they worshipped him : but some doubted.

18 And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, <sup>i</sup> All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth.

19 <sup>j</sup> Go ye therefore, and <sup>j</sup> teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost ;

20 <sup>m</sup> Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you : and lo, I am with you alway even unto the end of the world. Amen.

THE beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ the Son of God;

2 As it is written in the prophets, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

3 The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

4 John did baptize in the wilderness, and preach the baptism of repentance, for the remission of sins.

5 And there went out unto him all the land of Judea, and they of Jerusalem, and were all baptized of him in the river of Jordan, confessing their sins.

6 And John was clothed with camels hair, and with a girdle of a skin about his loins; and he did eat locusts and wild honey:

7 And preached, saying, There cometh one mightier than I after me, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to stoop down and unloose.

8 I indeed have baptized you with water: but he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost.

9 And it came to pass in those days, that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptized of John in Jordan.

10 And straightway coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens opened, and the Spirit like a dove descending upon him.

11 And there came a voice from heaven, saying, Thou art my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

12 And immediately the spirit driveth him into the wilderness.

13 And he was there in the wilderness forty days tempted of Satan; and was with the wild beasts; and the angels ministered unto him.

14 Now after that John was put in prison, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the gospel of the kingdom of God,

15 And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel.

16 Now as he walked by the sea of Galilee, he saw Simon, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea: (for they were fishers.)

17 And Jesus said unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men.

18 And straightway they forsook their nets, and followed him.

19 And when he had gone a little farther thence, he saw James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, who also were in the ship mending their nets.

20 And straightway he called them: and they left their father Zebedee in the ship with the hired servants, and went after him.

21 And they went into Capernaum; and straightway on the sabbath-day he entered into the synagogue, and taught.

22 And they were astonished at his doctrine: for he taught them as one that had authority, and not as the scribes.

23 And there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit; and he cried out,

24 Saying, Let us alone; what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, the Holy One of God.

25 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him.

26 And when the unclean spirit had torn him, and cried with a loud voice, he came out of him.

27 And they were all amazed, insomuch that they questioned among themselves, saying, What thing is this? what new doctrine is this? for with authority commandeth he even the unclean spirits, and they do obey him.

28 And immediately his fame spread abroad throughout all the region round about Galilee.

29 And forthwith, when they were come out of the synagogue, they entered into the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John.

30 But Simon's wife's mother lay sick of a fever, and anon they tell him of her.

31 And he came and took her by the hand, and lifted her up; and immediately the fever left her, and she ministered unto them.

32 And at even, when the sun did set, they brought unto him all that were diseased, and them that were possessed with devils.

33 And all the city was gathered together at the door.

34 And he healed many that were sick of 35 And in the morning, rising up a great while before day, he went out, and departed into a solitary place, and there prayed.

36 And Simon, and they that were with him, followed after him.

37 And when they had found him, they said unto him, All men seek for thee.

38 And he said unto them, Let us go into the next towns, that I may preach there also: for therefore came I forth.

39 And he preached in their synagogues throughout all Galilee, and cast out devils.

40* And there came a leper to him, beseeching him, and kneeling down to him, and saying unto him, If thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

41 And Jesus, moved with compassion, put forth his hand, and touched him, and said unto him, I will; Be thou clean.

42 And as soon as he had spoken, immediately the leprosy departed from him, and he was cleansed.

43 And he straitly charged him, and forthwith sent him away;

44 And said unto him, See thou say nothing to any man: but go thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing those things which Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

45<sup>m</sup> But he went out, and began to publish it much, and to blaze abroad the matter, insomuch that Jesus could no more openly enter into the city, but was without in desert places: and they came to him from every quarter.

CHAP. II.

3 Christ healeth one sick of the palsy, 14 calleth Matthew from the receipt of custom, 15 eateth with publicans and sinners, 18 excuseth his disciples for not fasting, 23 and for plucking the ears of corn on the sabbath-day.

AND again<sup>a</sup> he entered into Capernaum after some days; and it was noised that he was in the house.

2 And straightway many were gathered together, insomuch that there was no room to receive them, no not so much as about the door: and he preached the word unto them.

3 And they come unto him, bringing one sick of the palsy, which was borne of four.

4 And when they could not come nigh unto him for the press, they uncovered the roof where he was: and when they had broken it up, they let down the bed where-in the sick of the palsy lay,

5 When Jesus saw their faith, he said unto the sick of the palsy, Son, thy sins be forgiven thee.

6 But there were certain of the scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts,

7 Why doth this man thus speak blasphemies? who can forgive sins but God only?

8 And immediately, when Jesus perceived in his spirit, that they so reasoned within themselves, he said unto them, Why reason ye these things in your hearts?

9<sup>c</sup> Whether is it easier to say to the sick of the palsy, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, and take up thy bed, and walk?

10 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (he saith to the sick of the palsy,)

11 I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy bed, and go thy way into thine house.

12 And immediately he arose, took up the bed, and went forth before them all; insomuch that they were all amazed, and glorified God, saying, We never saw it on this fashion.

13<sup>d</sup> And he went forth again by the seaside; and all the multitude resorted unto him, and he taught them.

14<sup>e</sup> And as he passed by, he saw Levi the son of Alphaeus sitting at the receipt of custom, and said unto him, Follow me. And he arose and followed him.

15<sup>f</sup> And it came to pass, that as Jesus sat at meat in his house, many publicans and sinners sat also together with Jesus and his disciples: for there were many, and they followed him.

16 And when the scribes and Pharisees saw him eat with publicans and sinners, they said unto his disciples, How is it that he eateth and drinketh with publicans and sinners?

17 When Jesus heard it, he said unto them, They that are whole have no need of the physician, but they that are sick: I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

18<sup>g</sup> And the disciples of John and of the Pharisees used to fast: and they come, and say unto him, Why do the disciples of John and of the Pharisees fast, but thy disciples fast not?

19 And Jesus said unto them, Can the children of the bride-chamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them? as long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast.

20 But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those days:

<sup>3</sup> And he said unto them, Have ye never read <sup>k</sup> what David did, when he had need, and was an-hungred, he, and they that were with him?

26 How he went into the house of God in the days of Abiathar the high priest, and did eat the shew-bread, <sup>1</sup> which is not lawful to eat, but for the priests, and gave also to them which were with him?

27 And he said unto them, The sabbath was made for man, and not man for the sabbath:

CHAP. III.

CHAP. IV.

1 The parable of the sower, 14 and the meaning thereof. 21 We must communicate the light of our knowledge to others. 26 The parable of the seed growing secretly, 30 and of the mustard-seed. 35 Christ stilleth the tempest on the sea.

13. 1.
Luke 8. 4.AND <sup>a</sup> he began again to teach by the sea-side: and there was gathered unto him a great multitude, so that he entered into a ship, and sat in the sea; and the whole multitude was by the sea, on the land.

b ch. 12. 38.

2 And he taught them many things by parables, <sup>b</sup> and said unto them in his doctrine, 3 Harken; Behold, there went out a sower to sow:

4 And it came to pass as he sowed, some fell by the way-side, and the fowls of the air came and devoured it up.

5 And some fell on stony ground, where it had not much earth; and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of earth.

6 But when the sun was up, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away.

7 And some fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choaked it, and it yielded no fruit.

c John 15.
5. Col. 1. 6.8 And other fell on good ground, <sup>c</sup> and did yield fruit that sprang up and increased, and brought forth, some thirty, and some sixty, and some an hundred.

9 And he said unto them, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

10 <sup>d</sup> And when he was alone, they that were about him, with the twelve, asked of him the parable.11 And he said unto them, Unto you it is given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God: but unto <sup>e</sup> them that are without, all these things are done in parables:12 <sup>f</sup> That seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest at any time they should be converted, and their sins should be forgiven them.

13 And he said unto them, Know ye not this parable? and how then will ye know all parables?

14 ¶ <sup>g</sup> The sower soweth the word.

15 And these are they by the way-side, where the word is sown; but when they have heard, Satan cometh immediately, and taketh away the word that was sown in their hearts.

16 And these are they likewise which are sown on stony ground; who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with gladness;

17 And have no root in themselves, and so endure but for a time: afterward, when affliction or persecution ariseth for the word's sake, immediately they are offended.

18 And these are they which are sown among thorns; such as hear the word,

19 And the cares of this world, <sup>h</sup> and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful.

20 And these are they which are sown on good ground; such as hear the word, and receive it, and bring forth fruit, some thirty-fold, some sixty, and some an hundred.

21 ¶ <sup>i</sup> And he said unto them, Is a candle brought to be put under a bushel, or under a bed? and not to be set on a candlestick?22 <sup>k</sup> For there is nothing hid which shall not be manifested; neither was any thing kept secret, but that it should come abroad.23 <sup>l</sup> If any man have ears to hear, let him hear.24 And he said unto them, Take heed what ye hear: <sup>m</sup> with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you: and unto you that hear shall more be given.25 <sup>n</sup> For he that hath, to him shall be given: and he that hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he hath.

26 ¶ And he said, So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed into the ground, 27 And should sleep, and rise night and day, and the seed should spring and grow up, he knoweth not how.

30 ¶ And he said, ° Whereunto shall we liken the kingdom of God? or with what comparison shall we compare it?

31 It is like a grain of mustard-seed, which, when it is sown in the earth, is less than all the seeds that be in the earth.

32 But when it is sown, it groweth up, and becometh greater than all herbs, and shooteth out great branches; so that the fowls of the air may lodge under the shadow of it.

36 And when they had sent away the multitude, they took him even as he was in the ship. And there were also with him other little ships.

37 And there arose a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the ship, so that it was now full.

4 Because that he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been plucked asunder by him, and the fetters broken in pieces: neither could any man tame him.

5 And always night and day, he was in the mountains, and in the tombs, crying, and cutting himself with stones.

6 But when he saw Jesus afar off, he ran and worshipped him,

7 And cried with a loud voice, and said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of the most high God? I adjure thee by God, that thou torment me not.

8 (For he said unto him, Come out of the man, thou unclean spirit.)

9 And he asked him, What is thy name? And he answered, saying, My name is Legion: for we are many.

10 And he besought him much, that he would not send them away out of the country.

11 Now there was there nigh unto the mountains, a great herd of swine feeding.

12 And all the devils besought him, saying, Send us into the swine, that we may enter into them.

13 And forthwith Jesus gave them leave. And the unclean spirits went out, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the sea, (they were about two thousand;) and were choked in the sea.

14 And they that fed the swine fled, and told it in the city, and in the country. And they went out to see what it was that was done.

15 And they come to Jesus, and see him that was possessed with the devil, and had the legion, sitting, and clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid.

16 And they that saw it, told them how it befel to him that was possessed with the devil and also concerning the swine.

17 And <sup>b</sup> they began to pray him to depart out of their coasts.

18 And when he was come into the ship, <sup>c</sup> he that had been possessed with the devil, prayed him that he might be with him.

19 Howbeit, Jesus suffered him not, but saith unto him, Go home to thy friends, and tell them how great things the Lord hath done for thee, and hath had compassion on thee.

14 <sup>o</sup> And king Herod heard of him; (for his name was spread abroad:) and he said, That John the Baptist was risen from the dead, and therefore mighty works do shew forth themselves in him.

15 <sup>p</sup> Others said, That it is Elias. And others said, That it is a prophet, or as one of the prophets.

16 <sup>q</sup> But when Herod heard thereof, he said, It is John whom I beheaded: he is risen from the dead.

17 For Herod himself had sent forth and laid hold upon John, and bound him in prison for Herodias' sake, his brother Philip's wife: for he had married her.

18 For John had said unto Herod, <sup>r</sup> It is not lawful for thee to have thy brother's wife.

19 Therefore Herodias had || a quarrel against him, and would have killed him; but she could not.

20 For Herod <sup>s</sup> feared John, knowing that he was a just man and an holy, and || observed him; and when he heard him, he did many things, and heard him gladly.

21 <sup>t</sup> And when a convenient day was come, that Herod on his birth-day made a supper to his lords, high captains, and chief estates of Galilee;

22 And when the daughter of the said Herodias came in, and danced, and pleased Herod, and them that sat with him, the king said unto the damsel, Ask of me whatsoever thou wilt, and I will give it thee.

23 And he sware unto her, <sup>u</sup> Whatsoever thou shalt ask of me, I will give it thee, unto the half of my kingdom.

24 And she went forth, and said unto her mother, What shall I ask? and she said, The head of John the Baptist.

25 And she came in straightway with haste unto the king, and asked, saying, I will that thou give me by and by in a charger, the head of John the Baptist.

26 And the king was exceeding sorry; yet for his oath's sake, and for their sakes which sat with him, he would not reject her.

27 And immediately the king sent <sup>v</sup> an executioner, and commanded his head to be brought: and he went and beheaded him in the prison,

28 And brought his head in a charger, and gave it to the damsel: and the damsel gave it to her mother.

29 And when his disciples heard of it, they came and took up his corpse, and laid it in a tomb.

30 <sup>w</sup> And the apostles gathered themselves together unto Jesus, and told him all things, both what they had done, and what they had taught.

31 <sup>x</sup> And he said unto them, Come ye yourselves apart into a desert place, and rest a while: for <sup>y</sup> there were many coming and going, and they had no leisure so much as to eat.

32 <sup>z</sup> And they departed into a desert place by ship privately.

33 And the people saw them departing, and many knew him, and ran afoot thither out of all cities, and out-went them, and came together unto him.

34 <sup>b</sup> And Jesus, when he came out, saw much people, and was moved with compassion toward them, because they were as sheep not having a shepherd: and <sup>c</sup> he began to teach them many things.

35 <sup>d</sup> And when the day was now far spent, his disciples came unto him, and said, This is a desert place, and now the time is far passed:

36 Send them away, that they may go into the country round about, and into the villages, and buy themselves bread: for they have nothing to eat.

37 He answered and said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they say unto him, Shall we go and buy two hundred <sup>e</sup> pennyworth of bread, and give them to eat?

38 He saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? go and see. And when they knew, they say, Five, and two fishes.

39 And he commanded them to make all sit down by companies upon the green grass.

40 And they sat down in ranks by hundreds, and by fifties.

41 And when he had taken the five loaves and the two fishes, he looked up to heaven, and blessed, and brake the loaves, and gave them to his disciples to set before them; and the two fishes divided he among them all.

42 And they did all eat, and were filled.

CHAP. VII.

1 The Pharisees find fault with the disciples, for eating with unwashen hands. 8 They break the commandment of God by the tradition of men.

14 Meat defileth not the man. 24 He healeth the Syrophenician woman's daughter of an unclean spirit, 31 and one that was deaf, and stammered in his speech.

THEN came together unto him the Pharisees, and certain of the scribes which came from Jerusalem.

2 And when they saw some of his disciples eat bread with defiled (that is to say, with unwashen) hands, they found fault.

3 For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, except they wash their hands oft, eat not, holding the tradition of the elders.

4 And when they come from the market, except they wash, they eat not. And many other things there be, which they have received to hold, as the washing of cups and pots; and of brazen vessels and tables.

5 Then the Pharisees and scribes asked him, Why walk not thy disciples according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashen hands?

6 He answered and said unto them, Well hath Esaias prophesied of you hypocrites, as it is written, This people honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is far from me.

7 Howbeit, in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.

8 For laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and cups: and many other such like things ye do.

9 And he said unto them, Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition.

10 For Moses said, Honour thy father and thy mother; and, Whoso curseth father or mother, let him die the death:

11 But ye say, If a man shall say to his father or mother, It is Corban, that is to say, a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me; he shall be free.

12 And ye suffer him no more to do ought for his father or his mother;

13 Making the word of God of none effect, through your tradition, which ye have delivered: and many such like things do ye.

14 And when he had called all the people unto him, he said unto them, Harken unto me every one of you, and understand:

15 There is nothing from without a man, that entering into him, can defile him: but the things which come out of him, those are they that defile the man.

16 If any man have ears to hear, let him hear.

17 And when he was entered into the house from the people, his disciples asked him concerning the parable.

18 And he saith unto them, Are ye so without understanding also? Do ye not perceive, that whatsoever thing from without entereth into the man, it cannot defile him;

19 Because it entereth not into his heart, but into the belly, and goeth out into the draught, purging all meats?

20 And he said, That which cometh out of the man, that defileth the man.

Matth.
15. 15.

Anno DOMINI 32.
 21<sup>k</sup> For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders,

22 Thefts, † covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness:

23 All these evil things come from within, and defile the man.

24 ¶ <sup>1</sup> And from thence he arose, and went into the borders of Tyre and Sidon, and entered into an house, and would have no man know it: but he could not be hid.

25 For a certain woman whose young daughter had an unclean spirit, heard of him, and came and fell at his feet:

26 (The woman was a ¶ Greek, a Syrophenician by nation;) and she besought him that he would cast forth the devil out of her daughter.

27 But Jesus said unto her, Let the children first be filled: for it is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it unto the dogs.

28 And she answered and said unto him, Yes, Lord: yet the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs.

29 And he said unto her, For this saying, go thy way; the devil is gone out of thy daughter.

30 And when she was come to her house, she found the devil gone out, and her daughter laid upon the bed.

31 ¶ <sup>m</sup> And again, departing from the coasts of Tyre and Sidon, he came unto the sea of Galilee, through the midst of the coasts of Decapolis.

32 And <sup>n</sup> they bring unto him one that was deaf, and had an impediment in his speech; and they beseech him to put his hand upon him.

33 And he took him aside from the multitude, and put his fingers into his ears, and <sup>o</sup> he spit, and touched his tongue;

34 And <sup>p</sup> looking up to heaven, <sup>q</sup> he sighed, and saith unto him, Ephphatha, that is, Be opened.

35 And straightway his ears were opened, and the string of his tongue was loosed, and he spake plain.

36 And <sup>r</sup> he charged them that they should tell no man: but the more he charged them, so much the more a great deal they published it;

37 And were beyond measure astonished, saying, He hath done all things well: he maketh both the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak.

CHAP. VIII.

 sujeth to give a sign to the Pharisees: 14 ad-monisheth his disciples to beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the leaven of Herod: 22 giveth a blind man his sight: 27 acknowledgeth that he is the Christ, who should suffer and rise again: 34 and exhorteth to patience in persecution for the profession of the gospel.

IN those days <sup>a</sup> the multitude being very great, and having nothing to eat, Jesus called his disciples unto him, and saith unto them,

2 I have compassion on the multitude, because they have now been with me three days, and have nothing to eat:

3 And if I send them away fasting to their own houses, they will faint by the way: for divers of them came from far.

4 And his disciples answered him, From whence can a man satisfy these men with bread here in the wilderness?

5 <sup>b</sup> And he asked them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven.

6 And he commanded the people to sit down on the ground: and he took the seven loaves, and gave thanks, and brake, and gave to his disciples to set before them; and they did set them before the people.

7 And they had a few small fishes: and <sup>c</sup> he blessed, and commanded to set them also before them.

8 So they did eat, and were filled: and they took up of the broken meat that was left, seven baskets.

9 And they that had eaten were about four thousand: and he sent them away.

10 ¶ And <sup>d</sup> straightway he entered into a ship with his disciples, and came into the parts of Dalmanutha.

11 <sup>e</sup> And the Pharisees came forth, and began to question with him, seeking of him a sign from heaven, tempting him.

12 And he sighed deeply in his spirit, and saith, Why doth this generation seek after a sign? verily I say unto you, There shall no sign be given to this generation.

13 And he left them, and entering into the ship again, departed to the other side.

14 ¶ <sup>f</sup> Now the disciples had forgotten to take bread, neither had they in the ship with them more than one loaf.

15 <sup>g</sup> And he charged them, saying, Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the leaven of Herod.

16 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is <sup>h</sup> because we have no bread.

17 And when Jesus knew it, he saith unto them, Why reason ye, because ye have no bread? <sup>i</sup> perceive ye not yet, neither understand? have ye your heart yet hardened?

of the prophets.

29 And he saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am? And Peter answereth and saith unto him, Thou art the Christ.

30 And he charged them that they should tell no man of him.

31 And <sup>q</sup> he began to teach them, that the Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders, and of the chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again.

32 And he spake that saying openly.
And Peter took him, and began to rebuke him.

33 But when he had turned about, and looked on his disciples, he rebuked Peter, saying, Get thee behind me, Satan: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but the things that be of men.

34 ¶ And when he had called the people unto him, with his disciples also, he said unto them, <sup>r</sup> Whosoever will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

35 For <sup>s</sup> whosoever will save his life, shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospel's, the same shall save it.

36 For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?

37 Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

38 <sup>t</sup> Whosoever therefore shall be ashamed of me, and of my words, in this adulterous and sinful generation; of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father, with the holy angels.

CHAP. IX.

2 Jesus is transfigured: 11 he instructeth his disciples concerning the coming of Elias: 14 casteth forth a dumb and deaf spirit: 30 foretelleth his death and resurrection: 33 exhorteth his disciples to humility: 38 bidding them not to prohibit such as be not against them, nor to give offence to any of the faithful.

AND he said unto them, <sup>a</sup> Verily I say unto you, that there be some of them that stand here which shall not taste of death, till they have seen the kingdom of God come with power.

2 ¶ <sup>b</sup> And after six days, Jesus taketh with him, Peter, and James, and John, and lead-eth them up into an high mountain apart by themselves: and he was transfigured before them.

3 And his raiment became shining, exceeding <sup>c</sup> white as snow; so as no fuller on earth can white them.

4 And there appeared unto them Elias with Moses: and they were talking with Jesus.

5 And Peter answered and said to Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee;
and one for Moses, and one for Elias.

6 For he wist not what to say; for they were sore afraid.

7 And there was a cloud that overshadowed them: and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son:
hear him.

8 And suddenly, when they had looked round about, they saw no man any more, save Jesus only with themselves.

9 And as they came down from the mountain, he charged them that they should tell no man what things they had seen, till the Son of man were risen from the dead.

10 And they kept that saying with themselves, questioning one with another what the rising from the dead should mean.

Anno DOMINI 32. 11 And they asked him, saying, Why say the scribes<sup>a</sup> that Elias must first come?

12 And he answered and told them, Elias verily cometh first, and restoreth all things; and<sup>e</sup> how it is written of the Son of man, that he must suffer many things, and<sup>f</sup> be set at nought.

13 But I say unto you, That<sup>g</sup> Elias is indeed come, and they have done unto him whatsoever they listed, as it is written of him.

14 ¶<sup>h</sup> And when he came to his disciples, he saw a great multitude about them, and the scribes questioning with them.

15 And straightway all the people, when they beheld him, were greatly amazed, and running to him, saluted him.

16 And he asked the scribes, What question ye<sup>i</sup> with them?

17 And<sup>j</sup> one of the multitude answered and said, Master, I have brought unto thee my son, which hath a dumb spirit;

18 And wheresoever he taketh him, he<sup>k</sup> teareth him: and he foamerh, and gnasheth with his teeth, and pineth away: and I spake to thy disciples, that they should cast him out; and they could not.

19 He answered him, and saith, O faithless generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him unto me.

20 And they brought him unto him: and<sup>l</sup> when he saw him, straightway the spirit tare him; and he fell on the ground, and wallowed, foaming.

21 And he asked his father, How long is it ago since this came unto him? And he said, Of a child.

22 And oft-times it hath cast him into the fire, and into the waters, to destroy him: but if thou canst do any thing, have compassion on us, and help us.

23 Jesus said unto him, If thou canst believe, all things are possible to him that believeth.

24 And straightway the father of the child cried out, and said with tears, Lord, I believe; help thou mine unbelief.

25 When Jesus saw that the people came running together, he rebuked the foul spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I charge thee, Come out of him, and enter no more into him.

26 And the spirit cried, and rent him fore, and came out of him: and he was as one dead; insomuch that many said, He is dead.

27 But Jesus took him by the hand, and lifted him up; and he arose.

28 And when he was come into the house, his disciples asked him privately, Why could not we cast him out?

29 And he said unto them, This kind can come forth by nothing, but by prayer and fasting.

30 ¶ And they departed thence, and passed through Galilee; and he would not that any man should know it.

31 ¶ For he taught his disciples, and said unto them, The Son of man is delivered into the hands of men, and they shall kill him; and after that he is killed, he shall rise the third day.

32 But they understood not that saying, and were afraid to ask him.

33 ¶ And he came to Capernaum: and being in the house, he asked them, What was it that ye disputed among yourselves by the way?

34 But they held their peace: for by the way they had disputed among themselves, who should be the greatest.

35 And he sat down, and called the twelve, and saith unto them, If any man desire to be first, the same shall be last of all, and servant of all.

36 And<sup>m</sup> he took a child, and set him in the midst of them: and when he had taken him in his arms, he said unto them,

37 Whosoever shall receive one of such children in my name, receiveth me: and<sup>n</sup> whosoever shall receive me, receiveth not me, but him that sent me.

38 ¶ And John answered him, saying, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name, and he followeth not us: and we forbid him, because he followeth not us.

39 But Jesus said, Forbid him not: for there is no man which shall do a miracle in my name, that can lightly speak evil of me.

40 For<sup>o</sup> he that is not against us, is on our part.

41 ¶ For whosoever shall give you a cup of water to drink in my name, because ye belong to Christ, verily I say unto you, He shall not lose his reward.

42 ¶ And whosoever shall offend one of these little ones that believe in me, it is better for him, that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were cast into the sea.

43 ¶ And if thy hand offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter into life maimed, than having two hands, to go into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched:

44 ¶ Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.

19 Thou knowest the commandments, Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Defraud not, Honour thy father and mother.

20 And he answered and said unto him, Master, all these have I observed from my youth.

21 Then Jesus, beholding him, loved him, and said unto him, One thing thou lackest: go thy way, sell whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, take up the cross, and follow me.

22 And he was sad at that saying, and went away grieved: for he had great possessions.

23 ¶ And Jesus looked round about, and saith unto his disciples, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!

24 And the disciples were astonished at his words. But Jesus answereth again, and saith unto them, Children, how hard is it for them that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God!

25 It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 And they were astonished out of measure, saying among themselves, Who then can be saved?

27 And Jesus looking upon them, saith, With men it is impossible, but not with God: for with God all things are possible.

CHAP. XII.

1 In a parable of the vineyard let out to unthankful husbandmen, Christ foretelleth the reprobation of the Jews, and the calling of the Gentiles: 13 he avoideth the snare of the Pharisees and Herodians about paying tribute to Cesar: 18 convinceth the error of the Sadducees, who denied the resurrection: 28 resolveth the scribe, who questioned of the first commandment: 35 refuteth the opinion that the scribes held of Christ: 38 bidding the people to beware of their ambition and hypocrisy: 41 and commendeth the poor widow for her two mites, above all.

AND <sup>a</sup> he began to speak unto them by <sup>a</sup> parables. A certain man planted a vineyard, and set an hedge about it, and digged a place for the wine-fat, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country.

3 And they caught him, and beat him, and sent him away empty.

4 And again, he sent unto them another servant; and at him they cast stones, and wounded him in the head; and sent him away shamefully handled.

5 And again, he sent another; and him they killed, and many others; beating some, and killing some.

6 Having yet therefore one son, his well-beloved, he sent him also last unto them, saying, They will reverence my son.

7 But those husbandmen said amongst themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and the inheritance shall be our's.

8 And they took him, and killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard.

9 What shall therefore the lord of the vineyard do? he will come and destroy the husbandmen, and will give the vineyard unto others.

11 This was the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes?

12 And they sought to lay hold on him, but feared the people: for they knew that he had spoken the parable against them: and they left him, and went their way.

14 And when they were come, they say unto him, Master, we know that thou art true, and carest for no man: for thou regardest not the person of men, but teachest the way of God in truth: Is it lawful to give tribute to Cesar, or not?

15 Shall we give, or shall we not give? But he knowing their hypocrisy, said unto them, Why tempt ye me? bring me a ¶ penny, that I may see it.

¶ Valuing of our money seven pence half-penny, as Matth. 18. 28. 16 And they brought it: and he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription? And they said unto him, Cesar's.

17 And Jesus answering said unto them, Render to Cesar the things that are Cesar's, and to God the things that are God's. And they marvelled at him.

brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother. Anno DOMINI 33.

20 Now there were seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and dying left no seed.

21 And the second took her, and died, neither left he any seed: and the third likewise.

22 And the seven had her, and left no seed: last of all the woman died also.

23 In the resurrection therefore, when they shall rise, whose wife shall she be of them? for the seven had her to wife.

24 And Jesus answering said unto them, Do ye not therefore err, because ye know not the scriptures, neither the power of God?

25 For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage; but are as the angels which are in heaven.

26 And as touching the dead, that they rise: have ye not read in the book of Moses, how in the bush God spake unto him, saying, <sup>g</sup> I am the God of Abraham, <sup>h</sup> and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? <sup>g</sup> Exod. 3. 6.

27 He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living: ye therefore do greatly err.

28 ¶ <sup>h</sup> And one of the scribes came, and <sup>i</sup> having heard them reasoning together, and perceiving that he had answered them well, asked him, Which is the first commandment of all? <sup>i</sup> Matth. 22. 35.

29 And Jesus answered him, The first of all the commandments is, <sup>j</sup> Hear, O Israel; The Lord our God is one Lord: <sup>j</sup> Deut. 6. 4. Luke 10. 27.

30 And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment.

31 And the second is like, namely this, <sup>k</sup> Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself: there is none other commandment greater than these. <sup>k</sup> Lev. 19. 18. Matth. 22. 39.

32 And the scribe said unto him, Well, Master, thou hast said the truth: for there is one God; and there is none other but he: <sup>l</sup> Rom. 13. 9. Gal. 5. 14. James 2. 8.

33 And to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbour as himself, <sup>m</sup> is more than all whole burnt-offerings and sacrifices. <sup>m</sup> Hof. 6. 6.

he taught in the temple, How say the scribes that Christ is the son of David?

36 For David himself said by the Holy Ghost, <sup>a</sup> The LORD said to my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool.

37 David therefore himself calleth him Lord; and whence is he then his son? And the common people heard him gladly.

42 And there came a certain poor widow, and she threw in two <sup>u</sup> mites, which make a farthing.

44 For all they did cast in of their abundance; but she of her want did cast in all that she had, <sup>w</sup> even all her living.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Christ foretelleth the destruction of the temple: 9 the persecutions for the gospel: 10 that the gospel must be preached to all nations: 14 that great calamities shall happen to the Jews: 24 and the manner of his coming to judgement. 32 The hour whereof being known to none, every man is to watch and pray, that we be not found unprovided, when he cometh to each one particularly by death.

AND <sup>a</sup> as he went out of the temple, <sup>b</sup> one of his disciples saith unto him, Master, see what manner of stones, and what buildings are here!

2 And Jesus answering said unto him, Seest thou these great buildings? <sup>b</sup> there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

3 And as he sat upon the mount of Olives, over against the temple, Peter and James and John and Andrew asked him privately,

4 <sup>c</sup> Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign when all these things shall be fulfilled?

5 And Jesus answering them, began to say, <sup>d</sup> Take heed lest any man deceive you:

6 For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many.

7 And when ye shall hear of wars, and rumours of wars, be ye not troubled: for such things must needs be; but the end shall not be yet.

8 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be earthquakes in divers places, and there shall be famines, and troubles: <sup>e</sup> these are the beginnings of <sup>f</sup> sorrows.

9 ¶ But <sup>g</sup> take heed to yourselves: for they shall deliver you up to councils; and in the synagogues ye shall be beaten: and ye shall be brought before rulers and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them.

10 And <sup>h</sup> the gospel must first be published among all nations.

11 <sup>i</sup> But when they shall lead you, and deliver you up; take no thought beforehand what ye shall speak, neither do ye premeditate: but whatsoever shall be given you in that hour, that speak ye: for it is not ye that speak, but the Holy Ghost.

12 Now <sup>j</sup> the brother shall betray the brother to death, and the father the son: and children shall rise up against their parents, and shall cause them to be put to death.

13 <sup>k</sup> And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but <sup>l</sup> he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

14 ¶ <sup>m</sup> But when ye shall see the abomination of desolation, <sup>n</sup> spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing where it ought not, (let him that readeth, understand,) then <sup>o</sup> let them that be in Judea, flee to the mountains:

15 And let him that is on the house-top, not go down into the house, neither enter therein, to take any thing out of his house:

16 And let him that is in the field, not turn back again for to take up his garment.

17 But woe to them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days!

18 And pray ye that your flight be not in the winter.

19 For in those days shall be affliction, such as was not from the beginning of the creation which God created, unto this time, neither shall be.

20 And except that the Lord had shortened those days, no flesh should be saved: but for the elect's sake, whom he hath chosen, he hath shortened the days.

21 <sup>p</sup> And then, if any man shall say to you, Lo, here is Christ; or lo, he is there; believe him not:

22 For false Christs and false prophets shall rise, and shall shew signs and wonders, to seduce, if it were possible, even the elect.

 34 For the Son of man is as a man taking a far journey, who left his house, and gave authority to his servants, and to every man his work, and commanded the porter to watch.

 36 Lest coming suddenly, he find you sleeping.
 37 And what I say unto you, I say unto all, Watch.

CHAP. XIV.

1 A conspiracy against Christ: 3 precious ointment is poured on his head by a woman. 10 Judas selleth his Master for money. 12 Christ himself foretelleth how he shall be betrayed of one of his disciples: 22 after the pass-over prepared, and eaten, instituteth his supper: 26 declareth aforehand the flight of all his disciples, and Peter's denial. 43 Judas betrayeth him with a kiss: 46 he is apprehended in the garden, 55 falsely accused, and impiously condemned of the Jews council, 65 shamefully abused by them, 66 and thrice denied of Peter.

AFTER <sup>a</sup> two days was the feast of the pass-over, and of unleavened bread: and the chief priests, and the scribes, sought how they might take him by craft, and put him to death.

2 But they said, Not on the feast-day, lest there be an uproar of the people.

3 ¶ And being in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at meat, there came a woman, having an alabaſter-box of ointment of <sup>b</sup> spikenard, very precious; and she brake the box, and poured it on his head.

4 And there were some that had indignation within themselves, and said, Why was this waste of the ointment made?

5 For it might have been sold for more than three hundred <sup>c</sup> pence, and have been given to the poor. And they murmured against her.

6 And Jesus said, Let her alone; why trouble ye her? she hath wrought a good work on me.

7 For <sup>c</sup> ye have the poor with you always, and whensoever ye will ye may do them good: but me ye have not always.

8 She hath done what she could: she is come aforehand to anoint my body to the burying.

9 Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, this also that she hath done, shall be spoken of, for a memorial of her.

10 ¶ And Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, went unto the chief priests, to betray him unto them.

11 And when they heard it, they were glad, and promised to give him money. And he sought how he might conveniently betray him.

12 ¶ And the first day of unleavened bread, when they <sup>d</sup> killed the pass-over, his disciples said unto him, Where wilt thou that we go and prepare, that thou mayest eat the pass-over?

13 And he sendeth forth two of his disciples, and saith unto them, Go ye into the city, and there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water: follow him.

14 And wheresoever he shall go in, say ye to the good-man of the house, The Master saith, Where is the guest-chamber, where I shall eat the pass-over with my disciples?

15 And he will shew you a large upper room furnished and prepared: there make ready for us.

16 And his disciples went forth, and came into the city, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the pass-over.

1 Jesus brought bound and accused before Pilate.

15 Upon the clamour of the common people, the murderer Barabbas is loosed, and Jesus delivered up to be crucified: 17 he is crowned with thorns, 19 spit on, and mocked: 21 fainteth in bearing his cross: 27 hangeth between two thieves: 29 suffereth the triumphing reproaches of the Jews: 39 but confessed by the centurion to be the Son of God: 43 and is honourably buried by Joseph.

AND <sup>a</sup> straightway in the morning the chief priests held a consultation with the elders and scribes, and the whole council, and bound Jesus, and carried him away, and delivered him to Pilate.

11 But <sup>e</sup> the chief priests moved the people to desire, that he should rather release Barabbas unto them.

e Acts 3.

12 And Pilate answered, and said again unto them, What will ye then that I shall do unto him whom ye call the King of the Jews?

13 And they cried out again, Crucify him.

14 Then Pilate said unto them, Why, what evil hath he done? And they cried out the more exceedingly, Crucify him.

and platted a crown of thorns, and put it about his head,

18 And began to salute him, Hail, King of the Jews!

19 And they smote him on the head with a reed, and did spit upon him, and bowing their knees, worshipped him.

20 And when they had mocked him, they took off the purple from him, and put his own clothes on him, and led him out to crucify him.

21 And they compel one Simon a Cyrenian, who passed by, coming out of the country, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to bear his cross.

22 And they bring him unto the place Golgotha, which is, being interpreted, The place of a skull.

23 And they gave him to drink, wine mingled with myrrh: but he received it not.

24 And when they had crucified him, they parted his garments, casting lots upon them, what every man should take.

25 And it was the third hour, and they crucified him.

26 And the superscription of his accusation was written over, THE KING OF THE JEWS.

27 And with him they crucify two thieves; the one on his right hand, and the other on his left.

28 And the scripture was fulfilled, which saith, And he was numbered with the transgressors.

29 And they that passed by, railed on him, wagging their heads, and saying, Ah, thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days,

30 Save thyself, and come down from the cross.

31 Likewise also the chief priests mocking, said among themselves with the scribes, He saved others; himself he cannot save.

32 Let Christ the King of Israel descend now from the cross, that we may see and believe. And they that were crucified with him, reviled him.

33 And when the sixth hour was come, there was darkness over the whole land, until the ninth hour.

34 And at the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani? which is, being interpreted, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

35 And some of them that stood by, when they heard it, said, Behold, he calleth Elias.

36 And one ran and filled a sponge full of vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink, saying, Let alone; let us see whether Elias will come to take him down.

37 And Jesus cried with a loud voice, and gave up the ghost.

38 And the veil of the temple was rent in twain, from the top to the bottom.

39 And when the centurion, which stood over against him, saw that he so cried out, and gave up the ghost, he said, Truly this man was the Son of God.

40 There were also women looking on afar off: among whom was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the less, and of Joses, and Salome;

41 Who also, when he was in Galilee, followed him, and ministered unto him; and many other women which came up with him unto Jerusalem.

42 And now when the even was come; (because it was the preparation, that is, the day before the sabbath;)

43 Joseph of Arimathea, an honourable counsellor, which also waited for the kingdom of God, came, and went in boldly unto Pilate, and craved the body of Jesus.

44 And Pilate marvelled if he were already dead: and calling unto him the centurion, he asked him whether he had been any while dead.

45 And when he knew of the centurion, he gave the body to Joseph.

46 And he bought fine linen, and took him down, and wrapped him in the linen, and laid him in a sepulchre which was hewn out of a rock, and rolled a stone unto the door of the sepulchre.

47 And Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of Joses, beheld where he was laid.

AND when the sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, had bought sweet spices, that they might come and anoint him.

2 And very early in the morning, the first day of the week, they came unto the sepulchre, at the rising of the sun.

3 And they said among themselves, Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the sepulchre?

12 ¶ After that, he appeared in another form unto two of them, as they walked, and went into the country.

13 And they went and told it unto the residue: neither believed they them.

14 ¶ Afterward he appeared unto the eleven, as they sat at meat, and upbraided them with their unbelief, and hardness of heart, because they believed not them which had seen him after he was risen.

15 And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.

16 He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned.

17 And these signs shall follow them that believe; In my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues;

18 They shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.

19 So then after the Lord had spoken unto them, he was received up into heaven, and sat on the right hand of God.

20 And they went forth, and preached every where, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word with signs following. Amen.

The Gospel according to S. L U K E.

CHAP. I.

1 The preface of Luke to his whole gospel. 5 The conception of John the Baptist, 26 and of Christ. 39 The prophecy of Elisabeth, and of Mary concerning Christ. 57 The nativity and circumcision of John. 67 The prophecy of Zachary both of Christ, 76 and of John.

FORasmuch as many have taken in hand to set forth in order a declaration of those things, which are most surely believed among us,

2 Even as they delivered them unto us, which from the beginning were eye-witnesses, and ministers of the word;

3 It seemed good to me also, having had perfect understanding of all things from the very first, to write unto thee in order, most excellent Theophilus,

4 That thou mightest know the certainty of those things wherein thou hast been instructed.

THERE was in the days of Herod the king of Judea, a certain priest named Zacharias, of the course of Abia: and his wife was of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elisabeth.

6 And they were both righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord, blameless.

7 And they had no child, because that Elisabeth was barren, and they both were now well stricken in years.

8 And it came to pass, that while he executed the priest's office before God, in the order of his course,

9 According to the custom of the priest's office, his lot was to burn incense when he went into the temple of the Lord.

10 And the whole multitude of the people were praying without, at the time of incense.

11 And there appeared unto him an angel of the Lord standing on the right side of the altar of incense.

12 And when Zacharias saw him, he was troubled, and fear fell upon him.

13 But the angel said unto him, Fear not, Zacharias: for thy prayer is heard; and thy wife Elisabeth shall bear thee a son, and thou shalt call his name John.

14 And thou shalt have joy and gladness; and many shall rejoice at his birth.

15 For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and shall drink neither wine nor strong drink; and he shall be filled with the Holy Ghost, even from his mother's womb.

16 And many of the children of Israel shall he turn to the Lord their God.

17 And he shall go before him in the spirit and power of Elias, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just; to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.

18 And Zacharias said unto the angel, Whereby shall I know this? for I am an old man, and my wife well stricken in years.

19 And the angel answering said unto him, I am Gabriel, that stand in the presence of God; and am sent to speak unto thee, and to shew thee these glad tidings.

20 And behold, thou shalt be dumb and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall be performed, because thou believest not my words, which shall be fulfilled in their season.

21 And the people waited for Zacharias, and marvelled that he tarried so long in the temple.

22 And when he came out, he could not speak unto them: and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple: for he beckened unto them, and remained speechless.

23 And it came to pass, that as soon as the days of his ministration were accomplished, he departed to his own house.

24 And after those days his wife Elisabeth conceived, and hid herself five months, saying,

25 Thus hath the Lord dealt with me in the days wherein he looked on me, to take away my reproach among men.

26 And in the sixth month, the angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, 27 To a virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary.

28 And the angel came in unto her, and said, Hail, thou that art highly favoured, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women.

29 And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be.

30 And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found favour with God.

31 And behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name JESUS.

32 He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David.

33 And he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end.

34 Then said Mary unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man?

35 And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee, shall be called the Son of God.

36 And behold thy cousin Elisabeth, she hath also conceived a son in her old age: and this is the sixth month with her, who was called barren.

37 For with God nothing shall be impossible.

38 And Mary said, Behold the handmaid of the Lord, be it unto me according to thy word. And the angel departed from her.

39 And Mary arose in those days, and went into the hill-country with haste, into a city of Juda;

40 And entered into the house of Zacharias, and saluted Elisabeth.

41 And it came to pass, that when Elisabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb; and Elisabeth was filled with the Holy Ghost:

42 And she spake out with a loud voice, and said, Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb.

43 And whence is this to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me?

44 For lo, as soon as the voice of thy salutation sounded in mine ears, the babe leaped in my womb for joy.

45 And blessed is she that believed: for there shall be a performance of those things which were told her from the Lord.

46 And Mary said, My soul doth magnify the Lord,

47 And my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour:

48 For he hath regarded the low estate of his handmaiden: for behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.

49 For he that is mighty hath done to me great things; and holy is his name.

50 And his mercy is on them that fear him, from generation to generation.

51 He hath shewed strength with his arm: he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

52 He hath put down the mighty from their seats, and exalted them of low degree.

Before the Account called Anno Domini the sixth Year. 53 <sup>r</sup> He hath filled the hungry with good things, and the rich he hath sent empty away.

54 He hath holpen his servant Israel, <sup>e</sup> in remembrance of his mercy.

55 <sup>e</sup> As he spake to our fathers, to Abraham, and to his seed for ever.

56 And Mary abode with her about three months, and returned to her own house.

57 Now Elisabeth's full time came, that she should be delivered; and she brought forth a son.

58 And her neighbours and her cousins heard how the Lord had shewed great mercy upon her; and <sup>u</sup> they rejoiced with her.

59 And it came to pass, that * on the eighth day they came to circumcise the child; and they called him Zacharias, after the name of his father.

60 And his mother answered and said, <sup>v</sup> Not so; but he shall be called John.

61 And they said unto her, There is none of thy kindred that is called by this name.

62 And they made signs to his father, how he would have him called.

63 And he asked for a writing-table, and wrote, saying, <sup>z</sup> His name is John. And they marvelled all.

64 And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue loosed, and he spake, and praised God.

65 And fear came on all that dwelt round about them: and all these || sayings were noised abroad throughout all the hill-country of Judea.

66 And all they that heard them, <sup>a</sup> laid them up in their hearts, saying, What manner of child shall this be! And the hand of the Lord was with him.

67 And his father Zacharias was filled with the Holy Ghost, and prophesied, saying,

68 Blessed be the Lord God of Israel; for <sup>b</sup> he hath visited and redeemed his people,

69 <sup>c</sup> And hath raised up an horn of salvation for us, in the house of his servant David;

70 <sup>d</sup> As he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets, which have been since the world began:

71 That we should be saved from our enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us;

72 To perform the mercy promised to our fathers, and to remember his holy covenant:

74 That he would grant unto us, that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies, might <sup>f</sup> serve him without fear,

75 <sup>g</sup> In holiness and righteousness before him, all the days of our life.

76 And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Highest: for <sup>h</sup> thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways;

77 To give knowledge of salvation unto his people, <sup>i</sup> || by the remission of their sins,

78 Through the || tender mercy of our God; whereby the || day-spring from on high hath visited us,

79 <sup>k</sup> To give light to them that sit in darkness, and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace.

80 And <sup>l</sup> the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, and <sup>m</sup> was in the deserts till the day of his shewing unto Israel.

1 Augustus taxeth all the Roman empire. 6 The nativity of Christ. 8 An angel relateth it to the shepherds: 13 many sing praises to God for it.

21 Christ is circumcised. 22 Mary purified. 28 Simeon and Anna prophecy of Christ: 40 who increaseth in wisdom, 46 questioneth in the temple with the doctors, 51 and is obedient to his parents.

AND it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Cesar Augustus, that all the world should be || taxed.

2 (<sup>a</sup> And this taxing was first made when Cyrenius was governor of Syria.)

3 And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city.

4 And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judea, unto <sup>b</sup> the city of David, which is called Bethlehem; (<sup>c</sup> because he was of the house and lineage of David:)

5 To be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child.

6 And so it was, that while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered.

7 And <sup>d</sup> she brought forth her first-born son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn.

8 And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping || watch over their flock by night.

9 And lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were fore afraid.

10 And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.

11 For unto you is born this day, in the city of David, a Saviour, <sup>f</sup> which is Christ the Lord.

12 And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.

13 And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying,

14 Glory to God in the highest, and on earth <sup>b</sup> peace, good will towards men.

15 And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, † the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.

16 And they came with haste, and found Mary and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger.

17 And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child.

18 And all they that heard it, wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds.

19 But Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart.

20 And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them.

21 And when eight days were accomplished for the circumcising of the child, his name was called <sup>1</sup> JESUS, which was so named of the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

22 And when <sup>m</sup> the days of her purification, according to the law of Moses, were accomplished, they brought him to Jerusalem, to present him to the Lord;

23 (As it is written in the law of the Lord, <sup>n</sup> every male that openeth the womb shall be called holy to the Lord;)

24 And to offer a sacrifice according to <sup>o</sup> that which is said in the law of the Lord, A pair of turtle-doves, or two young pigeons.

25 And behold, there was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Simeon; and the same man was just and devout, <sup>p</sup> waiting for the consolation of Israel: and the Holy Ghost was upon him.

26 And it was revealed unto him by the Holy Ghost, that he should not see death, before he had seen the Lord's Christ.

27 And he came by the Spirit into the temple: and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him after the custom of the law,

28 Then took he him up in his arms, and blessed God, and said,

29 Lord, <sup>q</sup> now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word:

30 For mine eyes <sup>r</sup> have seen thy salvation,

31 Which thou hast prepared before the face of all people;

32 A light to lighten the Gentiles, and the glory of thy people Israel.

33 And Joseph and his mother marvelled at those things which were spoken of him.

34 And Simeon blessed them, and said unto Mary his mother, Behold, this child is set for the <sup>t</sup> fall and rising again of many in Israel; and for <sup>u</sup> a sign which shall be spoken against;

35 (Yea, <sup>v</sup> a sword shall pierce through thy own soul also,) that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed.

36 And there was one Anna prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Aser: she was of a great age, and had lived with an husband seven years from her virginity;

37 And she was a widow of about fourscore and four years, which departed not from the temple, but served God with fastings and prayers <sup>y</sup> night and day.

38 And she coming in that instant, gave thanks likewise unto the Lord, and spake of him to all them that <sup>z</sup> looked for redemption in || Jerusalem.

39 And when they had performed all things according to the law of the Lord, they returned into Galilee, to their own city Nazareth.

40 And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, filled with wisdom: and the grace of God was upon him.

41 Now his parents went to Jerusalem <sup>b</sup> every year at the feast of the pass-over.

42 And when he was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem, after the custom of the feast.

43 And when they had fulfilled the days, as they returned, the child Jesus tarried behind in Jerusalem; and Joseph and his mother knew not of it.

44 But they supposing him to have been in the company, went a day's journey; and they sought him among their kinsfolk and among their acquaintance.

45 And when they found him not, they turned back again to Jerusalem, seeking him.

46 And it came to pass, that after three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the doctors, both hearing them, and asking them questions.

1 The preaching and baptism of John: 15 his testimony of Christ. 20 Herod imprisoneth John. 21 Christ baptized, receiveth testimony from heaven. 23 The age and genealogy of Christ from Joseph upwards.

A.D. 26.

NOW in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Cesar, Pontius Pilate being governor of Judea, and Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip tetrarch of Iturea, and of the region of Trachonitis, and Lyfanius the tetrarch of Abilene,

9 And now also the ax is laid unto the root of the trees: <sup>f</sup> every tree therefore which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

10 And the people asked him, saying, <sup>f</sup> What shall we do then?

11 He answereth and saith unto them, <sup>h</sup> He that hath two coats, let him impart to him that hath none; and he that hath meat, let him do likewise.

12 Then came also publicans to be baptized, and said unto him, Master, what shall we do?

13 And he said unto them, Exact no more than that which is appointed you.

14 And the soldiers likewise demanded of him, saying, And what shall we do? And he said unto them, <sup>h</sup> Do violence to no man, neither accuse <sup>i</sup> any falsely; and be content with your <sup>h</sup> wages.

15 And as the people were <sup>h</sup> in expectation, and all men <sup>h</sup> mused in their hearts of John, whether he were the Christ, or not;

16 John answered, saying unto them all, <sup>i</sup> I indeed baptize you with water; but one mightier than I cometh, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to unloose: he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost and with fire:

17 Whose fan <sup>i</sup> is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and will gather the wheat into his garner; but the chaff he will burn with fire unquenchable.

18 And many other things in <sup>i</sup> his exhortation preached he unto the people.

19 <sup>k</sup> But Herod the tetrarch, being reproved by him for Herodias his brother Philip's wife, and for all the evils which Herod had done,

21 Now when all the people were baptized, <sup>i</sup> it came to pass that Jesus also being baptized, and praying, the heaven was opened,

CHAP. IV.

1 The temptation and fasting of Christ: 13 he overcometh the devil: 14 beginneth to preach.
16 The people of Nazareth admire his gracious words: 33 he cureth one possessed of a devil, 38 Peter's mother-in-law, 40 and drives other sick persons. 41 The devils acknowledge Christ, and are reproved for it: 43 he preacheth through the cities.

AND Jesus being full of the Holy Ghost returned from Jordan, and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness,

2 Being forty days tempted of the devil.
And in those days he did eat nothing:
and when they were ended, he afterwards hungered.

3 And the devil said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, command this stone that it be made bread.

4 And Jesus answered him, saying, It is written, That man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God.

5 And the devil taking him up into an high mountain, shewed unto him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time.

6 And the devil said unto him, All this power will I give thee, and the glory of them: for that is delivered unto me; and to whomsoever I will, I give it.

7 If thou therefore wilt worship me, all shall be thine.

8 And Jesus answered and said unto him,
Get thee behind me, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.

9 And he brought him to Jerusalem, and set him on a pinnacle of the temple, and said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down from hence:

10 For it is written, He shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee:

11 And in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

12 And Jesus answering said unto him,
It is said, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

13 And when the devil had ended all the temptation, he departed from him for a season.

14 And Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit into Galilee: and there went out a fame of him through all the region round about.

15 And he taught in their synagogues, being glorified of all.

16 And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up: and, as his custom was, he went into the synagogue on the sabbath-day, and stood up for to read.

17 And there was delivered unto him the book of the prophet Esaias. And when he had opened the book, he found the place where it was written,

18 The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the broken-hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised:

19 To preach the acceptable year of the Lord.

20 And he closed the book, and he gave it again to the minister, and sat down. And the eyes of all them that were in the synagogue were fastened on him.

21 And he began to say unto them, This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears.

22 And all bare him witness, and wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth. And they said,

23 Is not this Joseph's son?

23 And he said unto them, Ye will surely say unto me this proverb, Physician, heal thyself: whatsoever we have heard done in Capernaum, do also here in thy country.

24 And he said, Verily I say unto you, No prophet is accepted in his own country.

25 But I tell you of a truth, many widows were in Israel in the days of Elias, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, when great famine was throughout all the land;

26 But unto none of them was Elias sent, save unto Sarepta a city of Sidon, unto a woman that was a widow.

27 And many lepers were in Israel in the time of Eliseus the prophet; and none of them was cleansed, saving Naaman the Syrian.

28 And all they in the synagogue, when they heard these things, were filled with wrath,

29 And rose up, and thrust him out of the city, and led him unto the brow of the hill (whereon their city was built) that they might cast him down headlong.

30 But he passing through the midst of them, went his way,

31 And came down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee, and taught them on the sabbath-days.

32 And they were astonished at his doctrine: for his word was with power.

33 And in the synagogue there was a man which had a spirit of an unclean devil; and he cried out with a loud voice,

34 Saying, Let us alone; what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art; the Holy One of God.

35 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. And when the devil had thrown him in the midst; he came out of him, and hurt him not.

36 And they were all amazed, and spake among themselves, saying, What a word is this! for with authority and power he commandeth the unclean spirits, and they come out.

37 And the fame of him went out into every place of the country round about.

38 And he arose out of the synagogue, and entered into Simon's house. And Simon's wife's mother was taken with a great fever; and they besought him for her.

39 And he stood over her, and rebuked the fever; and it left her: and immediately she arose and ministered unto them.

40 Now when the sun was setting, all they that had any sick with divers diseases, brought them unto him; and he laid his hands on every one of them, and healed them.

41 And devils also came out of many, crying out, and saying, Thou art Christ the Son of God. And he rebuking them, suffered them not to speak: for they knew that he was Christ.

42 And when it was day, he departed and went into a desert place: and the people sought him, and came unto him, and stayed him, that he should not depart from them.

43 And he said unto them, I must preach the kingdom of God to other cities also: for therefore am I sent.

44 And he preached in the synagogues of Galilee.

CHAP. V.

1 Christ teacheth the people out of Peter's ship; 4 in a miraculous taking of fishes, sheweth how he will make him and his partners fishers of men; 12 cleanseth the leper; 16 prayeth in the wilderness; 18 healeth one sick of the palsy; 27 calleth Matthew the publican; 29 eateth with sinners, as being the physician of souls; 34 foretelleth the fastings and afflictions of the apostles after his ascension: 36 and likeneth faint-hearted and weak disciples to worn garments and old bottles.

AND it came to pass that, as the people pressed upon him to hear the word of God, he stood by the lake of Genesareth,

2 And saw two ships standing by the lake: but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets.

3 And he entered into one of the ships, which was Simon's, and prayed him that he would thrust out a little from the land. And he sat down, and taught the people out of the ship.

 1 John 21. 6. said unto Simon, <sup>b</sup> Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught.

5 And Simon answering said unto him, Master, we have toiled all the night, and have taken nothing: nevertheless, at thy word I will let down the net.

6 And when they had this done, they inclosed a great multitude of fishes: and their net brake.

7 And they beckened unto their partners, which were in the other ship, that they should come and help them. And they came, and filled both the ships, so that they began to sink.

8 When Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, <sup>c</sup> Depart from me; for I am a sinful man, O Lord.

9 For he was astonished, and all that were with him, at the draught of the fishes which they had taken:

10 And so was also James and John the sons of Zebedee, which were partners with Simon. And Jesus said unto Simon, Fear not; <sup>d</sup> from henceforth thou shalt catch men.

11 And when they had brought their ships to land, <sup>e</sup> they forsook all, and followed him.

12 ¶ And it came to pass, when he was in a certain city, behold, a man full of leprosy: who seeing Jesus, fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt thou canst make me clean.

13 And he put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will: Be thou clean. And immediately the leprosy departed from him.

14 <sup>f</sup> And he charged him to tell no man: but go, and shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing, <sup>g</sup> according as Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

15 But so much the more went there a fame abroad of him: and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed by him of their infirmities.

16 ¶ And he withdrew himself into the wilderness, and prayed.

17 And it came to pass on a certain day, as he was teaching, that there were Pharisees and doctors of the law sitting by, which were come out of every town of Galilee, and Judea, and Jerusalem: and the power of the Lord was present to heal them.

18 ¶ And behold, men brought in a bed a man which was taken with a palsy: and they sought means to bring him in, and to lay him before him.

19 And when they could not find by what way they might bring him in, because of the multitude, they went upon the housetop, and let him down through the tiling with his couch, into the midst before Jesus.

20 And when he saw their faith, he said unto him, Man, thy sins are forgiven thee.

21 <sup>h</sup> And the scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, Who is this which speaketh blasphemies? <sup>i</sup> Who can forgive sins but God alone?

22 But when Jesus perceived their thoughts, he answering, said unto them, What reason ye in your hearts?

23 Whether is easier to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Rise up and walk?

24 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power upon earth to forgive sins, He said unto the sick of the palsy, I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy couch, and go unto thine house.

25 And immediately he rose up before them, and took up that whereon he lay, and departed to his own house, glorifying God.

26 And they were all amazed, and they glorified God, and were filled with fear, saying, We have seen strange things to-day.

27 ¶ <sup>m</sup> And after these things he went forth, and saw a publican named Levi, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he said unto him, Follow me.

28 And he left all, rose up, and followed him.

29 <sup>n</sup> And Levi made him a great feast in his own house: and there was a great company of publicans, and of others that sat down with them.

30 But their scribes and Pharisees murmured against his disciples, saying, Why do ye eat and drink with publicans and sinners?

31 And Jesus answering, said unto them, They that are whole need not a physician; but they that are sick.

32 <sup>o</sup> I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

33 ¶ And they said unto him, <sup>p</sup> Why do the disciples of John fast often, and make prayers, and likewise the disciples of the Pharisees; but thine eat and drink?

34 And he said unto them, Can ye make the children of the bride-chamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them?

35 But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those days.

36 ¶ <sup>q</sup> And he spake also a parable unto them; No man putteth a piece of a new garment upon an old; if otherwise, then both the new maketh a rent, and the piece that was taken out of the new, agreeth not with the old.

37 And no man putteth new wine into old

CHAP. VI.

1 Christ reproveth the Pharisees blindness about the observation of the sabbath, by scripture, reason, and miracle: 13. chooseth twelve apostles: 17. healeth the diseased: 20. preacheth to his disciples before the people of blessings and curses; 27. how we must love our enemies: 46. and join the obedience of good works to the hearing of the word, lest in the evil day of temptation we fall like an house built upon the face of the earth without any foundation.

AND <sup>a</sup> it came to pass on the second sabbath after the first, that he went through the corn-fields; and his disciples plucked the ears of corn, and did eat, rubbing them in their hands.

7 And the scribes and Pharisees watched him whether he would heal on the sabbath-day; that they might find an accusation against him.

8 But he knew their thoughts, and said to the man which had the withered hand, Rise up, and stand forth in the midst. And he arose, and stood forth.

9 Then said Jesus unto them, I will ask you one thing; Is it lawful on the sabbath-days to do good, or to do evil? to save life, or to destroy it?

10 And looking round about upon them all, he said unto the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he did so: and his hand was restored whole as the other.

34 <sup>e</sup> And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye? for sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again.

35 But <sup>f</sup> love ye your enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping for nothing again; and your reward shall be great, and <sup>g</sup> ye shall be the children of the Highest: for he is kind unto the unthankful, and to the evil.

48 He is like a man which built an house, and digged deep, and laid the foundation on a rock: and when the flood arose, the stream beat vehemently upon that house, and could not shake it: for it was founded upon a rock.

49 But he that heareth, and doeth not, is like a man that without a foundation built an house upon the earth, against which the stream did beat vehemently, and immediately it fell, and the ruin of that house was great.

CHAP. VII.

NOW when he had ended all his sayings in the audience of the people, <sup>a</sup> he entered into Capernaum:

2 And a certain centurion's servant, who was dear unto him, was sick, and ready to die.

3 And when he heard of Jesus, he sent unto him the elders of the Jews, beseeching him that he would come and heal his servant.

4 And when they came to Jesus, they besought him instantly, saying, That he was worthy for whom he should do this:

5 For he loveth our nation, and he hath built us a synagogue.

6 Then Jesus went with them. And when he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying unto him, Lord, trouble not thyself: for I am not worthy that thou shouldest enter under my roof;

7 Wherefore neither thought I myself worthy to come unto thee: but say in a word, and my servant shall be healed.

8 For I also am a man set under authority, having under me soldiers, and I say unto <sup>t</sup> one, Go, and he goeth; and to <sup>u</sup> this man.

16 Sunday,

Trinity, Gospel, ver. 11. to
ver. 18.

9 When Jesus heard these things, he marvelled at him, and turned him about, and said unto the people that followed him, I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel.

10 And they that were sent, returning to the house, found the servant whole that had been sick.

11 ¶ And it came to pass the day after, that he went into a city called Nain; and many of his disciples went with him, and much people.

12 Now when he came nigh to the gate of the city, behold, there was a dead man carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow: and much people of the city was with her.

13 And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said unto her, Weep not.

14 And he came and touched the bier: and they that bare him stood still. And he said, Young man, I say unto thee, <sup>b</sup> Arise.

15 And he that was dead, sat up, and began to speak. And he delivered him to his mother.

16 And there came a fear on all: and they glorified God, saying, <sup>c</sup> That a great prophet is risen up among us; and, <sup>d</sup> That God hath visited his people.

17 And this rumour of him went forth throughout all Judea, and throughout all the region round about.

18 ¶ And the disciples of John shewed him of all these things.

19 And John calling unto him two of his disciples, sent them unto Jesus, saying, Art thou he that should come? or look we for another?

20 When the men were come unto him, they said, John Baptist hath sent us unto thee, saying, Art thou he that should come? or look we for another?

21 And in that same hour he cured many of their infirmities and plagues, and of evil spirits; and unto many that were blind he gave sight.

22 ¶ Then Jesus answering, said unto them, Go your way, and tell John what things ye have seen and heard; <sup>e</sup> how that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, to the poor the gospel is preached.

23 And blessed is he whosoever shall not be offended in me.

24 ¶ And when the messengers of John were departed, he began to speak unto the people concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness for to see? A reed shaken with the wind?

25 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they which are gorgeously apparelled, and live delicately, are in kings courts.

26 But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? Yea, I say unto you, and much more than a prophet.

27 This is he of whom it is written, <sup>k</sup> Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

28 For I say unto you, Among those that are born of women, there is not a greater prophet than John the Baptist: but he that is least in the kingdom of God, is greater than he.

29 And all the people that heard him, and the publicans, justified God, <sup>l</sup> being baptized with the baptism of John.

30 But the Pharisees and lawyers <sup>m</sup> rejected the counsel of God <sup>n</sup> against themselves, being not baptized of him.

31 And the Lord said, <sup>n</sup> Whereunto then shall I liken the men of this generation? and to what are they like?

32 They are like unto children sitting in the market-place, and calling one to another, and saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned to you, and ye have not wept.

33 For <sup>o</sup> John the Baptist came neither eating bread, nor drinking wine; and ye say, He hath a devil.

34 The Son of man is come eating and drinking; and ye say, Behold, a gluttonous man, and a wine-bibber, a friend of publicans and sinners.

35 But wisdom is justified of all her children.

36 ¶ And one of the Pharisees desired him that he would eat with him. And he went into the Pharisee's house, and sat down to meat.

37 And behold, a woman in the city, which was a sinner, when she knew that Jesus sat at meat in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster-box of ointment,

38 And stood at his feet behind him weeping, and began to wash his feet with tears, and did wipe them with the hairs of her head, and kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment.

39 Now when the Pharisee which had bidden him, saw it, he spake within himself, saying, <sup>q</sup> This man, if he were a prophet, would have known who, and what manner of woman this is that toucheth him: for she is a sinner.

40 And Jesus answering, said unto him,

Simon, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And he saith, Master, say on.

41 There was a certain creditor, which had two debtors: the one owed five hundred pence, and the other fifty.

42 And when they had nothing to pay, he frankly forgave them both. Tell me therefore, which of them will love him most?

43 Simon answered and said, I suppose that he to whom he forgave most. And he said unto him, Thou hast rightly judged.

44 And he turned to the woman, and said unto Simon, Seest thou this woman? I entered into thine house, thou gavest me no water for my feet: but she hath washed my feet with tears, and wiped them with the hairs of her head.

45 Thou gavest me no kifs: but this woman, since the time I came in, hath not ceased to kifs my feet.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Women minister unto Christ of their substance.

4 Christ, after he had preached from place to place, attended with his apostles, propoundeth the parable of the sower, 16 and of the candle; 21 declareth who are his mother, and brethren; 22 rebuketh the winds; 26 casteth the legion of devils out of the man, into the herd of swine; 37 is rejected of the Gadarenes; 43 healeth the woman of her bloody issue; 49 and raiseth from death Jairus's daughter.

AND it came to pass afterward, that he went throughout every city and village, preaching and shewing the glad tidings of the kingdom of God: and the twelve were with him;

2 And certain women, which had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities, Mary called Magdalene, out of whom went seven devils,

3 And Joanna the wife of Chuza Herod's steward, and Susanna, and many others, which ministered unto him of their substance.

4 And when much people were gathered together, and were come to him out of every city, he spake by a parable:

5 A sower went out to sow his seed: and as he sowed, some fell by the way-side; and it was troden down, and the fowls of the air devoured it.

6 And some fell upon a rock; and as soon as it was sprung up, it withered away, because it lacked moisture.

7 And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprang up with it, and choked it.

8 And other fell on good ground, and sprang up, and bare fruit an hundred-fold. And when he had said these things, he cried, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

9 And his disciples asked him, saying, What might this parable be?

10 And he said, Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God: but to others in parables; that seeing they might not see, and hearing they might not understand.

11 Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God.

12 Those by the way-side, are they that hear; then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved.

13 They on the rock are they, which, when they hear; receive the word with joy; and these have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away.

14 And that which fell among thorns are they, which, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares and riches, and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection.

15 But that on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience.

16 ¶ No man, when he hath lighted a candle, covereth it with a vessel, or putteth it under a bed; but setteth it on a candlestick, that they which enter in may see the light.

17 For nothing is secret, that shall not be made manifest; neither any thing hid, that shall not be known, and come abroad.

18 Take heed therefore how ye hear: for whosoever hath, to him shall be given; and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken, even that which he seemeth to have.

19 ¶ Then came to him his mother and his brethren, and could not come at him for the press.

20 And it was told him by certain, which said, Thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to see thee.

21 And he answered and said unto them,

My mother and my brethren are these which hear the word of God, and do it.

22 ¶<sup>1</sup> Now it came to pass on a certain day, that he went into a ship with his disciples: and he said unto them, Let us go over unto the other side of the lake. And they launched forth.

23 But as they sailed, he fell asleep: and there came down a storm of wind on the lake; and they were filled with water, and were in jeopardy.

24 And they came to him, and awoke him, saying, Master, master, we perish. Then he arose and rebuked the wind, and the raging of the water: and they ceased, and there was a calm.

25 And he said unto them, Where is your faith? and they being afraid, wondered, saying one to another, What manner of man is this! for he commandeth even the winds and water, and they obey him.

26 ¶<sup>m</sup> And they arrived at the country of the Gadarenes, which is over against Galilee.

27 And when he went forth to land, there met him out of the city, a certain man which had devils long time, and ware no clothes, neither abode in any house, but in the tombs.

28 When he saw Jesus, he cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of God most high? I beseech thee torment me not.

29 (For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For oftentimes it had caught him: and he was kept bound with chains, and in fetters; and he brake the bands, and was driven of the devil into the wilderness.)

30 And Jesus asked him, saying, What is thy name? And he said, Legion: because many devils were entered into him.

31 And they besought him that he would not command them to go out <sup>n</sup> into the deep.

32 And there was there an herd of many swine feeding on the mountain: and they besought him that he would suffer them to enter into them. And he suffered them.

33 Then went the devils out of the man, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the lake, and were choked.

34 When they that fed them saw what was done, they fled, and went and told it in the city and in the country.

35 Then they went out to see what was done; and came to Jesus, and found the man out of whom the devils were departed, sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid.

36 They also which saw it, told them by what means he that was possessed of the devils, was healed.

37 ¶<sup>o</sup> Then the whole multitude of the country of the Gadarenes round about, <sup>p</sup> besought him to depart from them; for they were taken with great fear: and he went up into the ship, and returned back again.

38 Now <sup>a</sup> the man out of whom the devils were departed, besought him that he might be with him: but Jesus sent him away, saying,

39 Return to thine own house, and shew how great things God hath done unto thee. And he went his way, and published throughout the whole city, how great things Jesus had done unto him.

40 And it came to pass, that when Jesus was returned, the people gladly received him: for they were all waiting for him.

41 ¶<sup>r</sup> And behold, there came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue: and he fell down at Jesus' feet, and besought him that he would come into his house:

42 For he had one only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she lay a dying. But as he went, the people thronged him.

43 ¶<sup>s</sup> And a woman having an issue of blood twelve years, which had spent all her living upon physicians, neither could be healed of any,

44 Came behind him, and touched the border of his garment: and immediately her issue of blood stanch'd.

45 And Jesus said, Who touched me? When all denied; Peter, and they that were with him, said, Master, the multitude throng thee, and press thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me?

46 And Jesus said, Somebody hath touched me: for I perceive that <sup>t</sup> virtue is gone out of me.

47 And when the woman saw that she was not hid, she came trembling, and falling down before him, she declared unto him before all the people, for what cause she had touched him, and how she was healed immediately.

48 And he said unto her, Daughter, be of good comfort: thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace.

49 ¶<sup>u</sup> While he yet spake, there cometh <sup>v</sup> one from the ruler of the synagogue's <sup>house</sup>, saying to him, Thy daughter is dead; trouble not the Master.

50 But when Jesus heard it, he answered him, saying, Fear not: believe only,

CHAP. IX.

1 Christ sendeth his apostles to work miracles, and to preach. 7 Herod desireth to see Christ. 17 Christ feedeth five thousand: 18 enquireth what opinion the world had of him: 22 foretelleth his passion: 23 propoſeth to all the pattern of his patience. 28 The transfiguration. 37 He healeth the lunatick: 43 again forewarneth his disciples of his passion: 46 commendeth humility: 51 biddeth them to shew mildness towards all, without desire of revenge. 57 Divers would follow him, but upon conditions.

* Matth. 10. 1. Mark 3. 13. & 6. 7. THEN * he called his twelve disciples together, and gave them power and authority over all devils, and to cure diseases.

3 And he said unto them, Take nothing for your journey, neither staves, nor scrip, neither bread, neither money; neither have two coats apiece.

4 And whatsoever house ye enter into, there abide, and thence depart.

* Matth. 10. 14. Acts 13. 51. 5 * And whosoever will not receive you, when ye go out of that city, <sup>d</sup> shake off the very dust from your feet for a testimony against them.

6 And they departed and went through the towns, preaching the gospel, and healing every where.

A. D. 32. * Matth. 14. 1. Mark 6. 14. 7 ¶ * Now Herod the Tetrarch heard of all that was done by him: and he was perplexed, because that it was said of some, that John was risen from the dead;

8 And of some, that Elias had appeared; and of others, that one of the old prophets was risen again.

9 And Herod said, John have I beheaded: but who is this of whom I hear such things? And he desired to see him.

10 ¶ * And the apostles, when they were returned, told him all that they had done.

11 And the people, when they knew it, followed him: and he received them, and spake unto them of the kingdom of God, and healed them that had need of healing.

12 <sup>i</sup> And when the day began to wear away, then came the twelve, and said unto him, Send the multitude away, that they may go into the towns and country round about, and lodge, and get victuals: for we are here in a desert place.

13 But he said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they said, We have no more but five loaves and two fishes; except we should go and buy meat for all this people.

14 For they were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples, Make them sit down by fifties in a company.

15 And they did so, and made them all sit down.

16 Then he took the five loaves and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed them, and brake, and gave to the disciples to set before the multitude.

17 And they did eat, and were all filled: and there was taken up of fragments that remained to them, twelve baskets.

18 ¶ <sup>b</sup> And it came to pass as he was alone praying, his disciples were with him: And he asked them, saying, Whom say the people that I am?

19 They answering, said, <sup>i</sup> John the Baptist; but some say, Elias; and others say, that one of the old prophets is risen again.

20 He said unto them, But whom say ye that I am? * Peter answering, said, The Christ of God.

21 ¶ And he straitly charged them, and commanded them to tell no man that thing;

22 Saying, ° The Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders, and chief priests, and scribes, and be slain, and be raised the third day.

23 ¶ <sup>p</sup> And he said to them all, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me.

24 For whosoever will save his life, shall lose it: but whosoever will lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it.

27 <sup>a</sup> But I tell you of a truth, there be some standing here which shall not taste of death till they see the kingdom of God.

28 ¶ And it came to pass about an eight days after these sayings, he took Peter, and John, and James, and went up into a mountain to pray.

29 And as he prayed, the fashion of his countenance was altered, and his raiment was white and glistering.

30 And behold, there talked with him two men, which were Moses and Elias:

31 Who appeared in glory, and spake of his decease which he should accomplish at Jerusalem.

32 But Peter, and they that were with him, were heavy with sleep: and when they were awake, they saw his glory, and the two men that stood with him.

33 And it came to pass, as they departed from him, Peter said unto Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias: not knowing what he said.

34 While he thus spake, there came a cloud, and overshadowed them: and they feared as they entered into the cloud.

35 And there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, <sup>x</sup> This is my beloved Son: <sup>y</sup> hear him.

36 And when the voice was past, Jesus was found alone. <sup>z</sup> And they kept it close, and told no man in those days any of those things which they had seen.

37 ¶ And it came to pass, that on the next day, when they were come down from the hill, much people met him:

38 And behold, a man of the company cried out, saying, Master, I beseech thee, look upon my son: for he is mine only child.

39 And lo, a spirit taketh him, and he suddenly crieth out; and it teareth him that he foameth again, and bruising him, hardly departeth from him.

40 And I besought thy disciples to cast him out; and they could not.

41 And Jesus answering, said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you, and suffer you? Bring thy son hither.

42 And as he was yet a coming, the devil threw him down, and tare him. And Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the child, and delivered him again to his father.

44 <sup>b</sup> Let these sayings sink down into your ears: for the Son of man shall be delivered into the hands of men.

45 <sup>c</sup> But they understood not this saying, and it was hid from them, that they perceived it not: and they feared to ask him of that saying.

46 ¶ Then there arose a reasoning among them, which of them should be greatest.

47 And Jesus perceiving the thought of their heart, took a child, and set him by him,

48 And said unto them, Whosoever shall receive this child in my name, receiveth me; and whosoever shall receive me, receiveth him that sent me: for he that is least among you all, the same shall be great.

49 ¶ And John answered and said, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name; and we forbade him, because he followeth not with us.

50 And Jesus said unto him, Forbid him not: for <sup>f</sup> he that is not against us, is for us.

51 ¶ And it came to pass, when <sup>g</sup> the time was come that he should be received up, he stedfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem, 52 And sent messengers before his face: and they went, and entered into a village of the Samaritans to make ready for him.

53 And <sup>h</sup> they did not receive him, because his face was as though he would go to Jerusalem.

54 And when his disciples James and John saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as <sup>i</sup> Elias did?

55 But he turned, and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of.

56 For <sup>k</sup> the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them. And they went to another village.

57 ¶ And it came to pass that as they went in the way, a certain man said unto him, Lord, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

58 And Jesus said unto him, Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.

CHAP. X.

1 Christ sendeth out at once seventy disciples to work miracles, and to preach: 17 admonisheth them to be humble, and wherein to rejoice: 21 thanketh his Father for his grace: 23 magnifieth the happy estate of his church: 25 teacheth the lawyer how to attain eternal life, and to take every one for his neighbour that needeth his mercy: 41 reprehendeth Martha, and commendeth Mary her sister.

AFTER these things, the Lord appointed other seventy also, and sent them two and two before his face into every city, and place, whither he himself would come.

2 Therefore said he unto them, The harvest truly is great, but the labourers are few: pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth labourers into his harvest.

3 Go your ways: behold, I send you forth as lambs among wolves.

4 Carry neither purse, nor scrip, nor shoes: and salute no man by the way.

5 And into whatsoever house ye enter, first say, Peace be to this house.

6 And if the Son of peace be there, your peace shall rest upon it: if not, it shall turn to you again.

7 And in the same house remain, eating and drinking such things as they give: for the labourer is worthy of his hire. Go not from house to house.

8 And into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you:

9 And heal the sick that are therein, and say unto them, The kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.

10 But into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you not, go your ways out into the streets of the same, and say,

11 Even the very dust of your city which cleaveth on us, we do wipe off against you: notwithstanding, be ye sure of this, that the kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.

12 But I say unto you, that it shall be more tolerable in that day for Sodom, than for that city.

13 Woe unto thee, Chorazin! woe unto thee, Bethsaida! for if the mighty works had been done in Tyre and Sidon, which have been done in you, they had a great while ago repented, sitting in sackcloth and ashes.

14 But it shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the judgement, than for you.

15 And thou, Capernaum, which are exalted to heaven, shalt be thrust down to hell.

16 He that heareth you, heareth me; and he that despiseth you, despiseth me; and he that despiseth me, despiseth him that sent me.

17 And the seventy returned again with joy, saying, Lord, even the devils are subject unto us through thy name.

18 And he said unto them, I beheld Satan as lightning fall from heaven.

19 Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you.

20 Notwithstanding, in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice, because your names are written in heaven.

21 In that hour Jesus rejoiced in spirit, and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes: even so, Father; for so it seemed good in thy sight.

22 All things are delivered to me of my Father: and no man knoweth who the Son is, but the Father; and who the Father is, but the Son, and he to whom the Son will reveal him.

23 And he turned him unto his disciples, and said privately, Blessed are the eyes which see the things that ye see:

24 For I tell you, that many prophets and kings have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them.

25 And behold, a certain lawyer stood up, and tempted him, saying, Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?

26 He said unto him, What is written in the law? how readest thou?

27 And he answering, said, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbour as thyself.

28 And he said unto him, Thou hast answered right: this do, and thou shalt live.

29 But he, willing to justify himself, said unto Jesus, And who is my neighbour?

30 And Jesus answering, said, A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among thieves, which stripped him of his raiment, and wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead.

31 And by chance there came down a certain priest that way; and when he saw him, <sup>d</sup> he passed by on the other side.

32 And Likewise a Levite, when he was at the place, came and looked on him, and passed by on the other side.

33 But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was: and when he saw him, he had compassion on him,

34 And went to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine, and set him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him.

35 And on the morrow, when he departed, he took out two || pence, and gave them to the host, and said unto him, Take care of him; and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again, I will repay thee.

36 Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbour unto him that fell among the thieves?

37 And he said, He that shewed mercy on him. Then said Jesus unto him, Go, and do thou likewise.

38 ¶ Now it came to pass, as they went, that he entered into a certain village: and a certain woman named <sup>c</sup> Martha, received him into her house.

39 And she had a sister called Mary, <sup>f</sup> which also <sup>e</sup> sat at Jesus' feet, and heard his word.

40 But Martha was cumbered about much serving, and came to him, and said, Lord, dost thou not care that my sister hath left me to serve alone? bid her therefore that she help me.

41 And Jesus answered, and said unto her, Martha, Martha, thou art careful, and troubled about many things:

42 But <sup>h</sup> one thing is needful: and Mary hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her.

CHAP. XI.

1 Christ teacheth to pray, and that instantly: 11 assuring that God so will give us good things:

AND it came to pass that as he was praying in a certain place, when he ceased, one of his disciples said unto him, Lord, teach us to pray, as John also taught his disciples.

2 And he said unto them, When ye pray, say, <sup>a</sup> Our Father which art in heaven, <sup>a</sup> Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in heaven, so in earth.

4 And forgive us our sins; for we also forgive every one that is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil.

5 And he said unto them, Which of you shall have a friend, and shall go unto him at midnight, and say unto him, Friend, lend me three loaves;

6 For a friend of mine || in his journey is come to me, and I have nothing to set before him? || Or, out of his way.

7 And he from within shall answer and say, Trouble me not: the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise and give thee.

8 I say unto you, <sup>b</sup> Though he will not rise and give him, because he is his friend, yet because of his importunity, he will rise and give him as many as he needeth.

9 <sup>c</sup> And I say unto you, Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you.

10 For every one that asketh, receiveth; and he that seeketh, findeth; and to him that knocketh, it shall be opened.

11 <sup>d</sup> If a son shall ask bread of any of you that is a father, will he give him a stone? or if he ask a fish, will he for a fish give him a serpent?

12 Or if he shall ask an egg, will he † offer him a scorpion? † Gr. give.

13 If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children: how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him?

14 ¶ <sup>e</sup> And he was casting out a devil, and it was dumb. And it came to pass, when the devil was gone out, the dumb spake; and the people wondered.

15 But some of them said, <sup>f</sup> He casteth out devils through † Beelzebub, the chief of the devils.

16 And others tempting him, <sup>g</sup> sought of him a sign from heaven.

17 <sup>h</sup> But <sup>i</sup> he knowing their thoughts, said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself, is brought to desolation; and a house divided against a house, falleth.

self, how shall his kingdom stand? because ye say that I cast out devils through Beelzebub.

19 And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your sons cast them out? therefore shall they be your judges.

20 But if I <sup>with the finger of God</sup> cast out devils, no doubt the kingdom of God is come upon you.

24 <sup>When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest; and finding none, he saith, I will return unto my house whence I came out.</sup>

25 And when he cometh, he findeth it swept and garnished.

26 Then goeth he, and taketh to him seven other spirits more wicked than himself; and they enter in, and dwell there: and <sup>the last state of that man is worse than the first.</sup>

27 <sup>And it came to pass as he spake these things, a certain woman of the company lifted up her voice, and said unto him, Blessed is the womb that bare thee, and the paps which thou hast sucked.</sup>

28 But he said, Yea, <sup>rather blessed are they that hear the word of God and keep it.</sup>

29 <sup>And when the people were gathered thick together, he began to say, This is an evil generation: they seek a sign; and there shall no sign be given it, but the sign of Jonas the prophet.</sup>

40 <sup>Ye fools, did not he that made that which is without, make that which is within also?</sup>

41 <sup>But rather give alms of such things as ye have; and behold, all things are clean unto you.</sup>

42 <sup>But woe unto you, Pharisees! for ye tithe mint, and rue, and all manner of herbs, and pass over judgement and the love of God: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.</sup>

43 <sup>Woe unto you, Pharisees! for ye love the uppermost seats in the synagogues, and greetings in the markets.</sup>

1 Christ preacheth repentance upon the punishment of the Galileans, and others. 6 The fruitless fig-tree may not stand. 11 He healeth the crooked woman: 18 sheweth the powerful working of the word in the hearts of his chosen, by the parable of the grain of mustard-seed, and of leaven: 24 exhorteth to enter in at the strait gate: 31 and reproveth Herod and Jerusalem.

THERE were present at that season some that told him of the Galileans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices.

2 And Jesus answering, said unto them, Suppose ye that these Galileans were sinners above all the Galileans, because they suffered such things?

3 I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

4 Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Siloam fell, and slew them, think ye that they were sinners above all men that dwelt in Jerusalem?

6 He spake also this parable: A certain man had a fig-tree planted in his vineyard; and he came and sought fruit thereon, and found none.

7 Then said he unto the dresser of his vineyard, Behold, these three years I come seeking fruit on this fig-tree, and find none: cut it down; why cumbereth it the ground?

8 And he answering, said unto him, Lord, let it alone this year also, till I shall dig about it, and dung it:

9 And if it bear fruit, well: and if not, then after that thou shalt cut it down.

10 And he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath.

CHAP. XV.

1 The parable of the lost sheep: 8 of the piece of silver: 11 of the prodigal son.

THEN drew near unto him all the publicans and sinners for to hear him.

2 And the Pharisees and scribes murmured, saying, This man receiveth sinners, <sup>b</sup> and eateth with them.

3 ¶ And he spake this parable unto them, saying,

4 What man of you having an hundred sheep, if he lose one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it?

5 And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders, rejoicing.

6 And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and neighbours, saying unto them, Rejoice with me; for I have found my sheep <sup>d</sup> which was lost.

7 I say unto you, that likewise joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, <sup>e</sup> more than over ninety and nine just persons, which need no repentance.

8 ¶ Either what woman having ten <sup>h</sup> pieces of silver, if she lose one piece, doth not light a candle, and sweep the house, and seek diligently till she find it?

9 And when she hath found it, she calleth her friends and her neighbours together, saying, Rejoice with me; for I have found the piece which I had lost.

10 Likewise I say unto you, There is joy in the presence of the angels of God, over one sinner that repenteth.

11 ¶ And he said, A certain man had two sons:

12 And the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of goods that falleth to me. And he divided unto them <sup>i</sup> his living.

13 And not many days after, the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country, and there wasted his substance with riotous living.

14 And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land; and he began to be in want.

15 And he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine:

16 And he would fain have filled his belly with the husks that the swine did eat: and no man gave unto him.

17 And when he came to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger!

18 I will arise, and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee,

19 And am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants.

20 And he arose, and came to his father. But <sup>s</sup> when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him.

21 And the son said unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, <sup>h</sup> and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called <sup>4</sup> thy son.

22 But the father said to his servants, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet.

23 And bring hither the fatted calf, and kill it; and let us eat, and be merry:

24 For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found. And they began to be merry.

25 Now his elder son was in the field: and as he came and drew nigh to the house, he heard musick and dancing.

26 And he called one of the servants, and asked what these things meant.

CHAP. XVI.

1 The parable of the unjust steward. 14 Christ reproveth the hypocrisy of the covetous Pharisees.

19 The rich glutton, and Lazarus the beggar.

AND he said also unto his disciples, There was a certain rich man which had a steward; and the same was accused unto him that he had wasted his goods.

2 And he called him, and said unto him, How is it that I hear this of thee? give an account of thy stewardship: for thou mayest be no longer steward.

3 Then the steward said within himself, What shall I do? for my lord taketh away from me the stewardship: I cannot dig, to beg I am ashamed.

4 I am resolved what to do, that when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.

5 So he called every one of his lord's debtors unto him, and said unto the first, How much owest thou unto my lord?

6 And he said, An hundred measures of oil. And he said unto him, Take thy bill and sit down quickly, and write fifty.

7 Then said he to another, And how much owest thou? And he said, An hundred measures of wheat. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and write fourscore.

8 And the lord commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely: for the children of this world are in their generation wiser than the children of light.

9 And I say unto you, Make to yourselves friends of the mammon of unrighteousness; that, when ye fail, they may receive you into everlasting habitations.

10 He that is faithful in that which is least, is faithful also in much: and he that is unjust in the least, is unjust also in much.

11 If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches?

12 And if ye have not been faithful in that which is another man's, who shall give you that which is your own?

13 No servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

14 And the Pharisees also, who were covetous, heard all these things: and they derided him.

15 And he said unto them, Ye are they which justify yourselves before men; but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed amongst men, is abomination in the sight of God.

16 The law and the prophets were until John: since that time the kingdom of God is preached, and every man presseth into it.

17 And it is easier for heaven and earth to pass, than one tittle of the law to fail.

18 Whosoever putteth away his wife, and marrieth another, committeth adultery: and whosoever marrieth her that is put away from her husband, committeth adultery.

19 There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day:

20 And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate, full of sores,

21 And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table: moreover, the dogs came and licked his sores.

22 And it came to pass that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried.

23 And in hell he lifted up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom.

24 And he cried, and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame.

25 But Abraham said, Son, remember that thou in thy life-time receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things: but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented.

26 And besides all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed: so that they which would pass from hence to you, can-

1 Christ teacheth to avoid occasions of offence. 3

One to forgive another. 6 The power of faith.

7 How we are bound to God, and not he to us.

11 He healeth ten lepers. 22 Of the kingdom of God, and the coming of the Son of man.

THEN said he unto the disciples, a It is impossible but that offences will come: but woe unto him through whom they come!

2 It were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he cast into the sea, than that he should offend one of these little ones.

3 Take heed to yourselves: b If thy brother trespass against thee, c rebuke him; and if he repent, forgive him.

4 And if he trespass against thee seven times in a day, and seven times in a day turn again to thee, saying, I repent; thou shalt forgive him.

5 And the Apostles said unto the Lord, Increase our faith.

6 And the Lord said, If ye had faith as a grain of mustard-seed, ye might say unto this sycamine-tree, Be thou plucked up by the roots, and be thou planted in the sea; and it should obey you.

7 But which of you having a servant plowing, or feeding cattle, will say unto him by and by, when he is come from the field, Go, and sit down to meat?

8 And will not rather say unto him, Make ready wherewith I may sup, and gird thyself, ° and serve me, till I have eaten and drunken; and afterward thou shalt eat and drink?

9 Doth he thank that servant because he did the things that were commanded him? I trow not.

10 So likewise ye, when ye shall have done all those things which are commanded you, say, We are ° unprofitable servants: we have done that which was our duty to do.

11 ¶ And it came to pass, as he went to Jerusalem, that he passed through the midst of Samaria and Galilee.

12 And as he entered into a certain village, there met him ten men that were lepers, which stood afar off:

13 And they lifted up their voices, and said, Jesus, Master, have mercy on us.

14 And when he saw them, he said unto them, Go shew yourselves unto the priests. And it came to pass, that as they went, they were cleansed.

15 And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, and with a loud voice glorified God.

16 And fell down on his face at his feet, giving him thanks: and he was a Samaritan.

17 And Jesus answering, said, Were there not ten cleansed? but where are the nine?

18 There are not found that returned to give glory to God; save this strange.

19 And he said unto him, Arise, go thy way: thy faith hath made thee whole.

20 ¶ And when he was demanded of the Pharisees, when the kingdom of God should come, he answered them and said, The kingdom of God cometh not with observation:

21 Neither shall they say, Lo here; or lo there: for behold, the kingdom of God is within you.

22 And he said unto the disciples, The days will come when ye shall desire to see one of the days of the Son of man, and ye shall not see it.

23 And they shall say to you, See here; or, see there: go not after them, nor follow them.

24 For as the lightning that lighteneth out of the one part under heaven, shineth unto the other part under heaven; so shall also the Son of man be in his day.

25 But first must he suffer many things, and be rejected of this generation.

26 And as it was in the days of Noe, so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man.

27 They did eat, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark; and the flood came, and destroyed them all.

28 Likewise also as it was in the days of Lot; they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded;

29 But the same day that Lot went out of Sodom, it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all.

CHAP. XVIII.

3 Of the importunate widow. 9 Of the Pharisee and the publican. 15 Children brought to Christ. 18 A ruler that would follow Christ, but is hindered by his riches. 28 The reward of them that leave all for his sake: 31 he foreseeth his death. 35 and restoreth a blind man to his sight.

AND he spake a parable unto them, to this end, that men ought always to pray, and not to faint;

2 Saying, There was in a city a judge, which feared not God, neither regarded man:

3 And there was a widow in that city; and she came unto him, saying, Avenge me of mine adversary.

4 And he would not for a while: but afterward he said within himself, Though I fear not God, nor regard man;

5 Yet because this widow troubleth me, I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming, she weary me.

6 And the Lord said, Hear what the unjust judge saith.

7 And shall not God avenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them?

8 I tell you that he will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless, when the Son of man cometh, shall he find faith on the earth?

9 And he spake this parable unto certain which trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and despised others:

10 Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican.

11 The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican.

12 I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess.

13 And the publican standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner.

14 I tell you, This man went down to his house justified rather than the other: for every one that exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

15 And they brought unto him also infants, that he should touch them: but when his disciples saw it, they rebuked them.

16 But Jesus called them unto him, and said, Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God.

17 Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, shall in no wise enter therein.

18 And a certain ruler asked him, saying, Good Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?

19 And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? none is good, save one, that is God.

20 Thou knowest the commandments, Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honour thy father and thy mother.

21 And he said, All these have I kept from my youth up.

22 Now when Jesus heard these things, he said unto him, Yet lackest thou one thing: sell all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, follow me.

23 And when he heard this, he was very sorrowful: for he was very rich.

24 And when Jesus saw that he was very sorrowful, he said, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!

25 For it is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 And they that heard it, said, Who then can be saved?

27 And he said, The things which are impossible with men, are possible with God.

28 Then Peter said, Lo, we have left all, and followed thee.

29 And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, there is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or in this present time, and in the world to 31 ¶ Then he took unto him the twelve, and said unto them, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and all things <sup>a</sup> that are written by the prophets concerning the Son of man shall be accomplished.

32 For <sup>a</sup> he shall be delivered unto the Gentiles, and shall be mocked, and spitefully entreated, and spitted on:

33 And they shall scourge him, and put him to death: and the third day he shall rise again.

34 And they understood none of these things: and this saying was hid from them, neither knew they the things which were spoken.

35 ¶ And it came to pass, that as he was come nigh unto Jericho, a certain blind man sat by the way-side begging:

36 And hearing the multitude pass by, he asked what it meant.

37 And they told him, that Jesus of Nazareth passeth by.

38 And he cried, saying, Jesus, thou son of David, have mercy on me.

39 And they which went before, rebuked him, that he should hold his peace: but he cried so much the more, Thou son of David, have mercy on me.

40 And Jesus stood and commanded him to be brought unto him: and when he was come near, he asked him,

41 Saying, What wilt thou that I shall do unto thee? And he said, Lord, that I may receive my sight.

42 And Jesus said unto him, Receive thy sight: <sup>a</sup> thy faith hath saved thee.

43 And immediately he received his sight, and followed him, glorifying God: and all the people, when they saw it, gave praise unto God.

CHAP. XIX.

1 Of Zaccheus a publican. 11 The ten pieces of money. 28 Christ rideth into Jerusalem with triumph: 41 weepeth over it: 45 driveth the buyers and sellers out of the temple: 47 teaching daily in it. The rulers would have destroyed him, but for fear of the people.

AND Jesus entered and passed through Jericho.

2 And behold, there was a man named Zaccheus, which was the chief among the publicans, and he was rich.

3 And he sought to see Jesus who he was;
and could not for the press, because he was little of stature.

4 And he ran before, and climbed up into a sycamore-tree to see him; for he was to pass that way.

5 And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up and saw him, and said unto him, Zaccheus make haste, and come down;
for to-day I must abide at thy house.

6 And he made haste, and came down, and received him joyfully.

7 And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, That he was gone to be guest with a man that is a sinner.

8 And Zaccheus stood, and said unto the Lord; Behold, Lord, the half of my goods
I give to the poor; and if I have taken any thing from any man by <sup>b</sup> false accusation, I restore him four-fold.

9 And Jesus said unto him, This day is salvation come to this house, forsomuch as <sup>c</sup> he also is <sup>d</sup> a son of Abraham.

10 <sup>e</sup> For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.

11 And as they heard these things, he added, and spake a parable, because he was nigh to Jerusalem, and because they thought that the kingdom of God should immediately appear.

12 ¶ He said therefore, A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return.

13 And he called his ten servants, and delivered them ten ¶ pounds, and said unto them, Occupy till I come.

14 But his citizens hated him, and sent a message after him, saying, We will not have this man to reign over us.

15 And it came to pass, that when he was returned, having received the kingdom, then he commanded these servants to be called unto him, to whom he had given the † money, that he might know how much every man had gained by trading.

16 Then came the first, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained ten pounds.

17 And he said unto him, Well, thou good servant: because thou hast been <sup>e</sup> faithful in a very little, have thou authority over ten cities.

18 And the second came, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained five pounds.

19 And he said likewise to him, Be thou also over five cities.

20 And another came, saying, Lord, behold, here is thy pound, which I have kept laid up in a napkin:

21 For I feared thee, because thou art an austere man: thou takest up that thou layedst not down, and reapest that thou didst not sow.

22 And he saith unto him, <sup>b</sup> Out of thine own mouth will I judge thee, thou wicked servant. Thou knewest that I was an austere man, taking up that I laid not down, and reaping that I did not sow :

23 Wherefore then gavest not thou my money into the bank, that at my coming I might have required mine own with usury?

24 And he said unto them that stood by, Take from him the pound, and give it to him that hath ten pounds.

25 (And they said unto him, Lord, he hath ten pounds.)

26 For I say unto you, <sup>1</sup>That unto every one which hath, shall be given; and from him that hath not, even that he hath shall be taken away from him.

27 But those mine enemies, which would not that I should reign over them, bring hither, and slay them before me.

28 ¶ And when he had thus spoken, <sup>2</sup>he went before, ascending up to Jerusalem.

29 <sup>1</sup>And it came to pass when he was come nigh to Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount called the mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples,

30 Saying, Go ye into the village over against you; in the which at your entering ye shall find a colt tied, whereon yet never man sat: loose him, and bring him hither.

31 And if any man ask you, Why do ye loose him? thus shall ye say unto him, Because the Lord hath need of him.

32 And they that were sent, went their way, and found even as he had said unto them.

33 And as they were loosing the colt, the owners thereof said unto them, Why loose ye the colt?

34 And they said, The Lord hath need of him.

35 And they brought him to Jesus: and they cast their garments upon the colt, and they set Jesus thereon.

36 And as he went, they spread their clothes in the way.

37 And when he was come nigh, even now at the descent of the mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice, for all the mighty works that they had seen;

38 Saying, <sup>m</sup>Blessed be the King that cometh in the name of the Lord: <sup>n</sup>Peace in heaven, and glory in the highest.

39 And some of the Pharisees from among the multitude, said unto him, Master, rebuke thy disciples.

40 And he answered and said unto them, I tell you, that if these should hold their peace, <sup>o</sup>the stones would immediately cry out.

43 For the days shall come upon thee, that thine enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side, 44 And <sup>p</sup>shall lay thee even with the ground, and thy children within thee; and <sup>q</sup>they shall not leave in thee one stone upon another: <sup>r</sup>because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation.

45 ¶ And he went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold therein, and them that bought;

46 Saying unto them, <sup>s</sup>It is written, My house is the house of prayer: but <sup>t</sup>ye have made it a den of thieves.

47 And he taught daily in the temple. But <sup>u</sup>the chief priests, and the scribes, and the chief of the people sought to destroy him,

AND <sup>a</sup>it came to pass, that on one of <sup>a</sup>those days, as he taught the people in the temple, and preached the gospel, the chief priests and the scribes came upon him, with the elders.

2 And spake unto him, saying, Tell us, <sup>b</sup>By what authority doest thou these things? <sup>b</sup>or who is he that gave thee this authority? <sup>b</sup>Afts 4. 7. & 7. 27.

5 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then believed ye him not?

6 But and if we say, Of men; all the people will stone us: for they be persuaded that John was a prophet.

7 And they answered, that they could not tell whence it was.

8 And Jesus said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

this parable; <sup>c</sup> A certain man planted a vineyard, and let it forth to husbandmen, and went into a far country for a long time.
10 And at the season, he sent a servant to the husbandmen, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard: but the husbandmen beat him, and sent him away empty.

11 And again he sent another servant: and they beat him also, and entreated him shamefully, and sent him away empty.

12 And again he sent a third: and they wounded him also, and cast him out.

13 Then said the lord of the vineyard, What shall I do? I will send my beloved son: it may be they will reverence him when they see him.

14 But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, This is the heir: come, let us kill him, that the inheritance may be our's.

15 So they cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What therefore shall the lord of the vineyard do unto them?

16 He shall come and destroy these husbandmen, and shall give the vineyard to others. And when they heard it, they said, God forbid.

17 And he beheld them, and said, What is this then that is written, <sup>d</sup> The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner?

18 Whosoever shall fall upon that stone, shall be broken; but <sup>e</sup> on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

19 ¶ And the chief priests and the scribes the same hour sought to lay hands on him; and they feared the people: for they perceived that he had spoken this parable against them.

20 <sup>f</sup> And they watched him, and sent forth spies, which should feign themselves just men, that they might take hold of his words, that so they might deliver him unto the power and authority of the governor.

21 And they asked him, saying, <sup>g</sup> Master, we know that thou sayest and teachest rightly, neither acceptest thou the person of any, but teachest the way of God <sup>h</sup> truly:

22 Is it lawful for us to give tribute unto Cesar, or no?

23 But he perceived their craftiness, and said unto them, Why tempt ye me?

24 Shew me a <sup>i</sup> penny. Whose image and superscription hath it? They answered and said, Cesar's.

25 And he said unto them, Render therefore unto Cesar the things which be Cesar's, and unto God the things which be God's.

26 And they could not take hold of his words before the people: and they marvelled at his answer, and held their peace.

27 ¶ <sup>h</sup> Then came to him certain of the Sadducees (<sup>i</sup> which deny that there is any resurrection,) and they asked him,

28 Saying, Master, <sup>k</sup> Moses wrote unto us, If any man's brother die, having a wife, and he die without children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

29 There were therefore seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and died without children.

30 And the second took her to wife, and he died childless.

31 And the third took her; and in like manner the seven also: and they left no children, and died.

32 Last of all the woman died also.

33 Therefore in the resurrection, whose wife of them is she? for seven had her to wife.

34 And Jesus answering said unto them, The children of this world marry, and are given in marriage:

35 But they which shall be accounted worthy to obtain that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage:

36 Neither can they die any more: for <sup>l</sup> they are equal unto the angels; and are the children of God, <sup>m</sup> being the children of the resurrection.

37 Now that the dead are raised, <sup>n</sup> even Moses shewed at the bush, when he calleth the Lord the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.

38 For he is not a God of the dead, but of the living: for <sup>o</sup> all live unto him.

39 ¶ Then certain of the scribes answering, said, Master, thou hast well said.

40 And after that, they durst not ask him any question at all.

41 And he said unto them, <sup>p</sup> How say they that Christ is David's son?

42 And David himself saith in the book of Psalms, <sup>q</sup> The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, 43 Till I make thine enemies thy footstool.

44 David therefore calleth him Lord, how is he then his son?

45 ¶ Then in the audience of all the people, he said unto his disciples,

46 <sup>r</sup> Beware of the scribes, which desire to walk in long robes, and <sup>s</sup> love greetings in the markets, and the highest seats in the synagogues, and the chief rooms at feasts;

47 <sup>t</sup> Which devour widows houses, and

CHAP. XXI.

1 Christ commendeth the poor widow: 5 he foretelleth the destruction of the temple, and of the city Jerusalem: 25 the signs also which shall be before the last day: 34 he exhorteth them to be watchful.

Mark 12. 41.
AND he looked up, and saw the rich men casting their gifts into the treasury.

2 And he saw also a certain poor widow, casting in thither two mites.

3 And he said, Of a truth I say unto you, That this poor widow hath cast in more than they all:

4 For all these have of their abundance cast in unto the offerings of God: but she of her penury hath cast in all the living that she had.

5 ¶ And as some spake of the temple, how it was adorned with goodly stones, and gifts, he said,

6 As for these things which ye behold, the days will come, in the which there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

7 And they asked him, saying, Master, but when shall these things be? and what sign will there be when these things shall come to pass?

8 And he said, Take heed that ye be not deceived: for many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and the time draweth near: go ye not therefore after them.

9 But when ye shall hear of wars, and commotions, be not terrified: for these things must first come to pass; but the end is not by and by.

10 ¶ Then said he unto them, Nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom:

11 And great earthquakes shall be in divers places, and famines, and pestilences; and fearful sights, and great signs shall there be from heaven.

12 But before all these they shall lay their hands on you, and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues, and into prisons, being brought before kings and rulers for my name's sake.

13 And it shall turn to you for a testimony.

14 ¶ Settle it therefore in your hearts, not to meditate before what ye shall answer:

15 For I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which all your adversaries shall not be able to gain say, nor resist.

16 And ye shall be betrayed both by parents, and brethren, and kinsfolks, and friends; and some of you shall they cause to be put to death.

17 And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake.

18 But there shall not an hair of your head perish.

19 In your patience possess ye your souls.

20 And when ye shall see Jerusalem compassed with armies, then know that the desolation thereof is nigh.

21 Then let them which are in Judea, flee to the mountains; and let them which are in the midst of it, depart out; and let not them that are in the countries, enter thereinto.

22 For these be the days of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled.

23 But woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days! for there shall be great distress in the land, and wrath upon this people.

24 And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations: and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled.

25 ¶ And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring;

26 Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: for the powers of heaven shall be shaken.

27 And then shall they see the Son of man coming in a cloud with power and great glory.

28 And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh.

29 And he spake to them a parable; Behold the fig-tree, and all the trees;

30 When they now shoot forth, ye see and know of your own selves, that summer is now nigh at hand.

31 So likewise ye, when ye see these things come to pass, know ye that the kingdom of God is nigh at hand.

32 Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass away, till all be fulfilled.

33 Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away.

34 ¶ And take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares.

35 For as a snare shall it come on all

CHAP. XXII.

1 The Jews conspire against Christ: 3 Satan prepareth Judas to betray him. 7 The apostles sent to prepare the pass-over. 19 Christ instituteth his holy supper: 21 covertly foretelleth of the traitor: 24 dehortheth the rest of his apostles from ambition; 32 assureth Peter his faith should not fail, 34 and yet he should deny him thrice: 39 he prayeth in the mount, and sweateth blood: 47 is betrayed with a kiss: 50 he healeth Malchus's ear: 54 he is thrice denied of Peter, 63 shamefully abused, 66 and confesseth himself to be the Son of God.

NOW <sup>a</sup> the feast of unleavened bread drew nigh, which is called the Pass-over.

2 And <sup>b</sup> the chief priests and scribes sought how they might kill him; for they feared the people.

3 <sup>c</sup> Then entered Satan into Judas furnished Iscariot, being of the number of the twelve.

4 And he went his way, and communed with the chief priests and captains, how he might betray him unto them.

5 And they were glad, and covenanted to give him money.

6 And he promised, and sought opportunity to betray him unto them <sup>d</sup> in the absence of the multitude.

7 <sup>e</sup> Then came the day of unleavened bread, when the pass-over must be killed.

8 And he sent Peter and John, saying, Go, and prepare us the pass-over, that we may eat.

9 And they said unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare?

10 And he said unto them, Behold, when ye are entered into the city, there shall a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water; follow him into the house where he entereth in.

11 And ye shall say unto the good-man of the house, The Master saith unto thee, Where is the guest-chamber where I shall eat the pass-over with my disciples?

12 And he shall shew you a large upper room furnished: there make ready.

13 And they went and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the pass-over.

14 <sup>f</sup> And when the hour was come, he sat down, and the twelve apostles with him.

15 And he said unto them, <sup>g</sup> With desire I have desired to eat this pass-over with you before I suffer:

16 For I say unto you, I will not any more eat thereof, <sup>h</sup> until it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God.

17 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and said, Take this, and divide it among yourselves:

18 For <sup>i</sup> I say unto you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God shall come.

19 <sup>j</sup> And he took bread, and gave thanks, and brake it, and gave unto them, saying, This is my body which is given for you: <sup>k</sup> this do in remembrance of me.

20 Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you.

21 <sup>l</sup> But behold, the hand of him that betrayeth me is with me on the table.

22 And truly the Son of man goeth, <sup>m</sup> as it was determined: but woe unto that man by whom he is betrayed!

23 And they began to enquire among themselves, which of them it was that should do this thing.

24 <sup>n</sup> And there was also a strife among them, which of them should be accounted the greatest.

25 <sup>o</sup> And he said unto them, The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and they that exercise authority upon them, are called benefactors.

26 <sup>p</sup> But ye shall not be so: <sup>q</sup> but he that is greatest among you, let him be as the younger; and he that is chief, as he that doth serve.

27 <sup>r</sup> For whether is greater, he that sitteth at meat, or he that serveth? is not he that sitteth at meat? but <sup>s</sup> I am among you as he that serveth.

28 Ye are they which have continued with me in <sup>t</sup> my temptations.

29 And <sup>u</sup> I appoint unto you a kingdom, as my Father hath appointed unto me;

30 That ye may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, <sup>v</sup> and sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

31 <sup>w</sup> And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold, <sup>x</sup> Satan hath desired to have you, that he may sift you as wheat:

32 But I have prayed for thee, that thy

33 And he said unto him, Lord, I am ready to go with thee both into prison, and to death.

34 And he said, I tell thee, Peter, the cock shall not crow this day, before that thou shalt thrice deny that thou knowest me.

35 And he said unto them, When I sent you without purse, and scrip, and shoes, lacked ye any thing? And they said, Nothing.

36 Then said he unto them, But now he that hath a purse, let him take it, and likewise his scrip: and he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment, and buy one.

37 For I say unto you, That this that is written, must yet be accomplished in me,

And he was reckoned among the transgressors: for the things concerning me have an end.

38 And they said, Lord, behold, here are two swords. And he said unto them, It is enough.

39 And he came out, and went, as he was wont, to the mount of Olives; and his disciples also followed him.

40 And when he was at the place, he said unto them, Pray that ye enter not into temptation.

41 And he was withdrawn from them about a stone's cast, and kneeled down, and prayed, 42 Saying, Father, if thou be willing, remove this cup from me: nevertheless, not my will, but thine be done.

43 And there appeared unto him an angel from heaven, strengthening him.

44 And being in an agony, he prayed more earnestly: and his sweat was as it were great drops of blood falling down to the ground.

45 And when he rose up from prayer, and was come to his disciples, he found them sleeping for sorrow,

46 And said unto them, Why sleep ye? rise and pray, lest ye enter into temptation.

47 And while he yet spake, behold, a multitude, and he that was called Judas, one of the twelve, went before them, and drew near unto Jesus, to kiss him.

48 But Jesus said unto him, Judas, betrayest thou the Son of man with a kiss?

49 When they which were about him, saw what would follow, they said unto him, Lord, shall we smite with the sword?

50 And one of them smote a servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear.

51 And Jesus answered and said, Suffer ye thus far. And he touched his ear, and healed him.

52 Then Jesus said unto the chief priests and captains of the temple, and the elders which were come to him, Be ye come out as against a thief, with swords and staves?

53 When I was daily with you in the temple, ye stretched forth no hands against me: but this is your hour, and the power of darkness.

54 Then took they him, and led him, and brought him into the high priest's house. And Peter followed afar off.

55 And when they had kindled a fire in the midst of the hall, and were set down together, Peter sat down among them.

56 But a certain maid beheld him, as he sat by the fire, and earnestly looked upon him, and said, This man was also with him.

57 And he denied him, saying, Woman, I know him not.

58 And after a little while another saw him, and said, Thou art also of them. And Peter said, Man, I am not.

59 And about the space of one hour after, another confidently affirmed, saying, Of a truth this fellow also was with him: for he is a Galilean.

60 And Peter said, Man, I know not what thou sayest. And immediately while he yet spake, the cock crew.

61 And the Lord turned, and looked upon Peter. And Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said unto him, Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.

62 And Peter went out, and wept bitterly.

63 And the men that held Jesus, mocked him, and smote him.

64 And when they had blindfolded him, they struck him on the face, and asked him, saying, Prophecy, who is it that smote thee?

65 And many other things blasphemously spake they against him.

66 And as soon as it was day, the elders of the people, and the chief priests and the scribes came together, and led him into their council,

67 Saying, Art thou the Christ? tell us. And he said unto them, If I tell you, ye will not believe:

68 And if I also ask you, ye will not answer me, nor let me go.

69 Hereafter shall the Son of man sit on the right hand of the power of God.

70 Then said they all, Art thou then the

CHAP. XXIII.

1 Jesus is accused before Pilate, and sent to Herod: 8 Herod mocketh him. 12 Herod and Pilate are made friends. 18 Barabbas is desired of the people, and is loosed by Pilate, and Jesus is given to be crucified: 27 he telleth the women that lament him the destruction of Jerusalem: 34 prayeth for his enemies. 39 Two evil-doers are crucified with him: 46 his death: 50 his burial.

AND the whole multitude of them arose, and led him unto Pilate.

2 And they began to accuse him, saying, We found this fellow<sup>b</sup> perverting the nation, and<sup>c</sup> forbidding to give tribute to Cesar, saying, <sup>d</sup>that he himself is Christ a King.

3 <sup>e</sup> And Pilate asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answered him and said, Thou sayest it.

4 Then said Pilate to the chief priests and to the people, I find no fault in this man.

5 And they were the more fierce, saying, He stirreth up the people, teaching throughout all Jewry, beginning from Galilee to this place.

6 When Pilate heard of Galilee, he asked whether the man were a Galilean.

7 And as soon as he knew that he belonged unto<sup>f</sup> Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who himself was also at Jerusalem at that time.

8 <sup>g</sup> And when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceeding glad: for <sup>h</sup> he was desirous to see him of a long season, because <sup>i</sup> he had heard many things of him; and he hoped to have seen some miracle done by him.

9 Then he questioned with him in many words; but he answered him nothing.

10 And the chief priests and scribes stood and vehemently accused him.

11 And Herod with his men of war set him at nought, and mocked him, and arrayed him in a gorgeous robe, and sent him again to Pilate.

12 <sup>j</sup> And the same day<sup>k</sup> Pilate and Herod were made friends together: for before they were at enmity themselves.

13 <sup>l</sup> And Pilate, when he had called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people,

14 Said unto them, Ye have brought this man unto me, as one that perverteth

the people: and behold, I having examined him before you, have found no fault in this man, touching those things whereof ye accuse him:

15 No, nor yet Herod: for I sent you to him; and lo, nothing worthy of death is done unto him:

16 <sup>m</sup> I will therefore chastise him, and release him.

17 <sup>n</sup> (For of necessity he must release one unto them at the feast.)

18 And <sup>o</sup> they cried out all at once, saying, Away with this man, and release unto us Barabbas:

19 (Who for a certain sedition made in the city, and for murder, was cast into prison.)

20 Pilate therefore, willing to release Jesus, spake again to them.

21 But they cried, saying, Crucify him, crucify him.

22 And he said unto them the third time, Why, what evil hath he done? I have found no cause of death in him: I will therefore chastise him, and let him go.

23 And they were instant with loud voices, requiring that he might be crucified. And the voices of them, and of the chief priests, prevailed.

24 And <sup>p</sup> Pilate gave sentence that it should be as they required.

25 And he released unto them him, that for sedition and murder was cast into prison, whom they had desired; but he delivered Jesus to their will.

26 <sup>q</sup> And as they led him away, they laid hold upon one Simon a Cyrenian, coming out of the country, and on him they laid the cross, that he might bear it after Jesus.

27 <sup>r</sup> And there followed him a great company of people, and of women, which also bewailed and lamented him.

28 But Jesus turning unto them, said, Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children.

29 For behold, the days are coming, in the which they shall say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bare, and the paps which never gave suck.

30 <sup>s</sup> Then shall they begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us; and to the hills, Cover us.

31 <sup>t</sup> For if they do these things in a green tree, what shall be done in the dry?

32 <sup>u</sup> And there were also two other malefactors led with him to be put to death.

33 And <sup>v</sup> when they were come to the place which is called Calvary, there they crucified him, and the malefactors; one on

34 ¶ Then said Jesus, Father, <sup>u</sup> forgive them; for <sup>z</sup> they know not what they do. And <sup>y</sup> they parted his raiment, and cast lots.

35 And <sup>z</sup> the people stood beholding. And the <sup>a</sup> rulers also with them derided him, saying, He saved others; let him save himself, if he be Christ the chosen of God.

36 And the soldiers also mocked him, coming to him, and offering him vinegar, 37 And saying, If thou be the king of the Jews, save thyself.

38 <sup>b</sup> And a superscription also was written over him in letters of Greek, and Latin, and Hebrew, THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

39 ¶ And one of the malefactors which were hanged, railed on him, saying, If thou be Christ, save thyself and us.

40 But the other answering, rebuked him, saying, Dost not thou fear God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation?

41 And we indeed justly; for we receive the due reward of our deeds: but this man hath done nothing amiss.

42 And he said unto Jesus, Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom.

43 And Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To-day shalt thou be with me in paradise.

44 <sup>c</sup> And it was about the sixth hour, and there was darkness over all the || earth until the ninth hour.

45 And the sun was darkened, and <sup>d</sup> the veil of the temple was rent in the midst.

46 ¶ And when Jesus had cried with a loud voice, he said, <sup>e</sup> Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit: <sup>f</sup> and having said thus, he gave up the ghost.

47 <sup>g</sup> Now when the centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, Certainly this was a righteous man.

48 And all the people that came together to that sight, beholding the things which were done, smote their breasts, and returned.

49 And all his acquaintance, and the women that followed him from Galilee, stood afar off beholding these things.

50 ¶ <sup>h</sup> And behold, there was a man named Joseph, a counsellor; and he was a good man, and a just:

51 (The same had not consented to the counsel and deed of them;) he was of Arimathea, a city of the Jews: (<sup>i</sup> who also himself waited for the kingdom of God.)

52 This man went unto Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus.

53 And he took it down, and wrapped it in linen, and laid it in a sepulchre that was hewn in stone, wherein never man before was laid.

54 And that day was <sup>k</sup> the preparation, and the sabbath drew on.

55 And the women also <sup>l</sup> which came with him from Galilee, followed after, and beheld the sepulchre, and how his body was laid.

56 And they returned, and prepared spices and ointments; and rested the sabbath-day, <sup>m</sup> according to the commandment.

CHAP. XXIV.

1 Christ's resurrection is declared by two angels to the women that come to the sepulchre: 9 these report it to others, 13 Christ himself appeareth to the two disciples that went to Emmaus. 36 Afterward he appeareth to the apostles, and reprovereth their unbelief: 47 giveth them a charge: 49 promiseth the Holy Ghost: 51 and so ascendeth into heaven.

NOW <sup>a</sup> upon the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came unto the sepulchre, bringing the spices which they had prepared, and certain others with them.

2 And they found the stone rolled away from the sepulchre.

3 And they entered in, and found not the body of the Lord Jesus.

4 And it came to pass, as they were much perplexed thereabout, behold, two men stood by them in shining garments:

5 And as they were afraid, and bowed down <sup>their</sup> faces to the earth, they said unto them, Why seek ye || the living among the dead?

6 He is not here, but is risen: <sup>b</sup> remember how he spake unto you when he was yet in Galilee,

7 Saying, The Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again.

8 And <sup>c</sup> they remembered his words,

9 <sup>d</sup> And returned from the sepulchre, and told all these things unto the eleven, and to all the rest.

10 It was Mary Magdalene, and <sup>e</sup> Joanna, and Mary the mother of James, and other women that were with them, which told these things unto the apostles.

11 <sup>f</sup> And their words seemed to them as idle tales, and they believed them not.

12 <sup>g</sup> Then arose Peter, and ran unto the sepulchre; and stooping down, he beheld the linen clothes laid by themselves, and departed, wondering in himself at that which was come to pass.

13 ¶ And behold, two of them went that same day to a village called Emmaus, which was from Jerusalem about three-score furlongs.

14 And they talked together of all these things which had happened.

15 And it came to pass, that while they communed together, and reasoned, <sup>1</sup> Jesus himself drew near, and went with them.

16 But <sup>k</sup> their eyes were holden, that they should not know him.

17 And he said unto them, What manner of communications are these that ye have one to another, as ye walk, and are sad?

18 And one of them, <sup>1</sup> whose name was Cleopas, answering, said unto him, Art thou only a stranger in Jerusalem, and hast not known the things which are come to pass there in these days?

19 And he said unto them, What things? And they said unto him, Concerning Jesus of Nazareth, <sup>m</sup> which was a prophet <sup>n</sup> mighty in deed and word before God, and all the people:

20 And how the chief priests and our rulers delivered him to be condemned to death, and have crucified him.

21 But we trusted <sup>o</sup> that it had been he which should have redeemed Israel: and besides all this, to-day is the third day since these things were done.

22 Yea, and <sup>p</sup> certain women also of our company made us astonished, which were early at the sepulchre;

23 And when they found not his body, they came, saying, that they had also seen a vision of angels, which said, that he was alive.

24 And certain of them which were with us, went to the sepulchre, and found <sup>it</sup> even so as the women had said: but him they saw not.

25 Then he said unto them, O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken!

26 <sup>q</sup> Ought not Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter into his glory?

27 And beginning at <sup>r</sup> Moses, and <sup>s</sup> all the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself.

28 And they drew nigh unto the village, whither they went: and <sup>t</sup> he made as though he would have gone further.

29 But <sup>u</sup> they constrained him, saying, Abide with us: for it is towards evening, and the day is far spent. And he went in to tarry with them.

30 And it came to pass, as he sat at meat with them, he took bread, and blessed <sup>it</sup>, and brake, and gave to them.

31 And their eyes were opened, and they knew him; and he <sup>v</sup> vanished out of their sight.

32 And they said one to another, Did not our heart burn within us, while he talked with us by the way, and while he opened to us the scriptures?

33 And they rose up the same hour, and returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven gathered together, and them that were with them,

34 Saying, The Lord is risen indeed, and <sup>x</sup> hath appeared to Simon.

35 And they told what things <sup>were done</sup> in the way, and how he was known of them in breaking of bread.

36 ¶ And as they thus spake, Jesus himself stood in the midst of them, and saith unto them, Peace <sup>be</sup> unto you.

37 But they were terrified and affrighted, and supposed that they had seen <sup>a</sup> a spirit.

38 And he said unto them, Why are ye troubled? and why do thoughts arise in your hearts?

39 Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: <sup>a</sup> handle me, and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have.

40 And when he had thus spoken, he shewed them <sup>his</sup> hands and <sup>his</sup> feet.

41 And while they yet believed not <sup>b</sup> for joy, and wondered, he said unto them, <sup>c</sup> Have ye here any meat?

42 And they gave him a piece of a broiled fish, and of an honey-comb.

43 And he took <sup>it</sup>, and did eat before them.

44 And he said unto them, <sup>d</sup> These <sup>are</sup> the words which I spake unto you, while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled which were written in the law of Moses, and <sup>in</sup> the prophets, and <sup>in</sup> the psalms, concerning me.

45 Then <sup>e</sup> opened he their understanding, that they might understand the scriptures,

46 And said unto them, <sup>f</sup> Thus it is written, and thus it behoved Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day:

47 And that repentance and <sup>g</sup> remission of sins should be preached in his name, among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem.

48 And <sup>h</sup> ye are witnesses of these things.

49 ¶ And behold, I send the promise of my Father upon you: but tarry ye in the city of Jerusalem, until ye be endued with power from on high.

The Gospel according to S. JOHN.

CHAP. I.

1 The divinity, humanity, and office of Jesus Christ.
15 The testimony of John. 39 The calling of Andrew, Peter, &c.

IN the beginning <sup>a</sup> was the Word, and the Word was <sup>b</sup> with God, <sup>c</sup> and the Word was God.

2 <sup>d</sup> The same was in the beginning with God.

3 <sup>e</sup> All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made.

4 <sup>f</sup> In him was life; and <sup>g</sup> the life was the light of men.

5 And <sup>h</sup> the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not.

6 ¶ There was a man sent from God, whose name was John.

7 The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all men through him might believe.

8 He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light.

9 <sup>k</sup> That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.

10 He was in the world, and <sup>l</sup> the world was made by him, and the world knew him not.

11 He came unto his own, and his own received him not.

12 But <sup>m</sup> as many as received him, to them gave he <sup>n</sup> power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name:

13 <sup>n</sup> Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

14 <sup>o</sup> And the Word <sup>p</sup> was made <sup>q</sup> flesh, and dwelt among us, (and <sup>r</sup> we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only-begotten of the Father,) <sup>s</sup> full of grace and truth.

15 ¶ John bare witness of him, and cried, saying, This was he of whom I spake, <sup>u</sup> He that cometh after me, is preferred before me: <sup>v</sup> for he was before me.

16 And of his <sup>v</sup> fulness have all we received, and grace for grace.

17 For <sup>w</sup> the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ.

18 <sup>x</sup> No man hath seen God at any time; the only-begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him.

19 ¶ And this is <sup>y</sup> the record of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem, to ask him, Who art thou?

20 And <sup>z</sup> he confessed, and denied not; but confessed, I am not the Christ.

21 And they asked him, What then? Art thou Elias? And he saith, I am not. Art thou <sup>a</sup> that prophet? And he answered, No.

22 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? that we may give an answer to them that sent us. What sayest thou of thyself?

23 <sup>b</sup> He said, I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as <sup>c</sup> said the prophet Esaias.

24 And they which were sent, were of the Pharisees.

25 And they asked him, and said unto him, Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not that Christ, nor Elias, neither that prophet?

26 John answered them, saying, <sup>d</sup> I baptize with water: but there standeth one among you, whom ye know not;

27 <sup>e</sup> He it is, who coming after me, is preferred before me, whose shoe's latchet I am not worthy to unloose.

28 These things were done <sup>f</sup> in Bethabara beyond Jordan, where John was baptizing.

29 ¶ The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold <sup>g</sup> the Lamb of God, which <sup>h</sup> taketh away the sin of the world.

30 <sup>i</sup> This is he of whom I said, After me cometh a man, which is preferred before me: for he was before me.

31 And I knew him not: but that he should be made manifest to Israel, <sup>j</sup> therefore am I come baptizing with water.

32 <sup>k</sup> And John bare record, saying, I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it abode upon him.

33 And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, the same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending and remaining on him, <sup>l</sup> the same is he which baptizeth with the Holy Ghost.

34 And I saw, and bare record that this is the Son of God.

35 ¶ Again the next day after, John stood, and two of his disciples;

36 And looking upon Jesus as he walked, he saith, <sup>p</sup> Behold the Lamb of God.

37 And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus.

38 Then Jesus turned, and saw them following, and saith unto them, What seek ye? They said unto him, Rabbi (which is to say, being interpreted, Master) where <sup>ll</sup> dwellest thou?

39 He saith unto them, Come and see. They came and saw where he dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was <sup>ll</sup> about the tenth hour.

40 One of the two which heard John speak, and followed him, was <sup>a</sup> Andrew, Simon Peter's brother.

41 He first findeth his own brother Simon, and saith unto him, We have found the Messiah, which is, being interpreted, <sup>ll</sup> the Christ.

42 And he brought him to Jesus. And when Jesus beheld him, he said, Thou art Simon the son of Jona: <sup>a</sup> thou shalt be called Cephas, which is by interpretation, <sup>ll</sup> a stone.

43 ¶ The day following Jesus would go forth into Galilee, and findeth Philip, and saith unto him, Follow me.

44 Now <sup>a</sup> Philip was of Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter.

45 Philip findeth <sup>c</sup> Nathanael, and saith unto him, We have found him of whom <sup>u</sup> Moses in the law, and the <sup>x</sup> prophets did write, Jesus <sup>v</sup> of Nazareth, the son of Joseph.

46 And Nathanael said unto him, <sup>a</sup> Can there any good thing come out of Nazareth? Philip saith unto him, Come and see.

47 Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and saith of him, Behold an Israelite indeed, <sup>a</sup> in whom is no guile.

48 Nathanael saith unto him, Whence knowest thou me? Jesus answered and said unto him, Before that Philip called thee, when thou wast under the fig-tree, I saw thee.

49 Nathanael answered and saith unto him, Rabbi, thou art the Son of God; thou art the King of Israel.

50 Jesus answered and said unto him, Because I said unto thee, I saw thee under the fig-tree, believest thou? thou shalt see greater things than these.

51 And he saith unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto you, <sup>b</sup> Hereafter ye shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man.

CHAP. II.

1 Christ turneth water into wine, 12 departeth into Capernaum, and to Jerusalem, 14 where he purgeth the temple of buyers and sellers: 19 he foretelleth his death and resurrection. 23 Many believed because of his miracles, but he would not trust himself with them.

AND the third day there was a marriage in <sup>a</sup> Cana of Galilee; and the mother of Jesus was there.

2 And both Jesus was called, and his disciples, to the marriage.

3 And when they wanted wine, the mother of Jesus saith unto him, They have no wine.

4 Jesus saith unto her, <sup>b</sup> Woman, what have I to do with thee? <sup>c</sup> mine hour is not yet come.

5 His mother saith unto the servants, Whatsoever he saith unto you, do it.

6 And there were set there six water-pots of stone, <sup>d</sup> after the manner of the purifying of the Jews, containing two or three firkins apiece.

7 Jesus saith unto them, Fill the water-pots with water. And they filled them up to the brim.

8 And he saith unto them, Draw out now, and bear unto the governor of the feast. And they bare it.

9 When the ruler of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, and knew not whence it was: (but the servants which drew the water knew;) the governor of the feast called the bridegroom,

10 And saith unto him, Every man at the beginning doth set forth good wine; and when men have well drunk, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept the good wine until now.

11 This beginning of miracles did Jesus in Cana of Galilee, <sup>a</sup> and manifested forth his glory; and his disciples believed on him.

12 ¶ After this, he went down to Capernaum, he, and his mother, and <sup>c</sup> his brethren, and his disciples: and they continued there not many days.

13 ¶ And the Jews pass-over was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem,

14 <sup>a</sup> And found in the temple those that sold oxen, and sheep, and doves, and the changers of money, sitting:

15 And when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen; and poured out the changers money, and overthrew the tables;

16 And said unto them that sold doves, Take these things hence; make not my 19 Jesus answered and said unto them, <sup>k</sup> Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.

20 Then said the Jews, Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt thou rear it up in three days?

21 But he spake <sup>l</sup> of the temple of his body.

22 When therefore he was risen from the dead, <sup>m</sup> his disciples remembered that he had said this unto them; and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said.

23 ¶ Now when he was in Jerusalem at the pass-over, in the feast-day, many believed in his name, when they saw the miracles which he did.

24 But Jesus did not commit himself unto them, because he knew all <sup>n</sup> men,

25 And needed not that any should testify of man: for <sup>n</sup> he knew what was in man.

CHAP. III.

1 Christ teacheth Nicodemus the necessity of regeneration: 14 of faith in his death. 16 The great love of God towards the world. 18 Condemnation for unbelief. 23 The baptism, witness, and doctrine of John concerning Christ.

THERE was a man of the Pharisees named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews:

2 <sup>a</sup> The same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for <sup>b</sup> no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except <sup>c</sup> God be with him.

3 Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, <sup>d</sup> Except a man be born <sup>e</sup> again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

4 Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born?

5 Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.

6 That which is born of the flesh, is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit, is spirit.

7 Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born <sup>f</sup> again.

8 <sup>g</sup> The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.

9 Nicodemus answered and said unto him, <sup>h</sup> How can these things be?

10 Jesus answered and said unto him, Art thou a master of Israel, and knowest not these things?

11 <sup>i</sup> Verily, verily, I say unto thee, We speak that we do know, and testify that we have seen; and <sup>j</sup> ye receive not our witness.

12 If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye believe if I tell you of heavenly things?

13 And <sup>k</sup> no man hath ascended up to heaven, <sup>k</sup> but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven.

14 ¶ And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so <sup>m</sup> must the Son of man be lifted up:

15 That whosoever believeth in him, should not perish, but <sup>n</sup> have eternal life.

16 ¶ For God so loved the world, that he gave his only-begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

17 For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved.

18 ¶ He that believeth on him, is not condemned: but he that believeth not, is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only-begotten Son of God.

19 And this is the condemnation, <sup>r</sup> that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil.

20 For <sup>s</sup> every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be <sup>t</sup> reproved.

21 But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God.

22 ¶ After these things came Jesus and his disciples into the land of Judea; and there he tarried with them, <sup>u</sup> and baptized.

23 ¶ And John also was baptizing in Enon, near to Salim; because there was much water there: and they came, and were baptized.

24 For <sup>v</sup> John was not yet cast into prison.

25 ¶ Then there arose a question between some of John's disciples and the Jews, about purifying.

CHAP. IV.

1 Christ talketh with a woman of Samaria, and revealeth himself unto her: 27 his disciples marvel: 31 he declareth to them his zeal to God's glory. 39 Many Samaritans believe on him: 43 he departeth into Galilee, and healeth the ruler's son that lay sick at Capernaum.

WHEN therefore the Lord knew how the Pharisees had heard that Jesus made and * baptized more disciples than John,

2 (Though Jesus himself baptized not, but his disciples,)

3 He left Judea, and departed again into Galilee.

4 And he must needs go through Samaria.

5 Then cometh he to a city of Samaria, which is called Sychar, near to the parcel of ground * that Jacob gave to his son Joseph.

6 Now Jacob's well was there. Jesus therefore being wearied with his journey, sat thus on the well. (And it was about the sixth hour.)

7 There cometh a woman of Samaria to draw water: Jesus saith unto her, Give me to drink.

8 (For his disciples were gone away unto the city to buy meat.)

9 Then saith the woman of Samaria unto him, How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, which am a woman of Samaria? for * the Jews have no dealings with the Samaritans.

10 Jesus answered and said unto her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee * living water.

11 The woman saith unto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep: from whence then hast thou that living water?

12 Art thou greater than our father Jacob which gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his children, and his cattle?

13 Jesus answered and said unto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again:

14 But * whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him, shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him, * shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life.

15 * The woman saith unto him, Sir, give me this water, that I thirst not, neither come hither to draw.

16 Jesus saith unto her, Go, call thy husband, and come hither.

17 The woman answered and said, I have no husband. Jesus said unto her, Thou hast well said, I have no husband:

18 For thou hast had five husbands; and he whom thou now hast is not thy husband: in that saidst thou truly.

19 The woman saith unto him, Sir, * I perceive that thou art a prophet.

21 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, believe me, the hour cometh * when ye shall neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jerusalem, worship the Father.

22 Ye worship * ye know not what: we know what we worship: for * a salvation is of the Jews.

23 But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in * spirit * and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him.

ship him, must worship him in spirit and in truth.

25 The woman saith unto him, I know that Messias cometh, which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell us all things.

26 Jesus saith unto her, I that speak unto thee, am he.

27 ¶ And upon this came his disciples, and marvelled that he talked with the woman: yet no man said, What seekest thou? or, Why talkest thou with her?

28 The woman then left her water-pot, and went her way into the city, and saith to the men,

29 Come, see a man which told me all things that ever I did: is not this the Christ?

30 Then they went out of the city, and came unto him.

31 ¶ In the mean while his disciples prayed him, saying, Master, eat.

32 But he said unto them, I have meat to eat that ye know not of.

33 Therefore said the disciples one to another, Hath any man brought him ought to eat?

34 Jesus saith unto them, My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish his work.

35 Say not ye, There are yet four months, and then cometh harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest.

36 And he that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal: that both he that soweth, and he that reapeth, may rejoice together.

37 And herein is that saying true, One soweth, and another reapeth.

38 I sent you to reap that whereon ye bestowed no labour: other men laboured, and ye are entered into their labours.

39 ¶ And many of the Samaritans of that city believed on him, for the saying of the woman, which testified, He told me all that ever I did.

40 So when the Samaritans were come unto him, they besought him that he would tarry with them: and he abode there two days.

41 And many more believed, because of his own word;

42 And said unto the woman, Now we believe, not because of thy saying: for we have heard him ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Saviour of the world.

43 ¶ Now after two days he departed thence, and went into Galilee.

44 For * Jesus himself testified, that a prophet hath no honour in his own country.

45 Then when he was come into Galilee, the Galileans received him, having seen all the things that he did at Jerusalem at the feast: for they also went unto the feast.

46 So Jesus came again into Cana of Galilee, where he made the water wine. And there was a certain nobleman, whose son was sick at Capernaum.

47 When he heard that Jesus was come out of Judea into Galilee, he went unto him, and besought him that he would come down, and heal his son: for he was at the point of death.

48 Then said Jesus unto him, Except ye see signs and wonders, ye will not believe.

49 The nobleman saith unto him, Sir, come down ere my child die.

50 Jesus saith unto him, Go thy way; thy son liveth. And the man believed the word that Jesus had spoken unto him, and he went his way.

51 And as he was now going down, his servants met him, and told him, saying, Thy son liveth.

52 Then enquired he of them the hour when he began to amend: and they said unto him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him.

53 So the father knew that it was at the same hour, in the which Jesus said unto him, Thy son liveth; and himself believed, and his whole house.

54 This is again the second miracle that Jesus did, when he was come out of Judea into Galilee.

1 Jesus on the sabbath-day cureth him that was diseased eight and thirty years: 10 the Jews therefore cavil, and persecute him for it: 17 he answereth for himself, and reproveth them, shewing by the testimony of his Father, 32 of John, 36 of his works, 39 and of the scriptures, who he is.

of the water stepped in, was made whole of whatsoever disease he had.

5 And a certain man was there, which had had an infirmity thirty and eight years.

6 When Jesus saw him lie, and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him, Wilt thou be made whole?

7 The impotent man answered him, Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another steppeth down before me.

8 Jesus saith unto him, <sup>e</sup> Rise, take up thy bed, and walk.

9 And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked: and <sup>d</sup> on the same day was the sabbath.

10 ¶ The Jews therefore said unto him that was cured, It is the sabbath-day: <sup>e</sup> it is not lawful for thee to carry thy bed.

11 He answered them, He that made me whole, the same said unto me, Take up thy bed, and walk.

12 Then asked they him, What man is that which said unto thee, Take up thy bed, and walk?

13 And he that was healed wist not who it was: for Jesus had conveyed himself away, ¶ a multitude being in that place.

14 Afterward Jesus findeth him in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole: <sup>f</sup> sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee.

15 The man departed, and told the Jews that it was Jesus which had made him whole.

16 And therefore did the Jews persecute Jesus, and sought to slay him, because he had done these things on the sabbath-day.

17 ¶ But Jesus answered them, <sup>g</sup> My Father worketh hitherto, and I work.

18 Therefore the Jews <sup>h</sup> sought the more to kill him, because he not only had broken the sabbath, but said also, that God was his Father, <sup>i</sup> making himself equal with God.

19 Then answered Jesus, and said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, <sup>k</sup> The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do: for what things soever he doeth, these also doeth the Son likewise.

20 For <sup>l</sup> the Father loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doeth: and he will shew him greater works than these, that ye may marvel.

21 For as the Father raiseth up the dead, and quickeneth them; even so the Son quickeneth whom he will.

22 For the Father judgeth no man; but

23 That all men should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. <sup>n</sup> He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father which hath sent him.

24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, <sup>o</sup> He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; <sup>p</sup> but is passed from death unto life.

25 Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour is coming, and now is, when <sup>q</sup> the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live.

26 For as the Father hath life in himself, so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself;

27 And <sup>r</sup> hath given him authority to execute judgement also, <sup>s</sup> because he is the Son of man.

28 Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice,

29 And shall come forth; <sup>t</sup> they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation.

30 <sup>u</sup> I can of mine own self do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and my judgement is just; because <sup>v</sup> I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father which hath sent me.

31 <sup>w</sup> If I bear witness of myself, my witness is not true.

32 ¶ <sup>x</sup> There is another that beareth witness of me, and I know that the witness which he witnesseth of me is true.

33 Ye sent unto John, <sup>y</sup> and he bare witness unto the truth.

34 But I receive not testimony from man: but these things I say, that ye might be saved.

35 He was a burning and <sup>z</sup> a shining light: and <sup>a</sup> ye were willing for a season to rejoice in his light.

36 ¶ But <sup>b</sup> I have greater witness than that of John: for <sup>c</sup> the works which the Father hath given me to finish, the same works that I do, bear witness of me, that the Father hath sent me.

37 And the Father himself which hath sent me, <sup>d</sup> hath borne witness of me. Ye have neither heard his voice at any time, <sup>e</sup> nor seen his shape.

38 And ye have not his word abiding in you: for whom he hath sent, him ye believe not.

CHAP. VI.

AFTER <sup>a</sup> these things Jesus went over the sea of Galilee, which is the sea of Tiberias.

<sup>2</sup> And a great multitude followed him because they saw his miracles which he did on them that were diseased.

<sup>6</sup> (And this he said to prove him: for he himself knew what he would do.)

<sup>10</sup> And Jesus said, Make the men sit down. (Now there was much grass in the place.) So the men sat down, in number about five thousand.

<sup>11</sup> And Jesus took the loaves; and when he had given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down; and likewise of the fishes, as much as they would.

<sup>12</sup> When they were filled, he said unto his disciples, Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost.

<sup>13</sup> Therefore they gathered them together, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley-loaves, which remained over and above, unto them that had eaten.

<sup>14</sup> Then those men, when they had seen the miracle that Jesus did, said, This is of a truth <sup>f</sup> that prophet that should come into the world.

<sup>15</sup> ¶ When Jesus therefore perceived that they would come and take him by force, to make him a king, he departed again into a mountain himself alone.

<sup>17</sup> And entered into a ship, and went over the sea towards Capernaum. And it was now dark, and Jesus was not come to them.

<sup>19</sup> So when they had rowed about five and twenty, or thirty furlongs, they see Jesus walking on the sea, and drawing nigh unto the ship: and they were afraid.

<sup>22</sup> ¶ The day following, when the people which stood on the other side of the sea, saw that there was none other boat there, save that one whereinto his disciples were entered, and that Jesus went not with his disciples into the boat, but that his disciples were gone away alone;

<sup>24</sup> When the people therefore saw that Jesus was not there, neither his disciples, they also took shipping, and came to Capernaum, seeking for Jesus.

<sup>25</sup> And when they had found him on the other side of the sea, they said unto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither?

<sup>26</sup> Jesus answered them and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye seek me, not because ye saw the miracles, but because ye did eat of the loaves, and were filled.

dureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: <sup>1</sup> for him hath God the Father sealed.

28 Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we may work the works of God?

29 Jesus answered and said unto them, <sup>k</sup> This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.

30 They said therefore unto him, <sup>l</sup> What sign shewest thou then, that we may see, and believe thee? what dost thou work?

31 <sup>m</sup> Our fathers did eat manna in the desert; as it is written, <sup>n</sup> He gave them bread from heaven to eat.

32 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Moses gave you not that bread from heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven.

33 For the bread of God is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world.

34 <sup>o</sup> Then said they unto him, Lord, evermore give us this bread.

35 And Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: <sup>p</sup> he that cometh to me, shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me, shall never thirst.

36 But I said unto you, That ye also have seen me, and believe not.

37 All that the Father giveth me, shall come to me; and <sup>q</sup> him that cometh to me, I will in no wise cast out.

38 For I came down from heaven, <sup>r</sup> not to do mine own will, <sup>s</sup> but the will of him that sent me.

39 And this is the Father's will which hath sent me, <sup>t</sup> that of all which he hath given me, I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day.

40 And this is the will of him that sent me, <sup>u</sup> that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.

41 The Jews then murmured at him, because he said, I am the bread which came down from heaven.

42 And they said, <sup>x</sup> Is not this Jesus the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? how is it then that he saith, I came down from heaven?

43 Jesus therefore answered and said unto them, Murmur not among yourselves.

44 <sup>y</sup> No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me, draw him: and I will raise him up at the last day.

45 <sup>z</sup> It is written in the prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me.

46 Not that any man hath seen the Father, <sup>a</sup> save he which is of God, he hath seen the Father.

47 Verily, verily, I say unto you, <sup>b</sup> He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

48 I am that bread of life.

49 <sup>c</sup> Your fathers did eat manna in the wilderness, and are dead.

50 <sup>d</sup> This is the bread which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and not die.

51 I am the living bread, <sup>e</sup> which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and <sup>f</sup> the bread that I will give, is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world.

52 The Jews therefore <sup>g</sup> strove amongst themselves, saying, <sup>h</sup> How can this man give us his flesh to eat?

53 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except <sup>i</sup> ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you.

54 <sup>k</sup> Who so eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day.

58 <sup>l</sup> This is that bread which came down from heaven: not as your fathers did eat manna, and are dead: he that eateth of this bread, shall live for ever.

59 These things said he in the synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum.

60 Many therefore of his disciples, when they had heard this, said, This is an hard saying; who can hear it?

61 When Jesus knew in himself, that his disciples murmured at it, he said unto them, Doth this offend you?

62 <sup>m</sup> What and if ye shall see the Son of man ascend up where he was before?

63 <sup>n</sup> It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life.

64 But there are some of you that believe not. For <sup>o</sup> Jesus knew from the beginning, who they were that believed not, and who should betray him.

65 And he said, Therefore <sup>p</sup> said I unto you, that no man can come unto me, except it were given unto him of my Father.

66 ¶ From that time many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him.

71 He spake of Judas Iscariot the son of Simon : for he it was that should betray him, being one of the twelve.

CHAP. VII.

1 Jesus reproveth the ambition and boldness of his kinsmen : 10 goeth up from Galilee to the feast of tabernacles : 14 teacheth in the temple. 40 Divers opinions of him among the people. 45 The Pharisees are angry that their officers took him not, and chide with Nicodemus for taking his part.

AFTER these things Jesus walked in Galilee : for he would not walk in Jewry, because the Jews sought to kill him.

2 Now the Jews feast of tabernacles was at hand.

3 His brethren therefore said unto him, Depart hence, and go into Judea, that thy disciples also may see the works that thou doest.

4 For there is no man that doeth any thing in secret, and he himself seeketh to be known openly. If thou do these things shew thyself to the world.

5 (For neither did his brethren believe in him.)

6 Then Jesus said unto them, My time is not yet come : but your time is always ready.

7 The world cannot hate you ; but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil.

8 Go ye up unto this feast : I go not up yet unto this feast ; for my time is not yet full come.

9 When he had said these words unto them, he abode still in Galilee.

10 But when his brethren were gone up, then went he also up unto the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret.

11 Then the Jews sought him at the feast, and said, Where is he ?

12 And there was much murmuring among the people concerning him : for some said, He is a good man : others said, Nay ; but he deceiveth the people.

13 Howbeit, no man spake openly of him, for fear of the Jews.

14 Now about the midst of the feast, Jesus went up into the temple, and taught.

15 And the Jews marvelled, saying, How knoweth this man letters, having never learned ?

16 Jesus answered them, and said, My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me.

17 If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself.

18 He that speaketh of himself, seeketh his own glory : but he that seeketh his glory that sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him.

19 Did not Moses give you the law, and yet none of you keepeth the law ? Why go ye about to kill me ?

20 The people answered and said, Thou hast a devil : who goeth about to kill thee ?

21 Jesus answered and said unto them, I have done one work, and ye all marvel.

22 Moses therefore gave unto you circumcision, (not because it is of Moses, but of the fathers,) and ye on the sabbath-day circumsise a man.

23 If a man on the sabbath-day receive circumcision, that the law of Moses should not be broken ; are ye angry at me, because I have made a man every whit whole on the sabbath-day ?

24 Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgement.

25 Then said some of them of Jerusalem, Is not this he whom they seek to kill ?

26 But lo, he speaketh boldly, and they say nothing unto him. Do the rulers know indeed that this is the very Christ ?

27 Howbeit, we know this man whence he is : but when Christ cometh, no man knoweth whence he is.

28 Then cried Jesus in the temple as he taught, saying, Ye both know me, and ye know whence I am : and I am not come of myself, but he that sent me is true, whom ye know not.

29 But I know him : for I am from him, and he hath sent me.

30 Then they sought to take him : but no man laid hands on him, because his hour was not yet come.

31 And many of the people believed on him, and said, When Christ cometh, will he do more miracles than these which this man hath done ?

32 The Pharisees heard that the people murmured such things concerning him ; and the Pharisees and the chief priests sent officers to take him.

33 Then said Jesus unto them, Yet a

35 Then said the Jews among themselves, Whither will he go, that we shall not find him? will he go unto <sup>l</sup> the dispersed among the Gentiles, and teach the Gentiles?

36 What manner of saying is this that he said, Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come?

37 <sup>m</sup> In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, <sup>n</sup> If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink.

38 <sup>o</sup> He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, <sup>p</sup> out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.

39 (<sup>q</sup> But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him, should receive: for the Holy Ghost was not yet given; because that Jesus was not yet <sup>r</sup> glorified.)

40 <sup>r</sup> Many of the people therefore, when they heard this saying, said, Of a truth this is <sup>s</sup> the Prophet.

41 Others said, <sup>t</sup> This is the Christ. But some said, Shall Christ come <sup>u</sup> out of Galilee?

42 <sup>x</sup> Hath not the scripture said, That Christ cometh of the seed of David, and out of the town of Bethlehem, <sup>y</sup> where David was?

43 So <sup>z</sup> there was a division among the people because of him.

44 And <sup>a</sup> some of them would have taken him; but no man laid hands on him.

45 <sup>b</sup> Then came the officers to the chief priests and Pharisees; and they said unto them, Why have ye not brought him?

47 Then answered them the Pharisees, Are ye also deceived?

48 <sup>d</sup> Have any of the rulers or of the Pharisees believed on him?

49 But this people who knoweth not the law are cursed.

50 Nicodemus saith unto them, (<sup>e</sup> he that came <sup>f</sup> to Jesus by night, being one of them,)

51 <sup>g</sup> Doth our law judge any man before it hear him, and know what he doeth?

52 They answered and said unto him, Art thou also of Galilee? Search, and look: for <sup>h</sup> out of Galilee ariseth no prophet.

53 And every man went unto his own house.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Christ delivereth the woman taken in adultery:

12 he preacheth himself the light of the world, and justifieth his doctrine; 33 answereth the Jews that boasted of Abraham, 59 and conveyeth himself from their cruelty.

JESUS went unto the mount of Olives.

2 And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him; and he sat down, and taught them.

3 And the scribes and Pharisees brought unto him a woman taken in adultery; and when they had set her in the midst,

4 They say unto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act.

5 <sup>a</sup> Now Moses in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned: but what sayest thou?

6 This they said, tempting him, that they might have to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground, as though he heard them not.

7 So when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them, <sup>b</sup> He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her.

8 And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground.

9 And they which heard it, being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even unto the last: and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst.

10 When Jesus had lifted up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?

11 She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said unto her, <sup>c</sup> Neither do I condemn thee: go, and sin no more.

12 <sup>d</sup> Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, <sup>e</sup> I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.

13 The Pharisees therefore said unto him, <sup>f</sup> Thou bearest record of thyself; thy record is not true.

14 Jesus answered and said unto them, <sup>g</sup> Though I bear record of myself, yet my record is true: for I know whence I came, and whither I go; but <sup>h</sup> ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I go.

15 Ye judge after the flesh; <sup>i</sup> I judge no man.

16 And yet if I judge, my judgement is true: for <sup>j</sup> I am not alone, but I and the Father that sent me.

17 <sup>k</sup> It is also written in your law, that the testimony of two men is true.

18 I am one that bear witness of myself,

CHAP. IX.

1 The man that was born blind restored to sight :

3 he is brought to the Pharisees: 18 they are offended at it, 34 and excommunicate him: 35 but he is received of Jesus, and confesseth him.

39 Who they are whom Christ enlighteneth.

AND as Jesus passed by, he saw a man which was blind from his birth.

2 And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who did sin, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind?

3 Jesus answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents: <sup>a</sup> but that the works of God should be made manifest in him.

4 <sup>b</sup> I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work.

5 As long as I am in the world, <sup>c</sup> I am the light of the world.

6 When he had thus spoken, <sup>d</sup> he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and he <sup>e</sup> anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay,

7 And said unto him, Go, wash <sup>e</sup> in the pool of Siloam, (which is by interpretation, Sent.) He went his way therefore, and washed, and came seeing.

8 ¶ The neighbours therefore, and they which before had seen him, that he was blind, said, Is not this he that sat and begged?

9 Some said, This is he: others said, He is like him: but he said, I am he.

10 Therefore said they unto him, How were thine eyes opened?

11 He answered and said, A man that is called Jesus, made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and said unto me, Go to the pool of Siloam, and wash: and I went and washed, and I received sight.

12 Then said they unto him, Where is he? He said, I know not.

13 ¶ They brought to the Pharisees him that aforetime was blind.

14 And it was the sabbath-day when Jesus made the clay, and opened his eyes.

15 Then again the Pharisees also asked him how he had received his sight. He said unto them, He put clay upon mine eyes, and I washed, and do see.

16 Therefore said some of the Pharisees, This man is not of God, because he keepeth not the sabbath-day. Others said, How can a man that is a sinner, do such miracles? And <sup>e</sup> there was a division among them.

17 They say unto the blind man again, What sayest thou of him, that he hath opened thine eyes? He said, <sup>b</sup> He is a prophet.

18 But the Jews did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight.

19 And they asked them, saying, Is this your son, who ye say was born blind? how then doth he now see?

20 His parents answered them, and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind:

21 But by what means he now seeth, we know not; or who hath opened his eyes, we know not: he is of age; ask him: he shall speak for himself.

22 These words spake his parents, because <sup>i</sup> they feared the Jews: for the Jews had agreed already that, if any man did confess that he was Christ, he <sup>k</sup> should be put out of the synagogue.

23 Therefore said his parents, He is of age; ask him.

24 Then again called they the man that was blind, and said unto him, Give God the praise: we know that this man is a sinner.

25 He answered and said, Whether he be a sinner, or no, I know not: one thing I know, that whereas I was blind, now I see.

26 Then said they to him again, What did he to thee? how opened he thine eyes?

27 He answered them, I have told you already, and ye did not hear: wherefore would ye hear it again? will ye also be his disciples?

28 Then they reviled him, and said, Thou art his disciple; but we are Moses' disciples.

29 We know that God spake unto Moses: as for this fellow, <sup>i</sup> we know not from whence he is.

30 The man answered and said unto them, Why, herein is a marvellous thing, that ye know not from whence he is, and yet he hath opened mine eyes.

31 Now we know that <sup>m</sup> God heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and doeth his will, him he heareth.

CHAP. X.

1 Christ is the door, and the good shepherd: 19 divers opinions of him: 25 he proveth by his works, that he is Christ the Son of God: 39 escapeth the Jews, 40 and went again beyond Jordan, where many believed on him.

Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber.

2 But he that entereth in by the door, is the shepherd of the sheep.

3 To him the porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice: and he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out.

4 And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice.

5 And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers.

6 This parable spake Jesus unto them: but they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them.

7 Then said Jesus unto them again, Verily, verily, I say unto you, I am the door of the sheep.

8 All that ever came before me, are thieves and robbers: but the sheep did not hear them.

9 <sup>a</sup> I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture.

10 The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.

11 <sup>b</sup> I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep.

12 But he that is an hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and <sup>c</sup> leaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep.

13 The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep.

14 I am the good shepherd, and <sup>d</sup> know my sheep, and am known of mine.

15 <sup>e</sup> As the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father: and I lay down my life for the sheep.

16 And <sup>f</sup> other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; <sup>g</sup> and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd.

17 Therefore doth my Father love me, <sup>h</sup> because I lay down my life, that I might take it again.

18 No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down, and I <sup>i</sup> have power to take it again.

<sup>k</sup> This commandment have I received of my Father.

19 ¶ There was a division therefore again among the Jews for these sayings.

20 And many of them said, <sup>m</sup> He hath a devil, and is mad; why hear ye him?

21 Others said, These are not the words of him that hath a devil. <sup>n</sup> Can a devil <sup>o</sup> open the eyes of the blind?

22 ¶ And it was at Jerusalem the <sup>p</sup> feast of the dedication, and it was winter.

23 And Jesus walked in the temple <sup>q</sup> in Solomon's porch.

24 Then came the Jews round about him, and said unto him, How long dost thou ¶ make us to doubt? If thou be the Christ, tell us plainly.

25 Jesus answered them, I told you, and ye believed not: <sup>r</sup> the works that I do in my Father's name, they bear witness of me.

26 But <sup>s</sup> ye believe not, because ye are not of my sheep, as I said unto you.

27 My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me:

28 And I give unto them eternal life; and <sup>t</sup> they shall never perish, neither shall any pluck them out of my hand.

29 <sup>u</sup> My Father which gave them me, is

CHAP. XI.

 4 When Jesus heard that, he said, This sickness is not unto death, <sup>c</sup> but for the glory of God, that the Son of God might be glorified thereby.
 5 Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.

 12 Then said his disciples, Lord, if he sleep, he shall do well.
 13 Howbeit, Jesus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of taking of rest in sleep.
 14 Then said Jesus unto them plainly, Lazarus is dead.
 15 And I am glad for your sakes, that I was not there, to the intent ye may believe; nevertheless, let us go unto him.
 16 Then said Thomas, which is called Didymus, unto his fellow-disciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him.
 17 Then when Jesus came, he found that he had lain in the grave four days already.
 18 (Now Bethany was nigh unto Jerusalem, <sup>i</sup> about fifteen furlongs off:)
|| That is, about two miles.
 19 And many of the Jews came to Martha and Mary, to comfort them concerning their brother.
 20 Then Martha, as soon as she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him: but Mary sat still in the house.
 21 Then said Martha unto Jesus, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.
 22 But I know, that even now, whatsoever thou wilt ask of God, God will give it thee.

believe that thou art the Christ the Son of God, which should come into the world.

28 And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Mary her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for thee.

29 As soon as she heard that, she arose quickly, and came unto him.

30 Now Jesus was not yet come into the town, but was in that place where Martha met him.

31 The Jews then which were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw Mary that she rose up hastily, and went out, followed her, saying, She goeth unto the grave, to weep there.

32 Then when Mary was come where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying unto him, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

33 When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping which came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and † was troubled,

34 And said, Where have ye laid him? They say unto him, Lord, come, and see.

35 <sup>n</sup> Jesus wept.

36 Then said the Jews, Behold how he loved him!

37 And some of them said, Could not this man, <sup>o</sup> which opened the eyes of the blind, have caused that even this man should not have died?

38 Jesus therefore again groaning in himself, cometh to the grave. (It was a cave, and a stone lay upon it.)

39 Jesus said, Take ye away the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time he stinketh: for he hath been dead four days.

40 Jesus saith unto her, Said I not unto thee, that if thou wouldest believe, thou shouldest <sup>p</sup> see the glory of God?

41 Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Jesus lifted up <sup>his</sup> eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me.

42 And I knew that thou hearest me always: but <sup>q</sup> because of the people which stand by, I said <sup>it</sup>, that they may believe that thou hast sent me.

43 And when he had thus spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come forth.

44 And he that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with grave-clothes: and <sup>r</sup> his face was bound about with a napkin. Jesus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go.

45 Then many of the Jews which came to Mary, <sup>s</sup> and had seen the things which Jesus did, believed on him.

46 But some of them went their ways to the Pharisees, and told them what things Jesus had done.

47 <sup>t</sup> Then gathered the chief priests and the Pharisees a council, and said, "What do we? for this man doeth many miracles.

48 If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him: and the Romans shall come and take away both our place and nation.

49 And one of them, named * Caiaphas, being the high priest that same year, said unto them, Ye know nothing at all,

50 <sup>v</sup> Nor consider that it is expedient for us, that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.

51 And this spake he not of himself: but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus should die for that nation;

52 And <sup>z</sup> not for that nation only, <sup>a</sup> but that also he should gather together in one, the children of God that were scattered abroad.

53 Then from that day forth they took counsel together for to put him to death.

54 Jesus <sup>b</sup> therefore walked no more openly among the Jews; but went thence unto a country near to the wilderness, into a city called <sup>c</sup> Ephraim, and there continued with his disciples.

55 <sup>d</sup> And the Jews pass-over was nigh at hand: and many went out of the country up to Jerusalem before the pass-over, to purify themselves.

56 <sup>e</sup> Then sought they for Jesus, and spake among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

57 Now both the chief priests and the Pharisees had given a commandment that, if any man knew where he were, he should shew <sup>it</sup>, that they might take him.

CHAP. XII.

1 Jesus excuseth Mary anointing his feet. 9 The people flock to see Lazarus: 10 The chief priests consult to kill him. 12 Christ rideth into Jerusalem. 23 Greeks desire to see Jesus: 23 he foretelleth his death. 37 The Jews are generally blinded: 42 yet many chief rulers believe, but do not confess him: 44 therefore Jesus calleth earnestly for confession of faith.

THEN Jesus, six days before the pass-over, came to Bethany, where Lazarus was which had been dead, whom he raised from the dead.

2 <sup>a</sup> There they made him a supper; and Martha served: but Lazarus was one of them that sat at the table with him.

ch. 12. 2.

3 Then took <sup>b</sup>Mary a pound of ointment of spikenard, very costly, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment.

4 Then saith one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, which should betray him,

5 Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence, and given to the poor?

6 This he said, not that he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and had the bag, and bare what was put therein.

7 Then said Jesus, Let her alone: against the day of my burying hath she kept this.

8 For <sup>d</sup>the poor always ye have with you; but me ye have not always.

9 Much people of the Jews therefore knew that he was there: and they came not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had raised from the dead.

10 ¶ But the chief priests consulted, that they might put Lazarus also to death;

11 Because that by reason of him many of the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus.

12 ¶ On the next day, much people that were come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, 13 Took branches of palm-trees, and went forth to meet him, and cried, <sup>s</sup>Hosanna: Blessed is the King of Israel that cometh in the name of the Lord.

14 And Jesus, when he had found a young ass, sat thereon; as it is written,

15 <sup>h</sup>Fear not, daughter of Sion: behold, thy King cometh, sitting on an ass's colt.

16 These things understood not his disciples at the first: <sup>i</sup>but when Jesus was glorified, <sup>k</sup>then remembered they that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things unto him.

17 The people therefore that was with him when he called Lazarus out of his grave, and raised him from the dead, bare record.

18 For this cause the people also met him, for that they heard that he had done this miracle.

19 The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, <sup>l</sup>Perceive ye how ye prevail nothing? behold, the world is gone after him.

20 ¶ And there <sup>m</sup>were certain Greeks among them, <sup>n</sup>that came up to worship at the feast:

21 The same came therefore to Philip, which was of Bethsaida of Galilee, and defired him, saying, Sir, we would see Jesus.

22 Philip cometh and telleth Andrew: and again, Andrew and Philip tell Jesus.

23 ¶ And Jesus answered them, saying, <sup>p</sup>The hour is come, that the Son of man should be glorified.

24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, <sup>q</sup>Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground, and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit.

25 <sup>r</sup>He that loveth his life, shall lose it; and he that hateth his life in this world, shall keep it unto life eternal.

26 If any man serve me, let him follow me; and <sup>s</sup>where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honour.

27 <sup>t</sup>Now is my soul troubled; and what shall I say? Father, save me from this hour: <sup>u</sup>but for this cause came I unto this hour.

28 Father, glorify thy name. <sup>x</sup>Then came there a voice from heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again.

29 The people therefore that stood by, and heard it, said that it thundered: others said, An angel spake to him.

30 Jesus answered and said, <sup>v</sup>This voice came not because of me, but for your sakes.

31 Now is the judgement of this world: now shall <sup>w</sup>the prince of this world be cast out.

32 And I, <sup>x</sup>if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw <sup>b</sup>all men unto me.

33 (<sup>y</sup>This he said, signifying what death he should die.)

34 The people answered him, <sup>d</sup>We have heard out of the law, that Christ abideth for ever: and how sayest thou, The Son of man must be lifted up? who is this Son of man?

35 Then Jesus said unto them, Yet a little while <sup>z</sup>is the light with you. <sup>f</sup>Walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for <sup>g</sup>he that walketh in darkness, knoweth not whither he goeth.

36 While ye have light, believe in the light, that ye may be <sup>h</sup>the children of light. These things spake Jesus, and departed, and <sup>i</sup>did hide himself from them.

37 ¶ But though he had done so many miracles before them, yet they believed not on him:

38 That the saying of Esaias the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake, <sup>k</sup>Lord, who hath believed our report? and to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed?

40 <sup>1</sup>He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart; that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and be converted, and I should heal them.

41 <sup>m</sup>These things said Esaias, when he saw his glory, and spake of him.

42 ¶Nevertheless, among the chief rulers also, many believed on him; but <sup>n</sup>because of the Pharisees they did not confess him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue :

43 °For they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.

50 And I know that his commandment is life everlasting: whatsoever I speak therefore, even as the Father said unto me, so I speak.

CHAP. XIII.

NOW <sup>a</sup>before the feast of the pass-over, when Jesus knew that <sup>b</sup>his hour was come, that he should depart out of this world unto the Father, having loved his own which were in the world, he loved them unto the end.

2 And supper being ended (<sup>c</sup>the devil having now put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him ;)

3 Jesus knowing <sup>d</sup>that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he was come from God, and went to God,

4 He riseth from supper, and laid aside his garments ; and took a towel and girded himself.

5 After that, he poureth water into a basin, and began to wash the disciples feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded.

6 Then cometh he to Simon Peter : and †Peter said unto him, Lord, <sup>e</sup>dost thou wash my feet ?

7 Jesus answered and said unto him, What I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt know hereafter.

8 Peter saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, <sup>f</sup>If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me.

9 Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head.

10 Jesus saith to him, He that is washed, needeth not save to wash his feet, but is clean every whit : and <sup>g</sup>ye are clean, but not all.

11 For <sup>h</sup>he knew who should betray him; therefore said he, Ye are not all clean.

12 So after he had washed their feet, and had taken his garments, and was set down again, he said unto them, Know ye what I have done to you ?

13 <sup>i</sup>Ye call me Master, and Lord : and ye say well; for so I am.

14 <sup>k</sup>If I then your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; <sup>l</sup>ye also ought to wash one another's feet.

15 For <sup>m</sup>I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you.

16 <sup>n</sup>Verily, verily, I say unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord; neither he that is sent, greater than he that sent him.

17 °If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them.

18 ¶I speak not of you all : I know whom I have chosen : but that the scripture may be fulfilled, <sup>p</sup>He that eateth bread with me, hath lifted up his heel against me.

19 ¶Now I tell you before it come, that when it is come to pass, ye may believe that I am he.

20 <sup>r</sup>Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that receiveth whomsoever I send, receiveth me; and he that receiveth me, receiveth him that sent me.

21 <sup>s</sup>When Jesus had thus said, <sup>t</sup>he was troubled in spirit, and testified, and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, That <sup>u</sup>one of you shall betray me.

22 Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake.

23 Now <sup>x</sup>there was leaning on Jesus' bosom, one of his disciples whom Jesus loved.

24 Simon Peter therefore beckened to 25 He then lying on Jesus' breast, saith unto him, Lord, who is it?

26 Jesus answered, He it is to whom I shall give a || sop, when I have dipped it. And when he had dipped the sop, he gave it to Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon.

27 And after the sop, Satan entered into him. Then said Jesus unto him, That thou doest, do quickly.

28 Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spake this unto him.

29 For some of them thought, because Judas had the bag, that Jesus had said unto him, Buy those things that we have need of against the feast; or, that he should give something to the poor.

30 He then having received the sop, went immediately out: and it was night.

31 ¶ Therefore when he was gone out, Jesus said, Now is the Son of man glorified, and God is glorified in him.

32 If God be glorified in him, God shall also glorify him in himself, and shall straightway glorify him.

33 Little children, yet a little while I am with you. Ye shall seek me: and as I said unto the Jews, Whither I go, ye cannot come, so now I say unto you.

34 A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.

35 By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another.

36 ¶ Simon Peter said unto him, Lord, whither goest thou? Jesus answered him, Whither I go, thou canst not follow me now; but thou shalt follow me afterwards.

37 Peter said unto him, Lord, why cannot I follow thee now? I will lay down my life for thy sake.

38 Jesus answered him, Wilt thou lay down thy life for my sake? Verily, verily, I say unto thee, The cock shall not crow, till thou hast denied me thrice.

CHAP. XIV.

1 Christ comforteth his disciples with the hope of heaven: 6 professeth himself the way, the truth, and the life; and one with the Father: 13 assureth their prayers in his name to be effectual: 15 requesteth love and obedience: 16 promiseth the Holy Ghost the Comforter: 27 and leaveth his peace with them.

LET not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.

2 In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.

3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.

4 And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know.

5 Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way?

6 Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, and the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father but by me.

7 If ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also: and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him.

8 Philip saith unto him, Lord, shew us the Father, and it sufficeth us.

9 Jesus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip? he that hath seen me, hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou then, Shew us the Father?

10 Believest thou not, that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words that I speak unto you, I speak not of myself: but the Father, that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works.

11 Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believe me for the very works sake.

12 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do, shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father.

13 And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.

14 If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it.

15 ¶ If ye love me, keep my commandments.

16 And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever;

17 Even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you.

18 I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you.

19 Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more: but ye see me: because I live, ye shall live also.

20 At that day ye shall know, that I am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you.

21 He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me:

CHAP. XV.

I AM the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman.

<sup>2</sup> Every branch in me that beareth not fruit, he taketh away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.

<sup>4</sup> Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me.

<sup>7</sup> If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, <sup>f</sup> ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.

<sup>9</sup> As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you: continue ye in my love.

<sup>10</sup> If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love.

<sup>11</sup> These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and <sup>i</sup> that your joy might be full.

<sup>12</sup> This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you.

<sup>15</sup> Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; <sup>n</sup> for all things that I have heard of my Father, I have made known unto you.

<sup>16</sup> Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and <sup>p</sup> ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that <sup>q</sup> whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you.

<sup>18</sup> If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you.

<sup>20</sup> Remember the word that I said unto you, <sup>s</sup> The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you; <sup>t</sup> if they have kept my saying, they will keep your's also.

<sup>21</sup> But <sup>u</sup> all these things will they do unto you for my name's sake, because they know not him that sent me.

<sup>22</sup> If I had not come, and spoken unto them, they had not had sin: <sup>v</sup> but now they have no || cloke for their sin.

CHAP. XVI.

1 Christ comforteth his disciples against tribulation by the promise of the Holy Ghost, and by his resurrection and ascension; 23 assureth their prayers made in his name to be acceptable to his Father. 33 Peace in Christ, and in the world affliction.

THESE things have I spoken unto you, that ye <sup>a</sup> should not be offended.

2 <sup>b</sup> They shall put you out of the synagogues: yea, the time cometh, that whosoever killeth you will think that he doeth God service.

3 And <sup>c</sup> these things will they do unto you, because they have not known the Father, nor me.

4 But <sup>d</sup> these things have I told you, that when the time shall come, ye may remember that I told you of them. And <sup>e</sup> these things I said not unto you at the beginning, because I was with you.

5 But now I go my way to him that sent me; and none of you asketh me, Whither goest thou?

6 But because I have said these things unto you, sorrow hath filled your heart.

7 Nevertheless, I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, <sup>f</sup> the Comforter will not come unto you; but <sup>g</sup> if I depart, I will send him unto you.

8 And when he is come, he will <sup>h</sup> reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgement:

9 <sup>h</sup> Of sin, because they believe not on me;

10 <sup>i</sup> Of righteousness, <sup>k</sup> because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more;

11 <sup>l</sup> Of judgement, because <sup>m</sup> the prince of this world is judged.

12 I have yet many things to say unto you, <sup>n</sup> but ye cannot bear them now.

13 Howbeit, when he, <sup>o</sup> the Spirit of truth, is come, <sup>p</sup> he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come.

14 He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you.

15 <sup>q</sup> All things that the Father hath are mine: therefore said I, that he shall take of mine, and shall shew it unto you.

16 <sup>r</sup> A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me, because I go to the Father.

17 Then said some of his disciples among themselves, What is this that he saith unto us, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me: and, Because I go to the Father?

18 They said therefore, What is this that he saith, A little while? we cannot tell what he saith.

19 Now Jesus knew that they were desirous to ask him, and said unto them, Do ye enquire among yourselves of that I said, A little while and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while and ye shall see me?

20 Verily, verily, I say unto you, That ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice: and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy.

21 <sup>s</sup> A woman when she is in travail, hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world.

22 And ye now therefore have sorrow: but I will see you again, and <sup>t</sup> your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you.

23 And in that day ye shall ask me nothing: <sup>u</sup> Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you.

24 Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: <sup>v</sup> ask, and ye shall receive, <sup>w</sup> that your joy may be full.

25 These things have I spoken unto you in <sup>x</sup> parables: but the time cometh when I shall <sup>y</sup> no more speak unto you in <sup>z</sup> parables, but I shall shew you plainly of the Father.

26 <sup>aa</sup> At that day ye shall ask in my name: and I say not unto you, that I will pray the Father for you:

27 For the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and <sup>ab</sup> have believed that I came out from God.

am come into the world: again, I leave the world, and go to the Father.

29 His disciples said unto him, Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and speakest no proverb.

30 Now are we sure that thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee: by this we believe that thou camest forth from God.

31 Jesus answered them, Do ye now believe?

32 Behold, the hour cometh, yea, is now come, that ye shall be scattered, every man to his own, and shall leave me alone: and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me.

33 These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.

CHAP. XVII.

1 Christ prayeth to his Father to glorify him: 6 to preserve his apostles, 11 in unity, 17 and truth: 20 to glorify them, and all other believers with him in heaven.

THESE words spake Jesus, and lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, the hour is come; glorify thy Son, that thy Son also may glorify thee.

2 As thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many as thou hast given him.

3 And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom thou hast sent.

4 I have glorified thee on the earth: I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do.

5 And now, O Father, glorify thou me with thine own self, with the glory which I had with thee before the world was.

6 I have manifested thy name unto the men which thou gavest me out of the world: thine they were, and thou gavest them me; and they have kept thy word.

7 Now they have known that all things whatsoever thou hast given me are of thee.

8 For I have given unto them the words which thou gavest me; and they have received them, and have known surely that I came out from thee, and they have believed that thou didst send me.

9 I pray for them: I pray not for the world, but for them which thou hast given me; for they are thine.

10 And all mine are thine, and thine are mine; and I am glorified in them.

Anno

11 And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, keep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me, that they may be one, as we are.

12 While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy name: those that thou gavest me I have kept, and none of them is lost, but the son of perdition; that the scripture might be fulfilled.

13 And now come I to thee, and these things I speak in the world, that they might have my joy fulfilled in themselves.

14 I have given them thy word; and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

15 I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou shouldest keep them from the evil.

16 They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

17 Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth.

18 As thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world.

19 And for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be sanctified through the truth.

20 Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word;

21 That they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me.

22 And the glory which thou gavest me, I have given them; that they may be one, even as we are one:

23 I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one, and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them, as thou hast loved me.

24 Father, I will that they also whom thou hast given me be with me where I am; that they may behold my glory which thou hast given me: for thou lovedst me before the foundation of the world.

25 O righteous Father, the world hath not known thee: but I have known thee, and these have known that thou hast sent me.

26 And I have declared unto them thy name, and will declare it: that the love wherewith thou hast loved me, may be in them, and I in them.

1 Judas betrayeth Jesus. 6 The officers fall to the ground. 10 Peter smiteth off Malchus' ear. 12 Jesus is taken and led unto Annas and Caiaphas. 15 Peter's denial. 19 Jesus examined before Caiaphas: 28 his arraignment before Pilate: 36 his kingdom. 40 The Jews ask Barabbas to be let loose.

WHEN Jesus had spoken these words, <sup>a</sup> he went forth with his disciples over <sup>b</sup> the brook Cedron, where was a garden, into the which he entered, and his disciples.

2 And Judas also, which betrayed him, knew the place: <sup>c</sup> for Jesus oft-times resorted thither with his disciples.

3 <sup>d</sup> Judas then, having received a band of men, and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, cometh thither with lanterns, and torches, and weapons.

4 Jesus therefore, knowing all things that should come upon him, went forth, and said unto them, Whom seek ye?

5 They answered him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus saith unto them, I am he. And Judas also which betrayed him, stood with them.

6 As soon then as he had said unto them, I am he, they went backward, and fell to the ground.

7 Then asked he them again, Whom seek ye? And they said, Jesus of Nazareth.

8 Jesus answered, I have told you that I am he. If therefore ye seek me, let these go their way:

9 That the saying might be fulfilled which he spake, <sup>e</sup> Of them which thou gavest me, have I lost none.

10 <sup>f</sup> Then Simon Peter, having a sword, drew it, and smote the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus.

11 Then said Jesus unto Peter, Put up thy sword into the sheath: <sup>g</sup> the cup which my Father hath given me, shall I not drink it?

12 Then the band, and the captain, and officers of the Jews, took Jesus, and bound him,

13 And <sup>h</sup> led him away to <sup>i</sup> Annas first (for he was father-in-law to Caiaphas, which was the high priest that same year) <sup>j</sup>.

14 <sup>k</sup> Now Caiaphas was he which gave counsel to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

15 <sup>l</sup> And Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple. That disciple was known unto the high priest, and went in with Jesus into the palace of the high priest.

16 <sup>m</sup> But Peter stood at the door without. Then went out that other disciple which was known unto the high priest, and spake unto her that kept the door, and brought in Peter.

17 Then saith the damsel that kept the door unto Peter, Art not thou also one of this man's disciples? He saith, I am not.

18 And the servants and officers stood there, who had made a fire of coals; (for it was cold:) and they warmed themselves: and Peter stood with them, and warmed himself.

19 <sup>n</sup> The high priest then asked Jesus of his disciples, and of his doctrine.

20 Jesus answered him, <sup>o</sup> I spake openly <sup>n</sup> ch. 7. 26. to the world; I ever taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort; and in secret have I said nothing.

21 Why askest thou me? ask them which heard me, what I have said unto them: behold, they know what I said.

22 And when he had thus spoken, one of the officers which stood by, <sup>p</sup> struck Jesus <sup>o</sup> Jer. 20. 21. with the palm of his hand, saying, Answerest thou the high priest so? <sup>p</sup> Acts 23. 2. Or, with a rod.

23 Jesus answered him, If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil: but if well, why smitest thou me?

24 <sup>q</sup> Now Annas had sent him bound unto Caiaphas the high priest. <sup>q</sup> Matth. 26. 57.

25 And Simon Peter stood and warmed himself. <sup>r</sup> They said therefore unto him, Art not thou also one of his disciples? He denied it, and said, I am not. <sup>r</sup> Matth. 26. 69, 71. Mark 14. 69.

27 Peter then denied again: and <sup>t</sup> immediately the cock crew. <sup>t</sup> ch. 13. 38.

28 <sup>u</sup> Then led they Jesus from Caiaphas unto <sup>u</sup> the hall of judgement: and it was early; <sup>v</sup> and they themselves went not into the judgement-hall, lest they should be defiled; but that they might eat the pass-over. <sup>v</sup> Matth. 27. 2. Mark 15. 1. Luke 23. 12.

33 * Then Pilate entered into the judgement-hall again, and called Jesus, and said unto him, Art thou the King of the Jews?

34 Jesus answered him, Sayest thou this thing of thyself, or did others tell it thee of me?

35 Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? Thine own nation, and the chief priests, have delivered thee unto me: What hast thou done?

36 <sup>7</sup> Jesus answered, * My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence.

37 Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a King then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that <sup>a</sup>is of the truth, heareth my voice.

38 Pilate saith unto him, What is truth? And when he had said this, he went out again unto the Jews, and saith unto them; <sup>b</sup>I find in him no fault at all.

39 <sup>c</sup> But ye have a custom, that I should release unto you one at the pass-over: will ye therefore that I release unto you the King of the Jews?

40 <sup>d</sup> Then cried they all again, saying, Not this man, but Barabbas. <sup>e</sup> Now Barabbas was a robber.

CHAP. XIX.

1 Christ is scourged, crowned with thorns, and beaten. 4 Pilate is desirous to release him, but being overcome with the outrage of the Jews, he delivered him to be crucified. 23 They cast lots for his garments: 26 he commendeth his mother to John: 28 he dieth: 31 his side is pierced: 38 he is buried by Joseph and Nicodemus.

THEN <sup>a</sup> Pilate therefore took Jesus, and scourged him.

2 And the soldiers platted a crown of thorns, and put it on his head, and they put on him a purple robe,

3 And said, Hail, King of the Jews! and they smote him with their hands.

4 Pilate therefore went forth again, and saith unto them, Behold, I bring him forth to you, <sup>b</sup> that ye may know that I find no fault in him.

5 Then came Jesus forth, wearing the crown of thorns, and the purple robe. And Pilate saith unto them, Behold the man!

6 When the chief priests therefore and officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucify him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Take ye him, and crucify him:

for I find no fault in him.

7 The Jews answered him, * We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because <sup>d</sup> he made himself the Son of God.

8 ¶ When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he was the more afraid;

9 And went again into the judgement-hall, and saith unto Jesus, Whence art thou? But Jesus gave him no answer.

10 Then saith Pilate unto him, Speakest thou not unto me? knowest thou not that I have power to crucify thee, and have power to release thee?

11 Jesus answered, Thou couldest have no power at all against me, except it were given thee from above: therefore he that delivered me unto thee hath the greater sin.

12 And from thenceforth Pilate sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, * If thou let this man go, thou art not Cæsar's friend. <sup>f</sup> Whosoever maketh himself a king, speaketh against Cæsar.

13 ¶ When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought Jesus forth, and sat down in the judgement-seat, in a place that is called the Pavement, but in the Hebrew, Gabbatha.

14 And <sup>g</sup> it was the preparation of the pass-over, and about the sixth hour: and he saith unto the Jews, Behold your King!

15 But they cried out, Away with him, away with him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, <sup>h</sup> We have no king, but Cæsar.

16 <sup>i</sup> Then delivered he him therefore unto them to be crucified. And they took Jesus, and led him away.

17 <sup>k</sup> And he bearing his cross, went forth into a place called the place of a skull, which is called in the Hebrew, Golgotha:

18 Where they crucified him, and two other with him, on either side one, and Jesus in the midst.

19 ¶ <sup>l</sup> And Pilate wrote a title, and put it on the cross. And the writing was, JESUS OF NAZARETH THE KING OF THE JEWS.

20 This title then read many of the Jews: for the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city: and it was written in Hebrew, an. Greek, and Latin.

21 Then said the chief priests of the Jews to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Jews; but that he said, I am King of the Jews.

22 Pilate answered, What I have written, I have written.

23 ¶ <sup>m</sup> Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments, and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also the preparation, that the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the sabbath-day, (for that sabbath-day was an high day,) besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and <sup>w</sup> that they might be taken away.

32 Then came the soldiers, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him.

33 But when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs.

34 But one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and forthwith <sup>y</sup> came thereout blood and water.

35 And he that saw <sup>z</sup> it, bare record, and his record is true : and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye might believe.

36 For these things were done, <sup>z</sup> that the scripture should be fulfilled, A bone of him shall not be broken.

37 And again another scripture saith, <sup>a</sup> They shall look on him whom they pierced.

38 ¶ And after this, Joseph of Arima-thea, (being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly <sup>c</sup> for fear of the Jews,) besought Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus : and Pilate gave him leave. He came therefore and took the body of Jesus.

39 And there came also <sup>d</sup> Nicodemus

(which at the first came to Jesus by night,) and brought a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about an hundred pound weight.

40 Then took they the body of Jesus, and <sup>e</sup> wound it in linen clothes, with the spices, as the manner of the Jews is to bury.

41 Now in the place where he was crucified, there was a garden ; and in the garden a new sepulchre, wherein was never man yet laid.

42 There laid they Jesus therefore, because of the Jews preparation-day, for the sepulchre was nigh at hand.

CHAP. XX.

1 Mary cometh to the sepulchre : 3 so do Peter and John, ignorant of the resurrection : 11 Jesus appeareth to Mary Magdalene, 19 and to his disciples. 24 The incredulity and confession of Thomas. 30 The scripture is sufficient to salvation.

THE <sup>a</sup> first day of the week cometh Mary Magdalene early, when it was yet dark, unto the sepulchre, and seeth the stone taken away from the sepulchre.

2 Then she runneth, and cometh to Simon
Peter, and to the <sup>b</sup> other disciple whom Jesus loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and we know not where they have laid him.

3 <sup>c</sup> Peter therefore went forth, and that other disciple, and came to the sepulchre.

4 So they ran both together : and the other disciple did outrun Peter, and came first to the sepulchre.

5 And he stooping down, and looking in, saw <sup>d</sup> the linen clothes lying ; yet went he not in.

6 Then cometh Simon Peter following him, and went into the sepulchre, and seeth
the linen clothes lie ;

7 And <sup>e</sup> the napkin that was about his head, not lying with the linen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by itself.

8 Then went in also that other disciple which came first to the sepulchre, and he saw, and believed.

9 For as yet they knew not the <sup>f</sup> scripture, that he must rise again from the dead.

10 Then the disciples went away again unto their own home.

11 ¶ But Mary stood without at the sepulchre, weeping : and as she wept, she <sup>g</sup> stooped down, and looked into the sepulchre,

12 And seeth two angels in white, sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain.

13 And they say unto her, Woman, why weepest thou ? She saith unto them, Because they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him.

16 Jesus saith unto her, Mary. She turned herself, and saith unto him, Rabboni; which is to say, Master.

17 Jesus saith unto her, Touch me not; for I am not yet ascended to my Father: but go to <sup>k</sup> my brethren, and say unto them, <sup>i</sup> I ascend unto my Father, and your Father, and to <sup>m</sup> my God, and your God.

18 Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples, that she had seen the Lord, and that he had spoken these things unto her.

19 ¶ <sup>n</sup> Then the same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews, came Jesus and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you.

20 And when he had so said, he shewed unto them his hands and his side. <sup>o</sup> Then were the disciples glad when they saw the Lord.

21 Then said Jesus to them again, Peace be unto you: <sup>p</sup> as my Father hath sent me, even so send I you.

22 And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and saith unto them, Receive ye the Holy Ghost:

23 <sup>q</sup> Whose soever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them; and whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained.

24 ¶ But Thomas, one of the twelve, <sup>r</sup> called Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came.

25 The other disciples therefore said unto him, We have seen the Lord. But he said unto them, Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into his side, I will not believe.

26 ¶ And after eight days again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them: then came Jesus, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be unto you.

27 Then saith he to Thomas, Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands; and <sup>s</sup> reach hither thy hand, and thrust it into my side: and be not faithless, but believing.

28 And Thomas answered and said unto him, My Lord and my God.

29 Jesus saith unto him, Thomas, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: <sup>t</sup> blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed.

30 ¶ <sup>u</sup> And many other signs truly did Jesus in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book:

31 <sup>v</sup> But these are written that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ the Son of God, and that believing ye might have life through his name.

CHAP. XXI.

1 Christ appearing again to his disciples, was known of them by the great draught of fishes:

12 he dineth with them; 15 earnestly commandeth Peter to feed his lambs and sheep; 18 foretelleth him of his death; 22 rebuketh his curiosity touching John. 25 The conclusion.

AFTER these things Jesus shewed himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias; and on this wise shewed he himself.

2 There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas called Didymus, and <sup>a</sup> Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and <sup>b</sup> the sons of Zebedee, and two other of his disciples.

3 Simon Peter saith unto them, I go a fishing. They say unto him, We also go with thee. They went forth, and entered into a ship immediately; and that night they caught nothing.

4 But when the morning was now come, Jesus stood on the shore: but the disciples <sup>c</sup> knew not that it was Jesus.

5 Then <sup>d</sup> Jesus saith unto them, ¶ Children, have ye any meat? They answered him, No.

6 And he said unto them, <sup>e</sup> Cast the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall find. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes.

7 Therefore <sup>f</sup> that disciple whom Jesus loved saith unto Peter, It is the Lord. Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt his fisher's coat unto him, (for he was naked,) and did cast himself into the sea.

8 And the other disciples came in a little ship; (for they were not far from land, but as it were two hundred cubits,) dragging the net with fishes.

9 As soon then as they were come to land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid thereon, and bread.

10 Jesus saith unto them, Bring of the fish which ye have now caught.

11 Simon Peter went up, and drew the net to land full of great fishes, an hundred

13 Jesus then cometh, and taketh bread, and giveth them, and fish likewise.

14 This is now <sup>b</sup> the third time that Jesus shewed himself to his disciples, after that he was risen from the dead.

15 ¶ So when they had dined, Jesus saith to Simon Peter, Simon son of Jonas, lovest thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my lambs.

16 He saith to him again the second time, Simon son of Jonas, lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my sheep.

17 He saith unto him the third time, Simon son of Jonas, lovest thou me? Peter was grieved, because he said unto him the third time, Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, <sup>i</sup> thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee. Jesus saith unto him, Feed my sheep.

18 <sup>k</sup> Verily, verily, I say unto thee, When thou wast young, thou girdest thyself, and walkedst whither thou wouldest: but when thou shalt be old, thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another shall gird thee, and carry thee whither thou wouldest not.

19 This spake he, signifying <sup>l</sup> by what death he should glorify God. And when he had spoken this, he saith unto him, Follow me.

20 Then Peter turning about, seeth the disciple <sup>m</sup> whom Jesus loved, following; (which also leaned on his breast at supper, and said, Lord, which is he that betrayeth thee?)

21 Peter seeing him, saith to Jesus, Lord, and what shall this man do?

22 Jesus saith unto him, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee? Follow thou me.

23 Then went this saying abroad among the brethren, that that disciple should not die: yet Jesus said not unto him, He shall not die; but, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee?

24 This is the disciple which testifieth of these things, and wrote these things: and we know that his testimony is true.

25 <sup>o</sup> And there are also many other things which Jesus did, the which, if they should be written every one, <sup>p</sup> I suppose that even the world itself could not contain the books that should be written. Amen.

The ACTS of the Apostles.

CHAP. I.

Christ preparing his apostles to the beholding of his ascension, gathereth them together into the mount Olivet, commandeth them to expect in Jerusalem the sending down of the Holy Ghost, promiseth after few days to send it: by virtue whereof they should be witnesses unto him, even to the utmost parts of the earth. 9 After his ascension they are warned by two angels to depart, and to set their minds upon his second coming: 12 they accordingly return, and giving themselves to prayer, choose Matthias apostle in the place of Judas.

THE former treatise have I made, O <sup>a</sup> Theophilus, of all that Jesus began both to do and teach,

2 <sup>b</sup> Until the day in which he was taken up, after that he, through the Holy Ghost, <sup>c</sup> had given commandments unto the apostles whom he had chosen:

3 <sup>d</sup> To whom also he shewed himself alive after his passion, by many infallible proofs, being seen of them forty days, and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God:

4 <sup>e</sup> And || being assembled together with them, commanded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the Father, <sup>f</sup> which, saith he, ye have heard of me.

5 <sup>g</sup> For John truly baptized with water; <sup>h</sup> but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost, not many days hence.

6 When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, <sup>i</sup> Lord, wilt thou at this time restore again the kingdom to Israel?

7 And he said unto them, <sup>k</sup> It is not for you to know <sup>l</sup> the times or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his own power.

8 <sup>m</sup> But ye shall receive || power <sup>n</sup> after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and <sup>o</sup> ye shall be witnesses unto me, both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.

9 <sup>p</sup> And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, <sup>q</sup> he was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight.

10 And while they looked stedfastly toward heaven, as he went up, behold, two men stood by them <sup>r</sup> in white apparel;

12 Then returned they unto Jerusalem, <sup>u</sup> from the mount called Olivet, which is from Jerusalem a sabbath-day's journey.

13 And when they were come in, they went up <sup>x</sup> into an upper room, where abode both <sup>y</sup> Peter, and James, and John, and Andrew, Philip, and Thomas, Bartholomew, and Matthew, James the son of Alphaeus, and <sup>z</sup> Simon Zelotes, and <sup>a</sup> Judas the brother of James.

14 <sup>b</sup> These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication, with the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with <sup>c</sup> his brethren.

15 ¶ And in those days Peter stood up in the midst of the disciples, and said, (the number <sup>d</sup> of the names together were about an hundred and twenty,)

16 Men and brethren, this scripture must needs have been fulfilled, <sup>e</sup> which the Holy Ghost by the mouth of David spake before concerning Judas, <sup>f</sup> which was guide to them that took Jesus.

17 For <sup>g</sup> he was numbered with us, and had obtained part of this <sup>h</sup> ministry.

18 <sup>i</sup> Now this man purchased a field with the reward of iniquity; and falling headlong, he burst asunder in the midst, and all his bowels gushed out.

19 And it was known unto all the dwellers at Jerusalem; insomuch as that field is called in their proper tongue, Aceldama, that is to say, The field of blood.

20 For it is written in the book of Psalms, <sup>k</sup> Let his habitation be desolate, and let no man dwell therein: and, <sup>l</sup> His <sup>m</sup> bishoprick let another take.

21 Wherefore of these men which have companied with us, all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us,

22 <sup>n</sup> Beginning from the baptism of John, unto that same day that <sup>o</sup> he was taken up from us, must one be ordained <sup>p</sup> to be <sup>q</sup> a witness with us of his resurrection.

23 And they appointed two, Joseph called <sup>r</sup> Barsabas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias.

24 And they prayed, and said, Thou, Lord, <sup>s</sup> which knowest the hearts of all men, shew whether of these two thou hast chosen,

25 That he may take part of this ministry and apostleship, from which Judas by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place,

26 And they gave forth their lots; and the lot fell upon Matthias; and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

1 The apostles, filled with the Holy Ghost, and speaking divers languages, are admired by some, and derided by others: 14 whom Peter disproving, and shewing that the apostles spake by the power of the Holy Ghost, that Jesus was risen from the dead, ascended into heaven, had poured down the same Holy Ghost, and was the Messias, a man known to them to be approved of God by his miracles, wonders, and signs, and not crucified without his determinate counsel, and foreknowledge: 37 he baptizeth a great number that were converted; 41 who afterwards devoutly and charitably converse together: the apostles working many miracles, and God daily increasing his church.

AND when <sup>a</sup> the day of Pentecost was fully come, <sup>b</sup> they were all with one accord in one place.

2 And suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a rushing mighty wind, and <sup>c</sup> it filled all the house where they were sitting.

3 And there appeared unto them cloven tongues, like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them.

4 And <sup>d</sup> they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began <sup>e</sup> to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

5 And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven.

6 Now <sup>f</sup> when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and were <sup>g</sup> confounded, because that every man heard them speak in his own language.

7 And they were all amazed, and marvelled, saying one to another, Behold, are not all these which speak, <sup>h</sup> Galileans?

8 And how hear we every man in our own tongue, wherein we were born?

9 Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia, and in Judea, and Cappadocia, in Pontus, and Asia,

10 Phrygia, and Pamphylia, in Egypt, and in the parts of Libya about Cyrene, and strangers of Rome, Jews and proselytes, 11 Cretes and Arabians, we do hear them speak in our tongues the wonderful works of God.

12 And they were all amazed, and were in doubt, saying one to another, What meaneth this?

13 Others mocking, said, These men are full of new wine.

14 ¶ But Peter standing up with the eleven lifted up his voice, and said unto them, Ye men of Judea, and all ye that dwell at

Anno DOMINI Jerufalem, be this known unto you, and hearken to my words:

33. 15 For these are not drunken, as ye suppose, <sup>1</sup> seeing it is but the third hour of the day.

16 But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel,

17 <sup>1</sup> And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, <sup>1</sup> I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and <sup>1</sup> your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams:

18 And on my servants, and on my handmaidens, I will pour out in those days of my Spirit; and they shall prophesy:

19 And I will shew wonders in heaven above, and signs in the earth beneath; blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke:

20 <sup>1</sup> The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before that great and notable day of the Lord come:

21 And it shall come to pass, that <sup>m</sup> whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord, shall be saved.

22 Ye men of Israel, hear these words; Jesus of Nazareth, a man approved of God among you <sup>a</sup> by miracles, and wonders, and signs, which God did by him in the midst of you, as ye yourselves also know:

23 Him, <sup>o</sup> being delivered by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, <sup>a</sup> ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain:

24 <sup>a</sup> Whom God hath raised up, having loosed the pains of death: because it was not possible that he should be holden of it.

25 For David speaketh concerning him, <sup>1</sup> I foresaw the Lord always before my face, for he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved:

26 Therefore did my heart rejoice, and my tongue was glad: moreover also, my flesh shall rest in hope:

27 Because thou wilt not leave my soul in hell, neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.

28 Thou hast made known to me the ways of life; thou shalt make me full of joy with thy countenance.

29 Men and brethren, || let me freely speak unto you <sup>a</sup> of the patriarch David, that he is both dead and buried, and his sepulchre is with us unto this day.

30 Therefore being a prophet, <sup>a</sup> and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, he would raise up

Christ, to sit on his throne;

31 He, seeing this before, spake of the resurrection of Christ, <sup>a</sup> that his soul was not left in hell, neither his flesh did see corruption.

32 <sup>a</sup> This Jesus hath God raised up, <sup>1</sup> whereof we all are witnesses.

33 Therefore <sup>a</sup> being by the right hand of God exalted, and <sup>a</sup> having received of the Father the promise of the Holy Ghost, he <sup>b</sup> hath shed forth this, which ye now see and hear.

34 For David is not ascended into the heavens: but he saith himself, <sup>c</sup> The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, 35 Until I make thy foes thy footstool.

36 Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly, that God <sup>d</sup> hath made that same Jesus whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ.

37 ¶ Now when they heard this, <sup>e</sup> they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter, and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do?

38 Then Peter said unto them, <sup>f</sup> Repent, and be baptized every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ, for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost.

39 For the promise is unto you, and <sup>g</sup> to your children, and <sup>h</sup> to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call.

40 And with many other words did he testify and exhort, saying, Save yourselves from this untoward generation.

41 ¶ Then they that gladly received his word, were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls.

42 <sup>i</sup> And they continued stedfastly in the apostles doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers.

43 And fear came upon every soul: and <sup>k</sup> many wonders and signs were done by the apostles.

44 And all that believed were together, and <sup>l</sup> had all things common;

45 And sold their possessions and goods, and <sup>m</sup> parted them to all men, as every man had need.

46 <sup>n</sup> And they continuing daily with one accord <sup>o</sup> in the temple, and <sup>p</sup> breaking bread || from house to house, did eat their meat with gladness and singleness of heart, 47 Praising God, and <sup>q</sup> having favour with all the people. And <sup>r</sup> the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved.

CHAP. III.

1 Peter preaching to the people that came to see a lame man restored to his feet, 12 professeth the cure not to have been wrought by his or John's own power, or holiness, but by God, and his Son Jesus, and through faith in his name: 13 withal reprehending them for crucifying Jesus. 17 Which because they did it through ignorance, and that thereby were fulfilled God's determinate counsel, and the scriptures, 19 he exhorteth them by repentance and faith to seek remission of their sins, and salvation in the same Jesus.

NOW Peter and John went up together <sup>a</sup> into the temple, at the hour of prayer, <sup>b</sup> being the ninth hour.

2 And <sup>c</sup> a certain man lame from his mother's womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, <sup>d</sup> to ask alms of them that entered into the temple;

3 Who seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple, asked an alms.

4 And Peter fastening his eyes upon him, with John, said, Look on us.

5 And he gave heed unto them, expecting to receive something of them.

6 Then Peter said, Silver and gold have I none; but such as I have give I thee: <sup>e</sup> In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, rise up and walk.

7 And he took him by the right hand, and lifted him up: and immediately his feet and ancle-bones received strength.

8 And he leaping up, stood, and walked, and entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God.

9 And all the people saw him walking, and praising God:

10 And they knew that it was he which <sup>f</sup> sat for alms at the Beautiful gate of the temple: and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened unto him.

11 And as the lame man which was healed, held Peter and John, all the people ran together unto them in the porch <sup>g</sup> that is called Solomon's, greatly wondering.

12 ¶ And when Peter saw it, he answered unto the people, Ye men of Israel, why marvel ye at this? or why look ye so earnestly on us, as though by our own power or holiness we had made this man to walk?

13 <sup>h</sup> The God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, the God of our fathers <sup>i</sup> hath glorified his Son Jesus; whom ye delivered up, and <sup>k</sup> denied him in the presence of Pilate, when he was determined to let him go.

14 But ye denied <sup>l</sup> the Holy One, <sup>m</sup> and the Just, and desired a murderer to be granted unto you;

15 And killed the <sup>n</sup> Prince of life, <sup>o</sup> whom God hath raised from the dead; <sup>p</sup> whereof we are witnesses:

16 And his name through faith in his name hath made this man strong, whom ye see and know: yea, the faith which is by him, hath given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all.

17 And now, brethren, I wot that <sup>q</sup> through ignorance ye did it, as <sup>r</sup> did also your rulers.

18 But <sup>s</sup> those things which God before had shewed <sup>t</sup> by the mouth of all his prophets, that Christ should suffer, he hath so fulfilled.

19 ¶ Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord;

20 And he shall send Jesus Christ, which before was preached unto you:

21 Whom the heaven must receive, until the times of <sup>u</sup> restitution of all things, which God hath spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets, <sup>v</sup> since the world began.

22 For Moses truly said unto the fathers, <sup>w</sup> A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you, of your brethren, like unto me; him shall ye hear in all things whatsoever he shall say unto you.

23 And it shall come to pass, <sup>x</sup> that every soul which will not hear that prophet, shall be destroyed from among the people.

24 Yea, and all the prophets from Samuel, and those that follow after, as many as have spoken, have likewise foretold of these days.

25 Ye are the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying unto Abraham, <sup>y</sup> And in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed.

26 ¶ Unto you first, God having raised up his Son Jesus, sent him to bless you <sup>z</sup> in turning away every one of you from his iniquities.

CHAP. IV.

1 The rulers of the Jews offended with Peter's sermon, 4 (though thousands of the people were converted that heard the word) imprison him and John. 5 After, upon examination, Peter boldly avouching the lame man to be healed by the name of Jesus, and that by the same Jesus only we must be eternally saved, 13 they command him and John to preach no more in that name, adding also threatening. 23 Whereupon the church fleeth to prayer: 31 and God, by moving

CHAP. V.

1 After that Ananias and Sapphira his wife for their hypocrisy at Peter's rebuke had fallen down dead, 12 and that the rest of the apostles had wrought many miracles, 14 to the increase of the faith: 17 the apostles are again imprisoned, 19 but delivered by an angel, bidding them to preach openly to all: 21 when, after their teaching accordingly in the temple, 29 and before the council, 33 they are in danger to be killed; through the advice of Gamaliel, a great counsellor among the Jews, they be kept alive, 40 and are but beaten: for which they glorify God, and cease no day from preaching.

4 Whiles it remained, was it not thine own? and after it was sold, was it not in thine own power? why hast thou conceived this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied unto men, but unto God.

5 And Ananias hearing these words, fell down, and gave up the ghost: and great fear came on all them that heard these things.

<sup>b</sup> John 19. 40. 6 And the young men arose, <sup>b</sup> wound him up, and carried him out, and buried him.

7 And it was about the space of three hours after, when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in.

8 And Peter answered unto her, Tell me whether ye sold the land for so much? And she said, Yea, for so much.

9 Then Peter said unto her, How is it that ye have agreed together, to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feet of them which have buried thy husband are at the door, and shall carry thee out.

10 Then fell she down straightway at his feet, and yielded up the ghost: and the young men came in, and found her dead, and carrying her forth, buried her by her husband.

11 And great fear came upon all the church, and upon as many as heard these things.

12 ¶ And <sup>e</sup> by the hands of the apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people; (and they were all with one accord in <sup>d</sup> Solomon's porch.

13 And <sup>e</sup> of the rest durst no man join himself to them: <sup>f</sup> but the people magnified them.

14 And believers were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women.)

15 Inasmuch that they brought forth the sick || into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, <sup>g</sup> that at the least, the shadow of Peter passing by, might overshadow some of them.

16 There came also a multitude out of the cities round about unto Jerusalem, bringing <sup>h</sup> sick folks, and them which were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed every one.

17 ¶ Then the high priest rose up, and all they that were with him; (which is the sect of the Sadducees;) and were filled with || indignation,

18 And laid their hands on the apostles, and put them in the common prison.

19 But <sup>i</sup> the angel of the Lord by night opened the prison-doors, and brought them forth, and said,

20 Go, stand and speak in the temple to the people, <sup>k</sup> all the words of this life.

21 And when they heard that, they entered into the temple early in the morning, and taught. But the high priest came, and they that were with him, and called the council together, and all the senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought.

22 But when the officers came, and found them not in the prison, they returned and told,

23 Saying, The prison truly found we shut with all safety, and the keepers standing without before the doors: but when we had opened, we found no man within.

24 Now when the high priest, and <sup>l</sup> the captain of the temple, and the chief priests, heard these things, they doubted of them whereunto this would grow.

25 Then came one and told them, say-

26 Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them without violence: (<sup>m</sup> for they feared the people, lest they should have been stoned.)

27 And when they had brought them, they set them before the council: and the high priest asked them,

28 Saying, <sup>a</sup> Did not we straitly command you, that ye should not teach in this name? and behold, ye have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine, and intend to bring this man's blood upon us.

29 ¶ Then Peter and the other apostles answered and said, <sup>a</sup> We ought to obey God rather than men.

30 <sup>p</sup> The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom ye slew and <sup>a</sup> hanged on a tree.

31 <sup>r</sup> Him hath God exalted with his right hand to be <sup>a</sup> a Prince and a Saviour, <sup>c</sup> for to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins.

32 And <sup>a</sup> we are his witnesses of these things; and so <sup>a</sup> is also the Holy Ghost, <sup>a</sup> whom God hath given to them that obey him.

33 ¶ When they heard that, they were cut to the heart, and took counsel to slay them.

34 Then stood there up one in the council, a Pharisee, named <sup>a</sup> Gamaliel, a doctor of the law, had in reputation among all the people, and commanded to put the apostles forth a little space;

35 And said unto them, Ye men of Israel, take heed to yourselves, what ye intend to do as touching these men.

36 For before these days rose up Theudas, boasting himself to be somebody, to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as <sup>a</sup> obeyed him, were scattered, and brought to nought.

37 After this man rose up Judas of Galilee, in the days of the taxing, and drew away much people after him: he also perished; and all, even as many as obeyed him, were dispersed.

38 And now I say unto you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone: <sup>a</sup> for if this counsel or this work be of men, it will come to nought:

39 But if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it; lest haply ye be found even <sup>b</sup> to fight against God.

40 And to him they agreed: and when they had <sup>c</sup> called the apostles, and beaten them, they commanded that they should not speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go.

41 ¶ And they departed from the presence of the council, <sup>d</sup> rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for his name.

42 And daily <sup>e</sup> in the temple, and in every house, they ceased not to teach and preach Jesus Christ.

CHAP. VI.

1 The apostles desirous to have the poor regarded for their bodily sustenance, as also careful themselves to dispense the word of God, the food of the soul, 3 appoint the office of deaconship to seven chosen men: 5 of whom, Stephen, a man full of faith, and of the Holy Ghost, is one: 12 who is taken of those whom he confounded in disputing, 13 and after falsely accused of blasphemy against the law and the temple.

AND in those days, when the number of the disciples was multiplied, there arose a murmuring of the <sup>a</sup> Grecians against the Hebrews, because their widows were neglected <sup>b</sup> in the daily ministrations.

2 Then the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and said, <sup>c</sup> It is not reason that we should leave the word of God, and serve tables.

3 Wherefore, brethren, <sup>d</sup> look ye out among you seven men of honest report, full of the Holy Ghost and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business.

4 But we <sup>e</sup> will give ourselves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the word.

5 ¶ And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose Stephen, <sup>f</sup> a man full of faith and of the Holy Ghost, and <sup>g</sup> Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and <sup>h</sup> Nicolas a proselyte of Antioch:

6 Whom they set before the apostles: and when they had prayed, <sup>i</sup> they laid their hands on them.

7 And <sup>k</sup> the word of God increased; and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jerusalem greatly; and a great company <sup>l</sup> of the priests were obedient to the faith.

8 And Stephen, full of faith and power, did great wonders and miracles among the people.

9 ¶ Then there arose certain of the synagogue, which is called the synagogue of the Libertines, and Cyrenians, and Alexandrians, and of them of Cilicia, and of Asia, disputing with Stephen.

10 And <sup>m</sup> they were not able to resist the wisdom and the spirit by which he spake.

11 Then they suborned men, which said,

<sup>6</sup> And the people with one accord gave heed unto those things which Philip spake, hearing, and seeing the miracles which he did.

<sup>7</sup> For <sup>g</sup> unclean spirits crying with loud voice, came out of many that were possessed with them: and many taken with palsies, and that were lame, were healed.

<sup>8</sup> And there was great joy in that city.

<sup>9</sup> But there was a certain man called Simon, which before-time, in the same city <sup>h</sup> used sorcery, and bewitched the people of Samaria, giving out that himself was some great one.

h ch. 13. 6.

<sup>10</sup> To whom they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great power of God.

<sup>11</sup> And to him they had regard, because that of long time he had bewitched them with sorceries.

<sup>12</sup> But when they believed Philip, preaching the things <sup>i</sup> concerning the kingdom of God, and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women.

<sup>13</sup> Then Simon himself believed also: and when he was baptized, he continued with Philip, and wondered, beholding the † miracles and signs which were done.

<sup>14</sup> Now when the apostles which were at Jerusalem, heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent unto them Peter and John:

<sup>15</sup> Who, when they were come down, prayed for them, <sup>k</sup> that they might receive the Holy Ghost.

<sup>18</sup> And when Simon saw that through laying on of the apostles hands, the Holy Ghost was given, he offered them money, <sup>19</sup> Saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay hands, he may receive the Holy Ghost.

<sup>24</sup> Then answered Simon, and said, <sup>s</sup> Pray ye to the Lord for me, that none of these things which ye have spoken come upon me.

<sup>25</sup> And they, when they had testified and preached the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and preached the gospel in many villages of the Samaritans.

<sup>26</sup> And the angel of the Lord spake unto Philip, saying, Arise, and go toward the south, unto the way that goeth down from Jerusalem unto Gaza, which is desert.

<sup>27</sup> And he arose and went: and behold, <sup>t</sup> a man of Ethiopia, an eunuch of great authority under Candace queen of the Ethiopians, who had the charge of all her treasure, and <sup>u</sup> had come to Jerusalem for to worship,

<sup>29</sup> Then the Spirit said unto Philip, Go near, and join thyself to this chariot.

32 The place of the scripture which he read, was this, * He was led as a sheep to the slaughter; and like a lamb dumb before his shearer, so opened he not his mouth:

33 In his humiliation his judgement was taken away: and who shall declare his generation? for his life is taken from the earth.

34 And the eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this? of himself, or of some other man?

35 Then Philip opened his mouth, and began at the same scripture, and preached unto him Jesus.

36 And as they went on their way, they came unto a certain water: and the eunuch said, See, here is water; <sup>y</sup> what doth hinder me to be baptized?

37 And Philip said, If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, <sup>z</sup> I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.

CHAP. IX.

1 Saul going towards Damascus, 4 is stricken down to the earth, 10 is called to the apostleship, 18 and is baptized by Ananias: 20 he preacheth Christ boldly: 23 the Jews lay wait to kill him; 29 so do the Grecians: but he escapeth both. 31 The church having rest, Peter healeth Eneas of the palsy, 36 and restoreth Tabitha to life.

AND <sup>a</sup> Saul yet breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the high priest,

2 And desired of him letters to Damascus to the synagogues, that if he found any † of this way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound unto Jerusalem.

3 And <sup>b</sup> as he journeyed he came near Damascus: and suddenly there shined round about him a light from heaven.

4 And he fell to the earth, and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, <sup>c</sup> why persecutest thou me?

5 And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest. <sup>d</sup> It is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

6 And he trembling and astonished, said, Lord, <sup>e</sup> what wilt thou have me to do? And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do.

7 And <sup>f</sup> the men which journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing a voice, but seeing no man.

8 And Saul arose from the earth; and when his eyes were opened, he saw no man: but they led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus.

9 And he was three days without sight, and neither did eat nor drink.

10 And there was a certain disciple at Damascus, <sup>g</sup> named Ananias; and to him said the Lord in a vision, Ananias. And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord.

11 And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the street which is called Straight, and enquire in the house of Judas, for one called Saul <sup>h</sup> of Tarsus: for behold, he prayeth, 12 And hath seen in a vision a man named Ananias coming in, and putting his hand on him, that he might receive his sight.

13 Then Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man, <sup>i</sup> how much evil he hath done to thy saints at Jerusalem.

14 And here he hath authority from the chief priests, to bind all <sup>k</sup> that call on thy name.

15 But the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for <sup>l</sup> he is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before <sup>m</sup> the Gentiles, and <sup>n</sup> kings, and the children of Israel:

16 For <sup>o</sup> I will shew him how great things he must suffer for my name's sake.

17 And <sup>p</sup> Ananias went his way, and entered into the house; and <sup>q</sup> putting his hands on him, said, Brother Saul, the Lord (even Jesus that appeared unto thee in the way as thou camest,) hath sent me, that thou mightest receive thy sight, and <sup>r</sup> be filled with the Holy Ghost.

18 And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had been scales: and he received sight forthwith, and arose, and was baptized.

19 And when he had received meat, he was strengthened. Then was Saul certain days with the disciples which were at Damascus.

Anno DOMINI 35. 20 And straightway he preached Christ in the synagogues, <sup>a</sup> that he is the Son of God.

<sup>a</sup> ch. 8. 37. 21 But all that heard him were amazed, and said, Is not this he that destroyed them which called on this name in Jerusalem, and came hither for that intent, that he might bring them bound unto the chief priests?

22 But Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Jews which dwelt at Damascus, proving that this is very Christ.

A. D. 37. 23 ¶ And after that many days were fulfilled, the Jews took counsel to kill him.

<sup>a</sup> 2 Cor. 11. 32. 24 <sup>a</sup> But their laying wait was known of Saul. And they watched the gates day and night to kill him.

25 Then the disciples took him by night, and <sup>u</sup> let him down by the wall in a basket.

<sup>15.</sup> <sup>1</sup> Sam. 19. 12. 26 And <sup>a</sup> when Saul was come to Jerusalem, he assayed to join himself to the disciples: but they were all afraid of him, and believed not that he was a disciple.

<sup>17.</sup> <sup>v</sup> ch. 4. 36. 27 But <sup>v</sup> Barnabas took him, and brought him to the apostles, and declared unto them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how he had preached boldly at Damascus in the name of Jesus.

29 And he spake boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus, and disputed against the <sup>a</sup> Grecians: but they went about to slay him.

30 Which when the brethren knew, they brought him down to Cesarea, and sent him forth to Tarsus.

31 Then had the churches rest throughout all Judea, and Galilee, and Samaria, and were edified; and walking in the fear of the Lord, and in the comfort of the Holy Ghost, were multiplied.

A. D. 48. <sup>b</sup> ch. 8. 14. 32 ¶ And it came to pass, as Peter passed throughout all quarters, he came down also to the saints which dwelt at Lydda.

33 And there he found a certain man named Eneas, which had kept his bed eight years, and was sick of the palsy.

34 And Peter said unto him, Eneas, Jesus Christ maketh thee whole: arise, and make thy bed. And he arose immediately.

<sup>c</sup> Chron. 5. 16. 35 And all that dwelt at Lydda, and <sup>c</sup> Saron, saw him, and turned to the Lord.

36 ¶ Now there was at Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, which by interpretation is called ¶ Dorcas: this woman was full <sup>a</sup> of good works, and alm-deeds which she did.

37 And it came to pass in those days, that she was sick, and died: whom when they had washed, they laid her in <sup>a</sup> an upper chamber.

38 And forasmuch as Lydda was nigh to Joppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent unto him two men, desiring him that he would not ¶ delay to come to them.

39 Then Peter arose, and went with them. When he was come, they brought him in to the upper chamber: and all the widows stood by him weeping, and shewing the coats and garments which Dorcas made while she was with them.

40 But Peter put them all forth, and <sup>f</sup> kneeled down and prayed; and turning <sup>f</sup> him to the body, said, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes: and when she saw Peter, she sat up.

41 And he gave her his hand, and lifted her up; and when he had called the saints and widows, he presented her alive.

42 And it was known throughout all Joppa; and many believed in the Lord.

43 And it came to pass, that he tarried many days in Joppa with one ¶ Simon a ¶ tanner.

22 And they said, Cornelius the centurion, a just man, and one that feareth God, and <sup>h</sup> of good report among all the nation of the Jews, was warned from God by an holy angel to send for thee into his house, and to hear words of thee.

29 Therefore came I unto you without gainsaying, as soon as I was sent for : I ask therefore for what intent ye have sent for me ?

30 And Cornelius said, Four days ago I was fasting until this hour ; and at the ninth hour I prayed in my house, and behold, <sup>m</sup> a man stood before me <sup>n</sup> in bright clothing,

CHAP. XI.

1 Peter being accused for going in to the Gentiles, <sup>5</sup> maketh his defence, <sup>18</sup> which is accepted. <sup>19</sup> The gospel being spread into Phenice, and Cyprus, and Antioch, Barnabas is sent to confirm them. <sup>26</sup> The disciples there are first called Christians: <sup>27</sup> they send relief to the brethren in Judea in time of famine.

AND the apostles and brethren that were in Judea, heard that the Gentiles had also received the word of God.

2 And when Peter was come up to Jerusalem, <sup>a</sup> they that were of the circumcision contended with him,

3 Saying, <sup>b</sup> Thou wentest in to men uncircumcised, <sup>c</sup> and didst eat with them.

4 But Peter rehearsed the matter from the beginning, and expounded it <sup>d</sup> by order unto them, saying,

5 <sup>e</sup> I was in the city of Joppa, praying: and in a trance I saw a vision, A certain vessel descend, as it had been a great sheet, let down from heaven by four corners; and it came even to me.

6 Upon the which when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, and saw four-footed beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.

7 And I heard a voice saying unto me, Arise, Peter; slay and eat.

8 But I said, Not so, Lord: for nothing common or unclean hath at any time entered into my mouth.

9 But the voice answered me again from heaven, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.

10 And this was done three times: and all were drawn up again into heaven.

11 And behold, immediately there were three men already come unto the house where I was, sent from Cesarea unto me.

12 And <sup>f</sup> the spirit bade me go with them, nothing doubting. Moreover, these six brethren accompanied me, and we entered into to the man's house:

13 And he shewed us how he had seen an angel in his house, which stood and said unto him, Send men to Joppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter;

14 Who shall tell thee words, whereby thou and all thy house shall be saved.

15 And as I began to speak the Holy Ghost fell on them, <sup>g</sup> as on us at the beginning.

16 Then remembered I the word of the Lord, how that he said, <sup>h</sup> John indeed baptized with water; but <sup>i</sup> ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost.

17 <sup>k</sup> Forasmuch then as God gave them the like gift as he did unto us, who believed on the Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>l</sup> what was I that I could withstand God?

18 When they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, Then hath God also to the Gentiles granted repentance unto life.

19 ¶ Now they which were scattered abroad upon the persecution that arose about Stephen, travelled as far as Phenice, and Cyprus, and Antioch, preaching the word to none but unto the Jews only.

20 And some of them were men of Cyprus and Cyrene, which when they were come to Antioch spake unto the Grecians, preaching the Lord Jesus.

21 And <sup>n</sup> the hand of the Lord was with them: and a great number believed, and turned unto the Lord.

22 ¶ Then tidings of these things came unto the ears of the church which was in Jerusalem: and they sent forth <sup>o</sup> Barnabas, that he should go as far as Antioch.

23 Who, when he came, and had seen the grace of God, was glad, and <sup>p</sup> exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they would cleave unto the Lord.

24 For he was a good man, and <sup>q</sup> full of the Holy Ghost, and of faith: and much people was added unto the Lord.

25 Then departed Barnabas to <sup>r</sup> Tarsus, for to seek Saul:

26 And when he had found him, he brought him unto Antioch. And it came to pass, that a whole year they assembled themselves with the church, and taught much people.

29 Then the disciples, every man according to his ability, determined to send relief unto the brethren which dwelt in Judea :

30 ¶ Which also they did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

CHAP. XII.

1 King Herod persecuteth the Christians, killeth James, and imprisoneth Peter, whom an angel delivereth upon the prayers of the church. 20 In his pride, taking to himself the honour due to God, he is stricken by an angel, and dieth miserably. 24 After his death the word of God prospereth.

8. Peter's Day, Epistle, ver. 1. to ver. 12. ¶ Or, began. a Matth. 4. 21. b Exod. 23. 15. c John 21. 18. NOW about that time, Herod the king stretched forth his hands to vex certain of the church.

2 And he killed James a the brother of John with the sword.

3 And because he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further, to take Peter also. (Then were b the days of unleavened bread.)

4 And c when he had apprehended him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four quaternions of soldiers to keep him ; intending after Easter to bring him forth to the people.

5 Peter therefore was kept in prison ; but prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him.

6 And when Herod would have brought him forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains ; and the keepers before the door kept the prison.

7 And behold, d the angel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shined in the prison : and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands.

8 And the angel said unto him, Gird thyself, and bind on thy sandals : and so he did. And he saith unto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me.

9 And he went out and followed him, and e wist not that it was true which was done by the angel ; but thought he saw a vision.

10 When they were past the first and the second ward, they came unto the iron gate that leadeth unto the city ; f which opened to them of his own accord : and they went out, and passed on through one street ; and forthwith the angel departed from him.

11 And when Peter was come to himself, he said, Now I know of a surety, that g the Lord hath sent his angel, and hath delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews.

12 And when he had considered the thing, h he came to the house of Mary the mother of i John, whose surname was Mark ; where many were gathered together, praying.

13 And as Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a damsel came j to hearken, named Rhoda.

14 And when she knew Peter's voice, she opened not the gate for gladness, but ran in, and told how Peter stood before the gate.

15 And they said unto her, Thou art mad. But she constantly affirmed that it was even so. Then said they, It is his angel.

16 But Peter continued knocking : and when they had opened the door, and saw him, they were astonished.

17 But he k beckening unto them with the hand to hold their peace, declared unto them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, Go shew these things unto James, and to the brethren. And he departed, and went into another place.

18 Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers, what was become of Peter.

19 And when Herod had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the keepers, and commanded that they should be put to death. And he went down from Judea to Cesarea, and there abode.

20 ¶ And Herod l was highly displeased with them of Tyre and Sidon : but they came with one accord to him, and having made Blastus m the king's chamberlain their friend, desired peace ; because n their country was nourished by the king's country.

21 And upon a set day, Herod arrayed in royal apparel, sat upon his throne, and made an oration unto them.

22 And the people gave a shout, saying, It is the voice of a god, and not of a man.

23 And immediately the angel of the Lord smote him, because he gave not God the glory : and he was eaten of worms, and gave up the ghost.

24 ¶ But o the word of God grew and multiplied.

I Paul and Barnabas are chosen to go to the Gentiles. 7 Of Sergius Paulus, and Elymas the forcerer. 14 Paul preacheth at Antioch, that Jesus is Christ. 42 The Gentiles believe; 45 but the Jews gainsay, and blaspheme: 46 whereupon they turn to the Gentiles. 48 As many as were ordained to life, believed.

31 And <sup>o</sup> he was seen many days of them which came up with him <sup>p</sup> from Galilee to Jerusalem, <sup>q</sup> who are his witnesses unto the people.

32 And we declare unto you glad tidings, how that the promise, which was made unto the fathers,

33 God hath fulfilled the same unto us their children, in that he hath raised up Jesus again; as it is also written in the second psalm, <sup>r</sup> Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee.

34 And as concerning that he raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he said on this wise, <sup>s</sup> I will give you the sure <sup>t</sup> mercies of David.

35 Wherefore he saith also in another psalm, <sup>u</sup> Thou shalt not suffer thine Holy One to see corruption:

36 For David, <sup>v</sup> after he had served his own generation by the will of God, <sup>w</sup> fell on sleep, and was laid unto his fathers, and saw corruption:

37 But he, whom God raised again, saw no corruption.

38 ¶ Be it known unto you therefore, men and brethren, that <sup>x</sup> through this man is preached unto you the forgiveness of sins:

39 And <sup>y</sup> by him, all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses.

40 Beware therefore, lest that come upon you which is spoken of in <sup>z</sup> the prophets,

41 Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and perish: for I work a work in your days, a work which ye shall in no wise believe, though a man declare it unto you.

42 And when the Jews were gone out of the synagogue, the Gentiles belought that these words might be preached to them † the next sabbath.

43 Now when the congregation was broken up, many of the Jews, and religious proselytes, followed Paul and Barnabas: who speaking to them, <sup>a</sup> persuaded them to continue in the grace of God.

44 ¶ And the next sabbath-day came almost the whole city together to hear the word of God.

45 But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy, and

<sup>b</sup> spake against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting and blaspheming.

46 Then Paul and Barnabas waxed bold, and said, <sup>c</sup> It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you: but <sup>d</sup> seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, <sup>e</sup> we turn to the Gentiles.

47 For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, <sup>f</sup> I have set thee to be a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldest be for salvation unto the ends of the earth.

48 And when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of the Lord: and as many as were ordained to eternal life, believed.

49 And the word of the Lord was published throughout all the region.

50 But the Jews stirred up the devout and honourable women, and the chief men of the city, and <sup>g</sup> raised persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them out of their coasts.

51 <sup>h</sup> But they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came unto Iconium.

52 And the disciples were filled with joy, and with the Holy Ghost.

CHAP. XIV.

1 Paul and Barnabas are persecuted from Iconium.

8 At Lystra Paul healeth a cripple; whereupon they are reputed as gods. 19 Paul is stoned.

21 They pass through divers churches, confirming the disciples in faith and patience: 26 returning to Antioch, they report what God had done with them.

AND it came to pass in Iconium, that they went both together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake, that a great multitude both of the Jews, and also of the Greeks, believed.

2 But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles, and made their minds evil-affected against the brethren.

3 Long time therefore abode they speaking boldly in the Lord, <sup>a</sup> which gave testimony unto the word of his grace, and granted signs and wonders to be done by their hands.

4 But the multitude of the city was divided: and part held with the Jews, and part with the <sup>b</sup> apostles.

5 And when there was an assault made both of the Gentiles, and also of the Jews, with their rulers, <sup>c</sup> to use them despitefully, and to stone them,

6 They were ware of it, and <sup>d</sup> fled unto Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and unto the region that lieth round about:

7 And there they preached the gospel.
8 ¶ And there sat a certain man at Lystra, impotent in his feet, being a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked:

9 The same heard Paul speak: who sted-fastly beholding him, and perceiving that he had faith to be healed,

10 Said with a loud voice, Stand upright on thy feet. And he leaped and walked.

11 And when the people saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voices, saying in the speech of Lycaonia, The gods are come down to us in the likeness of men.

12 And they called Barnabas, Jupiter; and Paul, Mercurius, because he was the chief speaker.

13 Then the priest of Jupiter, which was before their city, brought oxen and gar-lands unto the gates, and would have done sacrifice with the people.

14 Which when the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard of, they rent their clothes, and ran in among the people, crying out, 15 And saying, Sirs, why do ye these things? We also are men of like passions with you, and preach unto you, that ye should turn from these vanities unto the living God, which made heaven and earth, and the sea, and all things that are therein:

16 Who in times past suffered all nations to walk in their own ways.

17 Nevertheless, he left not himself without witness, in that he did good, and gave us rain from heaven, and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness.

18 And with these sayings scarce restrained they the people, that they had not done sacrifice unto them.

19 ¶ And there came thither certain Jews from Antioch, and Iconium, who persuaded the people, and having stoned Paul, drew him out of the city, supposing he had been dead.

20 Howbeit, as the disciples stood round about him, he rose up, and came into the city: and the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe.

21 And when they had preached the gospel to that city, and had taught many, they returned again to Lystra, and to Iconium and to Antioch,

22 Confirming the souls of the disciples, and exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that we must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God.

23 And when they had ordained them elders in every church, and had prayed, with fasting, they commended them to the Lord, on whom they believed.

24 And after they had passed throughout Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia.

25 And when they had preached the word in Perga, they went down into Attalia:

26 And thence sailed to Antioch, from whence they had been recommended to the grace of God, for the work which they fulfilled.

27 And when they were come and had gathered the church together, they rehearsed all that God had done with them, and how he had opened the door of faith unto the Gentiles.

28 And there they abode long time with the disciples.

CHAP. XV.

1 Great dissension ariseth touching circumcision.

6 The apostles consult about it: 22 and send their determination by letters to the churches. 36 Paul and Barnabas, thinking to visit the brethren together, fall at strife, and depart asunder.

AND certain men which came down from Judea, taught the brethren, and said, Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved.

2 When therefore Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and disputation with them, they determined that Paul and Barnabas, and certain other of them, should go up to Jerusalem unto the apostles and elders about this question.

3 And being brought on their way by the church, they passed through Phenice and Samaria, declaring the conversion of the Gentiles: and they caused great joy unto all the brethren.

4 And when they were come to Jerusalem, they were received of the church, and of the apostles and elders, and they declared all things that God had done with them.

5 But there rose up certain of the sect of the Pharisees which believed, saying, That it was needful to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Moses.

6 ¶ And the apostles and elders came together for to consider of this matter.

7 And when there had been much disputing, Peter rose up and said unto them, Men and brethren, ye know how that a good while ago, God made choice among us, that the Gentiles by my mouth should hear the word of the gospel, and believe.

8 And God, which knoweth the hearts, bare them witness, giving them the Holy Ghost, even as he did unto us:

9 And put no difference between us and them, purifying their hearts by faith.

Tit. 3. 4. 12 ¶ Then all the multitude kept silence, and gave audience to Barnabas and Paul, declaring what miracles and wonders God

James answered, saying, Men and bre-

14 Simeon hath declared how God at the first did visit the Gentiles, to take out of them a people for his name.

15 And to this agree the words of the prophets; as it is written, is fallen down; and I will build again the who doeth all these things.

from the beginning of the world.

q See 19 Wherefore <sup>q</sup> my sentence is, that we
ver. 28. trouble not them, which from among the Gentiles are turned to God:

2 Cor. 8. 1. they abstain <sup>r</sup> from pollutions of idols, and & 10. 20. <sup>s</sup> from fornication, and <sup>t</sup> from things strangled, and from blood.

s 1 Theff. 4. 3. 21 For Moses of old time hath in every city them that preach him, <sup>u</sup> being read in the synagogues every sabbath-day.

t Gen. 9. 4. 22 Then pleased it the apostles and elders, Lev. 3. 17. with the whole church, to send chosen men of their own company to Antioch, u ch. 13. with Paul and Barnabas; namely, Judas 15, 27. surnamed <sup>x</sup> Barsabas, and Silas, chief men among the brethren:

x ch. 1. 23. 23 And they wrote letters by them after this manner; The apostles, and elders, and brethren, send greeting unto the brethren which are of the Gentiles in Antioch, and Syria, and Cilicia:

24 Forasmuch as we have heard, that certain which went out from us, have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keep the law; to whom we gave no such commandment:

25 It seemed good unto us, being assembled with one accord, to send chosen men unto you, with our beloved Barnabas and Paul; 26 <sup>y</sup> Men that have hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

27 We have sent therefore Judas and Silas, who shall also tell you the same things by † mouth.

28 For it seemed good to the Holy Ghost, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things;

29 <sup>z</sup> That ye abstain from meats offered to idols, and <sup>a</sup> from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication: from which if ye keep yourselves, ye shall do well. Fare ye well.

30 So when they were dismissed, they came to Antioch: and when they had gathered the multitude together, they delivered the epistle:

31 Which when they had read, they rejoiced for the ¶ consolation.

32 And Judas and Silas, being prophets also themselves, exhorted the brethren with many words, and confirmed them.

33 And after they had tarried there a space, they were let <sup>b</sup> go in peace from the brethren unto the apostles.

34 Notwithstanding, it pleased Silas to abide there still.

35 Paul also and Barnabas continued in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.

36 ¶ And some days after, Paul said unto Barnabas, Let us go again and visit our brethren, in every city where we have preached the word of the Lord, and see how they do.

37 And Barnabas determined to take with them <sup>c</sup> John, whose surname was Mark.

38 But Paul thought not good to take him with them, <sup>d</sup> who departed from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the work.

39 And the contention was so sharp between them, that they departed asunder one from the other: and so Barnabas took Mark, and sailed unto Cyprus;

40 And Paul chose Silas, and departed, <sup>e</sup> being recommended by the brethren unto the grace of God.

41 And he went through Syria and Cilicia, <sup>f</sup> confirming the churches.

CHAP. XVI.

1 Paul having circumcised Timothy, 7 and being called by the Spirit from one country to another, 14 converteth Lydia, 16 casteth out a spirit of divination. 19 For which cause he and Silas are whipped and imprisoned. 26 The prison-doors are opened. 31 The jailor is converted, 37 and they are delivered.

THEN came he to <sup>a</sup> Derbe and Lystra: <sup>a</sup> ch. 14. 6.
and behold, a certain disciple was

Anno DOMINI 53. there, <sup>b</sup> named Timotheus, <sup>c</sup> the son of a certain woman, which was a Jewess, and believed; but his father was a Greek:

<sup>b</sup> Rom. 16. 2 Which <sup>d</sup> was well reported of by the brethren that were at Lystra and Iconium.
<sup>21.</sup> Phil. 1. 19. 3 Him would Paul have to go forth with him; and <sup>e</sup> took and circumcised him, because of the Jews which were in those quarters: for they knew all that his father was a Greek.

<sup>2.</sup> 2 Tim. 1. 4 And as they went through the cities, they delivered them the decrees for to keep, <sup>f</sup> that were ordained of the apostles and elders which were at Jerusalem.

<sup>29.</sup> 5 And <sup>g</sup> so were the churches established in the faith, and increased in number daily.

<sup>29.</sup> 6 Now when they had gone throughout Phrygia, and the region of Galatia, and were forbidden of the Holy Ghost to preach the word in Asia, <sup>29.</sup> 7 After they were come to Mysia, they assayed to go into Bithynia: but the Spirit suffered them not.

<sup>29.</sup> 9 And a vision appeared to Paul in the night; There stood a <sup>i</sup> man of Macedonia, and prayed him, saying, Come over into Macedonia, and help us.

<sup>29.</sup> 10 And after he had seen the vision, immediately we endeavoured to go <sup>k</sup> into Macedonia, assuredly gathering, that the Lord had called us for to preach the gospel unto them.

<sup>29.</sup> 11 Therefore loosing from Troas, we came with a straight course to Samothracia, and the next day to Neapolis;

<sup>29.</sup> 13 And on the <sup>m</sup> sabbath, we went out of the city by a river-side, where prayer was wont to be made; and we sat down, and spake unto the women which resorted thither.

<sup>29.</sup> 14 ¶ And a certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, which worshipped God, heard us: whose heart the Lord opened, that she attended unto the things which were spoken of Paul.

<sup>29.</sup> 15 And when she was baptized, and her household, she besought us, saying, If ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and abide there: And <sup>n</sup> she constrained us.

17 The same followed Paul, and us, and cried, saying, These men are the servants of the most high God, which shew unto us the way of salvation.

18 And this did she many days. But Paul <sup>r</sup> being grieved, turned and said to the spirit, I command thee in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. <sup>s</sup> And he came out the same hour.

19 ¶ And <sup>t</sup> when her masters saw that the hope of their gains was gone, <sup>u</sup> they caught Paul and Silas, and drew them into the <sup>v</sup> market-place unto the rulers,

20 And brought them to the magistrates, saying, These men, being Jews, <sup>w</sup> do exceedingly trouble our city,

21 And teach customs which are not lawful for us to receive, neither to observe, being Romans.

22 And the multitude rose up together against them: and the magistrates rent off their clothes, <sup>x</sup> and commanded to beat them.

23 And when they had laid many stripes upon them, they cast them into prison, charging the jailor to keep them safely.

24 Who having received such a charge, thrust them into the inner prison, and made their feet fast in the stocks.

25 ¶ And at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sang praises unto God: and the prisoners heard them.

26 ¶ And suddenly there was a great earthquake, <sup>y</sup> so that the foundations of the prison were shaken: and immediately <sup>z</sup> all the doors were opened, and every one's bands were loosed.

27 And the keeper of the prison awaking out of his sleep, and seeing the prison-doors open, he drew out his sword, and would have killed himself, supposing that the prisoners had been fled.

28 But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do thyself no harm: for we are all here.

29 Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas;

30 And brought them out, and said, <sup>aa</sup> Sirs, what must I do to be saved?

31 And they said, <sup>ab</sup> Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.

32 And they spake unto him the word of the Lord, and to all that were in his house.

33 And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes; and was baptized, he and all his, straightway.

34 And when he had brought them into his house, <sup>ac</sup> he set meat before them, and rejoiced, believing in God with all his house.

37 But Paul said unto them, They have beaten us openly uncondemned, being Romans, and have cast us into prison; and now do they thrust us out privily? nay verily; but let them come themselves and fetch us out.

38 And the serjeants told these words unto the magistrates: and they feared when they heard that they were Romans.

39 And they came and besought them, and brought them out, and desired them to depart out of the city.

40 And they went out of the prison, and entered into the house of Lydia: and when they had seen the brethren, they comforted them, and departed.

CHAP. XVII.

1 Paul preacheth at Thessalonica: 4 where some believe, and others persecute him: 10 he is sent to Berea, and preacheth there: 13 being persecuted at Thessalonica, 15 he cometh to Athens, and disputeth and preacheth the living God to them unknown, 34 whereby many are converted unto Christ.

NOW when they had passed through Amphipolis, and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a synagogue of the Jews:

2 And Paul, as his manner was, went in unto them, and three sabbath-days reasoned with them out of the scriptures,

3 Opening and alledging, that Christ must needs have suffered, and risen again from the dead; and that this Jesus, whom I preach unto you, is Christ.

4 And some of them believed, and comforted with Paul and Silas; and of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and of the chief women not a few.

5 But the Jews which believed not, moved with envy, took unto them certain lewd fellows of the baser sort, and gathered a company, and set all the city on an uproar, and assaulted the house of Jason, and sought to bring them out to the people.

6 And when they found them not, they drew Jason, and certain brethren, unto the rulers of the city, crying, These that have turned the world upside down, are come hither also;

7 Whom Jason hath received: and these all do contrary to the decrees of Cesar, saying, That there is another king, one Jesus.

8 And they troubled the people, and the rulers of the city, when they heard these things.

9 And when they had taken security of Jason, and of the other, they let them go.

10 And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Berea: who coming thither, went into the synagogue of the Jews.

11 These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so.

12 Therefore many of them believed; also of honourable women which were Greeks, and of men not a few.

13 But when the Jews of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was preached of Paul at Berea, they came thither also, and stirred up the people.

14 And then immediately the brethren sent away Paul, to go as it were to the sea: but Silas and Timotheus abode there still.

15 And they that conducted Paul, brought him unto Athens: and receiving a commandment unto Silas and Timotheus, for to come to him with all speed, they departed.

16 Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the city wholly given to idolatry.

17 Therefore disputed he in the synagogue with the Jews, and with the devout persons, and in the market daily with them that met with him.

18 Then certain philosophers of the Epicureans, and of the Stoicks, encountered him. And some said, What will this babler say? other some, He seemeth to be a setter-forth of strange gods: because he preached unto them Jesus, and the resurrection.

19 And they took him, and brought him unto Areopagus, saying, May we know what this new doctrine, whereof thou speakest, is?

20 For thou bringest certain strange things to our ears: we would know therefore what these things mean.

21 (For all the Athenians and strangers which were there, spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell, or to hear some new thing.)

22 Then Paul stood in the midst of Mars-hill, and said, Ye men of Athens, I perceive that in all things ye are too superstitious.

23 For as I passed by, and beheld your devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him declare I unto you.

24 <sup>1</sup> God that made the world, and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, <sup>m</sup> dwelleth not in temples made with hands;

25 Neither is worshipped with men's hands, <sup>n</sup> as though he needed any thing, seeing <sup>o</sup> he giveth to all life, and breath, and all things;

26 And hath made of one blood all nations of men, for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath determined the times before appointed, and <sup>p</sup> the bounds of their habitation;

27 <sup>1</sup> That they should seek the Lord, if haply they might feel after him, and find him, <sup>r</sup> though he be not far from every one of us :

28 For <sup>s</sup> in him we live, and move, and have our being; <sup>t</sup> as certain also of your own poets have said, For we are also his offspring.

29 Forasmuch then as we are the offspring of God, <sup>u</sup> we ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone graven by art and man's device.

30 And <sup>v</sup> the times of this ignorance God winked at; but <sup>w</sup> now commandeth all men every where to repent :

31 Because he hath appointed a day in the which <sup>x</sup> he will judge the world in righteousness, by <sup>y</sup> that man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath <sup>z</sup> given assurance unto all men, in that <sup>a</sup> he hath raised him from the dead.

32 <sup>1</sup> And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked : and others said, We will hear thee again of this matter.

33 So Paul departed from among them.

34 Howbeit, certain men clave unto him, and believed: among the which was Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

CHAP. XVIII.

3 Paul laboureth with his hands, and preacheth at Corinth to the Gentiles : 9 the Lord encourageth him in a vision : 12 he is accused before Gallio the deputy, but is dismissed : 18 afterwards passing from city to city, he strengthened the disciples. 24 Apollos being more perfectly instructed by Aquila and Priscilla, 21 preacheth Christ with great efficacy.

AFTER these things, Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinth;

2 And found a certain Jew named <sup>a</sup> Aquila, born in Pontus, lately come from Italy, with his wife Priscilla; (because that Claudius had commanded all Jews to depart from Rome;) and came unto them.

3 And because he was of the same craft, he abode with them, <sup>b</sup> and wrought: (for by their occupation they were tent-makers.)

4 And he reasoned in the synagogue every sabbath, and persuaded the Jews, and the Greeks.

5 And <sup>c</sup> when Silas and Timotheus were come from Macedonia, Paul was pressed in spirit, and testified to the Jews, that Jesus <sup>d</sup> was Christ.

6 And <sup>e</sup> when they opposed themselves, and blasphemed, <sup>f</sup> he shook his raiment, and said unto them, <sup>g</sup> Your blood be upon your own heads; <sup>h</sup> I am clean: <sup>i</sup> from henceforth I will go unto the Gentiles.

7 <sup>1</sup> And he departed thence, and entered into a certain man's house, named Justus, one that worshipped God, whose house joined hard to the synagogue.

8 <sup>1</sup> And Crispus the chief ruler of the synagogue believed on the Lord with all his house: and many of the Corinthians hearing, believed, and were baptized.

9 Then <sup>k</sup> spake the Lord to Paul in the night by a vision, Be not afraid, but speak, and hold not thy peace:

10 For I am with thee, and no man shall set on thee, to hurt thee: for I have much people in this city.

11 And he <sup>l</sup> continued there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

12 <sup>1</sup> And when Gallio was the deputy of Achaia, the Jews made insurrection with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the judgement-seat, 13 Saying, This fellow persuadeth men to worship God contrary to the law.

14 And when Paul was now about to open his mouth, Gallio said unto the Jews, <sup>1</sup> If it were a matter of wrong, or wicked lewdness, O ye Jews, reason would that I should bear with you:

15 But if it be a question of words and names, and of your law, look ye to it; for I will be no judge of such matters.

16 And he drave them from the judgement-seat.

17 Then all the Greeks took <sup>m</sup> Sosthenes, <sup>n</sup> the chief ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgement-seat. And Gallio cared for none of those things.

18 <sup>1</sup> And Paul after this tarried there yet a good while, and then took his leave of the brethren, and sailed thence into Syria, and with him Priscilla and Aquila; having <sup>o</sup> shorn his head in <sup>p</sup> Cenchrea: for he had a vow.

19 And he came to Ephesus, and left them there: but he himself entered into the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews.

Anno DOMINI 55. 20 When they desired him to tarry longer time with them, he consented not:

21 But bade them farewell, saying, I must by all means keep this feast that cometh in Jerusalem: but I will return again unto you, if God will. And he sailed from Ephesus.

22 And when he had landed at Cesarea, and gone up and saluted the church, he went down to Antioch.

23 And after he had spent some time there, he departed, and went over all the country of Galatia and Phrygia in order, strengthening all the disciples.

24 ¶ And a certain Jew named Apollos, born at Alexandria, an eloquent man, and mighty in the scriptures, came to Ephesus.

25 This man was instructed in the way of the Lord; and being fervent in the spirit, he spake and taught diligently the things of the Lord, knowing only the baptism of John.

26 And he began to speak boldly in the synagogue: whom when Aquila and Priscilla had heard, they took him unto them, and expounded unto him the way of God more perfectly.

27 And when he was disposed to pass into Achaia, the brethren wrote, exhorting the disciples to receive him: who, when he was come, helped them much which had believed through grace:

28 For he mightily convinced the Jews, and that publickly, shewing by the scriptures, that Jesus was Christ.

CHAP. XIX.

6 The Holy Ghost is given by Paul's hands: 9 the Jews blaspheme his doctrine, which is confirmed by miracles. 13 The Jewish exorcists, 16 are beaten by the devil. 19 Conjuring books are burnt. 24 Demetrius for love of gain, raiseth an uproar against Paul, 35 which is appeased by the town-clerk.

AND it came to pass that, while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul having passed through the upper coasts, came to Ephesus: and finding certain disciples,

2 He said unto them, Have ye received the Holy Ghost since ye believed? And they said unto him, We have not so much as heard whether there be any Holy Ghost.

3 And he said unto them, Unto what then were ye baptized? And they said, Unto John's baptism.

4 Then said Paul, John verily baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people, That they should believe on him which should come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus.

5 When they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.

6 And when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Ghost came on them; and they spake with tongues, and prophesied.

7 And all the men were about twelve.

8 And he went into the synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three months, disputing and persuading the things concerning the kingdom of God.

9 But when divers were hardened, and believed not, but spake evil of that way before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, disputing daily in the school of one Tyrannus.

10 And this continued by the space of two years; so that all they which dwelt in Asia, heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks.

11 And God wrought special miracles by the hands of Paul:

12 So that from his body were brought unto the sick, handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out of them.

13 ¶ Then certain of the vagabond Jews, exorcists, took upon them to call over them which had evil spirits, the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, We adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preacheth.

14 And there were seven sons of one Sceva a Jew, and chief of the priests, which did so.

15 And the evil spirit answered and said, Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are ye?

16 And the man in whom the evil spirit was, leaped on them, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.

17 And this was known to all the Jews and Greeks also dwelling at Ephesus; and fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified.

18 And many that believed came, and confessed, and shewed their deeds.

19 Many also of them which used curious arts, brought their books together, and burned them before all men: and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver.

20 So mightily grew the word of God, and prevailed.

21 ¶ After these things were ended, Paul purposed in the spirit, when he had passed through Macedonia, and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, After I have been there, I must also see Rome.

22 So he sent into Macedonia two of them that ministered unto him, Timo-theus and <sup>7</sup> Erastus; but he himself stayed in Asia for a season.

23 And <sup>2</sup> the same time there arose no small stir about <sup>2</sup> that way.

24 For a certain man named Demetrius, a silver-smith, which made silver shrines for Diana, brought <sup>b</sup> no small gain unto the craftsmen;

25 Whom he called together with the workmen of like occupation, and said, Sirs, ye know that by this craft we have our wealth:

26 Moreover, ye see and hear, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul hath persuaded and turned away much people, saying, that <sup>c</sup> they be no gods which are made with hands:

27 So that not only this our craft is in danger to be set at nought; but also that the temple of the great goddess Diana should be despised, and her magnificence should be destroyed, whom all Asia and the world worshippeth.

28 And when they heard these sayings, they were full of wrath, and cried out, saying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

29 And the whole city was filled with confusion: and having caught <sup>d</sup> Gaius and <sup>e</sup> Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Paul's companions in travel, they rushed with one accord into the theatre.

30 And when Paul would have entered in unto the people, the disciples suffered him not.

31 And certain of the chief of Asia, which were his friends, sent unto him, desiring him that he would not adventure himself into the theatre.

32 Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused, and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together.

33 And they drew Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And Alexander <sup>f</sup> beckened with the hand, and would have made his defence unto the people.

34 But when they knew that he was a Jew, all with one voice about the space of two hours cried out, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

35 And when the town-clerk had appeased the people, he said, Ye men of Ephesus, what man is there that knoweth not how that the city of the Ephesians is † a worshipper of the great goddess Diana, and of the image which fell down from Jupiter?

36 Seeing then that these things cannot be spoken against, ye ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rashly.

37 For ye have brought hither these men, which are neither robbers of churches, nor yet blasphemers of your goddesses.

38 Wherefore if Demetrius, and the craftsmen which are with him, have a matter against any man, || the law is open, and there are deputies: let them implead one another.

39 But if ye enquire any thing concerning other matters, it shall be determined in a || lawful assembly.

40 For we are in danger to be called in question for this day's uproar, there being no cause whereby we may give an account of this concourse.

41 And when he had thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly.

CHAP. XX.

1 Paul goeth to Macedonia: <sup>7</sup> he celebrateth the Lord's supper, and preacheth. 9 Eutychus having fallen down dead, <sup>10</sup> is raised to life. 17 At Miletus he calleth the elders together, telleth them what shall befall to himself, 28 committeth God's flock to them, 29 warneth them of false teachers, 32 commendeth them to God, 36 prayeth with them, and goeth his way.

AND after the uproar was ceased, Paul called unto him the disciples, and embraced them, and <sup>a</sup> departed for to go into Macedonia.

2 And when he had gone over those parts, and had given them much exhortation, he came into Greece,

3 And there abode three months: and when the Jews laid wait for him, as he was about to sail into Syria, he purposed to return through Macedonia.

4 And there accompanied him into Asia, Sopater of Berea; and of the Thessalonians, <sup>b</sup> Aristarchus and Secundus; and Gaius of Derbe, and Timotheus; and of Asia, <sup>c</sup> Tychicus and <sup>d</sup> Trophimus.

5 These going before, tarried for us at Troas.

6 And we sailed away from Philippi, after the days of unleavened bread, and came unto them <sup>e</sup> to Troas in five days; where we abode seven days.

7 And upon <sup>f</sup> the first day of the week, when the disciples came together <sup>g</sup> to break bread, Paul preached unto them, (ready to depart on the morrow;) and continued his speech until midnight.

8 And there were many lights <sup>h</sup> in the upper chamber where they were gathered together.

9 And there sat in a window a certain young man named Eutychus, being fallen into a deep sleep: and as Paul was long

10 And Paul went down, and <sup>i</sup> fell on him, and embracing him, said, <sup>k</sup> Trouble not yourselves; for his life is in him.

11 When he therefore was come up again, and had broken bread, and eaten, and talked a long while, even till break of day, so he departed.

12 And they brought the young man alive, and were not a little comforted.

13 ¶ And we went before to ship, and sailed unto Assos, there intending to take in Paul: for so had he appointed, minding himself to go afoot.

14 And when he met with us at Assos, we took him in, and came to Mitylene.

15 And we sailed thence, and came the next day over against Chios; and the next day we arrived at Samos, and tarried at Trogyllium; and the next day we came to Miletus.

16 For Paul had determined to sail by Ephesus, because he would not spend the time in Asia: for <sup>h</sup> he hasted, if it were possible for him, <sup>m</sup> to be at Jerusalem the day of Pentecost.

17 ¶ And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called the elders of the church.

18 And when they were come to him, he said unto them, Ye know, <sup>a</sup> from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I have been with you at all seasons,

19 Serving the Lord with all humility of mind, and with many tears, and temptations which beset me, by the lying in wait of the Jews:

20 And how <sup>o</sup> I kept back nothing that was profitable unto you, but have shewed you, and have taught you publicly, and from house to house,

21 Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, <sup>p</sup> repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ.

22 And now behold, <sup>q</sup> I go bound in the spirit unto Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall beset me there:

23 Save that <sup>r</sup> the Holy Ghost witnesseth in every city, saying, that bonds and afflictions <sup>s</sup> abide me.

24 But <sup>t</sup> none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, <sup>u</sup> so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry, <sup>v</sup> which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God.

25 And now behold, <sup>w</sup> I know that ye all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of God, shall see my face no more.

26 Wherefore I take you to record this day, that I am <sup>z</sup> pure from the blood of all men.

27 For <sup>a</sup> I have not shunned to declare unto you all <sup>b</sup> the counsel of God.

28 ¶ Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost <sup>d</sup> hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, <sup>e</sup> which he hath purchased <sup>f</sup> with his own blood.

29 For I know this, that after my departing <sup>g</sup> shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock.

30 Also <sup>h</sup> of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them.

31 Therefore watch, and remember, that <sup>i</sup> by the space of three years, I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears.

32 And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and <sup>k</sup> to the word of his grace, which is able <sup>l</sup> to build you up, and to give you <sup>m</sup> an inheritance among all them which are sanctified.

33 <sup>n</sup> I have coveted no man's silver, or gold, or apparel.

34 Yea, ye yourselves know, <sup>o</sup> that these hands have ministered unto my necessities, and to them that were with me.

35 I have shewed you all things, <sup>p</sup> how that so labouring ye ought to support the weak; and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive.

36 ¶ And when he had thus spoken, he <sup>q</sup> kneeled down, and prayed with them all.

37 And they all wept sore, and fell on Paul's neck, and kissed him,

38 Sorrowing most of all for the words <sup>r</sup> which he spake, that they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him unto the ship.

33 Then the chief captain came near and took him, and <sup>2</sup>commanded him to be bound with two chains; and demanded who he was, and what he had done.

34 And some cried one thing, some another, among the multitude : and when he could not know the certainty for the tumult, he commanded him to be carried into the castle.

35 And when he came upon the stairs, so it was that he was borne of the foldiers, for the violence of the people.

36 For the multitude of the people followed after, crying, <sup>a</sup> Away with him.

39 But Paul said, <sup>c</sup> I am a man which am a Jew of Tarsus, a city of Cilicia, a citizen of no mean city : and, I beseech thee, suffer me to speak unto the people.

CHAP. XXII.

1 Paul declareth at large how he was converted to the faith, 17 and called to his apostleship. 22 At the very mentioning of the Gentiles, the people exclaim on him : 24 he would have been scourged ; 25 but claiming the privilege of a Roman, he escapeth.

2 (And when they heard that he spake in the Hebrew tongue to them, they kept the more silence : and he saith,)

3 <sup>b</sup> I am verily a man which am a Jew, born in Tarsus a city of Cilicia, yet brought up in this city <sup>c</sup> at the feet of <sup>d</sup> Gamaliel, and taught according to the perfect manner of the law of the fathers, and <sup>e</sup> was zealous towards God, <sup>f</sup> as ye all are this day.

4 <sup>g</sup> And I persecuted <sup>h</sup> this way unto the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women.

5 As also the high priest doth bear me witness, and <sup>i</sup> all the estate of the elders : from whom also I received letters unto the brethren, and went to Damascus, to bring them which were there, bound unto Jerusalem, for to be punished.

6 And <sup>k</sup> it came to pass, that as I made my journey, and was come nigh unto Damascus about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light round about me.

7 And I fell unto the ground, and heard a voice saying unto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me ?

8 And I answered, Who art thou, Lord ? And he said unto me, I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom thou persecutest.

9 And <sup>l</sup> they that were with me, saw indeed the light, and were afraid ; but they heard not the voice of him that spake to me.

10 And I said, What shall I do, Lord ? And the Lord said unto me, Arise, and go into Damascus ; and there it shall be told thee of all things which are appointed for thee to do.

11 And when I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of them that were with me, I came into Damascus.

12 And <sup>m</sup> one Ananias, a devout man according to the law, <sup>n</sup> having a good report of all the <sup>o</sup> Jews which dwelt there,

13 Came unto me, and stood, and said unto me, Brother Saul, receive thy sight. And the same hour I looked up upon him.

16 And now why tarriest thou ? arise, and be baptized, <sup>t</sup> and wash away thy sins, <sup>u</sup> calling on the name of the Lord.

17 And <sup>v</sup> it came to pass, that when I was come again to Jerusalem, even while I prayed in the temple, I was in a trance ;

18 And saw him saying unto me, <sup>w</sup> Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Jerusalem : for they will not receive thy testimony concerning me.

19 And I said, Lord, <sup>x</sup> they know that I imprisoned, and <sup>y</sup> beat in every synagogue them that believed on thee :

23 And as they cried out, and cast off their clothes, and threw dust into the air,

24 The chief captain commanded him to be brought into the castle, and bade that he should be examined by scourging; that he might know wherefore they cried so against him.

25 And as they bound him with thongs, Paul said unto the centurion that stood by, Is it lawful for you to scourge a man that is a Roman, and uncondemned?

26 When the centurion heard that, he went and told the chief captain, saying, Take heed what thou doest: for this man is a Roman.

27 Then the chief captain came, and said unto him, Tell me, art thou a Roman? He said, Yea.

28 And the chief captain answered, With a great sum obtained I this freedom. And Paul said, But I was free-born.

29 Then straightway they departed from him which should have examined him: and the chief captain also was afraid, after he knew that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him.

30 On the morrow, because he would have known the certainty wherefore he was accused of the Jews, he loosed him from his bands, and commanded the chief priests and all their council to appear, and brought Paul down, and set him before them.

CHAP. XXIII.

As Paul pleadeth his cause, 2 Ananias commandeth them to smite him: 7 dissension among his accusers: 11 God encourageth him. 14 The Jews laying wait for Paul, 20 is declared unto the chief captain: 27 he sendeth him to Felix the governor.

AND Paul earnestly beholding the council, said, Men, and brethren, I have lived in all good conscience before God, until this day.

2 And the high priest Ananias commanded them that stood by him, to smite him on the mouth.

3 Then said Paul unto him, God shall smite thee, thou whited wall: for sittest thou to judge me after the law, and commandest me to be smitten contrary to the law?

4 And they that stood by said, Revilest thou God's high priest?

5 Then said Paul, I wist not, brethren, that he was the high priest: For it is written, Thou shalt not speak evil of the ruler of thy people.

6 But when Paul perceived that the one part were Sadducees, and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, Men and brethren, I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee: of the hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question.

7 And when he had so said, there arose a dissension between the Pharisees and the Sadducees: and the multitude was divided.

8 For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit; but the Pharisees confess both.

9 And there arose a great cry: and the scribes that were of the Pharisees part arose, and strove, saying, We find no evil in this man: but if a spirit or an angel hath spoken to him, let us not fight against God.

10 And when there arose a great dissension, the chief captain, fearing lest Paul should have been pulled in pieces of them, commanded the soldiers to go down, and to take him by force from among them, and to bring him into the castle.

11 And the night following, the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good cheer, Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Jerusalem, so must thou bear witness also at Rome.

12 And when it was day, certain of the Jews banded together, and bound themselves under a curse, saying, that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul.

13 And they were more than forty which had made this conspiracy.

14 And they came to the chief priests and elders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will eat nothing until we have slain Paul.

15 Now therefore, ye, with the council, signify to the chief captain, that he bring him down unto you to-morrow, as though ye would enquire something more perfectly concerning him: and we, or ever he come near, are ready to kill him.

16 And when Paul's sister's son heard of their lying in wait, he went and entered into the castle, and told Paul.

17 Then Paul called one of the centurions unto him, and said, Bring this young man unto the chief captain: for he hath a certain thing to tell him.

18 So he took him, and brought him to the chief captain, and said, Paul the prisoner called me unto him, and prayed me to bring this young man unto thee, who hath something to say unto thee.

19 Then the chief captain took him by the hand, and went with him aside privately, and asked him, What is that thou hast to tell me?

20 And he said, ° The Jews have agreed to desire thee, that thou wouldest bring down Paul to-morrow into the council, as though they would enquire somewhat of him more perfectly.

21 But do not thou yield unto them: for there lie in wait for him of them more than forty men, which have bound themselves with an oath that they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed him: and now are they ready, looking for a promise from thee.

22 So the chief captain then let the young man depart, and charged him, See thou tell no man, that thou hast shewed these things to me.

23 And he called unto him two centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred soldiers to go to Cefarea, and horsemen three-score and ten, and spearmen two hundred, at the third hour of the night;

24 And provide them beasts, that they may set Paul on, and bring him safe unto Felix the governor.

25 And he wrote a letter after this manner:

26 Claudius Lyfias, unto the most excellent governor Felix, sendeth greeting.

27 ¶ This man was taken of the Jews, and should have been killed of them: then came I with an army, and rescued him, having understood that he was a Roman.

28 And when I would have known the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth into their council:

29 Whom I perceived to be accused of questions of their law, but to have nothing laid to his charge worthy of death or of bonds.

30 And when it was told me, how that the Jews laid wait for the man, I sent straightway to thee, and gave commandment to his accusers also, to say before thee what they had against him. Farewel.

31 Then the soldiers, as it was commanded them, took Paul and brought him by night to Antipatris.

32 On the morrow they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to the castle.

33 Who when they came to Cefarea, and delivered the epistle to the governor, presented Paul also before him.

34 And when the governor had read the letter, he asked of what province he was. And when he understood that he was of Cilicia;

35 I will hear thee, said he, when thine accusers are also come. And he commanded him to be kept in Herod's judgement-hall.

1 Paul being accused by Tertullus the orator, 10 answereth for his life and doctrine: 24 he preacheth Christ to the governor and his wife. 26 The governor hopeth for a bribe, but in vain. 27 At last going out of his office, he leaveth Paul in prison.

AND after <sup>a</sup> five days, <sup>b</sup> Ananias the high priest descended with the elders, and with a certain orator named Tertullus, who informed the governor against Paul.

2 And when he was called forth, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that by thee we enjoy great quietness, and that very worthy deeds are done unto this nation by thy providence,

3 We accept it always, and in all places, most noble Felix, with all thankfulness.

4 Notwithstanding, that I be not further tedious unto thee, I pray thee, that thou wouldest hear us of thy clemency a few words.

5 For we have found this man a pestilent fellow, and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ring-leader of the sect of the Nazarenes:

6 ° Who also hath gone about to profane the temple: whom we took, and would have judged according to our law.

7 But the chief captain Lyfias came upon us, and with great violence took him away out of our hands,

8 Commanding his accusers to come unto thee: by examining of whom, thyself mayest take knowledge of all these things, whereof we accuse him.

9 And the Jews also assented, saying, that these things were so.

10 Then Paul, after that the governor had beckened unto him to speak, answered, Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been of many years a judge unto this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer for myself:

11 Because that thou mayest understand, that there are yet but twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem for to worship.

12 <sup>a</sup> And they neither found me in the temple disputing with any man, neither <sup>b</sup> raising up the people, neither in the synagogues, nor in the city:

13 Neither can they prove the things whereof they now accuse me.

14 But this I confess unto thee, that after <sup>c</sup> the way which they call heresy, so worship I the God of my fathers; believing all things which are written in <sup>d</sup> the law and in the prophets:

15 And have hope towards God, which they themselves also allow, <sup>e</sup> that there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust.

16 And herein do I exercise myself to have always a conscience void of offence toward God, and toward men.

17 Now after many years, I came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings.

18 Whereupon certain Jews from Asia found me purified in the temple, neither with multitude, nor with tumult.

19 Who ought to have been here before thee, and object, if they had ought against me.

20 Or else let these same here say, if they have found any evil-doing in me, while I stood before the council,

21 Except it be for this one voice, that I cried standing among them, Touching the resurrection of the dead, I am called in question by you this day.

22 And when Felix heard these things, having more perfect knowledge of that way, he deferred them, and said, When Lysias the chief captain shall come down, I will know the uttermost of your matter.

23 And he commanded a centurion to keep Paul, and to let him have liberty, and that he should forbid none of his acquaintance to minister, or come unto him.

24 And after certain days, when Felix came with his wife Drusilla, which was a Jewess, he sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ.

25 And as he reasoned of righteousness, temperance, and judgement to come, Felix trembled, and answered, Go thy way for this time; when I have a convenient season, I will call for thee.

26 He hoped also that money should have been given him of Paul, that he might loose him: wherefore he sent for him the oftener, and communed with him.

27 But after two years, Porcius Festus came into Felix' room: and Felix, willing to shew the Jews a pleasure, left Paul bound.

CHAP. XXV.

2 The Jews accuse Paul before Festus: 8 he answereth for himself, 11 and appealeth unto Cesar. 14 Afterwards Festus openeth his matter to king Agrippa, 23 and he is brought forth. 25 Festus cleareth him to have done nothing worthy of death.

NOW when Festus was come into the province, after three days he ascended from Cesarea to Jerusalem.

2 Then the high priest, and the chief of the Jews, informed him against Paul, and besought him,

3 And desired favour against him, that he would send for him to Jerusalem, laying wait in the way to kill him.

4 But Festus answered, that Paul should be kept at Cesarea, and that he himself would depart shortly thither.

5 Let them therefore, said he, which among you are able, go down with me, and accuse this man, if there be any wickedness in him.

6 And when he had tarried among them more than ten days, he went down unto Cesarea; and the next day sitting on the judgement-seat, commanded Paul to be brought.

7 And when he was come, the Jews which came down from Jerusalem, stood round about, and laid many and grievous complaints against Paul, which they could not prove;

8 While he answered for himself, Neither against the law of the Jews, neither against the temple, nor yet against Cesar, have I offended any thing at all.

9 But Festus, willing to do the Jews a pleasure, answered Paul, and said, Wilt thou go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these things before me?

10 Then said Paul, I stand at Cesar's judgement-seat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou very well knowest:

11 For if I be an offender, or have committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof these accuse me, no man may deliver me unto them. I appeal unto Cesar.

12 Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, Hast thou appealed unto Cesar? unto Cesar shalt thou go.

13 And after certain days, king Agrippa and Bernice came unto Cesarea to salute Festus.

14 And when they had been there many days, Festus declared Paul's cause unto the king, saying, There is a certain man left in bonds by Felix:

15 About whom, when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me, desiring to have judgement against him.

16 To whom I answered, It is not the manner of the Romans to deliver any man to die, before that he which is accused, have the accusers face to face, and have licence to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him.

17 Therefore, when they were come hither, without any delay on the morrow I

26 Of whom I have no certain thing to write unto my lord. Wherefore I have brought him forth before you, and specially before thee, O king Agrippa, that after examination had, I might have somewhat to write.

2 Paul in the presence of Agrippa, declareth his life from his childhood, 12 and how miraculously he was converted, and called to his apostleship.

24 Festus chargeth him to be mad, whereunto he answereth modestly. 28 Agrippa is almost persuaded to be a Christian. 31 The whole company pronounce him innocent.

THEN Agrippa said unto Paul, Thou art permitted to speak for thyself. Then Paul stretched forth the hand, and answered for himself :

before thee, touching all the things whereof I am accused of the Jews :

20 But <sup>2</sup>shewed first unto them of Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Judea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, and do <sup>2</sup>works meet for repentance.

21 For these causes <sup>2</sup>the Jews caught me in the temple, and went about to kill me.

22 Having therefore obtained help of God, I continue unto this day, witnessing both to small and great, saying none other things than those <sup>2</sup>which the prophets and Moses did say should come:

23 That Christ should suffer, and <sup>2</sup>that he should be the first that should rise from the dead, and <sup>2</sup>should shew light unto the people, and to the Gentiles.

26 For the king knoweth of these things, before whom also I speak freely. For I am persuaded that none of these things are hidden from him; for this thing was not done in a corner.

27 King Agrippa, believest thou the prophets? I know that thou believest.

28 Then Agrippa said unto Paul, Almost thou persuadest me to be a Christian.

29 And Paul said, <sup>2</sup>I would to God, that not only thou, but also all that hear me this day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bonds.

31 And when they were gone aside, they talked between themselves, saying, <sup>2</sup>This man doeth nothing worthy of death, or of bonds.

AND when <sup>2</sup>it was determined that we should sail into Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners, unto one named Julius, a centurion of Augustus' band.

2 And entering into a ship of Adramyttium, we launched, meaning to sail by the coasts of Asia, one <sup>2</sup>Aristarchus a Macedonian of Thessalonica being with us.

3 And the next day we touched at Sidon. And Julius <sup>2</sup>courteously entreated Paul, and gave him liberty to go unto his friends to refresh himself.

4 And when we had launched from thence, we sailed under Cyprus, because the winds were contrary.

5 And when we had sailed over the sea of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Mira, a city of Lycia.

6 And there the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing unto Italy; and he put us therein.

7 And when we had sailed slowly many days, and scarce were come over against Cnidus, the wind not suffering us, we sailed under <sup>2</sup>Crete, over against Salmone:

8 And hardly passing it, came unto a place which is called, The fair havens; nigh whereunto was the city of Lasea.

9 Now when much time was spent, and when sailing was now dangerous, <sup>2</sup>because the fast was now already past, Paul admonished them,

10 And said unto them, Sirs, I perceive that this voyage will be with <sup>2</sup>hurt and much damage, not only of the lading and ship, but also of our lives.

11 Nevertheless, the centurion believed the master and the owner of the ship, more than those things which were spoken by Paul.

12 And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the more part advised to depart thence also, if by any means they might attain to Phenice, and there winter; which is an haven of Crete, and lieth toward the south-west, and north-west.

13 And when the south-wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, loosing thence, they sailed close by Crete.

14 But not long after, there <sup>2</sup>arose against it a tempestuous wind, called Euroclydon.

15 And when the ship was caught, and could not bear up into the wind, we let her drive.

16 And running under a certain island which is called Claudia, we had much work to come by the boat:

- 18 And we being exceedingly tossed with a tempest, the next day they lightened the ship;
- Jonah 7. 5. 19 And the third day<sup>e</sup> we cast out with our own hands the tackling of the ship.
- 20 And when neither sun nor stars in many days appeared, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be saved was then taken away.
- 21 But after long abstinence, Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Sirs, ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have loosed from Crete, and have gained this harm and loss.
- 22 And now I exhort you to be of good cheer: for there shall be no loss of any man's life among you, but of the ship.
- 23 For there stood by me this night the angel of God, whose I am, and whom I serve,
- 24 Saying, Fear not, Paul; thou must be brought before Cæsar: and lo, God hath given thee all them that sail with thee.
- 25 Wherefore, sirs, be of good cheer: for I believe God, that it shall be even as it was told me.
- f ch. 28. 1. 26 Howbeit, <sup>f</sup> we must be cast upon a certain island.
- 27 But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven up and down in Adria, about midnight the shipmen deemed that they drew near to some country;
- 28 And sounded, and found it twenty fathoms: and when they had gone a little further, they sounded again, and found it fifteen fathoms.
- 29 Then fearing lest they should have fallen upon rocks, they cast four anchors out of the stern, and wished for the day.
- 30 And as the shipmen were about to flee out of the ship, when they had let down the boat into the sea, under colour as though they would have cast anchors out of the fore-ship,
- 31 Paul said to the centurion, and to the soldiers, Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved.
- 32 Then the soldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off.
- 33 And while the day was coming on, Paul besought them all to take meat, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that ye have tarried and continued fasting, having taken nothing.
- 34 Wherefore I pray you to take some meat: for this is for your health: for<sup>e</sup>
- <sup>e</sup> there shall not an hair fall from the head of any of you.
- 35 And when he had thus spoken, he took bread, and <sup>h</sup> gave thanks to God in presence of them all; and when he had broken it, he began to eat.
- 36 Then were they all of good cheer, and they also took some meat.
- 37 And we were in all in the ship, two hundred threescore and sixteen souls.
- 38 And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, and cast out the wheat into the sea.
- 39 And when it was day, they knew not the land: but they discovered a certain creek with a shore, into the which they were minded, if it were possible, to thrust in the ship.
- 40 And when they had <sup>h</sup> taken up the anchors, they committed themselves unto the sea, and loosed the rudder-bands, and hoised up the main-sail to the wind, and made toward shore.
- 41 And falling into a place where two seas met, <sup>i</sup> they ran the ship aground; and the fore-part stuck fast, and remained unmoveable, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waves.
- 42 And the soldiers counsel was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and escape.
- 43 But the centurion, willing to save Paul, kept them from their purpose, and commanded that they which could swim, should cast themselves first into the sea, and get to land:
- 44 And the rest some on boards, and some on broken pieces of the ship. And so it came to pass, that they escaped all safe to land.

CHAP. XXVIII.

1 Paul after his shipwreck is kindly entertained of the barbarians: 5 the viper on his hand hurteth him not: 8 he healeth many diseases in the island: 11 they depart towards Rome: 17 he declareth to the Jews the cause of his coming: 24 after his preaching some were persuaded, and some believed not: 30 yet he preacheth there two years.

AND when they were escaped, then they knew that <sup>a</sup> the island was called <sup>a</sup> ch. 27. 26. Melita.

2 And the barbarous people shewed us no little kindness: for they kindled a fire, and received us every one, because of the present rain, and because of the cold.

3 And when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heat, and fastened on his hand.

4 And when the barbarians saw the venomous beast hang on his hand, they said among themselves, No doubt, this man is a murderer, whom though he hath escaped the sea, yet vengeance suffereth not to live.

5 And he shook off the beast into the fire, and <sup>b</sup> felt no harm.

6 Howbeit, they looked when he should have swollen, or fallen down dead suddenly: but after they had looked a great while, and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds, and <sup>c</sup> said that he was a god.

7 In the same quarters were possessions of the chief man of the island, whose name was Publius; who received us, and lodged us three days courteously.

24, 25.

8 And it came to pass, that the father of Publius lay sick of a fever, and of a bloody flux: to whom Paul entered in, and <sup>d</sup> prayed, and laid his hands on him, and healed him.

9 So when this was done, others also which had diseases in the island, came, and were healed:

11 And after three months we departed in a ship of Alexandria, which had wintered in the isle, whose sign was Castor and Pollux.

12 And landing at Syracuse, we tarried <sup>g</sup> there three days.

13 And from thence we fetched a compass, and came to Rhegium: and after one day the south-wind blew, and we came the next day to Puteoli:

14 Where we found brethren, and were desired to tarry with them seven days: and so we went toward Rome.

15 And from thence, when the brethren heard of us, they came to meet us as far as Appii-forum, and the Three taverns: whom when Paul saw, he thanked God, and took courage.

16 And when we came to Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard: but <sup>h</sup> Paul was suffered to dwell by himself, with a soldier that kept him.

17 And it came to pass, that after three days, Paul called the chief of the Jews together: and when they were come together, he said unto them, Men and brethren, though I have committed nothing against the people, or customs of our fathers, yet <sup>i</sup> was I delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans.

The Epistle of PAUL the Apostle to the ROMANS.

CHAP. I.

1 Paul commendeth his calling to the Romans, 9 and his desire to come to them. 16 What his gospel is, and the righteousness which it sheweth.
18 God is angry with all manner of sin. 21
What were the sins of the Gentiles.

PAUL a servant of Jesus Christ called to be an apostle, <sup>a</sup> separated unto the gospel of God,

2 (<sup>b</sup> Which he had promised afore <sup>c</sup> by his prophets in the holy scriptures,)

3 Concerning his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, <sup>d</sup> which was <sup>e</sup> made of the seed of David according to the flesh,

4 And <sup>f</sup> declared to be the Son of God with power; according <sup>g</sup> to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead :

5 By whom <sup>h</sup> we have received grace and apostleship <sup>h</sup> for <sup>i</sup> obedience to the faith among all nations for his name :

6 Among whom are ye also the called of Jesus Christ.

7 To all that be in Rome, beloved of God, <sup>k</sup> called to be saints: <sup>l</sup> Grace to you, and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

8 First, <sup>m</sup> I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, that <sup>n</sup> your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world.

9 For <sup>o</sup> God is my witness, <sup>p</sup> whom I serve <sup>h</sup> with my spirit in the gospel of his Son, that <sup>q</sup> without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers,

10 <sup>r</sup> Making request (if by any means now at length I might have a prosperous journey <sup>s</sup> by the will of God,) to come unto you.

11 For I long to see you, that <sup>t</sup> I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be established ;

12 That is, that I may be comforted together <sup>u</sup> with you, by <sup>v</sup> the mutual faith both of you and me.

13 Now I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that oftentimes I purposed to come unto you, (but <sup>x</sup> was let hitherto,) that I might have some fruit <sup>h</sup> among you also, even as among other Gentiles.

14 <sup>y</sup> I am debtor both to the Greeks, and to the Barbarians, both to the wise, and to the unwise.

15 So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you that are at Rome also.

16 For <sup>z</sup> I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for <sup>a</sup> it is the power of God unto salvation, to every one that believeth ;

<sup>b</sup> to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

17 For <sup>c</sup> therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith : as <sup>d</sup> is written, <sup>d</sup> The just shall live by faith.

18 <sup>e</sup> For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness, and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness ;

19 Because <sup>f</sup> that which may be known of God, is manifest <sup>h</sup> in them; for <sup>g</sup> God hath shewed <sup>h</sup> it unto them.

20 For <sup>h</sup> the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, <sup>i</sup> even his eternal power and Godhead ; <sup>h</sup> so that they are without excuse :

21 Because that when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful, but <sup>i</sup> became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.

22 Professing themselves to be wise they became fools :

23 And changed the glory of the incorruptible <sup>k</sup> God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and four-footed beasts, and creeping things.

24 <sup>l</sup> Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness, through the lusts of their own hearts, <sup>m</sup> to dishonour their own bodies <sup>n</sup> between themselves :

25 Who changed the truth of God <sup>o</sup> into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature <sup>h</sup> more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen.

26 For this cause God gave them up unto <sup>p</sup> vile affections. For even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature :

27 And likewise also the men leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another ; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet.

28 <sup>q</sup> And even as they did not like <sup>h</sup> to retain God in <sup>i</sup> their knowledge, God gave them over to <sup>h</sup> a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient ;

29 Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness ; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity ; whisperers,

30 Backbiters, haters of God, despiteful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things,
disobedient to parents,

31 Without understanding, covenant-breakers, <sup>h</sup> without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful :

13 (For <sup>a</sup> not the hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified.)

14 For when the Gentiles, which have not the law, do by nature the things contained in the law, these having not the law, are a law unto themselves:

15 Which shew the work of the law

written in their hearts, || their conscience also bearing witness, and their thoughts || the mean while accusing or else excusing one another;)

16 ° In the day when God shall judge the secrets of men <sup>p</sup> by Jesus Christ, <sup>q</sup> according to my gospel.

17 Behold, thou art called a Jew, and <sup>r</sup> retest in the law, <sup>s</sup> and makest thy boast of God,

18 And knowest his will, and <sup>t</sup> approv-est the things that are more excellent, being instructed out of the law;

19 And art confident that thou thyself art a guide of the blind, a light of them which are in darkness,

20 An instructor of the foolish, a teacher of babes, <sup>u</sup> which hast the form of knowledge and of the truth in the law.

21 * Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thyself? thou that preachest a man should not steal, dost thou steal?

22 Thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idols, dost thou commit sacrilege?

23 Thou that <sup>v</sup> makest thy boast of the law, through breaking the law, dishonour-est thou God?

24 For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles, through you, as it is <sup>w</sup> written.

25 For circumcision verily profiteth, if thou keep the law: but if thou be a breaker of the law, thy circumcision is made uncircumcision.

26 Therefore, if the uncircumcision keep the righteousness of the law, shall not his uncircumcision be counted for circumcision?

27 And shall not uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfil the law, judge thee, who by the letter and circumcision dost transgress the law?

28 For <sup>x</sup> he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh:

29 But he is a Jew, <sup>y</sup> which is one inwardly; and <sup>z</sup> circumcision is that of the heart, <sup>d</sup> in the spirit, and not in the letter; <sup>e</sup> whose praise is not of men, but of God.

WHAT advantage then hath the Jew? or what profit is there of circumcision?

<sup>5</sup> But if our unrighteousness commend the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous who taketh vengeance? (I speak as a man,)

<sup>7</sup> For if the truth of God hath more abounded through my lie unto his glory; why yet am I also judged as a sinner?

<sup>8</sup> And not rather (as we be slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say,) Let us do evil, that good may come? whose damnation is just.

<sup>9</sup> What then? are we better than they? No, in no wise: for we have before † proved both Jews and Gentiles, that <sup>h</sup> they are all under sin;

<sup>11</sup> There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God.

<sup>12</sup> They are all gone out of the way, they are altogether become unprofitable; there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

nessed by the law <sup>v</sup> and the prophets;

<sup>22</sup> Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all, and upon all them that believe: for <sup>w</sup> there is no difference:

<sup>23</sup> For <sup>x</sup> all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God;

<sup>29</sup> Is he the God of the Jews only? is he not also of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also:

<sup>31</sup> Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the law.

CHAP. IV.

<sup>1</sup> Abraham's faith was imputed to him for righteousness, 10 before he was circumcised. 13 By faith only he and his seed received the promise. 16 Abraham is the father of all that believe. 24 Our faith also shall be imputed to us for righteousness.

WHAT shall we then say, that <sup>a</sup> Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found?

<sup>2</sup> For if Abraham were <sup>b</sup> justified by works, he hath whereof to glory, but not before God.

<sup>4</sup> Now <sup>d</sup> to him that worketh, is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.

<sup>5</sup> But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.

<sup>6</sup> Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works,

<sup>8</sup> Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin.

9 Cometh this blessedness then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness.

10 How was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.

11 And <sup>f</sup> he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had yet being uncircumcised: that <sup>s</sup> he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised; that righteousness might be imputed unto them also;

13 For the promise that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith.

14 For <sup>i</sup> if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect:

CHAP. V.

1 Being justified by faith, we have peace with God, 2 and joy in our hope; 8 that since we were reconciled by his blood, when we were enemies, 10 we shall much more be saved being reconciled. 12 As sin and death came by Adam, 17 so much more righteousness and life by Jesus Christ. 20 Where sin abounded, grace did superabound.

man, Jesus Christ, hath abounded <sup>a</sup> unto many.

16 And not as it was by one that sinned, so is the gift: for the judgement was by one to condemnation, but the free gift is of many offences unto justification.

17 For if || by one man's offence, death reigned by one; much more they which receive abundance of grace, and of the gift of righteousness, shall reign in life by one, Jesus Christ.

18 Therefore, as || by the offence of one judgement came upon all men to condemnation; even so || by the righteousness of one, the free gift came <sup>a</sup> upon all men unto justification of life.

19 For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous.

20 Moreover, <sup>a</sup> the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much <sup>a</sup> more abound:

21 That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life, by Jesus Christ our Lord.

CHAP. VI.

1 We may not live in sin, 2 for we are dead unto it, 3 as appeareth by our baptism. 12 Let not sin reign any more, 18 because we have yielded ourselves to the service of righteousness, 23 and for that death is the wages of sin.

WHAT shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?

2 God forbid: How shall we, that are <sup>a</sup> dead to sin, live any longer therein?

3 Know ye not, that <sup>b</sup> so many of us as || were baptized into Jesus Christ, were baptized into his death?

4 Therefore we are <sup>c</sup> buried with him by baptism into death: that <sup>d</sup> like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, <sup>e</sup> even so we also should walk in newness of life.

5 For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection:

6 Knowing this, that <sup>f</sup> our old man is crucified with him, that <sup>g</sup> the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin.

7 For <sup>h</sup> he that is dead is † freed from sin.

8 Now <sup>i</sup> if we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him:

9 Knowing that <sup>k</sup> Christ being raised from the dead, dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over him.

10 For in that he died, <sup>l</sup> he died unto sin

once: but in that he liveth, <sup>m</sup> he liveth unto God.

11 Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but <sup>n</sup> alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord.

12 <sup>o</sup> Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof.

13 Neither yield ye your <sup>p</sup> members as † instruments of unrighteousness unto sin: but <sup>q</sup> yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God.

14 For <sup>r</sup> sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace.

15 What then? shall we sin, <sup>s</sup> because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid.

16 Know ye not, that <sup>t</sup> to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness?

17 But God be thanked, that ye were the servants of sin; but ye have obeyed from the heart <sup>u</sup> that form of doctrine † which was delivered you.

18 Being then <sup>x</sup> made free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousness.

19 I speak after the manner of men, because of the infirmity of your flesh: for as ye have yielded your members servants to uncleanness and to iniquity, unto iniquity; even so now yield your members servants to righteousness, unto holiness.

20 For when ye were the servants of sin, ye were free † from righteousness.

21 <sup>y</sup> What fruit had ye then in those things whereof ye are now ashamed? for the end of those things is death.

22 But now being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life.

23 For <sup>z</sup> the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

4 Wherefore, my brethren, ye also are become <sup>c</sup> dead to the law by the body of Christ; that ye should be married to another, even to him who is raised from the dead, that we should <sup>d</sup> bring forth fruit unto God.

5 For when we were in the flesh, the † motions of sins which were by the law, <sup>e</sup> did work in our members <sup>f</sup> to bring forth fruit unto death:

6 But now we are delivered from the law, || that being dead wherein we were held; that we should serve <sup>g</sup> in newness of spirit, and not in the oldness of the letter.

7 What shall we say then? Is the law sin? God forbid. Nay, <sup>h</sup> I had not known sin, but by the law: for I had not known <sup>i</sup> lust, except the law had said, <sup>j</sup> Thou shalt not covet.

8 But <sup>k</sup> sin taking occasion by the commandment, wrought in me all manner of concupiscence. For <sup>l</sup> without the law sin was dead.

9 For I was alive without the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died.

10 And the commandment <sup>m</sup> which was ordained to life, I found to be unto death.

11 For sin taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it slew me.

12 Wherefore <sup>n</sup> the law is holy; and the commandment holy, and just, and good.

13 Was then that which is good, made death unto me? God forbid. But sin, that it might appear sin, working death in me by that which is good; that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful.

14 For we know that the law is spiritual: but I am carnal, <sup>o</sup> sold under sin.

15 For that which I do, I † allow not: for <sup>p</sup> what I would, that do I not; but what I hate that do I.

16 If then I do that which I would not, I consent unto the law that it is good.

17 Now then it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

18 For I know, that <sup>q</sup> in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good, I find not.

19 For the good that I would, I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do.

20 Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

21 I find then a law, that when I would do good, evil is present with me.

22 For I delight in the law of God, after <sup>r</sup> the inward man:

23 But <sup>s</sup> I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin, which is in my members.

24 O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from || the body of this death?

25 I thank God, through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then, with the mind I myself serve the law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin.

CHAP. VIII.

1 They that are in Christ, and live according to the Spirit, are free from condemnation. 5, 13 What harm cometh of the flesh, 6, 14 and what good of the Spirit, 17 and what of being God's children: 19 whose glorious deliverance all things long for. 29 It was before hand decreed from God. 38 What can sever us from his love?

THERE is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who <sup>a</sup> walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

2 For <sup>b</sup> the law of <sup>c</sup> the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus, hath made me free from the law of sin and death.

3 For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and || for sin condemned sin in the flesh:

4 That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

5 For <sup>d</sup> they that are after the flesh, do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit, <sup>e</sup> the things of the Spirit.

6 For † to be carnally minded, is death; but † to be spiritually minded, is life and peace:

7 Because † the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, <sup>g</sup> neither indeed can be.

8 So then they that are in the flesh, cannot please God.

9 But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that <sup>h</sup> the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not <sup>i</sup> the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his.

10 And if Christ be in you, the body is dead, because of sin; but the Spirit is life, because of righteousness.

up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, <sup>1</sup> he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies, || by his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

12 Therefore, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh.

13 For <sup>m</sup> if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit <sup>n</sup> do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live.

14 For <sup>o</sup> as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.

15 For <sup>p</sup> ye have not received the spirit of bondage again <sup>q</sup> to fear; but ye have received the <sup>r</sup> Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, <sup>s</sup> Abba, Father.

16 <sup>t</sup> The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God:

17 And if children, then heirs; <sup>u</sup> heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; <sup>v</sup> if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together.

18 For I reckon, that <sup>w</sup> the sufferings of this present time, are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us.

19 For <sup>x</sup> the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the <sup>y</sup> manifestation of the sons of God.

20 For the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same in hope:

21 Because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption, into the glorious liberty of the children of God.

22 For we know that <sup>z</sup> the whole creation <sup>b</sup> groaneth, and travaileth in pain together until now:

23 And not only they, but ourselves also, which have <sup>c</sup> the first-fruits of the Spirit, <sup>d</sup> even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting <sup>e</sup> for the adoption, to wit, the <sup>f</sup> redemption of our body.

24 For we are saved by hope: But <sup>g</sup> hope that is seen, is not hope: for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for?

25 But if we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience wait for it.

26 Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for <sup>h</sup> we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but <sup>i</sup> the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered.

27 And <sup>k</sup> he that searcheth the hearts, knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, || because he maketh intercession for the saints, <sup>l</sup> according to the will of God.

28 And we know that all things work together for good, to them that love God, to them <sup>m</sup> who are the called according to his purpose.

29 For whom <sup>n</sup> he did foreknow, <sup>o</sup> he also did predestinate <sup>p</sup> to be conformed to the image of his Son, <sup>q</sup> that he might be the first-born among many brethren.

30 Moreover, whom he did predestinate, them he also called: and whom he called, them he also justified: and whom he justified, them he also <sup>r</sup> glorified.

31 What shall we then say to these things? <sup>s</sup> If God be for us, who can be against us?

32 <sup>t</sup> He that spared not his own Son, but <sup>u</sup> delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?

33 Who shall lay any thing to the charge of God's elect? <sup>v</sup> it is God that justifieth:

34 <sup>w</sup> Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea, rather that is risen again, <sup>x</sup> who is even at the right hand of God, <sup>y</sup> who also maketh intercession for us.

35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

36 As it is written, <sup>z</sup> For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter.

37 <sup>a</sup> Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors, through him that loved us.

38 For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor <sup>b</sup> principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,

39 Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

CHAP. IX.

1 Paul is sorry for the Jews. 7 All the seed of Abraham were not the children of the promise.

18 God hath mercy upon whom he will. 21 The potter may do with his clay what he list. 25 The calling of the Gentiles, and rejecting of the Jews were foretold. 32 The cause why so few Jews embraced the righteousness of faith.

I <sup>a</sup> Say the truth in Christ, I lie not, my conscience also bearing me witness in the Holy Ghost,

2 <sup>b</sup> That I have great heaviness and continual sorrow in my heart.

3 For <sup>c</sup> I could wish that myself were <sup>d</sup> accursed from Christ, for my brethren, my kinsmen according to the flesh:

4 <sup>e</sup> Who are Israelites; <sup>f</sup> to whom pertaineth

the adoption, and <sup>f</sup> the glory, and the <sup>l</sup> covenants, and <sup>s</sup> the giving of the law, and the service of God, and <sup>b</sup> the promises;

5 Whose are the fathers, and <sup>i</sup> of whom as concerning the flesh, Christ came, <sup>k</sup> who is over all, God blessed for ever. Amen.

6 <sup>i</sup> Not as though the word of God hath taken none effect. For <sup>m</sup> they are not all Israel, which are of Israel:

7 <sup>n</sup> Neither because they are the seed of Abraham, are they all children: but, In <sup>o</sup> Isaac shall thy seed be called.

8 That is, They which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God: but <sup>p</sup> the children of the promise are counted for the seed.

9 For this <sup>is</sup> the word of promise, <sup>q</sup> At this time will I come, and Sarah shall have a son.

10 And not only <sup>this</sup>; but when <sup>r</sup> Rebecca also had conceived by one, <sup>even</sup> by our father Isaac;

11 (For <sup>the</sup> children being not yet born, neither having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God, according to election might stand, not of works, but of <sup>s</sup> him that calleth;)

12 It was said unto her, The <sup>t</sup> elder shall serve the <sup>u</sup> younger.

13 As it is written, <sup>v</sup> Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated.

14 What shall we say then? <sup>x</sup> Is there unrighteousness with God? God forbid.

15 For he saith to Moses, <sup>y</sup> I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion.

16 So then <sup>it</sup> is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that sheweth mercy.

17 For <sup>z</sup> the scripture saith unto Pharaoh, <sup>a</sup> Even for this same purpose have I raised thee up, that I might shew my power in thee, and that my name might be declared throughout all the earth.

18 Therefore hath he mercy on whom he will have mercy, and whom he will, he hardeneth.

19 Thou wilt say then unto me, Why doth he yet find fault? For who hath resisted his will?

20 Nay but, O man, who art thou that <sup>b</sup> repliest against God? <sup>b</sup> shall the thing formed say unto him that formed <sup>it</sup>, Why hast thou made me thus?

21 Hath not the <sup>c</sup> potter power over the clay of the same lump to make <sup>d</sup> one vessel unto honour, and another unto dishonour?

22 What if God, willing to shew his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much long-suffering <sup>e</sup> the vessels of wrath <sup>f</sup> fitted to destruction:

23 And that he might make known <sup>g</sup> the riches of his glory on the vessels of mercy, which he had afore prepared unto glory?

24 Even us whom he hath called, not of the Jews only, but also of the Gentiles.

25 As he saith also in Osee, <sup>h</sup> I will call them My people, which were not my people; and her, Beloved, which was not beloved.

26 <sup>i</sup> And it shall come to pass, <sup>that</sup> in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people; there shall they be called,
The children of the living God.

27 Esaias also crieth concerning Israel, <sup>k</sup> Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, <sup>l</sup> a remnant shall be saved.

28 For he will finish <sup>l</sup> the work, and cut <sup>it</sup> short in righteousness: because a short work will the Lord make upon the earth.

29 And as Esaias said before, <sup>m</sup> Except the Lord of sabaoth had left us a seed, <sup>n</sup> we had been as Sodoma, and been made like unto Gomorrha.

30 What shall we say then? That the Gentiles which followed not after righteousness, have attained to righteousness, <sup>o</sup> even the righteousness which is of faith.

31 But Israel, <sup>p</sup> which followed after the law of righteousness, <sup>q</sup> hath not attained to the law of righteousness.

32 Wherefore? Because <sup>they</sup> sought it, not by faith, but as it were by the works of the law. For <sup>r</sup> they stumbled at that stumbling-stone;

33 As it is written, <sup>s</sup> Behold, I lay in Sion a stumbling-stone, and rock of offence: and <sup>t</sup> whosoever believeth on him shall not be <sup>u</sup> ashamed.

CHAP. X.

5 The scripture sheweth the difference betwixt the righteousness of the law, and this of faith:

11 and that all, both Jew and Gentile, that believe, shall not be confounded; 18 and that the Gentiles shall receive the word, and believe.

19 Israel was not ignorant of these things.

Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved.

2 For I bear them record <sup>a</sup> that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge.

3 For they being ignorant of <sup>b</sup> God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own <sup>c</sup> righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God.

4 For <sup>d</sup> Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth.

Anno DOMINI 60. 5 For Moses describeth the righteousness which is of the law, <sup>c</sup> That the man which doeth those things shall live by them.

6 But the righteousness which is of faith, speaketh on this wise, <sup>f</sup> Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring Christ down from above:)

7 Or, Who shall descend into the deep? (that is to bring up Christ again from the dead.)

8 But what faith it? <sup>e</sup> The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach;

9 That <sup>b</sup> if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart, that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

10 For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

11 For the scripture saith, <sup>i</sup> Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

12 For <sup>k</sup> there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for <sup>l</sup> the same Lord over all <sup>m</sup> is rich unto all that call upon him.

13 <sup>n</sup> For whosoever shall call <sup>a</sup> upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.

14 How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear <sup>p</sup> without a preacher?

15 And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, <sup>q</sup> How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

16 But <sup>r</sup> they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Esaias saith, <sup>s</sup> Lord, who hath believed <sup>t</sup> our <sup>u</sup> report?

17 So then, faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

18 But I say, Have they not heard? Yes verily, <sup>v</sup> their sound went into all the earth, <sup>w</sup> and their words unto the ends of the world.

19 But I say, Did not Israel know? First, Moses saith, <sup>x</sup> I will provoke you to jealousy by them that are no people, and by a foolish nation I will anger you.

20 But Esaias is very bold, and saith, <sup>y</sup> I was found of them that sought me not; I was made manifest unto them that asked not after me.

21 But to Israel he saith, <sup>z</sup> All day long I have stretched forth my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people.

CHAP. XI.

1 God hath not cast off all Israel. 7 Some were elected, though the rest were hardened. 16 There is hope of their conversion. 18 The Gentiles may not insult upon them: 26 For there is a promise of their salvation. 33 God's judgements are unsearchable.

I Say then, <sup>a</sup> Hath God cast away his people? God forbid. For <sup>b</sup> I also am an Israelite of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

2 God hath not cast away his people which <sup>c</sup> he foreknew. Wot ye not what the scripture saith <sup>d</sup> of Elias? how he maketh intercession to God against Israel, saying,

3 <sup>e</sup> Lord, they have killed thy prophets, and digged down thine altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life.

4 But what faith the answer of God unto him? <sup>f</sup> I have reserved to myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to the image of Baal.

5 <sup>g</sup> Even so then at this present time <sup>h</sup> also there is a remnant according to the election of grace.

6 And <sup>i</sup> if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work.

7 What then? <sup>j</sup> Israel hath not obtained that which he seeketh for; but the election hath obtained it, and the rest were <sup>k</sup> blinded;

8 According as it is written, <sup>l</sup> God hath given them the spirit of <sup>m</sup> slumber, <sup>n</sup> eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear, unto this day.

9 And David saith, <sup>o</sup> Let their table be made a snare, and a trap, and a stumbling-block, and a recompence unto them.

10 <sup>p</sup> Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see, and bow down their back alway.

11 I say then, Have they stumbled that they should fall? God forbid: but rather <sup>q</sup> through their fall salvation is come unto the Gentiles, for to provoke them to jealousy.

12 Now if the fall of them be the riches of the world, and the <sup>r</sup> diminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles; how much more their fulness?

13 For I speak to you, Gentiles, inasmuch as <sup>s</sup> I am the apostle of the Gentiles, I magnify mine office:

14 If by any means I may provoke to emulation them which are my flesh, and <sup>t</sup> might save some of them.

15 For if the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, but life from the dead?

16 For if the first-fruit be holy, the lump is also holy: and if the root be holy, so are the branches.

17 And if <sup>a</sup> some of the branches be broken off, and thou being a wild olive-tree, wert grafted in || amongst them, and with them partake of the root and fatness of the olive-tree;

18 <sup>a</sup> Boast not against the branches. But if thou boast, thou bearest not the root, but the root thee.

19 Thou wilt say then, The branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in.

20 Well; because of unbelief they were broken off, and thou standest by faith. Be not high-minded, but <sup>a</sup> fear:

21 For if God spared not the natural branches, take heed lest he also spare not thee.

22 Behold therefore the goodness, and severity of God: on them which fell, severity; but towards thee, goodness; <sup>a</sup> if thou continue in <sup>his</sup> goodness: otherwise <sup>a</sup> thou also shalt be cut off.

23 And they also, if they abide not still in unbelief, shall be grafted in: for God is able <sup>a</sup> to graft them in again.

24 For if thou wert cut out of the olive-tree which is wild by nature, and wert grafted contrary to nature into a good olive-tree; how much more shall these which be the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive-tree?

25 For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, (lest ye should be wise in your own conceits;) that || blindness in part is happened to Israel <sup>a</sup> until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in.

26 And so all Israel shall be saved: as it is written, <sup>a</sup> There shall come out of Sion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob.

27 For this <sup>a</sup> is my covenant unto them, when I shall take away their sins.

28 As concerning the gospel, <sup>a</sup> they are enemies for your sakes: but as touching the election, <sup>a</sup> they are beloved for the fathers sakes.

29 For the gifts and calling of God are <sup>a</sup> without repentance.

30 For as ye in times past have not || believed God, yet have now obtained mercy through their unbelief;

31 Even so have these also now not || believed, that through your mercy they also may obtain mercy.

32 For <sup>b</sup> God hath || concluded them all in unbelief, that he might have mercy upon all.

33 O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! <sup>a</sup> how un-searchable are his judgements, and <sup>a</sup> his ways past finding out!

34 <sup>a</sup> For who hath known the mind of the Lord? or <sup>a</sup> who hath been his counsellor?

35 Or <sup>a</sup> who hath first given to him, and it shall be recompensed unto him again?

36 For <sup>b</sup> of him, and through him, and to him are all things: to <sup>a</sup> whom be glory for ever. Amen.

CHAP. XII.

1 <sup>a</sup> God's mercies must move us to please God. 3 No man must think too well of himself, 6 but attend every one on that calling wherein he is placed. 9 Love, and many other duties, are required of us. 19 Revenge is specially forbidden.

I <sup>a</sup> Beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, <sup>b</sup> that ye <sup>c</sup> present your bodies <sup>d</sup> a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, <sup>a</sup> which is your reasonable service.

2 And <sup>a</sup> be not conformed to this world: but <sup>a</sup> be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may <sup>a</sup> prove what <sup>a</sup> is that good, and acceptable, and perfect will of God.

3 For I say, <sup>b</sup> through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, <sup>a</sup> not to think of <sup>a</sup> himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think <sup>a</sup> soberly, according as God hath dealt <sup>a</sup> to every man the measure of faith.

4 For <sup>a</sup> as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office:

5 So <sup>a</sup> we, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another.

6 <sup>a</sup> Having then gifts differing <sup>a</sup> according to the grace that is given to us, whether <sup>a</sup> prophecy, <sup>a</sup> let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith;

7 Or ministry, <sup>a</sup> let us wait on our ministering: or <sup>a</sup> he that teacheth, on teaching;

8 Or <sup>a</sup> he that exhorteth, on exhortation: <sup>a</sup> he that || giveth, <sup>a</sup> let him do it || with simplicity; <sup>a</sup> he that ruleth, with diligence; <sup>a</sup> he that sheweth mercy, <sup>a</sup> with cheerfulness.

9 <sup>a</sup> Let love be without dissimulation. <sup>a</sup> Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good.

10 <sup>a</sup> Be kindly affectioned one to another || with brotherly love; <sup>a</sup> in honour preferring one another;

11 Not slothful in business; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord;

 for it is written, <sup>o</sup> Vengeance is mine; I

 20<sup>p</sup> Therefore if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head.
 21 Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Subjection and many other duties we owe to the magistrates. 8 Love is the fulfilling of the law. 11 Gluttony and drunkenness, and the works of darkness, are out of season in the time of the gospel.

LET every soul <sup>a</sup> be subject unto the higher powers. For <sup>b</sup> there is no power but of God: the powers that be are || ordained of God.

2 Whosoever therefore resisteth <sup>c</sup> the power, resisteth the ordinance of God:
 and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation.

3 For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? do that which is good, and <sup>d</sup> thou shalt have praise of the same:

4 For he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil.

5 Wherefore <sup>e</sup> ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath, <sup>f</sup> but also for conscience sake.

6 For, for this cause pay ye tribute also:
 for they are God's ministers, attending continually upon this very thing.

7<sup>g</sup> Render therefore to all their dues:
 tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honour to whom honour.

8 Owe no man any thing, but to love one another: for <sup>h</sup> he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law.

9 For this, <sup>i</sup> Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Thou shalt not covet; and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, <sup>k</sup> Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

10 Love worketh no ill to his neighbour:
 therefore <sup>l</sup> love is the fulfilling of the law.

11 And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time <sup>m</sup> to awake out of sleep:
 for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed.

12 The night is far spent, the day is at hand: <sup>n</sup> let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and <sup>o</sup> let us put on the armour of light.

13<sup>p</sup> Let us walk || honestly, as in the day;
<sup>q</sup> not in rioting and drunkenness, <sup>r</sup> not in chambering and wantonness, <sup>s</sup> not in strife and envying.

14 But <sup>t</sup> put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and <sup>u</sup> make not provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lusts thereof.

CHAP. XIV.

3 Men may not condemn nor condemn one the other for things indifferent; 13 but take heed that they give no offence in them; 15 for that the apostle proveth unlawful by many reasons.

HIM that <sup>a</sup> is weak in the faith receive
 ye, but || not to doubtful disputations.

2 For one believeth that he may eat all things: another, who is weak, eateth herbs.

3<sup>b</sup> Let not him that eateth despise him that eateth not; and let not him which eateth not judge him that eateth: for God hath received him.

4<sup>c</sup> Who art thou that judgest another man's servant? to his own master he standeth or falleth. Yea, he shall be holden up: for God is able to make him stand.

5<sup>d</sup> One man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike.
 Let every man be || fully persuaded in his own mind.

6 He that <sup>e</sup> || regardeth the day, regardeth
 it unto the Lord; and he that regardeth not the day, to the Lord he doth not regard it. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord, for <sup>f</sup> he giveth God thanks; and he that eateth not, to the Lord he eateth not,
 and giveth God thanks.

7 For <sup>g</sup> none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself.

8 For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's.

<sup>m</sup> 1 Cor. 10. 32. 13 Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge this rather, that <sup>m</sup> no man put a stumbling-block, or an occasion to fall in his brother's way.

CHAP. XV.

1 The strong must bear with the weak. 2 We may not please ourselves, 3 for Christ did not so, 7 but receive one the other, as Christ did us all, 8 both Jews, 9 and Gentiles. 15 Paul excuseth his writing, 28 and promiseth to see them, 30 and requesteth their prayers.

WE <sup>a</sup> then that are strong ought to bear the <sup>b</sup> infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves.

<sup>3</sup> For even Christ pleased not himself; but as it is written, <sup>e</sup> The reproaches of them that reproached thee fell on me.

<sup>4</sup> For <sup>f</sup> whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope.

<sup>6</sup> That ye may with one mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>7</sup> Wherefore <sup>h</sup> receive ye one another, as Christ also received us to the glory of God.

<sup>8</sup> Now I say that <sup>i</sup> Jesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm the promises made unto the fathers:

<sup>9</sup> And that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy; as it is written, <sup>k</sup> For this cause I will confess to thee among the Gentiles, and sing unto thy name.

<sup>12</sup> And again Esaias saith, <sup>n</sup> There shall be a root of Jesse, and he that shall rise to reign over the Gentiles, in him shall the Gentiles trust.

<sup>13</sup> Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost.

<sup>14</sup> And <sup>o</sup> I myself also am persuaded of you, my brethren, that ye also are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another.

<sup>15</sup> Nevertheless, brethren, I have written the more boldly unto you in some sort, as putting you in mind, <sup>p</sup> because of the grace that is given to me of God,

<sup>16</sup> That <sup>q</sup> I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering the gospel of God, that the <sup>r</sup> offering-up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Ghost.

<sup>17</sup> I have therefore, whereof I may glory, through Jesus Christ, <sup>s</sup> in those things which pertain to God.

<sup>18</sup> For I will not dare to speak of any of those things, which Christ hath not wrought by me, <sup>t</sup> to make the Gentiles obedient, by word and deed,

19 Through mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God; so that from Jerusalem, and round about unto Illyricum, I have fully preached the gospel of Christ.

20 Yea, so have I strived to preach the gospel, not where Christ was named, <sup>a</sup> lest I should build upon another man's foundation :

21 But, as it is written, <sup>a</sup> To whom he was not spoken of, they shall see : and they that have not heard shall understand.

22 For which cause also <sup>y</sup> I have been much hindered from coming to you ;

23 But now having no more place in these parts, and <sup>z</sup> having a great desire these many years to come unto you ;

24 Whensoever I take my journey into Spain, I will come to you : for I trust to see you in my journey, <sup>a</sup> and to be brought on my way thitherward by you, if first I be somewhat filled † with your company.

25 But now <sup>b</sup> I go unto Jerusalem, to minister unto the saints.

26 For <sup>c</sup> it hath pleased them of Macedonia, and Achaia, to make a certain contribution for the poor saints which are at Jerusalem.

27 It hath pleased them verily; and their debtors they are. For <sup>d</sup> if the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, <sup>e</sup> their duty is also to minister unto them in carnal things.

28 When therefore I have performed this, and have sealed to them <sup>f</sup> this fruit, I will come by you into Spain.

29 <sup>g</sup> And I am sure that when I come unto you, I shall come in the fulness of the blessing of the gospel of Christ.

30 Now I beseech you, brethren, for the Lord Jesus Christ's sake, and <sup>h</sup> for the love of the Spirit, <sup>i</sup> that ye strive together with me in your prayers to God for me ;

31 <sup>k</sup> That I may be delivered from them that † do not believe in Judea; and that my service which I have for Jerusalem, may be accepted of the saints ;

32 <sup>l</sup> That I may come unto you with joy by the will of God, and may with you be refreshed.

33 Now <sup>n</sup> the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

CHAP. XVI.

3 Paul willeth the brethren to greet many ; 17 and adviseth them to take heed of those which cause dissension and offences ; 21 and after sundry salutations endeth with praise and thanks to God.

I Commend unto you Phebe our sister, which is a servant of the church which is at <sup>a</sup> Cenchrea :

A. R. 18.

2 That ye receive her in the Lord, <sup>b</sup> as becometh saints, and that ye assist her in whatsoever business she hath need of you : for she hath been a succourer of many, and <sup>b</sup> of myself also.

3 Greet <sup>c</sup> Priscilla and Aquila my helpers in Christ Jesus :

4 Who have for my life laid down their own necks : unto whom not only I give thanks, but also all the churches of the Gentiles.

5 Likewise greet <sup>d</sup> the church that is in their house. Salute my well-beloved Epenetus, who is <sup>e</sup> the first-fruits of Achaia unto Christ.

6 Greet Mary, who bestowed much labour on us.

7 Salute Andronicus and Junia my kinsmen and my fellow-prisoners, who are of note among the apostles, who also <sup>f</sup> were in Christ before me.

8 Greet Amplias my beloved in the Lord.

9 Salute Urbane our helper, in Christ, and Stachys my beloved.

10 Salute Apelles approved in Christ. Salute them which are of Aristobulus' † household.

11 Salute Herodion my kinsman. Greet them that be of the † household of Narcissus, which are in the Lord.

12 Salute Tryphena and Tryphosa, who labour in the Lord. Salute the beloved Peris which laboured much in the Lord.

13 Salute Rufus <sup>g</sup> chosen in the Lord, and his mother and mine.

14 Salute Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermas, Patrobas, Hermes, and the brethren which are with them.

15 Salute Philologus, and Julia, Nereus, and his sister, and Olympas, and all the saints which are with them.

16 <sup>h</sup> Salute one another with an holy kiss. The churches of Christ salute you.

17 Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences, contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned ; and <sup>i</sup> avoid them.

18 For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but <sup>k</sup> their own belly ; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple.

19 For <sup>l</sup> your obedience is come abroad unto all men. I am glad therefore on your behalf : but yet I would have you <sup>m</sup> wise unto that which is good, and † simple concerning evil.

20 And <sup>n</sup> the God of peace <sup>o</sup> shall † bruise Satan under your feet shortly. <sup>p</sup> The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

THE First Epistle of PAUL the Apostle to the CORINTHIANS.

CHAP. I.

Anno DOMINI 59. After his salutation and thanksgiving, 10 he exhorteth them to unity, 12 and reproveth their dissensions. 18 God destroyeth the wisdom of the wise 21 by the foolishness of preaching; and 26 calleth not the wise mighty, and noble, but 27, 28 the foolish, weak, and men of no account.

<sup>a</sup> Rom. 1. 7. 2 Unto the church of God, which is at Corinth, <sup>c</sup> to them that <sup>d</sup> are sanctified in Christ Jesus, <sup>e</sup> called to be saints, with all that in every place <sup>f</sup> call upon the name of Jesus Christ <sup>g</sup> our Lord, both their's and our's:

<sup>a</sup> 2 Cor. 1. 2. 3 <sup>h</sup> Grace be unto you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>a</sup> Ephes. 1. 2. 4 <sup>i</sup> I thank my God always on your behalf, for the grace of God which is given you by Jesus Christ;

<sup>a</sup> Pet. 1. 2. 5 That in every thing ye are enriched by him, <sup>k</sup> in all utterance, and in all knowledge;

<sup>a</sup> 2 Cor. 8. 7.

6 Even as <sup>l</sup> the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you.

7 So that ye come behind in no gift; <sup>m</sup> waiting for the <sup>n</sup> coming of our Lord Jesus Christ:

8 <sup>n</sup> Who shall also confirm you unto the end, <sup>o</sup> that ye may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 <sup>p</sup> God is faithful, by whom ye were called unto <sup>q</sup> the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

10 Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>r</sup> that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no <sup>r</sup> divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind, and in the same judgement.

11 For it hath been declared unto me of you, my brethren, by them which are of the house of Chloe, that there are contentions among you.

12 Now this I say, <sup>s</sup> that every one of you faith, I am of Paul; and I, of <sup>t</sup> Apollos; and I, of <sup>u</sup> Cephas; and I, of Christ.

13 Is Christ divided? was Paul crucified for you? or were ye baptized in the name of Paul?

14 I thank God that I baptized none of you, but <sup>v</sup> Crispus and <sup>w</sup> Gaius;

15 Lest any should say, that I had baptized in mine own name.

16 And I baptized also the household of <sup>x</sup> Stephanas: besides, I know not whether I baptized any other.

17 For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: <sup>y</sup> not with wisdom of <sup>z</sup> words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of none effect.

18 For the preaching of the cross is to <sup>a</sup> them that perish, foolishness; but unto us <sup>b</sup> which are saved, it is the <sup>c</sup> power of God.

19 For it is written, <sup>d</sup> I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent.

20 <sup>e</sup> Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? <sup>f</sup> hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?

21 <sup>g</sup> For after that, in the wisdom of God, the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.

22 For the <sup>h</sup> Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom:

23 But we preach Christ crucified, <sup>i</sup> unto the Jews a stumbling-block, and unto the Greeks, foolishness;

24 But unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ <sup>j</sup> the power of God, and <sup>k</sup> the wisdom of God.

25 Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

26 For ye see your calling, brethren, how that <sup>a</sup>not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble are called:

27 But <sup>a</sup>God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty;

28 And base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea, and things which are not, to bring to nought things that are:

29 <sup>p</sup>That no flesh should glory in his presence.

30 But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, <sup>a</sup>who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption:

31 That, according as it is written, <sup>r</sup>He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

CHAP. II.

<sup>a</sup> AND I, brethren, when I came to you, <sup>a</sup>came not with excellency of speech, or of wisdom, declaring unto you the testimony of God.

<sup>2</sup> For I determined not to know any thing among you, <sup>b</sup> save Jesus Christ, and him crucified.

<sup>3</sup> And <sup>c</sup>I was with you <sup>d</sup>in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling.

<sup>6</sup> Howbeit, we speak wisdom among them <sup>8</sup> that are perfect: yet not the wisdom of this world, nor of the princes of this world, that come to nought:

<sup>7</sup> But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, <sup>b</sup> which God ordained before the world, unto our glory:

<sup>8</sup> Which none of the princes of this world knew: for <sup>k</sup> had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.

into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him.

<sup>10</sup> But <sup>m</sup> God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God.

<sup>11</sup> For what man knoweth the things of a man, <sup>a</sup> save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth, no man, but the Spirit of God.

<sup>12</sup> Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but <sup>a</sup> the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God.

CHAP. III.

<sup>a</sup> AND I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto spiritual, but as unto carnal, even as unto babes in Christ.

<sup>5</sup> Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers by whom ye believed, even as the Lord gave to every man?

<sup>7</sup> So then, neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase.

<sup>8</sup> Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: <sup>a</sup> and every man shall re-

59. 9 For we are labourers together with God: ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's building.

10 According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise master-builder I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon.

11 For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ.

12 Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble;

13 Every man's work shall be made manifest. For the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work, of what sort it is.

14 If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward.

15 If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so, as by fire.

16 Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?

17 If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are.

18 Let no man deceive himself. If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise.

19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, He taketh the wise in their own craftiness.

20 And again, The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain.

21 Therefore let no man glory in men: for all things are your's:

22 Whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are your's;

23 And ye are Christ's; and Christ is God's

CHAP. IV.

1 In what account the ministers ought to be had.

7 We have nothing which we have not received. 9 The apostles, spectacles to the world, angels, and men, 13 the filth, and off-scouring of the world; 15 yet our fathers in Christ, 16 whom we ought to follow.

LET a man so account of us as of the ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God.

2 Moreover it is required in stewards that a man be found faithful.

3 But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged of you, or of man's judgement: yea, I judge not mine own self.

4 For I know nothing by myself; yet am I not hereby justified: but he that judgeth me is the Lord.

5 Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and then shall every man have praise of God.

6 And these things, brethren, I have in a figure transferred to myself, and to Apollos, for your sakes; that ye might learn in us not to think of men, above that which is written, that no one of you be puffed up for one against another.

7 For who maketh thee to differ from another? and what hast thou that thou didst not receive? now if thou didst receive it, why dost thou glory, as if thou hadst not received it?

8 Now ye are full, now ye are rich, ye have reigned as kings without us: and I would to God ye did reign, that we also might reign with you.

9 For I think that God hath set forth us the apostles last, as it were appointed to death. For we are made a spectacle unto the world, and to angels, and to men.

10 We are fools for Christ's sake, but ye are wise in Christ; we are weak, but ye are strong; ye are honourable, but we are despised.

11 Even unto this present hour we both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and have no certain dwelling-place;

12 And labour, working with our own hands. Being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we suffer it;

13 Being defamed, we intreat: we are made as the filth of the world, and are the off-scouring of all things unto this day.

14 I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloved sons I warn you.

15 For though ye have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers: for in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel.

16 Wherefore I beseech you, be ye followers of me.

17 For this cause have I sent unto you Timotheus, who is my beloved son, and faithful in the Lord, who shall bring you into remembrance of my ways which be in Christ, as I teach every where in every church.

CHAP. V.

1 The incestuous person <sup>6</sup> is cause rather of shame unto them, than of rejoicing. 7 The old leaven is to be purged out. 10 Heinous offenders are to be shunned and avoided.

IT is reported commonly that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not so much as <sup>a</sup> named amongst the Gentiles, <sup>b</sup> that one should have his father's wife.

2 And ye are puffed up, and have not rather mourned, that he that hath done this deed, might be taken away from among you.

3 <sup>d</sup> For I verily, as absent in body, but present in spirit, have || judged already, as though I were present, concerning him that hath so done this deed;

4 In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when ye are gathered together, and my spirit, <sup>c</sup> with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ,

5 <sup>f</sup> To deliver such an one unto <sup>s</sup> Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of our Lord Jesus.

6 <sup>b</sup> Your glorying is not good. Know ye not that <sup>a</sup> a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump?

7 Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For even <sup>k</sup> Christ our <sup>1</sup> pass-over || is sacrificed for us.

8 Therefore <sup>m</sup> let us keep || the feast, <sup>n</sup> not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

9 I wrote unto you in an epistle, <sup>c</sup> not to company with fornicators.

10 Yet not altogether with the fornicators <sup>p</sup> of this world, or with the covetous, or extortioners, or with idolaters; for then must ye needs go out <sup>q</sup> of the world.

11 But now I have written unto you, not to keep company, <sup>r</sup> if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such an one <sup>s</sup> no not to eat.

12 For what have I to do to judge <sup>t</sup> them also that are without? do not ye judge <sup>u</sup> them that are within?

13 But them that are without, God judgeth. Therefore <sup>x</sup> put away from among yourselves that wicked person.

CHAP. VI.

1 The Corinthians must not vex their brethren, in going to law with them; 6 especially under infidels. 9 The unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God. 15 Our bodies are the members of Christ, 19 and temples of the Holy Ghost: 16, 17 they must not therefore be defiled.

DARE any of you, having a matter against another, go to law before the unjust, and not before the saints?

2 Do ye not know that <sup>a</sup> the saints shall judge the world? and if the world shall be judged by you, are ye unworthy to judge the smallest matters?

3 Know ye not that we shall judge angels? how much more things that pertain to this life?

4 <sup>b</sup> If then ye have judgements of things pertaining to this life, set them to judge who are least esteemed in the church.

5 I speak to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man amongst you? no not one that shall be able to judge between his brethren?

6 But brother goeth to law with brother, and that before the unbelievers.

7 Now therefore there is utterly a fault among you, because ye go to law one with another. <sup>c</sup> Why do ye not rather take wrong? why do ye not rather suffer yourselves to be defrauded?

8 Nay, ye do wrong, and defraud, <sup>d</sup> and that your brethren.

9 Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: <sup>e</sup> neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind,

10 Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God.

11 And such were <sup>f</sup> some of you: <sup>g</sup> but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God.

12 <sup>h</sup> All things are lawful unto me, but all things are not || expedient: all things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any.

13 <sup>i</sup> Meats for the belly, and the belly for meats: but God shall destroy both it and them. Now the body is not for fornication, but <sup>k</sup> for the Lord; and the Lord for the body.

2 He treateth of marriage, & shewing it to be a remedy against fornication; 10 and that the bond thereof ought not lightly to be dissolved.

18, 20 Every man must be content with his vocation. 25 Virginity wherefore to be embraced. 35 And for what respects we may either marry, or abstain from marrying.

2 Nevertheless, to avoid fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband.

5 <sup>c</sup>Defraud ye not one the other, except it be with consent for a time, that ye may give yourselves to fasting and prayer; and come together again, that <sup>a</sup>Satan tempt you not for your incontinency.

6 But I speak this by permission, <sup>e</sup>and not of commandment.

7 For <sup>f</sup>I would that all men were <sup>s</sup>even as I myself. But <sup>b</sup>every man hath his proper gift of God, one after this manner, and another after that.

8 I say therefore to the unmarried and widows, <sup>i</sup>It is good for them if they abide even as I.

9 But <sup>k</sup>if they cannot contain, let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn.

10 And unto the married I command, <sup>1</sup>yet not I, but the Lord, <sup>m</sup>Let not the wife depart from her husband:

11 But and if she depart, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband. And let not the husband put away his wife.

12 But to the rest speak I, <sup>a</sup>not the Lord; If any brother hath a wife that believeth not, and she be pleased to dwell with him, let him not put her away.

13 And the woman which hath an husband that believeth not, and if he be pleased to dwell with her, let her not leave him:

14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband: else <sup>o</sup>were your children unclean; but now are they holy.

15 But if the unbelieving depart, let him depart. A brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases: but God hath called us <sup>p</sup>† to peace.

16 For what knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt <sup>a</sup>save thy husband? or †how knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt save thy wife?

17 But as God hath distributed to every man, as the Lord hath called every one, so let him walk. And <sup>r</sup>so ordain I in all churches.

18 Is any man called being circumcised? let him <sup>a</sup>not become uncircumcised. Is any called in uncircumcision? let him not become circumcised.

19 <sup>a</sup>Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but <sup>a</sup>the keeping of the commandments of God.

20 Let every man abide in the same calling wherein he was called.

21 Art thou called being a servant? care not for it; but if thou mayest be made free, use it rather.

22 For he that is called in the Lord, being a servant, is <sup>a</sup>the Lord's †freeman: likewise also he that is called, being free, is <sup>r</sup>Christ's servant.

23 <sup>a</sup>Ye are bought with a price; be not ye the servants of men.

24 Brethren, let every man wherein he is called, therein abide with God.

25 Now concerning virgins, <sup>a</sup>I have no commandment of the Lord: yet I give my judgement as one <sup>b</sup>that hath obtained mercy of the Lord <sup>c</sup>to be faithful.

26 I suppose therefore that this is good for the present || distress, I say, <sup>d</sup> that it is good for a man so to be.

27 Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife.

28 But and if thou marry, thou hast not sinned; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned. Nevertheless, such shall have trouble in the flesh: but I spare you.

29 But <sup>e</sup> this I say, brethren, the time is short. It remaineth, that both they that have wives, be as though they had none; 30 And they that weep, as though they wept not; and they that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and they that buy, as though they possessed not;

31 And they that use this world, as not abusing it: for <sup>f</sup> the fashion of this world passeth away. 32 But I would have you without carefulness. <sup>g</sup> He that is unmarried, careth for the things <sup>h</sup> that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord:

33 But he that is married, careth for the things that are of the world, how he may please <sup>i</sup> his wife. 34 There is difference also between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman <sup>j</sup> careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy, both in body and in spirit: but she that is married, careth for the things of the world, how she may please <sup>k</sup> her husband.

35 And this I speak for your own profit; not that I may cast a snare upon you, but for that which is comely, and that ye may attend upon the Lord without distraction. 36 But if any man think that he behaveth himself uncomely toward his virgin, if she pass the flower of <sup>l</sup> her age, and need so require, let him do what he will, he sinneth not: let them marry.

37 Nevertheless, he that standeth stedfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power over his own will, and hath so decreed in his heart, that he will keep his virgin, doeth well. 38 So then, he that giveth <sup>m</sup> her in marriage doeth well; but he that giveth <sup>n</sup> her not in marriage doeth better.

39 <sup>o</sup> The wife is bound by the law as long as her husband liveth; but if her husband be dead, she is at liberty to be married to whom she will; only in the Lord. 40 But she is happier if she so abide, k ver. 45.

<sup>p</sup> after my judgement: and <sup>q</sup> I think also that I have the Spirit of God.

3.

1 To abstain from meats offered to idols. 8, 9 We must not abuse our Christian liberty, to the offence of our brethren: 11 but must bridle our knowledge with charity.

NOW <sup>a</sup> as touching things offered unto idols, we know that we all have <sup>b</sup> knowledge. <sup>c</sup> Knowledge puffeth up, but charity edifieth.

2 And <sup>d</sup> if any man think that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know.

3 But if any man love God, <sup>e</sup> the same is known of him.

4 As concerning therefore the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice unto idols, we know that <sup>f</sup> an idol is nothing in the world, and that <sup>g</sup> there is none other God but one.

5 For though there be that are <sup>h</sup> called gods, whether in heaven or in earth, (as there be gods many, and lords many,)

6 But <sup>i</sup> to us <sup>j</sup> there is but one God, the Father, <sup>k</sup> of whom <sup>l</sup> are all things, and we <sup>m</sup> in him; and <sup>n</sup> one Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>o</sup> by whom <sup>p</sup> are all things, and we by him.

7 Howbeit, <sup>q</sup> there is not in every man that knowledge: for some, <sup>r</sup> with conscience of the idol unto this hour, eat it as a thing offered unto an idol; and their conscience being weak is <sup>s</sup> defiled.

8 But <sup>t</sup> meat commendeth us not to God: for neither if we eat, <sup>u</sup> are we the better; neither if we eat not, <sup>v</sup> are we the worse.

9 But <sup>w</sup> take heed lest by any means this <sup>x</sup> liberty of your's become <sup>y</sup> a stumbling-block to them that are weak.

10 For if any man see thee, which hast knowledge, sit at meat <sup>z</sup> in the idol's temple, shall not <sup>aa</sup> the conscience of him which is weak be <sup>ab</sup> emboldened to eat those things which are offered to idols;

11 And <sup>ac</sup> through thy knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died?

12 But when ye sin so against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience, ye sin against Christ.

13 Wherefore, <sup>ad</sup> if meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, lest I make my brother to offend.

1 He sheweth his liberty, 7 and that the minister ought to live by the gospel: 15 yet that himself hath of his own accord abstained, 18 to be either chargeable unto them, 22 or offensive unto any in matters indifferent. 24 Our life is like unto a race.

 Lord? <sup>b</sup> are not ye my work in the Lord?
 2 If I be not an apostle unto others, yet doubtless, I am to you: for <sup>c</sup> the seal of mine apostleship are ye in the Lord.

3 Mine answer to them that do examine me, is this,

4 <sup>d</sup> Have we not power to eat and to drink?

5 Have we not power to lead about a sister, a <sup>h</sup> wife as well as other apostles, and as

6 Or I only and Barnabas, <sup>g</sup> have not we power to forbear working?

7 Who <sup>b</sup> goeth a warfare any time at his own charges? who <sup>i</sup> planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who <sup>k</sup> feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock?

8 Say I these things as a man? or faith not the law the same also?

9 For it is written in the law of Moses,

<sup>l</sup> Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn. Doth God take care for oxen?

10 Or faith he it altogether for our sakes?

for our sakes, no doubt, this is written:

that <sup>m</sup> he that ploweth should plow in hope; and that he that thresheth in hope, should be partaker of his hope.

11 <sup>n</sup> If we have sown unto you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shall reap your carnal things?

12 If others be partakers of this power over you, are not we rather? <sup>o</sup> Nevertheless, we have not used this power; but suffer all things, <sup>p</sup> lest we should hinder the gospel of Christ.

13 <sup>q</sup> Do ye not know that they which minister about holy things, <sup>r</sup> live of the things of the temple? and they which wait

at the altar, are partakers with the altar?

14 Even so <sup>r</sup> hath the Lord ordained,

<sup>s</sup> that they which preach the gospel should live of the gospel.

15 But <sup>t</sup> I have used none of these things.

Neither have I written these things, that it should be so done unto me: for <sup>u</sup> it were better for me to die, than that any man should make my glorying void.

16 For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for <sup>v</sup> necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me if I preach not the gospel!

17 For if I do this thing willingly, I have a reward: but if against my will, <sup>y</sup> a dispensation of the gospel is committed unto me.

18 What is my reward then? Verily that when I preach the gospel, I may make the gospel of Christ without charge, that I abuse not my power in the gospel.

19 For though I be free from all men, yet have <sup>z</sup> I made myself servant unto all, <sup>a</sup> that I might gain the more.

20 And <sup>b</sup> unto the Jews, I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews; to them that are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain them that are under the law;

21 <sup>c</sup> To <sup>d</sup> them that are without law, as without law, (<sup>e</sup> being not without law to God, but under the law to Christ,) that I might gain them that are without law.

22 <sup>f</sup> To the weak became I as weak, that I might gain the weak: <sup>g</sup> I am made all things to all men, <sup>h</sup> that I might by all means save some.

23 And this I do for the gospel's sake, that I might be partaker thereof with you.

24 Know ye not that they which run in a race, run all, but one receiveth the prize?

<sup>i</sup> So run that ye may obtain.

25 And every man that <sup>k</sup> striveth for the mastery, is temperate in all things. Now, they do it to obtain a corruptible crown;

but we <sup>l</sup> an incorruptible.

26 I therefore so run, not as uncertainly;
 so fight I, not as one that beateth
 the air:

27 <sup>m</sup> But I keep under my body, and <sup>n</sup> bring it into subjection: lest that by any means when I have preached to others, I myself should be a cast-away.

1 *The sacraments of the Jews, 6 are types of our's, 7 and their punishments, 11 examples for

Moreover, brethren, I would not that

 8 Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and <sup>h</sup> fell in one day three and twenty thousand.
 9 Neither let us tempt Christ, as <sup>i</sup> some of them also tempted, and <sup>k</sup> were destroyed of serpents.
 10 Neither murmur ye, as <sup>l</sup> some of them also murmured, and <sup>m</sup> were destroyed of the destroyer.
 11 Now all these things happened unto them for <sup>n</sup> ensamples: and <sup>n</sup> they are written for our admonition, <sup>o</sup> upon whom the ends of the world are come.
 12 Wherefore <sup>p</sup> let him that thinketh he standeth, take heed lest he fall.
 13 There hath no temptation taken you, but <sup>q</sup> such as is common to man: but <sup>r</sup> God is faithful, <sup>r</sup> who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also <sup>s</sup> make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it.
 14 Wherefore, my dearly beloved, <sup>t</sup> flee from idolatry.
 15 I speak as to wise men; judge ye what I say.
 16 <sup>u</sup> The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ?
 17 For <sup>v</sup> we being many are one bread, and one body: for we are all partakers of that one bread.
 18 Behold <sup>w</sup> Israel after the flesh: <sup>x</sup> are not they which eat of the sacrifices, partakers of the altar?
 19 What say I then? <sup>y</sup> that the idol is any thing, or that which is offered in sacrifice to idols is any thing?
 20 But <sup>z</sup> I say, that the things which the Gentiles <sup>b</sup> sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils, and not to God: and I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils.
 21 <sup>c</sup> Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and <sup>d</sup> the cup of devils: ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's table, and of the table of devils.
 22 Do we <sup>e</sup> provoke the Lord to jealousy? <sup>f</sup> are we stronger than he?
 23 <sup>g</sup> All things are lawful for me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but all things edify not.
 24 <sup>h</sup> Let no man seek his own, but every man another's wealth.
 25 <sup>i</sup> Whatsoever is sold in the shambles, that eat, asking no question for conscience sake.
 26 For <sup>k</sup> the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof.
 27 If any of them that believe not bid

you <sup>l</sup> to a feast, and ye be disposed to go; <sup>m</sup> whatsoever is set before you eat, asking no question for conscience sake.
 28 But if any man say unto you, This is offered in sacrifice unto idols, eat not <sup>n</sup> for his sake that shewed it, and for conscience sake: for <sup>o</sup> the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof:
 29 Conscience, I say, not thine own, but of the other: for <sup>p</sup> why is my liberty judged of another man's conscience?
 30 For, if I by <sup>q</sup> grace be a partaker, why am I evil spoken of for that <sup>r</sup> for which I give thanks?
 31 <sup>s</sup> Whether therefore ye eat or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God.
 32 <sup>t</sup> Give none offence, neither to the Jews, nor to the <sup>u</sup> Gentiles, nor to the church of God:
 33 Even as <sup>v</sup> I please all men in all things, not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved.

CHAP. XI.

1 He reproveth them, because in holy assemblies 4 their men prayed with their heads covered, 6 and women with their heads uncovered: 17 and because generally their meetings were not for the better, but for the worse; 21 as namely, in profaning with their own feasts the Lord's supper. 23 Lastly, he calleth them to the first institution thereof.

BE <sup>a</sup> ye followers of me, even as I also <sup>b</sup> am of Christ.
 2 Now I praise you, brethren, <sup>b</sup> that ye remember me in all things, and <sup>c</sup> keep the <sup>d</sup> ordinances, as I delivered <sup>e</sup> them to you.
 3 But I would have you know, that <sup>f</sup> the head of every man is Christ; and the head of the woman is the man; and <sup>g</sup> the head of Christ is God.
 4 Every man praying or prophesying, having <sup>h</sup> his head covered, dishonoureth his head.
 5 But every woman that prayeth or prophesieth with <sup>i</sup> her head uncovered, dishonoureth her head: for that is even all one as if she were <sup>j</sup> shaven.
 6 For if the woman be not covered, let her also be shorn: but if it be <sup>k</sup> a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be covered.
 7 For a man indeed ought not to cover <sup>l</sup> his head, forasmuch as <sup>m</sup> he is the image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man.
 8 For <sup>n</sup> the man is not of the woman; but the woman of the man.

woman; but the woman for the man.
10 For this cause ought the woman <sup>1</sup> to have <sup>11</sup> power on her head, <sup>12</sup> because of the angels.

11 Nevertheless, neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man in the Lord.

12 For as the woman is of the man, even so is the man also by the woman; but all things of God.

13 Judge in yourselves: is it comely that a woman pray unto God uncovered?

14 Doth not even nature itself teach you, that if a man have long hair, it is a shame
unto him?

15 But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair is given her for a <sup>11</sup> covering.

16 But <sup>11</sup> if any man seem to be contenti-ous, we have no such custom, <sup>12</sup> neither the churches of God.

17 Now in this that I declare unto you, I praise you not, that ye come together not for the better, but for the worse.

18 For first of all, when ye come together in the church, <sup>11</sup> I hear that there be <sup>11</sup> divisions among you; and I partly believe it.

19 For <sup>11</sup> there must be also <sup>11</sup> heresies among you, <sup>12</sup> that they which are approved may be made manifest among you.

20 When ye come together therefore into one place, <sup>11</sup> this is not to eat the Lord's supper.

21 For in eating every one taketh before other his own supper: and one is hungry, and <sup>11</sup> another is drunken.

22 What, have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or despise ye the church of God, and <sup>11</sup> shame <sup>11</sup> them that have not?
What shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not.

23 For <sup>11</sup> I have received of the Lord, that which also I delivered unto you, <sup>12</sup> That the Lord Jesus, the same night in which he was betrayed, took bread:

24 And when he had given thanks, he broke it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do <sup>11</sup> in remembrance of me.

25 After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood:
this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me.

26 For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, <sup>11</sup> ye do shew the Lord's death, <sup>12</sup> till he come.

27 <sup>11</sup> Wherefore, whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord un-worthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.

28 But <sup>11</sup> let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup.

29 For he that eateth and drinketh un-worthily, eateth and drinketh <sup>11</sup> damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body.

30 For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep.

31 For <sup>11</sup> if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged.

32 But when we are judged, <sup>11</sup> we are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world.

33 Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, tarry one for another.

34 And if any man <sup>11</sup> hunger, let him eat at <sup>11</sup> home; that ye come not together unto <sup>11</sup> condemnation. And the rest <sup>11</sup> will I set in order when <sup>11</sup> I come.

CHAP. XII.

1 Spiritual gifts 4 are diverse, 7 yet all to profit withal; 8 and to that end are diversly bestowed: 12 that by the like proportion, as the members of a natural body tend all to the 16 mutual decency, 22 service, and 26 succour of the same body; 27 so we should do one for another, to make up the mystical body of Christ.

NOW <sup>11</sup> concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I would not have you ignorant.

2 Ye know <sup>11</sup> that ye were Gentiles, carried away unto these dumb idols, even as ye were led.

3 Wherefore I give you to understand, <sup>11</sup> that no man speaking by the Spirit of God calleth Jesus <sup>11</sup> accursed: and <sup>11</sup> that no man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghost.

4 Now <sup>11</sup> there are diversities of gifts, but <sup>11</sup> the same Spirit.

5 <sup>11</sup> And there are differences of <sup>11</sup> administrations, but the same Lord.

6 And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God, <sup>11</sup> which worketh all in all.

7 <sup>11</sup> But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal.

8 For to one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom; to another, <sup>11</sup> the word of knowledge by the same Spirit;

9 <sup>11</sup> To another, faith by the same Spirit; to another, <sup>11</sup> the gifts of healing by the same Spirit;

10 <sup>11</sup> To another, the working of miracles; to another, prophecy; <sup>11</sup> to another, discerning of spirits; to another, <sup>11</sup> divers kinds of tongues; to another, the interpretation of tongues:

9 ch. 7-7- 2 Cor. 10. 12 For <sup>s</sup> as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: <sup>a</sup> so also is Christ.

13 For <sup>u</sup> by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, <sup>x</sup> whether we be Jews or † Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and <sup>v</sup> have been all made to drink into one Spirit.

14 For the body is not one member, but many.

15 If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

16 And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

18 But now hath <sup>s</sup> God set the members every one of them in the body, <sup>a</sup> as it hath pleased him.

19 And if they were all one member, where were the body?

20 But now are they many members, yet but one body.

21 And the eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee: nor again, the head to the feet, I have no need of you.

22 Nay, much more those members of the body, which seem to be more feeble, are necessary.

23 And those members of the body, which we think to be less honourable, upon these we || bestow more abundant honour, and our uncomely parts have more abundant comeliness.

24 For our comely parts have no need: but God hath tempered the body together, having given more abundant honour to that part which lacked:

25 That there should be no || schism in the body; but that the members should have the same care one for another.

26 And whether one member suffer, all the members suffer with it: or one member be honoured, all the members rejoice with it.

27 Now <sup>b</sup> ye are the body of Christ, and <sup>c</sup> members in particular.

28 And <sup>d</sup> God hath set some in the church, first apostles, <sup>e</sup> secondarily prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, <sup>f</sup> helps, <sup>g</sup> governments, || diversities of tongues.

29 Are all apostles? are all prophets?

are all teachers? are all || workers of miracles?

30 Have all the gifts of healing? do all speak with tongues? do all interpret?

31 But <sup>h</sup> covet earnestly the best gifts. And yet shew I unto you a more excellent way.

CHAP. XIII.

1 All gifts, 2, 3 how excellent soever, are nothing worth without charity: 4 the praises thereof, 13 and prelation before hope and faith.

THOUGH I speak with the tongues of men, and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.

2 And though I have the gift of <sup>a</sup> prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, <sup>b</sup> so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing.

3 And <sup>c</sup> though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing.

4 <sup>d</sup> Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity || vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up,

5 Doth not behave itself unseemly, <sup>e</sup> seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil;

6 <sup>f</sup> Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but <sup>g</sup> rejoiceth || in the truth;

7 Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

8 Charity never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away.

9 For we know in part, and we prophesy in part.

10 But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.

11 When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I || thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

12 For <sup>h</sup> now we see through a glass, † darkly; but then <sup>i</sup> face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known.

13 And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.

CHAP. XV.

3 By Christ's resurrection, 12 he proveth the necessity of our resurrection, against all such as deny the resurrection of the body. 21 The fruit, 35 and manner thereof, 51 and of the changing of them that shall be found alive at the last day.

Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel <sup>a</sup> which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and <sup>b</sup> wherein ye stand;

2 <sup>c</sup> By which also ye are saved, if ye <sup>d</sup> keep in memory <sup>e</sup> what I preached unto you, unless <sup>f</sup> ye have believed in vain.

3 For <sup>g</sup> I delivered unto you first of all, that <sup>h</sup> which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins <sup>i</sup> according to the scriptures;

4 And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day <sup>j</sup> according to the scriptures:

5 <sup>k</sup> And that he was seen of Cephas, then <sup>l</sup> of the twelve:

6 After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once: of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep.

7 After that, he was seen of James; then <sup>m</sup> of all the apostles.

8 <sup>n</sup> And last of all he was seen of me also, as of <sup>o</sup> one born out of due time.

9 For I am <sup>p</sup> the least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because <sup>q</sup> I persecuted the Church of God.

10 But <sup>r</sup> by the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which <sup>s</sup> was bestowed upon me, was not in vain; but <sup>t</sup> I laboured more abundantly than they all: <sup>u</sup> yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me.

11 Therefore whether <sup>v</sup> it were I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed.

12 Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you, that there is no resurrection of the dead?

13 But if there is no resurrection of the dead, <sup>w</sup> then is Christ not risen.

14 And if Christ be not risen, then <sup>x</sup> is our preaching vain, and your faith <sup>y</sup> is also vain.

15 Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God; because <sup>z</sup> we have testified of God, that he raised up Christ: whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead rise not.

16 For if the dead rise not, then is not Christ raised:

17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith <sup>aa</sup> is vain; <sup>ab</sup> ye are yet in your sins.

18 Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ, are perished,

19 If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable.

20 But now <sup>ac</sup> is Christ risen from the dead, and become <sup>ad</sup> the first-fruits of them that slept.

21 For <sup>ae</sup> since by man <sup>af</sup> came death, <sup>ag</sup> by man <sup>ah</sup> came also the resurrection of the dead.

22 For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

23 But <sup>ai</sup> every man in his own order: Christ the first-fruits; afterward they that are Christ's at his coming.

24 Then <sup>aj</sup> cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father, when he shall have put down all rule, and all authority, and power.

25 For he must reign, <sup>ak</sup> till he hath put all enemies under his feet.

26 <sup>al</sup> The last enemy <sup>am</sup> that shall be destroyed <sup>an</sup> is death.

27 For he <sup>ao</sup> hath put all things under his feet. But when he saith all things are put under <sup>ap</sup> him, <sup>aq</sup> it is manifest that he is excepted which did put all things under him.

28 <sup>ar</sup> And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then <sup>as</sup> shall the Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all.

29 Else what shall they do, which are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? why are they then baptized for the dead?

30 And <sup>at</sup> why stand we in jeopardy every hour?

31 I protest by <sup>au</sup> <sup>av</sup> <sup>aw</sup> your rejoicing which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, <sup>ax</sup> I die daily.

32 If <sup>ay</sup> after the manner of men, <sup>az</sup> I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantageth it me, if the dead rise <sup>ba</sup> not? let us eat and drink; for to-morrow we die.

33 Be not deceived: evil communications corrupt good manners.

34 <sup>bb</sup> Awake to righteousness, and sin not; <sup>bc</sup>

Anno DOMINI 59. for some have not the knowledge of God : I speak this to your shame.

35 But some man will say, How are the dead raised up? and with what body do they come?

36 Thou fool, that which thou sowest is not quickened, except it die:

37 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain; it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain:

38 But God giveth it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every seed his own body.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds.

40 There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another.

41 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars: for one star differeth from another star in glory.

42 So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption:

43 It is sown in dishonour; it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power:

44 It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body.

45 And so it is written, The first man Adam was made a living soul; the last Adam was made a quickening spirit.

46 Howbeit, that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual.

47 The first man is of the earth, earthy: the second man is the Lord from heaven.

48 As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy: and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly.

49 And as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

50 Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.

51 Behold, I shew you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, 52 In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump. For the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.

54 So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory.

55 O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?

56 The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law.

57 But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory, through our Lord Jesus Christ.

58 Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

CHAP. XVI.

1 He exhorteth them to relieve the want of the brethren at Jerusalem; 10 commendeth Timothy; 13 and after friendly admonitions, 16 shutteth up his epistle with divers salutations.

NOW concerning the collection for the saints, as I have given order to the churches of Galatia, even so do ye.

2 Upon the first day of the week, let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him, that there be no gatherings when I come.

3 And when I come, whomsoever ye shall approve by your letters, them will I send to bring your liberality unto Jerusalem.

4 And if it be meet that I go also, they shall go with me.

5 Now I will come unto you, when I shall pass through Macedonia: for I do pass through Macedonia.

6 And it may be that I will abide, yea, and winter with you, that ye may bring me on my journey, whithersoever I go.

7 For I will not see you now by the way; but I trust to tarry a while with you, if the Lord permit.

8 But I will tarry at Ephesus until Pentecost.

9 For a great door and effectual is opened unto me, and there are many adversaries.

10 Now if Timotheus come, see that he may be with you without fear: for he worketh the work of the Lord, as I also do.

11 Let no man therefore despise him: but conduct him forth in peace, that he may come unto me: for I look for him with the brethren.

PAUL an apostle of Jesus Christ, by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, unto the church of God which is at Corinth, <sup>a</sup> with all the saints which are in all Achaia:

2 <sup>b</sup> Grace be to you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 <sup>c</sup> Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort;

4 Who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God.

5 For as <sup>d</sup> the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also aboundeth by Christ.

6 And whether we be afflicted, <sup>e</sup> it is for your consolation and salvation, which <sup>f</sup> is effectual, in the enduring of the same sufferings, which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation.

7 And our hope of you is stedfast, knowing, that as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation.

8 For we would not, brethren, have you ignorant of <sup>g</sup> our trouble which came to us in Asia, that we were pressed out of measure, above strength, insomuch that we despaired even of life:

9 But we had the <sup>h</sup> sentence of death in ourselves, that we should <sup>i</sup> not trust in ourselves, but in God which raiseth the dead:

10 Who delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver: in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us;

11 Ye also <sup>j</sup> helping together by prayer for us, that <sup>k</sup> for the gift bestowed upon us by the means of many persons, thanks may be given by many on our behalf.

12 For our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and godly sincerity, <sup>l</sup> not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-wards.

13 For we write none other things unto you, than what ye read or acknowledge; and I trust ye shall acknowledge even to the end;

14 As also ye have acknowledged us in part, <sup>m</sup> that we are your rejoicing, even as <sup>n</sup> ye also are our's in the day of the Lord Jesus.

CHAP. II.

1 Having shewed the reason why he came not to them, 6 he requireth them to forgive and to comfort that excommunicated person, 10 even as himself also, upon his true repentance, had forgiven him: 12 declaring withal why he departed from Troas to Macedonia, 14 and the happy success which God gave to his preaching in all places.

BUT I determined this with myself, that I would not come again to you in heaviness.

2 For if I make you sorry, who is he then that maketh me glad, but the same which is made sorry by me?

3 And I wrote this same unto you, lest when I came, <sup>a</sup> I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice; <sup>b</sup> having confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all.

DOMINI to God-ward:

60. 5 Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves; but our sufficiency is of God:

6 Who also hath made us able ministers of the new testament; not of the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter killeth,
but the spirit giveth life.

7 But if the ministration of death written and engraven in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not stedfastly behold the face of Moses, for the glory of his countenance, which glory was to be done away;

8 How shall not the ministration of the spirit be rather glorious?

9 For if the ministration of condemnation be glory, much more doth the ministration of righteousness exceed in glory.

10 For even that which was made glorious, had no glory in this respect, by reason of the glory that excelleth.

11 For if that which is done away was glorious, much more that which remaineth is glorious.

12 Seeing then that we have such hope,
we use great plainness of speech.

13 And not as Moses, which put a vail over his face, that the children of Israel could not stedfastly look to the end of that which is abolished.

14 But their minds were blinded: for until this day remaineth the same vail untaken away, in the reading of the old testament; which vail is done away in Christ.

15 But even unto this day, when Moses is read, the vail is upon their heart.

16 Nevertheless, when it shall turn to the Lord, the vail shall be taken away.

17 Now the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.

18 But we all with open face, beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image, from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord.

CHAP. IV.

1 He declareth how he hath used all sincerity and faithful diligence in preaching the gospel; 7 and how the troubles and persecutions which he daily endured for the same, did redound to the praise of God's power, 12 to the benefit of the church, 16 and to the apostles own eternal glory.

Therefore, seeing we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we faint not;

2 But have renounced the hidden things of dishonesty; not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God de-ceitfully; but by manifestation of the truth, commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God.

3 But if our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost:

4 In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them.

5 For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord; and ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake.

6 For God who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God, in the face of Jesus Christ.

7 But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us.

8 We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but not in despair;

9 Persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed;

10 Always bearing about in the body,
the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body.

11 For we which live, are always delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh.

12 So then death worketh in us, but life in you.

13 We having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe,
and therefore speak;

14 Knowing, that he which raised up the Lord Jesus, shall raise up us also by Jesus, and shall present us with you.

15 For all things are for your sakes, that the abundant grace might through the thanksgiving of many, redound to the glory of God.

16 For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day.

17 For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory;

18 While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen, are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.

CHAP. V.

1 That in his assured hope of immortal glory, 9 and in expectation of it, and of the general judgement, he laboureth to keep a good conscience; 12 not that he may herein boast of himself, 14 but as one that having received life from Christ, endeavoureth to live as a new creature to Christ only, 18 and by his ministry of reconciliation to reconcile others also in Christ to God.

FOR we know that if <sup>a</sup> our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

2 For in this <sup>b</sup> we groan earnestly, desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven:

3 If so be that <sup>c</sup> being clothed, we shall not be found naked.

4 For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not for that we would be unclothed, but <sup>d</sup> clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life.

5 Now <sup>e</sup> he that hath wrought us for the self-same thing, is God, who also <sup>f</sup> hath given unto us the earnest of the Spirit.

6 Therefore we are always confident, knowing that whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord:

7 For <sup>g</sup> we walk by faith, not by sight.

8 We are confident, I say, and <sup>h</sup> willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.

9 Wherefore we <sup>i</sup> labour, that whether present or absent we may be accepted of him.

10 <sup>j</sup> For we must all appear before the judgement-seat of Christ; <sup>k</sup> that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

11 Knowing therefore <sup>l</sup> the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but <sup>m</sup> we are made manifest unto God; and I trust also, are made manifest in your consciences.

12 For <sup>n</sup> we commend not ourselves again unto you, but give you occasion <sup>o</sup> to glory on our behalf, that ye may have somewhat to answer them which glory <sup>p</sup> in appearance, and not in heart.

13 For <sup>q</sup> whether we be besides ourselves, it is to God: or whether we be sober, it is for your cause.

14 For the love of Christ constraineth us, because we thus judge, that <sup>r</sup> if one died for all, then were all dead:

15 And that he died for all, <sup>s</sup> that they which live, should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again.

16 Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh: yea, though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth know we him no more.

17 Therefore, if any man <sup>t</sup> be in Christ, he is <sup>u</sup> a new creature: <sup>v</sup> old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.

18 And all things are of God, <sup>w</sup> who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation;

19 To wit, that <sup>x</sup> God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath <sup>y</sup> committed unto us the word of reconciliation.

20 Now then we are <sup>z</sup> ambassadors for Christ, as <sup>a</sup> though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, Be ye reconciled to God.

21 For <sup>b</sup> he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made <sup>c</sup> the righteousness of God in him.

CHAP. VI.

That he hath approved himself a faithful minister of Christ, both by his exhortations, 3 and by integrity of life, 4 and by patient enduring all kinds of affliction, and disgraces for the gospel.

1 Of which he speaketh the more boldly amongst them, because his heart is open to them; 13 and he expecteth the like affection from them again: 14 exhorting to flee the society and pollution of idolaters, as being themselves temples of the living God.

WE then as <sup>d</sup> workers together with him, <sup>e</sup> beseech you also, <sup>f</sup> that ye receive not the grace of God in vain.

2 (For he saith, <sup>g</sup> I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.)

3 <sup>h</sup> Giving no offence in any thing, that the ministry be not blamed:

4 But in all things <sup>i</sup> approving ourselves, <sup>j</sup> as the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,

5 <sup>k</sup> In stripes, in imprisonments, <sup>l</sup> in tumults, in labours, in watchings, in fastings, 6 By pureness, by knowledge, by long-suffering, by kindness, by the Holy Ghost, by love unfeigned,

7 By the word of truth, by <sup>m</sup> the power of God, by <sup>n</sup> the armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the left,

8 By honour and dishonour, by evil report and good report: as deceivers, and yet true;

 godly sorrow, which his former epistle had wrought in them, 13 and of their loving-kindness and obedience towards Titus, answerable to his former boastings of them.

<sup>e</sup> 1 John 3. HAVING <sup>a</sup> therefore these promises,

 c ch. 6. 11, c I have said before, that ye are in our 4 Great is my boldness of speech toward d Phil. 2. you, great is my glorying of you: <sup>d</sup> I am

 17. filled with comfort, I am exceeding joyful
 Col. 1. 24. in all our tribulation.

<sup>e</sup> ch. 2. 13. 5 For <sup>e</sup> when we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on every side; <sup>f</sup> without were fightings, within were fears.

6 Nevertheless, <sup>g</sup> God that comforteth those that are cast down, comforted us by <sup>h</sup> the coming of Titus;

7 And not by his coming only, but by the consolation wherewith he was comforted in you, when he told us your earnest desire, your mourning, your fervent mind toward me; so that I rejoiced the more.

8 For though I made you sorry with a letter, I do not repent, <sup>i</sup> though I did repent:
 for I perceive that the same epistle made you sorry, though ~~it were~~ but for a season.

9 Now I rejoice, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye sorrowed to repentance:
 for ye were made sorry || after a godly manner, that ye might receive damage by us in nothing.

10 For godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of: but the sorrow of the world worketh death.

11 For behold, this self-same thing, that ye sorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulness it wrought in you, yea, ~~what~~ clearing of yourselves, yea, ~~what~~ indignation, yea, ~~what~~ fear, yea, ~~what~~ vehement desire, yea, ~~what~~ zeal, yea, ~~what~~ revenge! In all things ye have approved yourselves to be clear in this matter.

12 Wherefore, though I wrote unto you,
 I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered wrong, but that our care for you in the sight of God might appear unto you.

13 Therefore we were comforted in your comfort: yea, and exceedingly the more joyed we for the joy of Titus, because his spirit was refreshed by you all.

14 For if I have boasted any thing to him of you, I am not ashamed; but as we spake all things to you in truth, even so our boasting which I made before Titus, is found a truth.

15 And his † inward affection is more abundant toward you, whilst he remembereth <sup>k</sup> the obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling ye received him.

16 I rejoice therefore that <sup>l</sup> I have confidence in you in all things.

10 And herein <sup>f</sup> I give my advice: for <sup>g</sup> this is expedient for you, who have begun before, not only to do, but also to be <sup>h</sup> forward a year ago.

11 Now therefore perform the doing of it; that as there was a readiness to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which ye have.

12 For <sup>i</sup> if there be first a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.

13 For I mean not that other men be eased, and you burdened:

14 But by an equality, that now at this time your abundance may be a supply for their want, and their abundance also may be a supply for your want; that there may be equality:

15 As it is written, <sup>k</sup> He that had gathered much, had nothing over; and he that had gathered little, had no lack.

16 But thanks be to God, which put the same earnest care into the heart of Titus for you.

tion; but being more forward, of his own accord he went unto you.

18 And we have sent with him <sup>m</sup> the brother, whose praise is in the gospel, throughout all the churches;

19 And not that only, but who was also chosen of the churches to travel with us with this <sup>n</sup> grace which is administered by <sup>n</sup> Or, gift, us to the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your ready mind:

20 Avoiding this, that no man should blame us in this abundance which is administered by us:

21 <sup>n</sup> Providing for honest things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men.

22 And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have oftentimes proved diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, upon the great confidence which <sup>n</sup> I have in you.

23 Whether any do enquire of Titus, he is my partner, and fellow-helper concerning you: or our brethren be enquired of, they are <sup>o</sup> the messengers of the churches, and the glory of Christ.

24 Wherefore shew ye to them, and before the churches, the proof of your love, and of our <sup>p</sup> boasting on your behalf.

CHAP. IX.

1 He yieldeth the reason why, though he knew their forwardness, yet he sent Titus and his brethren beforehand: 6 and he proceedeth in stirring them up to a bountiful alms, as being but a kind of sowing of seed, 10 which shall return a great increase to them, 13 and occasion a great sacrifice of thanksgivings unto God.

FOR as touching <sup>a</sup> the ministering to the saints, it is superfluous for me to write to you:

2 For I know the forwardness of your mind, <sup>b</sup> for which I boast of you to them of Macedonia, that <sup>c</sup> Achaia was ready a year ago; and your zeal hath provoked very many.

3 Yet have I sent the brethren, lest our boasting of you should be in vain in this behalf; that as I said, ye may be ready:

4 Lest haply if they of Macedonia come with me, and find you unprepared, we (that we say not, ye) should be ashamed in this same confident boasting.

5 Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren, that they would go before unto you, and make up beforehand your † bounty, <sup>n</sup> whereof ye had notice before, that the same might be ready, as a matter of bounty, and not as of covetousness.

CHAP. X.

1 Against the false apostles, who disgraced the weakness of his person and bodily presence, he setteth out the spiritual might and authority with which he is armed against all adversary powers; 7 assuring them that at his coming he will be found as mighty in word, as he is now in writing being absent: 12 and withal taxing them for reaching out themselves beyond their compass, and vaunting themselves into other men's labours.

NOW <sup>a</sup> I Paul myself beseech you, by the meekness and gentleness of Christ, who <sup>b</sup> in presence am base among you, but being absent am bold toward you.

2 But I beseech you, <sup>b</sup> that I may not be bold when I am present, with that confidence wherewith I think to be bold against some which <sup>c</sup> think of us, as if we walked according to the flesh.

3 For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh:

4 (<sup>c</sup> For the weapons <sup>d</sup> of our warfare are not carnal, but <sup>e</sup> mighty <sup>f</sup> through God <sup>g</sup> to the pulling down of strong holds;)

5 Casting down <sup>h</sup> imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ;

6 And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when <sup>i</sup> your obedience is fulfilled.

7 Do ye look on things after the outward appearance? <sup>h</sup> if any man trust to himself, that he is Christ's, let him of himself think this again, that as he is Christ's, even so are <sup>i</sup> we Christ's.

8 For though I should boast somewhat more <sup>k</sup> of our authority which the Lord hath given us for edification, and not for your destruction, <sup>l</sup> I should not be ashamed:

9 That I may not seem as if I would terrify you by letters.

10 For his letters † (say they) are weighty and powerful, but <sup>m</sup> his bodily presence is weak, and his speech contemptible.

11 Let such an one think this, that such as we are in word by letters when we are absent, such will we be also in deed when we are present.

12 <sup>n</sup> For we dare not make ourselves of the number, or compare ourselves with some that commend themselves: but they measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves amongst themselves, <sup>o</sup> are not wise.

13 But we will not boast of things without our measure, but according to the measure of the <sup>p</sup> rule which God hath distributed to us, a measure to reach even unto you.

14 For we stretch not ourselves beyond our measure, as though we reached not unto you: for we are come as far as to you also, in preaching the gospel of Christ:

15 Not boasting of things without our measure, that is, <sup>q</sup> of other men's labours; but having hope, when your faith is increased, that we shall be <sup>r</sup> enlarged by you according to our rule abundantly,

16 To preach the gospel in the regions beyond you, and not to boast in another man's <sup>s</sup> line of things made ready to our hand.

17 <sup>t</sup> But he that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

18 For <sup>u</sup> not he that commendeth himself is approved, but <sup>v</sup> whom the Lord commendeth.

dation of himself, 5 of his equality with the chief apostles, 7 of his preaching the gospel to them freely, and without any their charge: 13 shewing that he was not inferior to those deceitful workers, in any legal prerogative; 23 and in the service of Christ, and in all kind of sufferings for his ministry, far superior.

Would to God ye could bear with me a little in <sup>a</sup>my folly: and indeed I bear with me.

2 For I am <sup>b</sup>jealous over you with godly jealousy: for <sup>c</sup>I have espoused you to one husband, <sup>d</sup>that I may present you <sup>e</sup>as a chaste virgin to Christ.

3 But I fear lest by any means, as <sup>f</sup>the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds <sup>g</sup>should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.

4 For if he that cometh, preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or <sup>h</sup>if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or <sup>i</sup>another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear <sup>j</sup>with him.

5 For I suppose <sup>k</sup>I was not a whit behind the very chiefest apostles.

6 But though <sup>l</sup>I be rude in speech, yet not <sup>m</sup>in knowledge; but <sup>n</sup>we have been thoroughly made manifest among you in all things.

7 Have I committed an offence <sup>o</sup>in abusing myself that ye might be exalted, because I have preached to you the gospel of God freely?

8 I robbed other churches, taking wages of them, to do you service.

9 And when I was present with you, and wanted, <sup>p</sup>I was chargeable to no man: for that which was lacking to me, <sup>q</sup>the brethren which came from Macedonia supplied: and in all things I have kept myself <sup>r</sup>from being burdensome unto you, and <sup>s</sup>so will I keep myself.

10 <sup>t</sup>As the truth of Christ is in me, <sup>u</sup>no man shall stop me of this boasting in the regions of Achaia.

11 Wherefore? because I love you not? God knoweth.

12 But what I do, that I will do, <sup>v</sup>that I may cut off occasion from them which desire occasion; that wherein they glory, they may be found even as we.

13 For such <sup>w</sup>are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ.

14 And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into <sup>x</sup>an angel of light.

15 Therefore <sup>y</sup>it is no great thing, if his ministers also be transformed as the <sup>z</sup>ministers of righteousness; <sup>a</sup>whose end shall be according to their works.

16 <sup>b</sup>I say again, Let no man think me a fool; if otherwise, yet as a fool <sup>c</sup>I receive me, that I may boast myself a little.

17 That which I speak, <sup>d</sup>I speak it not after the Lord, but as it were foolishly <sup>e</sup>in this confidence of boasting.

18 <sup>f</sup>Seeing that many glory after the flesh, I will glory also.

19 For ye suffer fools gladly, seeing ye yourselves are wise.

20 For ye suffer if a man bring you into bondage, if a man devour you, if a man take of you, if a man exalt himself, if a man smite you on the face.

21 I speak as concerning reproach, <sup>g</sup>as though we had been weak. Howbeit, wherein soever any is bold, (I speak foolishly) I am bold also.

22 Are they Hebrews? <sup>h</sup>so am I. Are they Israelites? <sup>i</sup>so am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? <sup>j</sup>so am I.

23 Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak as a fool) <sup>k</sup>I am more; <sup>l</sup>in labours more abundant, in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequent, <sup>m</sup>in deaths oft.

24 Of the Jews five times received I <sup>n</sup>forty stripes save one.

25 Thrice was I <sup>o</sup>beaten with rods, once was I stoned, thrice I <sup>p</sup>suffered shipwreck, a night and a day I have been in the deep;

26 In journeyings often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils by mine own countrymen, in perils by the heathen, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren;

27 In weariness and painfulness, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness.

28 Besides those things that are without, that which cometh upon me daily, <sup>q</sup>the care of all the churches.

29 <sup>r</sup>Who is weak, and I am not weak? who is offended, and I burn not?

30 If I must needs glory, <sup>s</sup>I will glory of the things which concern mine infirmities.

31 <sup>t</sup>The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>u</sup>which is blessed for evermore, knoweth that I lie not.

CHAP. XII.

I For commending of his apostleship, though he might glory of his wonderful revelations, 9 yet he rather chooseth to glory of his infirmities, 11 blaming them for forcing him to this vain boasting: 14 he promiseth to come to them again; but yet altogether in the affection of a father, 20 although he feareth he shall to his grief find many offenders; and publick disorders there.

IT is not expedient for me doubtless to glory. † I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.

2 I knew a man in Christ above fourteen years ago, (whether in the body, I cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;) such an one <sup>a</sup> caught up to the third heaven.

3 And I knew such a man, (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth:)

4 How that he was caught up into paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not ‡ lawful for a man to utter.

5 Of such an one will I glory: <sup>b</sup> yet of myself I will not glory, but in mine infirmities.

6 For <sup>c</sup> though I would desire to glory, I shall not be a fool; for I will say the truth: but now I forbear, lest any man should think of me above that which he seeth me to be, or that he heareth of me.

7 And lest I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a <sup>d</sup> thorn in the flesh, the messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure.

8 <sup>e</sup> For this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me.

9 And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

10 Therefore <sup>f</sup> I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong.

11 I am become <sup>g</sup> a fool in glorying; ye have compelled me: for I ought to have been commended of you: for <sup>h</sup> in nothing am I behind the very chiefest apostles, though <sup>i</sup> I be nothing.

12 <sup>k</sup> Truly the signs of an apostle were wrought among you in all patience, in signs and wonders, and mighty deeds.

13 For what is it wherein ye were inferior to other churches, except it be that <sup>l</sup> I myself was not burdensome to you? for-

14 <sup>m</sup> Behold, the third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be burdensome to you. For <sup>n</sup> I seek not your's, but you. For the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children.

15 And <sup>o</sup> I will very gladly spend and be spent <sup>p</sup> for <sup>q</sup> you; though <sup>r</sup> the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved.

16 But be it so, <sup>s</sup> I did not burden you: nevertheless, being crafty, I caught you with guile.

17 <sup>t</sup> Did I make a gain of you by any of them whom I sent unto you?

18 <sup>u</sup> I desired Titus, and with him I sent a <sup>v</sup> brother. Did Titus make a gain of you? <sup>w</sup> walked we not in the same spirit? <sup>x</sup> walked we not in the same steps?

19 <sup>y</sup> Again, think ye that we excuse ourselves unto you? <sup>z</sup> we speak before God in Christ: but we do all things, dearly beloved, for your edifying.

20 For I fear lest when I come I shall not find you such as I would, and that <sup>a</sup> I shall be found unto you such as ye would not: lest there be debates, envyings, wraths, strifes, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, tumults:

21 And lest when I come again, my God will humble me among you, and that I shall bewail many which have sinned already, and have not repented of the uncleanness, and fornication, and lasciviousness which they have committed.

CHAP. XIII.

I He threateneth severity, and the power of his apostleship against obstinate sinners: 5 and advising them to a trial of their faith, 7 and to reformation of their sins before his coming, 11 he concludeth his epistle with a general exhortation and a prayer.

THIS is <sup>a</sup> the third time I am coming to you. <sup>b</sup> In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established.

2 <sup>c</sup> I told you before, and foretel you as if I were present <sup>d</sup> the second time; and being absent, now I write to them, <sup>e</sup> which heretofore have sinned, and to all other, that if I come again <sup>f</sup> I will not spare:

3 Since ye seek a proof of Christ's speaking in me, which to you-ward is not weak, but is mighty <sup>g</sup> in you.

4 <sup>h</sup> For though he was crucified through weakness, yet <sup>i</sup> he liveth by the power of God. For <sup>j</sup> we also are weak <sup>k</sup> in him, but we shall live with him by the power of God toward you.

CHAP. II.

<sup>1</sup> He sheweth when he went up again to Jerusalem, and for what purpose: <sup>3</sup> and that Titus was not circumcised: <sup>11</sup> and that he resisted Peter, and told him the reason, <sup>14</sup> why he and other, being Jews, do believe in Christ to be justified by faith, and not by works: <sup>20</sup> and that they live not in sin, who are so justified.

A. D. 52. <sup>2</sup> THEN fourteen years after <sup>a</sup> I went up again to Jerusalem, with Barnabas, and took Titus with me also.

<sup>2</sup> And I went up by revelation, <sup>b</sup> and communicated unto them that gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but || privately to them which were of reputation, lest by any means <sup>c</sup> I should run, or had run in vain.

<sup>4</sup> And that because of <sup>d</sup> false brethren unawares brought in, who came in privily to spy out our <sup>e</sup> liberty, which we have in Christ Jesus, <sup>f</sup> that they might bring us into bondage.

<sup>5</sup> To whom we gave place by subjection, no not for an hour; that <sup>g</sup> the truth of the gospel might continue with you.

<sup>6</sup> But of those, <sup>h</sup> who seemed to be somewhat (whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me: <sup>i</sup> God accepteth no man's person:) for they who seemed to be somewhat, <sup>k</sup> in conference added nothing to me:

<sup>9</sup> And when James, Cephas, and John, who seemed to be <sup>p</sup> pillars, perceived <sup>q</sup> the grace that was given unto me, they gave to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship; that we should go unto the heathen, and they unto the circumcision.

<sup>10</sup> Only they would that we should remember the poor; <sup>r</sup> the same which I also was forward to do.

<sup>11</sup> But when Peter was come to Antioch, I withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed.

<sup>12</sup> For before that certain came from James, <sup>s</sup> he did eat with the Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrew, and separated himself, fearing them which were of the circumcision.

<sup>13</sup> And the other Jews dissembled likewise with him; insomuch that Barnabas also was carried away with their dissimulation.

<sup>14</sup> But when I saw that they walked not uprightly, according to <sup>u</sup> the truth of the gospel, I said unto Peter <sup>v</sup> before them all, <sup>w</sup> If thou, being a Jew, livest after the manner of Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, why compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews?

<sup>17</sup> But if while we seek to be justified by Christ, we ourselves also are found <sup>e</sup> sinners, is therefore Christ the minister of sin? God forbid.

<sup>18</sup> For if I build again the things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor.

<sup>20</sup> I am <sup>i</sup> crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh, <sup>k</sup> I live by the faith of the Son of God, <sup>l</sup> who loved me, and gave himself for me.

<sup>21</sup> I do not frustrate the grace of God: for <sup>m</sup> if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain.

CHAP. III.

O Foolish Galatians, <sup>a</sup> who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you?

<sup>5</sup> He therefore <sup>e</sup> that ministereth to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doeth he it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

7 Know ye therefore, that <sup>s</sup> they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.

8 And <sup>h</sup> the scripture foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, <sup>i</sup> In thee shall all nations be blessed.

9 So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham.

10 For as many as are of the works of the law, are under the curse: for it is written, <sup>k</sup> Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them.

11 But <sup>l</sup> that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, <sup>m</sup> The just shall live by faith.

12 And <sup>n</sup> the law is not of faith: but, <sup>o</sup> The man that doeth them shall live in them.

13 <sup>p</sup> Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, <sup>q</sup> Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree:

14 That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive <sup>r</sup> the promise of the Spirit through faith.

15 Brethren, I speak after the manner of men; <sup>s</sup> Though it be but a man's || covenant, yet if it be confirmed, no man disannulleth, or addeth thereto.

16 Now <sup>t</sup> to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is <sup>u</sup> Christ.

17 And this I say, that the covenant that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the law <sup>x</sup> which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, <sup>y</sup> that it should make the promise of none effect.

18 For <sup>z</sup> if the inheritance be of the law, <sup>a</sup> it is no more of promise: but God gave it to Abraham by promise.

19 Wherefore then serveth the law? <sup>b</sup> It was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come, to whom the promise was made; and it was <sup>c</sup> ordained by angels in the hand <sup>d</sup> of a mediator.

20 Now a mediator is not a mediator of one; but God is one.

21 Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: for if there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law.

22 But <sup>e</sup> the scripture hath concluded <sup>f</sup> all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe.

23 But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed.

24 Wherefore <sup>g</sup> the law was our school-master, to bring us unto Christ, <sup>h</sup> that we might be justified by faith.

25 But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a school-master.

26 For ye <sup>i</sup> are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.

27 For <sup>k</sup> as many of you as have been baptized into Christ, <sup>l</sup> have put on Christ.

28 <sup>m</sup> There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all <sup>n</sup> one in Christ Jesus.

29 And <sup>o</sup> if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and <sup>p</sup> heirs according to the promise.

CHAP. IV.

1 We were under the law till Christ came, as the heir is under his guardian till he be of age. 5 But Christ freed us from the law: 7 therefore we are servants no longer to it: 14 he remembereth their good will to him, and his to them; 22 and sheweth that we are the sons of Abraham by the free woman.

NOW I say, that the heir as long as he is a child, differeth nothing from a servant, though he be lord of all;

2 But is under tutors and governors until the time appointed of the father.

3 Even so we, when we were children, were in bondage under <sup>a</sup> the || elements of the world:

4 But <sup>b</sup> when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son <sup>c</sup> made <sup>d</sup> of a woman, <sup>e</sup> made under the law,

5 To redeem them that were under the law, <sup>f</sup> that we might receive the adoption of sons.

6 And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth <sup>g</sup> the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father.

7 Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son; <sup>h</sup> and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ.

8 Howbeit, <sup>i</sup> then when ye knew not God, <sup>k</sup> ye did service unto them which by nature are no gods.

9 But now <sup>l</sup> after that ye have known God, or rather are known of God, <sup>m</sup> how turn ye || again to <sup>n</sup> the weak and beggarly || elements, whereunto ye desire again to be in bondage?

10 <sup>o</sup> Ye observe days, and months, and times, and years.

11 I am afraid of you, <sup>p</sup> lest I have bestowed upon you labour in vain.

12 Brethren, I beseech you, be as I am; 5.

ch. 5. 12, 13.

for I am as ye are: <sup>a</sup> ye have not injured me at all.

13 Ye know how <sup>r</sup> through infirmity of the flesh I preached the gospel unto you <sup>a</sup> at the first.

14 And my temptation which was in my flesh, ye despised not, nor rejected; but received me <sup>t</sup> as an angel of God, <sup>u</sup> even as Christ Jesus.

15 || Where is then the blessedness ye spake of? for I bear you record, that if it had been possible, ye would have plucked out your own eyes, and have given them to me.

16 Am I therefore become your enemy <sup>x</sup> because I tell you the truth?

17 They <sup>r</sup> zealously affect you, but not well; yea, they would exclude || you that ye might affect them.

18 But it is good to be zealously affected always in a good thing, and not only when I am present with you.

19 <sup>z</sup> My little children, of whom I travail in birth again until Christ be formed in you,

20 I desire to be present with you now, and to change my voice; for || I stand in doubt of you.

21 Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not hear the law?

22 For it is written, that Abraham had two sons, <sup>a</sup> the one by a bond-maid, <sup>b</sup> the other by a free-woman.

23 But he who was of the bond-woman, <sup>c</sup> was born after the flesh; but he of the free-woman was by promise.

24 Which things are an allegory: for these are the two || covenants; the one from the mount † Sinai, which gendereth to bondage, which is Agar.

25 For this Agar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and || answereth to Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children.

26 But <sup>d</sup> Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all.

27 For it is written, <sup>e</sup> Rejoice, thou barren that bearest not; break forth and cry, thou that travailest not: for the desolate hath many more children than she which hath an husband.

28 Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are <sup>f</sup> the children of promise.

29 But as then <sup>g</sup> he that was born after the flesh, persecuted him that was born after the Spirit, <sup>h</sup> even so it is now.

30 Nevertheless, what faith <sup>i</sup> the scripture? <sup>k</sup> Cast out the bond-woman and her son: for <sup>l</sup> the son of the bond-woman shall not be heir with the son of the free-woman.

31 So then, brethren, we are not children of the bond-woman, <sup>m</sup> but of the free.

CHAP. V.

1 He moveth them to stand in their liberty, 3 and not to observe circumcision; 13 but rather love, which is the sum of the law; 19 he reckoneth up the works of the flesh, 22 and the fruits of the Spirit; 25 and exhorteth to walk in the Spirit.

STand fast therefore in <sup>a</sup> the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again <sup>b</sup> with the yoke of bondage.

2 Behold, I Paul say unto you, that <sup>c</sup> if ye be circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing.

3 For I testify again to every man that is circumcised, that he is a debtor to do the whole law.

4 <sup>d</sup> Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; <sup>e</sup> ye are fallen from grace.

5 For we, through the Spirit, wait for <sup>f</sup> the hope of righteousness by faith.

6 For <sup>g</sup> in Jesus Christ, neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision; but <sup>h</sup> faith which worketh by love.

7 Ye <sup>i</sup> did run well, <sup>k</sup> || who did hinder you that ye should not obey the truth?

8 This persuasion cometh not of him <sup>l</sup> that calleth you.

9 <sup>m</sup> A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump.

10 <sup>n</sup> I have confidence in you, through the Lord, that ye will be none otherwise minded: but <sup>o</sup> he that troubleth you, <sup>p</sup> shall bear his judgement, whosoever he be.

11 <sup>q</sup> And I, brethren, if I yet preach circumcision, <sup>r</sup> why do I yet suffer persecution? then is <sup>s</sup> the offence of the cross ceased.

12 <sup>t</sup> I would they were even cut off <sup>u</sup> which trouble you.

13 For, brethren, ye have been called unto liberty; only <sup>v</sup> use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but <sup>w</sup> by love serve one another.

14 For <sup>x</sup> all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this; <sup>y</sup> Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

15 But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another.

16 This I say then, <sup>b</sup> Walk in the Spirit, and || ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh.

17 For <sup>c</sup> the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: <sup>d</sup> so that ye cannot do the things that ye would.

18 But <sup>e</sup> if ye be led by the Spirit, ye are not under the law.

19 Now <sup>f</sup> the works of the flesh are mani-

20 Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies,

21 Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that <sup>s</sup> they which do such things, shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

22 But <sup>h</sup> the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, <sup>i</sup> gentleness, <sup>k</sup> goodness, <sup>l</sup> faith,

23 Meekness, temperance: <sup>m</sup> against such there is no law.

24 And they that are Christ's <sup>n</sup> have crucified the flesh, with the || affections and lusts.

25 <sup>o</sup> If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.

26 <sup>p</sup> Let us not be desirous of vain glory, provoking one another, envying one another.

CHAP. VI.

<sup>q</sup> He moveth them to deal mildly with a brother that hath slipped, 2 and to bear one another's burden, 6 to be liberal to their teachers, 9 and not weary of well-doing: 12 he sheweth what they intend that preach circumcision: 14 he glorieth in nothing, save in the cross of Christ.

2 <sup>e</sup> Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil <sup>f</sup> the law of Christ.

3 For <sup>g</sup> if a man think himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself.

4 But <sup>h</sup> let every man prove his own work, and then shall he have rejoicing in himself alone, and <sup>i</sup> not in another.

5 For <sup>k</sup> every man shall bear his own burden.

6 <sup>l</sup> Let him that is taught in the word, communicate unto him that teacheth in all good things.

7 <sup>m</sup> Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for <sup>n</sup> whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.

8 <sup>o</sup> For he that soweth to his flesh, shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit, shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting.

9 And <sup>p</sup> let us not be weary in well-doing: for in due season we shall reap, <sup>q</sup> if we faint not.

10 <sup>r</sup> As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, <sup>s</sup> especially unto them who are of the household of faith.

11 Ye see how large a letter I have written unto you with mine own hand.

12 As many as desire to make a fair shew in the flesh, <sup>u</sup> they constrain you to be circumcised; <sup>v</sup> only lest they should <sup>w</sup> suffer persecution for the cross of Christ.

13 For neither they themselves who are circumcised keep the law; but desire to have you circumcised, that they may glory in your flesh.

14 <sup>x</sup> But God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>y</sup> by whom the world is <sup>z</sup> crucified unto me, and I unto the world.

15 For <sup>b</sup> in Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but <sup>c</sup> a new creature.

16 <sup>d</sup> And as many as walk <sup>e</sup> according to this rule, peace <sup>f</sup> be on them, and mercy, and upon <sup>g</sup> the Israel of God.

17 From henceforth let no man trouble me: for <sup>h</sup> I bear in my body the marks of the Lord Jesus.

18 Brethren, the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ <sup>i</sup> be with your spirit. Amen.

¶ Unto the Galatians, written from Rome.

The Epistle of PAUL the Apostle to the EPHESIANS.

CHAP. I.

<sup>1</sup> After the salutation, 3 and thanksgiving for the Ephesians, 4 he treateth of our election, 6 and adoption by grace, 11 which is the true and proper fountain of man's salvation. 13 And because the height of this mystery cannot easily be attained unto, 16 he prayeth that they may come 18 to the full knowledge, 20 and possession thereof in Christ.

PAUL an apostle of Jesus Christ, <sup>a</sup> by the will of God, <sup>b</sup> to the saints which are at Ephesus, <sup>c</sup> and to the faithful in Christ Jesus:

2 <sup>d</sup> Grace <sup>e</sup> be to you, and peace from God our Father, and <sup>f</sup> from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 <sup>g</sup> Blessed <sup>h</sup> be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly <sup>i</sup> places in Christ:

4 According as <sup>j</sup> he hath chosen us in him, <sup>k</sup> before the foundation of the world, that we should <sup>l</sup> be holy, and without blame before him in love:

CHAP. II.

1 By comparing what we were by 3 nature, with what we are 5 by grace, 10 he declareth that we are made for good works; 13 and being brought near by Christ, should not live as 11 Gentiles and 12 foreigners in time past, 19 but as citizens with the saints and the family of God.

AND <sup>a</sup> you hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins;

2 <sup>b</sup> Wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to <sup>c</sup> the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in <sup>d</sup> the children of disobedience:

3 <sup>e</sup> Among whom also we all had our conversation in times past, in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling <sup>f</sup> the desires of the flesh, and of the mind; and <sup>g</sup> were by nature the children of wrath, even as others.

4 But God, <sup>h</sup> who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us,

5 <sup>i</sup> Even when we were dead in sins, hath <sup>j</sup> quickened us together with Christ, (<sup>k</sup> by grace ye are saved;)

6 And hath raised us up together, and made us fit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus:

7 That in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace, in his kindness towards us, through Christ Jesus.

8 <sup>k</sup> For by grace are ye saved, <sup>l</sup> through faith; and that not of yourselves: <sup>m</sup> it is the gift of God:

9 <sup>n</sup> Not of works, lest any man should boast.

10 For we are <sup>o</sup> his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before <sup>p</sup> ordained that we should walk in them.

11 Wherefore <sup>q</sup> remember that ye being in time passed Gentiles in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision by that which is called the Circumcision in the flesh <sup>r</sup> made by hands;

12 <sup>s</sup> That at that time ye were without Christ, <sup>t</sup> being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from <sup>u</sup> the covenants of promise, having no hope, <sup>v</sup> and without God in the world:

13 <sup>x</sup> But now in Christ Jesus, ye, who sometimes were far off, are made nigh by the blood of Christ.

14 For <sup>1</sup> he is our peace, <sup>2</sup> who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us;

15 (<sup>1</sup> Having abolished <sup>2</sup> in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments, contained in ordinances, for to make in himself, of twain, one <sup>3</sup> new man, so making peace;

16 And that he might reconcile both unto God <sup>4</sup> in one body by the cross, <sup>5</sup> having slain the enmity <sup>6</sup> thereby:)

17 And came <sup>7</sup> and preached peace to you which were afar off, and to <sup>8</sup> them that were nigh.

18 For <sup>9</sup> through him we both have access by one Spirit unto the Father.

19 Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but <sup>1</sup> fellow-citizens with the saints, and of <sup>2</sup> the household of God;

20 And are <sup>1</sup> built <sup>2</sup> upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being <sup>3</sup> the chief corner-stone;

21 <sup>4</sup> In whom all the building fitly framed together, groweth unto <sup>5</sup> an holy temple in the Lord:

22 <sup>6</sup> In whom ye also are builded together for an habitation of God through the Spirit.

CHAP. III.

5 The hidden mystery, 6 that the Gentiles should be saved, 3 was made known to Paul by revelation: 8 and to him was that grace given, 9 that he should preach it: 13 he desireth them not to faint for his tribulation, 14 and prayeth 19 that they may perceive the great love of Christ toward them.

FOR this cause, I Paul, <sup>1</sup> the prisoner of Jesus Christ <sup>2</sup> for you Gentiles;

2 If ye have heard of <sup>3</sup> the dispensation of the grace of God <sup>4</sup> which is given me to you-ward:

3 <sup>5</sup> How that <sup>6</sup> by revelation <sup>7</sup> he made known unto me the mystery (<sup>8</sup> as I wrote <sup>9</sup> afore in few words,

4 Whereby when ye read ye may understand my knowledge <sup>1</sup> in the mystery of Christ,)

5 <sup>2</sup> Which in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men, <sup>3</sup> as it is now revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit;

6 That the Gentiles <sup>1</sup> should be fellow-heirs, and <sup>2</sup> of the same body, and <sup>3</sup> partakers of his promise in Christ, by the Gospel:

7 Whereof I was made a minister, <sup>1</sup> according to the gift of the grace of God given unto me, by <sup>2</sup> the effectual working of his power.

8 Unto me, <sup>1</sup> who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that <sup>2</sup> I should preach among the Gentiles <sup>3</sup> the unsearchable riches of Christ;

9 And to make all men see, what is the fellowship of <sup>1</sup> the mystery, <sup>2</sup> which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, <sup>3</sup> who created all things by Jesus Christ:

10 <sup>4</sup> To the intent that now <sup>5</sup> unto the principalities and powers in heavenly places <sup>6</sup> might be known, by the church, the manifold wisdom of God,

11 <sup>7</sup> According to the eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord:

12 In whom we have boldness and <sup>1</sup> access <sup>2</sup> with confidence by the faith of him.

13 <sup>3</sup> Wherefore I desire that ye faint not at my tribulations <sup>4</sup> for you, which is your glory.

14 For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,

15 Of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named,

16 That he would grant you, <sup>1</sup> according to the riches of his glory, <sup>2</sup> to be strengthened with might, by his Spirit in <sup>3</sup> the inner man;

17 That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye <sup>1</sup> being rooted and grounded in love,

18 May be able to comprehend with all saints, <sup>1</sup> what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height;

19 And to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled <sup>1</sup> with all the fulness of God.

20 Now <sup>2</sup> unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us,

21 Unto him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus, throughout all ages, world without end. Amen.

CHAP. IV.

1 He exhorteth to unity; 7 and declareth that God therefore giveth divers 11 gifts unto men, that his church might be 13 edified and 16 grown up in Christ: 18 he calleth them from the impurity of the Gentiles, 24 to put on the new man, 25 to cast off lying, 29 and corrupt communication.

I Therefore <sup>1</sup> the prisoner <sup>2</sup> of the Lord, beseech you that ye <sup>3</sup> walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called,

2 <sup>4</sup> With all lowliness and meekness, with long-suffering, forbearing one another in love;

24, 26.3 Endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit <sup>d</sup> in the bond of peace.4 <sup>e</sup> There is one body, and <sup>f</sup> one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling;5 <sup>g</sup> One Lord, one faith, <sup>h</sup> one baptism,6 <sup>i</sup> One God and Father of all, who is above all, and <sup>k</sup> through all, and in you all.7 But <sup>l</sup> unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ.8 Wherefore he saith, <sup>m</sup> When he ascended up on high, <sup>n</sup> he led || captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men.9 (<sup>o</sup> Now that he ascended, what is it but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth?10 He that descended, is the same also that ascended up far above all heavens, <sup>p</sup> that he might || fill all things.)11 <sup>q</sup> And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, <sup>r</sup> evangelists; and some, <sup>s</sup> pastors, and <sup>t</sup> teachers;12 For the perfecting of the faints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of <sup>u</sup> the body of Christ:13 Till we all come || in the unity of the faith, <sup>x</sup> and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the <sup>y</sup> stature of the fulness of Christ:14 That we henceforth be no more <sup>z</sup> children, <sup>a</sup> tossed to and fro, and carried about with every <sup>b</sup> wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive;15 But <sup>c</sup> || speaking the truth in love, <sup>d</sup> may grow up into him in all things, <sup>e</sup> which is the head, even Christ:16 <sup>f</sup> From whom the whole body fitly joined together, and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body, unto the edifying of itself in love.17 This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that <sup>g</sup> ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk <sup>h</sup> in the vanity of their mind,18 Having the understanding darkened, <sup>i</sup> being alienated from the life of God, through the ignorance that is in them, because of the <sup>j</sup> blindness of their heart:19 <sup>k</sup> Who being past feeling <sup>l</sup> have given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness.

20 But ye have not so learned Christ;

21 If so be that ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus:

22 That ye <sup>m</sup> put off concerning <sup>n</sup> the former conversation <sup>o</sup> the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts;23 And <sup>p</sup> be renewed in the spirit of your mind;24 And that ye <sup>q</sup> put on the new man, which after God <sup>r</sup> is created in righteousness and || true holiness.25 Wherefore putting away lying, <sup>s</sup> speak every man truth with his neighbour: for <sup>t</sup> we are members one of another.26 <sup>u</sup> Be ye angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath:27 <sup>v</sup> Neither give place to the devil.28 Let him that stole steal no more: but rather <sup>w</sup> let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have <sup>x</sup> to give <sup>y</sup> to him that needeth.29 <sup>z</sup> Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but <sup>a</sup> that which is good || to the use of edifying, <sup>b</sup> that it may minister grace unto the hearers.30 And <sup>c</sup> grieve not the holy Spirit of God, <sup>d</sup> whereby ye are sealed unto the day of <sup>e</sup> redemption.31 <sup>f</sup> Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil-speaking, be put away from you, <sup>g</sup> with all malice:32 And <sup>h</sup> be ye kind one to another, tender-hearted, <sup>i</sup> forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you.

CHAP. V.

2 After general exhortations to love, 3 to flee fornication, 4 and all uncleanness, 7 not to converse with the wicked, 15 to walk warily, and to be 18 filled with the Spirit, 22 he descendeth to the particular duties, how wives ought to obey their husbands, 25 and husbands ought to love their wives, 32 even as Christ his church.

BE <sup>a</sup> ye therefore followers of God, as dear children;2 And <sup>b</sup> walk in love, <sup>c</sup> as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us, an offering and a sacrifice to God <sup>d</sup> for a sweet-smelling favour.3 But <sup>e</sup> fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, <sup>f</sup> let it not be once named amongst you, as becometh saints;4 <sup>g</sup> Neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, <sup>h</sup> which are not convenient: but rather giving of thanks.5 For this ye know, that <sup>i</sup> no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man <sup>j</sup> who is an idolater, <sup>k</sup> hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God.6 <sup>l</sup> Let no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things <sup>a</sup> cometh the wrath of God <sup>o</sup> upon the children of || disobedience.

7 Be not ye therefore partakers with them.

8 <sup>p</sup> For ye were sometimes darkness, but now <sup>a</sup> are ye light in the Lord: walk as <sup>r</sup> children of light:

9 (For <sup>a</sup> the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness, and righteousness, and truth;)

10 Proving <sup>t</sup> what is acceptable unto the Lord.

11 And <sup>u</sup> have no fellowship with * the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them.

12 <sup>y</sup> For it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done of them in secret.

13 But * all things that are || reprov'd, are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light.

14 Wherefore || he saith, <sup>a</sup> Awake thou that sleepest, and <sup>b</sup> arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light.

15 <sup>c</sup> See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise,

16 <sup>d</sup> Redeeming the time, <sup>e</sup> because the days are evil.

17 <sup>f</sup> Wherefore be ye not unwise, but <sup>g</sup> understanding <sup>h</sup> what the will of the Lord is.

18 And <sup>i</sup> be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled with the Spirit;

19 Speaking to yourselves <sup>k</sup> in psalms, and hymns, and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord;

20 <sup>l</sup> Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father, <sup>m</sup> in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ;

21 <sup>n</sup> Submitting yourselves one to another <sup>o</sup> in the fear of God.

22 <sup>o</sup> Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, <sup>p</sup> as unto the Lord.

23 For <sup>q</sup> the husband is the head of the wife, even as <sup>r</sup> Christ is the head of the church: and he is the Saviour of <sup>s</sup> the body.

24 Therefore, as the church is subject unto Christ, so <sup>t</sup> let the wives be to their own husbands <sup>u</sup> in every thing.

25 <sup>v</sup> Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and <sup>x</sup> gave himself for it;

26 That he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water, <sup>y</sup> by the word,

27 That he might present it to himself a glorious church, <sup>a</sup> not having spot or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy, <sup>b</sup> and without blemish.

28 So ought men to love their wives, as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife, loveth himself.

29 For no man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the church:

30 For <sup>c</sup> we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones.

31 <sup>d</sup> For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they <sup>e</sup> two shall be one flesh.

32 This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and the church.

33 Nevertheless, let every one of you in particular, so love his wife even as himself; and the wife see that she reverence her husband.

CHAP. VI.

1 The duty of children toward their parents, 5 of servants toward their masters. 10 Our life is a warfare, 12 not only against flesh and blood, but also spiritual enemies. 13 The compleat armour of a Christian, 18 and how it ought to be used. 21 Tychicus is commended.

Children, <sup>a</sup> obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right.

2 <sup>b</sup> Honour thy father and mother (which is the first commandment with promise,)

3 That it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth.

4 And, <sup>c</sup> ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but <sup>d</sup> bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

5 <sup>e</sup> Servants, be obedient to them that are your masters according to the flesh, <sup>f</sup> with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as unto Christ;

6 <sup>g</sup> Not with eye-service, as men-pleasers, but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart;

7 <sup>h</sup> With good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men:

8 <sup>i</sup> Knowing that whatsoever good thing any man doeth, the same shall he receive of the Lord, <sup>k</sup> whether he be bond, or free.

9 And, ye <sup>l</sup> masters, do the same things unto them, || forbearing threatening: knowing that || your Master also is in heaven; <sup>m</sup> neither is there respect of persons with him.

10 Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and <sup>n</sup> in the power of his might.

11 <sup>o</sup> Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.

12 For we wrestle not against <sup>t</sup> flesh and 13 Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.

22 Whom I have sent unto you for the same purpose, that ye might know our affairs, and that he might comfort your hearts.

23 Peace be to the brethren, and love with faith from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

24 Grace be with all them that love our Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity. Amen.

CHAP. I.

3 He testifieth his thankfulness to God, and his love toward them, for the fruits of their faith, and fellowship in his sufferings, 9 daily praying to him for their increase in grace: 12 he sheweth what good the faith of Christ had received by his troubles at Rome, 21 and how ready he is to glorify Christ, either by his life or death: 27 exhorting them to unity, 28 and to fortitude in persecution.

PAUL and Timotheus the servants of Jesus Christ, to all the saints in Christ Jesus which are at Philippi, with the bishops and deacons:

2 Grace be unto you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 I thank my God upon every remembrance of you,

4 Always in every prayer of mine for you all making request with joy,

5 For your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now;

6 Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you, will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ:

7 Even as it is meet for me to think this of you all, because I have you in my heart; inasmuch as both in my bonds, and in the defence and confirmation of the gospel, ye all are partakers of my grace.

8 For God is my record, how greatly I long after you all in the bowels of Jesus Christ.

9 And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge, and in all judgement;

10 That ye may approve things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere and without offence till the day of Christ;

11 Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God.

12 But I would ye should understand, brethren, that the things which happened unto me, have fallen out rather unto the furtherance of the gospel;

13 So that my bonds in Christ are manifest in all the palace, and in all other places;

14 And many of the brethren in the Lord waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.

15 Some indeed preach Christ even of envy and strife; and some also of good will:

16 The one preach Christ of contention, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my bonds:

17 But the other of love, knowing that I am set for the defence of the gospel.

18 What then? notwithstanding every way, whether in pretence, or in truth, Christ is preached; and I therein do rejoice, yea, and will rejoice.

19 For I know that this shall turn to my salvation through your prayer, and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ,

20 According to my earnest expectation, and my hope, that in nothing I shall be a-

Anno DOMINI

shamed, but that with all boldness, as always so now also Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life or by death.

21 For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.

22 But if I live in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labour: yet what I shall choose, I wot not.

23 For <sup>22</sup> I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ; which is far better:

24 Nevertheless, to abide in the flesh, is more needful for you.

25 And <sup>24</sup> having this confidence, I know that I shall abide and continue with you all, for your furtherance and joy of faith;

26 That <sup>25</sup> your rejoicing may be more abundant in Jesus Christ for me, by my coming to you again.

27 Only <sup>26</sup> let your conversation be as it becometh the gospel of Christ: that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, <sup>27</sup> that ye stand fast in one spirit, with one mind, <sup>28</sup> striving together for the faith of the gospel;

28 And in nothing terrified by your adversaries: <sup>29</sup> which is to them an evident token of perdition, <sup>30</sup> but to you of salvation, and that of God.

29 For unto you <sup>30</sup> it is given in the behalf of Christ, <sup>31</sup> not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake;

30 <sup>32</sup> Having the same conflict <sup>33</sup> which ye saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

CHAP. II:

1 He exhorteth them to unity, and to all humbleness of mind, by the example of Christ's humility and exaltation: 12 to a careful proceeding in the way of salvation, that they be as lights to the wicked world, 16 and comforts to him their apostle, who is now ready to be offered up to God: 19 he hopeth to send Timothy to them, whom he greatly commendeth, 25 as Epaphroditus also, whom he presently sendeth to them.

IF there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, <sup>2</sup> if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any bowels and mercies,

2 Fulfil ye my joy, <sup>3</sup> that ye be like-minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind.

3 <sup>4</sup> Let nothing be done through strife, or vain-glory, but <sup>5</sup> in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves.

4 <sup>6</sup> Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others.

5 <sup>7</sup> Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:

6 Who <sup>7</sup> being in the form of God, <sup>8</sup> thought it not robbery to be equal with God:

7 <sup>9</sup> But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form <sup>10</sup> of a servant, and <sup>11</sup> was made in the <sup>12</sup> likeness of men:

8 And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and <sup>9</sup> became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.

9 Wherefore God also <sup>10</sup> hath highly exalted him, and <sup>11</sup> given him a name which is above every name:

10 <sup>12</sup> That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth;

11 And <sup>13</sup> that every tongue should confess, that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

12 Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence; work out your own salvation <sup>14</sup> with fear and trembling.

13 For <sup>15</sup> it is God which worketh in you, both to will and to do of his good pleasure.

14 Do all things <sup>16</sup> without murmurings, and disputings:

15 That ye may be blameless and <sup>17</sup> harmless, <sup>18</sup> the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst <sup>19</sup> of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom <sup>20</sup> ye shine as lights in the world:

16 Holding forth the word of life; that <sup>21</sup> I may rejoice in the day of Christ, that <sup>22</sup> I have not run in vain, neither laboured in vain.

17 Yea, and if <sup>23</sup> I be <sup>24</sup> offered upon the sacrifice <sup>25</sup> and service of your faith, <sup>26</sup> I joy, and rejoice with you all.

18 For the same cause also do ye joy, and rejoice with me.

19 <sup>27</sup> But I trust in the Lord Jesus, to send <sup>28</sup> Timotheus shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state.

20 For I have no man <sup>29</sup> <sup>30</sup> like-minded, who will naturally care for your state.

21 For all <sup>31</sup> seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ's.

22 But ye know the proof of him, <sup>32</sup> that as a son with the father, he hath served with me in the gospel.

23 Him therefore I hope to send presently, so soon as I shall see how <sup>33</sup> it will go with me.

24 But <sup>34</sup> I trust in the Lord, that I also myself shall come shortly.

25 Yet I supposed it necessary to send to you <sup>35</sup> Epaphroditus, my brother and companion in labour, and <sup>1</sup> fellow-soldier, <sup>m</sup> but your messenger, and <sup>n</sup> he that ministered to my wants.

26 <sup>o</sup> For he longed after you all, and was full of heaviness, because that ye had heard that he had been sick.

27 For indeed he was sick nigh unto death: but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow.

28 I sent him therefore the more carefully, that when ye see him again, ye may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful.

29 Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladness; and <sup>p</sup> hold such in reputation:

30 Because for the work of Christ he was nigh unto death, not regarding his life <sup>q</sup> to supply your lack of service toward me.

CHAP. III.

1 He warneth them to beware of the false teachers of the circumcision, 4 shewing that himself hath greater cause than they to trust in the righteousness of the law: 7 which notwithstanding he counteth as dung and loss, to gain Christ and his righteousness, 12 therein acknowledging his own imperfection: 15 he exhorteth them to be thus minded, 17 and to imitate him, 18 and to decline the ways of carnal christians.

Finally, my brethren, <sup>a</sup> rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not grievous, but for you it is safe.

2 <sup>b</sup> Beware of dogs, beware of <sup>c</sup> evil workers, <sup>d</sup> beware of the concision.

3 For we are <sup>e</sup> the circumcision, <sup>f</sup> which worship God in the spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh:

4 Though <sup>g</sup> I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that he hath whereof he might trust in the flesh, I more:

5 <sup>h</sup> Circumcised the eighth day, <sup>i</sup> of the stock of Israel, <sup>k</sup> of the tribe of Benjamin, an Hebrew of the Hebrews; as touching the law, <sup>l</sup> a Pharisee;

6 <sup>m</sup> Concerning zeal, <sup>n</sup> persecuting the church; <sup>o</sup> touching the righteousness which is in the law, blameless.

7 But <sup>p</sup> what things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ.

8 Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss, <sup>q</sup> for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung that I may win Christ,

9 And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, <sup>r</sup> which is of the law, but <sup>s</sup> that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:

10 That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and <sup>t</sup> the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death;

11 If by any means I might attain unto the resurrection of the dead:

12 Not as though I had already <sup>u</sup> attained, either were already <sup>v</sup> perfect; but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ Jesus.

13 Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, <sup>y</sup> forgetting those things which are behind, and <sup>z</sup> reaching forth unto those things which are before,

14 I press toward the mark, for the prize of <sup>a</sup> the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

15 Let us therefore, as many as be <sup>b</sup> perfect, be thus minded: and if in any thing ye be otherwise minded, God shall reveal even this unto you.

16 Nevertheless, whereto we have already attained, <sup>c</sup> let us walk <sup>d</sup> by the same rule, <sup>e</sup> let us mind the same thing.

17 Brethren, <sup>f</sup> be followers together of me, and mark them which walk so, as <sup>g</sup> ye have us for an ensample.

18 (For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are <sup>h</sup> the enemies of the cross of Christ:

20 For <sup>n</sup> our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we <sup>o</sup> look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ:

21 <sup>p</sup> Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able <sup>q</sup> even to subdue all things unto himself.

CHAP. IV.

1 From particular admonitions, 4 he proceedeth to general exhortations, 10 shewing how he rejoiced at their liberality towards him lying in prison, not so much for the supply of his own wants, as for the grace of God in them: 19 and so he concludeth with prayer and salutations.

Therefore, my brethren, dearly beloved and <sup>a</sup> longed for, <sup>b</sup> my joy and <sup>c</sup> crown, so stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved.

2 I beseech Euodias, and I beseech Syntyche, that they be of the same mind in the Lord.

3 And I intreat thee also, true yoke-fellow, help those women which <sup>d</sup>laboured with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and with other my fellow-labourers, whose names <sup>e</sup>are in <sup>e</sup>the book of life.

4 <sup>f</sup>Rejoice in the Lord alway: and again I say, Rejoice.

5 Let your moderation be known unto all men. <sup>g</sup>The Lord is at hand.

6 <sup>h</sup>Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known unto God.

7 And <sup>i</sup>the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

9 <sup>l</sup>Those things which ye have both learned and received, and heard and seen in me, do: and <sup>m</sup>the God of peace shall be with you.

10 But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now at the last <sup>n</sup>your care of me <sup>n</sup>hath flourished again; wherein ye were also careful, but ye lacked opportunity.

11 Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned in whatsoever state I am, <sup>o</sup>therewith to be content.

12 <sup>p</sup>I know both <sup>p</sup>how to be abased, and I know <sup>p</sup>how to abound: every where, and in all things I am instructed, both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound, and to suffer need.

13 I can do all things <sup>q</sup>through Christ which strengtheneth me.

14 Notwithstanding, ye have well done that <sup>r</sup>ye did communicate with my affliction.

15 Now ye Philippians know also, that in the beginning of the gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, <sup>s</sup>no church communicated with me, as concerning giving and receiving, but ye only.

16 For even in Thessalonica, ye sent once and again unto my necessity.

17 Not because I desire a gift: but I desire <sup>t</sup>fruit that may abound to your account.

18 But <sup>u</sup>I have all, and abound: I am full, having received <sup>u</sup>of Epaphroditus the things <sup>u</sup>which were sent from you, <sup>u</sup>an odour of a sweet smell, <sup>u</sup>a sacrifice acceptable, well-pleasing to God.

19 But my God <sup>v</sup>shall supply all your need <sup>v</sup>according to his riches in glory, by Christ Jesus.

20 Now unto God and our Father <sup>w</sup>be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

21 Salute every saint in Christ Jesus. The brethren <sup>x</sup>which are with me greet you.

22 All the saints salute you, <sup>y</sup>chiefly they that are of Cesar's household.

23 <sup>z</sup>The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ <sup>z</sup>be with you all. Amen.

¶ It was written to the Philippians from Rome, by Epaphroditus.

The Epistle of PAUL the Apostle to the COLOSSIANS.

CHAP. I.

1 After salutation, he thanketh God for their faith, 7 confirmeth the doctrine of Epaphras, 9 prayeth further for their increase in grace, 14 describeth the true Christ; 21 encourageth them to receive Jesus Christ; and commendeth his own ministry.

PAUL an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timotheus our brother,

2 <sup>a</sup>To the saints <sup>b</sup>and faithful brethren in Christ, which are at Colosse: <sup>c</sup>Grace <sup>c</sup>be unto you, and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 <sup>d</sup>We give thanks to God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you;

4 <sup>e</sup>Since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love <sup>e</sup>which ye have to all the saints;

5 For the hope <sup>f</sup>which is laid up for you in heaven, whereof ye heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel;

6 Which is come unto you, <sup>g</sup>as it is in all the world; and <sup>h</sup>bringeth forth fruit, as it doth also in you, since the day ye heard of it, and knew the grace of God in truth:

7 As ye also learned of <sup>i</sup>Epaphras our dear fellow-servant, who is for you <sup>k</sup>a faithful minister of Christ;

8 Who also declared unto us your <sup>l</sup>love in the Spirit.

9 <sup>m</sup>For this cause we also, since the day we heard <sup>m</sup>it, do not cease to pray for you, and to desire <sup>n</sup>that ye might be filled with <sup>o</sup>the knowledge of his will, in all wisdom and spiritual understanding;

10 <sup>p</sup>That ye might walk worthy of the Lord <sup>p</sup>unto all-pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God;

Anno DOMINI 64. to his glorious power, †unto all patience and long-suffering with joyfulness;

<sup>12</sup> Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of †the inheritance of the saints in light:

<sup>25</sup> Whereof I am made a minister according to †the dispensation of God, which is given to me for you, †to fulfil the word of God;

<sup>31</sup> And you, being dead in your sins, and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together with him, having forgiven you all trespasses,

<sup>32</sup> Blotting out the hand-writing of ordinances that was against us, which was con-

mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ †in you, †the hope of glory:

<sup>29</sup> Whereunto I also labour, †striving according to his working, which worketh in me mightily.

CHAP. II.

<sup>1</sup> He still exhorteth them to be constant in Christ, 8 to beware of philosophy, and vain traditions, 18 worshipping of angels, 20 and legal ceremonies, which are ended in Christ.

FOR I would that ye knew what great †conflict I have for you, and for them at Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh;

<sup>6</sup> As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in him:

<sup>7</sup> Rooted and built up in him, and stablished in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving.

1 He exhorteth them to be fervent in prayer, 5 to walk wisely toward them that are not yet come to the true knowledge of Christ: 10 he saluteth them, and wisheth them all prosperity.

3 <sup>c</sup> Withal, praying also for us, that God would <sup>d</sup> open unto us a door of utterance, to speak <sup>e</sup> the mystery of Christ, for which I am also in bonds:

12 <sup>q</sup> Epaphras, who is one of you, a servant of Christ, saluteth you, always <sup>r</sup> labouring fervently for you in prayers, that ye may stand <sup>s</sup> perfect, and <sup>t</sup> complete in all the will of God.

THE
First Epistle of PAUL the Apostle to the THESSALONIANS.

CHAP. I.

1 The Thessalonians are given to understand both how mindful of them Saint Paul was at all times in thanksgiving, and prayer; 5 and also how well he was persuaded of the truth and sincerity of their faith, and conversion to God.

PAUL, and <sup>a</sup> Silvanus, and Timotheus, unto the church of the Thessalonians, which is in God the Father, and in the Lord Jesus Christ: <sup>b</sup> Grace be unto you, and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 <sup>c</sup> We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers;

3 <sup>d</sup> Remembering without ceasing <sup>e</sup> your work of faith, <sup>f</sup> and labour of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of God, and our Father;

4 Knowing, brethren <sup>g</sup> beloved, <sup>h</sup> your election of God.

5 For <sup>i</sup> our gospel came not unto you in word only, but also in power, and <sup>j</sup> in the Holy Ghost, <sup>k</sup> and in much assurance; as <sup>l</sup> ye know what manner of men we were among you for your sake.

6 And <sup>m</sup> ye became followers of us, and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, <sup>n</sup> with joy of the Holy Ghost:

7 So that ye were ensamples to all that believe in Macedonia and Achaia.

8 For from you <sup>o</sup> founded out the word of the Lord, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also <sup>p</sup> in every place your faith to God-ward is spread abroad; so that we need not to speak any thing.

9 For they themselves shew of us, <sup>q</sup> what manner of entering in we had unto you, <sup>r</sup> and how ye turned to God from idols, to serve the living and true God,

10 And <sup>s</sup> to wait for his Son from heaven, <sup>t</sup> whom he raised from the dead, even Jesus which delivered us <sup>u</sup> from the wrath to come.

CHAP. II.

In what manner the gospel was brought and preached to the Thessalonians, and in what sort also they received it. 18 A reason is rendered both why Saint Paul was so long absent from them, and also why he was so desirous to see them.

FOR <sup>a</sup> yourselves, brethren, know our entrance in unto you, that it was not in vain;

<sup>4</sup> But as <sup>s</sup> we were allowed of God <sup>h</sup> to be put in trust with the gospel, even so we speak; <sup>i</sup> not as pleasing men, but God, which trieth our hearts.

<sup>7</sup> But <sup>a</sup> we were gentle among you, even as a nurse cherisheth her children:

<sup>8</sup> So, being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing <sup>r</sup> to have imparted unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also <sup>s</sup> our own souls, because ye were dear unto us.

<sup>9</sup> For ye remember, brethren, our labour and travel: for <sup>t</sup> labouring night and day, <sup>u</sup> because we would not be chargeable unto any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God.

<sup>10</sup> Ye are witnesses, and God also, <sup>a</sup> how holily, and justly, and unblameably we behaved ourselves among you that believe:

<sup>11</sup> As ye know, how we exhorted and comforted, and charged every one of you (as a father doth his children;)

<sup>12</sup> That ye would walk worthy of God, who hath called you unto his kingdom and glory.

<sup>13</sup> For this cause also thank we God <sup>z</sup> without ceasing, because when ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received <sup>it</sup>, <sup>a</sup> not as the word of men, but (as it is in truth) the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe.

<sup>16</sup> Forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles, that they might be saved, <sup>i</sup> to fill up their sins alway: <sup>k</sup> for the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.

<sup>18</sup> Wherefore we would have come unto you (even I Paul) once and again; but <sup>n</sup> Satan hindered us.

<sup>20</sup> For ye are our glory and joy.

CHAP. III.

Saint Paul testifieth his great love to the Thessalonians; partly by sending Timothy unto them to strengthen and comfort them; partly by rejoicing in their well-doing; 10 and partly by praying for them, and desiring a safe coming unto them.

Wherefore <sup>a</sup> when we could no longer forbear, <sup>b</sup> we thought it good to be left at Athens alone;

<sup>2</sup> And sent <sup>c</sup> Timotheus our brother and minister of God, and our fellow-labourer in the gospel of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith;

<sup>3</sup> That no man should be moved by these afflictions: for yourselves know that <sup>e</sup> we are appointed thereunto.

<sup>4</sup> For verily when we were with you, we told you before, that we should suffer tribulation; even as it came to pass, and ye know.

<sup>6</sup> But now when Timotheus came from you unto us, and brought us good tidings of your faith and charity, and that ye have good remembrance of us always, desiring greatly to see us, <sup>l</sup> as we also to see you:

<sup>7</sup> Therefore, brethren, we were comforted over you in all our affliction and distress by your faith:

<sup>8</sup> For now we live, if ye stand fast in the Lord.

<sup>9</sup> For what thanks can we render to God again for you, for all the joy wherewith we joy for your sakes before our God,

<sup>10</sup> Night and day <sup>a</sup> praying exceedingly <sup>o</sup> that we might see your face, <sup>p</sup> and might perfect that which is lacking in your faith ?

11 Now God himself and our Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>1</sup> direct our way unto you.

12 And the Lord <sup>2</sup> make you to increase and abound in love <sup>3</sup> one towards another, and towards all men, even as we do towards you :

13 To the end he may <sup>4</sup> stablish your hearts unblameable in holiness before God even our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ <sup>5</sup> with all his saints.

CHAP. IV.

1 He exhorteth them to go on forward in all manner of godliness, 6 to live holily, and justly, 9 to love one another, 11 and quietly to follow their own business; 13 and last of all, to sorrow moderately for the dead. 15 And unto this last exhortation is annexed a brief description of the resurrection, and second coming of Christ to judgement.

Furthermore then we <sup>1</sup> beseech you, brethren, and <sup>2</sup> exhort you by the Lord Jesus, <sup>3</sup> that as ye have received of us, <sup>4</sup> how ye ought to walk, <sup>5</sup> and to please God, so ye would abound more and more.

2 For ye know what commandments we gave you by the Lord Jesus.

3 For this is <sup>1</sup> the will of God, even <sup>2</sup> your sanctification, that ye should abstain from fornication :

4 <sup>1</sup> That every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honour ;

5 Not in the lust of concupiscence, <sup>2</sup> even as the Gentiles <sup>3</sup> which know not God :

6 <sup>1</sup> That no man go beyond and <sup>2</sup> defraud his brother <sup>3</sup> in any matter : because that the Lord <sup>4</sup> is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you, and testified.

7 For God hath not called us unto un-cleanness, <sup>2</sup> but unto holiness.

8 <sup>1</sup> He therefore that <sup>2</sup> despiseth, despiseth not man, but God, <sup>3</sup> who hath also given unto us his holy Spirit.

9 But as touching brotherly love, <sup>2</sup> ye need not that I write unto you : for <sup>3</sup> ye yourselves are <sup>4</sup> taught of God to love one another.

10 And indeed ye do it towards all the brethren, which are in all Macedonia : but we beseech you, brethren, <sup>2</sup> that ye increase more and more ;

11 And that ye study to be quiet, and <sup>2</sup> to do your own business, and <sup>3</sup> to work with your own hands, (as we commanded you ;)

12 <sup>1</sup> That ye may walk honestly toward them that are without, and that ye may have lack <sup>2</sup> of nothing.

13 But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, <sup>2</sup> even as others which have no hope.

14 For <sup>1</sup> if we believe that Jesus died, and rose again, even so <sup>2</sup> them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.

15 For this we say unto you <sup>2</sup> by the word of the Lord, that <sup>3</sup> we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord, shall not prevent them which are asleep.

16 For <sup>1</sup> the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with <sup>2</sup> the trump of God : <sup>3</sup> and the dead in Christ shall rise first :

17 <sup>1</sup> Then we which are alive and remain, shall be caught up together with them <sup>2</sup> in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air : and so <sup>3</sup> shall we ever be with the Lord.

18 <sup>1</sup> Wherefore, <sup>2</sup> comfort one another with these words.

CHAP. V.

1 He proceedeth in the former description of Christ's coming to judgement, 16 and giveth divers precepts, 23 and so concludeth the epistle.

BUT of <sup>1</sup> the times and the seasons, brethren, <sup>2</sup> ye have no need that I write unto you.

2 For yourselves know perfectly that <sup>1</sup> the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night.

3 For when they shall say, Peace and safety ; then <sup>2</sup> sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child ; and they shall not escape.

4 <sup>1</sup> But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief.

5 Ye are all <sup>2</sup> the children of light, and the children of the day : we are not of the night nor of darkness.

6 <sup>1</sup> Therefore let us not sleep as do others ;
but <sup>2</sup> let us watch and be sober.

7 For <sup>1</sup> they that sleep, sleep in the night ; and they that be drunken, <sup>2</sup> are drunken in the night :

8 But let us who are of the day be sober, <sup>1</sup> putting on the breast-plate of faith and love ; and for an helmet, the hope of salvation.

9 For <sup>2</sup> God hath not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ,

10 <sup>1</sup> Who died for us ; that whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with him.

11 <sup>1</sup> Wherefore, <sup>2</sup> comfort yourselves to-

2 <sup>c</sup> Grace unto you, and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.
 3 <sup>d</sup> We are bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is meet, because that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the charity of every one of you all towards each other aboundeth:
 4 So that <sup>e</sup> we ourselves glory in you in the churches of God, for your patience and faith <sup>f</sup> in all your persecutions and tribulations that ye endure:
 5 Which <sup>g</sup> is <sup>h</sup> a manifest token of the righteous judgement of God, that ye may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, <sup>i</sup> for which ye also suffer:

THE
First Epistle of PAUL the Apostle, to TIMOTHY.

CHAP. I.

1 Timothy is put in mind of the charge which was given unto him by Paul, at his going to Macedonia. 5 Of the right use and end of the law. 11 Of Saint Paul's calling to be an apostle: 20 and of Hymeneus and Alexander.

PAUL an apostle of Jesus Christ <sup>a</sup> by the commandment <sup>b</sup> of God our Saviour, and Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>c</sup> which is our hope;

2 Unto <sup>d</sup> Timothy, <sup>e</sup> my own son in the faith: <sup>f</sup> Grace, mercy, and peace from God our Father, and Jesus Christ our Lord.

3 As I besought thee to abide still at Ephesus, <sup>g</sup> when I went into Macedonia, that thou mightest charge some <sup>h</sup> that they teach no other doctrine,

4 <sup>i</sup> Neither give heed to fables, and endless genealogies, <sup>k</sup> which minister questions, rather than godly edifying, which is in faith: so do.

5 Now <sup>l</sup> the end of the commandment is charity, <sup>m</sup> out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned:

6 From which some <sup>n</sup> having swerved, have turned aside unto <sup>o</sup> vain jangling;

7 Desiring to be teachers of the law; understanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm.

8 But we know that <sup>p</sup> the law is good, if a man use it lawfully;

9 <sup>q</sup> Knowing this, that the law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for murderers, for unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for man-slayers,

10 For whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankind, for men-stealers, for liars, for perjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary <sup>r</sup> to sound doctrine;

11 According to the glorious gospel of <sup>s</sup> the blessed God, <sup>t</sup> which was committed to my trust.

12 And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me, <sup>u</sup> for that he counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry;

13 <sup>v</sup> Who was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious. But I obtained mercy, because <sup>w</sup> I did it ignorantly in unbelief:

14 <sup>x</sup> And the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant, <sup>y</sup> with faith <sup>z</sup> and love which is in Christ Jesus.

15 <sup>b</sup> This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that <sup>c</sup> Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief.

16 Howbeit, for this cause <sup>d</sup> I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might shew forth all long-suffering, <sup>e</sup> for a pattern to them which should hereafter believe on him to life everlasting.

17 Now unto <sup>f</sup> the King eternal, immortal, invisible, <sup>g</sup> the only wise God, <sup>h</sup> be honour and glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

18 This charge <sup>i</sup> I commit unto thee, son Timothy, <sup>k</sup> according to the prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them mightest <sup>l</sup> war a good warfare;

19 <sup>m</sup> Holding faith, and a good conscience; which some having put away, concerning faith <sup>n</sup> have made shipwreck:

20 Of whom is <sup>o</sup> Hymeneus and <sup>p</sup> Alexander; whom I have <sup>q</sup> delivered unto Satan that they may learn not to blaspheme.

CHAP. II.

1 That it is meet to pray and give thanks for all men, and the reason why. 9 How women should be attired: 12 they are not permitted to teach:

15 They shall be saved, notwithstanding the testimonies of God's wrath, in child-birth, if they continue in faith.

I Exhort therefore, that first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men;

2 <sup>a</sup> For kings, and <sup>b</sup> for all that are in <sup>c</sup> authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty.

3 For this is good and acceptable in the sight <sup>d</sup> of God our Saviour;

4 <sup>e</sup> Who will have all men to be saved, <sup>f</sup> and to come unto the knowledge of the truth.

5 For there is one God, and <sup>g</sup> one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus;

6 <sup>h</sup> Who gave himself a ransom for all, <sup>i</sup> to be testified <sup>j</sup> in due time.

7 <sup>k</sup> Whereunto I am ordained a preacher, and an apostle (<sup>l</sup> I speak the truth in Christ, and lie not;) <sup>m</sup> a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and verity.

8 I will therefore that men pray <sup>n</sup> every where, <sup>o</sup> lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting.

9 In like manner also, that <sup>p</sup> women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with <sup>q</sup> broidered hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array,

10 <sup>r</sup> But (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works.

 11 Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection.
 12 But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence.
 13 For Adam was first formed, then Eve.
 14 And Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in the transgression.
 15 Notwithstanding, she shall be saved in child-bearing, if they continue in faith and charity, and holiness with sobriety.

CHAP. III.

2 How bishops, and deacons, and their wives, should be qualified; 14 and to what end Saint Paul wrote to Timothy of these things. 15 Of the church, and the blessed truth therein taught and professed.

THIS is a true saying, If a man desire the office of a bishop, he desireth a good work.

2 A bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, of good behaviour, given to hospitality, apt to teach;

3 Not given to wine, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre; but patient, not a brawler, not covetous;

4 One that ruleth well his own house, having his children in subjection with all gravity;

5 (For if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God?)

6 Not a novice, lest being lifted up with pride, he fall into the condemnation of the devil.

7 Moreover, he must have a good report of them which are without; lest he fall into reproach, and the snare of the devil.

8 Likewise must the deacons be grave, not double-tongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre,

9 Holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience.

10 And let these also first be proved; then let them use the office of a deacon, being found blameless.

11 Even so must their wives be grave, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things.

12 Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children, and their own houses well.

13 For they that have used the office of a deacon well, purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness in the faith, which is in Christ Jesus.

14 These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly:

15 But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth.

16 And without controversy, great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory.

CHAP. IV.

1 He foretelleth that in the latter times there shall be a departure from the faith. 6 And to the end that Timothy might not fail in doing his duty, he furnisheth him with divers precepts belonging thereto.

NOW the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils;

2 Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron;

3 Forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from meats, which God hath created to be received with thanksgiving of them which believe and know the truth.

4 For every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving:

5 For it is sanctified by the word of God, and prayer.

6 If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished up in the words of faith, and of good doctrine, whereunto thou hast attained.

7 But refuse profane and old wives fables, and exercise thyself rather unto godliness.

8 For bodily exercise profiteth little: but godliness is profitable unto all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come.

9 This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptance.

10 For therefore we both labour, and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe.

11 These things command and teach.

12 Let no man despise thy youth, but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity.

13 Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine.

14 Neglect not the gift that is in thee,

CHAP. V.

1 Rules to be observed in reprovng. 3 Of widows. 17 Of elders. 23 A precept for Timothy's health. 24 Some men's sins go before unto judgement, and some men's do follow after.

Rebuke <sup>a</sup> not an elder, but entreat him as a father; and the younger men as brethren;

2 The elder women as mothers; the younger as sisters, with all purity.

3 Honour widows <sup>b</sup> that are widows indeed.

4 But if any widow have children or nephews, let them learn first to shew <sup>piety</sup> at home, and <sup>c</sup> to requite their parents: for that is good and acceptable before God.

5 <sup>d</sup> Now she that is a widow indeed, and desolate, trusteth in God, and <sup>e</sup> continueth in supplications and prayers <sup>f</sup> night and day.

6 <sup>g</sup> But she that liveth <sup>h</sup> in pleasure, is dead while she liveth.

7 And these things give in charge, that they may be blameless.

8 But if any provide not for his own, <sup>h</sup> and specially for those of his own <sup>i</sup> house, he hath denied the faith, <sup>k</sup> and is worse than an infidel.

9 Let not a widow be <sup>l</sup> taken into the number, under threescore years old, <sup>m</sup> having been the wife of one man,

10 Well reported of for good works; if she have brought up children, if she have <sup>n</sup> lodged strangers, if she have <sup>o</sup> washed the saints feet, if she have relieved the afflicted, if she have diligently followed every good work.

11 But the younger widows refuse: for when they have begun to wax wanton against Christ, they will marry;

12 Having damnation, because they have cast off their first faith.

13 And withal they learn to be idle, wandering about from house to house; and not only idle, but tattlers also, and busy-bodies, speaking things which they ought not.

14 <sup>p</sup> I will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, <sup>q</sup> give none occasion to the adversary <sup>r</sup> to speak reproachfully.

15 For some are already turned aside after Satan.

16 If any man or woman that believeth have widows, let them relieve them, and let not the church be charged; that it may relieve <sup>s</sup> them that are widows indeed.

17 <sup>t</sup> Let the elders that rule well, <sup>u</sup> be counted worthy of double honour, especially they who labour in the word and doctrine.

18 For the scripture saith, <sup>v</sup> Thou shalt not muzzle the ox that treadeth out the corn. And, <sup>w</sup> The labourer is worthy of his reward.

19 Against an elder receive not an accusation, but <sup>x</sup> before two or three witnesses.

20 <sup>y</sup> Them that sin rebuke before all, <sup>z</sup> that others also may fear.

21 <sup>aa</sup> I charge thee before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, and the elect angels, that thou observe these things <sup>bb</sup> without preferring one before another, doing nothing by partiality.

22 <sup>cc</sup> Lay hands suddenly on no man, <sup>dd</sup> neither be partaker of other men's sins: keep thyself pure.

23 Drink no longer water, but use a little wine <sup>ee</sup> for thy stomach's sake, and thine often infirmities.

24 <sup>ff</sup> Some men's sins are open beforehand, going before to judgement; and some men they follow after.

25 Likewise also the good works of some are manifest before hand; and they that are otherwise cannot be hid.

CHAP. VI.

1 Of the duty of servants. 3 Not to have fellowship with new-fangled teachers. 6 Godliness is great pain: 10 and love of money the root of all evil. 11 What Timothy is to flee, and what to follow; 17 and whereof to admonish the rich. 20 To keep the purity of true doctrine, and to avoid profane janglings.

LET as many <sup>a</sup> servants as are under the yoke, count their own masters worthy of all honour, <sup>b</sup> that the name of God, and his doctrine, be not blasphemed.

2 And they that have believing masters, let them not despise them, <sup>c</sup> because they are brethren; but rather do them service, because they are <sup>d</sup> faithful and beloved, partakers of the benefit. <sup>e</sup> These things teach and exhort.

3 If any man <sup>f</sup> teach otherwise, and consent <sup>g</sup> not to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>h</sup> and to

rupt minds, and destitute of the truth, <sup>m</sup> supposing that gain is godliness: <sup>n</sup> from such withdraw thyself.

6 But <sup>o</sup> godliness with contentment is great gain:

7 For <sup>p</sup> we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out.

8 And <sup>q</sup> having food and raiment let us be therewith content.

9 But <sup>r</sup> they that will be rich, fall into temptation, <sup>s</sup> and a snare, and into many 10 For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have <sup>u</sup> erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

11 <sup>u</sup> But thou, <sup>x</sup> O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meek-

God, <sup>c</sup> who quickeneth all things, and be-

Pilate witnessed a good <sup>e</sup> confession;

14 That thou keep this commandment without spot, unrebukeable, <sup>f</sup> until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ:

15 Which in his times he shall shew, who is <sup>g</sup> the blessed and only Potentate, <sup>h</sup> the King of kings, and Lord of lords;

16 <sup>i</sup> Who only hath immortality, dwelling in the light which no man can approach unto; <sup>j</sup> whom no man hath seen, nor can see: <sup>k</sup> to whom be honour and power everlasting. Amen.

17 Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not high-minded, <sup>l</sup> nor trust in <sup>m</sup> uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy;

18 That they do good, that <sup>n</sup> they be rich in good works, ready to distribute,
<sup>o</sup> willing to communicate;

19 <sup>p</sup> Laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may <sup>q</sup> lay hold on eternal life.

20 O Timothy, <sup>r</sup> keep that which is committed to thy trust, <sup>s</sup> avoiding profane and vain babblings, and oppositions of science falsely so called:

THE

Second Epistle of PAUL the Apostle to TIMOTHY.

CHAP. I.

1 Paul's love to Timothy, and the unfeigned faith which was in Timothy himself, his mother, and grandmother: 6 he is exhorted to stir up the gift of God which was in him, 8 to be stedfast and patient in persecution, 13 and to persevere in the form and truth of that doctrine which he had learned of him. 15 Phygellus and Hermogenes, and such like are noted, and Onesiphorus is highly commended.

the will of God, according to the promise of life, which is in Christ
Jesus,

2 To Timothy my dearly beloved son:
Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father, and Christ Jesus our Lord.

3 I thank God, <sup>c</sup> whom I serve from my forefathers with pure conscience, that <sup>d</sup> without ceasing I have remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day;

4 Greatly desiring to see thee, being mindful of thy tears, that I may be filled with joy:

5 When I call to remembrance <sup>e</sup> the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and <sup>f</sup> thy mother Eunice; and I am persuaded that in thee also.

6 Wherefore I put thee in remembrance, <sup>g</sup> that thou stir up the gift of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands.

7 For <sup>h</sup> God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.

8 <sup>i</sup> Be not thou therefore ashamed of <sup>k</sup> the testimony of our Lord, nor of me <sup>l</sup> his prisoner: <sup>m</sup> but be thou partaker of the afflictions of the gospel, according to the power of God;

9 <sup>n</sup> Who hath saved us, and called us with an holy calling, <sup>o</sup> not according to our works, but <sup>p</sup> according to his own purpose

 10 But <sup>1</sup> is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ, <sup>2</sup> who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light, through the gospel:
 11 <sup>1</sup> Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles.
 12 <sup>1</sup> For the which cause I also suffer these things: nevertheless, I am not ashamed: <sup>2</sup> for I know whom I have <sup>1</sup> believed, and am persuaded that he is able <sup>1</sup> to keep that which I have committed unto him <sup>2</sup> against that day.
 13 <sup>1</sup> Hold fast <sup>2</sup> the form of <sup>3</sup> sound words, which thou hast heard of me, <sup>4</sup> in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.
 14 <sup>1</sup> That good thing which was committed unto thee, keep by the Holy Ghost which dwelleth in us.
 15 This thou knowest, that <sup>1</sup> all they which are in Asia be turned away from me; of whom are Phygellus and Hermogenes.
 16 The Lord give mercy unto <sup>1</sup> the house of Onesiphorus; for he oft refreshed me; and was not ashamed of <sup>2</sup> my chain.
 17 But when he was in Rome, he sought me out very diligently, and found me.
 18 The Lord grant unto him that he may find mercy of the Lord in that day. And in how many things he ministered unto me at Ephesus, thou knowest very well.

CHAP. II.

<sup>1</sup> He is exhorted again to constancy and perseverance, and to do the duty of a faithful servant of the Lord, in dividing the word aright, and shunning profane and vain babblings. 17 Of Hymeneus and Philetus. 19 The foundation of the Lord is sure. 22 He is taught whereof to beware, and what to follow after, and in what sort the servant of the Lord ought to behave himself.

THOU therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.

 3 <sup>1</sup> Thou therefore endure hardness, <sup>2</sup> as a good soldier of Jesus Christ.
 4 <sup>1</sup> No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier.
 5 And <sup>1</sup> if a man also strive for masteries, yet is he not crowned except he strive lawfully.

6 <sup>1</sup> The husbandman that laboureth, must be first partaker of the fruits.

7 Consider what I say; and the Lord give thee understanding in all things.

8 Remember that Jesus Christ <sup>1</sup> of the seed of David, <sup>2</sup> was raised from the dead, <sup>1</sup> according to my gospel:

9 Wherein I suffer trouble as an evildoer, <sup>2</sup> even unto bonds; but the word of God is not bound.

10 Therefore <sup>1</sup> I endure all things for the elect's sakes, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus, with eternal glory.

11 <sup>1</sup> It is a faithful saying: For <sup>2</sup> if we be dead with him, we shall also live with him:

12 <sup>1</sup> If we suffer, we shall also reign with him: <sup>2</sup> if we deny him, he also will deny us:

13 <sup>1</sup> If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself.

14 Of these things put them in remembrance, <sup>1</sup> charging them before the Lord, <sup>2</sup> that they strive not about words to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers.

15 Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.

16 But <sup>1</sup> shun profane and vain babblings: for they will increase unto more ungodliness.

17 And their word will eat as doth a <sup>1</sup> canker: of whom is <sup>2</sup> Hymeneus and Philetus;

18 Who <sup>2</sup> concerning the truth have erred, saying, that the resurrection is past already; and overthrow the faith of some.

20 <sup>1</sup> But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold, and of silver, but also of wood, and of earth; <sup>2</sup> and some to honour, and some to dishonour.

21 <sup>1</sup> If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified and meet for the master's use, and <sup>2</sup> prepared unto every good work.

22 Flee also youthful lusts: but <sup>1</sup> follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace, with them that <sup>2</sup> call on the Lord <sup>3</sup> out of a pure heart.

23 But <sup>1</sup> foolish and unlearned questions avoid, knowing that they do gender strifes.

24 And <sup>1</sup> the servant of the Lord must not strive; but be gentle unto all men, <sup>2</sup> apt to teach, <sup>3</sup> patient,

1 He adviseth him of the times to come, 6 describeth the enemies of the truth, 10 propound-eth unto him his own example, 16 and com-mendeth the holy scriptures.

THIS know also, that <sup>a</sup> in the last days perilous times shall come.

2 For men shall be lovers of their own felves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy,

3 Without natural affection, <sup>b</sup> trucebreakers, || false accusers, incontinent, fierce,
despisers of those that are good,

4 Traitors, heady, high-minded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God;

5 Having a form of godliness, but <sup>c</sup> denying the power thereof: <sup>d</sup> from such turn away.

6 For <sup>e</sup> of this sort are they which creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with divers lusts,

7 Ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.

8 <sup>f</sup> Now as Jannes and Jambres withstood
Moses, so do these also resist the truth:
9 men of corrupt minds, <sup>h</sup> || reprobate concerning the faith.

9 But they shall proceed no further: for their folly shall be manifest unto all men, as their's also was.

10 <sup>i</sup> But || thou hast fully known my doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, long-suffering, charity, patience,

11 Persecutions, afflictions which came unto me <sup>k</sup> at Antioch, <sup>l</sup> at Iconium, at Lystra; what persecutions I endured: but <sup>m</sup> out of them all the Lord delivered me.

12 Yea, and <sup>n</sup> all that will live godly in Christ Jesus, shall suffer persecution.

13 <sup>o</sup> But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived.

14 But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing <sup>p</sup> of whom thou hast learned them;

15 And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation, through faith which is in Christ Jesus.

16 <sup>q</sup> All scripture is given by inspiration of God, <sup>r</sup> and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness:

17 <sup>s</sup> That the man of God may be perfect, <sup>t</sup> || thoroughly furnished unto all good works.

CHAP. IV.

1 He exhorteth him to do his duty with all care and diligence; 6 certifieth him of the nearness of his death; 9 willeth him to come speedily unto him, and to bring Marcus with him, and certain other things which he wrote for; 14 warn-eth him to beware of Alexander the smith; 16 informeth him what had befallen him at his first answering: 19 and soon after he concludeth.

I <sup>a</sup> Charge thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>b</sup> who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing,
and his kingdom;

2 Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all long-suffering and doctrine.

3 <sup>c</sup> For the time will come when they will not endure <sup>d</sup> sound doctrine; <sup>e</sup> but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears;

4 And they shall turn away <sup>f</sup> their ears from the truth, and <sup>g</sup> shall be turned unto fables.

5 But watch thou in all things, <sup>h</sup> endure afflictions, do the work of <sup>i</sup> an evangelist, || make full proof of thy ministry.

6 For <sup>j</sup> I am now ready to be offered, and the time of <sup>k</sup> my departure is at hand.

7 <sup>l</sup> I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith:

8 Henceforth there is laid up for me <sup>m</sup> a crown of righteousness, which the Lord the righteous Judge shall give me <sup>n</sup> at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.

9 Do thy diligence to come shortly unto me:

10 For <sup>o</sup> Demas hath forsaken me, having loved this present world, and is departed unto Thessalonica: Crescens to Galatia, Titus unto Dalmatia.

The Epistle of PAUL to TITUS.

CHAP. I.

Anno DOMINI 65.
 5 For what end Titus was left in Crete. 6 How they that are to be chosen ministers, ought to be qualified. 11 The mouths of evil teachers to be stopped: 12 and what manner of men they be.

PAUL a servant of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God's elect, and the acknowledging of the truth, <sup>a</sup> which is after godliness;

2 <sup>b</sup>In hope of eternal life, which God <sup>b</sup>that cannot lie, promised <sup>c</sup>before the world began;

3 <sup>d</sup>But hath in due times manifested his word through preaching, <sup>e</sup>which is committed unto me, <sup>f</sup>according to the commandment of God our Saviour;

4 To <sup>g</sup>Titus <sup>h</sup>mine own son after <sup>i</sup>the common faith: Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ our Saviour.

5 For this cause left I thee in Crete, that thou shouldest <sup>j</sup>set in order the things that are <sup>k</sup>wanting, and <sup>l</sup>ordain elders in every city; as I had appointed thee.

6 <sup>m</sup>If any be blameless, <sup>n</sup>the husband of one wife, <sup>o</sup>having faithful children, not accused of riot, or unruly:

7 For a bishop must be blameless, as <sup>p</sup>the steward of God; not self-willed, not soon angry, <sup>q</sup>not given to wine, no striker, <sup>r</sup>not given to filthy lucre;

8 <sup>s</sup>But a lover of hospitality, a lover of <sup>t</sup>good men, sober, just, holy, temperate;

9 Holding fast <sup>u</sup>the faithful word, <sup>v</sup>as he hath been taught, that he may be able <sup>w</sup>by sound doctrine, both to exhort and to convince the gain-sayers.

10 For <sup>x</sup>there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, especially they of the circumcision:

11 Whose mouths must be stopped, <sup>y</sup>who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, <sup>z</sup>for filthy lucre's sake.

12 <sup>a</sup>One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are always liars, evil beasts, slow bellies.

13 This witness is true. <sup>b</sup>Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be found in the faith;

14 <sup>c</sup>Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and <sup>d</sup>commandments of men, that turn from the truth.

15 <sup>e</sup>Unto the pure all things are pure: but <sup>f</sup>unto them that are defiled, and unbelieving, <sup>g</sup>is nothing pure; but even their mind and conscience is defiled.

16 They profess that they know God; but <sup>h</sup>in works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, <sup>i</sup>and unto every good work <sup>j</sup>reprobate.

CHAP. II.

1 Directions given unto Titus both for his doctrine and life. 9 Of the duty of servants, and in general of all Christians.

BUT speak thou the things which become <sup>a</sup>sound doctrine:

2 That the aged men be <sup>b</sup>sober, grave, temperate, found in faith, in charity, in patience.

3 <sup>c</sup>The aged women likewise, that they be in behaviour as becometh <sup>d</sup>holiness, not <sup>e</sup>false accusers, not given to much wine, teachers of good things;

4 That they may teach the young women to be <sup>f</sup>sober, <sup>g</sup>to love their husbands, to love their children,

5 To be discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, <sup>h</sup>obedient to their own husbands, <sup>i</sup>that the word of God be not blasphemed.

6 Young men likewise exhort to be sober-minded.
 7 In all things shewing thyself a pattern of good works: in doctrine shewing uncorruptness, gravity, sincerity,
 8 Sound speech that cannot be condemned; that he that is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say of you.
 9 Exhort servants to be obedient unto their own masters, and to please them well in all things; not answering again;
 10 Not purloining, but shewing all good fidelity; that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things.
 11 For the grace of God that bringeth salvation, hath appeared to all men, 12 Teaching us, that denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly in this present world;
 13 Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God, and our Saviour Jesus Christ;
 14 Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works.
 15 These things speak and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no man despise thee.

CHAP. III.

1 Titus is yet further directed by Paul, both concerning the things he should teach, and not teach: 10 he is willed also to reject obstinate hereticks: 12 which done, he appointeth him both time and place, wherein he should come unto him; and so concludeth.

PUT them in mind to be subject to principalities and powers, to obey magistrates, to be ready to every good work,

2 To speak evil of no man, to be no brawlers, but gentle, shewing all meekness unto all men.

3 For we ourselves also were sometimes foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another.

4 But after that the kindness and love of God our Saviour toward man appeared,

5 Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost;

6 Which he shed on us abundantly, through Jesus Christ our Saviour;

7 That being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

8 This is a faithful saying, and these things I will that thou affirm constantly, that they which have believed in God, might be careful to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable unto men.

9 But avoid foolish questions, and genealogies, and contentions, and strivings about the law; for they are unprofitable and vain.

10 A man that is an heretick, after the first and second admonition, reject;

11 Knowing that he that is such, is subverted, and sinneth, being condemned of himself.

12 When I shall send Artemas unto thee; or Tychicus, be diligent to come unto me to Nicopolis: for I have determined there to winter.

13 Bring Zenas the lawyer, and Apollos on their journey diligently, that nothing be wanting unto them.

14 And let our's also learn to maintain good works for necessary uses, that they be not unfruitful.

15 All that are with me salute thee. Greet them that love us in the faith. Grace be with you all. Amen.

It was written to Titus, ordained the first bishop of the church of the Cre- tians, from Nicopolis of Macedonia.

ledging of every good thing, which is in you in Christ Jesus.

7 For we have great joy and consolation in thy love, because the bowels of the saints are refreshed by thee, brother.

8 Wherefore, though I might be much bold in Christ, to enjoin thee that which is convenient,

9 Yet for love's sake I rather beseech thee, being such an one as Paul the aged, and now also a prisoner of Jesus Christ.

10 I beseech thee for my son Onesimus, whom I have begotten in my bonds:

11 Which in time past was to thee unprofitable, but now profitable to thee and to me:

12 Whom I have sent again: thou therefore receive him, that is, mine own bowels:

13 Whom I would have retained with me, that in thy stead he might have ministered unto me in the bonds of the gospel.

14 But without thy mind would I do nothing; that thy benefit should not be as it were of necessity, but willingly.

15 For perhaps he therefore departed for a season, that thou shouldest receive him for ever;

16 Not now as a servant, but above a servant, a brother beloved, specially to me, but how much more unto thee, both in the flesh and in the Lord?

17 If thou count me therefore a partner, receive him as myself.

18 If he hath wronged thee, or oweth thee ought, put that on mine account;

19 I Paul have written it with mine own hand, I will repay it: albeit I do not say to thee how thou owest unto me even thine own self besides.

20 Yea, brother, let me have joy of thee in the Lord: refresh my bowels in the Lord.

21 Having confidence in thy obedience, I wrote unto thee, knowing that thou wilt also do more than I say.

22 But withal prepare me also a lodging: for I trust that through your prayers I shall be given unto you.

23 There salute thee Epaphras my fellow-prisoner in Christ Jesus;

24 Marcus, Aristarchus, Demas, Lucas, my fellow-labourers.

25 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

Written from Rome to Philemon, by Onesimus a servant.

THE

Epistle of PAUL the Apostle to the HEBREWS.

CHAP. I.

1 Christ in these last times coming to us from the Father, is preferred above the angels, both in person and office.

GOD, who at fundry times, and in divers manners, spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets,

2 Hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds;

3 Who being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high;

4 Being made so much better than the angels, as he hath by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they.

5 For unto which of the angels said he at any time, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee? And again, I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son?

6 And again, when he bringeth in the First-begotten into the world, he saith, And let all the angels of God worship him.

7 And of the angels he saith, Who maketh his angels spirits, and his ministers a flame of fire.

8 But unto the Son he saith, Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: a scepter of righteousness and the scepter of thy kingdom.

9 Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity; therefore God, even thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

10 And, Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the works of thine hands.

11 They shall perish; but thou remainest: and they all shall wax old as doth a garment;

12 And as a vesture shalt thou fold them up, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail.

13 But to which of the angels said he at any time, Sit on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool?

14 Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation?

CHAP. II.

1 We ought to be obedient to Christ Jesus, 5 and that because he vouchsafed to take our nature upon him, 14 as it was necessary.

Therefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should † let them slip.

<sup>5</sup> For unto the angels hath he not put in subjection <sup>i</sup> the world to come, whereof we speak.

<sup>6</sup> But one in a certain place testified, saying, <sup>k</sup> What is man, that thou art mindful of him? or the son of man, that thou visitest him?

<sup>12</sup> Saying, <sup>x</sup> I will declare thy name unto my brethren, in the midst of the church will I sing praise unto thee.

<sup>13</sup> And again, <sup>y</sup> I will put my trust in him. And again, <sup>z</sup> Behold, I, and the children which God hath given me.

partakers of flesh and blood, <sup>a</sup> he also himself likewise took part of the same; <sup>b</sup> that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil;

<sup>15</sup> And deliver them who, <sup>c</sup> through fear of death, were all their life-time subject to bondage.

<sup>16</sup> For verily † he took not on him the nature of angels; but he took on him the seed of Abraham.

<sup>17</sup> Wherefore in all things it behoved him <sup>d</sup> to be made like unto his brethren; that he might be <sup>e</sup> a merciful and faithful high priest, in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people.

<sup>18</sup> For in that he himself hath suffered, being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.

CHAP. III.

1 Christ is more worthy than Moses: 7 therefore if we believe not in him, we shall be more worthy of punishment than hard-hearted Israel.

Wherefore, holy brethren, partakers of <sup>a</sup> the heavenly calling, consider <sup>b</sup> the Apostle and high Priest of our profession, Christ Jesus;

<sup>5</sup> And Moses verily was faithful in all his house as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were to be spoken after;

<sup>7</sup> Wherefore as the Holy Ghost saith, <sup>h</sup> To-day, if ye will hear his voice,

<sup>8</sup> Harden not your hearts as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderness:

<sup>9</sup> When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my works forty years.

<sup>10</sup> Wherefore I was grieved with that generation, and said, They do alway err in their heart; and they have not known my ways.

ed through the deceitfulness of sin.

14 For we are made partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence stedfast unto the end;

15 While it is said, <sup>k</sup>To-day, if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the provocation.

16 For some, when they had heard, did provoke: howbeit not all that came out of Egypt by Moses.

17 But with whom was he grieved forty years? <sup>was it</sup> not with them that had sinned, <sup>whose</sup> carcases fell in the wilderness?

18 And <sup>m</sup> to whom sware he that they should not enter into his rest, but to them that believed not?

19 So we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief.

CHAP. IV.

1 The rest of Christians is attained by faith. 12 The power of God's word. 14 By our high Priest Jesus the Son of God, subject to infirmities, but not to sin, 16 we must and may go boldly to the throne of grace.

LET us therefore fear lest, a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it.

2 For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but † the word preached did not profit them, || not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.

3 For we which have believed do enter into rest, as he said, <sup>a</sup> As I have sworn in my wrath, If they shall enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.

4 For he spake in a certain place of the seventh day on this wise, <sup>b</sup> And God did rest the seventh day from all his works.

5 And in this place again, If they shall enter into my rest.

6 Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter therein, and they to whom || it was first preached, entered not in because of unbelief:

7 Again, he limiteth a certain day, saying in David, To-day, after so long a time; as it is said, <sup>c</sup> To-day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

8 For if || Jesus had given them rest, then would he not afterward have spoken of another day.

9 There remaineth therefore a || rest to the people of God.

10 For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his.

11 Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of || unbelief.

12 For the word of God <sup>is</sup> quick, and powerful, and <sup>e</sup> sharper than any † two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and <sup>is</sup> <sup>g</sup> a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

13 <sup>h</sup> Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things <sup>are</sup> naked, <sup>i</sup> and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do.

14 Seeing then that we have <sup>k</sup> a great high Priest, <sup>l</sup> that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, <sup>m</sup> let us hold fast our profession.

15 For <sup>n</sup> we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but <sup>o</sup> was in all points tempted like as we are, <sup>p</sup> yet without sin.

16 <sup>q</sup> Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

CHAP. V.

1 The authority and honour of our Saviour's priesthood: 11 negligence in the knowledge thereof is reprov'd.

FOR every high priest taken from among men, <sup>a</sup> is ordained for men <sup>b</sup> in things pertaining to God, <sup>c</sup> that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins:

2 <sup>d</sup> Who || can have compassion on the ignorant, and on them that are out of the way; for that <sup>e</sup> he himself also is compassed with infirmity:

3 And <sup>f</sup> by reason hereof he ought, as for the people, so also for himself, to offer for sins.

4 <sup>g</sup> And no man taketh this honour unto himself, but he that is called of God, as <sup>h</sup> was Aaron:

5 <sup>i</sup> So also Christ glorified not himself, to be made an high priest; but he that said unto him, <sup>k</sup> Thou art my Son, to-day have I begotten thee.

6 As he saith also in another place, <sup>l</sup> Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec;

7 Who in the days of his flesh, when he had <sup>m</sup> offered up prayers and supplications, <sup>n</sup> with strong crying and tears, unto him <sup>o</sup> that was able to save him from death, and was heard, <sup>p</sup> in that he feared;

8 Though he were a Son, yet learned he <sup>q</sup> obedience, by the things which he suffered;

9 And <sup>r</sup> being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him;

11 Of whom we have many things to say, and hard to be uttered, seeing ye are dull of hearing.

12 For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again which be the first principles of the oracles of God; and are become such as have need of milk, and not of strong meat.

13 For every one that useth milk, †is unskilful in the word of righteousness: for he is a babe.

14 But strong meat belongeth to them that are of full age, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil.

CHAP. VI.

1 He exhorteth not to fall back from the faith, 11 but to be stedfast, 12 diligent and patient to wait upon God, 13 because God is most sure in his promise.

Therefore leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith towards God,

2 Of the doctrine of baptisms, and of laying on of hands, and of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgement.

3 And this will we do, if God permit.

4 For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Ghost,

5 And have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come,

6 If they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance; seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame.

7 For the earth which drinketh in the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them by whom it is dressed, receiveth blessing from God:

8 But that which beareth thorns and briars is rejected, and is nigh unto cursing; whose end is to be burned.

9 But, beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that accompany salvation, though we thus speak.

10 For God is not unrighteous, to forget your work and labour of love, which ye have shewed toward his name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister.

11 And we desire, that every one of you do shew the same diligence, to the full assurance of hope unto the end:

12 That ye be not slothful, but followers of them, who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

13 For when God made promise to Abraham, because he could swear by no greater, he swore by himself,

14 Saying, Surely blessing I will bless thee; and multiplying I will multiply thee.

15 And so after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise.

16 For men verily swear by the greater: and an oath for confirmation is to them an end of all strife.

17 Wherein God, willing more abundantly to shew unto the heirs of promise the immutability of his counsel, confirmed it by an oath:

18 That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us:

19 Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and stedfast, and which entereth into that within the veil,

20 Whither the forerunner is for us entered, even Jesus, made an high priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

CHAP. VII.

1 Christ Jesus is a priest after the order of Melchisedec, 11 and so far more excellent than the priests of Aaron's order.

FOR this Melchisedec king of Salem, priest of the most high God, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him;

2 To whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all; first being by interpretation King of righteousness, and after that also King of Salem, which is, King of peace;

3 Without father, without mother, without descent, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life; but made like unto the Son of God, abideth a priest continually.

4 Now consider how great this man was, unto whom even the patriarch Abraham gave the tenth of the spoils.

5 And verily they that are of the sons of Levi, who receive the office of the priesthood, have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brethren, though they come out of the loins of Abraham:

6 But he whose descent is not counted from them, received tithes of Abraham, and blessed him that had the promises.

7 And without all contradiction, the less is blessed of the better.

Anno DOMINI

8 And here men that die receive tithes; but there he receiveth them, of whom it is witnessed that he liveth.

9 And as I may so say, Levi also who receiveth tithes, payed tithes in Abraham.

10 For he was yet in the loins of his father, when Melchisedec met him.

Gal. 3. 21.
ver. 18, 19.
ch. 3. 7.

11 If therefore perfection were by the Levitical priesthood, (for under it the people received the law,) what further need was there that another priest should rise after the order of Melchisedec, and not be called after the order of Aaron?

12 For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law.

13 For he of whom these things are spoken pertaineth to another tribe, of which no man gave attendance at the altar.

Matth. 2.
Luke 3. 33.

14 For it is evident that our Lord sprang out of Juda; of which tribe Moses spake nothing concerning priesthood.

15 And it is yet far more evident: for that after the similitude of Melchisedec there ariseth another priest,

16 Who is made, not after the law of a carnal commandment, but after the power of an endless life.

1 By the eternal priesthood of Christ, the Levitical priesthood of Aaron is abolished; 7 and the temporal covenant with the fathers, by the eternal covenant of the gospel.

THEN verily the first covenant had also ordinances of divine service, and a worldly sanctuary.

2 For there was a tabernacle made; <sup>a</sup> the first <sup>b</sup> wherein was the candlestick, and <sup>c</sup> the table, and the shew-bread; which is called <sup>d</sup> the sanctuary.

3 <sup>d</sup> And after the second veil, the tabernacle which is called the Holiest of all;

4 Which had the golden censer, and <sup>e</sup> the ark of the covenant overlaid round about with gold, wherein was <sup>f</sup> the golden pot that had manna, and <sup>g</sup> Aaron's rod that budded, and <sup>h</sup> the tables of the covenant;

5 And <sup>i</sup> over it the cherubims of glory shadowing the mercy-seat; of which we cannot now speak particularly.

6 Now when these things were thus ordained, <sup>k</sup> the priests went always into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the service of God:

7 But into the second went the high priest alone <sup>1</sup> once every year, not without blood, which he offered for himself, and for the errors of the people:

8 <sup>m</sup> The Holy Ghost this signifying, that <sup>n</sup> the way into the holiest of all, was not yet made manifest, while as the first tabernacle was yet standing:

9 Which was a figure for the time then present, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, <sup>o</sup> that could not make him that did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience,

10 Which stood only in <sup>p</sup> meats and drinks, and <sup>q</sup> divers washings, and carnal ordinances, imposed on them until the time of reformation:

11 But Christ, being come <sup>r</sup> an high priest of good things to come, <sup>s</sup> by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building, 12 Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but <sup>t</sup> by his own blood, entered in <sup>u</sup> once into the holy place, <sup>v</sup> having obtained eternal redemption for us.

13 For if <sup>w</sup> the blood of bulls, and of goats, and <sup>x</sup> the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh,

15 <sup>ae</sup> And for this cause <sup>af</sup> he is a mediator of the new testament, <sup>ag</sup> that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance.

16 For where a testament is, there must also of necessity <sup>ah</sup> be the death of the testator.

17 For <sup>ai</sup> a testament is of force after men are dead: otherwise it is of no strength at all whilst the testator liveth.

18 <sup>aj</sup> Whereupon, neither the first testament was <sup>ak</sup> dedicated without blood:

19 For when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, <sup>al</sup> he took the blood of calves and of goats, with water and <sup>am</sup> scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book, and all the people,

20 Saying, <sup>an</sup> This is the blood of the testament which God hath enjoined unto you.

21 Moreover, <sup>ao</sup> he sprinkled likewise with blood both the tabernacle, and all the vessels of the ministry.

22 And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and <sup>ap</sup> without shedding of blood is no remission.

23 <sup>aq</sup> It was therefore necessary that the patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these; <sup>ar</sup> but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.

24 For <sup>as</sup> Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, <sup>at</sup> which are the figures of <sup>au</sup> the true; but into heaven itself, now <sup>av</sup> to appear in the presence of God for us:

25 Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as <sup>aw</sup> the high priest entereth into the holy place every year with blood of others:

26 For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now <sup>ax</sup> once <sup>ay</sup> in the end of the world hath he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.

27 And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgement:

28 So <sup>az</sup> Christ was once <sup>ba</sup> offered to bear the sins <sup>bb</sup> of many; and unto them that

FOR the law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually, make the comers thereunto perfect.

2 For then would they not have ceased to be offered? because that the worshippers once purged, should have had no more conscience of sins.

3 But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance again made of sins every year.

4 For it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins.

5 Wherefore, when he cometh into the world, he saith, Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not, but a body hast thou prepared me:

6 In burnt-offerings and sacrifices for sin thou hast had no pleasure.

7 Then said I, Lo, I come (In the volume of the book it is written of me,) to do thy will, O God.

8 Above, when he said, Sacrifice, and offering, and burnt-offerings, and offering for sin thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein (which are offered by the law;)

9 Then said he, Lo, I come to do thy will, O God. He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second.

10 By the which will we are sanctified, through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

11 And every priest standeth daily ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins:

12 But this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins, for ever sat down on the right hand of God;

13 From henceforth expecting till his enemies be made his footstool.

14 For by one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified.

15 Whereof the Holy Ghost also is a witness to us: for after that he had said before,

16 This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, saith the Lord, I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them;

17 And their sins and iniquities will I remember no more.

18 Now, where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin.

19 Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus,

20 By a new and living way which he hath consecrated for us, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh;

21 And having an high priest over the house of God;

22 Let us draw near with a true heart, in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water.

23 Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering: (for he is faithful that promised.)

24 And let us consider one another to provoke unto love, and to good works:

25 Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more as ye see the day approaching.

26 For if we sin wilfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins,

27 But a certain fearful looking-for of judgement, and fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries.

28 He that despised Moses' law died without mercy, under two or three witnesses:

29 Of how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, and hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace?

30 For we know him that hath said, Vengeance belongeth unto me, I will recompense, saith the Lord. And again, The Lord shall judge his people.

31 It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

32 But call to remembrance the former days, in which, after ye were illuminated, ye endured a great fight of afflictions;

33 Partly whilst ye were made a gazing-stock, both by reproaches and afflictions; and partly whilst ye became companions of them that were so used.

34 For ye had compassion of me in my bonds, and took joyfully the spoiling of your goods, knowing in yourselves that ye have in heaven a better and an enduring substance.

CHAP. XI.

1 What faith is. 6 Without faith we cannot please God. 7 The worthy fruits thereof in the fathers of old time.

<sup>b</sup> ver. 39. 3 Through faith we understand that <sup>c</sup> the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear.

<sup>d</sup> Gen. 4. 10. 5 By faith <sup>f</sup> Enoch was translated, that he should not see death; and was not found, because God had translated him: for before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God.

<sup>e</sup> Gen. 5. 24. 6 But without faith it is impossible to please him. For he that cometh to God, must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

<sup>g</sup> Gen. 12. 22 & 4. 13. 8 By faith <sup>k</sup> Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went.

<sup>h</sup> Pet. 3. 20. 9 By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, dwelling in tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise:

11 Through faith also <sup>n</sup> Sara herself received strength to conceive seed, and <sup>o</sup> was delivered of a child when she was past age, because she judged him faithful who had promised.

12 Therefore sprang there even of one, and <sup>p</sup> him as good as dead, <sup>q</sup> so many as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as the sand which is by the sea-shore innumerable.

13 These all died <sup>r</sup> in faith, not having received the promises, but <sup>s</sup> having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and <sup>t</sup> confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.

14 For they that say such things, <sup>u</sup> declare plainly that they seek a country.

15 And truly if they had been mindful of that country from whence they came out, they might have had opportunity to have returned:

16 But now they desire a better country, that is, an heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed <sup>v</sup> to be called their God: for <sup>w</sup> he hath prepared for them a city.

17 By faith <sup>x</sup> Abraham, when he was tried, offered up Isaac: and he that had received the promises, <sup>y</sup> offered up his only-begotten son:

18 <sup>z</sup> Of whom it was said, <sup>a</sup> That in Isaac shall thy seed be called:

19 Accounting that God <sup>b</sup> was able to raise him up, even from the dead; from whence also he received him in a figure.

20 By faith <sup>c</sup> Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things to come.

21 By faith Jacob, when he was a dying, <sup>d</sup> blessed both the sons of Joseph; and <sup>e</sup> worshipped, leaning upon the top of his staff.

22 By faith <sup>f</sup> Joseph, when he died, <sup>g</sup> made mention of the departing of the children of Israel; and gave commandment concerning his bones.

23 By faith <sup>h</sup> Moses, when he was born, was hid three months of his parents, because they saw he was a proper child; and they were not afraid of the king's <sup>i</sup> commandment.

24 By faith <sup>j</sup> Moses, when he was come to years, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter;

25 <sup>k</sup> Choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season;

26 Esteeming <sup>l</sup> the reproach <sup>m</sup> of Christ greater riches than the treasures of Egypt: for he had respect unto the recompense of the reward.

27 By faith <sup>m</sup> he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as <sup>n</sup> seeing him who is invisible.

28 Through faith <sup>o</sup> he kept the pass-over, and the sprinkling of blood, lest he that destroyed the first-born, should touch them.

29 By faith <sup>p</sup> they passed through the Red sea, as by dry land: which the Egyptians assaying to do, were drowned.

30 By faith <sup>q</sup> the walls of Jericho fell down, after they were compassed about seven days.

31 By faith <sup>r</sup> the harlot Rahab perished not with them <sup>l</sup> that believed not, when <sup>s</sup> she had received the spies with peace.

32 And what shall I more say? for the time would fail me to tell of <sup>t</sup> Gedeon, and of <sup>u</sup> Barak, and of <sup>v</sup> Samson, and of <sup>w</sup> Jephthae; of <sup>x</sup> David also and <sup>y</sup> Samuel, and of the prophets:

33 Who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, <sup>b</sup> stopped the mouths of lions,

34 <sup>c</sup> Quenched the violence of fire, <sup>d</sup> escaped the edge of the sword; <sup>e</sup> out of weakness were made strong, waxed valiant in fight, turned to flight the armies of the aliens.

35 <sup>f</sup> Women received their dead raised to life again: and others were <sup>g</sup> tortured, not accepting deliverance; that they might obtain a better resurrection.

36 <sup>h</sup> And others had trial of cruel mockings and scourgings, yea, moreover, <sup>i</sup> of bonds and imprisonment.

37 <sup>k</sup> They were stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword: <sup>l</sup> they wandered about <sup>m</sup> in sheep-skins, and goat-skins; being destitute, afflicted, tormented;

38 (Of whom the world was not worthy:) they wandered in deserts, and in mountains, and <sup>n</sup> in dens and caves of the earth.

39 And these all <sup>o</sup> having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise:

40 God having <sup>p</sup> provided <sup>q</sup> some better thing for us, that they without us should not be made perfect.

CHAP. XII.

1 An exhortation to constant faith, patience, and godliness. 22 A commendation of the new testament above the old.

Wherefore, seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, <sup>r</sup> let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and <sup>s</sup> let us run <sup>t</sup> with patience the race that is set before us,

2 Looking unto Jesus the <sup>u</sup> author and finisher of our faith; <sup>v</sup> who for the joy that was set before him, endured the cross, despising the shame, and <sup>w</sup> is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

3 For consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied, and faint in your minds.

4 <sup>x</sup> Ye have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sin.

5 And ye have forgotten the exhortation which speaketh unto you as unto children, <sup>y</sup> My son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him:

6 For <sup>z</sup> whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

7 If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons; for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not?

8 But if ye be without chastisement, <sup>a</sup> whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards and not sons.

9 Furthermore, we have had fathers of our flesh, which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto <sup>b</sup> the Father of spirits, and live?

10 For they verily for a few days chastened us, <sup>c</sup> after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness.

11 Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless, afterward it yieldeth <sup>d</sup> the peaceable fruit of righteousness, unto them which are exercised thereby.

12 Wherefore <sup>e</sup> lift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees;

13 And make <sup>f</sup> straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way, <sup>g</sup> but let it rather be healed.

14 <sup>h</sup> Follow peace with all men, and holiness, <sup>i</sup> without which no man shall see the Lord:

15 <sup>j</sup> Looking diligently, <sup>k</sup> lest any man fail of the grace of God; <sup>l</sup> lest any root of bitterness springing up, trouble you, and thereby many be defiled;

16 <sup>m</sup> Lest there be any fornicator, or profane person, as Esau, <sup>n</sup> who for one morsel of meat sold his birth-right.

17 For ye know how that afterward <sup>o</sup> when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected: <sup>p</sup> for he found no <sup>q</sup> place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears.

22 But ye are come <sup>d</sup> unto mount Sion, <sup>e</sup> and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, <sup>f</sup> and to an innumerable company of angels,

CHAP. XIII.

1 Divers admonitions, as to charity, 4 to honest life, 5 to avoid covetousness, 7 to regard God's preachers, 9 to take heed of strange doctrines, 10 to confess Christ, 16 to give alms, 17 to obey governors, 18 to pray for the apostle. 20 The conclusion.

LET <sup>a</sup> brotherly love continue.

2 <sup>b</sup> Be not forgetful to entertain strangers: for thereby <sup>c</sup> some have entertained angels unawares.

3 <sup>d</sup> Remember them that are in bonds, as bound with them; and them which suffer adversity, as being yourselves also in the body.

4 Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge.

5 Let your conversation be without covetousness; and <sup>e</sup> be content with such things as ye have. For he hath said, 'I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.

6 So that we may boldly say, <sup>f</sup> the Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me.

7 <sup>g</sup> Remember them which <sup>h</sup> have the rule over you, who have spoken unto you the word of God: whose faith follow, considering the end of their conversation:

8 Jesus Christ <sup>i</sup> the same yesterday, and to-day, and for ever.

9 <sup>k</sup> Be not carried about with divers and strange doctrines. For it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace, <sup>l</sup> not with meats, which have not profited them that have been occupied therein.

10 <sup>m</sup> We have an altar whereof they have no right to eat, which serve the tabernacle.

11 For <sup>n</sup> the bodies of those beasts, whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest for sin, are burned without the camp.

12 Wherefore Jesus also, that he might sanctify the people with his own blood, <sup>o</sup> suffered without the gate.

13 Let us go forth therefore unto him without the camp, bearing <sup>p</sup> his reproach.

14 <sup>q</sup> For here have we no continuing city, but we seek one to come.

15 <sup>r</sup> By him therefore let us offer <sup>s</sup> the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, <sup>t</sup> the fruit of our lips, <sup>u</sup> giving thanks to his name.

16 But to do good, and to communicate, forget not: for <sup>v</sup> with such sacrifices God is well pleased.

17 <sup>w</sup> Obey them that <sup>x</sup> have the rule over you, and submit yourselves: for <sup>y</sup> they watch for your souls, as they that must give account: that they may do it with joy, and not with grief: for that is unprofitable for you.

18 Pray for us: for we trust we have <sup>z</sup> a good conscience, in all things willing to live honestly.

19 But I beseech you <sup>a</sup> the rather to do this: that I may be restored to you the sooner.

The general Epistle of JAMES.

CHAP. I.

<sup>1</sup> We are to rejoice under the cross, 5. to ask wisdom of God, 13 and in our trials not to impute our weakness, or sins unto him, 19 but rather to hearken to the word, to meditate in it, and to do thereafter: 26 otherwise men may seem, but never be truly religious.

<sup>4</sup> But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing.

<sup>7</sup> For let not that man think that he shall receive any thing of the Lord.

<sup>10</sup> But the rich, in that he is made low: because <sup>12</sup> as the flower of the grass he shall pass away.

<sup>11</sup> For the sun is no sooner risen with a burning heat, but it withereth the grass, and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his days.

<sup>13</sup> Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with <sup>11</sup> evil, neither tempteth he any man.

<sup>14</sup> But every man is tempted when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed.

<sup>15</sup> Then, when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death.

17 which is but a dead faith, 19 the faith of devils, 21 not of Abraham, 25 and Rahab.

MY brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>a</sup> the Lord of glory, with <sup>b</sup> respect of persons.

2 For if there come unto your † assembly a man with a gold ring, in goodly apparel, and there come in also a poor man in vile raiment;

3 And ye have respect to him that wear-eth the gay clothing, and say unto him, Sit thou here || in a good place; and say to the poor, Stand thou there, or sit here under my footstool:

4 Are ye not then partial in yourselves, and are become judges of evil thoughts?

5 Hearken, my beloved brethren, <sup>c</sup> Hath not God chosen the poor of this world <sup>d</sup> rich in faith, and heirs of || the kingdom <sup>e</sup> which he hath promised to them that love him?

6 But <sup>f</sup> ye have despised the poor. Do not rich men oppress you, <sup>g</sup> and draw you before the judgement-seats?

7 Do not they blaspheme that worthy name, by the which ye are called?

8 If ye fulfil the royal law, according to the scripture, <sup>h</sup> Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well:

9 But <sup>i</sup> if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors.

10 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, <sup>k</sup> he is guilty of all.

11 For || he that said, <sup>l</sup> Do not commit adultery; said also, Do not kill. Now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law.

12 So speak ye, and so do, as they that shall be judged by <sup>m</sup> the law of liberty.

13 For <sup>n</sup> he shall have judgement without mercy, that hath shewed no mercy; and <sup>o</sup> mercy || rejoiceth against judgement.

14 <sup>p</sup> What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and have not works? can faith save him?

15 <sup>q</sup> If a brother or sister be naked, and be destitute of daily food;

16 And <sup>r</sup> one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed, and be ye filled; notwithstanding, ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit?

17 Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being † alone.

18 Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith

19 Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well. <sup>u</sup> The devils also believe, and tremble.

20 But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead?

21 Was not Abraham our father justified by works, <sup>v</sup> when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar?

22 <sup>w</sup> Seest thou <sup>x</sup> how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect?

23 And the scripture was fulfilled which faith, <sup>y</sup> Abraham believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness: and he was called <sup>z</sup> the Friend of God.

24 Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only.

25 Likewise also, <sup>a</sup> was not Rahab the harlot justified by works, when she had received the messengers, and had sent them out another way?

26 For as the body without the || spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.

CHAP. III.

5 but rather to bridle the tongue, a little member, but a powerful instrument of much good, and great harm. 13 They who be truly wise, be mild, and peaceable, without envying, and strife.

MY brethren, <sup>a</sup> be not many masters, <sup>b</sup> knowing that we shall receive the greater || condemnation.

2 For <sup>c</sup> in many things we offend all. <sup>d</sup> If any man offend not in word, <sup>e</sup> the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle the whole body.

3 Behold, <sup>f</sup> we put bits in the horses' mouths, that they may obey us; and we turn about their whole body.

4 Behold also the ships, which though they be so great, and are driven of fierce winds, yet are they turned about with a very small helm, whithersoever the governor listeth.

5 Even so <sup>g</sup> the tongue is a little member, and <sup>h</sup> boasteth great things. Behold, how great || a matter a little fire kindleth!

6 And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue amongst our members, that <sup>i</sup> it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the † course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell.

7 For every † kind of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and of things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed of † mankind:

8 But the tongue can no man tame; it is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison.

9 Therewith bless we God, even the Father; and therewith curse we men, <sup>k</sup> which are made after the similitude of God.

10 Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be.

11 Doth a fountain send forth at the same place sweet water and bitter?

12 Can the fig-tree, my brethren, bear olive-berries? either a vine, figs? so can no fountain both yield salt water and fresh.

14 But if ye have <sup>o</sup> bitter envying and strife in your hearts, <sup>p</sup> glory not, and lie not against the truth.

15 <sup>q</sup> This wisdom descendeth not from above, but is earthly, <sup>r</sup> sensual, devilish.

16 For <sup>s</sup> where envying and strife is, there is <sup>t</sup> confusion and every evil work.

17 But <sup>u</sup> the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easy to be intreated, full of mercy and good fruits, <sup>v</sup> without partiality, <sup>w</sup> and without hypocrisy.

18 <sup>x</sup> And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace of them that make peace.

CHAP. IV.

1 We are to strive against covetousness, 4 intemperance, 5 pride, 11 detraction and rash judgement of others: 13 and not to be confident in the good success of worldly business, but mindful ever of the uncertainty of this life, to commit ourselves and all our affairs to God's providence.

FROM whence come wars and || fightings among you? come they not hence, even of your || lusts, <sup>a</sup> that war in your members?

2 Ye lust, and have not: ye || kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain: ye fight and war, yet ye have not, because ye ask not.

3 <sup>b</sup> Ye ask, and receive not, <sup>c</sup> because ye ask amiss, that ye may consume it upon your || lusts.

4 <sup>d</sup> Ye adulterers, and adulteresses, know ye not that <sup>e</sup> the friendship of the world is enmity with God? <sup>f</sup> whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world, is the enemy of God.

5 Do ye think that the scripture saith in vain, <sup>g</sup> The spirit that dwelleth in us lusteth || to envy?

6 But he giveth more grace. Wherefore he saith, <sup>h</sup> God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble.

7 Submit yourselves therefore to God. <sup>i</sup> Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

8 <sup>k</sup> Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. <sup>l</sup> Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye <sup>m</sup> double-minded.

9 <sup>n</sup> Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness.

10 <sup>o</sup> Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up.

11 Speak not evil one of another, brethren. He that speaketh evil of his brother, <sup>p</sup> and judgeth his brother, speaketh evil of the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judge the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a judge.

12 There is one law-giver, who is able to save, and to destroy. <sup>q</sup> Who art thou that judgest another?

13 <sup>r</sup> Go to now, ye that say, To-day or to-morrow we will go into such a city, and continue there a year, and buy and sell, and get gain:

14 Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? <sup>s</sup> It is even a vapour that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away.

15 For that ye ought to say, <sup>t</sup> If the Lord will, we shall live, and do this, or that.

16 But now ye rejoice in your boastings: <sup>u</sup> all such rejoicing is evil.

17 Therefore <sup>x</sup> to him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin.

CHAP. V.

1 Wicked rich men are to fear God's vengeance.

7 We ought to be patient in afflictions, after the example of the prophets, and Job; 12 to forbear swearing; 13 to pray in adversity, to sing in prosperity; 16 to acknowledge mutually our several faults, to pray one for another; 19 and to reduce a straying brother to the truth.

GO <sup>a</sup> to now, ye rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you.

2 Your riches are corrupted, and <sup>b</sup> your garments are moth-eaten.

3 Your gold and silver is cankered; and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire. <sup>c</sup> Ye have heaped treasure together for the last days.

4 Behold, <sup>d</sup> the hire of the labourers, who have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth: and <sup>e</sup> the cries of them which have reaped, are entered into the ears of the Lord of sabaoth.

 5 <sup>1</sup> Ye have lived in pleaſure on the earth, and been wanton; ye have nourished your hearts, as in a day of ſlaughter.
 6 <sup>2</sup> Ye have condemned and killed the juſt; and he doth not reſiſt you.
 7 <sup>3</sup> Be patient therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the Lord. Behold, the huſbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receive <sup>4</sup> the early and latter rain.
 8 Be ye alſo patient; ſtabliſh your hearts: <sup>5</sup> for the coming of the Lord draweth nigh.
 9 <sup>6</sup> Grudge not one againſt another, brethren, leſt ye be condemned: behold, the judge <sup>7</sup> ſtandeth before the door.
 10 Take, my brethren, the prophets, who have ſpoken in the name of the Lord, for an example of ſuffering affliction, and of patience.
 11 Behold, <sup>8</sup> we count them happy which endure. Ye have heard of <sup>9</sup> the patience of Job, and have ſeen <sup>10</sup> the end of the Lord: that <sup>11</sup> the Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy.
 12 But above all things, my brethren, <sup>12</sup> ſwear not, neither by heaven, neither by the earth, neither by any other oath: but let your yea, be yea; and your nay, nay; leſt ye fall into condemnation.
 13 Is any among you afflicted? let him pray. Is any merry? <sup>13</sup> let him ſing psalms.
 14 Is any ſick among you? let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, <sup>14</sup> anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord:
 15 And the prayer of faith ſhall ſave the ſick, and the Lord ſhall raiſe him up; and if he have committed ſins, they ſhall be forgiven him.
 16 Confels <sup>15</sup> your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed: <sup>16</sup> The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much.
 17 Elias was a man <sup>17</sup> ſubject to like paſſions as we are, and <sup>18</sup> he prayed <sup>19</sup> earneſtly that it might not rain: and it rained not on the earth by the ſpace of three years and ſix months.
 18 And <sup>20</sup> he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth brought forth her fruit.
 19 Brethren, <sup>21</sup> if any of you do err from the truth, and one convert him;
 20 Let him know, that he which converteth the ſinner from the error of his way, <sup>22</sup> ſhall ſave a ſoul from death, and <sup>23</sup> ſhall hide a multitude of ſins.

 Firſt Epiſtle general of PETER.

CHAP. I.

PETER an apoſtle of Jeſus Chriſt, <sup>1</sup> to the ſtrangers <sup>2</sup> ſcattered throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Aſia, and Bithynia,
 2 Elect <sup>3</sup> according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, <sup>4</sup> through ſanctification of the Spirit unto obedience, and <sup>5</sup> ſprinkling of the blood of Jeſus Chriſt: <sup>6</sup> Grace unto you and peace <sup>7</sup> be multiplied.
 3 <sup>8</sup> Bleſſed be the God and Father of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, which according to his <sup>9</sup> abundant mercy, <sup>10</sup> hath begotten us again unto a lively hope, <sup>11</sup> by the reſurrection of Jeſus Chriſt from the dead,
 4 To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, <sup>12</sup> and that faſteth not away, <sup>13</sup> reſerved in heaven <sup>14</sup> for you,
 5 <sup>15</sup> Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto ſalvation, ready to be revealed in the laſt time.
 6 <sup>16</sup> Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now <sup>17</sup> for a ſeaſon (if need be) <sup>18</sup> ye are in heavineſs through manifold temptations:
 7 That <sup>19</sup> the trial of your faith being much more precious than of gold that periſheth, though <sup>20</sup> it be tried with fire, <sup>21</sup> might be found unto praiſe, and honour, and glory at the appearing of Jeſus Chriſt:
 8 <sup>22</sup> Whom having not ſeen, ye love; <sup>23</sup> in whom, though now ye ſee him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unſpeakable, and full of glory:
 9 Receiving the end of your faith, <sup>24</sup> even the ſalvation of your ſouls.
 10 <sup>25</sup> Of which ſalvation the prophets have enquired, and ſearched diligently, who propheſied of the grace <sup>26</sup> that ſhould come unto you:

minister the things which are now reported unto you, by them that have preached the gospel unto you, with <sup>b</sup> the Holy Ghost sent down from heaven; <sup>c</sup> which things the angels desire to look into.

13 Wherefore <sup>d</sup> gird up the loins of your mind, <sup>e</sup> be sober, and hope <sup>f</sup> to the end, for the grace that is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jesus Christ;

14 As obedient children, <sup>f</sup> not fashioning yourselves according to the former lusts, <sup>g</sup> in your ignorance:

15 But as he which hath called you is holy,
so be ye holy in all manner of conversation;

16 Because it is written, <sup>h</sup> Be ye holy; for I am holy.

17 And if ye call on the Father, <sup>i</sup> who without respect of persons judgeth according to every man's work, <sup>k</sup> pass the time of your <sup>l</sup> sojourning here in fear:

18 Forasmuch as ye know <sup>m</sup> that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things as silver and gold, from your vain conversation <sup>n</sup> received by tradition from your fathers;

19 But <sup>o</sup> with the precious blood of Christ, <sup>p</sup> as of a lamb without blemish and without spot:

20 <sup>q</sup> Who verily was fore-ordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest <sup>r</sup> in these last times for you;

21 Who by him do believe in God <sup>s</sup> that raised him up from the dead, and <sup>t</sup> gave him glory, that your faith and hope might be in God.

22 Seeing ye <sup>u</sup> have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit, unto unfeigned <sup>v</sup> love of the brethren; see that ye love one another with a pure heart
fervently:

23 <sup>w</sup> Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, <sup>x</sup> by the word of God which liveth and abideth for ever.

24 <sup>y</sup> For <sup>z</sup> all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man, as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof
falleth away:

25 <sup>b</sup> But the word of the Lord endureth for ever. And this is the word which by the gospel is preached unto you.

CHAP. II.

1 He dehortheth them from the breach of charity;
4 shewing that Christ is the foundation whereon they are built: 11 he beseecheth them also to abstain from fleshly lusts; 13 to be obedient to magistrates; 18 and teacheth servants how to obey their masters, 20 patiently suffering for well-doing, after the example of Christ.

Wherefore <sup>a</sup> laying aside all malice, and all guile, and hypocrisies, and envies, and all evil-speakings,

2 As new-born babes desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby:

3 If so be ye have <sup>b</sup> tasted that the Lord
is gracious.

4 To whom coming, as unto a living stone, <sup>c</sup> disallowed indeed of men, but chosen of God, and precious,

5 <sup>d</sup> Ye also as lively stones, <sup>e</sup> are built up <sup>f</sup> a spiritual house, <sup>g</sup> an holy priesthood to offer up <sup>h</sup> spiritual sacrifices, <sup>i</sup> acceptable to God by Jesus Christ.

6 Wherefore also it is contained in the scripture, <sup>i</sup> Behold, I lay in Sion a chief corner-stone, elect, precious: and he that believeth on him shall not be confounded.

7 Unto you therefore which believe he is <sup>j</sup> precious: but unto them which be disobedient, <sup>k</sup> the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner;

8 <sup>l</sup> And a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence, <sup>m</sup> even to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient: <sup>n</sup> whereunto also they were appointed.

9 But ye are a chosen generation, <sup>o</sup> a royal priesthood, an holy nation, <sup>p</sup> a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the <sup>q</sup> praises of him, who hath called you out of <sup>r</sup> darkness into his marvellous light:

10 <sup>s</sup> Which in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy.

11 Dearly beloved, I beseech you <sup>t</sup> as strangers and pilgrims, <sup>u</sup> abstain from fleshly lusts, <sup>v</sup> which war against the soul;

12 <sup>w</sup> Having your conversation honest among the Gentiles: that <sup>x</sup> whereas they speak against you as evil-doers, <sup>y</sup> they may by your good works which they shall behold, glorify God <sup>z</sup> in the day of visitation.

13 <sup>a</sup> Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake: whether it be to the king, as supreme;

14 Or unto governors, as unto them that are sent by him <sup>b</sup> for the punishment of evil-doers, and <sup>c</sup> for the praise of them that do well.

15 For so is the will of God, that <sup>d</sup> with well-doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men:

16 <sup>e</sup> As free, and not <sup>f</sup> using your liberty for a cloke of maliciousness, but as <sup>g</sup> the servants of God.

18 <sup>i</sup> Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward.

19 For this <sup>is</sup> <sup>k</sup> thank-worthy, if a man for conscience toward God endure grief, suffering wrongfully.

20 For <sup>l</sup> what glory <sup>is</sup> <sup>it</sup>, if when ye be buffeted for your faults, ye shall take it patiently? but if when ye do well, and suffer for <sup>it</sup>, ye take it patiently, this <sup>is</sup> <sup>l</sup> acceptable with God.

21 For <sup>m</sup> even hereunto were ye called:
because <sup>n</sup> Christ also suffered <sup>l</sup> for us, <sup>o</sup> leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps:

22 <sup>p</sup> Who did no sin, neither was guile

23 <sup>q</sup> Who when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, he threatened not; but <sup>l</sup> committed <sup>himself</sup> to him that judgeth righteously:

24 <sup>r</sup> Who his own self bare our sins in his own body <sup>l</sup> on the tree, <sup>s</sup> that we being dead to sin, should live unto righteousness:
<sup>t</sup> by whose stripes ye were healed.

25 For <sup>u</sup> ye were as sheep going astray; but are now returned <sup>x</sup> unto the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls.

CHAP. III.

1 He teacheth the duty of wives and husbands to each other; 8 exhorting all men to unity and love, 14 and to suffer persecution: 19 he declareth also the benefits of Christ toward the old world.

Likewise, <sup>a</sup> ye wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; that if any obey not the word, <sup>b</sup> they also may without the word <sup>c</sup> be won by the conversation of the wives, 2 <sup>d</sup> While they behold your chaste conversation coupled with fear;

3 <sup>e</sup> Whose adorning, let it not be that outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel;

4 But let it be <sup>f</sup> the hidden man of the heart in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price.

5 For after this manner in the old time,
the holy women also, who trusted in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection unto their own husbands;

6 Even as Sara obeyed Abraham <sup>g</sup> calling him lord: whose <sup>h</sup> daughters ye are as long ye do well, and are not afraid with any amazement.

7 <sup>h</sup> Likewise, ye husbands, dwell with them

according to knowledge, giving honour unto the wife <sup>i</sup> as unto the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life; <sup>k</sup> that your prayers be not hindered.

8 Finally, <sup>l</sup> be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another; <sup>l</sup> love as brethren, be pitiful, be courteous:

9 <sup>m</sup> Not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing: but contrariwise, blessing;
knowing that ye are thereunto called,
<sup>n</sup> that ye should inherit a blessing.

10 For <sup>o</sup> he that will love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile.

11 Let him <sup>p</sup> eschew evil, and do good;
let him seek peace, and ensue it.

12 For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, and his ears are open unto their prayers: but the face of the Lord is † against them that do evil.

13 <sup>q</sup> And who is he that will harm you,
if ye be followers of that which is good?

14 <sup>r</sup> But and if ye suffer for righteousness fake, happy are ye: and <sup>s</sup> be not afraid of their terror, neither be troubled;

15 But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts: and <sup>t</sup> be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you, with meekness and <sup>u</sup> fear:

16 <sup>v</sup> Having a good conscience; that whereas they speak evil of you, as of evil-doers, they may be ashamed that falsely accuse your good conversation in Christ.

17 For it is better if the will of God be so, that ye suffer for well doing, than for evil-doing.

18 For Christ also hath <sup>x</sup> once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, <sup>y</sup> being put to death <sup>z</sup> in the flesh, but quickened by the Spirit:

19 By which also he went and <sup>a</sup> preached unto the spirits in prison;

20 Which sometime were disobedient
<sup>b</sup> when once the long-suffering of God waited in the days of Noah, while <sup>c</sup> the ark was a preparing, <sup>d</sup> wherein few, that is, eight souls, were saved by water.

21 <sup>e</sup> The like figure whereunto even baptism doth also now save us (not the putting away of <sup>f</sup> the filth of the flesh, <sup>g</sup> but the answer of a good conscience towards God)
by the resurrection of Jesus Christ:

22 Who is gone into heaven, and <sup>h</sup> is on the right hand of God; <sup>i</sup> angels, and authorities, and powers, being made subject unto him.

CHAP. IV.

He exhorteth them to cease from sin by the example of Christ, and the consideration of the general end that now approacheth; 12 and comforteth them against persecution.

FOrasmuch then <sup>a</sup> as Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind: for <sup>b</sup> he that hath suffered in the flesh hath ceased from sin;

<sup>3</sup> <sup>f</sup> For the time past of our life may suffice us <sup>g</sup> to have wrought the will of the Gentiles, when we walked in lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revellings, banquetings, and abominable idolatries:

<sup>4</sup> Wherein they think it strange that ye run not with them to the same excess of riot, <sup>h</sup> speaking evil of you:

<sup>5</sup> Who shall give account to him that is ready <sup>i</sup> to judge the quick and the dead.

<sup>6</sup> For, for this cause <sup>k</sup> was the gospel preached also to them that are dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit.

<sup>14</sup> <sup>e</sup> If ye be reproached for the name of Christ, happy <sup>f</sup> are ye; for the spirit of glory and of God resteth upon you. On their part he is evil spoken of, but on your part he is glorified.

<sup>15</sup> But <sup>g</sup> let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thief, or as an evil-doer, <sup>h</sup> or as a busy-body in other men's matters.

<sup>16</sup> Yet if any man suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed; but let him glorify God on this behalf.

<sup>17</sup> For the time is come <sup>i</sup> that judgement must begin at the house of God: and <sup>j</sup> if it first begin at us, <sup>k</sup> what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God?

<sup>19</sup> Wherefore, let them that suffer according to the will of God, <sup>m</sup> commit the keeping of their souls to him in well-doing, as unto a faithful Creator.

CHAP. V.

<sup>1</sup> He exhorteth the elders to feed their flocks; 5 the younger to obey; 8 and all, to be sober, watchful, and constant in the faith; 9 to resist the cruel adversary the devil.

THE elders which are among you I exhort, who am also <sup>a</sup> an elder, and <sup>b</sup> a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and also <sup>c</sup> a partaker of the glory that shall be revealed:

<sup>6</sup> <sup>n</sup> Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time:

<sup>7</sup> <sup>o</sup> Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you.

<sup>10</sup> But the God of all grace, who hath called us unto his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered <sup>s</sup> a while, <sup>t</sup> make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle you.

Second Epistle general of PETER.

CHAP. I.

1 Confirming them in hope of the increase of God's graces, <sup>5</sup> he exhorteth them by faith and good works, to make their calling sure: 12 whereof he is careful to remember them, knowing that his death is at hand: 16 and warneth them to be constant in the faith of Christ, who is the true Son of God, by the eye-witness of the apostles beholding his majesty, and by the testimony of the Father and the prophets.

SIMON Peter, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to them that have obtained <sup>a</sup> like precious faith with us, through the righteousness † of God, and our Saviour Jesus Christ:
2 <sup>b</sup> Grace and peace be multiplied unto you through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord,
3 According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, <sup>c</sup> through the knowledge of him that hath called us ¶ to glory and virtue:
4 <sup>d</sup> Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be <sup>e</sup> partakers of the divine nature, <sup>f</sup> having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.
5 And besides this, <sup>g</sup> giving all diligence, add to your faith, virtue; and to virtue, <sup>h</sup> knowledge;
6 And to knowledge, temperance; and to temperance, patience; and to patience, godliness;
7 And to godliness, brotherly kindness; and <sup>i</sup> to brotherly kindness, charity.
8 For if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be † barren, <sup>k</sup> nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 But he that lacketh these things, <sup>l</sup> is blind, and cannot see far off, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his old sins.

10 Wherefore the rather, brethren, give diligence <sup>m</sup> to make your calling and election sure: for, if ye do these things, <sup>n</sup> ye shall never fall:

11 For so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly, into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

12 Wherefore <sup>o</sup> I will not be negligent to put you always in remembrance of these things, <sup>p</sup> though ye know them, and be established in the present truth.

13 Yea, I think it meet, <sup>q</sup> as long as I am in this tabernacle, <sup>r</sup> to stir you up, by putting you in remembrance;

14 <sup>s</sup> Knowing that shortly I must put off this my tabernacle, even as <sup>t</sup> our Lord Jesus Christ hath shewed me.

15 Moreover, I will endeavour, that ye may be able after my decease, to have these things always in remembrance.

16 For we have not followed <sup>u</sup> cunningly devised fables, when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but <sup>x</sup> were eye-witnesses of his majesty.

17 For he received from God the Father, honour and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, <sup>y</sup> This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

18 And this voice which came from heaven we heard when we were with him in <sup>z</sup> the holy mount.

19 We have also a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto <sup>a</sup> a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and <sup>b</sup> the day-star arise in your hearts:

20 Knowing this first, that <sup>c</sup> no prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation.

21 For <sup>d</sup> the prophecy came not ¶ in old time by the will of man: <sup>e</sup> but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost.

CHAP. II.

1 He foretelleth them of false teachers, shewing the impiety and punishment both of them and their followers; 7 from which the godly shall be delivered, as Lot was out of Sodom: 10 and more fully describeth the manners of those profane and blasphemous seducers, whereby they may be the better known, and avoided.

BUT <sup>a</sup> there were false prophets also among the people, even as <sup>b</sup> there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even <sup>c</sup> denying the Lord <sup>d</sup> that brought them, <sup>e</sup> and bring upon themselves swift destruction.

2 And many shall follow their <sup>f</sup> pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of.

3 And <sup>g</sup> through covetousness shall they with feigned words <sup>h</sup> make merchandise of you: <sup>i</sup> whose judgement now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not.

4 For if God spared not <sup>j</sup> the angels <sup>k</sup> that sinned, but <sup>l</sup> cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgement;

5 And spared not the old world, but saved <sup>m</sup> Noah the eighth person, <sup>n</sup> a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the flood upon the world of the ungodly;

6 And <sup>o</sup> turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrha into ashes, condemned them with an overthrow, <sup>p</sup> making them an ensample unto those that after should live ungodly;

7 And <sup>q</sup> delivered just Lot, vexed with the filthy conversation of the wicked:

8 (<sup>r</sup> For that righteous man dwelling among them, <sup>s</sup> in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds;)

9 <sup>t</sup> The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgement to be punished:

10 But chiefly <sup>u</sup> them that walk after the flesh, in the lust of uncleanness, and despise <sup>v</sup> government. <sup>w</sup> Presumptuous are they, self-willed, they are not afraid to speak evil of dignities:

11 Whereas <sup>x</sup> angels which are greater in power and might, bring not railing accusation <sup>y</sup> against them before the Lord.

12 But these <sup>z</sup> as natural brute beasts, made to be taken and destroyed, speak evil of the things that they understand not, and shall utterly perish in their own corruption;

13 And shall receive the reward of unrighteousness, as they that count it pleasure to riot in the day-time. <sup>a</sup> Spots they are and blemishes, sporting themselves with their own deceivings, while <sup>b</sup> they feast with you;

14 Having eyes full of <sup>c</sup> adultery, and that cannot cease from sin; beguiling unstable souls: an heart they have exercised with covetous practices; cursed children:

15 Which have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray, following the way of <sup>d</sup> Balaam the son of Bofor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness;

16 But was rebuked for his iniquity: the dumb ass speaking with man's voice, forbade the madness of the prophet.

17 <sup>e</sup> These are wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest; to whom the mist of darkness is reserved for ever.

18 For when <sup>f</sup> they speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonness, those that <sup>g</sup> were <sup>h</sup> clean escaped from them who live in error:

19 While they promise them <sup>i</sup> liberty, they themselves are <sup>j</sup> the servants of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage.

20 For <sup>k</sup> if after they <sup>l</sup> have escaped the pollutions of the world <sup>m</sup> through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning.

21 For <sup>n</sup> it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them.

22 But it is happened unto them according to the true proverb, <sup>o</sup> The dog is turned to his own vomit again; and, The sow that was washed, to her wallowing in the mire.

CHAP. III.

He assureth them of the certainty of Christ's coming to judgement, against those scorers who dispute against it; 8 warning the godly for the long patience of God, to hasten their repentance: 10 he describeth also the manner how the world shall be destroyed; 11 exhorting them from the expectation thereof to all holiness of life; 15 and again, to think the patience of God to tend to their salvation, as Paul wrote to them in his epistles.

THIS second epistle, beloved, I now write unto you; in both which <sup>a</sup> I <sup>b</sup> stir up your pure minds by way of remembrance:

2 That ye may be mindful of the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, <sup>c</sup> and of the commandment of us the apostles of the Lord and Saviour:

3 <sup>d</sup> Knowing this first, that there shall come in the last days scoffers, walking after their own lusts,

4 And saying, <sup>e</sup> Where is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation.

5 For this they willingly are ignorant of, that by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth † standing out of the water, and in the water :

6 Whereby the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished :

7 But <sup>h</sup> the heavens and the earth which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto <sup>i</sup> fire against the day of judgement, and perdition of ungodly men.

8 But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day <sup>i</sup> is with the Lord as a thousand years, and <sup>k</sup> a thousand years as one day.

9 The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness ; but <sup>m</sup> is long-suffering to us-ward, <sup>n</sup> not willing that any should perish, but <sup>o</sup> that all should come to repentance.

10 But <sup>p</sup> the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night ; in the which <sup>q</sup> the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also, and the works that are therein, shall be burned up.

11 Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be <sup>r</sup> in all holy conversation and godliness,

12 Looking for and <sup>s</sup> hasting unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire shall <sup>t</sup> be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat ?

13 Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for <sup>u</sup> new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness.

14 Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent <sup>v</sup> that ye may be found of him in peace, without spot, and blameless ;

15 And account that <sup>w</sup> the long-suffering of our Lord <sup>x</sup> is salvation ; even as our beloved brother Paul also, according to the wisdom given unto him, hath written unto you ;

16 As also in all <sup>y</sup> his epistles, <sup>z</sup> speaking in them of these things ; in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction.

17 Ye therefore, beloved, <sup>a</sup> seeing ye know these things before, <sup>b</sup> beware lest ye also being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own steadfastness.

18 But grow in grace, and <sup>c</sup> in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. To him <sup>d</sup> be glory both now and for ever. Amen.

THE First Epistle general of JOHN.

CHAP. I.

1 He describeth the person of Christ, in whom we have eternal life by a communion with God : 5 to which we must adjoin holiness of life, to testify the truth of that our communion and profession of faith, as also to assure us of the forgiveness of our sins by Christ's death.

THAT <sup>a</sup> which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, <sup>b</sup> which we have looked upon, and <sup>c</sup> our hands have handled of the Word of life ;

2 (For the life <sup>d</sup> was manifested, and we have seen <sup>e</sup> it, and bear witness, <sup>f</sup> and shew unto you that eternal life <sup>g</sup> which was with the Father, and was manifested unto us ;)

3 That which we have seen and heard, declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us : and truly our fellowship <sup>h</sup> is with the Father, <sup>i</sup> and with his Son Jesus Christ.

4 And these things write we unto you, <sup>j</sup> that your joy may be full.

5 This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that <sup>k</sup> God is light, and in him is no darkness at all.

6 If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth :

7 But if we walk in the light, <sup>l</sup> as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and <sup>m</sup> the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin.

8 If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, <sup>n</sup> and the truth is not in us.

9 If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us <sup>o</sup> our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

10 If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

CHAP. II.

1 He comforteth them against the sins of infirmity.

3 Rightly to know God, is to keep his commandments, 9 to love our brethren, 15 and not to love the world. 18 We must beware of seducers : 20 from whose deceits the godly are safe preserved by perseverance in faith, and holiness of life.

MY little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, <sup>a</sup> we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous :

2 And <sup>b</sup> he is the propitiation for our sins :

and not for our's only, but also for the sins of the whole world.

3 And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments.

4 He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him.

5 But whoso keepeth his word, in him verily is the love of God perfected: here-by know we that we are in him.

6 He that saith he abideth in him, ought himself also so to walk, even as he walked.

7 Brethren, I write no new commandment unto you, but an old commandment which ye had from the beginning: The old commandment is the word which ye have heard from the beginning.

8 Again, a new commandment I write unto you, which thing is true in him and in you: because the darkness is past, and the true light now shineth.

9 He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkness even until now.

10 He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and there is none occasion of stumbling in him.

11 But he that hateth his brother is in darkness, and walketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkness hath blinded his eyes.

12 I write unto you, little children, because your sins are forgiven you for his name's sake.

13 I write unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I write unto you, young men, because ye have overcome the wicked one. I write unto you, little children, because ye have known the Father.

14 I have written unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I have written unto you, young men, because ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye have overcome the wicked one.

15 Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

16 For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.

17 And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever.

18 Little children, it is the last time: and as ye have heard that antichrist shall come, even now are there many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last time.

19 They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would, no doubt, have continued with us: but they went out, that they might be made manifest, that they were not all of us.

20 But ye have an unction from the Holy One, and ye know all things.

21 I have not written unto you because ye know not the truth: but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the truth.

22 Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist that denieth the Father and the Son.

23 Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: [but] he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also.

24 Let that therefore abide in you, which ye have heard from the beginning. If that which ye have heard from the beginning shall remain in you, ye also shall continue in the Son, and in the Father.

25 And this is the promise that he hath promised us, even eternal life.

26 These things have I written unto you, concerning them that seduce you.

27 But the anointing which ye have received of him, abideth in you, and ye need not that any man teach you: But, as the same anointing teacheth you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie; and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in him.

28 And now, little children, abide in him; that when he shall appear, we may have confidence, and not be ashamed before him at his coming.

29 If ye know that he is righteous, ye know that every one that doeth righteousness is born of him.

CHAP. III.

1 He declareth the singular love of God towards us, in making us his sons; 3 who therefore ought obediently to keep his commandments, 11 as also brotherly to love one another.

Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God: therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not.

2 Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is.

3 And every man that hath this hope in him, purifieth himself, even as he is pure.

4 Whofoever committeth fin, transgresseth also the law: for <sup>s</sup> fin is the transgression of the law.
5 And ye know <sup>h</sup> that he was manifested <sup>i</sup> to take away our sins; and <sup>k</sup> in him is no fin.
6 Whofoever abideth in him, sinneth not: <sup>l</sup> whofoever sinneth, hath not seen him, neither known him.
7 Little children, <sup>m</sup> let no man deceive you: <sup>n</sup> he that doeth righteousness, is righteous, even as he is righteous:
8 <sup>o</sup> He that committeth fin, is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil.
9 <sup>p</sup> Whofoever is born of God, doth not commit sin; for <sup>q</sup> his seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God.
10 In this the children of God are manifested, and the children of the devil: whofoever doeth not righteousness, is not of God, <sup>r</sup> neither he that loveth not his brother.
11 For <sup>s</sup> this is the <sup>t</sup> message that ye heard from the beginning, <sup>u</sup> that we should love one another.
12 Not as <sup>v</sup> Cain, who was of that wicked one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? Because his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous.
13 Marvel not, my brethren, if <sup>x</sup> the world hate you.
14 <sup>y</sup> We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren. <sup>z</sup> He that loveth not his brother, abideth in death.
15 <sup>a</sup> Whofoever hateth his brother, is a murderer: and ye know that <sup>b</sup> no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him.
16 <sup>c</sup> Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.
17 But <sup>d</sup> whofo hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, <sup>e</sup> how dwelleth the love of God in him?
18 My little children, <sup>f</sup> let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth.
19 And hereby we know <sup>g</sup> that we are of the truth, and shall <sup>h</sup> assure our hearts before him.
20 <sup>i</sup> For if our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things.

21 <sup>i</sup> Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, <sup>k</sup> then have we confidence towards God.
22 And <sup>l</sup> whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, <sup>m</sup> and do those things that are pleasing in his sight.
23 And <sup>n</sup> this is his commandment, That we should believe on the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and <sup>o</sup> love one another, <sup>p</sup> as he gave us commandment.
24 And <sup>q</sup> he that keepeth his commandments, <sup>r</sup> dwelleth in him, and he in him. And <sup>s</sup> hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us.

21 <sup>i</sup> Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, <sup>k</sup> then have we confidence towards God.
22 And <sup>l</sup> whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, <sup>m</sup> and do those things that are pleasing in his sight.
23 And <sup>n</sup> this is his commandment, That we should believe on the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and <sup>o</sup> love one another, <sup>p</sup> as he gave us commandment.
24 And <sup>q</sup> he that keepeth his commandments, <sup>r</sup> dwelleth in him, and he in him. And <sup>s</sup> hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us.

CHAP. IV.

<sup>i</sup> He warneth them not to believe all teachers who boast of the Spirit, but to try them by the rules of the catholic faith: 7 and by many reasons exhorteth to brotherly love.

Beloved, <sup>a</sup> believe not every spirit, but <sup>b</sup> try the spirits whether they are of God: because <sup>c</sup> many false prophets are gone out into the world.

2 Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: <sup>d</sup> Every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh, is of God:

3 And <sup>e</sup> every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh, is not of God. And this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come, and <sup>f</sup> even now already is it in the world.

4 Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you, than <sup>g</sup> he that is in the world.

5 <sup>h</sup> They are of the world: therefore speak they of the world, and <sup>i</sup> the world heareth them.

6 We are of God: <sup>k</sup> he that knoweth God, heareth us; he that is not of God, heareth not us. Hereby know we <sup>l</sup> the Spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.

7 <sup>m</sup> Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth, is born of God, and knoweth God.

8 He that loveth not, <sup>n</sup> knoweth not God; for <sup>o</sup> God is love.

9 <sup>p</sup> In this was manifested the love of God towards us, because that God sent his only-begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him.

10 Herein is love, <sup>q</sup> not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son <sup>r</sup> to be the propitiation for our sins.

11 Beloved, <sup>s</sup> if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another.

12 <sup>c</sup>No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and <sup>u</sup>his love is perfected in us.

13 <sup>x</sup>Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit.

14 And <sup>y</sup>we have seen and do testify, that the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world.

15 Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God.

16 And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. <sup>a</sup>God is love; and <sup>a</sup>he that dwelleth in love, dwelleth in God, and God in him.

17 Herein is †our love made perfect, that <sup>b</sup>we may have boldness in the day of judgement: because as he is, so are we in this world.

18 There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth, <sup>c</sup>is not made perfect in love.

19 We love him, because he first loved us.

20 <sup>d</sup>If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen?

21 And <sup>e</sup>this commandment have we from him, That he who loveth God, love his brother also.

CHAP. V.

He that loveth God, loveth his children, and keepeth his commandments; 3 which to the faithful are light, and not grievous. 9 Jesus is the Son of God, able to save us, 14 and to hear our prayers, which we make for ourselves, and for others.

W<sup>h</sup>osoever <sup>a</sup>believeth that <sup>b</sup>Jesus is the Christ, is <sup>c</sup>born of God: and every one that loveth him that begat, loveth him also that is begotten of him.

2 By <sup>d</sup>this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God, and keep his commandments.

3 <sup>e</sup>For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments: and <sup>f</sup>his commandments are not grievous.

4 For <sup>g</sup>whatsoever is born of God, overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith.

5 Who is he that overcometh the world, but <sup>h</sup>he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God?

6 This is he that came by water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not by water only, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth.

7 For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, <sup>i</sup>the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one.

8 And there are three that bear witness in earth, the spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one.

9 If we receive <sup>k</sup>the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: for this is the witness of God, which he hath testified of his Son.

10 He that believeth on the Son of God, <sup>l</sup>hath the witness in himself: he that believeth not God, <sup>m</sup>hath made him <sup>n</sup>a liar; because he believeth not the record that God gave of his Son.

11 And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life: and <sup>o</sup>this life is in his Son.

12 <sup>p</sup>He that hath the Son, hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God, hath not life.

13 <sup>q</sup>These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; <sup>r</sup>that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God.

14 And this is the confidence that we have <sup>s</sup>in him, that <sup>t</sup>if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us.

15 And if we know that he hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him.

16 If any man see his brother sin a sin which is not unto death, he shall ask, and <sup>u</sup>he shall give him life for them that sin not unto death. <sup>v</sup>There is a sin unto death: <sup>w</sup>I do not say that he shall pray for it.

17 <sup>x</sup>All unrighteousness is sin: and there is a sin not unto death.

18 We know that <sup>y</sup>whosoever is born of God sinneth not; but he that is begotten of God <sup>z</sup>keepeth himself, and that wicked one toucheth him not.

19 And we know that we are of God, and the whole world lieth in wickedness.

20 And we know that <sup>a</sup>the Son of God is come, and <sup>b</sup>hath given us an understanding, <sup>c</sup>that we may know him that is true. And we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. <sup>d</sup>This is the true God, <sup>e</sup>and eternal life.

21 Little children, <sup>f</sup>keep yourselves from idols. Amen.

THE elder unto the elect lady, and her children, <sup>a</sup> whom I love in the truth; and not I only, but also all they that have known the truth;

2 For the truth's sake which dwelleth in us, and shall be with us for ever.

3 Grace † be with you, mercy, and peace from God the Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ the Son of the Father, <sup>b</sup> in truth and love.

4 I rejoiced greatly, that I found of thy children <sup>c</sup> walking in truth, as we have received a commandment from the Father.

5 And now I beseech thee, lady, <sup>d</sup> not as though I wrote a new commandment unto thee, but that which we had from the beginning, <sup>e</sup> that we love one another.

6 And <sup>f</sup> this is love, that we walk after his commandments. This is the commandment, That, <sup>g</sup> as ye have heard from the beginning, ye should walk in it.

7 For <sup>h</sup> many deceivers are entered into the world, <sup>i</sup> who confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. <sup>k</sup> This is a deceiver and an antichrist.

8 Look to yourselves, <sup>l</sup> that we lose not those things which we have <sup>m</sup> wrought, but that we receive a full reward.

9 <sup>n</sup> Whosoever transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God. He that abideth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Son.

10 If there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, <sup>a</sup> neither bid him God speed:

11 For he that biddeth him God speed, is partaker of his evil deeds.

12 <sup>o</sup> Having many things to write unto you, I would not write with paper and ink: <sup>p</sup> but I trust to come unto you, and speak † face to face, <sup>q</sup> that <sup>r</sup> our joy may be full.

13 The children of thy elect sister greet thee. Amen.

The Third Epistle of JOHN.

He commendeth Gaius for his piety, 5 and hospitality, 7 to true preachers; 9 complaining of the unkind dealing of ambitious Diotrephes on the contrary side, 11 whose evil example is not to be followed: 12 and giveth special testimony to the good report of Demetrius.

THE elder unto the well-beloved Gaius, <sup>a</sup> whom I love <sup>b</sup> in the truth.

2 Beloved, I <sup>c</sup> wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth.

3 For I rejoiced greatly when the brethren came and testified of the truth that is in thee, even as <sup>b</sup> thou walkest in the truth.

4 I have no greater joy than to hear that <sup>c</sup> my children walk in truth.

5 Beloved, thou doest faithfully whatsoever thou doest to the brethren, and to strangers;

6 Which have borne witness of thy charity before the church: whom if thou bring forward on their journey † after a godly sort, thou shalt do well:

7 Because that for his name's sake they went forth, taking nothing of the Gentiles.

8 We therefore ought to receive such, that we might be fellow-helpers to the truth.

9 I wrote unto the church: but Diotrephes, who loveth to have the pre-eminence among them, receiveth us not.

10 Wherefore, if I come, I will remember his deeds which he doeth, prating against us with malicious words: and not content therewith, neither doth he himself receive the brethren, and forbiddeth them that would, and casteth them out of the church.

11 Beloved, <sup>d</sup> follow not that which is evil, but that which is good. <sup>e</sup> He that doeth good is of God; but he that doeth evil hath not seen God.

12 Demetrius hath good report of all men, and of the truth itself: yea, and we also bear record; <sup>f</sup> and ye know that our record is true.

13 <sup>g</sup> I had many things to write, but I will not with ink and pen write unto thee:

14 But I trust I shall shortly see thee, and we shall speak † face to face. Peace <sup>h</sup> be to thee. Our friends salute thee. Greet the friends by name.

The general Epistle of JUDE.

1 He exhorteth them to be constant in the profession of the faith. 4 False teachers are crept in to seduce them; for whose damnable doctrine and manners, horrible punishment is prepared: 20 whereas the godly by the assistance of the Holy Spirit, and prayers to God, may persevere and grow in grace, and keep themselves, and recover others out of the snares of those deceivers.

JUDE the servant of Jesus Christ, and a brother of James, to them that are sanctified by God the Father, and b preserved in Jesus Christ, and called:

2 Mercy unto you, and peace and love be multiplied.

3 Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you c of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that d ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints.

4 e For there are certain men crept in unawares, f who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, g turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and h denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ.

5 I will therefore put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this, i how that the Lord having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward k destroyed them that believed not.

6 And l the angels which kept not their m first estate, but left their own habitation, n he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness, o unto the judgement of the great day.

7 Even as p Sodom and Gomorrha, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after t strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire.

8 r Likewise also these filthy dreamers defile the flesh, despise dominion, and s speak evil of dignities.

9 Yet t Michael the archangel, when contending with the devil, he disputed about the body of Moses, u durst not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, v The Lord rebuke thee.

10 w But these speak evil of those things which they know not: but what they know naturally, as brute beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves.

11 Woe unto them! for they have gone in the way x of Cain, and y ran greedily after the error of Balaam for reward, and perished z in the gainfaying of Core.

12 a These are spots in your b feasts of charity, when they feast with you, feeding themselves without fear: c clouds they are without water, carried about of winds; trees whose fruit withereth, without fruit, twice dead, d plucked up by the roots;

13 e Raging waves of the sea, f foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, g to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness for ever.

14 And Enoch also, h the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, i the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints,

15 To execute judgement upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them, of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their k hard speeches, which ungodly sinners have spoken against him.

16 These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their own lust; and l their mouth speaketh great swelling words, having men's persons in admiration because of advantage.

17 m But, beloved, remember ye the words which were spoken before of the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ;

18 How that they told you n there should be mockers in the last time, who should walk after their own ungodly lusts.

19 These be they o who separate themselves, p sensual, having not the Spirit.

20 But ye, beloved, q building up yourselves on your most holy faith, r praying in the Holy Ghost,

21 Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life.

22 And of some have compassion, making a difference:

23 And others s save with fear, pulling them out of the fire; hating even t the garment spotted by the flesh.

24 u Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy,

25 v To the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever. Amen.

The REVELATION of S. JOHN the Divine.

CHAP. I.

4 John writeth his revelation to the seven churches of Asia, signified by the seven golden candlesticks.
7 The coming of Christ: 14 his glorious power and majesty.

THE Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave unto him, to shew unto his servants things which <sup>a</sup> must shortly come to pass; and <sup>b</sup> he sent and signified it by his angel unto his servant John:

2 <sup>c</sup> Who bare record of the word of God, and of the testimony of Jesus Christ, and of all things <sup>d</sup> that he saw.

3 <sup>e</sup> Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein: for <sup>f</sup> the time is at hand.

4 JOHN to the seven churches which are in Asia: Grace <sup>g</sup> be unto you, and peace from him <sup>h</sup> which is, and <sup>i</sup> which was, and which is to come; <sup>j</sup> and from the seven Spirits which are before his throne;

5 And from Jesus Christ, <sup>k</sup> who is the faithful witness, and the <sup>l</sup> first-begotten of the dead, and <sup>m</sup> the prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him that loved us, <sup>n</sup> and washed us from our sins in his own blood,

6 And hath <sup>o</sup> made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; <sup>p</sup> to him <sup>q</sup> be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

7 <sup>r</sup> Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and <sup>s</sup> they also which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen.

8 <sup>t</sup> I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, <sup>u</sup> which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty.

9 I John, who also am your brother, and <sup>v</sup> companion in tribulation, and <sup>w</sup> in the kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, was in the isle that is called Patmos, <sup>x</sup> for the word of God, and for the testimony of Jesus Christ.

10 <sup>y</sup> I was in the Spirit on <sup>z</sup> the Lord's day; and heard behind me a great voice, <sup>a</sup> as of a trumpet,

11 Saying, <sup>b</sup> I am Alpha and Omega, <sup>c</sup> the first and the last: and, What thou seest, write in a book, and send it unto the seven churches which are in Asia; unto Ephesus, and unto Smyrna, and unto Pergamos, and unto Thyatira, and unto Sardis, and unto Philadelphia, and unto Laodicea.

12 And I turned to see the voice that spake with me. And being turned, <sup>d</sup> I saw seven golden candlesticks;

13 <sup>e</sup> And in the midst of the seven candlesticks <sup>f</sup> one like unto the Son of man, <sup>g</sup> clothed with a garment down to the foot, and <sup>h</sup> girt about the paps with a golden girdle.

14 His head and <sup>i</sup> his hairs were white like wool, as white as snow; and <sup>j</sup> his eyes were as a flame of fire;

15 <sup>k</sup> And his feet like unto fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace; and <sup>l</sup> his voice as the sound of many waters.

16 <sup>m</sup> And he had in his right hand seven stars: and <sup>n</sup> out of his mouth went a sharp two-edged sword: <sup>o</sup> and his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength.

17 And <sup>p</sup> when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead. And <sup>q</sup> he laid his right hand upon me, saying unto me, Fear not; <sup>r</sup> I am the first and the last:

18 <sup>s</sup> I am he that liveth, and was dead; and behold, <sup>t</sup> I am alive for evermore, Amen; and <sup>u</sup> have the keys of hell and of death.

19 Write <sup>v</sup> the things which thou hast seen, <sup>w</sup> and the things which are, <sup>x</sup> and the things which shall be hereafter;

20 The mystery <sup>y</sup> of the seven stars which thou sawest in my right hand, <sup>z</sup> and the seven golden candlesticks. The seven stars are <sup>a</sup> the angels of the seven churches: and <sup>b</sup> the seven candlesticks which thou sawest, are the seven churches.

CHAP. II.

What is commanded to be written to the angels (that is, the ministers) of the churches of 1 Ephesus, 8 Smyrna, 12 Pergamos, 18 Thyatira: and what is commended, or found wanting in them.

UNTO the angel of the church of Ephesus write; These things saith <sup>a</sup> he that holdeth the seven stars in his right hand, <sup>b</sup> who walketh in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks;

2 <sup>c</sup> I know thy works, and thy labour, and thy patience, and how thou canst not bear them which are evil: and <sup>d</sup> thou hast tried them <sup>e</sup> which say they are apostles, and are not; and hast found them liars:

3 And hast borne, and hast patience, and for my name's sake hast laboured, and hast not fainted.

4 Nevertheless, I have somewhat against thee, because thou hast left thy first love.

ch. 3. 12.

& 19. 12.

5 Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works; <sup>f</sup> or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent.

6 But this thou hast, that thou hatest the deeds of <sup>e</sup> the Nicolaitanes, which I also hate.

7 <sup>h</sup> He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give <sup>i</sup> to eat of <sup>k</sup> the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God.

8 And unto the angel of the church in Smyrna write; These things saith <sup>l</sup> the first and the last, which was dead, and is alive;

9 <sup>m</sup> I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art <sup>n</sup> rich) and <sup>i</sup> know the blasphemy of <sup>o</sup> them which say they are Jews, and are not, <sup>p</sup> but are the synagogue of Satan.

10 Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days: be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee <sup>q</sup> a crown of life.

11 <sup>r</sup> He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; He that overcometh, shall not be hurt of <sup>s</sup> the second death.

12 And to the angel of the church in Pergamos write; These things saith <sup>t</sup> he which hath the sharp sword with two edges:

13 <sup>u</sup> I know thy works, and where thou dwellest, even <sup>x</sup> where Satan's seat is: and thou holdest fast my name, and hast not denied my faith, even in those days wherein Antipas was my faithful martyr, who was slain among you, where Satan dwelleth.

14 But I have a few things against thee, because thou hast there them that hold the doctrine of <sup>y</sup> Balaam, who taught Balac to cast a stumbling-block before the children of Israel, <sup>z</sup> to eat things sacrificed unto idols, and to commit fornication.

15 So hast thou also them that hold the doctrine <sup>a</sup> of the Nicolaitanes, which thing I hate.

16 Repent; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and <sup>b</sup> will fight against them with the sword of my mouth.

17 <sup>c</sup> He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna; and will give him a white stone, and in the stone <sup>d</sup> a new name written, which no man knoweth, saving he that receiveth it.

18 And unto the angel of the church in Thyatira write; These things saith the Son of God, <sup>e</sup> who hath his eyes like unto a flame of fire, and his feet are like fine brass;

19 <sup>f</sup> I know thy works, and charity, and service, and faith, and thy patience, and thy works; and the last to be more than the first.

20 Notwithstanding, I have a few things against thee, because thou sufferest that woman <sup>g</sup> Jezebel, which calleth herself a prophetess, to teach and to seduce my servants <sup>h</sup> to commit fornication, and to eat things sacrificed unto idols.

21 And I gave her space <sup>i</sup> to repent of her fornication; and she repented not.

22 Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds.

23 And I will kill her children with death; and all the churches shall know that <sup>k</sup> I am he which searcheth the reins and hearts: and <sup>l</sup> I will give unto every one of you according to your works.

24 But unto you I say, and unto the rest in Thyatira, As many as have not this doctrine, and which have not known the depths of Satan, as they speak; <sup>m</sup> I will put upon you none other burden.

25 But <sup>n</sup> that which ye have already, hold fast till I come.

26 And he that overcometh, and keepeth <sup>o</sup> my works unto the end, <sup>p</sup> to him will I give power over the nations:

27 (<sup>q</sup> And he shall rule them with a rod of iron: as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers:) even as I received of my Father.

28 And I will give him <sup>r</sup> the morning star.

29 <sup>s</sup> He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

CHAP. III.

1 The angel of the church of Sardis is reprov'd, 3 exhorted to repent, and threatened if he do not repent. 8 The angel of the church of Philadelphia, 10 is approved for his diligence and patience. 15 The angel of Laodicea is rebuked, for being neither hot nor cold, 19 and admonished to be more zealous. 20 Christ standeth at the door, and knocketh.

AND unto the angel of the church in Sardis write; These things saith he <sup>a</sup> that hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars; <sup>b</sup> I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, and art dead.

2 Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God.

1 Tim. 6.

3 Remember therefore how thou hast received and heard, and hold fast, and repent. If therefore thou shalt not watch, I will come on thee as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee.

1 Thes. 5. 2.

4 Thou hast a few names even in Sardis, which have not defiled their garments; and they shall walk with me in white: for they are worthy.

5 He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels.

6 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

7 And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write; These things saith he that is holy, he that is true; he that hath the key of David; he that openeth, and no man shutteth; and he that shutteth, and no man openeth:

8 I know thy works: behold, I have set before thee an open door, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name.

9 Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan (which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie;) behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee.

10 Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth.

11 Behold, I come quickly: hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown.

12 Him that overcometh, will I make a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is new Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God: and I will write upon him my new name.

13 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

14 And unto the angel of the church of the Laodiceans write; These things saith the Amen, the faithful and true witness, the beginning of the creation of God;

15 I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot.

16 So then because thou art luke-warm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth:

17 Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked.

18 I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eye-salve, that thou mayest see.

19 As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore and repent.

20 Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: If any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.

21 To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne.

22 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

CHAP. IV.

2 John seeth the throne of God in heaven: 4 The four and twenty elders: 6 The four beasts full of eyes before and behind. 10 The elders lay down their crowns, and worship him that sat on the throne.

AFTER this I looked, and behold, a door was opened in heaven: and the first voice which I heard, was as it were of a trumpet talking with me; which said, Come up hither, and I will shew thee things which must be hereafter.

2 And immediately I was in the spirit: and behold, a throne was set in heaven, and one sat on the throne.

3 And he that sat, was to look upon like a jasper, and a sardine stone: and there was a rainbow round about the throne, in sight like unto an emerald.

4 And round about the throne were four and twenty seats: and upon the seats I saw four and twenty elders sitting; clothed in white raiment; and they had on their heads crowns of gold.

5 And out of the throne proceeded lightnings, and thunderings, and voices: And there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God.

CHAP. V.

1 The book sealed with seven seals: 9 which only the Lamb that was slain is worthy to open. 12 Therefore the elders praise him, 9 and confess that he redeemed them with his blood.

AND I saw in the right hand of him that sat on the throne, <sup>a</sup> a book written within, and on the backside, <sup>b</sup> sealed with seven seals.

2 And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof?

3 And no man <sup>c</sup> in heaven, nor in earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the book, neither to look thereon.

4 And I wept much because no man was found worthy to open, and to read the book, neither to look thereon.

6 And I beheld, and lo, in the midst of the throne, and of the four beasts, and in the midst of the elders, stood <sup>g</sup> a Lamb as it had been slain, having seven horns, and <sup>h</sup> seven eyes, which are <sup>i</sup> the seven Spirits of God sent forth into all the earth.

7 And he came and took the book out of the right hand <sup>k</sup> of him that sat upon the throne.

10 <sup>u</sup> And hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth.

11 And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels <sup>v</sup> round about the throne, and the beasts, and the elders: and the number of them was <sup>w</sup> ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands;

12 Saying with a loud voice, <sup>x</sup> Worthy is the Lamb that was slain, to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing.

CHAP. VII.

3 An angel sealeth the servants of God in their foreheads. 4 The number of them that were sealed: of the tribes of Israel a certain number, 9 of all other nations an innumerable multitude, which stand before the throne, clad in white robes, and palms in their hands.

14 Their robes were washed in the blood of the Lamb.

AND after these things, I saw four angels standing on the four corners of the earth, <sup>a</sup> holding the four winds of the earth, <sup>b</sup> that the winds should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree.

2 And I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God: and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea,

3 Saying, <sup>c</sup> Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have <sup>d</sup> sealed the servants of our God <sup>e</sup> in their foreheads.

4 <sup>f</sup> And I heard the number of them which were sealed: and there were sealed, an hundred and forty and four thousand, of all the tribes of the children of Israel.

5 Of the tribe of Juda were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Reuben were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelve thousand.

6 Of the tribe of Aser were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Nephthalim were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Manasses were sealed twelve thousand.

7 Of the tribe of Simeon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Levi were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Issachar were sealed twelve thousand.

8 Of the tribe of Zabulon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Joseph were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Benjamin were sealed twelve thousand.

9 After this I beheld, and lo, <sup>g</sup> a great multitude, which no man could number, <sup>h</sup> of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, <sup>i</sup> clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands;

10 And cried with a loud voice, saying, <sup>k</sup> Salvation to our God which sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb.

11 <sup>l</sup> And all the angels stood round about the throne, and about the elders, and the four beasts, and fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God,

13 And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, What are these which are arrayed in <sup>o</sup> white robes? and whence came they?

white in the blood of the Lamb.

15 Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple: and he that sitteth on the throne shall dwell among them.

16 They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat.

17 For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne, shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters: and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

CHAP. VIII.

1 At the opening of the seventh seal, 2 seven angels had seven trumpets given them: 3 another angel putteth incense to the prayers of the saints on the golden altar. 6 Four angels found their trumpets, and great plagues follow.

AND when he had opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven about the space of half an hour.

2 And I saw the seven angels which stood before God; and to them were given seven trumpets.

3 And another angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer; and there was given unto him much incense, that he should offer it with the prayers of all saints upon the golden altar, which was before the throne.

4 And the smoke of the incense, which came with the prayers of the saints, ascended up before God, out of the angel's hand.

5 And the angel took the censer, and filled it with the fire of the altar, and cast it into the earth: and there were voices, and thunderings, and lightnings, and an earthquake.

6 And the seven angels which had the seven trumpets, prepared themselves to sound.

7 The first angel sounded, and there followed hail and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast upon the earth: and the third part of trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.

8 And the second angel sounded, and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea: and the third part of the sea became blood;

9 And the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, and had life, died; and the third part of the ships were destroyed.

10 And the third angel sounded, and there fell a great star from heaven, burning as it were a lamp, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the fountains of waters:

11 And the name of the star is called Wormwood: and the third part of the waters became wormwood; and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

12 And the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars; so as the third part of them was darkened, and the day shone not for a third part of it, and the night likewise.

13 And I beheld, and heard an angel flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, Woe, woe, woe to the inhabitants of the earth, by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels which are yet to sound!

CHAP. IX.

1 At the sounding of the fifth angel, a star falleth from heaven, to whom is given the key of the bottomless pit: 2 he openeth the pit, and there come forth locusts like scorpions. 12 The first woe past. 13 The sixth trumpet soundeth. 14 Four angels are let loose, that were bound.

AND the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star fall from heaven unto the earth: and to him was given the key of the bottomless pit.

2 And he opened the bottomless pit; and there arose a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit.

3 And there came out of the smoke locusts upon the earth; and unto them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power.

4 And it was commanded them that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; but only those men which have not the seal of God in their foreheads.

5 And to them it was given that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five months: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when he striketh a man.

6 And in those days shall men seek death, and shall not find it; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.

7 And the shapes of the locusts were like unto horses prepared unto battle; and on their heads were as it were crowns like gold, and their faces were as the faces of men.

8 And they had hair as the hair of women, and their teeth were as the teeth of lions.

CHAP. X.

1 A mighty strong angel appeareth with a book open in his hand: 6 he sweareth by him that liveth for ever, that there shall be no more time. 9 John is commanded to take and eat the book.

AND I saw another mighty angel come down from heaven, clothed with a cloud: and a rainbow was upon his head, and his face was as it were the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire:

2 And he had in his hand a little book open: and he set his right foot upon the sea, and his left foot on the earth,

3 And cried with a loud voice, as when a lion roareth: and when he had cried, seven thunders uttered their voices.

4 And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven, saying unto me, Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not.

5 And the angel which I saw stand upon the sea, and upon the earth, lifted up his hand to heaven,

6 And sware by him that liveth for ever and ever, who created heaven and the things that therein are, and the earth and the things that therein are, and the sea and the things which are therein, that there should be time no longer:

7 But in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, the mystery of God should be finished, as he hath declared to his servants the prophets.

8 And the voice which I heard from heaven spake unto me again, and said, Go, and take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel which standeth upon the sea, and upon the earth.

9 And I went unto the angel, and said unto him, Give me the little book. And he said unto me, Take it, and eat it up; and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey.

10 And I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up; and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and as soon as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter.

11 And he said unto me, Thou must prophesy again before many peoples, and nations, and tongues, and kings.

AND there was given me a reed like unto a rod: and the angel stood, saying, Rise, and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein.

1 A woman clothed with the sun travaileth: 4 the great red dragon standeth before her, ready to devour her child. 6 When she was delivered, she fleeth into the wilderness. 7 Michael and his angels fight with the dragon, and prevail.

7 And there was war in heaven; † Michael and his angels fought † against the dragon, and the dragon fought and his angels,

 9 And <sup>p</sup> the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil and Satan, <sup>r</sup> which deceiveth the whole world: <sup>s</sup> he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

10 And I heard a loud voice, saying in heaven, <sup>t</sup> Now is come salvation and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, <sup>u</sup> which accused them before our God day and night.

11 And <sup>x</sup> they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; <sup>y</sup> and they loved not their lives unto the death.

12 Therefore <sup>z</sup> rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. <sup>a</sup> Woe to the inhabitants of the earth, and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath; <sup>b</sup> because he knoweth that he hath but a short time.

13 And when the dragon saw that he was cast unto the earth, he persecuted <sup>c</sup> the woman which brought forth the man-child.

14 <sup>d</sup> And to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, <sup>e</sup> that she might fly <sup>f</sup> into the wilderness, into her place: where she is nourished <sup>g</sup> for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent.

15 And the serpent <sup>h</sup> cast out of his mouth water as a flood, after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood.

16 And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the flood which the dragon cast out of his mouth.

17 And the dragon was wroth with the woman, <sup>i</sup> and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have <sup>k</sup> the testimony of Jesus Christ.

CHAP. XIII.

1 A beast riseth out of the sea with seven heads and ten horns, to whom the dragon giveth his power. 11 Another beast cometh up out of the earth; 14 causeth an image to be made of the former beast, 15 and that men should worship it, 16 and receive his mark.

AND I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw <sup>a</sup> a beast rise up out of the sea, <sup>b</sup> having seven heads, and ten horns; and upon his horns ten crowns; and upon his heads the <sup>c</sup> name of blasphemy.

2 And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, <sup>d</sup> and his feet were as the feet of a bare, <sup>e</sup> and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and <sup>f</sup> the dragon gave him his power, <sup>g</sup> and his seat, <sup>h</sup> and great authority.

3 And I saw one of his heads, <sup>i</sup> as it were <sup>j</sup> wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and <sup>k</sup> all the world wondered after the beast.

4 And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, <sup>l</sup> Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him?

5 And there was given unto him <sup>m</sup> a mouth speaking great things, and blasphemies; and power was given unto him <sup>n</sup> to continue <sup>o</sup> forty and two months.

6 And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, <sup>p</sup> and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven.

7 And it was given unto him <sup>q</sup> to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: <sup>r</sup> and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations.

8 And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, <sup>s</sup> whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain <sup>t</sup> from the foundation of the world.

9 <sup>u</sup> If any man have an ear, let him hear.

10 <sup>v</sup> He that leadeth into captivity, shall go into captivity: <sup>w</sup> He that killeth with the sword, must be killed with the sword. <sup>x</sup> Here is the patience, and the faith of the saints.

11 And I beheld another beast, <sup>y</sup> coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon.

12 And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and them which dwell therein, to worship the first beast, <sup>z</sup> whose deadly wound was healed.

13 And <sup>a</sup> he doeth great wonders, <sup>b</sup> so that he maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men,

14 And <sup>c</sup> deceiveth them that dwell on the earth, <sup>d</sup> by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast which had the wound by a sword, <sup>e</sup> and did live.

15 And he had power to give <sup>f</sup> life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, <sup>g</sup> and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast, should be killed.

16 And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, <sup>h</sup> to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads:

CHAP. XIV.

1 The Lamb standing on mount Sion with his company; 6 an angel preacheth the gospel. 8 The fall of Babylon. 15 The harvest of the world, and putting in of the sickle. 20 The vintage and wine-press of the wrath of God.

AND I looked, and lo, <sup>a</sup> a Lamb stood on the mount Sion, and with him <sup>b</sup> an hundred forty and four thousand, <sup>c</sup> having his Father's name written in their foreheads.

2 And I heard a voice from heaven, <sup>d</sup> as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of a great thunder: and I heard the voice of <sup>e</sup> harpers harping with their harps:

3 And <sup>f</sup> they sung as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four beasts, and the elders: and no man could learn that song <sup>g</sup> but the hundred and forty and four thousand, which were redeemed from the earth.

4 These are they which were not defiled with women; <sup>h</sup> for they are virgins. These are they <sup>i</sup> which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These <sup>j</sup> were redeemed from among men, <sup>k</sup> being the first-fruits unto God and to the Lamb.

5 And <sup>m</sup> in their mouth was found no guile: for <sup>n</sup> they are without fault before the throne of God.

6 And I saw another angel <sup>o</sup> fly in the midst of heaven, <sup>p</sup> having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, <sup>q</sup> and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people,

7 Saying with a loud voice, <sup>r</sup> Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgement is come: <sup>s</sup> and worship him that made heaven and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters.

8 And there followed another angel, saying, <sup>t</sup> Babylon is fallen, is fallen, <sup>u</sup> that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.

9 And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, <sup>v</sup> If any man worship the beast and his image, and receive <sup>w</sup> his mark in his forehead, or in his hand,

10 The same <sup>x</sup> shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is <sup>y</sup> poured out without mixture into <sup>z</sup> the cup of his indignation; and <sup>b</sup> he shall be tormented with <sup>c</sup> fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb:

11 And <sup>d</sup> the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name.

12 <sup>e</sup> Here is the patience of the saints: <sup>f</sup> here are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus.

13 And I heard a voice from heaven, saying unto me, Write, <sup>g</sup> Blessed are the dead <sup>h</sup> which die in the Lord, <sup>i</sup> from henceforth: Yea, faith the Spirit, <sup>j</sup> that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them.

14 And I looked, and behold, a white cloud, and upon the cloud <sup>k</sup> one sat, <sup>l</sup> like unto the Son of man, <sup>m</sup> having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle.

15 And another angel <sup>n</sup> came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to him that sat on the cloud, <sup>o</sup> Thrust in thy sickle, and reap: for the time is come for thee to reap; for the harvest <sup>p</sup> of the earth is <sup>q</sup> ripe.

16 And he that sat on the cloud thrust in his sickle on the earth; and the earth was reaped.

17 And another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle.

18 And another angel came out from the altar, <sup>r</sup> which had power over fire; and cried with a loud cry to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, Thrust in thy sharp sickle, <sup>s</sup> and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth; for her grapes are fully ripe.

19 And the angel thrust in his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast <sup>t</sup> it into <sup>u</sup> the great wine-press of the wrath of God.

20 And <sup>v</sup> the wine-press was troden <sup>w</sup> without the city, and blood came out of the wine-press, <sup>x</sup> even unto the horse-bridles, by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs.

CHAP. XV.

1 The seven angels with the seven last plagues. 3 The song of them that overcome the beast. 7 The seven vials full of the wrath of God.

AND <sup>a</sup> I saw another sign in heaven, a great and marvellous, <sup>b</sup> seven angels having the seven last plagues; <sup>c</sup> for in them is filled up the wrath of God.

ten the victory over the beast, and over his image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name, stand on the sea of glass, having the harps of God.

3 And they sing the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty; just and true are thy ways, thou King of saints!

4 Who shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorify thy name? for thou only art holy: for all nations shall come and worship before thee; for thy judgements are made manifest.

5 And after that I looked, and behold, the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened:

6 And the seven angels came out of the temple, having the seven plagues, clothed in pure and white linen, and having their breasts girded with golden girdles.

7 And one of the four beasts gave unto the seven angels, seven golden vials full of the wrath of God, who liveth for ever and ever.

8 And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God, and from his power; and no man was able to enter into the temple, till the seven plagues of the seven angels were fulfilled.

CHAP. XVI.

1 The angels pour out their vials full of wrath. 6 The plagues that follow thereupon. 15 Christ cometh as a thief. Blessed are they that watch.

AND I heard a great voice out of the temple, saying to the seven angels, Go your ways, and pour out the vials of the wrath of God upon the earth.

2 And the first went, and poured out his vial upon the earth; and there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men which had the mark of the beast, and upon them which worshipped his image.

3 And the second angel poured out his vial upon the sea; and it became as the blood of a dead man: and every living soul died in the sea.

4 And the third angel poured out his vial upon the rivers and fountains of water; and they became blood.

5 And I heard the angel of the waters say, Thou art righteous, O Lord, which art, and wast, and shalt be, because thou hast judged thus.

6 For they have shed the blood of saints and prophets, and thou hast given them blood to drink; for they are worthy.

7 And I heard another out of the altar say, Even so, Lord God Almighty, true and righteous are thy judgements.

8 And the fourth angel poured out his vial upon the sun; and power was given unto him to scorch men with fire.

9 And men were scorched with great heat, and blasphemed the name of God, which hath power over these plagues: and they repented not, to give him glory.

10 And the fifth angel poured out his vial upon the seat of the beast; and his kingdom was full of darkness: and they gnawed their tongues for pain,

11 And blasphemed the God of heaven, because of their pains and their sores, and repented not of their deeds.

12 And the sixth angel poured out his vial upon the great river Euphrates; and the water thereof was dried up, that the way of the kings of the east might be prepared.

13 And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet.

14 For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth, and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty.

15 Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame.

16 And he gathered them together into a place called in the Hebrew tongue, Armageddon.

17 And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the air; and there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, It is done.

18 And there were voices, and thunders, and lightnings; and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since men were upon the earth, so mighty an earthquake, and so great.

19 And the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and great Babylon came in remembrance before God, to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath.

20 And every island fled away, and the mountains were not found.

21 And there fell upon men a great hail out of heaven, every stone about the weight of a talent: and men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail; for the plague thereof was exceeding great.

CHAP. XVII.

3, 4 A woman arrayed in purple, and scarlet, with a golden cup in her hand, sitteth upon the beast, 5 which is great Babylon, the mother of all abominations. 9 The interpretation of the seven heads, 12 and the ten horns. 14 The victory of the Lamb. 16 The punishment of the whore.

AND there came <sup>a</sup>one of the seven angels which had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying unto me, Come hither, <sup>b</sup>I will shew unto thee the judgement of <sup>c</sup>the great whore, <sup>d</sup>that sitteth upon many waters;

2 <sup>e</sup>With whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and <sup>f</sup>the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication.

3 So he carried me away in the spirit <sup>g</sup>into the wilderness: and I saw a woman sit <sup>h</sup>upon a scarlet-coloured beast, full of <sup>i</sup>names of blasphemy, <sup>k</sup>having seven heads, and <sup>l</sup>ten horns.

4 And the woman <sup>m</sup>was arrayed in purple, and scarlet colour, <sup>n</sup>and <sup>o</sup>decked with gold, and precious stones and pearls, <sup>p</sup>having a golden cup in her hand <sup>q</sup>full of abominations, and filthiness of her fornication:

5 And upon her forehead was a name written, <sup>r</sup>MYSTERY, BABYLON <sup>s</sup>THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS, AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

6 And I saw <sup>t</sup>the woman drunken <sup>u</sup>with the blood of the saints, <sup>v</sup>and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration.

7 And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou marvel? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and ten horns.

8 The beast that thou sawest, was, and is not; and <sup>w</sup>shall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and <sup>x</sup>go into perdition: and they that dwell on the earth <sup>y</sup>shall wonder, <sup>z</sup>a whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

9 And <sup>aa</sup>here is the mind which hath wisdom. <sup>ab</sup>The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth.

10 And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, <sup>ac</sup>he must continue a short space.

11 And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven,

12 And <sup>ae</sup>the ten horns which thou sawest, are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast.

13 These have one mind, and shall give their power and strength unto the beast.

14 <sup>af</sup>These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: <sup>ag</sup>for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings: <sup>ah</sup>and they that are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful.

15 And he saith unto me, <sup>ai</sup>The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, <sup>aj</sup>are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues.

16 And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, <sup>ak</sup>these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate, <sup>al</sup>and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and <sup>am</sup>burn her with fire:

17 <sup>an</sup>For God hath put in their hearts to fulfil his will, and to agree, and give their kingdom unto the beast, <sup>ao</sup>until the words of God shall be fulfilled.

18 And the woman which thou sawest, <sup>ap</sup>is that great city, <sup>aq</sup>which reigneth over the kings of the earth.

CHAP. XVIII.

2 Babylon is fallen. 4 The people of God commanded to depart out of her. 9 The kings of the earth, 11 with the merchants and mariners, lament over her. 20 The saints rejoice for the judgements of God upon her.

AND <sup>ar</sup>after these things, I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; and the earth was lightened with his glory.

2 And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, <sup>as</sup>Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and <sup>at</sup>is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and <sup>au</sup>a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.

3 For all nations <sup>av</sup>have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, <sup>aw</sup>and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the <sup>ax</sup>abundance of her delicacies.

4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, <sup>ay</sup>Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues.

5 <sup>az</sup>For her sins have reached unto heaven, and <sup>ba</sup>God hath remembered her iniquities.

6 <sup>bb</sup>Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double, according to her works: <sup>1</sup>in the cup which she hath filled, <sup>2</sup>fill to her double.

 7 <sup>3</sup>How much she hath glorified herself, and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: for she faith in her heart, I fit a <sup>4</sup>queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow.
 8 Therefore shall her plagues come <sup>5</sup>in one day, death, and mourning, and famine; and <sup>6</sup>she shall be utterly burned with fire: <sup>7</sup>for strong is the Lord God who judgeth her.

 11 And <sup>13</sup>the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her; for no man buyeth her merchandize any more:
 12 <sup>14</sup>The merchandize of gold and silver, and precious stones, and of pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and all <sup>15</sup>thyine wood, and all manner vessels of ivory, and all manner vessels of most precious wood, and of brasse, and iron, and marble,

 14 And the fruits that thy soul lusted after are departed from thee, and all things which were dainty and goodly are departed from thee, and thou shalt find them no more at all.
 15 <sup>18</sup>The merchants of these things which were made rich by her, shall stand afar off, for the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing,
 16 And saying, Alas, alas, that great city, <sup>19</sup>that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls!
 17 <sup>20</sup>For in one hour so great riches is come to nought. And <sup>21</sup>every ship-master, and all the company in ships, and sailors, and as many as trade by sea, stood afar off, 18 And cried <sup>22</sup>when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, <sup>23</sup>What city is like unto this great city!
 19 And <sup>24</sup>they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, alas, that great city, wherein were made rich all that had ships in the sea, by reason of her costliness! <sup>25</sup>for in one hour is she made desolate.

 20 <sup>26</sup>Rejoice over her, thou heaven, and ye holy apostles and prophets; for <sup>27</sup>God hath avenged you on her.
 21 And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, <sup>28</sup>Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all.
 22 <sup>29</sup>And the voice of harpers, and musicians, and of pipers, and trumpeters, shall be heard no more at all in thee; and no craftsman, of whatsoever craft <sup>30</sup>he be, shall be found any more in thee; and the sound of a millstone shall be heard no more at all in thee;
 23 <sup>31</sup>And the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in thee; <sup>32</sup>and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: for <sup>33</sup>thy merchants were the great men of the earth; <sup>34</sup>for by thy sorceries were all nations deceived.
 24 And <sup>35</sup>in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all that were slain upon the earth.

CHAP. XIX.

1 God is praised in heaven for judging the great whore, and avenging the blood of his saints.
 7 The marriage of the Lamb. 10 The angel will not be worshipped. 17 The fowls called to the great slaughter.

AND after these things <sup>1</sup>I heard a great voice of much people in heaven, saying, Alleluia; <sup>2</sup>Salvation and glory, and honour, and power unto the Lord our God:
 2 For <sup>3</sup>true and righteous are his judgments: for he hath judged the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and <sup>4</sup>hath avenged the blood of his servants at her hand.
 3 And again they said, Alleluia. And <sup>5</sup>her smoke rose up for ever and ever.
 4 And <sup>6</sup>the four and twenty elders, and the four beasts, fell down and worshipped God that sat on the throne, saying, <sup>7</sup>Amen; Alleluia.
 5 And a voice came out of the throne, saying, Praise our God, all ye his servants, and ye that fear him, <sup>8</sup>both small and great:
 6 <sup>9</sup>And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, Alleluia: for <sup>10</sup>the Lord God omnipotent reigneth.

honour to him: for <sup>1</sup>the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready.

8 And <sup>m</sup>to her was granted, that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and <sup>1</sup>white: <sup>a</sup>for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints.

9 And he saith unto me, Write, <sup>o</sup>Blessed are they which are called unto the marriage-supper of the Lamb. And he saith unto me, <sup>p</sup>These are the true sayings of God.

10 And <sup>q</sup>I fell at his feet to worship him. And he said unto me, <sup>r</sup>See thou do it not: I am thy fellow-servant, and of thy brethren <sup>s</sup>that have the testimony of Jesus. Worship God: for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.

11 <sup>t</sup>And I saw heaven opened, and behold, <sup>u</sup>a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called <sup>x</sup>Faithful and True, and in righteousness he doth judge and make war.

12 <sup>y</sup>His eyes were as a flame of fire, <sup>z</sup>and on his head were many crowns; <sup>a</sup>and he had a name written that no man knew but he himself:

13 <sup>b</sup>And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called, <sup>c</sup>The Word of God.

14 <sup>d</sup>And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, <sup>e</sup>clothed in fine linen, white and clean.

15 And <sup>f</sup>out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and <sup>g</sup>he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and <sup>h</sup>he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God.

16 And he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, <sup>i</sup>KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.

17 And I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying <sup>k</sup>to all the fowls that fly in the midst of heaven, <sup>l</sup>Come, and gather yourselves together unto the supper of the great God;

18 <sup>m</sup>That ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small and great.

19 <sup>n</sup>And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies gathered together to make war against him that sat on the horse, and against his army.

20 <sup>o</sup>And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and <sup>p</sup>them that worshipped his image. <sup>q</sup>These both were cast alive into a lake of fire <sup>r</sup>burning with brimstone.

21 And the remnant <sup>s</sup>were slain with the sword of him that sat upon the horse, which sword proceeded out of his mouth: <sup>t</sup>and all the fowls <sup>u</sup>were filled with their flesh.

CHAP. XX.

2 Satan bound for a thousand years. 5 The first resurrection: 6 they blessed that have part therein. 7 Satan let loose again. 8 Gog and Magog. 10 The devil cast into the lake of fire and brimstone. 12 The last and general resurrection.

AND I saw an angel come down from heaven, <sup>a</sup>having the key of the bottomless pit, and a great chain in his hand.

2 And he laid hold on <sup>b</sup>the dragon that old serpent, which is the Devil and Satan, <sup>c</sup>and bound him a thousand years,

3 And cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and set a seal upon him, <sup>d</sup>that he should deceive the nations no more, till the thousand years should be fulfilled: and after that, he must be loosed a little season.

4 And I saw <sup>e</sup>thrones, and they sat upon them, and <sup>f</sup>judgement was given unto them: and I saw <sup>g</sup>the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and or the word of God, and <sup>h</sup>which had not worshipped the beast, <sup>i</sup>nor his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and <sup>k</sup>reigned with Christ a thousand years.

5 But the rest of the dead lived not again, until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection.

6 <sup>1</sup>Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such <sup>1</sup>the second death hath no power, but they shall be <sup>m</sup>priests of God, and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years.

7 And when the thousand years are expired, <sup>n</sup>Satan shall be loosed out of his prison,

8 And shall go out <sup>o</sup>to deceive the nations, which are in the four quarters of the earth, <sup>p</sup>Gog and Magog, <sup>q</sup>to gather them together to battle: the number of whom is as the sand of the sea.

9 <sup>r</sup>And they went up on the breadth of the earth, and compassed the camp of the saints about, and the beloved city: and fire came down from God out of heaven, and devoured them.

10 <sup>s</sup>And the devil that deceived them, <sup>t</sup>was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night, for ever and ever.

11 And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them.

12 And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works.

13 And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works.

14 And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death.

15 And whosoever was not found written in the book of life, was cast into the lake of fire.

CHAP. XXI.

1 A new heaven and a new earth. 10 The heavenly Jerusalem, with a full description thereof: 23 she needeth no sun, the glory of God is her light: 24 the kings of the earth bring their riches unto her.

AND I saw a new heaven, and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea.

2 And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

3 And I heard a great voice out of heaven, saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God.

4 And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

5 And he that sat upon the throne, said, Behold, I make all things new. And he said unto me, Write: for these words are true and faithful.

6 And he said unto me, It is done. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. I will give unto him that is athirst, of the fountain of the water of life freely.

7 He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son.

8 But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and forcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.

9 And there came unto me one of the seven angels, which had the seven vials full of the seven last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come hither, I will shew thee the bride, the Lamb's wife.

10 And he carried me away in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and shewed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God,

11 Having the glory of God: and her light was like unto a stone most precious, even like a jasper stone, clear as crystal;

12 And had a wall great and high, and had twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel.

13 On the east, three gates; on the north, three gates; on the south, three gates; and on the west, three gates.

14 And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and in them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

15 And he that talked with me, had a golden reed to measure the city, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof.

16 And the city lieth four-square, and the length is as large as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs. The length and the breadth and the height of it are equal.

17 And he measured the wall thereof, an hundred and forty and four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of the angel.

18 And the building of the wall of it was of jasper: and the city was pure gold, like unto clear glass.

19 And the foundations of the wall of the city were garnished with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, a sapphire; the third, a chalcedony; the fourth, an emerald;

20 The fifth, a sardonyx; the sixth, a sardius; the seventh, a chrysolite; the eighth, a beryl; the ninth, a topaz; the tenth, a chrysoprasus; the eleventh, a jacinth; the twelfth, an amethyst.

21 And the twelve gates were twelve pearls; every several gate was of one pearl: and the street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glass.

22 And I saw no temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty, and the Lamb, are the temple of it.

CHAP. XXII.

1 The river of the water of life. 2 The tree of life. 5 The light of the city of God is himself. 9 The angel will not be worshipped. 18 Nothing may be added to the word of God, nor taken therefrom.

AND he shewed me <sup>a</sup> a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God, and of the Lamb.

2<sup>b</sup> In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, was there <sup>c</sup> the tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were <sup>d</sup> for the healing of the nations.

3 And <sup>e</sup> there shall be no more curse: <sup>f</sup> but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it; and his servants shall serve him,

4 And <sup>g</sup> they shall see his face; and <sup>h</sup> his name shall be in their foreheads.

5<sup>i</sup> And there shall be no night there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for <sup>k</sup> the Lord God giveth them light: and they shall reign for ever and ever.

6 And he said unto me, <sup>m</sup> These sayings are faithful and true. And the Lord God of the holy prophets <sup>n</sup> sent his angel to shew unto his servants the things which must shortly be done.

7<sup>o</sup> Behold, I come quickly: <sup>p</sup> blessed is he that keepeth the sayings of the prophecy of this book.

8 And I John saw these things, and heard them. And when I had heard and seen, <sup>q</sup> I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel, which shewed me these things.

9 Then saith he unto me, <sup>r</sup> See thou do it not: for I am thy fellow-servant, and of thy brethren the prophets, and of them which keep the sayings of this book: worship God.

10<sup>s</sup> And he saith unto me, Seal not the sayings of the prophecy of this book: <sup>t</sup> for the time is at hand.

11<sup>u</sup> He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he that is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still.

12<sup>x</sup> And behold, I come quickly; and <sup>y</sup> my reward is with me, <sup>z</sup> to give every man according as his work shall be.

13<sup>a</sup> I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last.

14<sup>b</sup> Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right <sup>c</sup> to the tree of life, <sup>d</sup> and may enter in through the gates into the city.

15 For <sup>e</sup> without are dogs, and forcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie.

16<sup>f</sup> I Jesus have sent mine angel to testify unto you these things in the churches. <sup>g</sup> I am the root and the offspring of David, and <sup>h</sup> the bright and morning star.

17 And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth, say, Come. <sup>i</sup> And let him that is athirst, come: And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.

18 For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, <sup>k</sup> If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book:

19 And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, <sup>l</sup> God shall take away his part <sup>m</sup> out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book.

20 He which testifieth these things, saith, Surely I come quickly. <sup>n</sup> Amen. <sup>o</sup> Even so, come Lord Jesus.

21<sup>p</sup> The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

Jacob, after he had been twenty years in Mesopotamia, sets forward on his journey homewards, without acquainting his father or brothers-in-law; Rachel stealeth her father's gods, and is pursued by Laban. 	XIX.	Lot is commanded, for the preservation of himself and his family, to get out of Sodom, and to fly to the mountain; but by much intreaty, he obtaineth leave to go into Zoar. Sodom, Gomorrah, and all the cities in the vale of Siddim, with all the inhabitants of them, are for the most horrible sins destroyed by fire and brimstone from Heaven. The Dead Sea remains a monument thereof unto this day. Lot's wife, for looking back upon Sodom, contrary to God's command, is turned into a pillar of salt; and Lot himself, fearing to continue at Zoar, leaves the plain country, and betakes himself to the mountain, carrying his two daughters with him.	1739. At the Red sea Pharaoh with his host overtakes them; Moses divides the waters with his rod, and the children of Israel pass through on dry ground unto the desert of Etham; whom when Pharaoh and his army would needs follow, they are all overwhelmed by the waters coming together at the dawning of the day, whereby the Israelites are wholly freed from the bondage of the Egyptians; whose carcases when they see floating all the sea over, and cast upon the shore, they sing a song of praise and thanksgiving unto God.

The book of Genesis endeth in the death of Joseph, containing the history of 2369 years; next to which in order of time the book of Job follows, written (as it is generally believed) by Moses.		Exodus XIV.	Upon the fifteenth of the second month (our June the 4th, being Thursday ) the Israelites come to the wilderness of Zin, which lieth between Elyma and Sinai, where, for want of food, they murmur against God, and their leaders: about the even-tide God sends them quails, and the next morning rains upon them manna from heaven; and upon that kind of bread they lived afterward by the space of forty years, even till they came to the borders of the land of Promise. The people being in great fear, God gives them sundry other laws, all which being written in the Book of the Covenant, Moses proposeth them to the people: which done, rising early in the morning, he builds an altar at the foot of the mountain, and sets up 12 statues, according to the 12 tribes of Israel, and sends 12 young men of the first-born (whom the Lord had consecrated to himself, as ministers of those holy things, before the Levitical Priethood was ordained) which offer sacrifice, first for sin, and then for thanksgiving to the Lord: and when Moses had read the Book of the Covenant, he takes the blood of the calves and goats so offered, and with water, scarlet wool, and hyssop, sprinkles the book therewith, and all the people, or those 12 statues representing them; and so performs a solemn Covenant between God and his people.

	Exodus XII. 11,	The fourth Age of the World. UPON the fourteenth day of the first month (which was May the fourth, upon Monday with us) in the evening, the pass-over is instituted.		9, 18.

Before CHRIST 1491.	70 Men of the elders of Israel, go up into the mount, and there behold the glory of God: the rest returning, Moses with his servant Joshua abides there still, and waits six days, and upon the seventh day God speaks unto him, and there he continues 40 days and 40 nights (reckoning those six days which he waited for the appearance of the Lord) eating no meat all that while, nor drinking water; ( Deut. IX. 9. ) where he receives God's command touching the frame of the Tabernacle, the Priests garments, their consecration, sacrifices, and other things comprised in this and the six following Chapters.	Before CHRIST 1490.	Numb. XI. 31.	The people lust for flesh, God gives them quails in wrath; and sends withal a most grievous plague among them.
Exodus XXV, &c. XXXI. 18.	At the end of 40 days, God gives Moses the two tables of the Law in stone, made by God's own hand, and written with his own finger; bidding him withal quickly to get him down, for that the people had already made to themselves a molten calf to worship. Moses by prayer pacifieth God, and goes down from the mount, and seeing the people keeping a festival in honour of their idol in the camp, he breaks the Tables of the Law at the foot of the mount: for which the Jews keep a solemn fast unto this day.		XII.	God rebukes the sedition of Miriam and Aaron, and maintaineth Moses his right.
XXXII.	Moses having burnt and defaced the idol, puts 3000 of the idolaters to death by the hands of the Levites.		XIII.	From the wilderness of Paran, near Kadesh-barnea, 12 men are sent (among whom are Caleb and Joshua) to discover the land of Canaan. Returning, they bring with them a branch of a vine, with a cluster of grapes upon it; ten of the twelve so sent, speak ill of the country, declare it barren, and magnify the cities for their strength, and the giantly stature of the inhabitants.
20, 28.	God commands Moses to frame new Tables of stone, and to bring them with him into the mount: Moses brings them the next morning, and whilst he stands in the cleft of a rock, God passeth by, and sheweth him a glimpse of his glory.		XIV.	The people, terrified with this relation, are about to return into Egypt, from which Caleb and Joshua endeavouring to dissuade them, are like to be stoned. At this God is so provoked, that he threatens to destroy them; but is prevailed upon by Moses his prayers to spare them. Nevertheless, he denounceth that all who are now 20 years old and upward (except Caleb and Joshua) shall die in the wilderness. The men who raised the evil report are all destroyed by sudden death. Some endeavouring to enter upon the promised land, contrary to the command of God, are smitten by the Amalekites and Canaanites.
XXXIV.	God renews his Covenant with his people, and upon certain conditions gives them his Laws again.	1489.	Deut. I. 46.	In this place, viz. Kadesh-barnea, the Israelites continue many days; but that in some places they continued many years, appeareth, for that in the space of 37 years there are but 17 encampings mentioned.
10.	In the first six months of this year, the tabernacle, the ark of the covenant, the altar, the table of shew-bread, the priests garments, the holy ointments, the candlestick, and other utensils and vessels belonging to the sacrifices, are finished in the desert at mount Sinai, and are brought unto Moses.		Numb. XXXIII.	To their long continuance in Kadesh, and the encampings from thence, all that we find delivered in the xvth and four next ensuing Chapters of Numbers , seems to refer; as how Korah, Dathan, and Abiram, for raising a mutiny against Moses and Aaron, were swallowed alive into the earth, and 250 of their associates; and how the people murmuring against Moses and Aaron for the calamity which had befallen their brethren, were destroyed by God, to the number of 14,700 men; and how 12 rods being brought by 12 princes, and laid in the sanctuary, Aaron's rod only budded, and brought forth almonds, and was laid up before the Ark, for a memorial to those who should afterwards be given to rebellion.
1490.	The tabernacle is set up and anointed with holy oil. Aaron and his sons are consecrated for the priesthood.	1471.	XVI.	In these 37 years the Israelites by 17 encampings, having compassed the hill country of Seir and Edom, they come to the wilderness of Zin, in the first month of the 40th year after their departure out of Egypt.
XL.	Nadab and Abihu, for offering strange fire, are struck dead in the place by fire from heaven.		XVII.	Here Miriam, the Sister of Moses and Aaron, dieth.
Lev. X.	The princes of the tribes present their offerings toward the dedication of the tabernacle. God speaketh to Moses from the mercy-seat.	1452.	XX.	The people again, for want of water, murmur against Moses and Aaron, whom when God had commanded to call water out of the rock, only by speaking to it, Moses being moved in his mind through impatience and diffidence of the thing, speaks something, whatever it was, unadvisedly with his lips, and strikes the rock thrice with Aaron's rod, and thereby draws water from it; but for transgressing God's command they are both debarred from entering into the land of Canaan.
Numb. VII.	The second pass-over is instituted.
IX.	Jethro, who is also called Hobab, brings his daughter Zipporah, with her two sons, Gershon and Eliezer, which were left with him, to his son-in-law Moses: and having congratulated his and the whole people of Israel's deliverance out of bondage, he openly declares his faith and devotion towards the true God. By his advice Moses imparts the government of the people to some others, and ordains magistrates for the deciding of lesser causes.		1,
X. 29.	Moses complains to God of the over great burden of his government; God, to ease him of his charge, gives him for assistance the court of 70 Elders.		2,
Exodus XVIII.			12,
Numb. XI.

Before CHRIST 1452.	Numb. XX. 23, 28.	In the fifth month of this year Aaron dieth at Mosera, on the top of mount Hor, at the age of 123 years, leaving his son Eleazar his successor in the high-priesthood.
	XXI. 5. 9. John III. 14. 1 Cor. X. 9. Numb. XXI.	The people murmuring are plagued with fiery serpents, whereof many die; upon their repentance God commands that a brazen serpent be made, and lifted up upon a pole, that as many as look on it may live.
1451.	21, 33.	About the latter end of this year, all those who at Kadesh-barnea mutinied against God, being wholly extinct and dead, the Israelites pass over Zared, and come to the borders of Moab at Ar, and at length they arrive at Bamoth, a valley in the country of the Moabites, and pitch at mount Pisgah.
	XXII. 1, 2, 3.	Sihon king of the Amorites, refusing them passage through his country, is slain, and the Israelites possess his land.
	John XXIV. 9. Numb. XXII. 7, 35.	Og the king of Basan, coming out against Israel, is destroyed with all his people, not one left alive, and his country possessed by the Israelites.
	2 Pet. II. 15, 16.	After these victories the Israelites set forward, and encamp in the plains of Moab.
	Numb. XXIII. Deut. XXIII. 5. John XXIV. 10. Numb. XXV. 1, 2, 3. &c. Deut. IV. 3. Psaln CVI. 28. Rev. II. 14. 1 Cor. X. 8.	Balak king of Moab, considering what the Israelites had done to the Amorites, fears, lest under pretence of passing through his country, they should possess themselves of his whole kingdom; takes counsel with the princes of the Midianites his neighbours, and sends for Balaam a soothsayer out of Mesopotamia, to come and curse the Israelites, promising him great rewards for his labour; purposing afterwards to make war upon them.
	Numb. XXIV. 10.	Balaam, forewarned of God, refuseth at first to come; but being sent for a second time, he importuneth God to let him go, and goes with a purpose indeed to curse Israel; but God offended hereat, makes the dumb ass of this wizard, on which he rode, speaking in a man's voice, to reprove his folly.
	Deut. XXIII. 5.	Balaam twice offers sacrifice, and would fain have cursed Israel, to gratify Balak therein; but being forced thereto by the Spirit of God, instead of cursing, he blesteth them altogether; foretelling what felicity attended them, and what calamities should befall their enemies.
	John XXIV. 10.	By his advice the women of Moab and Midian are set on work to turn the Israelites away to idolatry. Wherefore God commands Moses first to take all the ringleaders of this disorder, and to hang them up before the sun, and then gives order to the judges to put to death all such as had joined themselves to Baal-peor. Last of all God sends a plague upon the people, whereof die 23,000 men in one day: which added to them which were hanged and killed with the sword, amount in all to 24,000.
	Numb. XXV. 1, 2, 3. &c. Deut. IV. 3. Psaln CVI. 28. Rev. II. 14. 1 Cor. X. 8.	Phinehas the son Eleazar, by killing Zimri, the chief of his father's family, and Cozbi the daughter of Zur, a prince of the Midianites, appeaseth the wrath of God, and the plague ceaseth. God therefore setteth the High-priesthood for ever upon the house of Phinehas, and commands that war be made upon the Midianites.

Before CHRIST 1451.	Numb. XXVI. 12, 23. Deut. III. 26, 27, 28.	Moses and Eleazar, by God's command, in the plain of Moab, near unto Jordan, over against Jericho, number the people from 20 years old and upwards, and find them to be 601,730 men, besides the Levites, whose number, reckoning them from one month old, and upwards, come to 23,000; and then Moses receives command for the parting of the land of promise among the Israelites.
	XXVII. 1, 2, 12, 23. Deut. III. 26, 27, 28.	The daughters of Zelophehad have their father's land parted among them, for want of issue male; this occasions the law for succession in heritages to be made.
	Numb. XXXI. John XIII. 21, 22.	God signifies to Moses that he shall die; and Joshua is thereupon declared to be his successor; upon whom Moses lays his hands, and gives him instructions. Several laws are made.
	Numb. XXXII. Deut. III. John XIII. & XXII.	Twelve thousand of the Israelites, under the command of Phinehas, vanquish the Midianites, and put to the sword all the males among them with their five princes, and among them Zur, the father of Cozbi, and Balaam the wizard; but they save the women alive, at which Moses is wroth, and commands that every male-child, and all the women, except such as be virgins, be killed.
	Deut. XXVII. XXVIII. XXIX. XXX. XXXI. XXXII. XXXIII. XXXIV.	The lands which belonged to Sihon and Og, namely, all from the river Arnon to mount Hermon, Moses divides, and gives to the tribes of Reuben and Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasseh; so that their possessions lay on this side Jordan; nevertheless they assist the rest of the tribes in all their wars, till they have subdued the Canaanites, and possessed the promised land.
		Moses commands the people, that in their passage over Jordan, they shall set up great stones, and engrave the Ten Commandments on them, with the form of blessing upon mount Gerizim, and of cursing on mount Ebal. Exhorting them to observe the law of God, by setting before their eyes the benefits that would ensue thereon.
		He also renews the covenant made by God with them and their children on mount Horeb, and again persuades them to keep that covenant, by all the blessings and curses which would undoubtedly follow the keepers or breakers of it. Yet with a promise of pardon and deliverance, if at any time, having broken it, they shall repent them of their sin; and tells them further, that God had therefore thus declared his will unto them, to the end that none hereafter offending, shall pretend ignorance.
		Moses having written this law, delivers it to the priests the sons of Levi, and the elders of the people, to be kept; the same day also he writes his most excellent song, and teaches the same to the children of Israel to be sung; and having finished the book of the law, he takes order to have it laid up in the side of the ark.
		Moses now drawing near to his end, blesteth every tribe in particular, by way of prophecy, save only the tribe of Simeon.
		In the 12th month of this year he goes up to mount Nebo, and from thence beholds the land of promise, and there dieth, aged 120 years; the body of Moses God translates out of the place where he died, into a valley of the land of Moab, over against Beth-peor, and there burieth it; nor doth any man know the place where he laid it unto this day. The Israelites mourn for him 30 days.

Here ends the Pentateuch, or five books of Moses, containing the history of 2552 years and an half, from the beginning of the world; and the book of Joshua begins with the 41st year after the departure of the children of Israel out of Egypt.

Josh. II.

Joshua, being confirmed in his government by God, sends forth spies from Shittim to the city of Jericho, who being harboured by Rahab, are privily sent away, when search is made for them.

III.

Upon the tenth day of the first month (April 30) to wit, the same day that the Paschal Lamb was to be chosen out of the flock, the Israelites under the conduct of Joshua, a type of Jesus Christ, go up out of the river Jordan into the promised land of Canaan, a type of a more heavenly country. They pass through the river on dry ground, the waters being for that present divided; for a memorial of which miraculous passage, Joshua sets up 12 stones in the very channel of Jordan, and taking 12 other stones out of the midst thereof, sets them up at Gilgal, the place where they next encamp.

IV.

The day following Joshua renews the use of circumcision, which had been omitted 40 years.

Upon the 14th day of the same month, in the evening, the Israelites celebrate their first pass-over in the land of Canaan.

Next day after the Pass-over Manna ceaseth. Our Lord Jesus, Captain of his Father's host, appears to Joshua, the typical Jesus, before Jericho, with a drawn sword in his hand, and promiseth there to defend his people.

Jericho, the ark of the Lord having been carried round about it, is taken the seventh day, the walls thereof falling down at the sound of the priests trumpets, all the inhabitants are put to the sword, except Rahab and her family.

The Israelites besiege Ai, and are smitten by their enemies, God having abandoned them for sacrilege committed by Achan; Achan's sin being discovered by the casting of lots, and himself found guilty, he is stoned to death, and, together with his children and cattle, burned with fire. God being pacified hereby, Ai is taken by ambushment, and utterly destroyed.

The kings of Canaan combine against Israel; only the Gibeonites craftily find a way to save their own lives, by making a league with them; but are afterwards deputed to the servile offices of the house of God.

Josh. X.

Adoni-zedek king of Jerusalem, with the kings of Hebron, Jarmuth, Lachish, and Eglon, hearing that Gibeon is fallen off from them, join their forces together, and besiege it; but Joshua raiseth the siege, pursueth those five kings, and smiteth them as far as Azekah, the Lord in the mean while killing more with hail-stones from heaven, than the Israelites with their swords. Joshua commands the sun to stand still over Gibeon, and the moon over the valley of Ajalon, by the space almost of one whole day, until the Israelites are fully avenged of their enemies. The five kings hide themselves in a cave at Makkedah; from whence they are brought forth, scornfully used, and hanged.

Judges
II. 7.

III. 6, 7,

After the decease of Joshua, and the elders who out-lived him, and who remembered the wonders which God had wrought for Israel, there succeeds a generation of men which forget God, and mingle themselves with the Canaanites by marriage, and worship their idols. In this time of anarchy and confusion, when every man did that which seemed right in his own eyes, all those disorders were committed, which are reported in the five last chapters of the Book of Judges; to wit, the idolatry of Micah, and the children of Dan; the war of the Benjamites, and the cause thereof. God being highly provoked, gives them up into the hands of Cushan king of Mesopotamia; which first

Before CHRIST	Judges	calamity of their's holds them but 8 years.	Before CHRIST	Judges	land enjoys rest 40 years, after the former rest restored to them by Deborah and Barak.
1405.	III. 9.	Othniel the son of Kenaz, and son-in-law to Joshua, stirred up by God, as a judge and avenger of his people, defeats Cushan, and delivers the Israelites out of bondage; and the land rested forty years after the first rest which Joshua procured for them.	1236.	VIII. 33.	Gideon dieth, and the Israelites falling back again to idolatry, worship Baal-berith for their God.
1343.	10.	Othniel dying, the Israelites fall again to sin against God, and are given over into the hands of Eglon king of Moab, who joining with the Ammonites and the Amalekites, overthrowes the Israelites, and takes Jericho; and this second oppression continueth 18 years.	IX. 1, 2, &c.		Abimelech the son of Gideon (begotten upon his concubine) purposing to get to himself the kingdom which his father had refused, slayeth 70 of his brothers all upon one stone; and having by the help of the Shechemites got to be made king, Jotham the youngest son of Gideon, who only escaped Abimelech's fury, from the top of mount Gerizim, expostulates with them the wrong they had done to his father's house; and by way of a parable foretells their ruin; which done, he flies, and dwells quietly in Beerith.
1325.	12.	Ehud the son of Gera is raised up by God to be an avenger of his people; for feigning a message to Eglon, he runs him into the belly with his dagger; then getting away, he gathers all Israel into a body on mount Ephraim, and slays 10,000 of the most valiant men of Moab; and the land resteth 40 years after the former rest obtained by Othniel.	1235.		Abimelech having reigned three years over Israel, Gaal a Shechemite conspires against him; which being discovered to him by Zebul, he utterly destroys the city of Shechem, and puts all the inhabitants to the sword, and burns the temple of their god Beerith with fire; from thence he goeth and layeth siege to Thebez, where he is knocked on the head with a piece of a mil-stone, cast upon him by a woman from the walls, and then killed out-right by his armour-bearer.
1305.	15.	After him Shamgar, the son of Anath, slayeth 600 Philistines with an ox-goad, and he also avengeth Israel.	1233.	22,	Tolah the son of Puah, after Abimelech, judgeth Israel 23 years.
1285.	30.	The Israelites, after the death of Ehud, returning to their old sin, are given up by God into the hands of Jabin king of Canaan; and this thralldom of their's continueth 20 years.	50.		Jair the Gileadite succeeds Tolah, and judgeth Israel 22 years.
	3.	Deborah, the wife of Lapidoth, a prophetess, who at this time judgeth Israel in mount Ephraim, and Barak of the tribe of Naphtali, being made captain of the host of Israel, in fight of Megiddo overcometh Sisera, captain of Jabin's army, whom Jael the wife of Heber the Kenite afterwards kills in her own tent. For a memorial of which victory, Deborah composeth a song; and the land resteth 40 years after the former rest obtained by Ehud.	2 Sam. XI. 21.		The Israelites, forsaking again the true God, fall to worship the gods of several nations, and are given up into the hands of the Philistines and Ammonites; which fifth thralldom lasteth 18 years. Upon their repentance, and abandoning their idols, at length they obtain mercy.
1252.	4.	The Israelites sinning again, are delivered into the hands of the Midianites; which fourth thralldom lasteth 7 years. Hereupon they cry unto God for help, and are reproved by a prophet. Then Gideon the son of Joash, of Manasseh, is by an angel from God sent to deliver them. He first overturns the altar of Baal, and burns his grove, and is called Jerubbaal. He out of 32,000 men, which came unto him, chooseth only (God so commanding) 300; but with them he puts to flight all the host of the Midianites, whom the Ephraimites afterwards pursue; and slay their princes, Oreb and Zeeb. Gideon having pacified the Ephraimites, who complain that they were not called to the battle at first, passeth the river Jordan, and defeats the remainder of the Midianitish army; he chastiseth also the men of Succoth and Penuel, who had refused him victuals in his journey; and slays the two kings of the Moabites, Zebah and Zalmunna. After which great victories the Israelites offering to settle the kingdom upon him, and his posterity, he refuseth it; but receiving their golden ear-rings, he makes thereof an ephod, which afterwards proves an occasion of idolatry. The Midianites being thus vanquished, the	1232. He puts to the sword 42,000 Ephraimites, who had behaved themselves insolently against him, and judgeth Israel 6 years.
1245.	V. 31.		1210.	3,	Ibzan the Bethlehemite succeeds Jephthah, and judgeth Israel 7 years.
	VI.		1206.	8,	Elon the Zebulonite succeeds Ibzan, and judgeth Israel 10 years.
	VII.		1188.	15.	Abdon the Ephraimite succeeds Elon, and judgeth Israel 8 years.
	VIII.		1187.	XI.	Eli, the high priest (in whom the high-priesthood was translated from the family of Eleazar to Ithamar's) succeeds Abdon, and judgeth Israel 40 years. The Israelites again provoke the Lord to anger, and he delivers them into the hands of the Philistines. This sixth thralldom begins seven months after Eli's entering upon the government, and lasteth 40 years, even till seven months after his death, when the ark was brought back again.
			1156.	24.	Samson the Nazarite, as an angel had foretold, is born at Zora.
			1155.	XIV. 4.	Whilst Eli the high priest executeth the office of a judge in civil causes, under the Philistines, Samson takes an occasion to quarrel with them, by marrying a woman of Timnath; for having on the day of his

1136.	XV.	Samson again in harvest-time, goes to present his wife with a kid at her father's house, but finds her given away in marriage to another man; Samson resolves to be revenged; he catcheth 300 foxes, and tying fire-brands to their tails, turns them all into the corn-fields of the Philistines, and into their vineyards, and olive-gardens, and sets them all on fire. The Philistines take Samson's wife and father-in-law, and burn them; Samson in revenge, slays a great multitude of them, and sits down upon the rock Etam, from whence being taken by 3000 of the Jews, and by them delivered into the hands of the Philistines, he slays of them a thousand men with the jaw-bone of an ass; in which place he is miraculously refreshed, when thirsty and ready to faint.	1096.	13.	After 20 years the Israelites, by Samuel's persuasion, solemnly repent at Mizpeh, and upon their conversion, God by thunder from heaven delivers them from the invasion of the Philistines, who are subdued, the hand of the Lord being against them all the days of Samuel.
1117.	XVI.	Samson is betrayed by Delilah his concubine, bereaved of the hair of his Nazariteship, and delivered to the Philistines; who put out his eyes, and bind him with chains of brags. The Philistines gather together to offer sacrifice to Dagon their god, and Samson is brought to make them sport; whose hair being grown, and his strength in a great measure restored, he takes hold of the two chief pillars whereon the house stood (wherein were the princes of the Philistines, and a great multitude of people) and pulls down the house, killing more men at his death, than he did in all his life-time. So he died, having judged Israel in the days of the Philistines 20 years.	1095.	VIII.	Samuel being grown old takes for his assistants in the government his sons; by whose ill management of affairs, the Israelites require a king to be given them; whereupon God gives them a king in his wrath, to wit, Saul the son of Kith, after Samuel had judged Israel 21 years. Saul is privately anointed by Samuel, and afterwards publickly proclaimed king at Mizpeh.
1116.	1 Sam. IV.	The Israelites take up arms against the Philistines, but with very ill success, for they lose 4000 men in one battle. Then they send for the ark of the covenant from Shiloh, and cause it to be brought into the camp. The Philistines seeing now all lie at stake, encourage one another to behave themselves like men that day; and so falling on, they slay of the Israelites 30,000 men. The ark of God is taken, and Hophni and Phinehas, priests, and sons of Eli, are slain. Of all which, when tidings are brought to old Eli, frightened thereat, he falls from his chair, and breaks his neck, in the 98th year of his age.	1085.	XVII. 12. But when Dagon had been found two several times fallen groveling before it, and broken in pieces, and the inhabitants of the place sorely plagued; they remove it from thence to Gath, and from thence to Ekron. But the same plagues and judgments following where-ever it went, after 7 months by the advice of their priests, they send home the ark again, with presents and gifts into the land of the Israelites, and it is brought to Beth-shemesh, where 50,070 men	1063. David fearing he may sometime or other fall into the hands of Saul, flies to Gath unto king Achish, carrying with him 600 men; and having obtained of him the town of Ziklag to dwell in, he continueth one year and four months in the land of the Philistines; from whence he invadeth the countries of the Geshurites, Gezrites, and Amalekites, and puts to the sword all, both men and women, not leaving one alive to carry the news thereof to king Achish.

				XVIII.	David, tempted by Satan, commandeth Joab to number the people: God, offended thereat, sends a prophet to put three plagues to his choice, viz. the famine, sword, or pestilence. David chooseth to fall into the hands of a merciful God, rather than into the hands of men. So God sends a pestilence; whereof 70,000 men die in one day. The angel being about to destroy Jerusalem, God bids him hold his hand; for he beholds David repenting in sackcloth, and intreating him to spare the innocent people, and to turn his hand upon himself, and upon his father's house.

Jehoshaphat being settled in his kingdom, and having demolished the high places and groves; in the third year of his reign he sends Levites with the princes to instruct the people in the law. God in the mean time subdueth his enemies under him.	Before CHRIST 889.	2 Chron. XXI. 4, 5.	Jehoram now by the death of his father, has the kingdom of Judah to himself, which he holds four years. He is no sooner settled in his throne, but he puts all his brethren to the sword, with many of the princes of Israel. At this time the Edomites, who ever since king David's time had lived in subjection to Judah, revolt, and (as it was foretold by Isaac) they for ever shake off his yoke. Libnah also, a city of the priests, in the tribe of Judah, falls off from him about this time.

Ahab not being able to persuade Naboth to sell him his vineyard, falls sick upon it; Jezebel his wife suborning false witnesses to accuse him of blasphemy, causeth Naboth to be stoned, and puts the king in possession of the vineyard. Jehoram following the counsel of his wicked wife Athaliah, the daughter of Ahab king of Israel, sets up in Judah, and even in Jerusalem itself, the idolatrous worship of Baal, and compels his subjects thereto; a letter which was left for him by Elijah the prophet, comes to his hands, which reproves him, and denounces all those calamities and punishments which afterwards befel him.
898.	XXII. 51.	Ahab, in the seventeenth year of the reign of Jehoshaphat, maketh his son Ahaziah his associate in the government of his kingdom.		12.	Ahaziah succeeds his father in the kingdom of Judah (having had part of the government bestowed upon him the year before) in the 12th year of Jehoram king of Israel, and reigneth one year in Jerusalem.
	2 Kings III. 1.	Jehoshaphat also maketh Jehoram his son copartner with him; whence it is, that Jehoram the son of Ahab, who succeeded his brother Ahaziah in the kingdom of Israel, in the 18th year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, is said to have begun his reign in the second year of Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat.	885.	2 Kings VIII. 25.	Jehoram king of Israel, and Ahaziah king of Judah, lead their armies to Ramoth-gilead, against Hazael, who had newly succeeded Ben-hadad in the kingdom of Syria; Jehoram is dangerously wounded, and retires himself to Jezreel to be cured. In the mean time Elisha sendeth a young prophet with instructions to anoint Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat, the son of Nimshi, at Ramoth-gilead, king over Israel, and to open to him the will of God, for the rooting out of the house of Ahab; who being proclaimed king by the soldiers, marcheth straight to Jezreel, killeth Jehoram in the field of Naboth, and causeth Jezebel to be cast out at a window, where she is eaten by dogs.
897.	1 Kings XXII. 2 Chron. XVIII.	Ahab having got Jehoshaphat to assist him in the siege of Ramoth-gilead, before he goes, he asketh counsel of 400 false prophets, who promise him victory and success; but by Jehoshaphat's advice, Micaiah a true prophet of God is consulted, who foretels his overthrow; and according to his word, Ahab is slain at Ramoth-gilead, and buried at Samaria.	884.	28.	He dispatcheth letters also to Samaria, and causeth seventy of Ahab's children to be beheaded. Then taking with him Jehoradab the son of Rechab, he comes himself to Samaria, and destroys the whole family of Ahab, and all the priests of Baal. Nevertheless, having put down the worship of Baal, he departs not from the worship of Jeroboam's golden calves, but maintains that idolatry all the time of his reign, which was 28 years.

Jehu proceeds farther, and executes the divine vengeance upon the idolatrous house of Judah; he pursues Ahaziah, who fled towards Megiddo, and overtaking him at Gur, causeth him to be killed in his chariot. Going also to Samaria, he meeteth with 42 of Ahaziah's kinsmen, whom he causeth to be slain.
		Ahaziah king of Israel lying ill of a fall, sends to consult Baal-zebub the god of Ekron, concerning his recovery. Elijah the prophet meeteth the messenger, and telleth him Ahaziah shall surely die; whereupon two captains over fifty men apiece are sent to apprehend him, and bring him before the king; Elijah calleth for fire from heaven, and destroyeth both them and their companies. A third captain with his fifty men being sent, and behaving himself submissively, Elijah goes along with him; the prophet certifies the king, that he shall not come down from his bed alive. So Ahaziah dieth, having governed (partly by himself, and partly together with his father) two years.		X.	Athaliah the daughter of Ahab, seeing her son Ahaziah dead, usurps the kingdom, destroying those that had right to the succession; but Jehosheba the daughter of king Jehoram, and wife to Jehoiada the high priest, takes Jehoash, being then an infant, and son to her brother Ahaziah, and hides him in the temple, and so saves him from that massacre which was made of the rest of the blood royal.

Jeroboam king of Israel (under whom that kingdom came to its full height of glory) dieth; after his death all things fall into confusion, and the state is reduced to a plain anarchy, which lasteth 11 years and an half; for such an interregnum or vacancy the synchronism of Kings requires, that the six months of Zachariah the son of Jeroboam may answer the 38 years and one month of Shallum, who murdered him in the 39th year of Azariah, or Uzziah, king of Judah.

839.	XIII.	Jehoahaz dieth, and Jehoash his son succeedeth in the kingdom of Israel. In the 12th year of his reign he begins a reformation in Judah and Jerusalem, and carries it on successfully.
726.	XVIII. 1.	Hotheah king of Israel, having consulted with So king of Egypt, refuseth to pay tribute to Shalmaneser; provoked hereby, and jealous of some farther design in that confederacy of Hotheah with the king of Egypt, Shalmaneser layeth siege to Samaria, and towards the latter end of the third year taketh it, and carrieth away the Israelites captive into his own country. This was the end of the kingdom of Israel, when it had stood divided from the kingdom of Judah 254 years.	624.		This year he giveth order for the repair of the temple. Hilkiah the high priest, having found a book of the law, sends it to the king, who hears it read all over to him; and thereupon asketh counsel of Huldah the prophetess, who prophesieth the destruction of Jerusalem, but not in his days. Josiah calling to him the elders of Judah and Jerusalem, with the priests and prophets, causeth the book of the law to be read over before all the people, and reneweth the covenant between God and his people; he burneth also dead men's bones upon the altar at Beth-el, as was foretold; and keepeth a most solemn pass-over.
725.	2 Kings XVII. 4.	Sennacherib king of Assyria coming up against Judah, besiegeth their fenced cities, and taketh many of them, but is pacified by a tribute.		2 Kings XXIII.	At this time a war breaks out between the king of Egypt, and the king of Assyria. Josiah unadvisedly engageth in this war against Necho king of Egypt, and is slain in the valley of Megiddo. The good king being thus taken out of the world, whose life only kept off the Babylonish captivity from that nation, not only the people then living bewailed his death, but even in after-time a publick mourning for him was kept. The prophet Jeremy also in remembrance thereof composeth his Lamentations; wherein bewailing the calamities which were shortly to befall that people, as present before his eyes, in a most compassionate manner he points as it were with his finger, at the death of Josiah, as the source and original of all those ensuing miseries.
724.		About this time Hezekiah falls sick, and is told by Isaiah, that he shall die; but pouring out his tears and prayers unto God, he recovereth his health, and obtaineth a prolongation of his life, and kingdom for 15 years. For a sign whereof the sun goes ten degrees backward.	610.	2 Kings XXIII. 29.	After the death of Josiah, the people anoint Shallum, one of his younger sons, to be their king. 721.		Sennacherib not observing the articles of peace, layeth siege to Jerusalem, and sendeth a blasphemous letter to Hezekiah; which he opening and spreading before the Lord in the temple with many tears, craves assistance from God against the Assyrians. Whereupon the prophet Isaiah assures him that God will deliver him, and defend that city. The self-same night an angel of the Lord slays 185,000 men in the Assyrian army; and the next morning Sennacherib departeth, and returns to Nineve; where not long after, whilst he is worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, he is slain by his own sons. Zedekiah flies away by night, but being pursued, is taken, and brought prisoner to Riblah, Nebuchadnezzar's head quarters; there having first seen his children slaughtered before his eyes, he has afterwards those eyes put out, and being laden with chains, is carried away captive to Babylon. About a month after the taking of the city, Nebuzaradan, captain of the guard, sent by Nebuchadnezzar, makes his entry into it, sets fire to the temple, the king's palace, and some noblemen's houses, and so layeth the whole city in ashes; the walls of Jerusalem being rased to the ground, all that were left in the city, and those that a little before had fallen to the Chaldeans, with what treasure he can find, doth Nebuzaradan carry with him into Babylon.

At which time the 70 years of the Babylonish captivity being expired (as was foretold by Isaiah and Jeremiah, the former making mention of Cyrus by name) he gives leave to all the Jews, dwelling in all parts of his dominions, to return into their own country, and commands them immediately to fall in hand with rebuilding of the temple.

Lam. I. 1. Luke II. 36. 2 Chron. XI. 16.
				He restoreth also all the vessels of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar had brought from thence; and contributes towards the building.
				The Jews therefore return into their own country; the poorer sort having allowance made them to defray their charges upon the way. The number of the children of the province, or Hebrews born in Chaldea, which with their captain Zerubbabel, and their high priest Jeshua, return out of captivity, is 42,360, besides proselytes, men-servants, and maid-servants, to the number of 7,337. Now the particular sums of Ezra's catalogue being cast up, amount only to 29,818; and those in Nehemiah's account make but 31,031, both which come far short of that universal sum of 42,360, which, at the bottom of each catalogue, is said to be the number of the whole congregation. Wherefore the Hebrews in the XXIXth Chapter of their great chronicle, tell us, that to complete the full sum of 42,360, we must cast in those of the other ten tribes of Israel, who came up out of captivity with the Jews. For even till the last extirpation of the Jewish state, there remained some reliques of the other ten tribes, not only in the dispersion, and at Jerusalem, and other cities of Judah; but also of those who kept still in their own seats; for Shalmaneser swept not away all out of the whole ten tribes, but left a remnant of them in their own country, who were afterwards, together with the Jews, Benjamites, and Levites, carried away

	Ezra III. 8, 13.	In the second year after their return from Babylon, in the second month, they appoint Levites to oversee the work of the house of God, and lay the foundation of the temple; the old men lamenting, who 53 years before had seen the old temple standing, and the younger fort rejoicing to see the new one going up.		Est. VII.	Esther entertaining the king and Haman at a banquet, maketh suit for her own life, and her people's, and accuseth Haman. The king understanding that Haman had provided a gallows for Mordecai, causeth him to be hanged thereon. In memory of this great deliverance the two days of Purim are made festival.

Ezra the priest, a man skilled in the law of Moses, obtains a large commission from king Artaxerxes, to settle the Jewish common-wealth, and to reform the church at Jerusalem.
529.	6.	In the beginning of the reign of Artaxerxes (called in profane story Cambyfes) the Samaritans, who, whilst Cyrus lived, had secretly undermined the Jews, now openly frame a direct accusation in writing against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem, and present it to the king, who presently forbids the Jews to proceed in the building.	467.	Ez. VII.	In the seventh year of Artaxerxes, Ezra, with a great multitude of Jews, sets out from Babylon.
		In the second year of king Darius Hystaspes (the same with Ahasuerus) Zerubbabel and Jeshua, incited by the prophets Haggai and Zechariah, set forward the building of the temple.		VIII.	In the seventh year of Artaxerxes, Ezra, with a great multitude of Jews, sets out from Babylon.
520.	V. 1. 	Hag. II. 1, 9.	About this time Zechariah the prophet exhorteth the Jews to repentance.	455.	Neh. II.	In the twentieth year of king Artaxerxes, Nehemiah a Jew, one of his cup-bearers, being made governor of Judea, obtains leave to build the walls of Jerusalem, and finish that great work. Here begin Daniel's 70 weeks to be fulfilled before the passion of our Saviour.
	Zech. I. 1, 6.	Ahasuerus puts away queen Vashti his wife, and not long after espouseth Esther, the niece of Mordecai the Jew.	442.	Neh. V. 14.	Nehemiah, having governed Judea 12 years, returns to the king of Persia.
519. 518.	Est. I, II.	In the sixth year of Darius, or Ahasuerus, the temple is finished; the dedication whereof is celebrated with great joy, and abundance of sacrifices, the Priests and Levites, every one in his place, attending on the ministry of the temple. The pass-over also is celebrated.	415.	XIII. 6.	This year is the 21st Jubile, the last that ever the prophets of the Old Testament saw; for that place in Nehemiah, Chap. XII. 22. is not to be understood of the last Darius, but of Darius Nothus, who now reigns in Persia; the full history of Nehemiah ending with the time of Artaxerxes Longimanus, father of this Darius Nothus.
515.	Ezra VI.	Haman an Agagite, of the race of the Amalekites, a great favourite of king Ahasuerus, offended at Mordecai, because he falls not down and adores him, as others do, resolves to be revenged of the whole nation of the Jews (which was ever averse to his) and to root it out; for the executing of which purpose, that he may find a successful time, he causeth Pur, that is the Lot, to be cast before him, for to know the day and month wherein the Jews shall be destroyed, and the lot falls on the twelfth month Adar.			Hitherto (saith Eusebius in his Chronicle, to the 32d year of Artaxerxes) the Divine Scriptures of the Hebrews contain the annals of the times: But those things which were done among them afterwards, we must deliver out of the books of the Maccabees, and out of the writings of Josephus, who have delivered a general history of the Jewish affairs from thence down to the times of the Romans.
510.	Est. III.	Haman obtains an edict from the king, that all Jews, without respect to sex or age, upon the thirteenth day of the month Adar be put to death in all the provinces of the king's dominions. Hereupon Mordecai, Esther, and all the Jews, humble themselves before the Lord by fasting and prayer.		Nehem. XIII.	That Malachi, the last of the prophets was contemporary with Nehemiah, appears from hence, That he no where exhorts the people to the building of the temple, as Haggai and Zachary did; but the temple being now built, he reproves those disorders, which Nehemiah at his second return with a new commission from Babylon, saith he found in his absence to have crept in among the Jews; as marriage with strange women, with-holding of tithes, and abuses in the worship of God. And because a succession of prophets was not to be expected, as before, he exhorteth the people constantly to adhere to the law of Moses, till Christ the chief Prophet should appear; whose forerunner John the Baptist should come in the spirit and power of Elias, to turn the hearts of the fathers unto their children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just. Manasses, brother to Jaddus the high priest, refusing to put away his strange wife, is driven from the sacrifice: Sanaballath his father-in-law, governor of Samaria, revolteth from Darius, obtains leave of Alexander to build a temple on mount Gerizim, and makes Manasses high priest thereof: to which resort all such as are entangled in unlawful marriage, with all such offenders as think themselves not safe at Jerusalem. This was the rise of that schismatical conventicle of the Samaritans. See John IV. 20. Alexander marcheth toward Jerusalem, intending to besiege it: Jaddus the high priest hearing of it, putteth on his priestly ornaments, and, accompanied with the people all in white, goeth out to meet him: Alexander seeing his habit, falls prostrate before him, saying, that whilst he was in Macedonia, a man appeared unto him in the very same habit, who invited him to come into Asia, and promised to deliver the Persian empire into his hands. After this he goes to the temple, and offers sacrifice, according to the high priest's direction. They shew him the prophecy of Daniel, That a Grecian should come and destroy the Persians; whereby he is mightily confirmed in his persuasion, that he himself is the man: Lastly, he bestoweth on the Jews whatever favours they desire, and departeth. Heliodorus entering the temple, is by angels struck down in the very place, and carried from thence half-dead; but by the prayers of Onias he is soon after restored to his health. Returning to Seleucus that sent him, he magnifies the holiness of the temple, and the power of God dwelling in it.

Matthias dies, and Judas Maccabeus takes upon him the management of this affair. He delivers his country, and purgeth it from the abominations which had been committed in it.

Apollonius, governor of Samaria, having raised an army among the Gentiles and Samaritans, falls upon the Jews; but is discomfited and slain by Judas Maccabeus.

Seron also governor of the lower Syria, musters up all the forces under his command, and invades Judea; him Judas Maccabeus encounters, slays 800 of his men on the place, and puts the rest to flight.

Judas Maccabeus defeats a great army, which Antiochus sent against the Jews. Lyfias returns with a greater power; Judas kills 5000 of his men, and causeth him to retreat. He purifieth the temple, and setteth it in order, after it had lain desolate three years; and buildeth a wall about Sion.

Antiochus is taken with a violent pain in his bowels, and such a rottegness seizeth his flesh, that worms breed in it; he confesseth that he is plagued for the wrong done to Jerusalem, and dieth in the 140th year of the kingdom of the Grecians. His son Antiochus Eupator, a child about nine years old, succeeds him. He maketh peace with the Jews, but quickly breaketh it: he puts to death Menelaus the high priest, and confers that honour upon Alcimus, or Jacimus.

Onias, the son of Onias III. retires into Egypt, where Ptolemeus Philometor, and Cleopatra his wife, permit him to build a temple at Heliopolis, in imitation of that at Jerusalem, and they constitute him high priest there.

Demetrius Soter, the son of Seleucus, escapes from Rome, and comes into Syria, where he causeth himself to be crowned king, and putteth to death Antiochus and Lyfias.

Demetrius, at the instance of Alcimus, sends Nicanor with a great army against Judas Maccabeus, whom he endeavours to surprize. They join battle, and Nicanor is slain.

Here ends the continued history of the second book of Maccabees, being an abstract and breviary of the five books of Jason, a Jew of Cyrene.

King Demetrius sends Bacchides with a new army, consisting of 20,000 men, against Judas Maccabeus; Judas having with him but 800 men, ventures to engage him, and is slain. His brother Jonathan is chosen general in his stead.

Jonathan enters an alliance with the Romans. Josephus observes, that this was the first league that ever was known to be between the Romans and the Jews.

Whilst Alcimus commands the wall of the inner court of the temple to be pulled down, God strikes him suddenly with a palsy, so that without speaking a word, he dies in great torment.

Jonathan having wearied Bacchides by war, compelleth him to make a league, and draw off his army.

Alexander Balas, the son of king Antiochus Epiphanes, enters with an army into Syria; the garrison of Ptolemais set open their gates to him, by reason of their hatred to king Demetrius; who prepares himself for war.

Demetrius desireth an alliance with Jonathan, who makes use of this occasion to repair the fortifications of Jerusalem.

Alexander Balas is no less careful to obtain the friendship of Jonathan, and to oblige him, confers on him the high priesthood.

Jonathan puts on the holy vestment, on the seventh month of the 160th year of the kingdom of the Grecians, at the feast of tabernacles. He was the first high priest of the Hasmonean family.

Demetrius and Alexander come to a battle, and Demetrius is slain.

Alexander Balas finding himself in the peaceable possession of the kingdom of Syria, espouseth Cleopatra, the daughter of Ptolemeus Philometor king of Egypt. Alexander highly honours Jonathan the high priest at his nuptials.

Demetrius Nicanor, eldest son of Demetrius Soter, enters into Cilicia with an army. King Alexander Balas gives the command of Syria to Apollonius, who sets upon Jonathan the high priest; Jonathan defeats him, and takes Joppe and Azotus, and burns the temple of Dagon.

Ptolemeus Philometor, king of Egypt, comes to the relief of king Alexander his son-in-law; Alexander ungratefully sets Ammonius to lie in ambush to kill him. The treachery being discovered, Ptolemeus takes away his daughter from Alexander, and marrieth her to Demetrius. Alexander having been driven from Antioch, the inhabitants of that place make offer of the kingdom to Ptolemeus; but he refuseth it, and persuadeth them to accept of Demetrius for their king.

Alexander returns with a great army. Ptolemeus and Demetrius unite their forces, and overcome him in a pitched battle; but Ptolemeus dies of the wounds which he received, after he had seen the head of Alexander sent to him by Zabdiel an Arabian prince. Jonathan besiegeth the citadel at Jerusalem, held by a garrison of Macedonians. Complaint hereof being made to Demetrius, Jonathan appeaseth him by presents, and obtaineth new favours for the Jews. Demetrius incurreth the hatred of his soldiers, by abridging their pay in time of peace.

Tryphon, with some soldiers that revolted from Demetrius, undertakes to establish Antiochus, the son of Alexander Balas, in the kingdom of Syria.

Demetrius is vanquished by young Antiochus, and made to fly into Seleucia. Great honours are by Antiochus conferred on Jo-

Christ out of the multitude of his disciples chooseth 12, whom he calleth Apostles: namely, Peter, Andrew, James, John, Philip, Bartholomew, Matthew, Thomas, James the son of Alphaeus, Simon called Zelotes, Judas the brother of James, and Judas Iscariot. To these our Saviour chiefly directs his discourse in that glorious, full, and admirable sermon on the mount.

John the Baptist is beheaded in prison by Herod's command.
26.	Mat. III. 13. Mar. I. 9. Luke III. 22.	Jesus entering upon the thirtieth year of his age, comes from Galilee to Jordan, and is baptized of John; at which time a most illustrious manifestation is made of the blessed Trinity; for the Son of God ascending out of the water, and praying, the heavens are opened, and the Spirit of God, in the shape of a dove, descends upon him; and the voice of the Father is heard from heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.			XIV. 6, 15. Mark VI. 35. Luke IX. 12. John VI. 1, 15.	Jesus feeds 5000 men, besides women and children, with five barley-loaves and two little fishes. He refuses to be made a king.

Jesus, full of the Holy Ghost, returns from Jordan, and is led by the spirit into the wilderness, where he fasteth forty days and forty nights, and is tempted by the devil. After this, our Lord returns into Galilee. John gives testimony to our Saviour, passing by him; Andrew, Peter, Philip, and Nathanael, acknowledge him to be the Messiah, and become his disciples. A certain village of the Samaritans refuseth our Saviour entertainment in his way to Jerusalem: the disciples desiring to call for fire from heaven to consume them, are severely reprehended. The seventy disciples are sent out by two and two, to work miracles, and to preach. Christ teacheth his disciples to pray. Christ raiseth Lazarus, that had been buried four days. Caiaphas, high priest of the Jews, prophesieth concerning the death of Christ. Zaccheus a publican converted. Christ restoreth to blind Bartimeus his sight. Mary the sister of Lazarus anoints our Saviour's feet with costly spikenard, and wipe-eth them with the hair of her head. The number of believers increasing at Je- rusalem, the apostles ordain seven deacons, who should distribute the alms of the whole Church to the widows, and poorer sort of believers. Stephen, one of these deacons, having confounded some that disputed with him, is by them falsely accused of blasphe- my, and brought before the council, where he reprehends their rebellion, and murder- ing of Christ. Whereupon they cast him out of the city, and stone him; he in the mean time praying for them.
Matth. XXVI. Mark XIV. Luke XXII. John XIII. Christ washeth his disciples feet, and ex- horteth them to humility and charity. In the self-same night Christ is betrayed by Judas, mocked, buffeted, and spit upon by the soldiers. Next day he is condemned by Pilate, and crucified; the sun during the crucifixion is darkened, and the veil of the temple rent in the midst. Christ praying for his enemies, gives up the ghost. Joseph of Arimathea begs the body, and lays it in a new sepulchre. On the third day, the next after the Jewish Sabbath (April 5.) Christ riseth from the dead; his Resurrection is declared by angels to the women that came to the sepulchre. Christ first appeareth to Mary Magdalene, and af- terward to his disciples, and dineth with them. Christ bringeth his Apostles to mount O- livet; commandeth them to expect in Jeru- salem the sending down of the Holy Ghost: sends them to teach and baptize all nations, and blesses them; and while they behold, he is taken up, and a cloud receives him out of their sight. After his Ascension the disciples are warned by two angels to depart, and to set their minds upon his second com- ing; they accordingly return, and giving themselves to prayer, choose Matthias to be an Apostle in the place of Judas. The apostles, by prayer and im- position of hands, confer the Holy Ghost on all believers. Acts II.		On the day of Pentecost (May 24.) the Holy Ghost descendeth on the Apostles in the form of cloven tongues, like as of fire, and enableth them to speak all languages. At Lystra, Paul healing a cripple, the multitude cry out, that the gods are come down, and call Barnabas, Jupiter; and Paul, Mercurius; and would have sacrificed to them, had not the apostles, with clothes rent, run in among them, and assured them, that they were men like themselves. Soon after there come Jews from Antioch and Iconium, who excite the people against them. Paul is by the furious multitude stoned, and drawn out of the city as dead; but whilst the disciples stand about him, he riseth up, and the next day departs with Barnabas to Derbe. In this year, perhaps at this very time, Paul was caught up into the third heaven, and heard unspeakable words, fourteen years before he wrote his second epistle to the Corinthians. About this time Timothy, though a child, with his mother Eunice, and his grandmother Lois, embrace the Christian faith, preached by Paul. Certain Judaizing Christians come from Judea to Antioch, and teach that the Gentiles ought to be circumcised, and observe the law of Moses; these Paul and Barnabas oppose, and a council is held by the apostles and others at Jerusalem, to determine this controversy. The decrees of the synod are sent to the churches. Paul and Barnabas thinking to visit the churches together, fall at strife, and part asunder; Barnabas and Mark go into Cyprus; Paul and Silas into Syria and Cilicia. Paul coming to Derbe, finds there Timothy, whom (because his mother was a believing Jew, though his father a Gentile) he causeth to be circumcised, and takes him along with him. He is by a vision admonished to go into Macedonia; coming to Philippi, the chief city of that part of Macedonia, he converts Lydia; casteth out of a certain maid-servant a spirit of divination, whose master losing a considerable gain thereby, brings Paul and Silas before the magistrates; these cause them to be whipped and imprisoned; but at midnight, Paul and Silas praying and singing Psalms, the doors of the prison fly open, and their bonds are loosed: the jailer, ready to kill himself, is converted to the faith, and baptized the same night with his whole family. Next day the magistrates come themselves, and pray them to depart the city. From Philippi Paul takes his journey through Amphipolis and Apollonia, and comes to Thessalonica, where he finds a synagogue of the Jews; there he preacheth three sabbath-days; some believe, others persecute him. Leaving Thessalonica, he comes to Berea, and soon after arrives at Athens, disputes with the philosophers, and declares unto them that UNKNOWN GOD, whom they had ignorantly worshipped. He converts Dionysius the Areopagite, and thence passeth to Corinth. Paul at Corinth meets with Aquila and Priscilla, not long before banished Rome,
41.	X.	At Caesarea, Cornelius a Centurion, by prayers and alms, finds favour in the sight of God, and is commanded by an Angel to send for Peter, now at Joppa. God by a vision teacheth Peter not to despise the Gentiles; and being sent for by Cornelius, goes and preacheth Christ to him, and a great company that were met at his house: while Peter preacheth, the Holy Ghost falls upon them all; and immediately the Apostle baptizeth them.
	XI.	Peter, at his return to Jerusalem, is accused by those of the circumcision, for conversing with the Gentiles; but he declares to them his vision, and the whole matter concerning Cornelius; and they glorify God, for granting to the Gentiles also repentance unto life. The believers, who ever since the martyrdom of Stephen, and the persecution thereupon ensuing, had been dispersed throughout all Phenice and Cyprus, come now to Antioch, and preach the Gospel to the Greeks there, having before preached to none but the Jews. The Church at Jerusalem understanding this, and that the number of believers increased exceedingly, sends Barnabas thither to confirm them; he goes to Tarsus, and takes Saul along with him to Antioch, where they continue a whole year, converting multitudes to the faith. Here the disciples were first called Christians.
44.	XII.	About this time James the brother of John is beheaded by the command of Herod Agrippa. He also imprisoneth Peter, whom an angel delivers, upon the prayers of the church. This same Herod, not long after, speaking to the people at Caesarea, some of them cry out, It is the voice of God, and not of man; and immediately an angel of the Lord smites him, because he gave not the glory to God; and he is eaten of worms, and dieth.
45.	XIII.	Barnabas and Saul set forward in their preaching of the Gospel. They plant the Christian faith in Seleucia, Cyprus, and other places. At Paphos they preach the Gospel to Sergius Paulus, governor of that country: Elymas a sorcerer withstanding them, and endeavouring to turn away Sergius from the faith, is at Saul's rebuke struck blind. From this time Saul is always called by his new name Paul; he preacheth at Antioch; the Gentiles believe, but the Jews gainsay and blaspheme. Whereupon he and his assistants turn to the Gentiles, and come to Iconium.
46.	XIV.	At Iconium they are persecuted and ready to be stoned. From hence they fly to Lystra

TABLES of SCRIPTURE MEASURES, WEIGHTS, and COINS: With an APPENDIX, containing the Method of Calculating its MEASURES of SURFACE, hitherto wanting in Treatises on this Subject. By the Right Reverend RICHARD Lord Bishop of PETERBOROUGH.

A Measure is a known quantity applied to another of the same kind that is less known, to make its Dimensions better known, by help of numbers, expressing the proportion that the known quantity bears to the unknown. The dimensions to be measured are three: 1. Mere length, which hath but one dimension; 2. Surface, which consists of length multiplied into breadth; so it hath two dimensions, as it were interwoven, and this is always measured by some square surface already known, as by a square foot, or a square cubit, or any other square already known, by help of its side. Moses generally useth the square cubit: 3. Is Solidity, or Capacity, which hath three dimensions multiplied into each other: Length, breadth, and height or depth. This is measured by a known cube. From solidity ariseth weight in all sublunary bodies; and by weight we measure the value of coins: Therefore I shall join weights and coins together in the fourth table.

I. TABLE. Measures of Length.

I express the Cubit, and its Parts, both by Inch-Measure and by Foot-Measure; which I deduce from Inches by this Proportion:

	Inch. Meas.	Foot. Meas.
As 12. 1. :: 21 L 888.	1 L 824.
	Inch. Dec.	Foot. Dec.
A Cubit is = to	21 L 888.	1 L 824.
A Span the longer = $\frac{1}{2}$ a Cubit	= 10 L 944 =	L 912.
Span the less = $\frac{1}{3}$ of a Cubit	= 7 L 296 =	L 608.
A Hand's breadth = $\frac{1}{4}$ of Cubit	= 3 L 684 =	L 304.
A Finger's breadth = $\frac{1}{6}$ of Cubit	= L 912 =	L 076.

Measures of many Cubits Length I express only in Foot-Measure.

A Fathom	= 4 Cubits	= 7 L 296.
Ezekiel's Reed	= 6 Cubits	= 10 L 944.

Schoenus, the Egyptian Line for Land-Measure, which I think Scripture useth to divide Inheritances. Psalms XVI. 6. and LXXVIII. 55. They used different Lengths, but the shortest, and most useful was

Herodotus mentions a Schoenus just 300 times as long: I judge that all the greater were made in proportion to the least.
The Mile, — — — = 4000 Cubits = 7296 Feet.
Stadium,  $\frac{1}{16}$  of their Mile — — = 400 Cubits = 729 L 6.
Parasang, 3 of their Miles = 12000 Cubits = 4 English Miles, and 580 Feet.

II. TABLE. Measures of Surface.

Moses hath described these by square Cubits. I here express them reduced to our square Feet: The method of this reduction is taught in an Appendix. I first propose three clear examples given by Moses: Secondly, I place six instances of greater difficulty.

The clearest examples are,

I. The Altar of Incense. Only two sides of it, viz. its length and breadth are express'd by Moses; each of them is affirmed to be one Cubit. Yet he declares that it was four-square: whence we collect, that it was just one square Cubit. See Exod. XXX. 2. Now it is demonstrat'd in the Appendix, that one Jewish square Cubit amounts to in surface three English square Feet, and about 47 square Inches.

II. The Table of Shew-bread. Exod. XXV. 23. It is affirm'd to be two Cubits in length, and one in breadth: None doubt but it was rectangular, containing two Jewish square Cubits. These amount to above six English square Feet, and above half, viz. 94 square Inches.

III. The Boards of the Tabernacle, each 10 Cubits in length, and one and an half in breadth, Exod. XXVI. 16. being rectangular, must contain 15 square Cubits, Jewish. These are proved to contain very near 50 square Feet of English Measure.

The more difficult cases referred to the Appendix, are,

I. The Mercy-seat, whose surface is = 12 square Feet and  $\frac{1}{2}$ .
II. A general method is taught of reducing any given number of Jewish Cubits to English square Feet.

III. The example of the 15 square Cubits in the Boards of the Tabernacle is made clearer.

IV. The Court of the Tabernacle, described Exod. XXVII. 18. is found to be just half the Egyptian Aroua, and to contain 1 Rood, 21 Perches, 27 square Feet, &c.

V. The whole Aroua is determined, and reduced to our English Measures, 3 Roods, 2 Perches, 55 square Feet.

VI. The suburbs, or Glebe Land, given to each city of the Levites, Numb. XXXV. 3, 4, 5, is shew'd to be a Square, on each of the four sides of every city, containing a million of Jewish square cubits, or 100 Aroua; which amount to in each Square 76 Acres, 1 Rood, 20 Perches, 80 square Feet: Whence we collect, that all the four Squares amounted to 305 Acres, 2 Roods, 1 Perch, besides 51 Feet square.

An APPENDIX to the Second Table of Measures of Surface, described by Moses, shewing the Method of reducing them by Calculation to the Measures used in England, for the benefit of those that understand Decimal Arithmetick, and desire to try the Reduction given in the Table, or to make further Improvements in this kind of Measures.

1. The Mercy-seat. I Shall begin with Reduction of the Measures of the Mercy-seat, which was God's Throne of Grace among the Jews. Moses in Exod. XXV. 17. affirms, that its length was two Cubits, and an half, its breadth one Cubit and an half. The fractions adhering to its length and breadth, make some difficulty to beginners in Arithmetick, which the Decimal way doth much abate. Supposing therefore, what I have elsewhere proved, that the Jewish Cubit was in Foot-measure 1.824. The length must be expressed in Foot-measure, and Decimals thereof, 4.4560. The breadth in like measure will be 2.4736. Wherefore the product of these numbers multiplied into each other, gives its surface 12.47616: in number of its square Feet, and Decimals thereof, 12 square Feet, and very near half a square Foot; if the Decimals had been .50, it had been just half a Foot. If we desire to express those Decimals of a Foot in square Inches, as is usual in England, we must multiply 47.616 by 144, the square Inches of a Foot, and the product will be 6845.6704; which shews that the Decimals we found amount to 68 square Inches, and about half an Inch more: we need not be nicer.

2. In the Altar of Incense Moses describes the Jewish square Cubit, which must be reduced to our Foot Measure; thus, 1.824. The product of these numbers multiplied will be the upper surface of this Altar, 3.4326,976, that is, three square Feet, and 4326,976 Decimals of a square Foot, which we may express by 47 square Inches, and a few Decimals of an Inch square inconsiderable.

3. The Boards of the Tabernacle. Moses's description of the Boards of the Tabernacle, Exod. XXVI. 16. by 10 Cubits in length, and one and an half in breadth, naturally leads a man to discern in each board's surface 15 Jewish square Cubits; because if we conceive a line drawn from the end of one Cubit at the bottom of the Board, to the end of one Cubit at the top of the Board, this must needs be 10 whole square Cubits on one side of that line, and 10 half square Cubits (= 5 whole) on the other side of that line: Here therefore are 15 square Cubits. The reduction of these into English square Feet is performed by multiplying 15, viz. the number of Cubits given into 3.4326,976, the Feet and Decimals of one square Cubit, and the product will be 49.490,464, and that is very near to 50 square Feet; for those Decimals amount to above 130 square Inches; and little more than 13 square Inches would make it just 50 Feet, which abatement we need not here regard.

4. Let us now go to the measure of the surface of the land: But we will begin with the Court of the Tabernacle, the ground on which the Priests performed all the solemn publick worship of Israel in Moses's time. The Area of this Court is described by Moses, Exod. XXVII. 18. by its length 100 Cubits, and its breadth every where 50 Cubits. Wherefore this Area must be in Jewish measure 5000 square Cubits, for that is the product of 100 multiplied into 50. To reduce these 5000 Jewish Cubits into English square Feet, I must multiply 5000 into 3.4326,976, the product is 16,634.488 English square Feet.

But in cases of such long numbers of Feet, we use for brevity's sake, and to help our memories, to reduce them into Perches, or Roods, or Acres, which contain known numbers of square Feet. A Perch contains 272 square Feet and  $\frac{1}{4}$ . A Rood is to 10,890 square Feet. An Acre is to 43,560 square Feet. It is plain that the number 16,634.488 hath not integers equal to those of an Acre; but it hath enough to answer those in a Rood, and some overplus; therefore I must divide 16,634.488 by 10,890, which is a Rood. By such division continued in the Decimal way, until I have a fraction of five or six places, which is exact enough, I find the quote to be 1.527,537 which assures me that my number 16,634.488 hath but once intirely in it a whole Rood: But it hath more over in it many Decimal parts of a Rood. These therefore I reduce to the Perches contained in them, by multiplying them into 40, which is the number of Perches that make up a Rood; and cutting off six places from the product, which is 21.101,480; so I find there are 21 Perches intire, and the figures after the Separatrix are Decimals of a Perch. These also I multiply by 272.25, which are the square Feet and Decimals of a Perch. The product of this last multiplication, after eight places cut off from it by the Separatrix, because there were six places of Decimals in one of the multipliers, and two in the other, is 2762,793,000. Hence I learn that there are therein but 27 intire Feet; all the eight Decimal places amount to little above half a Foot, and therefore I cast them away as inconsiderable in the measure of land. This method of reduction by multiplication of Decimals, I find to be easier than the common way of reduction by division, and therefore I propose it to be used by beginners in this practice of surveying. So I find this Court to contain in English measure 1 Rood, 21 Perches, 27 Feet, and little more than half a Foot squared. But reflecting upon Moses's measure by Cubits, and finding them to be precisely 5000 square Cubits, I observed that they were just half 10,000, which I had observed from Herodotus's Euterpe, to be the Area of the Egyptian Aroua, by which their land was as generally measured, as our's is by Acres and Roods. See Herodot. l. 2. c. 168. I called also to mind a passage in Manetho an Egyptian Priest, cited by Josephus in his first book against Apion, where he affirms, that Manetho in his history of the reign, wars, and expulsion of the Pastors (whom Africanus affirms to be Phœnicians, or Canaanites, and Josephus vainly believed to be Jews) wrote out of the publick Records of Egypt, that these Pastors made at Avaris a very large and strong encampment, that encompassed 10,000 Aroua, sufficient to contain 240,000 men, and long to maintain their cattle. Hence it appears, that not only the Egyptians, but the Phœnicians or Canaanites also, that had dwelt among them, and had reigned there during the time of six kings successively, used this measure of land called Aroua. Now this was long before Moses's time; for the beginning of Amosis or Tethmosis, who expelled them out of Egypt, was very near the time of Abraham's death, as appears by the annals of the learned Primate of Ireland. Wherefore I believe that Moses, who was skilled in all Egyptian learning, especially surveying, did of choice make the Court of the Tabernacle to be just half an Aroura, which was a known measure to him and his people, who had long dwelt in Egypt, and Divine Authority directed him so to do.

5. Because we have shewn from Herodotus, that an Aroura is the square of 100 Jewish or Egyptian Cubits, and 100 such Cubits may in English Foot-measure be express'd by 1824 English Feet, it follows that the square of this number will express exactly the number of the English square Feet that are contained in an Aroura. Now by multiplication of 1824 into itself, I find the product to be 33,269,476. Therefore I conclude that there are 33,269 square Feet intire, and 476 Decimals of a square Foot, in an Aroura. Now to reduce these English square Feet into Roods, Perches, and the Remainder of square Feet, I use the method used in the last paragraph: First, I divide them by 10,890, the square Feet in a Rood; and the quote I find 3,055,074, that is 3 Roods, and 55,074 Decimals of a Rood. Secondly, I multiply those Decimals by 40, which is the number of Perches in a Rood, the product is 2,202,960. Hence I conclude there are therein two Perches, and 202,960 Decimals of a Perch. Thirdly, I multiply these last Decimals by 272 25, which are the square Feet of a Perch. The product is 55,586,000, that is 55 intire square Feet; the eight places of Decimals amount to little above 1/4 of a square Foot, therefore I reject them as inconsiderable in measure of land. By all these reductions it is found, that an Aroura is in English measure three Roods, two Perches, 55 1/4 square Feet. Hence it follows also, that it is not well translated by Jugurum, for it is much larger; nor is it well in English called an Acre, for it is considerably less. To this place I refer the use of the lesser sort of σχοῦν, which yet is most convenient for the use of the Egyptians, and of the Jews, to measure out private men's inheritances, by a line which was 80 Cubits long. For the length of this line will measure one side of an Aroura, if the other side be 125 Cubits long, which is the length of this line, and its half, and 5 Cubits above half of it, which they might easily mark in it by a knot or a ring. And by this means they might easily lay any number of Aroura together, all of them rectangular and parallel to each other. Such lines I suppose for measure of inheritances are intimated, Psal. LXXVIII. 55. and XVI. 6, &c.

6. I shall conclude with an example amounting after reduction to a number of English Acres, which measure we have not yet reached to. This I take from Numb. XXXV. 3, 4, 5, verses. There Moses describes what measure of land the Levites were to be allowed for their cattle, their goods, and all their beasts, on the north, east, south, and west sides of each of their cities. So that the city was to be in the midst of the land belonging to it. This land in our translation is called suburbs, because of its nearness to all their cities. But we must not thence imagine, that it means houses and streets, adjoining to their cities, in which sense we sometimes use the word suburbs. For Moses plainly tells us they were places for their several sorts of cattle to feed in, such as might also be orchards or gardens for fruits, or perhaps for a little corn, comprehended in the word their Goods. These fields he limits by 1000 Cubits, which was just a quarter of an eastern mile, but amounts in mere length to 608 yards English measure, and therefore exceeds a quarter of an English mile by 168 yards in length. But it is certain that cattle cannot feed upon mere length, but this must signify the side of some surface of land bounded thereby, and we must have two sides of that surface given, before we can find the Area, or surface contained. Therefore Moses, ver. 5. tells us, that on each side of each city they must measure 2000 Cubits, which will determine no surface, unless we understand it to mean the two sides of a square, bounded on every side by 1000 Cubits; these two sides multiplied into each other, will produce a square that contains just a million of square Cubits, and that is a known and exact measure of just 100 Aroura: and this shews that the 2000 Cubits mentioned ver. 5. are the two sides of that square, whereof the 1000 mentioned ver. 4. is one, and may be called the root of the square. This shews the agreement of the two different numbers. The reduction of this million of square Cubits will be performed by the same method that I have used before. Therefore, first, I express 1000 Jewish by 1824 English Feet, without any Separatrix, according to the principles owned in Decimal Arithmetick; and the square of that number will be 3,326,976, without a Separatrix. Secondly, I divide this number by 43,560, which are the square feet of an Acre, and find the quote to be 76 2376,859, which signify 76 intire Acres, and 2376,859 Decimals of an Acre. Thirdly, to find what Roods are contained in these Decimals, I multiply them by four, the number of Roods in an Acre, and find the quote to be 1,507,436, which proves that there is but one Rood in them, and the six figures cut off by the Separatrix (because there were six Decimals in one of the multipliers) are all Decimals of a Rood. Fourthly, therefore to find what Perches are in these last Decimals; I multiply them by 40, which is the number of Perches contained in a Rood. The product is 20,297,440; hereby I find there are 20 intire Perches, besides the Decimals of a Perch placed after the Separatrix. Fifthly, to find what square Feet are in those last Decimals, I multiply them by 272 25, which are the square Feet and Decimals in a Perch, the Product is 80,497,804, which is 80 square Feet, and all the Decimals not amounting to a square Foot, I reject as inconsiderable in measure of land. Thus we have found that this and every other square, on each side of every Levitical City, was prescribed to be 76 Acres, 1 Rood, 20 Perches, 80 square Feet in our measure, but was just a million of square Cubits in their measure.

To add the four squares belonging to one Levitical City together, the best way will be to take the first quote that we found in Acre-measure, viz. 76 2376,859, and we must multiply it by four, and we shall find by the method I have used, all the four squares together to amount to 305 Acres, 2 Roods, 1 Perch; we need not take notice of any lesser quantities in this case: We may also by this method find the sum of the Acres belonging to all the 48 cities of the Levites, and many other improvements in this kind of measuring surfaces. But I leave them to the industry of others.

THE PSALMS of DAVID.

PSAL. 1. T.S.

The man is blest that hath not to wicked men his ear; [lent Nor led his life as sinners do, nor sat in scorn's chair:
2 But in the law of God the Lord
doth set his whole delight,
And in the same doth exercise himself both day and night.
3 He shall be like a tree that is planted the rivers nigh,
Which in due season bringeth its fruit abundantly: [forth 4 Whose leaf shall never fade nor but flourishing shall stand; [fall, Ev'n so all things shall prosper
well,
that this man takes in hand.
5 As for ungodly men, with them
it shall be nothing fo;
But as the chaff which by the wind is driven to and fro.
6 Therefore the wicked men shall in judgement stand upright; [not Nor in th' assembly of the just shall sinners come in sight.
7 For why? the way of godly men unto the Lord is known;
Whereas the way of wicked men shall quite be overthrown.

PSAL. 2. T.S.

Why did the Gentiles tumults raise?
what rage was in their brain?
Why do the people still contrive
a thing that is but vain?
2 The kings and rulers of the earth conspire, and are all bent, Against the Lord, and Christ his whom he among us sent. [Son, 3 Shall we be bound to them? say they;
let all their bonds be broke;
And of their doctrine and their law
let us reject the yoke.
4 But he that in the heav'n doth their doings will deride; [dwell
And make them all as mockingstocks
throughout the world so wide.
5 For in his wrath he shall reprove their pride and scornful way,
And in his fury trouble them,
and unto them shall say;
6 I have anointed him my King upon my holy hill:
I will therefore, Lord, preach thy according to thy will: [law 7 The law whereof the Lord him-hath thus said unto me, [self Thou art my only Son, this day have I begotten thee.
8 All people I will give to thee,
as heirs at thy request;

The ends and coasts of all the earth
by thee shall be possess'd.
9 Thou shalt them bruise, ev'n like to those that under foot are trod;
And as a potter's vessel, break them with an iron rod.
10 Now ye, O kings, and rulers all,
be wise therefore and learn'd,
By whom the matters of the world are judged and discern'd.
11 See that ye serve the Lord above
in trembling and in fear;
See that with reverence ye rejoice,
when ye to him draw near:
12 See that ye do embrace and kiss
his Son without delay; Left in his wrath ye suddenly perish from the right way.
13 If once his wrath (but little) be kindled in his breast, [shall Then only they that trust in him shall happy be and blest.

when I am hard bested;
My worship and my honour both,

And he out of his holy hill did hear me instantly.
4 I laid me down, and quietly
I slept and rose again:
For why? I know assuredly,
the Lord did me sustain.
5 If thousands up against me rise,
I will not be afraid;
For thou art still my Lord and God,
my Saviour and my aid.
6 Rise up therefore, save me, my

For thou hast broke the cheeks and

O God, thou art my righteousness,
Lord, hear me when I call;
Thou hast set me at liberty,
when I was bound in thrall.
2 Have mercy, Lord, therefore on and grant me my request; [me,
For unto thee incessantly to cry I will not rest.

3 O mortal men, how long will ye my glory thus despise?
Why wander ye in vanity,
and follow after lies?
4 Know ye that good and godly
men
the Lord doth take and chuse;
And when to him I make com-
he doth me not refuse. [plaint, 5 Sin not, but stand in awe there-examine well your heart; [fore,
And in your chamber quietly, see ye yourselves convert.

of righteousness and praise;
And look that in the living Lord
ye put your trust always.
7 The greater sort crave worldly and riches do embrace; [goods,
But, Lord, grant us thy countenance,
thy favour, and thy grace.
8 For thou thereby shalt make my heart
more joyful and more glad,
Than they that of their corn and wine
full great increase have had.
9 In peace therefore lie down will I,
taking my rest and sleep;
For thou only dost me, O Lord, preserve and safely keep.

PSAL. 5. T.S.

Incline thine ears, O Lord, and let my words have free access To thee, who art my God and King, from whom I seek redress.
2 Hear me betimes, Lord, tarry not,
for I will have respect,
My supplication in the morn to thee for to direct.
3 And I will patiently still trust in thee, my God, alone;
Thou art not pleas'd with wicked-
ness,
and ill with thee dwells none.
4 Such as be foolish shall not stand in sight of thee, O Lord; Vain workers of iniquity
thou hast always abhorr'd.
5 The liars and base flatterers shall be destroy'd by thee; Blood-thirsty and deceitful men likewise shall hated be.
6 Therefore will I come to thy house,
trusting upon thy grace;
And reverently will worship thee towards thy holy place.

Also the way that I should walk before my face disclose.

their inward filth is great; [truth,

Their throat an open sepulchre,
and tongues full of deceit.
9 Destroy their false conspiracies, that they may come to nought;
Subvert them in their heaps of sin,
who have rebellion wrought.
10 But those that put their trust in let them be glad always; [thee,
And render thanks for thy defence,
and give thy Name the praise;

And with thy grace, as with a shield, defend him from all ill.

LORD, in thy wrath reprove me

And heal me, Lord, for why? thou know'st

3 My soul is troubled very sore, and vex'd exceedingly;
But, Lord, how long wilt thou delay to cure my misery?
4 Lord, turn thee to thy wonted

O save me, not for my deserts, but for thy mercies sake.

with tears of my complaint.
7 My sight is dim, and waxeth old with anguish of my heart,

the Lord will soon defame,
And suddenly confound them all with great rebuke and shame.

O Lord my God, I put my trust and confidence in thee;
Save me from them that me pursue,
and still deliver me:

2 Left like a lion he me tear,
and rend in pieces small,
While there is none to succour and rid me out of thrall. [me, 3 O Lord my God, if I have done
the thing that is not right;
Or else, if I be found in fault,
or guilty in thy sight;
4 Or to my friend rewarded ill,
or left him in distress,
Who me pursu'd most cruelly,
and hated me causeless:
5 Then let my foe pursue my soul, let him my life down thrust Unto the earth, and also lay my honour in the dust.
6 Stand up, O Lord, in wrath, be-my foes do rage so fast; [cause Unto the judgement rise for me which thou commanded hast.
7 Then shall great nations come to thee,
and know thee by this thing;
If thou declare, for love of them,
thyself as Lord and King.
8 And as thou art of all men Judge,
O Lord, now judge thou me,
According to my righteousness, and my integrity.

The Second Part.

9 Lord, cease the hate of wicked
men,
and be the just man's guide;
By whom the secrets of all hearts are searched and descry'd.

PSAL. 8. T. S.

O God our Lord, how wonderful are thy works ev'ry where!
Thy fame surmounts in dignity
the highest heav'ns that are.
2 Ev'n by the mouth of sucking babes
thou wilt confound thy foes;
For in those babes thy might is seen,
thy graces they disclose.
3 And when I see the heavens above,
the works of thine own hand,
The sun, the moon, and all the stars,
in order as they stand;
4 Lord, what is man, that thou of tak'st such abundant care! [him Or what the son of man, whom to visit dost not spare! [thou 5 For thou hast made him little less than angels in degree;
And thou hast also crowned him with glorious dignity.
6 Thou hast prefer'd him to be of all thy works, and thou [Lord Hast in subjection unto him put all things here below:
7 As sheep, and neat, and all beasts that in the fields do feed; [else Fowls of the air, fish in the sea, and all that therein breed.
8 O God, our Lord, how excellent is thy most glorious Name In all the earth! therefore do we praise and adore the same.

PSAL. 9. T. S.

With heart and mouth to thee,
O Lord,
will I sing laud and praise;
And speak of all thy wond'rous
works,
and them declare always.
2 I will be glad, and much rejoice in thee, O God most High,
And make my songs extol thy Name
above the starry sky.
3 Because my foes are driven back and turned unto flight;
They do fall down, and are destroy'd,
by thy great pow'r and might.
4 Thou hast avenged all my wrong,
my grief and all my grudge:
Thou dost with justice hear my cause
most like a righteous Judge.
5 Thou dost rebuke the heathen and wicked so confound, [folk,
That afterwards the memory of them cannot be found.
6 Destructions to an end are come,
and cities overthrow'd;
With them likewise is perished their fame and great renown.
7 Know thou that he who is above for evermore shall reign,
And in the seat of equity true judgement will maintain.

8 With justice he will keep and guide,
the world and every wight;
And so will yield with equity to every man his right.
9 He is protector of the poor,
what time they be oppress'd;
He is in all adversity their refuge and their rest.
10 And they that know thy holy Name,
therefore shall trust in thee;
For thou forsakest not their suit in their necessity.

The Second Part.

11 Sing psalms therefore unto the who dwells on Sion hill; [Lord, Among the people all declare his noble acts and will.
12 For he is mindful of the blood of them that be oppress'd, Forgetting not the humble man,
that seeks to him for rest.
13 Have mercy, Lord, on me, be-my foes do yet remain; [cause Who from the gates of death art to raise me up again; [wont 14 In Sion, that I may set forth thy praise with heart and voice;
And that in thy salvation great my soul may still rejoice.
15 The heathen stick fast in the pit, which they themselves prepar'd;
And in the net that they did hide their own feet are ensnar'd.
16 By judgements great the Lord is known,
whilst wicked men are caught,
And fast entangled in the work, which their own hands have wrought.
17 The wicked and deceitful men go down to hell below;
And all the people of the world,
that God refuse to know.
18 But sure the Lord will not forget the poor man's grief and pain:
The patient people never look for help of him in vain.
19 O Lord, arise, lest men prevail, that be of worldly might,
And let the heathen folk receive their judgement in thy sight.
20 Lord, strike such terror, fear and dread,
into their hearts, and then They will be forced to confess themselves to be but men.

PSAL. 10. T. S.

What is the cause that thou,
O Lord,
so far off now dost stand?
Why hidest thou thy face in time,
when trouble is at hand?
2 The poor do perish by the proud and wicked men's desire;
Let them be taken in the craft,
which they themselves conspire.

3 For in the lust of his own heart
th'ungodly doth delight;
So doth the wicked praise himself,
and doth the Lord despise.
4 He is so proud, that right and he setteth all apart: [wrong Nay, nay, there is no God, saith he,
for thus he thinks in heart.
5 Because his ways do prosper still,
he doth thy laws neglect;
And with a blast doth puff against such as would him correct.
6 Tush, tush, saith he, I have no
dread,
lest my estate should change;
And why? for all adversity
to him is very strange.
7 His mouth is full of cursedness, of fraud, deceit, and guile;
Under his tongue there nothing is,
but what is base and vile.
8 He lieth hid in ways and holes,
to slay the innocent;
Against the poor that pass by him,
his cruel eyes are bent:
9 And, like a lion, privily lies lurking in his den,
That he may snare them in his net,
and spoil poor harmless men.
10 With cunning craft and subtilty
he croucheth down alway:
So are great heaps of poor men
made,
by his strong pow'r, a prey.

The Second Part.

11 Tush, God forgetteth this, saith therefore I may be bold: [he,
His countenance is cast aside,
he doth it not behold.
12 Arise, O Lord our God, in whom the poor man's hope doth rest; Lift up thy hand, do not forget the poor that be oppress'd.
13 Why should the proud and wicked man
blaspheme God's holy Name;
Whilst in his heart he crieth, Tush,
God cares not for the same?
14 But thou seest all their wicked-and well dost understand, [nets, That friendless and poor father-are left into thy hand. [less 15 Of wicked and malicious men then break the power alway;
That they with their iniquity may perish and decay.
16 The Lord doth reign for ever-as King and God alone; [more,
And he will chase out of the land
the heathen folk each one.
17 Thou hearest, Lord, the poor's complaint,
their pray'r and their request;
Their hearts thou wilt confirm,
un-thine ears to bear be prest; [til 18 To judge the poor and father-and help them to their right; [less,
That they may be no more oppress'd
by men of worldly might.

To shoot in secret at those, who sincere and upright are.
3 Of worldly hope all stays were shunk,
and clearly brought to nought;
Alas! the just and upright man,
what evil hath he wrought?
4 But he that in his temple is most holy and most high,
And in the highest heav'ns doth sit in royal majesty,
5 The poor and simple man's estate considers in his mind,
And searcheth out full narrowly
the manners of mankind:
6 And with a cheerful countenance
the righteous man will use;
But in his heart he doth abhor
all such as mischief muse:
7 And on the sinners casteth snares
as thick as hail or rain; Brimstone and fire, and whirlwinds appointed for their pain. [great,

 6 I hate such folk as will not part from things to be abhor'd; When they on trifles set their heart, my trust is in the Lord.
 7 For I will in thy mercy joy, I see it doth excel; Thou seest when ought would me annoy, and know'st my soul full well.
 8 Thou hast not left me in their hand that would me overcharge; But thou hast set me out of band, to walk abroad at large.

The Second Part.

9 Great grief, O Lord, doth me some pity on me take; [affail, My eyes wax dim, my sight doth fail, my heart with fear doth ache.
 10 My life is worn with grief and my years in woe are past; [pain, My strength is gone, and thro' disdain my bones corrupt and waste;
 11 Among my foes I am a scorn, my friends are all dismay'd; My neighbours, and my kinsmen to see me are afraid. [born,
 12 As men once dead are out of so am I now forgot; [mind, As little use of me they find, as of a broken pot.
 13 I heard the brags of all the rout, their threats my mind did fray; How they conspir'd and went about to take my life away.
 14 But, Lord, I trust in thee for not to be over-trod; [aid,

For I confess and still have said, thou art the Lord my God.
 15 The length of all my life and O Lord, is in thy hand; [age, Defend me from the wrath and of them that me withstand. [rage
 16 To me thy servant, Lord express and shew thy joyful face; And save me, Lord, for thy good thy mercy and thy grace. [ness,

The Third Part.

17 Lord, let me not be put to because on thee I call; [shame, But let the wicked bear the blame, and into the grave fall.
 18 O Lord, make dumb their lips, who given are to lies; [outright And cruelly with pride and spite against the just devise.
 19 How plentiful thy mercies be laid up for thy children, That fear and put their trust in thee before the sons of men!
 20 Thy presence shall them fence and guide from all proud brags and wrongs; Within thy place thou shalt them hide from all the strife of tongues.
 21 Thanks to the Lord, that hath declar'd on me his grace so far, Me to defend with watch and as in a town of war. [ward,
 22 Thus did I say both day and when I was sore oppress'd, [night, Lo, I am clean cast out of sight; yet heard'st thou my request.
 23 Ye saints, love ye the Lord altho' the faithful he doth guide; [way, And to the proud he doth repay according to their pride.
 24 Be of good courage, all ye just, on God your strength depend; For those in him that put their trust he ever will defend.

THE man is blest, whose wickedness the Lord forgiven hath; And he whose sin is likewise hid, and cover'd from his wrath.
 2 And blest is he, to whom the Lord imputeth not his sin; Who in his heart hath hid no guile, nor fraud is found therein.
 3 For whilst that I kept close my in silence and constraint, [sin My bones did wear and waste away with daily moan and plaint;
 4 Both night and day thy hand on so grievous was and smart, [me My moisture like the summer's to dryness did convert. [heat,

Then

Then thou, O Lord, didst me for-and all my sins conceal. [give, 6 The humble man shall pray therefore,
and seek thee in due time;
So that the floods of waters great shall have no pow'r on him.
7 When trouble and adversity do compasse me about,
Thou art my refuge and my joy,
and thou dost rid me out.
8 Come hither, and I will thee teach
how thou shalt walk aright;
I will thee guide, as I myself have learn'd by proof and fight:
9 Be not so rude and ignorant,
as is the horse and mule;
Whose mouth, without a rein or bit,
from harm thou canst not rule.
10 The wicked man shall manifold sorrows and grief sustain;
But unto him that trusts in God his goodness shall remain.
11 Be merry therefore in the Lord,
ye just lift up your voice;
And ye of pure and perfect heart,
with cheerfulness rejoice.

PSAL. 33. J. H.

YE righteous, in the Lord re-it is a seemly sight, [joyce;
That upright men with thankful voice
should praise the Lord of might.
2 Praise ye the Lord with harp, and to him with psaltery; [sing With ten-string'd instrument founding,
praise ye the Lord most high.
3 Sing to the Lord a song most new,
with courage give him praise;
For why? his word is ever true,
his works and all his ways.
4 Both judgement equity and he ever lov'd and will; [right,
And with his gifts he doth delight
the earth throughout to fill.
5 For by the word of God alone
the heav'ns above were wrought;
Their hosts and powers ev'ry one his breath to pass hath brought;
6 The waters great gather'd hath on heaps within the shore, [he And hid them in the depth to be,
as in a house of store.
7 Let all the earth then fear the Lord,
and keep his righteous law;
And all the world with one accord,
dread him, and stand in awe.
8 What he commanded, wrought it at once with utmost speed; [was What he doth will, is brought to with full effect indeed. [pass 9 The counsels of the nations rude
the Lord doth bring to nought;
He doth defeat the multitude of their device and thought.

10 But his decrees continue still,
they never slack nor 'swage;
The motions of his mind and will take place in every age.

The Second Part.

11 Blessed are they, to whom the Lord
as God and guide is known, Whom he doth chuse of mere accord,
to take them as his own.
12 The Lord from heav'n did cast his sight
on men mortal by birth, Beholding from his seat of might
the dwellers on the earth:
13 The Lord, I say, whose hand hath wrought
man's heart, and doth it frame;
'Tis he alone doth know the thought and working of the same.
14 A King that trusteth in his host,
shall not prevail at length;
The man that of his might doth boast,
shall fail for all his strength.
15 The troops of horsemen all shall fail,
their sturdy steeds shall swerve;
The strength of horse shall not pretend to preserve. [vail 16 But lo, the eyes of God attend and watch to aid the just,
With such as fear him to offend,
and on his goodness trust;
17 That he of death and great distress
may let their souls from dread;
And if that dearth their land oppresses,
in hunger them to feed.
18 Wherefore our soul doth whole depend on God our strength and stay;
He is our shield us to defend,
and drive all darts away.
19 Our joyful souls alway proclaim his power and his might;
For why? in his most holy Name
we hope and much delight.
20 Therefore let thy goodness, O still present with us be, [Lord,
As we always with one accord do only trust in thee.

PSAL. 34. T. S.

I will give laud and honour both unto the Lord always;
My mouth also for evermore shall speak unto his praise.
2 I do delight to praise the Lord,
in soul, in heart, and voice;
That humble men may hear there-
and heartily rejoice. [of, 3 Therefore see that ye magnify with me the living Lord;
Let us exalt his holy Name always with one accord.
4 For I myself befought the Lord,
he answer'd me again,

And me deliver'd speedily
from all my fear and pain.
5 Whoso they be that him behold, shall see his light most clear;
Their countenance shall not be dash'd,
they never need to fear.
6 The poor distressed man for help unto the Lord doth call;
Who doth him hear without delay,
and rid him out of thrall.
7 The angel of the Lord doth pitch his tents in ev'ry place,
To save all such as do him fear,
that nothing them deface.
8 Taste and consider well therefore,
that God is good and just;
O happy man, that maketh him his only stay and trust!
9 O fear the Lord, all ye his saints,
who is a mighty King;
For they that fear the living Lord are sure to lack nothing.
10 The lions shall be hunger-bit,
and pin'd with famine much;
But as for them that fear the Lord,
no lack shall be to such.

The Second Part.

11 Come near to me, my children, unto my words give ear; [and I will you teach the perfect way, how ye the Lord shall fear.
12 Who is the man that would live and lead a happy life? [long, See thou refrain thy tongue and from all deceit and strife. [lips 13 Turn back thy face from doing and do the godly deed; [ill, Enquire for peace and quietness,
and follow it with speed.
14 For why? the eyes of God a-upon the just are bent; [bove
His ears likewise to hear the cry of the poor innocent.
15 But he doth frown and bend his upon the wicked train, [brows And cuts away the memory that should of them remain.
16 But when the just do call and cry,
the Lord doth hear them so,
That out of pain and misery forthwith he lets them go.
17 The Lord is ever nigh to them, that broken-hearted are;
And for the contrite spirit he salvation doth prepare.
18 Full many be the miseries that righteous men endure;
But of deliv'rance from them all the Lord doth them secure.
19 The Lord doth so preserve and their very bones alway, [keep That not so much as one of them
doth perish or decay.
20 The sin shall slay the wicked man,
which he himself hath wrought;
And such as hate the righteous man shall soon be brought to nought.

21 But they that fear the living are ever safe and found; [Lord,
And as for those that trust in him, nothing shall them confound.

foes,

and help me from distress.

And digg'd a pit in my path-way,

no care,

With fasting I did faint full sore,
and pray'd with heart most sad.

15 As they had been my brethren
I did myself behave; [dear,
As one that mourneth heavily about his mother's grave.

16 But they in my adversity
did gather in a rout;
Yea, abject slaves reproachfully at me did mock and flout.

17 The belly-gods and flatt'ring train
that all good things deride,
At me did grin with great disdain, turning their mouths aside.

18 Lord, when wilt thou for me appear?
why dost thou stay and pause?
O rid my soul, my darling dear,
out of these lions' claws:

19 And then will I give thanks to Before the church always; [thee
And where most of the people be,
there will I shew thy praise.

which hate me for no fault;
Neither let them wink with their

The Third Part.

21 Of peace no word they think or their talk is all untrue: [say,
They still consult how to betray all those that peace pursue.

22 With open mouth they run at their fury is like fire: [me;
Well, well, say they, our eye doth

23 But Lord, thou seest what ways they take,
and what they do intend:

but speedily help me send.
24 Awake, arise, and stir abroad,
defend me in my right;
Revenge my cause, O Lord my God,
and aid me with thy might.

25 According to thy righteousness,
O Lord God set me free;
And let them not their pride ex-nor triumph over me. [prefs, 26 Let not their hearts rejoice nor Ev'n so we would it have: [cry,
Nor give them cause to say on high,
He's sunk into the grave.

27 Confound them all that do rejoice,
when they my troubles see;
Let them be clothed with rebuke,
that boast with scorn at me.
28 But let them heartily rejoice,
who love my upright way:
Let them all times with heart and voice

still praise the Lord and say, 29 Great is the Lord and doth exand he doth much delight, [cel,

To see his servants prosper well;
it is his pleasant sight.

30 Wherefore my tongue I will ap-thy righteousness to praise: [ply, To thee, O Lord my God, will I give laud and thanks always.

PSAL. 36. J. H.

THe wicked, by his works unjust,
doth thus persuade my heart,
That in the Lord he hath no trust;
his fear is set apart.

2 Yet doth he joy in his estate to walk as he began,
So long till he deserves the hate of God as well as man.

3 His words are wicked, vile, and naught,
his tongue no truth doth tell:
Yet at no hand will he be taught,
which way he may do well.

4 When he should sleep, then doth his mischiefs to fulfil; [he muse
No wicked way doth he refuse, nor any thing that's ill.

5 But, Lord, thy goodness doth afcend
above the heav'n's most high:
So doth thy truth itself extend unto the cloudy sky.

6 Much more than hills both high thy justice is express: [and steep Thy judgements like the seas most deep:

thou fav'st both man and beast.

7 Thy mercy is above all things,
O God, it doth excel:
In trust whereof, as in thy wings,
the sons of men shall dwell.

8 Within thy house they shall be with plenty at their will; [fed
Of all delights they shall be sped, and take thereof their fill.

9 Because the well of life most pure doth ever flow from thee;
And in thy light we are full sure eternal light to see.

10 From such as thee desire to know
let not thy grate depart;
Thy righteousness declare and shew to men of upright heart.

11 Let not the proud on me prevail,
O Lord, of thy good grace;
Nor let the wicked me assail,
to throw me out of place.

12 But they in their device shall fall, that wicked works maintain;
They shall be certainly cast down,
and never rise again.

So shall their great prosperity
soon fade and pass away.

3 Trust thou therefore in God alone,
to do well give thy mind;
So shalt thou have the land as thine,
and there sure food shalt find.

4 In God set all thy heart's delight, and look what thou would'st have,
Or else can'st wish in all the world,
thou need'st it not to crave.

6 Thy perfect life and godly name

So that the sun, ev'n at noon day, shall not shine half so bright.

7 Be still therefore, and steadfastly on God see thou wait then,
Not shrinking for the prosperous of vile and wicked men. [state

8 Shake off despite, envy, and hate,
let not thy anger rise;
That thou may'st not bedrawn into some sinful enterprize.

9 For ev'ry wicked man will God
most certainly destroy;
But such as trust in him are sure,
the land for to enjoy.

10 Wait but a while and thou shalt no more the wicked train; [see No, not so much as house or place, where once he did remain.

The Second Part.

11 But merciful and humble men
enjoy shall sea and land;
In rest and peace they shall rejoice,
for nought shall them withstand.

12 The wicked and malicious do against the just conspire;
They gnash their teeth at him, as who do his bane desire. [men

13 But while ungodly men thus think,
the Lord laughs them to scorn;
For he doth see the time approach,
when they shall sigh and mourn.

14 The wicked have their sword outdrawn,
their bow is also bent,
To overthrow and kill the poor,
whose life is innocent.

15 But the same sword shall pierce their heart,
which was to kill the just;
So shall the bow in shivers break,
wherein they put their trust.

16 Doubtless, the just man's poor is to be valued more [estate Than all the vile and wicked man's rich pomp and heaped store.

17 For though their power be most God will it overthrow: [strong,
Where contrary he doth preserve
the humble man and low.

18 He sees by his great providence
the godly's upright way,
And will give them inheritance which never shall decay.

19 Discouraged they shall not be,
when some are hard beset;
When others shall be hunger-bit,
they shall be clad and fed.

20 For whosoever wicked is,
and enemy to God,
Shall like the fat of lambs consume, or smoke that flies abroad.

The Third Part.

21 Behold the wicked borrows and payeth not again; [much, Whereas the just by lib'ral gifts
the needy doth sustain.

22 For they whom God doth bless the land for heritage; [shall have
And they whom he doth curse like-shall perish in his rage. [wife

23 The Lord the just man's steps doth guide and all his ways doth bless;
To ev'ry thing he takes in hand,
he giveth good success.

24 Tho' he do fall, yet he is sure not utterly to sink;
For God upholds him with his hand,
and from him will not shrink.

25 I have been young, but now am and never yet saw I [old,
The just man left, neither his seed
reduc'd to beggary.

26 He gives always most lib'rally, and lends where there is need;
By which he doth from God secure a blessing to his seed.

and virtue do embrace; [ness
So God shall grant thee long to on earth a dwelling-place. [have 28 For God so loveth equity, and shews to his such grace,

That he preserveth them, but doth cut off the wicked race.

29 Whereas the good and godly inherit shall the land; [men Having as lords all things therein in their own pow'r and hand.

of matters wise and high; [speak
His tongue doth talk of judgement, of truth and equity. [and the just man doth beset,

By all means seeking him to kill,
and take him in his net.

The Fourth Part.

33 But tho' he fall into his hands,
God will him succour send;
Tho' men against him sentence give,

yet God will him defend.

as doth the laurel-tree.

great joy with rest and peace.

2 As with a bit I will keep fast my mouth with force and might,

Not once to whisper all the while the wicked are in fight.

3 I held my tongue and spake no
word,

but kept me close and still;
Yea, from good talk I did refrain,

but fore against my will.

4 My heart grew hot within my breast

with musing, thought, and doubt,
Which did increase and stir the fire,

at last these words burst out;

5 Lord, number out my life and which yet I have not past; [days,

So that I may be certify'd,
how long my life shall last.

6 For thou hast pointed out my life,
in length much like a span:

My age is nothing unto thee,
so vain is ev'ry man!

7 Man walketh like a shade, and in vain himself annoy, [doth

In getting goods, and cannot tell who shall the same enjoy.

8 Therefore, O Lord, what wait I what help do I desire? [for?

Truly my hope is ev'n in thee,
I nothing else require.

The Second Part.

9 From all the sins that I have done,
Lord quit me out of hand;

And make me not a scorn to fools,
that nothing understand.

10 I was so dumb, that to complaint
no trouble could me move;

Because I knew it was thy work,
my patience for to prove.

11 Lord, take from me thy scourge and plague,

I cannot them withstand;
I faint and pine away for fear of thy most heavy hand.

12 When thou for sin dost man re-he waxeth pale and wan, [buke,

As doth a cloth that moths have so vain a thing is man! [fret;

13 Lord, hear my suit, and give good heed,

regard my tears that fall;
I sojourn like a stranger here,

as did my fathers all.

14 O spare a little, give me space,
my strength for to restore,

Before I go away from hence, and shall be seen no more.

my voice and cry to hear.

out of the mire and clay: [pit,

which I must shew abroad;

all things that ever was.

thy works abroad to show,

To such a reck'ning they do rise, thereof no end I know.

8 Burnt-off-rings thou delight'st
I know thy whole desire; [not in,

With sacrifice to purge his sin,
thou dost no man require.

9 Meat-offerings and sacrifice thou would'st not have at all;

But thou, O Lord, hast open made,
my ears to hear withal.

10 But then, said I, behold and look,
I come with heart most free;

For in the volume of the book,
thus it is said of me:

11 That I, O God, should do thy mind, which thing doth please me well;

For in my heart thy law I find fast placed there to dwell.

12 Thy righteousness and justice I in great assemblies tell;

Behold, my tongue no time doth cease,

O Lord, thou knowest well.

The Second Part.

13 I have not hid within my breast
thy goodness as by stealth;

But I declare and have express'd thy truth and saving health.

14 I kept not close thy loving mind,
that no man it should know,

The trust that in thy truth I find,
to all the church I show.

15 Thy tender mercy, Lord, from withdraw thou not away: [me

But let thy love and verity preserve me night and day.

encompassed about;

My sins so greatly do increase,
I cannot spy them out.

17 For why? in number they ex-
the hairs upon my head; [ceed

My heart doth faint for very fear, that I am almost dead.

18 With speed send help and set me
O Lord, I thee require; [free,

Make haste with aid to succour me,
O Lord, at my desire.

19 Confound them with rebuke and shame,

that seek my soul to spill;
Drive back my foes and them de-that wish me any ill. [shame;

20 For their ill feats do them de-
cry,

that would deface my name;
Always at me they rail and cry,

Fie on him, fie for shame.

21 Let them in thee have joy and that seek to thee always; [wealth,

That those that love thy saving health

may say, to God be praise.

22 But as for me, I am but poor, oppress'd, and brought full low;

Yet thou, O Lord, wilt me restore to health, full well I know.

23 For why? thou art my hope and my refuge, help, and stay; [trust,

Wherefore, my God, as thou art with me no time delay. [just,

Have mercy, Lord, on me:

Oh, when shall I come and appear,
in presence of his sight?

which from my eyes do slide;
Whilst wicked men cry out so fast,
where now is God thy guide?
4 Alas, what grief is it to think the freedom once I had!
Therefore my soul, as at pit's brink,
most heavy is and sad.

with joyful company;
Unto the temple was our way,
to praise the Lord most high.

Likewise at night I did not cease
the living God to praise.
11 I am persuaded thus to say to him with reverence,
O Lord, thou art my guide and stay,
my rock and sure defence.

such false reports and lies;
That death it is to see their wrongs,
their threatnings and their cries.
14 For all this we forgot not thee,

for he doth know our thought.
17 But 'tis for thy Name's sake, O we always are slain thus; [Lord,
As sheep into the shambles sent,

Why hidest thou thy countenance?
our thrall thou hast forgot.

And open all my doubtful speech,
in metre on my harp.
4 Wherefore should I affliction fear,
or any careful toil;
Or else my foes, which at my heels
do press my life to spoil?
5 For as for such as riches have, wherein their trust is most,
And they who of their treasures saying, All is well done.

18 But yet if he should live so long

PSALM LI.

On thousand hills
cattle are mine own goods;
I know for mine
all birds that are on mountains,
All beasts mine are which haunt the fields and fountains.

5 Were I hungry
I would not thee it tell;
For all is mine
that in the world doth dwell.
Eat I the flesh
of great bulls or bullocks?
Or drink the blood of goats or of the flocks?
Offer to God
praise and hearty thanksgiving,
And pay thy vows unto God everliving.

6 Call upon me
when troubled thou shalt be;
Then will I help,
and thou shalt honour me.
To the wicked
thus faith th' eternal God, Why dost thou preach
my words and laws abroad, Seeing thou hast
them with thy mouth abus'd, And hat'st to be by discipline reduc'd?

7 My words, I say,
thou dost reject and hate:
If that thou seest
a thief, as with thy mate Thou run'st with him,
and so your prey seek out;
And art all one with the adul'terous rout.
Thou giv'st thyself
to back-bite and to slander,
And how thy tongue
deceiveth, is a wonder.
8 Thou sit'st musing
thy brother how to blame,
And how to put
thy mother's son to shame.
These things thou didst;
and while I held my tongue Thou did'st me judge, because I staid so long,
Like to thyself;
yet tho' I keep long silence, Once shalt thou feel of thy wrongs just recompence.

9 Consider this,
ye that forget the Lord,
And fear not when he threat'neth with his word,
Lest without help
I spoil you as a prey:
But he that thanks
offers, praith alway, Saieth the Lord God, and he that walks this trace
I will him teach
God's saving health t' embrace.

THE God of gods, the Lord, hath call'd the earth by name,

From whence the sun doth rise unto the setting of the same.
2 From Sion his fair place,
his glory bright and clear,
The perfect beauty of his grace,
from thence it did appear.

3 Our God shall come in haste to speak aloud, no doubt;
Before him shall the fire waste,
and tempest round about.
4 The heav'ns which are so high,
the earth below likewise,
He will call forth, that he may try the people that are his:

5 Bring forth my Saints, faith he,
my faithful flock most dear.
Who are in band and league with my law to love and fear. [me 6 And when these things are try'd then shall the heav'ns record,
That God is just, and all must 'bide
the judgement of the Lord.

7 My people, now give heed,
Israel, to thee I cry;
I am thy God, thy help at need,
thou can'st it not deny.
8 I do not say to thee
Thy sacrifice is slack;
Thou offer'st daily unto me much more than I do lack:
9 Think'st thou that I do need thy cattle young or old?
Or else so much desire to feed on goats out of thy fold?
10 Nay, all the beasts are mine in woods that eat their fills,
And thousands more of neat and that run wild on the hills: [kine

The Second Part.

11 The birds that build on high,
on hills and out of sight,
And beasts that in the fields do lie, are subject to my might.

12 Then, tho' I hunger'd fore, what need I ought of thine?
Since that the earth with her great store,

and all therein is mine:
13 To bulls flesh have I mind to eat it dost thou think?

Or such a sweetness do I find the blood of goats to drink?
14 Give to the Lord his praise,
with thanks to him apply,
And see thou pay thy vows always unto the God most high.

15 Then seek and call to me when ought would work thee
blame,

And I will sure deliver thee, that thou may'st praise my Name.

16 But to the wicked train,
who talk of God each day,
And yet their works are foul and vain,
to them the Lord will say;

17 With what face darest thou my word once speak or name?
Why do thy words my law allow,
thy deeds deny the same?

18 Whereas for to amend thy life thou art so slack?
My word; the which thou dost is cast behind thy back. [pretend

The Third Part.

19 When thou a thief dost see by theft to live in wealth,
With him thou run'st, and dost agree likewise to thrive by stealth:
20 When thou dost them behold that wives and maids defile, Thou lik'st it well, and waxest bold,
to use that life most vile:

21 Thy lips thou dost apply to slander and defame:
Thy tongue doth teach to cheat and and still doth use the same; [Iye, 22 Thou study'st to revile thy friends to thee most near,
With slander basely dost defile thy mother's son most dear.

23 Hereat while I do wink,
as tho' I did not see,
Thou go'st on still, and so dost think that I am like to thee.

24 But sure I will not let to strike when I begin;
Thy faults in order I will set,
and open all thy sin.

25 Mark this, I you require,
who have not God in mind,
Lest when I plague you in mine ire,
your help be far to find.

26 He that doth give to me
the sacrifice of praise, Doth please me well, and he shall to walk in godly ways. [see

PSAL. 51. W.W.

OLORD, consider my distress, and now with speed some pity take;
My sins forgive, my faults redress, good Lord, for thy great mercy's sake.

2 Wash me, O Lord, and make me clean from this unjust and sinful act;
And purify me once again from this foul crime and bloody fact.

3 Remorse and sorrow do constrain me to acknowledge my excess;
Because my sin doth still remain before my face without release.

4 Against thee only have I sinn'd, and done this evil in thy sight;
And if I should no mercy find, yet were thy judgements just and right.

5 It is too manifest, alas!
that first I was conceiv'd in sin;
Yea, of my mother so born was,
and yet, vile wretch, remain
therein.

6 Also behold, Lord, thou dost love
the inward truth of a pure heart;
Therefore thy wisdom from above thou hast reveal'd me to convert.

7 If thou with hyssop purge this blot,
I shall be cleaner than the glass;

And if thou wash away my spot,
the snow in whiteness I shall pass.
8 Therefore, O Lord such joy me send.

that I may praise thee with my voice,
And that my strength may now amend.

and broken bones also rejoice.
9 Turn back thy face and frowning ire,

for I have felt enough thine hand;
And purge my sins, I thee desire,
which do in number pass the sand.

10 Make new my heart within my breast,
and frame it to thy holy will;
And let thy Spirit in me rest, which may my soul with comfort [fill.

The Second Part.

11 Cast me not, Lord, out from thy sight,
but speedily my torments end;
Take not from me thy Holy Sp'rit, which may from dangers me defend.

12 Restore me to those joys again, which I was wont in thee to find;
Let me thy free Spirit retain, which unto thee may draw my mind.

13 Thus when I shall thy mercies
know,
I shall instruct others therein;
And men that are likewise brought by my example shall flee sin. [flow

14 O God, that of my health art
Lord,
forgive me this my bloody vice;
My heart and tongue shall then accord

to sing thy mercy and justice.
15 Touch thou my lips, my tongue
untie,

O Lord, I do thee humbly pray;
And then my mouth shall testify thy praise and wond'rous works
alway.

16 And as for outward sacrifice,
I would have offer'd many one;
But thou esteem'st them of no price,
and therein pleasure takest none.

17 The heavy heart, the mind opprest,
O Lord, thou never dost reject;
This sacrifice indeed is best,
and that thou chiefly dost expect.

18 Lord, unto Sion turn thy face, pour out thy mercies on thy hill,
And on Jerusalem thy grace, build up the walls, and love it still.

19 Thou shalt accept then our of-frings of peace and righteousness alway;
Yea, calves and many other things upon thy altar we will lay.

HAVE mercy on me, Lord, after thy great abounding grace; after thy mercies multitude do thou my sins efface;

PSALM LII, LIII, LIV, LV.

2 Yea, wash me clean from my of-and my iniquity; [fence]
For I do own my faults, and still my sin is in my eye.

3 Against thee, thee alone I have offended in this case,
And evil have I done before
the presence of thy face;

4 That in the things that thou hast done
upright thou may'st appear,
And when thou judgest, all may see that thou art very clear.

5 In wickedness I formed was, when I began to be;
My Mother at the very first in sin conceived me.

6 But lo! truth in the inward parts is pleasant unto thee;
And secrets of thy wisdom thou revealedst hast to me.

7 With hyssop, Lord, besprinkle
I shall be cleansed so; [me, Yea, wash thou me, and then shall I be whiter than the snow.

8 Of joy and gladness make thou to hear the pleasant voice; [the,
That so the bones which thou, O
hast broken may rejoice. [Lord,

9 From the beholding of my sins,
Lord, turn away thy face;
And all my deeds of wickedness do utterly efface.

10 O God, create in me a heart
unspotted in thy sight;
Within my bowels, Lord, renew a firm and stable spirit.

11 Cast me not from thy sight, nor thy Spirit quite away; [take The comfort of thy saving health give me again, I pray.

12 With thy free Spirit me support, then shall transgressors be
By my instruction and advice converted unto thee.

The Second Part.

13 O God, that art God of my from blood deliver me; [health,
That praises of thy righteousness
my tongue may sing to thee.

14 My lips, which yet fast closed be,
do thou, O Lord, unloose;
The praises of thy Majesty
my mouth shall then disclose.

15 I would have offer'd sacrifice,
if that had pleased thee;
But pleased with burnt-offerings
I know thou wilt not be.

16 A spirit griev'd is sacrifice delightful in thine eyes;
A broken and a contrite heart,
Lord, thou wilt not despise.

17 In thy good will deal gently, with Sion, and withal [Lord, Grant that of thy Jerusalem
uprear'd may be the wall:

of justice in that day. [fice Thou shalt accept, and calves they

To see if any were that fought the living God to know:

they all corrupted are;
There is not any that doth good,
not one for God doth care.

that they do feed upon My people as they feed on bread?
the Lord they call not on.

that I therewith do quake; [fall
Such horror overwhelmeth me, that I no shift can make.

7 Oh, that I had wings like a dove then would I swiftly flee Away from hence unto a place, where I at rest should be.

8 Lo, then I would go far away,
to fly I would not cease;
And I would hide myself, and stay in some great wilderness.

9 I would be gone with speed and and not abide behind, [haste, Till I had safely overpast these blasts of boisterous wind.

10 Divide them, Lord, and from them pull their false and double tongue;
For I have spy'd their city full of rapine, strife, and wrong.

11 Both day and night they go within the city wall, [about In midst of her is mischief wrought, and sorrows great withal;

12 Her inward parts are wicked plain,
her deeds they are most vile,
And in her streets there doth remain nothing but fraud and guile.

The Second Part.

Because from all their check and blame

And didst my secret counsel hear as a familiar friend;

15 With whom I had delight to talk in secret and abroad;
And we together oft did walk unto the house of God.

16 Let death in haste upon them and send them quick to hell; [fall For mischief doth abide in all the places where they dwell.

17 But I unto my God will cry, to him for aid I flee;
The Lord will help me speedily,
and he will succour me.

18 At morning, noon, and ev'ningunto the Lord I'll pray; [tide
When I so constantly have cry'd, he did not say me nay.

19 To peace he shall restore me yet,
tho' war be now at hand,
Altho' the number be full great that do against me stand.

20 The Lord that first and last doth both now and evermore, [reign,
Will hear when I to him complain,
and punish them full fore.

21 For sure there is no hope that to turn will once accord; [they For why? they will not God obey, nor fear the living Lord.

22 Upon their friends they laid their hands
who were in cov'nant knit;
Of friendship to neglect the bands
they do not care one whit.

PSALM LVI, LVII, LVIII, LIX, LX.

23 While they have war within their hearts,
as butter are their words;
And tho' they were as soft as oil,
they cut as sharp as swords.
24 Cast thou thy care upon the Lord,
and he shall nourish thee;
For in no wise will he accord
the just in thrall to fee.
25 But God shall cast them deep in who thirst for blood always; [pit,
He will no guileful man permit to live out half his days.

on him is all my stay; [gone,

that thirst still after blood.
3 For lo, they wait my soul to take,
they rage against me still;
Yea, for no fault that I did make,
I never did them ill.
4 They run and do themselves pre-when I no whit offend; [pare, Arise, and save me from their
and see what they intend. [snare, 5 Arise, O God of Israel, finite every heathen land;
And pity none that do rebel,
and in their mischief stand.
6 At night they run and seek about,
like dogs they howl also,
And all the city quite throughout,
from place to place they go.
7 They speak of me with mouth
alway,
but in their lips are swords;
They have contriv'd my death,
and say,
There's no one hears our words.

8 But, Lord, thou hast their ways
esp'y'd,
and thou shalt them disgrace;
The heathen folk thou dost deride,
and mock them to their face.
9 The strength that doth our foes withstand,
O Lord, doth come from thee;
Thou art, O God, my help at hand,
a fort and fence to me.
10 The Lord to me doth shew his in great abundance still, [grace
That I may see my foes in case such as my heart doth will.

The Second Part.

left it from mind do fall; [Lord,
But with thy strength drive them a-
and so consume them all. [broad,

O Lord,
that nought of them remain;
That men may know thro'out the that Jacob's God doth reign.

as dogs they grin and cry;
Throughout the streets in ev'ry

but let them not be fed, [way, Nor find a house wherein they may be bold to put their head.
16 But I will shew thy strength abroad,
thy goodness I will praise;
For thou art my defence and God
in time of need always.
17 Thou art my strength, thou hast me stay'd,
O Lord, I sing to thee; Thou art my fort, my fence; and a loving God to me. [aid,

the people that are thine;

unto the city strong?
Or who to Edom will me guide,

My lips therefore shall give to thee due honour, laud, and praise.

to worship thee alway;
And in thy Name I will lift up my hands when I do pray.

have seen
men whet and sharp their swords,

The innocent to strike by craft
they care or fear no whit.

in council thus they cry, [creed,
To use deceit let us not dread,
for none can it espy.

each doth invent his part.

when they think least thereon and wound them ev'ry one.

8 Their crafts and their ill tongues withal shall work themselves such blame, That they who then behold their shall wonder at the same. [fall 9 And all that see shall know right
well,
that God the thing hath wrought;

And praise his wondrous works, and tell

still trusting in his might;

And brought'st them through the wilderness,
which was both wide and long;

did drop,
great thunder-claps were heard,
Mount Sinai also moved was,
when Israel's God appear'd:

abundantly was wash'd;
And if so be it barren was,
by thee it was refresh'd.

12 Puissant kings, for all their shall flee and take the foil, [pow'r,
And women which remain at home and in height others pass;

Yet Sion, God's most holy hill, doth far excel in grace.
16 Why leape ye thus, ye hills most and thus in pride do dwell? [high,
The hill of Sion God doth love,
and there will ever dwell.
17 God's army twenty thousand is of angels great and strong;
The Lord also in Sinai is present them among.
18 Thou didst, O Lord, ascend on high,
and captive led'st them all,
Who in times past thy chosen flock
in bondage did enthrall.
19 Thou hast received gifts for ev'n for thine enemies, [men, Unto the end that God the Lord might dwell with them likewise.

20 Now praised be the Lord, for he pours on us such grace; [that From day to day he is the God, both of our health and peace.

The Third Part.

21 He is the God from whom alone salvation we obtain,
He is the God by whom we 'scape
all dangers, death, and pain:
22 And he shall wound the head of his enemies, also [all The hairy scalp of such as on in wickedness still go.
23 From Basan will I bring, said he,
my people and my sheep,
And all my own, as I have done,
from dangers of the deep:
24 And make them dip their feet in blood
of those that hate my Name;
The tongues of dogs they shall be with licking of the same. [red 25 Thy goings they have seen, O unto their own disgrace, [God,
How thou, my God and King, dost within thy holy place: [go, 26 The fingers go before with joy,
the minstrels make no stay,
And in the midst the damsels do with timbrels sweetly play.
27 Now in the congregations thou,
O Israel, praise the Lord,
And Jacob's whole posterity, give thanks with one accord.
28 Their chief was little Benjamin;
but Judah made their host,
With Zabulon and Nephthalim, who dwelt about their coast.
29 Thy God hath sent forth strength for thee:
O God, make firm and sure
The thing that thou hast wrought for ever to endure: [in us 30 Then in thy temple gifts will we offer to thee, O Lord,
And in thy own Jerusalem praise thee with one accord:

The Fourth Part.

31 Yea, and strange kings, by us
subdu'd,
shall do like in those days;
For unto thee they shall present their gifts of laud and praise.
32 He shall destroy the spearmen's ranks,
the calves and bulls of might,
And make them tribute pay, and daunt
all such as love to fight.
33 Then shall the lords of Egypt
come,
and presents with them bring;
The Moors also stretch out their hands
to God their Lord and King.
34 Therefore, ye kingdoms of the give praise unto the Lord; [earth, Sing psalms to God with one con-thereto let all accord. [sent,

PSALM LXIX, LXX, LXXI.

35 For he doth ride and ever did above the heav'ns most bright,
And by his fearful thunder-claps men may well know his might.
36 Therefore the strength of Israel ascribe to God on high, Whose might and pow'r doth far above the cloudy sky. [extend 37 O God, thy holiness and pow'r is dread for evermore;
The God of Israel gives us strength,
therefore his Name adore.

my throat is hoarse and dry,
My sight doth fail, looking also for help to God on high.

my soul, with hate are led;
In number sure they are no less than hairs upon my head.
5 Though for no cause they vex me fore,
they prosper and are glad;
They do compel me to restore the things I never had.
6 What I through my simplicity have done, Lord, thou canst tell;
And all my faults in privacy to thee are known full well.
7 O God of hosts, defend and stay all those that trust in thee;
Let no man doubt or shrink away for ought that chanceth me.

For thy great truth thou wilt alway
send down thy aid to me.
16 Pluck thou my feet out of the mire,
from drowning do me keep,
From such as owe me wrath and ire,
and from the waters deep;
17 Left with the waves I should be drown'd,
and depth my soul devour,
And lest the pit should me con-
and shut me in her pow'r. [found, 18 O Lord of hosts, to me give ear,
as thou art good and kind,
And as thy mercy is most dear,
Lord, have me in thy mind.
19 And do not from thy servant
nor turn thy face away; [hide,
I am oppress'd on ev'ry side,
in haste give ear, I pray.
20 O Lord, unto my soul draw nigh,
the same with aid repose;
Because of their great tyranny, acquit me from my foes.

The Third Part.

21 That I abide rebuke and shame thou know'st, and thou canst tell;
For those that seek and work the same
thou see'st them all full well.
22 When with reproach they break
my heart,
some help I fain would see,
But find no friends to ease my smart,
nor one to comfort me:
23 But in my meat they gave me
(too cruel for to think) [gall
And gave me in my thirst withal strong vinegar to drink.
24 Lord, turn their table to a snare to take themselves therein;
And when they think full well to then trap them in their gin. [fare, 25 And let their eyes be dark and blind,
that they may nothing see;
Bow down their backs and let them themselves in thrall to be. [find 26 Pour out thy wrath as hot as that it on them may fall; [fire, Let thy displeasure in thine ire take hold upon them all.
27 As deserts dry their house dis-their seed do thou expel, [grace, That none thereof possess their place,
nor in their tents once dwell.
28 If thou dost strike the man to on him they lay full sore; [tame,
And if that thou dost wound the
same,
they seek to hurt him more.
29 Then let them heap up mischief since they are all pervert, [still,
That of thy favour and good-will they never have a part.

30 And rase them clean out of thy book
of life, of hope, and trust, That for their names they never in number of the just. [look

The Fourth Part.

31 Tho' I, O Lord, with pain and grief
have been full fore oppress'd, Thy help shall give me such relief that all shall be redress'd:
32 That I may give thy Name the praise
that doth to thee belong,
I will extol the same always with a thanksgiving song:
33 Which is more pleasant unto
thee,
(such mind thy grace hath born,)
Than either ox or calf can be,
that hath both hoof and horn.
34 When simple folk do this behold,
it shall rejoice them sure:
And ye that seek the Lord, your life
for ever shall endure.
35 For why? the Lord of hosts doth hear
the poor when they complain;
His pris'ners are to him full dear,
he doth them not disdain.
36 Wherefore the sky and earth below,
the sea with flood and stream,
His praises shall declare and show,
with all that live in them.
37 For sure our God will Sion save,
and Judah's cities build;
Much folk possession there shall have,
her streets shall all be fill'd:
38 His servants feed shall keep the all ages out of mind, [same
And there all they that love his Name
a dwelling place shall find.

PSAL. 70. J. H.

O GOD, to me take heed,
I help of thee require;
O Lord of hosts, with haste and help me, I thee desire. [speed, 2 With shame confound them all,
that seek my soul to spill;
Let them be turned back and fall,
that think and wish me ill.
3 Let them rewarded be with infamy and shame,
Who when harm happens unto me,
do triumph at the same.
4 But let them joyful be in thee, with joy and wealth,
Who only trust and seek to thee,
and to thy saving health:
5 That they may say always,
in mirth and one accord,
All glory, honour, laud and praise be given to the Lord.
6 But I am weak and poor:
come, Lord, thy aid I lack;

Thou art my stay and help, therefore
make speed and be not slack.

PSAL. 71. J. H.

MY Lord, my God, in all distress
my hope is whole in thee;
Then let no shame my foul oppress,
Nor once take hold on me.
2 As thou art just, defend me,
Lord,
And rid me out of dread;
Give ear and to my suit accord,
and send me help at need.
3 Be thou my rock to whom I may for aid all times resort:
Thy promise is to help alway;
thou art my fence and fort.
4 Save me, my God, from wicked
men,
and from their strength and pow'r;
From folk unjust, and also them that cruelly devour.
5 Thou art my stay whereon I rest, thou, Lord of hosts, art he;
Ev'n from my youth I thought it best still to depend on thee.
6 Thou hast me kept ev'n from my birth,
and I through thee was born; Wherefore I will thee praise with mirth
both ev'ning and at morn.
7 As to a monster seldom seen much folk about me throng;
But thou art now, and still hast been my fence and aid most strong.
8 Wherefore my mouth for ever shall be filled with thy praise;
Also my tongue shall never fail to honour thee always.
9 Refuse me not, O Lord, I pray, when age my limbs doth take,
And when my strength doth waste away
do not my soul forsake.
10 Among themselves my foes enquire
to take me through deceit;
And they against me do conspire that for my foul lay wait.

The Second Part.

11 Lay hands upon him now, they said,
for God from him is gone; Dispatch him quick, for to his aid most sure there cometh none.
12 Do not withdraw thyself away,
O Lord, when need shall be,
But that in time of grief I may have speedy help from thee.

PSALM LXXII, LXXIII, LXXIV.

13 With shame confound and overthrow all those that seek my life; Suppress them with rebuke also that vain would work me strife.
14 But I will patiently abide thy help at all assays;
Still more and more each time and I will set forth thy praise. [tide 15 My mouth thy justice shall re-that daily help doth send; [cord
For thy great benefits, O Lord, no numbers have nor end.
16 Yet will I go and seek for one,
with thy good help, O God,
The saving health of thee alone to shew and set abroad.
17 For of my youth thou took'st the and dost instruct me still; [care, Therefore thy wonders to declare
I have great mind and will.
18 And as in youth from wanton rage
thou didst me keep and stay, Forsake me not in my old age,
and when my head is gray:

The Third Part.

19 That I thy strength and might may show
to them that now be here;
And that our seed thy pow'r may hereafter many year. [know 20 O Lord, thy justice doth exceed, thy doings all may see;
Thy works are wonderful indeed,
Oh, who is like to thee!
21 Thou mad'st me feel affliction
fore,
and yet thou didst me save;
Yea, thou didst help and me restore,
and took'st me from the grave.
22 And thou my honour dost in-my dignity maintain; [crease, Yea, thou dost make all grief to and comfort'st me again. [cease, 23 Therefore thy faithfulness to
I will with viol sing; [praise
My harp shall sound thy laud al-
O Israel's holy King. [always.
24 My mouth will joy with pleasant
when I shall sing to thee; [voice
Also my soul shall much rejoice, for thou hast set me free.
25 My tongue thy righteousness
I daily speak it will; [shall sound
For grief and shame do them conthat seek to work me ill. [found

PSAL. 72. J. H.

LORD, give thy judgements to the king.
therein instruct him well;
And with his son in ev'ry thing.
Lord, let thy justice dwell:
2 That he may govern uprightly, and rule thy folk with right;
And so defend with equity
the poor that have no might.
3 And let the mountains that are unto thy folk give peace; [high

Let little hills also apply in justice to increase:
4 That he may help the weak and poor with aid, and make them strong;
And so destroy for evermore
all those that do them wrong.
5 And then from age to age shall regard and fear thy might, [they So long as sun doth shine by day, or moon give light by night.
6 Lord, make the king unto the just like rain to fields new mown,
And like to drops that lay the dust, refreshing land new sown.
7 The just shall flourish in his days,
and all shall be at peace, Until the moon shall cease always to change, waste, or increase.
8 He shall be Lord, and have command from shore to shore throughout,
And from the floods within the thro' all the earth about. [land 9 The people that in deserts dwell shall kneel to him full thick;
And all his foes that do rebel,
the earth and dust shall lick.
10 The lords of all the isles also great gifts to him shall bring, Arabia and Saba's kings give many a costly thing.

The Second Part.

11 All kings shall seek with one ac-in his good grace to stand; [cord
And all the people of the world
obey at his command.
12 For he the needy sort doth save that unto him do call,
Also the simple folk that have no help of man at all.
13 He taketh pity on the poor that are with need oppress'd,
He doth preserve them evermore,
and bring their souls to rest.
14 He shall redeem their souls from dread,
from fraud, from wrong, and might;
Also their blood that shall be shed is precious in his sight.
15 But he shall live, and they shall to him of Saba's gold; [bring He shall be honour'd as a king, and daily be extoll'd.
16 The mighty mountains of his land
of corn shall bear such throng.
That it like cedar-trees shall stand in Libanus full long.
17 Their cities also well shall speed,
the fruits thereof surpass;
In plenty it shall so exceed,
and spring as green as grafts.
18 For ever they shall praise his Name,
while that the sun is light;
And think them happy through the same,
all folk shall bless his might.

19 Praise ye the Lord of hosts, and to Israel's God each one; [sing For he doth ev'ry wond'rous thing, yea, he himself alone:
20 And blessed be his holy Name
all times eternally;
Let all the earth still praise the Amen, Amen, say I. [same:

PSAL. 73. T. S.

TRULY the Lord is very good and kind to Israel,
And to all such as safely keep their conscience pure and well.
2 But as for me, I almost slipt,
my feet began to slide,
Before that I was well aware my steps did turn aside.
3 For when I saw such foolish men,
I grudg'd with great disdain, That wicked men all things should without turmoil and pain: [have 4 They never suffer pains nor grief, as if death should them smite,
Their bodies are full stout and and ever in good plight: [strong, 5 Always free from adversity and ev'ry sad event;
With other men they take no part of plague or punishment.
6 Therefore presumption doth embrace their necks as doth a chain;
They are ev'n wrapt as in a robe with rapine and disdain.
7 They are so fed, that ev'n with fat their eyes oft-times out start;
And as for worldly goods they have more than can wish their heart.
8 Their life is most licentious, and they boast much with their tongue,
How they the poor and simple have oppressed with great wrong.
9 They set their mouth against the heav'ns,
and do the Lord blasphemic;
They proudly boast of worldly no one they do esteem. [things;
10 God's people often do turn back to see their prosp'rous state,
And almost drink the self-same cup,
and talk at the same rate;

The Second Part.

11 How can it be that God, say should know or understand [they These worldly things, since wicked be lords of sea and land? [men 12 For we may see how wicked men in riches still increase, Rewarded well with worldly goods,
and live in rest and peace.
13 Then why do I so carefully from wickedness refrain?
And wash my hands in innocence,
and cleanse my heart in vain?
14 And suffer scourges ev'ry day,
as subject to all blame;

And ev'ry morning from my youth sustain rebuke and shame?
15 Now I had almost said as they,
milkling my estate;
But then I should thy children as most unfortunate. [Judge 16 Then I bethought me how I this matter understand; [might But yet the labour was too great for me to take in hand:
17 Until the time I went into thy holy place, and then I understood right perfectly the end of all these men:
18 Namely, how that thou settest upon a slipp'ry place, [them
And at thy pleasure and thy will thou dost them soon deface.
19 Then all men muse at that strange sight to see how suddenly
They do consume, perish, and come to endless misery:
20 Much like a dream when one awakes,
so shall their wealth decay;
Their famous names in all men's shall fail and pass away. [sight

The Third Part.

21 Yet thus my heart was grieved
then,
my mind was much oppress'd;
So simple and so ignorant,
ev'n as it were a beast.
22 Nevertheless, by my right-hand
thou hold'st me always fast;
And with thy counsel shalt me guide to glory at the last.
23 What thing is there that I can but thee in heav'n above? [wish And in the earth there nothing is like thee that I can love.
24 My flesh and spirit both do fail,
but God will me restore;
For of my heart he is the strength and portion evermore.
25 But lo, all such as thee forsake thou shalt destroy each one,
And those that trust in any thing saving in thee alone.
26 Therefore will I draw near to and ever with him dwell; [God,
In God alone I put my trust,
his wonders I will tell.

Dispatch them out of hand:
Then burn they up in ev'ry part

PSAL. 76. J. H.

TO all that now in Judah dwell
the Lord is clearly known,
His Name is great in Israel, a people of his own:

2 At Salem he hath pitch'd his tent to tarry there a space,
In Sion also he is bent to fix his dwelling-place.

3 And there he brake both shaft and bow,
the sword, the spear and shield,
His enemies did overthrow in battle in the field.

4 Thou art most worthy honour,
Lord,
more might in thee doth lie,
Than in the strongest of the world that rob on mountains high.

5 But now the proud are spoil'd thro' thee,
and they are fall'n asleep;
Thro' men of war no help can be,
themselves they could not keep.

6 At thy rebuke, O Jacob's God,
when thou didst them reprove,
As half asleep their chariots stood,
no horsemen once did move.

7 For thou art dreadful, Lord, indeed,
what man the courage hath T'abide thy sight, and doth not dread

when thou art in thy wrath?
8 When thou dost make thy judgments heard from heav'n unto the ground,
Then all the earth full fore afraid,
in silence shall be found:

9 And that when thou, O God, dost in judgement for to speak, [stand To save th'afflicted of the land,
that feeble are and weak;

10 The fury that in man doth reign shall turn unto thy praise; Hereafter, Lord, do thou restrain their wrath and threats always.

11 Make vows and pay them to our ye folk that nigh him be, [God, Bring gifts, all ye that dwell abroad,
for dreadful sure is he;

12 For he doth take both life and might from princes great of birth;
And full of terror is his sight to all the kings on earth.

PSAL. 77. J. H.

I With my voice to God did cry,
I who lent a gracious ear;
My voice I lifted up on high,
and he my suit did hear.

2 In time of grief I sought to God;
by night no rest I took But stretch'd my hand to him abroad,
my soul comfort forsook.

3 When I to think on God intend my trouble then is more;
I spake, but could not make an end,
my breath was stopt so sore.

4 Thou dost my eyes so hold from that I am always awake: [rest,
With fear I am so fore oppress'd,
my sleep doth me forsake.

5 The days of old in mind I cast, and oft do think upon
The times and ages that are past,
full many years ago:

6 By night my songs I call to mind,
once made thy praise to show;
And with my heart much talk I find,
my spirits search to know.

7 Will God, said I, at once for all cast oft his people thus,
So that henceforth no time he shall be friendly unto us?

8 What, is his goodness quite deand pass'd clean away? [cay'd,
Or is his promise now delay'd,
and doth his truth decay?

9 And will the Lord our God forget his mercies manifold?
Or shall his wrath increase so hot,
his mercies to with-hold?

10 At last, I said, this surely is mine own infirmity;
But his right hand can help all this,
and change it speedily.

The Second Part.

11 I will regard and think upon the working of the Lord,
And all his wonders past and gone
I gladly will record;

12 Yea, all his works I will declare,
and what he did devise;
To tell his facts I will not spare,
and all his counsel wise.

13 Thy works, O Lord, are all and holy all abroad; upright,
What one hath strength to match the might

of thee, the Lord our God?
14 Thou art a God that dost forth thy wonders ev'ry hour; [show
And so dost make thy people know thy virtue and thy pow'r.

15 And thy own folk thou dost de-

Those that from Jacob did descend, and Joseph's seed from harm.

the waters saw thee well; [thee,
And they for fear away did flee,
the depths on trembling fell;

17 The clouds that were both thick and black did rain full plenteously,
The thunder in the air did crack,
thy shafts abroad did fly;

the lightnings from above,

the earth did quake and move.

and to my words incline;
My mouth shall speak strange pa-and sentences divine: [rables, and learnt

ev'n of our fathers old;
And which for our instruction
our fathers have us told:
3 Because we should not keep it close from them that after came,
Who should God's mighty pow'r declare,
and wond'rous works proclaim.
4 To Jacob he commandment gave how Israel should live, Willing our fathers should the

that were not sprung up then, Should have the knowledge of the in God that is above, [hope And not forget to keep his laws and his commands in love:

7 Not being as their fathers, who rebelled in God's sight,
And would not frame their wicked to know their God aright. [hearts 8 How went the sons of Ephraim their neighbours for to spoil, Shooting their darts in day of war,
and yet receiv'd the foil?
9 For why? they did not keep with God
the cov'nant that was made, Nor yet would walk or lead their according as he said: [lives 10 But put into oblivion his counsel and his will,
And all his works magnificent which he declared still.

The Second Part.

11 What wonders to our fore-did he himself disclose [fathers In Egypt's land, within the field that called is Thaneos!
12 He did divide and part the sea, through which he made a way
For them to pass, and on a heap
the waters made to stay.
13 He led them secret in a cloud
by day, when it was bright,
And in the night when it was dark,
with fire he gave them light.
14 He clave the rocks in wilder-and gave the people drink, [ness,
As plentiful as when the deeps
do flow up to the brink.
15 He drew forth rivers out of rocks
that were both dry and hard,
In such abundance that no floods to them might be compar'd.

16 Yet for all this, against the Lord their sin they did increafe, And did provoke the most Highest to wrath in wilderness;

17 And in their hearts they tempt-like people of mistrust, [ed God Requiring such a kind of meat as served to their lust.

18 Yea, they against him spake, and their boldness did expresse; [thus Can God prepare a table in this barren wilderness?

19 Behold, he smote the stony rock,
and floods forthwith did flow,
But can he now give to his folk both bread and flesh also?

20 When God heard this he waxed with Jacob and his seed, [wroth His indignation also did
'gainst Israel proceed:

The Third Part.

21 Because they did not faithfully believe, and hope that he Could always help and succour in their necessity: [them

22 Wherefore he did command
the clouds,

forthwith they brake in sunder,
And rain'd down manna for to eat,
a food of mighty wonder:

23 When earthly men with angels did plentifully feast; [food
He made the east-wind blow away,
and brought in the south-west:

24 He rain'd down flesh as thick as and fowls as thick as sand, [dust,
Which he did cast amidst the place where all their tents did stand.

25 Then did they eat exceedingly;
and all men had their fills;
Yet more and more they did desire to serve their lusts and wills.

26 But as the meat was in their mouths,

his wrath upon them fell,
And slew the strength of all their and choice of Israel. [youth

27 Yet fell they to their wonted sin, and still they did him grieve;
For all the wonders that he wrought
they would not him believe.

28 Their days therefore he shorten'd, and did make their honour vain;

Their years did waste and pass away with terror and with pain.

29 But ever when he plagued them
they fought him speedily, Rememb'ring that he was their strength,

their help and God most High.

30 Tho' with their mouths they nothing did
but flatter with the Lord,
And with their tongues and in their dissembled ev'ry word. [hearts

The Fourth Part.

31 For why? their hearts were nothing bent
to him, nor what he said,

Nor yet to keep or to perform the cov'nant that he made.

32 Yet was he still so merciful,
when they deserv'd to die,
That he forgave them, and would them utterly destroy. [not 33 Yea, many times he stay'd his wrath,

and did them not surprize,
And would not suffer that his whole displeasure should arise:

34 Consid'ring that they were but or like to wind and rain, [flesh Passing away, which never doth return and come again.

35 How often in the wilderness did they the Lord provoke!

How did they move and stir him up to plague them with his stroke!
36 Yet did they turn again to sin,
and tempt him very soon,

Prescribing to the mighty God what things they would have done.

37 Not thinking of his mighty nor of the day when he [hand, Deliver'd them out of the hand of the fierce enemy:

38 Nor how he wrought his mira-
(as they themselves beheld) [cles
In Egypt, and the wonders that he did in Zoan's field:

39 Nor how he turned by his pow'r their waters into blood,
That no man might receive his at river or at flood: [drink

40 Nor how he sent them swarms of flies,

which did them fore annoy,
And fill'd their country full with frogs,
which did their land destroy:

The Fifth Part.

41 Nor how he did their fruits unto the caterpillar give,
And of the labour of their hands
locusts did them deprive:

42 With hail-stones he destroy'd their vines,

so that they all were lost,
And likewise all their sycamores
he did consume with frost:

43 With hail-stones also once again
the Lord their cattle smote,
And all their flocks and herds like-with thunder-bolts full hot: [wife

44 He cast upon them his fierce and indignation fore, [wrath, Amongst them evil angels sent,
which troubled them yet more.

45 Then to his wrath he made a way,

and spared not the least,
But gave unto the pestilence
the man as well as beast.

46 He smote also all the first-born that up in Egypt came,
And all the chief of men and beasts
within the tents of Ham.

47 But as for his own people, he did them preserve and keep,

And carry'd them through wilderness

ev'n like a flock of sheep.
48 Without all fear, both safe and sound

he brought them out of thrall; Whereas their foes with rage of were overwhelmed all: [seas

49 And brought them out into the
of his own holy land, [coasts Ev'n to the mount which he had got

by his strong arm and hand:
50 And there cast out the heathen folk,

and did their land divide,
And in their tents he set the tribes of Israel to abide.

51 Yet, for all this, the God most high

they mov'd and tempted still,
And would not keep his testament,
nor yet obey his will:

52 But as their fathers turned back,
ev'n so they went astray, Much like a bow that will not but slips and starts away; [bend,

The Sixth Part.

53 And griev'd him with their hill-with offerings and fire, [altars,
And with their idols grievously provoked him to ire.

54 For which his wrath began again to kindle in his breast,
The wickedness of Israel
he did so much detest:

55 The tabernacle he forsook of Silo, where he was Right conversant with earthly men,

ev'n as his dwelling-place.

56 Then suffer'd he his might and in bondage for to be, [pow'r
And gave the honour of his ark unto the enemy:

57 And did commit them to the wroth with his heritage; [sword,
Their young men were consum'd with fire,

maids had no marriage:

58 And with the sword the priests did perish ev'ry one, [also
And not a widow left alive their death for to bemoan.

59 Then did the Lord awake as one whom sleep could not confine,

And like a mighty giant that refreshed is with wine;

60 With em'rods in the hinder his enemies he smote, [parts And put them unto such a shame as should not be forgot.

61 The tent and tabernacle he of Joseph did refuse,
Also the tribe of Ephraim
he would in no wise chuse:

62 But he the tribe of Judah chose,
that he therein might dwell,

his people for to keep; [serve,
Whom he took up and brought away
ev'n from the folds of sheep:
65 From following the ewes with young
the Lord did him advance,
To feed his people Israel,
and his inheritance.
66 Thus David with a faithful heart
his flock and charge did feed;
And prudently with all his pow'r did govern them indeed.

PSAL. 79. J. H.

O God, the gentiles do invade thy heritage to spoil; Jerusalem an heap is made,
thy temple they defile:
2 The bodies of thy saints most abroad to birds they cast, [dear
The flesh of them that do thee fear
they beasts devour and waste:
3 Their blood throughout Jerusa-as water spilt they have, [lem
So that there is not one of them to lay their dead in grave.
4 Thus are we made a laughingstock almost the world throughout,
The enemies at us do mock who dwell our coasts about.
5 How long, O Lord, wilt thou re-thy anger and thy rage? [tain,
And shall thy wrath and jealousy not any more assuage?
6 Upon those people pour the same,
who did thee never know,
The realms which call not on thy Name
consume and overthrow:
7 For they have got the upper-
hand,
and Jacob's seed destroy'd,
His habitation and his land
They have laid waste and void.
8 Bear not in mind our former faults,
with speed some pity show;
And aid us, Lord, in our assaults,
for we are weak and low.

which they spilt in despite:

Lord, set them out of band [brate, and in their foes strong hand.

so bold
as to blaspheme thy Name, Into their laps do thou ev'n-fold repay again the same.
15 So we thy flock and pasture sheep will praise thee evermore, And teach all ages how to keep for thee like praise in store.

rows deep,

and thou didst plant it there:
10 Thou didst prepare for it a place,
and set it's roots so fast,
That it did grow and spring apace,
and fill'd the land at last.

The Second Part.

11 The hills were cover'd round

That all the folk that pass thereby the same do spoil and waste.

doth dig and root it out, [wild
The furious beasts out of the field devour it all about.
14 O Lord of hosts return again,
from heav'n do thou look down, Behold, and with thy help sustain thy vineyard overthrow.
15 Thy pleasant vine, thy Israel, which thy right hand hath set,
The same which thou didst love To now whom thou hast kept so long,

And with the Son of man, whom thou
to thee hast made so strong:

and saved us from shame, [free,
Then will we never fall from thee,
but call upon thy Name.

good grace
convert us unto thee;

And from the furnace set him free from burning brick of clay.

I help'd thee speedily; [call
And I did answer thee withal in thunder from on high.
9 Yea, at the waters of discord
I did thee tempt and prove,
Where thou the anger of the Lord with murmuring didst move.

what I do promise thee; Regard, and mark my words full if thou wilt cleave to me: [well,

my voice when that I spake,
And Israel would not obey,
but did me quite forsake.

16 I should have soon destroy'd their foes,
and brought them down full low,
And turn'd my hand against all those that fought their overthrow:
17 And they that at the Lord did as lyars should be found: [rage
But for his folk their time and age should with great joys be how they do rage and cry; [see and pluck this folk away,

So that the Name of Israel

5 Shall thy fierce anger never end, but still be pour'd on us?
And shall thy wrath itself extend unto all ages thus?
6 Wilt thou not rather turn again,
and quicken us, that we
And all thy folk that yet remain may glad and joyful be?
7 O Lord, on us do thou declare thy goodness to our wealth; Shew forth to us, and do not spare thy aid and saving health.
8 I'll hear what God the Lord doth to his he speaketh peace, [say,
And to his saints, that never they return to foolishness.
9 For why? his help is still at hand to such as do him fear, Whereby great glory in our land shall dwell and flourish there.
10 For truth and mercy there shall in one to take their place; [meet And peace shall justice with kiss greet,
and there they shall embrace.
11 Truth from the earth shall spring and flourish pleasantly; [apace
So righteousness shall shew her face and look from heav'n most high.
12 Yea, God himself doth take in
- hand
to give us each good thing.
And through the coasts of all the land
the earth her fruit shall bring.

13 Before his face shall justice go,
like to a guide or stay;
He shall direct his steps also,
and keep them in the way.

LORD, bow thine ear to my reand hear me speedily; [quest,
For with great pain and grief op-full poor and weak am I. [preft, 2 Preserve my soul, because my and doings holy be; [ways
And save thy servant, O my God, that puts his trust in thee.
3 Thy mercy upon me exprefs, and me defend always;
For through the day I do not cease to thee, O Lord, to pray.
4 Comfort thy servant's soul, I pray, that now with pain is pin'd;
For unto thee I do always lift up my soul and mind.
5 For thou art good and bountiful, thy gifts of grace are free,
Also thy mercy plentiful
to all that call on thee.
6 O Lord, likewise when I do pray, regard and give an ear,
Mark well the words that I do say,
all my petitions hear.
7 In time when trouble doth me to thee I do complain; [move, For why? I know and well do prove,
thou answer'ft me again.
8 Among the gods, O Lord, is none with thee to be compar'd;
And none can do as thou hast done,
the like has not been heard.

The Second Part.

9 The Gentiles and the people all,
whom thou didst make and frame,
Before thy face on knees shall fall,
and glorify thy Name.
10 For why? thou art so much of all power is thy own, [might,
Thou workest wonders still in
For thou art God alone. [tight;
11 O teach me, Lord, thy way, and I shall in thy truth proceed;
O join my heart to thee so nigh that I thy Name may dread.
12 To thee will I give thanks and
praise,
O Lord, with all my heart,
And glorify thy Name always,
because my God thou art.
13 For why? thy mercy shew'd to is great and doth excel; [me Thou sett'st my soul at liberty out from the lowest hell.
14 O Lord, the proud against me and heaps of men of might; [rise, They seek my soul and in no wife will have thee in their sight.
15 Thou, Lord, art merciful, and kind,
and very slow to wrath;
Thy goodness is full great, I find,
thy truth no measure hath.

26 O turn to me, and mercy show,
thy strength to me apply;
O help and save thy servant now,
thy handmaid's son am I.
27 On me some sign of favour show, that all my foes may see
And be ashamed, because that thou dost help and comfort me.

Upon the holy hills full sure,

his grace doth there abide,
He loves them more than all the of Jacob's tents beside. [rest 3 Full glorious things reported be in Zion and abroad;
Great things, I say, are said of thee,
thou city of our God.
4 On Rahab I will cast an eye,
and bear in mind the same;
To Babylon also apply,
and them that know thy Name.
5 Lo, Palestine, and Tyre also,
with Ethiopie likewise:
A people old, full long ago,
were born, and there did rise.
6 Of Zion they shall say abroad, that divers men of fame
Have there sprung up, and the high hath founded fast the fame. [God 7 In their records to them it shall by him be made appear,
Of Zion, that the chief of all had his beginning there.

My fountains and my pleasant springs
are all contain'd in thee.

Lord God of health, the hope thou art alone to me; [and stay
I call and cry throughout the day, and all the night to thee.
2 O let my pray'r with speed a-unto thy sight on high; [and Incline thine ear, O Lord, attend, and hearken to my cry.
3 For why? with wo my heart is and doth in trouble dwell; [fill'd,
My life and breath doth almost yield,
and draweth nigh to hell.
4 I am esteemed as one of them that in the pit do fall,
And made as one among those men that have no strength at all:
5 As one among the dead, and free from things that here remain;
It were more ease for me to be with them the which are slain:
6 As those that lie in grave, I say,
whom thou hast clean forgot,
The which thy hand hath cut away,
and thou regard'st them not.

7 Yea, like to one shut up full sure within the lowest pit,
In darksome place and all obscure,
and in the depth of it.
8 Thy anger and thy wrath likewise full fore on me do lie,
And all thy itorments against me rise,
my soul to vex and try.
9 Thou putt'st my friends far off from me,
and mak'st them hate me fore;
I am shut up in prison fast,
and can come forth no more.
10 My sight doth fail through grief
I call to thee, O God, [and wo, Throughout the day my hands also to thee I stretch abroad.

The Second Part.

11 Dost thou unto the dead declare thy wond'rous works of fame?
Shall dead to life again repair,
and praise thee for the same?
12 Or shall thy loving-kindness, be shewed in the grave? [Lord,
Or shall with them that are destroy'd
thy truth her honour have?
13 Shall they that lie in dark full see all thy wonders great? [low Or there shall they thy justice
know,
where men all things forget?
14 But I, O Lord to thee alway do cry and call apace, shall come before thy face.

in grief that seeketh thee? [soul
And now, O Lord, why dost thou thy face away from me? [hide 16 I am afflicted, dying still from youth many a year;
Thy terrors which do work me ill with troubled mind I bear.
17 The furies of thy wrathful rage
full fore upon me lye, Thy terrors they do not assuage,
but press me heavily:
18 All day they compass me about,
as water at the tide;
And all at once with streams full beset me on each side. [great

Yea, and my old acquaintance all out of my sight are gone.

To sing the mercies of the Lord
my tongue shall never spare,
My mouth from age to age accord thy truth for to declare.
2 For I have said that mercy shall for evermore endure, Thy faithfulness in the heav'ns all is stablish'd firm and sure.
3 With mine elect, faith God, have I a faithful cov'nant made,
And sworn to David solemnly,
having to him thus said:

4 Thy seed for ever I will stay,
and stablish it full fast,
And still uphold thy throne alway from age to age to last.
5 The heav'ns do shew with joy and mirth
thy wond'rous works, O Lord; Thy saints within thy church on earth
thy faith and truth record.
6 Who with the Lord is equal then in all the clouds abroad?
Among the sons of gods or men
what one is like our God?
7 God in th'assembly of the saints is greatly to be dread,
And over all that dwell about in reverence to be had.
8 Lord God of hosts, in all the what one is like to thee! [world
On ev'ry side, most mighty Lord, thy truth is seen to be.
9 The rage and fury of the sea
thou rulest at thy will;
And when the waves thereof arise,
thou mak'st them calm and still.
10 And Egypt, Lord, thou hast sub-du'd,
thou hast destroy'd it quite;
Thy foes thou closely hast pursu'd, and scatter'd thro' thy might.

The Second Part.

11 The heav'ns are thine, and still have been,
likewise the earth and land,
The world and all that is therein
thou foundedst with thy hand:
12 Both north and south, with east and west
thyself didst make and frame, Both Tabor mount, and Hermon hill rejoice, and praise thy Name.
13 Thine arm is strong and full of
pow'r,
all might therein doth lie;
The strength of thy right hand each thou liftest up on high. [hour 14 In righteousness and equity thou hast thy seat and place; Mercy and truth are still with thee,
and go before thy face.
15 That folk is blest that knoweth the joyful sound, O God; [right For in the favour of thy sight they walk full safe abroad:
16 And in thy Name throughout they greatly do rejoice; [the day And through thy righteousness have they
a pleasant fame and noise.
17 For why? their glory, strength, in thee alone doth lie; [and aid And thy goodness which hath us staid,
shall lift our horn on high.
18 Our strength that doth defend us well
the Lord to us doth bring;
The Holy one of Israel,
he is our guide and King.

19 Sometimes thy will to holy men in visions thou didst show,
And thus didst say unto them then-thy mind to make them know: 20 A man of might I have erect your king and guide to be,
And set him up whom I elect among the folk to me.

The Third Part.

21 My Servant David I appoint to rule my people well,
And with my holy oil anoint him king of Israel.
22 For why? my hand is ready still with him for to remain,
And with my arm also I will him strengthen and sustain:
23 The enemies shall not oppress,
they shall not him devour;
Nor shall the sons of wickedness on him have any pow'r.
24 His foes likewise I will destroy before his face in sight:
Those that him hate I will annoy,
and strike them with my might.
25 My truth and mercy shall like-upon him ever lie; [wife
And in my Name his horn shall rise, and be exalted high.
26 His kingdom I will set to be upon the sea and land;
Also the running floods shall he embrace with his right-hand.
27 He shall depend with all his on me, and thus shall say, [heart
My Father and my God thou art, my rock, my health, and stay.
28 As my first-born I will him count
of all on earth that springs;
His might and honour shall sur-above all earthly kings. [mount 29 My mercy shall be with him still,
as I myself have told;
My faithful cov'nant to fulfil my promise I will hold.
30 Also his seed I will sustain for ever strong and sure;
So that his seat shall still remain,
while heav'n and earth endure.

The Fourth Part.

31 But if his sons forsake my law,
and so begin to swerve,
And of my judgements have no awe,
and will not them observe:
32 Or if they do not use aright
my laws for them prepar'd;
But set all my commandments light,
and will not them regard:
33 Then with the rod will I begin their doings to amend;
And so will scourge them for their whenever they offend. [sin, 34 But yet my mercy and goodness
I will not take away
From him, nor let my faithfulness in any wise decay.

PSALM XC, XCI, XCII.

35 But sure my cov'nant I will hold with all that I have spoke;
No word the which my lips have shall alter or be broke. [told 36 Once sware I by my holiness, and that perform will I;
With David I will promise keep,
to him I will not lye.
37 His seed for evermore shall also his throne of might, [reign,
As doth the sun, it shall remain for ever in my sight:
38 And as the moon within the sky
for ever standeth fast,
A faithful witness from on high;
so shall his kingdom last.
39 But, Lord, thou dost him now reject,
and put him in great fear;
Yea, thou art wroth with thine thy own Anointed dear: [elect, 40 The cov'nant with thy servant
made
thou hast quite overthrown,
And down upon the ground hast and cast his royal crown. [laid

The Fifth Part.

41 His hedges thou hast overthrown,
his walls destroy'd quite round,
All his strong holds hast beaten down,
and levell'd with the ground:
42 That he is fore destroy'd and of comers-by throughout, [torn And so is made a mock and scorn to all that dwell about.
43 Thou their right hand hast arm'd with power
that him so fore annoy;
And all his foes that him devour,
lo, thou hast made to joy.
44 His sword's edge thou dost take away,
that should his foes withstand;
To him in war no victory
thou giv'st, nor upper-hand.
45 His glory thou dost also waste, his throne, his joy and mirth
By thee is overthrown and cast full low upon the earth.
46 Thou hast cut off, and made full his youth and joyful days, [short And rais'd of him an ill report, to his shame and dispraise.
47 How long away from me therefor ever wilt thou turn? [fore,
And shall thine anger evermore like fire consume and burn?
48 O call to mind remember then,
my time consumeth fast:
Why hast thou made the sons of as things in vain to waste? [men 49 What man is he that liveth, and death never thinks to see?
Or from the grave's devouring shall he his soul set free? [hand 50 Where is, O Lord, thy great goodness,
so oft declar'd before,

Which by thy truth and upright-
ness
to David thou hast swore?
51 The great rebukes to mind I call that on thy servants lie,
The railings of thy people all,
borne in my breast have I;
52 Wherewith, O Lord, thine enemies
blasphemed have thy Name:
The steps of thine Anointed one they cease not to defame.
53 All praise be given unto thee,
O God the Lord most High,
From this time forth for evermore,
Amen, Amen, say I.

PSAL. 90. J. H.

THou, Lord, hast been our sure defence,
our place of ease and rest,
In all times past, yea, so long since as cannot be exprest.
2 Before was made mountain or hill,
the earth and world abroad,
From age to age, and always still for ever thou art God.
3 Thou grindest man through grief and pain to dust or clay, and then Thou unto them dost say again,
Return ye sons of men.
4 The lasting of a thousand years,
what is it in thy sight?
As yesterday it doth appear,
or as a watch by night.
5 So soon as thou dost scatter them,
then is their life and trade Ev'n as a sleep, or like the grass, whose beauty soon doth fade:
6 Which in the morning shines full bright,
but fadeth suddenly,
And is cut down before the night,
all wither'd, dead, and dry.
7 For through thy anger we consume,
our might is much decay'd,
And of thy fervent wrath, O Lord,
we are full fore afraid.
8 The wicked works that we have wrought,
thou sett'st before thy eye,
Our privy faults, yea, all our thoughts
thy countenance doth spy.
9 For through thy wrath our days do waste,
thereof doth nought remain;
Our years consume as doth a blast,
and are not call'd again.
10 The time of our abode on earth is threescore years and ten;
But if we come to fourscore years,
our life is grievous then.

The Second Part.

11 For of this time the strength and we dote so much upon, [chief,

Is nothing else but pain and grief and we as blasts are gone.
12 What man doth know what power and what might thy anger hath?
Or in his heart who doth thee fear
according to thy wrath?
13 Intrust us, Lord, to know and try,
how long our days remain;
That so we may our hearts apply,
true wisdom to attain.
14 Return, O Lord, how long wilt thou
in thy great wrath proceed?
Shew favour to thy servants now,
and help them at their need.
15 Refresh us with thy mercy soon,
then shall we joyful be;
All times so long as life doth last in heart rejoice will we.
16 As thou hast plagued us before,
now also make us glad,
And for the years wherein full fore affliction we have had.
17 O let thy work and power appear on thy servants light, [pear,
And shew unto thy children dear thy glory and thy might.
18 Lord, let thy grace and glory on us thy servants thus; [stand Confirm the works we take in hand, and prosper them to us.

PSAL. 91. J. H.

HE that within the secret place of God most High doth dwell, Under the shadow of his grace
he shall be safe and well.
2 Thou art my hope and my strong
I to the Lord will say; [hold,
My God he is, in him will I my whole affiance stay.
3 He shall defend thee from the snare,
the which the hunter laid,
And from the deadly plague and whereof thou art afraid: [care 4 And with his wings shall cover
thee,
and keep thee safely there;
His faith and truth thy fence shall as sure as shield and spear. [be 5 So that thou never shalt have to fear or be affright, [cause
For all the shafts that fly by day, or terrors of the night:
6 Nor of the plague that privily doth walk in darkness fast, Nor yet of that which doth destroy,
and at noon-day doth waste.
7 Yea, at thy side as thou dost stand,
a thousand dead shall be;
Ten thousand more at thy right
hand,
and yet shalt thou be free.
8 But thou shalt see it for thy part, thy eyes shall well regard,
According unto their desert
the wicked have reward.

9 For why? O Lord, I only rest and fix my hope on thee;
In the most High I put my trust,
my sure defence is he.
10 No evil shalt thou need to fear with thee it shall go well;
No plague shall ever once come near the house where thou dost dwell.
11 For why? unto his angels all with charge commanded he,
That still in all thy ways they shall preserve and prosper thee, 12 And in their hands shall bear thee still waiting thee upon, [up, Lest that thy foot should happen to dash against a stone. [for 13 Upon the lion thou shalt go,
the adder fell and long;
On the young lion tread also with dragons stout and strong:
14 Because he sets his love on me,
I'll save him by my might,
And him advance, because that he doth know my Name aright.
15 When he for help to me doth an answer I will give; [cry, And from his grief take him will I in glory for to live.
16 With length of days and years I him fully satisfy, [will
And also my salvation still shew him assuredly.

IT is a thing both good and meet to praise the highest Lord,
And to thy Name O thou most to sing with one accord: [High, 2 To shew the kindness of the before the day be light, [Lord,
And to declare his truth abroad,
when it doth draw to night.
3 On a ten-stringed instrument, on lute and harp so sweet,
With all the mirth you can invent of instruments most meet.
4 For thou hast made me to rejoice in things so wrought by thee,
That I have joy in heat and voice thy handy works to see.
5 O Lord, how glorious and how great are thy works round about!
So deeply are thy counsels set,
that none can find them out.
6 The man unwise cannot tell how this work to pass to bring,
And fools also are most unfit to understand this thing.
7 When as the wicked at their will like grass do spring full fast,
And when they flourish in their ill,
they suddenly shall waste.
8 But thou art mighty, Lord most High,
and thou dost reign therefore In glory and great majesty, both now and evermore.
9 Behold, O Lord, thine enemies shall be destroy'd away,

PSALM XCIII, XCIV, XCV, XCVI.

And all that work iniquity shall perish and decay.
 10 But thou, like as an unicorn, shalt lift my horn on high; With fresh and new prepared oil anointed king am I:
 11 And of my foes before my eyes shall see the fall and shame, Of all that do against me rise my ears shall hear the same.
 12 The righteous flourish shall on high, as palm-trees bud and blow, And as the cedars multiply in Libanus that grow.
 13 For they are planted in the place and dwelling of our God: Within his courts they spring and flourish all abroad: [apace,
 14 And in their age much fruit shall most pleasant to be seen, [bring, And also shall both bud and spring with boughs and branches green:
 15 To shew that God is good and upright in his will; [just, He is my rock, my hope, and trust, in him there is no ill.

PSAL. 93. J. H.

THE Lord doth reign and clothed is with majesty most bright; And to declare his strength likewise hath girt himself with might.
 2 The Lord also the earth hath and shaped it most sure; [made, No might can make it move or fade, at stay it doth endure.
 3 Before the world was made or wrought thy seat was set before, Beyond all time that can be thought thou hast been evermore.
 4 The floods, O Lord, the floods do they roar and make a noise; [rise, The floods, I say, did enterprize, and lifted up their voice.
 5 Yea, though the storms arise in sight, though seas do rage and swell, The Lord is strong and more of might; for he on high doth dwell.
 6 O Lord, thy testimonies great are very sure; therefore Doth holiness become thy seat and house for evermore.

PSAL. 94. J. H.

O Lord, thou dost revenge all wrong, vengeance belongs to thee; Since then it doth to thee belong, declare, that all may see.
 2 Set forth thyself, for thou of right the earth doth judge and guide; Reward the proud and men of might according to their pride.

3 How long shall wicked men bear sway with lifting up their voice? Shall proud and wicked men always thus triumph and rejoice?
 4 How long shall they with brags burst out, and proudly talk their fill? Shall they rejoice that be so stout, whose works are ever ill?
 5 Thy flock, O Lord, thine heritage they spoil and vex full sore; Against thy people they do rage still daily more and more.
 6 The widows which are comfortless, and strangers they destroy; They slay the children fatherless, and none doth put them by.
 7 And when they take these things in hand, this talk they have of thee, Can Jacob's God this understand? tush, no, he cannot see.
 8 O folk unwise, and people rude, some knowledge now discern; Ye fools among the multitude, at length begin to learn.
 9 The Lord who made the ear of man, he needs of right must hear; He made the eye, all things must before his sight appear. [then

O Come, let us lift up our voice, and sing unto the Lord; In him our rock of health rejoice let us with one accord:
 2 Yea, let us come before his face to give him thanks and praise; In singing psalms unto his grace let us be glad always.
 3 For why? the Lord he is no doubt a great and mighty God, A King above all gods throughout, in all the world abroad.
 4 The secrets of the earth so deep, and corners of the land, The tops of hills that are most steep, he holds them in his hand:

PSAL. 104. W. K.

MY soul, praise the Lord,
speak good of his Name;
O Lord our great God,
how dost thou appear!

So passing in glory,
that great is thy fame;
Honour and Majesty
in thee shine most clear.

2 With light as a robe thou hast thyself clad, Whereby all the earth thy greatness may see:
the heav'n's in such sort thou also hast spread,
That they to a curtain compared may be.
3 His chamber-beams lie
in the clouds full sure,
Which as his chariots
are made him to bear:
And there with much swiftness
his course doth endure, Upon the wings riding of winds in the air.
4 He maketh his sp'rits
as heralds to go,
And lightnings to serve
we see also prest;
His will to accomplish
they run to and fro,
To save or consume things,
as seemeth him best.
5 He groundeth the earth
so firmly and fast,
That it once to move
none shall have such pow'r;
The deep a fair cov'ring for it made thou hast, Which by its own nature
the hills would devour.
6 But at thy rebuke
the waters do flee,
And so give due place
thy word to obey:
At thy voice of thunder
so fearful they be,
That in their great raging
they haste soon away.
7 The mountains full high they then up ascend;
If thou do but speak,
thy word they fulfil:
So likewise the valleys
most quickly descend,
Where thou them appointest remain they do still:
8 Their bounds thou hast set how far they shall run,
So that in their rage not that pass they can:
For God hath appointed they shall not return
The earth to destroy more,
which made was for man.
The Second Part.
9 He sendeth the springs to strong streams or lakes, Which run do full swift among the huge hills;
Where both the wild asses
their thirst often slake,
And beasts of the mountains thereof drink their fills.

10 By these pleasant springs and rivers most clear,
The fowls of the air
abide shall and dwell;
Who moved by nature
to hop here and there, Among the green branches their songs shall excel.

11 The mountains to moist-
the clouds he doth use:
The earth with his works is wholly replete:
So as the brute cattle
he doth not refuse,
But grafs doth provide them,
and herb for man's meat.
12 Yea, bread, wine, and oil
he made for man's sake,
His face to refresh,
and heart to make strong.
The cedars of Liban'
The great Lord did make,
Which trees he doth nourish that grow up so long.
13 In these may birds build,
and all make their nests;
In fir-trees the storks remain and abide:
The high hills are succours
for wild-goats to rest;
Also the rock stony for conies to hide.
14 The moon then is set her seasons to run,
The day from the night thereby to discern;
And by the descending also of the sun,
The cold from heat away thereby we do learn.
15 When darkness doth come-by God's will and pow'r, Then creep forth do all the beasts of the wood:
The lions range roaring their prey to devour;
But yet 'tis the Lord,
who giveth them food.
16 As soon as the sun is up, they retire,
To couch in their dens
then are they full fain;
That man to his work may,
as right doth require,
Till night come and call him to take rest again.

The Third Part.

17 How sundry, O Lord, are all thy works found!
With wisdom full great they are indeed wrought;
So that the whole world
of thy praise doth sound;
And as for thy riches,
they pass all men's thought:
18 So is the great sea which is large and broad,
Where creeping things swarm and beasts of each sort;

There

PSALM CV, CVI.

There mighty ships fail,
and some lie at road;
The whale huge and monstrous
there also doth sport.

19 All things on thee wait, thou dost them relieve,
And thou in due time
full well dost them feed:
Now when it doth please thee
the same for to give,
They gather full gladly those things which they need.

20 Thou open'st thy hand,
and they find such grace,
That they with good things are filled we see;
But fore they are troubled
if thou hide thy face,
For if thou their breath take vile dust then they be.

21 Again, when thy Spirit from thee doth proceed,
All things to appoint,
and what shall ensue;
Then are they created as thou hast decreed,
And dost by thy goodness
the dry earth renew.

22 The praise of the Lord for ever shall last,
Who may in his works
by right well rejoice:
His look can the earth make to tremble full fast,
And likewise the mountains to smoke at his voice.

23 To this Lord and God will I sing always,
So long as I live
my God praise will I:
Then am I most certain my words shall him please,
I will rejoice in him,
to him I will cry.

24 The sinners, O Lord, consume in thine ire;
Also the perverse,
them root out with shame:
But as for my soul now,
let it still desire,
And say with the faithful,
Praise ye the Lord's Name.

came Israel also;
And Jacob in the land of Ham
did sojourn to and fro.

23 His people he exceedingly in numbers made to grow
And stronger than their enemies, who fought their overthrow;
24 Whose heart he turned that with they did his people treat: [hate And did his servants wrongfully abuse with base deceit.

The Fourth Part.

25 His faithful servant Moses then,
and Aaron whom he chose,
He, did command to go to them
his message to disclose.

26 His wonderful and mighty signs amongst them they did show,
And wonders in the land of Ham then did they work also.

27 Darkness he sent, and made it instead of brighter day; [dark And his commission and his word they did not disobey.

28 He turn'd their waters into their fish also did slay; [blood, Their land brought frogs ev'n in the place where their king Pharaoh lay.

29 He spake, and at his voice there came great swarms of noisome flies;
And all the quarters of their land were fill'd with crawling lice.

30 He gave them cold and stony instead of milder rain; [hail And fiery flames within their land
he sent unto their pain.

31 He smote their vines and all their trees
whereon the figs did grow;
And all the trees within their coasts also did overthrow.

32 He spake, then caterpillers did and grasshoppers abound, Eating the grass in all their land and fruit of all their ground.

The Fifth Part.

33 The first-begotten in the land, with death did likewise smite, Yea, the beginning and first-fruit of all their strength and might.

34 With gold and silver caused his from Egypt's land to pass,
And in the number of their tribes
no feeble one there was.

35 Egypt was glad and joyful then when they did thence depart;
For terror and the fear of them was fall'n upon their heart.

36 To shroud them from the parcha cloud he did display, [ing heat
And fire he sent to give them light, when night had hid the day.

37 They asked, and he caused to rain at their request; [quails And fully with the bread of heav'n their hunger he repress.

38 He opened the stony rock,
and waters gushed out;
Also the dry and parched ground like rivers ran about.

39 For of his holy cov'nant he was mindful evermore, Which to his servant Abraham
he plighted long before.

40 He brought his people forth with mirth,
and his elect with joy,
Out of the cruel land where they had liv'd in great annoy.

41 And of the heathen men he gave to them the fruitful lands;

The labours of the people did they take into their hands;

42 That they his holy statutes observe for evermore, [might
And faithfully obey his laws;
Praise ye the Lord therefore.

PSAL. 106. N.

PRAISE ye the Lord, for he is good,

his mercy lasts alway:
Who can express his noble acts,
or all his praise display?

2 They blessed are that judgement and justly do alway; [keep,
With favour of thy people, Lord,
remember me, I pray;

3 And with thy saving health, O vouchsafe to visit me: [Lord,
That I the great felicity of thine elect may see;

4 And with thy people's joy I may a joyful mind possess,
And may with thine inheritance
a cheerful heart express.

5 Both we and our forefathers all have sinned every one;
We have committed wickedness,
and very lewdly done.

6 The wonders great which thou,
O Lord,
hast done in Egypt land,
Our fathers though they saw them yet did not understand: [all

7 Nor yet thy mercies manifold did keep in memory:
But at the sea, yea, the Red-sea,
rebell'd ungratefully.

8 Nevertheless, he saved them for honour of his Name;
That he might make his power
known,
and spread abroad his fame.

9 The Red-sea he did then rebuke, and forthwith it was dry'd;
As in the wilderness, so through the deep he did them guide.

10 He sav'd them from the cruel
hand
of their most spiteful foe,
And from their enemies he did deliver them also.

PSALM CVII.

The Second Part.

11 The waters did them overthrow,
not one was left alive:
Then they believ'd his word, and praise
in song they did him give.
12 But very soon ungratefully his works they quite forgot,
And for his counsel and his will they did neglect to wait:
13 But sinned in the wilderness with fond and greedy lust,
And in the desert tempted God,
their only stay and trust:
14 Who all their wanton minds de-did suffer them to have; [fire But wasting leanness therewithal into their souls he gave.
15 Then when they lodged in their at Moses they did grutch; [tents, Aaron the holy of the Lord
they also envy'd much.
16 Therefore the earth did open and Dathan did devour; [wide,
And all Abiram's company
did cover in that hour.
17 In their assembly kindled was a hot consuming fire,
And wasting flame did then burn
the wicked in his ire. [up 18 Upon the hill of Horeb they an idol calf did frame;
And there the molten image they did worship of the same.
19 Thus to the likeness of a calf,
which feedeth on the grass,
They turned all their glory, and their honour did deface:
20 And God their only Saviour unthankfully forgot, [they Who many great and mighty things in Egypt's land had wrought:

The Third Part.

21 And in the land of Ham for them
most wondrous works had done,
And by the Red-sea dreadful things performed long ago.
22 Therefore because they shew'd forgetful and unkind, [themselves To bring destruction on them all he purpos'd in his mind:
23 Had not his chosen Moses stood before him in the way, To turn away his wrath, lest he should them destroy and slay.
24 They did despise the pleasant that he to them did give, [land Yea, and the words that he had spoke
they did no whit believe;
25 But in their tents with grudging
they wickedly repin'd, [heart Nor to the voice of God the Lord did give an heark'ning mind.
26 Therefore against them lifted he his strong revenging hand,
Them to destroy in wilderness,
before they saw the land:

27 And to destroy their seed athe nations with his rod, [mong And through the kingdoms of the to scatter them abroad. [world 28 To Baal-peor they did join themselves most wickedly,
The sacrifices of the dead eating most greedily.
29 Thus they with their inventions his anger much provoke; [did And in his fore enkindled wrath
the plague upon them broke.
30 But Phineas stood up with zeal
the sinners vile to slay;
And judgement he did execute,
and then the plague did slay.

The Fourth Part.

31 It was imputed unto him for righteousness that day,
And from thenceforth so counted from race to race alway. [is 32 At waters called Meribah they did him angry make;
Yea, so far forth that Moses then was punish'd for their sake:
33 Because they vex'd his spirit so,
that in impatient heat
His lips spake unadvisedly, his fervour was so great.
34 Nor as the Lord commanded did they the people slay, [them,
But were among the heathen mix'd,
and learn'd their wicked way.
35 They did their idols serve, which their ruin and decay; [was To devils sons and daughters did they offer up and slay;
36 Yea, with unkind and murdering knife,
the guiltless blood they spilt, Ev'n their own sons and daughters
blood
without all cause of guilt:
37 Whom they to Canaan's idols offer'd with wicked hand; [then
And so with blood of innocents defiled was the land.
38 Thus they were stained with the
of their own filthy way; [works And with their own inventions did a whoring go astray.
39 Therefore against his people his anger kindled fore, [was And ev'n his own inheritance
he did abhor therefore.
40 Into the hands of heathen men
he gave them for a prey;
And made their foes their lords, whom they were forced to obey.

The Fifth Part.

41 Yea, and their hateful enemies
oppress'd them in their land;
And they were humbly made to as subject to their hand. [sloop 42 Full oftentimes from thrall had deliver'd them before; [he But they rebell'd against him, and provok'd him evermore.

43 Therefore they by their wickedness
were brought full low to lie;
Yet when he saw, them in distress
he hearken'd to their cry.
44 He call'd to mind his covenant which he to them had sworn,
And by his mercies multitude repented him therefore:
45 And favour he them made to before the sight of those, [find That led them captive from their
land,
though they had been their foes.
46 Save us, O Lord, thou art our we do thee humbly pray, [God,
And from among the heathen folk,
Lord gather us away:
47 That we may triumph and rein thy most holy Name, [joice
That we may glory in thy praise, and founding of thy fame.
48 The Lord the God of Israel be blessed evermore:
Let all the people say, Amen.
Praise ye the Lord therefore.

PSAL. 107. W. K.

GIVE thanks unto the Lord our for very kind is he; [God,
And that his mercy hath no end
all mortal men may see.
2 Such as the Lord redeemed hath with thanks shall praise his Name,
And shew how they from foes were freed,
and how he wrought the same.
3 He gather'd them forth of the that lay so far about; [lands
From east to west from north to south
his hand did find them out.
4 They wander'd in the wilderness,
and strayed from the way,
Finding no city where to dwell,
that might serve for their stay.
5 Whose thirst and hunger was so within those deserts void. [great That faintness them assaulted, and their souls greatly annoy'd.
6 Then did they cry in their distress unto the Lord for aid;
Who did remove their troublous
according as they pray'd; [state, 7 And by the way which was most he led them like a guide; [right
That they might to their city go, and safely there abide.
8 Let men therefore before the confess his goodness then, [Lord
And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sons of men.
9 For he their empty souls sustain'd, whom thirst had made to faint;
Their hungry souls with goodness fed,
and heard their sad complaint.
10 Such as do dwell in darkness
deep,
where they on death do wait,
Fast bound to bear such grievous as iron chains do threat: [pains.

The Second Part.

11 Because against the words of they proudly did rebel, [God Esteeming light his counsels high,
which do so far excel:
12 But when he humbled them full
low,
then they fell down with grief,
And none was found that could them help,
or give them some relief.
13 Then did they cry in their diunto the Lord for aid, [stretches
Who did remove their troublous
according as they pray'd. [state 14 For he from darkness brought them out,
and from death's dreadful shade,
Bursting with force the iron bands,
which them before did lade.
15 Let men therefore before the confess his goodness then, [Lord
And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sons of men.
16 For he threw down the gates of brass with strong and mighty hand;
The iron bars in sunder brake,
nothing could him withstand.
17 The foolish folk great plagues by reason of their sin, [do feel.
And for the great transgressions they still continue in. [which 18 Their soul abhor'd all sorts of no relish they could have; [meat,
By which means they were almost unto the very grave. [brought 19 Then did they cry in their di-
unto the Lord for aid, [stretches
Who did remove their troublous
according as they pray'd. [state 20 For then he sent to them his word,
which health did soon restore,
And brought them from those dangers deep,
wherein they were before.

The Third Part.

21 Let men therefore before the confess his goodness then, [Lord
And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sons of men:
22 And let them offer sacrifice to him most thankfully,
And speak of all his wondrous works with gladness and with joy.
23 Such as in ships and brittle into the seas descend, [barks Their merchandize through fearful to compass and to end: [floods 24 These men are forced to behold the Lord's works what they be;
And in the dreadful deep the same
most marvellous they see.
25 For at his word the stormy arise in a rage, [wind
And stirreth up the surges so that nought can them assuage.
26 Then they are lifted up so high,
the clouds they seem to gain,
And

PSALM CVIII, CIX, CX.

And plunging down the depth, un-their souls consume with pain. [til 27 And like a drunkard to and fro now here, now there they reel;
As men who had their reason lost,
and had no sense to feel.
28 Then did they cry in their diunto the Lord for aid, [stres
Who did remove their troublous
according as they pray'd. [state, 29 For at his word the Lord doth make
the sturdy storms to cease;
So that the waves from their great rage
are brought to rest and peace.
30 Then are they glad when rest is come,
which they so much did crave,
And to the hav'n by him are brought,
which they so fain would have.

The Fourth Part.

31 Let men therefore before the Lord
confess his goodness then,
And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sons of men.
32 Let them in presence of the folk with praise extol his Name:
and where the elders use to sit,
there let them do the same.
33 The wilderness he often makes with waters to abound,
And water-springs he often turns to dry and parched ground.
34 A fruitful land with pleasure deck'd full barren doth he make,
When on their sins that dwell
therein
he doth just vengeance take.
35 Again, the wilderness full rude
he maketh fruit to bear,
With pleasant springs of water clear,
though none before were there:
36 Wherein such hungry souls are as he hath freely chose, [set,
That they a city may them build to dwell in safe from foes:
37 That they may sow their pleafant land,
and vineyards also plant,
To yield them fruits of such increase
that they may have no want.
38 They multiply exceedingly the Lord doth bless them so,
Who also maketh the brute beasts
in number great to grow.
39 But when the faithful are brought low
by the oppressors stout, Diminishing through many plagues that compass them about:
40 Then doth he princes bring to shame,
which did them sore oppress,

And likewise caused them to err
when in the wilderness.
41 But yet the poor he raiseth up out of his troubles deep,
And often doth his train augment,
like to a flock of sheep.
42 The righteous shall behold this and also much rejoice; [sight, Whereas the wicked and perverse with grief shall stop their voice.
43 But who is wise, that now full well
he may these things record?
For certainly such shall perceive the kindness of the Lord.

PSAL. 108. J. H.

O God, my heart prepared is,
my tongue is likewise so;
I will advance my voice in song,
that I thy praise may show.
2 Awake, my viol and my harp, sweet melody to make;
And in the morning I myself right early will awake.
3 By me among the people, Lord, still praised shalt thou be;
And I among the heathen folk will praises sing to thee:
4 Because thy mercy doth ascend
above the heav'n's most high;
Also thy truth doth reach the within the lofty sky. [clouds 5 Above the starry heav'n's high exalt thyself, O God; Display likewise upon the earth thy glory all abroad.
6 That thy beloved also may be set at liberty;
Help, O my God, with thy right and hear me speedily. [hand, 7 God in his holiness hath spoke,
wherefore my joys abound, Sichem I will divide, and mete
the vale of Succoth's ground,
8 And Gilead shall be my own, Manasse mine shall be,
My head-strength Ephraim, and shall Judah give to me. [law 9 Moab my wash-pot is, my shoe o'er Edom I will throw, Upon the land of Palestine in triumph I will go 10 Who to the city strong shall be leader and guide to me?
Also by whom to Edom's land conveyed shall I be?
11 Is it not thou, O Lord, who late hast us forsaken quite?
And wilt not thou, Lord, also go forth with our hosts to fight?
12 Give us, O Lord, thy saving aid,
when troubles do assail;
For all the help of man is vain,
and can no whit avail.
13 Through God we shall do valiant and worthy of renown; [acts,
He shall subdue our enemies,
yea, he shall tread them down.

PSAL. 109. N.

IN speechless silence do not hold
O God, thy tongue always,
Ev'n thou, O Lord, because thou the God of all my praise. [art 2 The wicked and the guileful on me disclosed be, [mouths
And they with false and lying have spoken unto me. [tongue 3 They did beset me round about with words of hateful spite; Without all cause of my desert against me they did fight.
4 For my good-will they were my then I began to pray; [foes,
My good with ill, my friendliness with hate they did repay.
5 Set thou the wicked over him,
to have the upper-hand;
At his right hand, Lord, suffer thou his hateful foe to stand.
6 When he is judged, let him then condemned be therein;
And let the pray'r that he doth be turned into sin. [make 7 Few be his days, his charge also let thou another take;
His children let be fatherless,
his wife a widow make.
8 His offspring let be vagabonds,
and ever beg their bread,
In places desolate and waste
let them seek to be fed.
9 Let covetous extortioners get all his goods in store:
And let the stranger spoil the fruit of all his toil before.
10 Let there be none to pity him, let there be none at all That on his children fatherless will let their mercy fall.

The Second Part.

11 Let his posterity be quite destroy'd and never breed, Their name our-blotted in the age
that after shall succeed.
12 Let not his father's wickedness from God's remembrance fall;
And never let his mother's sin be done away at all.
13 But in the presence of the Lord,
let them for ever stay,
That from the earth their memory
he may cut clean away.
14 Since mercy he forgot to shew
but did pursue with spite
The troubled man, and sought to the woful-hearted wight. [slay 15 As he did cursing love, it shall happen unto him so;
And as he did not blessing love,
far from him shall it go.
16 As he with cursing clad himself, so it like water shall Enter his bowels, and like oil into his bones shall fall.
17 Ev'n as a garment let it be,
to cover him withal,
And as a girdle wherewith he always be girded shall.

18 Let this be the reward from of him that is my foe, [God Yea, and of those that evil speak against my soul also.
19 But thou, O Lord, that art my deal graciously with me; [God, Deliver me for thy Name's sake,
for great thy mercies be.
20 Because in depth of great distress
I needy am and poor,
Also within my pained breast
my heart is wounded sore.

The Third Part.

21 Ev'n so do I depart away,
as doth declining shade;
And as the grasshopper, so I am shaken off and fade.
22 With fasting long from needful, my knees enfeebled are; [food
And all the fatness of my flesh is gone with grief and care.
23 And I also a vile reproach to them am made to be;
And they that did upon me look,
did shake their heads at me.
24 Help me therefore, O God, I my aid and succour be; [pray, According to thy mercies great save and deliver me.
25 And they shall know thereby, that this is thy most mighty hand,
And that 'tis thou that hast it done
they well shall understand.
26 Although they curse with spite, yet thou shalt bless with loving voice:
When they rise up, and come to thy servant shall rejoice. [shame 27 Let them with shame be clothed that are mine enemies, [all
And with confusion as a cloke be covered likewise.
28 But greatly I will with my mouth
give thanks unto the Lord,
And I among the multitude his praises will record.
29 For he with help at his right hand
will stand the poor man by,
To save him from the man that would condemn his soul to die.

PSAL. 110. N.

THE Lord did say unto my Lord,
Sit thou on my right hand,
'Till I have made thy foes a stool whereon thy feet shall stand.
2 The Lord shall out of Sion send the scepter of thy might:
Amidst thy mortal foes be thou
the ruler in their fight.
3 And in the day on which thy and power they shall see, [reign Then free-will-offerings shall all the people give to thee.
3 Yea, with an holy worshipping then shall they offer all:

PSAL. III. N.

With heart I do accord
To praise and laud the Lord,
In presence of the just;
For great his works are found,
To search them such are bound,
as do him love and trust.

2 His works are glorious,
And righteousness to us,
it ever doth endure:
His wondrous works he would
We still remember should;
His mercy is full sure.

3 Such as to him bear love,
A portion fair above
he hath up for them laid;
For this they shall well find,
He will them have in mind,
and keep them as he said.

4 For he did not disdain
His works to shew them plain,
by lightnings and by thunders:
When he the heathen's land
Did give into their hand, where they beheld his wonders.

5 Of all his works ensueth
Both judgement, right and truth, whereto his statutes tend:
They are decreed sure
For ever to endure;
on which we may depend.

6 Redemption great he gave His people for to save,
it also hath appear'd,
His promise doth not fail,
But evermore prevail;
his holy Name be fear'd.

7 Whoso with heart full fair
True wisdom would attain,
the Lord fear and obey;
Such as his laws do keep,
Shall knowledge have full deep;
his praise shall last alway.

PSAL. 112. W. K.

THE man is blest that God doth fear,
and that his law doth love indeed:

His seed on earth God will uprear, and bless such as from him proceed;

His house with riches he will fill,
His righteousness endure shall still.

2 Unto the righteous doth arise in trouble joy, in darkness light:
Compassion great is in his eyes,
and mercy in his sight.

Yea, pity moveth him to lend,
He doth with judgement things expend.

3 And surely he shall never fail, for in remembrance had is he;
Nor tidings ill his mind assail, who in the Lord sure hope doth
see:

His heart is firm, his fear is past,
For he shall see his foes down cast.

4 He did well for the poor provide, his righteousness doth still remain:

And his estate with praise abide, which wicked men behold with pain;
Yea, gnash their teeth thereat shall they,

And so consume and melt away.

YE children which do serve the
Lord,

Praise ye his Name with one accord;

yea, blessed be alway his Name,
Who from the rising of the sun,
Till it return where it begun,
is to be praised with great fame.

The Lord all people doth surmount;
As for his glory we may count,
above the heav'n's high to be.
With God the Lord who can compare.

Whose dwelling in the heavens are?
of such great pow'r and force is he.

2 He doth abase himself we know,
Things to behold on earth below,
and also in the heav'n above:
The needy out of dust to draw,
Also the poor which help none saw,
his mercy only did him move:

And so did set him up on high,
With princes of great dignity, that rule his people with great fame.

The barren he doth make to bear,
And with great joy her fruit to rear:
therefore praise ye his holy Name.

WHEN Israel by God's command

from Pharaoh's land was bent,
And Jacob's house the strangers left,
and in the same train went:

2 In Judah God his glory shew'd, his holiness most bright;
So did the Israelites declare his kingdom, pow'r and might.

3 The sea saw it, and suddenly as all amaz'd did fly;

The roaring streams of Jordan's gave back immediately. [flood

4 As rams afraid the mountains
skip'd,

their strength did them forsake;
And as the silly trembling lambs,
their tops did beat and shake.

5 What ailed thee, O sea, that so suddenly didst fly? [thou Ye rolling waves of Jordan's flood, why turn'd ye so swiftly?

6 Ye mountains, ev'n as rams afraid,

why did your strength so shake?
Why did your tops as trembling lambs

quiver with fear and quake?

7 O earth, confess thy sovereign
Lord,

and dread his mighty hand;
Before the face of Jacob's God fear ye both sea and land:

8 I mean the God, who from hard caused floods to appear, [rocks And from the stony flint doth send fountains of water clear.

PSAL. 115. N.

NOT unto us, Lord, not to us,
but to thy Name give praise, Both for thy mercy and thy truth that are in thee always.

2 Why shall the heathen scorn
say,

Where is their God become?
Our God he is in heav'n, and what he will'd, that he hath done.

3 Their idols silver are, and gold, work of men's hands they be:
They have a mouth, but do not and eyes, but do not see; [speak,

4 And they have ears joined to their heads,

but do not hear at all;
Noses also they formed have,
but not to smell withal:

5 And hands they have, but handle and feet, but cannot walk; [not;
A throat they have, yet through the they do not speak or talk. [same

6 They and their makers are alike, and those whose trust they be:

O Israel, trust in the Lord,
thy help and shield is he.

7 O Aaron's house, trust in the that still defendeth thee; [Lord, Ye that do fear him, trust in him your sure defence is he.

8 The Lord of us hath mindful and will us bless also; [been,
On Israel and Aaron's house his blessings will bestow.

9 They that be fearers of the Lord,
he sure will bless them all,
Yea, he will bless them ev'ry one,
ev'n both the great and small.

10 To you always the living Lord, will multiply his grace,

And also to the children that shall follow of your race.

11 Ye are the blessed of the Lord, ev'n of the Lord most high,

Who both the heav'n's and earth and fix immoveably. [did make

12 The heav'n's above the highest belong unto the Lord; [heav'n
The earth unto the sons of men
he gave of free accord.

13 They that be dead do not with praise

set forth the Lord's renown, Nor any that unto the place of silence do go down:

14 But we will praise the Lord our henceforth for evermore: [God
He only worthy is of praise;
Praise ye the Lord therefore.

PSAL. 116. N.

I Love the Lord, because the voice of my pray'r heard hath he;
I'll ever call on him, because he bow'd his ear to me.

2 Ev'n when the snares of cruel about beset me round, [death
When pains of hell me caught, and I wo and sorrow found; [when

3 Upon the Name of God the Lord
then did I call and say, Deliver thou my soul, O Lord,
I do thee humbly pray.

4 The Lord is very merciful, and just he is also,
And in our God compassion doth most plentifully flow.

5 The Lord in safety doth preserve, all those that simple be;

I was in woful misery,
and he deliver'd me.

6 And now, my soul, since thou art return unto thy rest, [safe,
For largely unto thee the Lord
his bounty hath exprest.

7 Because thou hast delivered my soul from deadly thrall,

My moisten'd eyes from mournful
my sliding feet from fall: [tears,

8 Before the Lord I in the land of life will walk therefore:
I did believe, therefore I spake,
but I was troubled sore.

The Second Part.

9 I said in my distress and fear, that all men lyars be:

What shall I pay the Lord for all his benefits to me?

10 The wholesome cup of saving
I thankfully will take, [health
And on the Name of God will call, when I my prayers do make.

11 I to the Lord will pay my vows
with joy and great delight,

in all his people's sight.

14 Therefore I'll offer up to thee
a sacrifice of praise;
And I will call upon the Name of God the Lord always.
15 I to the Lord will pay my vows
with joy and great delight,
Now at this very present time
in all his people's sight:

O All ye nations of the world, praise ye the Lord always;

his truth doth not decay;

O Give ye thanks to God the for very kind is he, [Lord, Because his mercy doth endure to all eternity.
2 Let Israel confess that his mercy doth ever dure, Let Aaron's house likewise confess,
his mercy is most sure:
3 Let all that fear the Lord our God
ev'n now confess and say,
The mercy of the Lord our God
endureth still alway.
4 In trouble and in heaviness unto the Lord I cry'd, Who lovingly heard me at large,
my suit was not deny'd.
5 The Lord himself is on my side,
I will not stand in doubt,
Nor fear what man can do to me,
when God stands me about.
6 The Lord doth take my part with that help to succour me; [them Therefore I shall see my desire upon my enemy.
7 Better it is to trust in God,
than in man's mortal feed:
Or to put confidence in kings or princes in our need.
8 All nations have inclosed me,
and compassed me round;
But in the Name of God shall I my enemies confound.
9 They kept me in on ev'ry side,
and did me quite surround;
But in the Lord's most mighty
Name
I cast them to the ground.
10 They came about me all like bees;
but in the Lord's great Name
I quench'd their thorns that were on fire,
and did destroy the same.

The Second Part.

But through the Lord I found such as did them vanquish all. [help in righteous men's dwellings.

to utter and declare
The mighty power of the Lord,
his works and what they are.
16 The Lord himself hath chastened and hath corrected me;
But not me given over yet
to death, as you may see.
17 Set open unto me the gates of truth and righteousness,
That I may enter into them
his praise for to express.
18 This is the gate of God the which open shall be set, [Lord, That good and righteous men al-may enter into it. [ways

The Third Part.

19 I will give thanks to thee, O and ever will praise thee, [Lord, Who hast me heard, and art bea saviour unto me. [come it was the Lord's own fact; [God,

And it is wond'rous to behold that great and noble act.
22 This is the joyful day indeed, which God himself hath wrought;
Let us be glad and joy therein in heart, in mind, and thought.
23 Now help us, Lord, and prosper
we wish with one accord: [us, Blessed is he that comes to us in the Name of the Lord.

ALEPH.

Blessed are they that perfect are,
and pure in mind and heart;

Whose lives and conversations do from God's laws ne'er depart.
2 Blessed are they that give them-his statutes to observe, [selves Seeking the Lord with all their and never from his swerve. [heart, 3 Doubtless, such men go not astray,
nor do a wicked thing.
But stedfastly walk in his way without any wand'ring.
4 'Tis thy commandment and thy that with attentive heed, [will,
Thy precepts which are most di-we learn and keep indeed. [vine, 5 O would to God it might thee my ways so to direct, [please
That I might always keep thy laws, and never them reject!
6 So shall I not ashamed be,
whilst I thus set my eyes,
And bend my mind always to muse
on thy decrees most wise.
7 Then will I praise with upright and magnify thy Name, [heart,
When I shall learn thy judgements and also prove the same. [just, 8 And wholly will I give myself to keep thy laws most right;
For sake me not for ever, Lord, but shew thy grace and might.

BETH. The Second Part.

9 By what means may a young man his life learn to amend? [best If that he mark and keep thy word, and therein his time spend.
10 Unfeignedly I have thee sought, and thus seeking abide;
O never suffer me, O Lord,
from thy commands to slide.
11 Within my heart and secret thoughts
thy words I have hid still,
That I might not at any time offend thy holy will.
12 We magnify thy Name, O Lord,
and praise thee evermore:
Thy statutes of most worthy fame,
O Lord, teach me therefore.
13 My lips have never ceas'd to preach,
and publish day and night,
Thy judgements all which did proceed from thy mouth full of might.
14 Thy testimonies and thy ways much more my heart rejoice,
Than all the treasures of the earth, which worldlings make their choice.
15 Upon thy precepts I will muse,
and thereto frame my talk;
As at a mark, so will I aim how I thy ways may walk.
16 My only joy shall be so fix'd,
and on thy laws so set,
That nothing shall me so far blind,
that I thy words forget.

GIMEL. The Third Part.

17 Grant to thy servant now such as may my life prolong; [grace,

Thy holy word then will I keep both in my heart and tongue.
18 My eyes, which are dim and shut
so open and make bright, [up,
That of thy law and wond'rous
works
I may have the clear sight.
19 I am a stranger on the earth
wand'ring now here, now there;
Thy word therefore to me disclose,
my footsteps for to clear.
20 My soul is ravish'd with desire,
and never is at rest,
But seeks to know thy judgements
high,
and what may please thee best.
21 The proud and the malicious thou dost destroy each one, [men And cursed are such as do not thy laws attend upon.
22 Lord, turn from me rebuke and shame,
which wicked men conspire,
For I have kept thy covenants with zeal as hot as fire.
23 The princes great in counsel sat
and did against me speak;
But then thy servant thought how thy statutes might not break. [he 24 For why? thy cov'nants are the and solace of my heart, [joy,
They are my faithful counsellors,
from them I'll not depart.

DALETH. The Fourth Part.

25 Alas, I am as brought to grave,
and almost turn'd to dust;
Therefore restore my life again,
as thy promise is just.
26 My ways when I acknowledged, with mercy thou didst hear;
Hear now also, and me instruct thy laws to love and fear.
27 Make me, O Lord, to under-thy precepts evermore; [stand,
Then on thy works I'll meditate,
and lay them up in store.
28 My soul I feel so sore oppress'd, that it doth melt for grief;
According to thy word therefore haste, Lord, to send relief.
29 From lying and deceitful lips
let thy grace me defend;
And that I may learn thee to love thy holy law me send.
30 The way of truth both straight
I chosen have and found; [and sure,
Before me I thy judgements set,
which keep me safe and found.
31 Since then, O Lord, I readily thy covenants embrace,
Let me therefore have no rebuke,
nor check in any case.
32 Then will I run most joyfully where thy word doth me call,
When thou enlarged hast my heart,
and rid me out of thrall.

HE. The Fifth Part.

33 Instruct me, Lord, in the right of thy statutes divine, [way And them to keep unto the end my heart I will incline.

PSALM. CXIX.

34 Grant me the knowledge of thy and I shall it obey; [law,
With heart and mind, and all my
I will keep it alway. [might, 35 In the right paths of thy commands guide me, Lord, I require;
No other pleasure do I wish,
no greater thing desire, 36 Incline mine heart thy laws to and cov'nants to embrace; [keep,
And from all filthy avarice,
Lord, shield me with thy grace.
37 From vain desires and worldly lusts
turn back my eyes and sight:
And with thy Spirit strengthen me
to walk thy ways aright.
38 Confirm thy gracious promise,
Lord,
which thou hast made to me,
Who am thy servant, and do love,
and nothing fear but thee.
39 Reproach and shame which I do from me, O Lord, expel; [fear,
For thou dost judge with equity,
and therein dost excel.
40 Behold my heart's desire is bent
thy laws to keep alway;
O strengthen me so with thy grace,
that it perform I may.

VAU. The sixth Part.

41 Thy mercies great and manifold let me obtain, O Lord, Thy saving health let me enjoy,
according to thy word:
42 So shall I stop the slanderous of lewd men and unjust; [mouths
For in thy faithful word is all my confidence and trust.
43 The word of truth within my let evermore be prest; [mouth
For in thy judgements wonderful my hope doth always rest.
44 And whilst that breath within me doth
this mortal life preserve, Yea, till this world shall be dissolv'd,
thy law will I observe.
45 So walk will I as set at large from dread and danger free; Because I study how to keep thy precepts faithfully.
46 Thy noble acts I will describe as things of most great fame, Ev'n before kings I will them blaze,
and shrink no whit for shame.
47 I will rejoice then to obey thy just commands and will,
Which evermore I've loved best,
and so will love them still.
48 My hands I will lift to thy laws which I have dearly fought,
And practise thy commandments all in word, in deed, and thought.

ZAIN. The Seventh Part.

49 Thy promise which thou mad'st remember, Lord, I pray; [to me

For therein have I put my trust and confidence alway.
50 It is my comfort and my joy,
when troubles me assail;
For were my life not by thy word,
it suddenly would fail.
51 The proud and such as God con-still make of me a scorn; [temn
Yet will I not thy law forsake,
as if I were forlorn;
52 But call to mind, Lord, thy great shew'd to our fathers old; [works Whereby I feel my joy surmount
my grief an hundred-fold.
53 Horror hath taken hold on me,
because the wicked do Forsake thy righteous law, and will have no regard thereto.
54 But as for me, I fram'd my songs
thy statutes to exalt,
When I among the strangers dwelt,
and grief did me assault.
55 I thought upon thy Name,
O Lord,
by night when others sleep;
Thy law also I kept alway,
and ever will it keep.
56 Thy grace I did obtain, because this covenants most dear
I did embrace and also keep with reverence and fear.

CHETH. The Eighth Part.

57 O God, who art my part and lot,
my comfort and my stay,
I have decreed and promised
thy laws to keep alway.
58 With my whole heart I humbly in presence of thy face; [su'd,
As thou therefore hast promised,
Lord, grant to me thy grace.
59 My life I have examined, and try'd my secret heart,
Which to thy statutes caused me
my feet straight to convert.
60 I did not stay nor linger long as they that slothful are,
But hastily thy laws to keep
I did myself prepare.
61 The cruel bands of wicked men have made of me their prey;
Yet would I not thy law forget,
nor from thee go astray.
62 Thy righteous laws and judge-so very great and high, [ments are That ev'n at midnight I will rise thy Name to magnify.
63 I am companion of all them who fear thee in their heart; O therefore grant I never may from thy commandments start.
64 Thy mercies, Lord, most plenteously
the earth throughout do fill;
O teach me how I may obey thy statutes and thy will.

TETH. The Ninth Part.

65 According to thy promise, Lord, so hast thou with me dealt;

For of thy grace in sundry sorts have I thy servant felt.
66 Teach me to judge always aright, and give me knowledge sure;
For stedfastly I do believe thy precepts are most pure.
67 Before that I afflicted was,
I err'd and went astray;
But now I keep thy holy word,
and make it all my stay.
68 Thou art both good and gracious Lord,
and in thy gifts most free;
Thy ordinances how to keep therefore, O Lord, teach me.
69 The proud and the ungodly have against me forg'd a lye;
Yet thy commandments still ob-with all my heart will I. [serve 70 Their hearts are ev'n like unto which is exceeding fat; [brawn,
But in thy law do I delight and nothing seek but that.
71 O happy time, may I well say, when thou didst me correct!
That I thereby might learn thy and never them reject. [laws, 72 So that thy word and law to me is dearer manifold, Than gold and silver in great sums,
or ought that can be told.

JOD. The Tenth Part.

73 Thy hands have made and fashion'd me,
thy creature, Lord, am I;
Make me to understand thy law,
and keep it faithfully.
74 So they that fear thee shall re-whenever they me see, [joice Because I've learned by thy word to put my trust in thee.
75 I know, O Lord, thy judgements most just and righteous be, [all And that in very faithfulness thou hast afflicted me.
76 Now of thy goodness, I thee
some comfort to me send, [pray,
And as thou hast me hitherto,
O Lord, still me defend.
77 Thy tender mercies pour on me,
then shall I surely live;
For joy and consolation both thy law to me doth give.
78 Confound the proud who do me perversely to destroy; [seek
But as for me, thy laws to know
I will myself employ.
79 Whoso, with rev'rence do thee to me let them retire; [fear,
And such as know thy covenants,
and them alone desire.
80 My heart without all wavering
let on thy laws be bent,
That no confusion come to me,
nor any discontent.

CAPH. The Eleventh Part.

81 My soul doth faint and ceaseth thy saving health to crave; [not

And for thy word's sake still I trust my heart's desire to have.
82 My eyes do fail with looking for thy word, and thus I say,
Oh, when wilt thou me comfort,
Lord?
why dost thou thus delay?
83 Like as a bottle in the smoke,
so am I parch'd and dry'd;
Yet will I not out of my heart let thy commandments slide.
84 How long, O Lord, shall I yet before I see the hour, [live That on my foes which me torment thy vengeance thou wilt pour?
85 Presumptuous men have digged pits,
thinking to make me sure;
Thus quite contrary to thy law
my hurt they do procure.
86 But thy commandments are all true,
and causeless they me grieve;
To thee therefore I do complain, that thou may'st me relieve.
87 Almost they had me clean de-
stroy'd,
and brought me quite to ground;
Yet by thy statutes I abode,
and therein succour found.
88 Restore me, Lord, again to life;
thy mercies do excel:
And so shall I thy statutes keep,
till death my life expel.

LAMED. The Twelfth Part.

89 In heav'n, O Lord, where thou dost dwell,
thy word is stablish'd sure,
And shall to all eternity,
fast settled there endure.
90 From age to age thy truth abides,
as doth the earth witness;
Whose ground-work thou hast laid so sure,
as no tongue can express.
91 Ev'n to this day we may well see how thou dost them preserve, According to thy ordinance;
for all things do thee serve.
92 Had it not been that in thy law
my soul had comfort sought,
Long time e'er now in my distress
I had been brought to nought.
93 Therefore will I thy precepts in memory full fast, [keep Because that thou by them, O
my life restored hast. [Lord, 94 No man to me can title make,
for I am only thine;
Save me therefore, for to thy laws
my ears and heart incline.
95 The wicked men that seek my for me do lie in wait; [bane,
But I will meditate upon thy testimonies great.
96 For nothing in this world I see,
which hath at length no end;
But thy commandments and thy beyond all time extend. [word

PSALM. CXIX.

MEM. The Thirteenth Part.

97 What great desire and fervent unto thy law I bear! [love
On it my daily study is,
that so I may thee fear.
98 Thy word hath taught me to ex- in in wisdom all my foes; [ceed For they are ever with me, and do give me sweet repose.
99 My teachers who did me in-
In knowledge I excel; [trust Because I do thy statutes keep,
and them to others tell.
100 In wisdom I do far surpass the ancient men also;
And that because I keep thy laws,
and so resolve to do.
101 My feet I have refrain'd like-from ev'ry evil way; [wife That so I might thy word observe and keep without delay.
102 I have not from thy judgements swerv'd,
nor shrunk as thou canst tell;
Because thou hast me taught thereto live godly and well, [by 103 O Lord, how sweet unto my
I find thy words always! [taste Doubtless no honey in my mouth doth taste so sweet as they.
104 Thy laws have me such wisdom learn'd, that I do hate therefore All wicked and ungodly ways, and will do evermore.

NUN. The Fourteenth Part.

105 Ev'n as a lantern to my feet,
so doth thy word shine bright,
And to my paths where I do go
it is a flaming light.
106 I have both sworn and will per-in truth and faithfulness, [form
That I will keep thy judgements and them in life express. [just, 107 Affliction hath me fore oppress'd, and brought me to death's door;
O Lord, as thou hast promised,
so me to life restore.
108 The free-will-off'rings of my which I to thee do give, [mouth Accept, and teach me how I may after thy judgements live.
109 My soul is ever in my hand,
great dangers me assail;
Yet do I not thy law forget,
nor it to keep will fail.
110 Altho' the wicked laid their to make of me a prey, [nets Yet from thy precepts did I not once swerve or go astray.
111 Thy law, O Lord, I taken have my heritage to be;
Because such great delight and joy
it doth afford to me.
112 For evermore I have been bent thy statutes to fulfil;
Ev'n so likewise unto the end
I will continue still.

SAMECH. The Fifteenth Part.

113 All thoughts that vain and wick-
I do always detest; [ed are But for thy precepts and thy laws
I ever love them best.
114 Thou art my hid and secret place [in my shield and strong defence; Therefore have I thy promises look'd for with confidence.
115 Therefore ye evil-doers all,
away from me be gone;
For the commandments will I keep of God my Lord alone.
116 As thou hast promis'd so per-that I may live and be [form Never ashamed of the hope which thou hast given me.
117 Uphold me, and I shall be safe for ought they do or say,
And in thy statutes pleasure take
I will both night and day.
118 Under thy feet thou hast trod as do thy statutes break; [such For nought avails their subtilty, their counsels are too weak.
119 Like dross thou cast'st the wickwherever they do dwell; [ed out Therefore can I as thy commands love nothing half so well.
120 My flesh doth quake for fear of my soul is much dismay'd; [thee
By reason of thy judgements great my heart is sore afraid.

AIN. The Sixteenth Part.

121 I do the thing that lawful is and give to all men right; Reign me not to them that would oppress me with their might.
122 But for thy servant surely be in that thing which is right;
And never let the proud oppress me with their rage and spite.
123 My eyes do fail with waiting for thy health, which I do crave;
And for thy righteous promise,
Lord,
whereby thou wilt me save.
124 Entreat thy servant lovingly,
and favour to him show;
And thy commands most excellent teach me also to know.
125 Thy humble servant, Lord, I grant me to understand [am How by thy statutes I may know best what to take in hand.
126 It is now time, Lord, to begin,
for truth doth quite decay;
Thy law likewise they have made and none doth it obey. [void, 127 This is the cause wherefore I love
thy laws much more than gold, Or jewels fine, which are esteem'd
most costly to be sold.
128 I thought thy precepts all most and so them kept in store; [just,
All crafty and malicious ways
I greatly do abhor.

PE. The Seventeenth Part.

129 Thy covenants are wonderful, and full of things profound;
My soul therefore doth keep them sure,
when they are try'd and found.
130 The entrance of thy word doth to men a light most clear; [give
The simple likewise understand,
When they it read or hear.
131 My mouth I open'd and did because my soul did long [pant
For thy commandments which always
do guide my heart and tongue.
132 With mercy and compassion upon me from above, [look As thou art wont such to behold as thy Name fear and love.
133 Direct my footsteps by thy that I thy will may know; [word,
And never let iniquity thy servant overthrow.
134 From slanderous tongues and deadly harms preserve and keep me sure;
Thy precepts then will I observe,
with heart upright and pure.
135 Thy countenance which doth the sun in its bright hue, [surpass Let shine on me, and by thy law teach me what to eschew.
136 Rivers of waters from my eyes incessantly do fall, Because I see how wicked men thy laws keep not at all.

ZADE. The Eighteenth Part.

137 In ev'ry thing, Lord, thou art although the wicked grudge; [just,
And when thou dost sentence pronounce,
thou art a righteous judge.
138 To render right, and flee from guile,
are two chief points most high,
And such as thou hast in thy law commanded us strictly.
139 My zeal hath ev'n consumed and I am pin'd away, [me, Because my foes thy word forget,
and will it not obey.
140 Thy word is very pure and doth greatly my heart rejoice;
Therefore thy servant nothing more can love or make my choice.
141 And though I be nothing set as one of base degree; [by,
Yet do I not thy laws forget,
nor shrink away from thee.
142 Thy truth and righteousness, O for ever shall endure; [Lord,
Also thy law is truth itself,
most constant and most pure.
143 Anguish and grief have seiz'd and brought me very low [on me.
Yet all thy precepts do I still delight to hear and know.
144 The righteousness of thy comdoth last for evermore; [mands

Then teach them me, because in my life lies up in store. [them
KOPH. *The Nineteenth Part.
145 With fervent heart I call'd and now answer me, O Lord; [cry'd,
That thy commandments to ob-
I fully may accord. [serve 146 To thee, my God, I make my save me, I humbly pray; [suit, Thy testimonies then will I always keep and obey.
147 To thee do I cry in the morn before the day appear;
For in thy word I put my trust,
and thee alone do fear:
148 My eyes prevent the night-before they call I wake. [watches,
That meditating on thy word
I might some comfort take.
149 Incline thine ear to hear my and pity on me take; [voice,
As thou wast wont, so quicken me,
lest life should me forsake.
150 My foes draw near and greed-do after mischief run; [ly Far from thy law they are gone and wickedly it shun. [back, 151 Therefore, O Lord, approach thou near,
since need doth so require;
For all thy precepts are most true,
then help, I thee desire.
152 Concerning thy command-have learned long ago, [ments I That they remain for evermore, thou hast them grounded so.
RESH. *The Twentieth Part.
153 My trouble and affliction, Lord, consider and behold,
Deliver me, for of thy law
I ever take fast hold.
154 Defend my good and righteous
cause,
with speed some succour send;
From death as thou hast promised,
Lord, ever me defend.
155 As for the wicked, they are far from saving health and grace;
Because the way thy laws to know they enter not the trace.
156 Great are thy mercies, Lord, I grant,
what tongue can them explain!
According to thy judgements good let me my life obtain.
157 Though many men did trouble and persecute me sore, [me Yet from thy laws I never shrunk, nor went aside therefore.
158 The great transgressors I be-which is a grief to me, [hold,
Because they do not keep thy word,
nor ever seek to thee.
159 Behold how I do love thy laws with a most upright heart;
Then quicken me, O Lord, for thou most good and gracious art.
160 Thy word from the beginning been ever true and just, [hath Thy righteous judgements ev'ry always continue must. [one

SCHIN. The Twenty-first Part.

161 Princes have persecuted me without a cause, but saw,
It was in vain; for of thy word
my heart did stand in awe.
162 And surely of thy word I was more joyful and more glad,
Than he that of rich spoils and prey great store and plenty had.
163 But as for lies and falsities, them I hate and detest, Because thy holy law I do above all things love best.
164 Sev'n times a day I praise thee,
Lord,
singing with heart and voice,
Because thy righteous judgements greatly my heart rejoice. [do 165 Great peace and rest shall all as do thy statutes love; [such have No danger shall their quiet state impair or once remove.
166 My only health and comfort,
I look for at thy hand; [Lord,
And therefore have I done those things which thou didst me command.
167 Thy laws have been my exercise, which my soul most desire'd;
So much to them my love was bent,
that nought else I requir'd.
168 Thy statutes and commandments I have kept with heart upright;
For all my doings and thy ways are present in thy sight.

TAU. The Twenty-second Part.

169 O Lord, let my complaint and before thy face appear; [cry
And as thou hast me promise made,
so teach me thee to fear.
170 O let my supplication, Lord, have free access to thee;
And let me be delivered,
As thou hast promis'd me.
171 Then shall my lips thy praises after most ample sort, [speak
When thou thy statutes hast me taught,
wherein stands my comfort.
172 My tongue shall freely preach and evermore confess [thy word, Thy famous acts and noble laws are truth and righteousness.
173 Stretch out thy hand I thee be-and speedily me save; [speak For thy commandments to observe chosen, O Lord, I have.
174 Of thee alone, Lord, I crave for other I know none, [health,
And in thy law to meditate
I do delight alone.
175 Grant me therefore long days thy Name to magnify, [to live And of thy judgements wonderful let me the favour try.
176 For I was lost and went astray
ev'n like a wand'ring sheep;
O seek me, for I have not fail'd thy statutes for to keep.

PSAL. 120. T. S.

IN trouble and in thrall Unto the Lord I call,
and he doth me comfort,
Deliver me, I pray,
From lying lips alway,
and tongues of false report.
2 What vantage or what thing,
Gett'st thou thus for to sling,
thou false and flat'ring liar?
Thy tongue doth hurt it's seen,
No less than arrows keen,
or hot consuming fire.
3 Alas! that I am fain
In those tents to remain, which Kedar are by name;
By whom the flock elect
And all of Isaac's seed, are put to open shame.
4 With them that peace do hate
I came to meditate,
and set a quiet life;
But when my mind was told,
Causeless I was controul'd by them that loved strife.

PSAL. 121. W. W.

ILift my eyes to Sion hill, from whence I do attend till succour God me send:
The mighty God me succour will,
which heav'n and earth did frame,
and all things therein Name.
2 Thy foot from slip he will preserve, and will thee safely keep;
for he doth never sleep:
Lo, he that Israel doth conserve sleep never can surprise, nor slumber close his eyes.
3 The Lord thy keeper is alway, on thy right-hand is he a shade to cover thee:
The sun shall not thee parch by day,
nor moon, scarce half so bright,
with cold thee hurt by night.
4 The Lord will keep thee from di-and will thy life sure save; [stret, yea, thou shalt also have
In all thy business good success;
when thou go'st in or out he'll compass thee about.

PSAL. 122. W. K.

IDid in heart rejoice
To hear the people's voice,
In offering so willingly:
For let us up, say they,
And in the Lord's house pray:
Thus spake the folk with amity.
2 Our feet that wander'd wide Shall in thy gates abide,
O thou Jerusalem full fair,
Which art so seemly set Much like a city neat, whither the people do repair.
3 The tribes with one accord,
To give thanks to the Lord,
are thither bent their way to take:

So God before did tell
That there his Israel their prayers should together
make.
4 For there are thrones erect,
And that for this respect,
to set forth justice orderly:
Which thrones right to maintain,
To David's house pertain,
his folk to judge with equity.
5 To pray let us not cease
For Jerusalem's peace:
thy friends God keep in amity;
Peace be thy walls about;
And prosper thee throughout thy palaces continually.
6 For my friends sake will I With that prosperity may evermore abide in thee;
God's house doth me allure
Thy wealth for to procure, as much as lies in me.

PSAL. 123. T. S.

O Thou that in the heav'n's doest
I lift my eyes to thee: [dwell Ev'n as a servant listeth his his master's hands to see:
2 As handmaids watch their mistress's hand, some grace for to achieve,
So we behold the Lord our God,
till he doth us forgive.
3 O grant to us compassion, Lord,
and mercy in thy sight,
For we are fill'd and overcome with hatred and despise.
4 Our minds are filled with great rethe rich and worldly wise [buke,
Do make of us their mocking-the proud do us despise. [flocks,

PSAL. 124. W. W.

NOW Israel
may say, and that truly,
If that the Lord
had not our cause maintain'd,
If that the Lord
had not our right sustain'd, When all the world
against us furiously Made their uproars,
and said we should all die:
2 Then long ago
They had devour'd us all,
And swallow'd quick,
for ought that we could deem;
Such was their rage,
as we might well esteem;
And as the floods
with mighty force do fall,
So had they now
our lives ev'n brought to thrall.
3 The raging streams
most proud in roaring noise,
Had long ago
o'erwhelm'd us in the deep:
Praised be God which doth us safely keep From bloody teeth
and their most cruel voice,

Which as a prey
to eat us would rejoice.
4 Ev'n as a bird from fowler's gin or pen Escapes away,
right so it fares with us;
Broke are the nets,
and we escaped thus.
God that made heav'n and earth is our help then,
His Name hath sav'd us from these wicked men.

PSAL. 125. W. K.

SUCH as in God the Lord do trust,
As Sion mount shall firmly stand,
and be removed at no hand:
The Lord will count them right and so that they shall be sure [just,
for ever to endure.
2 As many mountains huge and Jerusalem about do close, [great so will the Lord do unto those Who on his godly will do wait:
such are to him so dear
they never need to fear.
3 For though the righteous try doth he
by making wicked men his rod, lest they through grief forsake their God,
It shall not always their lot be.
Give, Lord, to us thy light,
whose hearts are true and right:
4 But as for such as turn aside by crooked ways which they out-sought,
the Lord will surely bring to nought;
With workers vile they shall abide;
but peace with Israel
for evermore shall dwell.

Another of the same, by W. W.

THose that do place their confidence
upon the Lord our God only,
And flee to him for their defence
in all their need and misery,
Their faith is sure still to endure, grounded on Christ the cornerstone;
Mov'd with no ill, but standeth still steadfast like to the mount Sion.
2 And as about Jerusalem
the mighty hills do it compass,
So that no foes can come to them to hurt that town in any case;
So God indeed in every need,
his faithful people doth defend,
Standing them by assuredly from this time forth world without end.
3 Right wise and good is our Lord and will not suffer certainly [God,
The sinner's and ungodly's rod to rest upon his family.
Lest they also from God should stray,
falling to sin and wickedness:
O Lord, defend both night and day thy little flock, and them still bless.

PSALM CXXVI, CXXVII, CXXVIII, CXXIX, CXXX, CXXXI, CXXXII, CXXXIII, CXXXIV.

4 O Lord, do good to Christians all, that stedfast in thy word abide;
But such as from the Lord do fall,
and to false Doctrine daily slide,
Them will the Lord scatter abroad, with hypocrites thrown down to hell;
God will them fend pains without end;
But, Lord, grant peace to Israel.

PSAL. 126. W. W.

WHEN that the Lord again his Zion had forth brought From bondage great
And also servitude extreme;
His work was such
As did surmount man's heart and
So that we were [thought Much like to them that use to Our mouths were all [dream;
with laughter filled then,
Also our tongues
did shew us joyful men.

2 The heathen folk
Were forced then this to confesse,
How that the Lord
For them also great things had
But much more we, [done;
And therefore can confesse no less;
Wherefore to joy
We have good cause, as we begun.
O Lord, go forth,
Thou canst our bondage end,
Who to deserts
dost flowing rivers send.

3 Full true it is,
That they which sow in tears in-
A time will come [deed,
When they shall reap in mirth and
They went and wept [joy:
In bearing of their precious seed,
For that their foes
Full oftentimes did them annoy;
But their return
they joyfully shall see,
Their sheaves bring home,
and not impaired be.

PSAL. 127. W. W.

EXCEPT the Lord the house doth
make
and thereunto doth set his hand, what men do build it cannot stand:

Likewise in vain men undertake cities and holds to watch and ward, except the Lord be their safe-guard.

2 Tho' in the morn ye rise early,
and so at night go late to bed, eating with carefulness your bread,

Your labour is but vanity:
but they whom God doth love and keep enjoy all things with quiet sleep.

3 Therefore mark well when ye do
see that men have heir's t' enjoy their
land,
it is the gift of God's own hand:

For God doth multiply to thee of his great liberality
the blessing of posterity.

4 And when the children come to age,
they grow in strength and active-
ness,
in person and in comeliness:
So that a shaft shot with courage of one that hath a most strong arm, flies not so swift nor doth like harm.

5 Oh, well is he that hath his quiver furnish'd with such artillery;
for when in peril he shall be,
Such one shall never quake or shiver, when he doth plead before the judge against his foes that bear him grudge.

PSAL. 128. T. S.

BLESSED art thou that fearest and walkest in his ways; [God,
For of thy labour thou shalt eat,
happy shall be thy days.

2 Like fruitful vines on thy house-so doth thy wife spring out: [side Thy children stand like olive-plants thy table round about.

3 Thus art thou blest that fearest and he shall let thee see [God
The promised Jerusalem, and her felicity.

4 Thou shalt thy children's children to thy great joy's increase, [see And likewise grace on Israel, prosperity and peace.

PSAL. 129. N.

OFt they, now Israel may say,
me from my youth assail'd;
Ofst they assail'd me from my youth,
yet never have prevail'd.

2 Upon my back the plowers plow'd,
and furrows long did cast:
The righteous Lord hath cut the of wicked men at last. [cords 3 They that hate me shall be a-and turned back also, [sham'd
And made as grafs upon the house, which whithers e'er it grow;
4 Whereof the mower cannot find enough to fill his hand;
Nor can he fill his lap that goes to glean upon the land.

5 Nor passers-by pray God on them to let his blessing fall;
Nor say, we bless you in his Name who is Lord over all.

PSAL. 130. W. W.

LORD, unto thee I make my moan
when dangers me oppress;
I call, I sigh, complain and groan, trusting to find release.

2 Harken, O Lord, to my request, unto my suit incline,
And let thine ears, O Lord, be prest to hear this prayer of mine.

3 O Lord our God, if thou survey
our sins and them peruse,
Who shall escape? or who dare say,
I can myself excuse?

4 But thou art merciful and free,
and boundless in thy grace,
That we might always careful be to fear before thy face.

5 In God the Lord I put my trust, my soul waits on his will;
His promise is for ever just,
and I hope therein still.

6 My soul to God hath great regard,
wishing for him alway;
Much more than they that watch

7 O Israel, trust in the Lord,

through his abundant grace Redeem from his offences all,

REMEMBER David's troubles,
Lord,
how unto thee he swore,
And vow'd a vow to Jacob's God,
to keep for evermore;

2 I will not come within my house,
nor climb up to my bed,
Nor let my temples take their rest,
nor eyes within my head;

3 Till I have found out for the a place to sit thereon, [Lord An house for Jacob's God to be an habitation.

4 We heard of it at Ephrata, there did we here this found,
And in the fields and forests there,
these voices first were found.

5 We will assay and go into his tabernacle there,
Before his footstool to fall down,
and worship him in fear.

6 Arise, O Lord, arise, I pray into thy resting place, Thou and the ark of thy great
strength,

the presence of thy grace.
7 Let all the priests be clothed,
Lord,
with truth and righteousness.

Let all thy saints with songs of praise their joyfulness expresse.

8 And for thy servant David's sake refuse not, Lord, I pray,
The face of thy Anointed, and turn not from him away.

The Second Part.

9 The Lord to David sware in truth, and will not shrink from it;
The fruit which from thy loins pro-upon thy seat shall sit; [ceed that I shall learn each one,

and loves therein to dwell,
Saying, This is my resting-place,
I love and like it well;

12 And I will bless with great inher victuals ev'ry where, [crease
And also satisfy with bread
the needy that be there.

13 With my salvation I will clothe her priests for evermore,
And all her saints likewise shall sing and shout for joy therefore.

14 There will I surely make the of David for to bud; horn
For there I have ordain'd for him a lantern bright and good.

15 As for his foes, I will them clothe with shame for evermore;
But I will cause his crown to shine, more fresh than heretofore.

As fleeting shade. Bow down, O
Lord,
the heav'ns, and thence descend;

shall smoke,
cast forth thy lightnings flame,
And scatter them; thy arrows shoot,
consume them with the same.
6 Send down thy hand from heav'n
O Lord, deliver me, [above,

Take me from waters great, from of strangers set me free; [hand

O God the Lord most high,
And on a ten-string'd lute also praise thee most joyfully.

deliverance to kings;
Unto his servant David help from hurtful sword he brings.

whose mouth talks vanity,
And their right-hand is a right-of guile and subtilty. [hand of fundry forts be found; [may Our sheep bring thousands, in our streets

ten thousands may abound.

No goings out there be, nor cries within our streets be made.

THEE will I laud, my God and King,
and blest thy Name alway;
For ever will I praise the same,
and blest thee day by day.

praise,
his greatness none can reach;
From race to race they shall thy works
praise, and thy pow'r preach.
3 I of thy glorious Majesty
the beauty will record,
And meditate upon thy works
most wonderful, O Lord:
4 And they shall of thy pow'r and of thy faithful acts declare;
And I to publish all abroad thy greatness will not spare.
5 And they into the mention shall break of thy goodness great,
And I aloud thy righteousness in singing will repeat.

and merciful also, [is,
Of great abounding mercy, and to anger he is slow.

MY soul, praise thou the Lord always,
my God I will confess; While breath and life prolong my days
my tongue no time shall cease.

PRAISE ye the Lord, for it is

For it is pleasant, and to praise

heart,

and names them in their kind.

his wisdom infinite; [pow'r,
The Lord relieves the meek, and throws to ground the wicked wight.

unto the Lord rejoice, [praise,
And to our God upon the harp advance your singing voice.

His secret judgements: ye
therefore,
praise ye the Lord alone.

GIVE laud unto the Lord, from heav'n that is so high, Praise him in deed and word
above the starry sky;
and also ye
his Angels all, Armies royal,
praise joyfully.

2 Praise him both moon and sun, which are so clear and bright;
The same of you be done,
ye glitt'ring stars of light:
And ye no less,
ye heavens fair,
Clouds of the air,
his praise express.

3 For at his word they were all formed as we see,
At his voice did appear all things in their degree,
Which he set fast;
to them he made A law and trade always to last.

4 Extol and praise God's Name on earth, ye dragons fell;
All deeps, do ye the same,
for it becomes you well;
The same do ye,
fire, hail, ice, snow,
And storms that blow
at his decree.

5 The hills and mountains all,
and trees that fruitful are,
The cedars great and tall,
his worthy praise declare;
Beasts and cattle,
yea, birds of wing,
And worms creeping,
that on earth dwell.

6 All kings both great and small,
with all their pompous train;
Princes and judges all,
that in the world remain, Exalt his Name;
young men and maids,
Old men and babes,
do ye the same.

7 For his Name shall we prove to be most excellent, Whose praise is far above
the earth and firmament:
For sure he shall exalt with bliss
The horn of his,
and help them all.

8 His saints all shall forth tell his praise and worthiness,
The sons of Israel.
each one both more and less:
And also they that with good will His words fulfil,
and him obey.

to serve God day and night.

grace
grant, Lord, to us, we pray;
That thou mayest be our Comforter
at the last dreadful day.

12 Of strife and all dissention,
Lord,
do thou dissolve the bands,
And knit the knots of peace and love
throughout all christian lands.

That we of his beloved Son may gain the blissful sight:

14 And that we may with perfect faith always acknowledge thee,

one God in persons three.

15 To God the Father laud and and to his blessed Son, [praise,
And to the Holy Spirit of grace, co-equal three in one.

from hence to the world's end.

MY soul doth magnify the Lord,

who is my Saviour.
2 And why? because he did regard, and had respect unto
The low estate of his handmaid, and let the mighty go.
3 For now behold, all nations and the generations all
From this time forth for evermore shall me right blessed call:
4 Because he hath me magnify'd who is the Lord of might;
Whose Name be ever sanctify'd,
and praised day and night.
5 For with his mercy and his grace
all men he doth inflame, Throughout the generations all that fear his holy Name.
6 He shew'd strength with his mighty arm
and made the proud to start,
With all imaginations that were in their wicked heart.

7 He hath put down the mighty from their supernal seat, [ones
And did exalt the meek in heart
ev'n from their low estate.
8 The hungry he replenish'd with all things that were good,
And through his pow'r he made the rich
oft-times to want their food.
9 And calling to remembrance his great mercy very well, Hath holpen up most graciously his servant Israel;

to Abraham before,
And to his seed successively, to stand for evermore.

which is the Lord of might:
5 Whom thou hast mercifully set,

In open sight, and visible before all people's face;
6 The Gentiles to illuminate,
who do in darkness dwell,

The Apostles Creed.

ALL my belief and confidence is in the Lord of might,
The Father, who all things hath the day and also night, [made, 2 The heav'ns and firmament like-
and also ev'ry star, [wise,
The earth and all that is therein which past man's reason far.
3 And in like manner I believe in Christ our Lord his Son, Co-equal with the Deity,
and Man in flesh and bone;
4 Conceived by the Holy Ghost, his word doth me assure;
And of his mother Mary born,
yet she a Virgin pure.
5 Because mankind to Satan was for sin in bond and thrall,
He came and offer'd up himself to death, to save us all;

6 And suffering most grievous then Pilate being judge, [pain,
Was crucify'd upon the cross,
and thereat did not grudge.
7 And so he died in the flesh,
but quicken'd by the Spirit;
His body then was buried,
that he might life inherit.
8 His soul did after this descend, into the lower parts;
A dread to wicked spirits, but joy unto faithful hearts.
9 And on the third day of his
He rose to life again, [death
That so he might be glorify'd, and freed from grief and pain;
10 Ascending up above the heav'ns to sit in glory still On God's right hand, his Father
according to his will; [dear, 11 Until the day of judgement, he shall return again [when With angels pow'r tho' of that we ignorant remain; [day 12 To judge all people righteously, whom he hath dearly bought,
The living and the dead also,
whom he hath made of nought.
13 And in the Holy Ghost also,
author of purity;
In Trinity the third person,
believe I stedfastly;
14 The Catholick and Holy Church, that God's word doth maintain,
And holy Scripture doth allow,
which Satan doth disdain.
15 And also I do trust to have by Jesus Christ his death, Release and pardon of my sins,
and that only by faith:
16 What time all flesh shall rise before the Lord of might, [again
And see him with their outward eyes
which now do give them light.

17 Then shall our Saviour Jesus Christ
the sheep and goats divide,
That he may give eternal life to those whom he hath try'd; 18 Within his realm celestial in glory for to rest,
With all his holy company of Saints and Angels blest; 19 Who serve the Lord omnipo-and him always adore; [tent
To whom be all dominion,
all praise for evermore.

and Church that's Catholick, 5 In the Communion of all Saints,
and pardon of our sins,
The body's resurrection, and the life which then begins.

The Creed of S. Athanasius, called Quicunque vult.

WHAT man soever he be, that salvation hopes to gain,
The Catholick Belief he must before all things retain.
2 Which Faith unless he whole do and undesiledly, [keep,
Eternally, without all doubt,
he shall be sure to die.

3 The Catholick Belief is this that God we worship One In Trinity, and Trinity in Unity alone;
4 So as we neither do confound
the Persons of the Three, Nor yet the substance whole of in sunder parted be. [One

5 One Person of the Father is, another of the Son:
Another Person proper of the Holy Ghost alone.
6 Of Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, but one the Godhead is;
Glory the same, co-eternal
the Majesty likewise.

7 Such as the Father is, such is the Son in each degree,
And such also we do believe the Holy Ghost to be.
8 The Father he is uncreate, and uncreate the Son;
The Holy Ghost is uncreate,
so uncreate each one.

9 Father incomprehensible,
so likewise is the Son; Comprehensible also is the Holy Ghost of none.
10 The Father is eternal, and the Son eternal so;
And in like sort eternal is the Holy Ghost also.

11 And yet tho' we believe that of these eternal be; [each Yet there but one Eternal is,
and not Eternals three:
12 As not incomprehensible, nor yet uncreate three;
But one incomprehensible
one uncreate hold we.

13 As the Father Almighty is,
the Son is so likewise,
And in like manner Almighty
the Holy Spirit is.
14 And albeit that every one of these Almighty be, Yet there but one Almighty is,
and not Almighties three.

15 The Father God is, God the Son, God Holy Ghost also:
Yet are there not three Gods to be,
but one God and no mo.
16 So likewise Lord the Father is,
and Lord also the Son,
And Lord the Holy Ghost; yet are

there not three Lords, but one.
17 For as we are compell'd to
By Christian verity, [grant
Each of the Persons by himself both God and Lord to be; 18 So Catholick Religion doth strictly forbid away,
That either Gods be three, or that there Lords be three, to say.

19 Of none the Father is, not made, created, nor begot;
The Son is of the Father, not create, nor made, but got.
20 The Holy Ghost is of them the Father and the Son; [both Not made, created, nor begot, but doth proceed alone.

21 So we one Father hold only,
one Son also, not three:
One Holy Ghost alone, and not three Holy Ghosts to be.
22 None in this Trinity before, nor after other is,
Nor greater any than the rest,
nor lesser be likewise;

23 But ev'ry one among them-of all the Persons three, [selves Together co-eternal all,
and all co-equal be.
24 So Unity in Trinity,
as it is said before,
And Trinity in Unity
we always must adore.

25 Therefore what man soever salvation hopes to gain, [that This faith touching the Trinity of force he must retain.
26 And needful to eternal life
it is, that every wight,
The incarnation of our Lord
he do believe aright.

27 For this the right Faith is, that believe and also know, [we That Christ our Lord the Son of is God and Man also: [God, 28 God of his Father's substance before the world began, [got
And of his Mother's substance in world a very Man. [born

29 Both perfect God and perfect in one, one Jesus Christ, [Man That doth of reasonable soul and human flesh subsist.
30 Touching his Godhead, equal his Father God is he: [with Touching his Manhood lower than his Father in degree.

31 Who tho' he be both very God and very Man also;
yet is he but one Christ alone,
and is not Persons two:
32 One, not by turning of God-into the flesh of Man, [bead

But by taking Manhood to God,
this being one began:
33 All one, not by confounding of the substance into one,
But only by the Unity that is of one Person.

34 For as the reasonable soul and flesh, but one Man is,
So in one Person God and Man is but one Christ likewise; 35 Who suffer'd for to save us all,
to hell he did descend,
The third day rose again from death,

and did to heaven ascend;
36 He sits at the right hand of God
th' Almighty Father there; From thence to judge the quick and again he shall appear; [dead, 37 At whose return all men shall with bodies new restor'd, [rise And for their own works they shall account unto the Lord; [give

38 And they into eternal life shall go that have done well;
Who have done ill shall go into eternal fire to dwell.
39 This is the Catholick Belief:
who doth not faithfully Believe the same, without all doubt he saved cannot be.

The Lord's Prayer.

OUR Father which in heaven
Hallowed be thy Name; [art, Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done
in earth, even as the same 2 In heav'n is. Give us, O Lord, our daily bread this day;
As we forgive our debtors, so forgive our debts we pray.
3 Into temptation lead us not,
from evil keep us free;
For kingdom, power, and glory is thine to eternity.

The Ten Commandments of God. Exod. xx. W.W.

HEAR Israel, and what I say,
give heed to understand;
I am the Lord thy God that brought thee out of Egypt land.
2 Ev'n from the house wherein thou in thralldom live a slave: [didst None other gods at all before my presence shalt thou have.
3 No manner of grav'n image shalt thou make at all to thee, Nor any other figure else shall counterfeited be;
4 Of any thing in heav'n above,
or in the earth below,
Or in the waters under earth;
to them thou shalt not bow;
5 Nor shalt them serve: the Lord
a jealous God is he, [thy God Who punisheth the parents faults to third and fourth degree,

6 Upon the children that me hate and mercy doth display
To thousands of such as me love,
and my commands obey.

7 The Name thou of the Lord thy in vain shalt never use: [God For him that takes his Name in he never will excuse. [vain 8 Remember that thou holy keep the sacred Sabbath-day;
Six days thou labour shalt, and do thy needful works alway.

9 The Lord thy God the sev'nth for thee to rest upon; [hath set Nor work then shalt thou do in it thyself nor yet thy son, 10 Thy daughter, servant, nor thy thy ox, nor yet thy ass, [maid, Nor stranger that within thy gates hath his abiding-place.

11 For in six days God heav'n and and all therein did make; [earth
And after that, his rest he did upon the sev'nth day take.
12 Wherefore he blest'd the day for resting did ordain, [that he And sacred to himself alone appointed to remain.

13 Give honour to thy Parents, prolong'd thy days may be [that Upon the land the which the Lord thy God hath given thee.
14 Thou shalt no murder do. Nor commit adultery. [shalt Thou shalt not steal. Nor witness against thy neighbour be. [false

15 Thou shalt not covet house, that thy neighbour doth prolong; [to Nor covet shalt in having of his wife to do him wrong; 16 Nor his man-servant, nor his nor ox, nor ass of his, [maid, Nor any other thing, that to thy neighbour proper is.

The Petition.

1 Thy Spirit grant to us, O Lord, to keep these laws our hearts restore:
And cause us all with one accord to magnify thy Name therefore.
2 For of ourselves no strength we have to keep these laws after thy will:
Thy might, therefore, O Christ, we crave,
that we in thee may them fulfil.
3 Lord, for thy Name's sake grant us this,
thou art our strength, O Saviour
Christ:
Of thee to speed how can we miss,
in whom our treasure doth consist?
4 To thee for evermore be praise, with the Father in each respect
And with the Holy Ghost always,
the Comforter of these elect.

A Thanksgiving after receiving the Lord's Supper, &c.

A Prayer to the Holy Ghost, to be sung before the Sermon.

COME Holy Spirit, God of the Comforter of all, [might, Teach us to know thy word aright, that we may never fall.

2 O Holy Ghost, visit our land, defend us with thy shield; Against all sin and wickedness, Lord, help us win the field.

3 O Lord, preserve our King, and his Council, that they may [bless Be steadfast in the Gospel of our Saviour Christ alway.

4 O Lord, that giv'st thy holy Word, send preachers plenteously, That in the same we may accord, and therein live and die.

5 O Holy Spirit guide aright the preachers of thy word; That thou by them may'st cut down as it were with a sword. [sin

6 Depart not from thy pastors pure, but aid them at their need, Who break to us the bread of life, whereon our souls do feed.

7 Blessed Spirit of truth, keep us, in peace and unity, Keep us from sects and errors all, and from all Heresy.

8 Convert all those that are our foes, and bring them to thy light, That they and we may all agree, and praise thee day and night.

9 True faith in us, O Lord, increase, and let love so abound, That man and wife may live in and all about us round. [peace,

10 In our time give thy peace, O to nations far and nigh; [Lord, And teach them all thy word, that may sing to thee most High. [they

A Thanksgiving after the Receiving of the Lord's Supper.

THE Lord be thankful for his and mercies evermore, [gifts That he doth shew unto his faints; to him be laud therefore.

2 Our tongues cannot so praise the as he doth right deserve; [Lord, Our hearts cannot of him so think, as he doth us preserve.

3 His benefits they be so great to us who are but sin, That at our hands a recompence he cannot hope to win.

4 O sinful man, that thou should'st such mercies of the Lord! [have Who dost deserve most worthily of him to be abhorr'd!

5 None else but sin and wretchedness doth rest within our hearts; And stubbornly against the Lord we daily act our parts.

6 The sun that in the firmament is set for us a light, Doth shew itself more clear and than we be in his sight. [pure,

7 The heav'ns above and all there more holy are than we; [in They serve the Lord in their estate, each one in his degree;

8 They do not strive for master nor light their office set; [ship, But serve the Lord, and do his will;

there's nothing can them let.

9 Also the earth and all therein of God doth stand in awe, Observing the Creator's will by skilful nature's law.

10 The sea, and all that is therein, doth bend when God doth beck; Spirits beneath do tremble all, and fear his wrathful check.

11 But we alas! for whom all these, were made them for to rule, Do not so know or love the Lord as doth the ox or mule.

12 A law he gave us for to know, what was his holy will; He would us good, but we would avoid the thing that's ill. [not

13 Not one of us that seeketh out the Lord of life to please, Nor doth the thing that might us to Christ and quiet ease. [lead

14 Thus are we all his enemies, we cannot it deny; And he again of his good will would not that we should die.

15 Therefore when remedy was to bring us unto life, [none The Son of God our flesh did take to end our mortal strife.

16 And all the law of God the he fully did obey, [Lord And for our sins upon the cross his blood our debts did pay.

17 And that we never should forget what good for us he wrought, A sign he left our eyes to tell, that he our bodies bought.

18 In bread and wine here visible unto thy eyes and taste, His mercies great thou may'st reif that his grace thou hast. [cord,

19 As once the corn did live and grow, and was cut down with scythe, And threshed out with many stripes, out of its husk to drive;

20 And as the mill with violence did tear it out so small, And made it like to earthly dust, not sparing it at all;

21 And as the oven with fire hot doth close it up with heat, And all this done, as I have said, that it should be our meat:

22 So was the Lord in his ripe cut down by cruel death; [age His soul he gave in torments great, and yielded up his breath.

23 Because that he to us might be an everlasting bread:

With much reproach and troubles on earth his life he led. [great

24 And as the grapes in pleasant are pressed very fore, [time And plucked down when they be and let to grow no more; [ripe,

25 Because the juice that in them as comfortable drink, [is We might receive, and joyful be when forrows make us shrink:

26 So was the blood of Christ press'd out

also with nails and spear;

The juice thereof doth save all that rightly do him fear. [those,

27 And as the corns by unity into one loaf are knit;

So is the Lord and his whole Church, though he in heav'n do sit.

28 As many grapes make but one so should we be but one [wine, In faith and love in Christ above, and into Christ alone.

29 Leading a life without all strife, in quiet, rest and peace; From envy and from malice both our hearts and tongues shall cease.

30 Which if we do, then we shall that we his chosen be; [show By faith in him to lead a life as always willed he.

31 And that we may so do indeed, God send us all his grace; Then after death we shall be sure with him to have a place.

Another of the same.

THE Lord be thanked for his and mercies evermore, [gifts That he hath shewed to his faints; to him be laud therefore.

2 Heav'n, earth, the sea, and all of him do stand in awe, [therein, And do observe their Maker's will, by skilful nature's law.

3 May we for whom all these were obey God's holy will; [made, Who doth to us will all that's good, but nothing that is ill.

4 And when we were his enemies, most wicked ungodly, He did vouchsafe for all our sins, a shameful death to die;

5 Yea, the whole law of God the did perfectly obey; [Lord And by his blood shed on the our debts did justly pay. [cros

6 But that no time we might forget what he for us hath done, He did appoint both bread and wine, as Signs till he should come.

7 O may we take those sacred Signs in due remembrance then, Of what he suffer'd once for us, most vile and sinful men!

8 As corns divided by the mill, made into one loaf are; Ev'n so is Christ and his whole Church, though distant they appear.

9 As many grapes make but one so should we be but one, [wine, In faith and love to Jesus Christ, God's dear and only Son.

10 Leading lives free from guile & in quiet, rest, and peace; [strife, Of envy, malice, and debate, Lord grant still a decrease.

11 And then most plainly we shall that we his chosen are; [shew When by a holy life the same we do to all declare.

12 And that we may do so indeed, God send us all his grace, That after this life we may find in heav'n a dwelling-place.

The Complaint of a Sinner.
WHERE Righteousness doth say,

Lord, for my sinful part, In wrath thou should'st me pay vengeance for my desert;

I cannot it deny; but needs I must confess, How that continually thy laws I do transgress.

2 But if it be thy will with sinners to contend, Then all thy flock must spill, and be lost without end.

For who lives here so right, that truly he can say, He sins not in thy sight full oft and ev'ry day?

3 The Scripture plain tells me, the righteous man offends Sev'n times a day 'gainst thee, whereon thy wrath depends:

So that the righteous man doth walk in no such path, But he falls now and then in danger of thy wrath.

4 Then since the case so stands, that ev'n the man right wife Falls oft in sinful bands, whereby thy wrath may rise:

Lord, I that am unjust, and righteousness none have, Where to then shall I trust, my sinful soul to save;

5 But truly unto thee, to whom I cleave, and shall? Thy mercy is most free, O let it on me fall:

Thine anger lay aside, or else I perish must: But thou was crucify'd for me, though most unjust.

6 The Scriptures do declare no drop of blood in thee, The which thou would'st spare, but shed each drop for me.

Now let those drops not sweet soften my heart to dry, That I with sin replet may live, and sin may die.

The humble Suit of a Sinner, &c.

7 That having mortify'd
the sin that dwells in me,
I may be sanctify'd
by grace bestow'd by thee;
So that I never do commit such mortal sin,
That my infernal foe
joy at my death therein.
8 But me vouchsafe to keep from all my bellish foes,
And from that lake so deep wherein no mercy flows.
Then shall I sing the songs, confirmed with the just,
That unto thee belongs,
which art my only trust.

Another Metre.

WHERE Righteousness doth
say,
Lord for my sinful part,
In wrath that thou should'st to me pay vengeance, my just desert;
2 I can it not deny,
but needs I must confess,
How that all times continually,
thy laws I do transgress.
3 But if it be thy will with sinners to contend, Thy people void of hope should perish world without end. [still 4 For who lives so upright, that truly he can say,
Transgress he does not in thy sight,
at least sev'n times a day?
5 Lo, the most righteous man
no such perfection hath,
But that by sin he now and then may justly fear thy wrath.
6 Then I that am unjust,
and righteousness have none, Whereunto should I hope or trust,
but thy mercy alone?
7 Now mitigate thy wrath,
(or else we perish shall.)
O Jesu, by thy precious death and blood shed for us all.
8 And let those drops most sweet,
make soft my stony heart,
Who lying prostrate at thy feet,
begs mercy on his part.

The humble Suit of a Sinner.

O LORD, on whom I do depend,
behold my careful heart;
And when thy will and pleasure is,
release me of my smart.
2 Thou see'st my sorrows what they are,
my grief is known to thee;
And there is none that can remove or take the same from me, 3 But only thou, whose aid I crave, whose mercy still is prest
To ease all those that come to thee for succour and for rest.

4 And since thou see'st my restless
eyes,
my tears and grievous groan, Attend unto my suit, O Lord, mark my complaint and moan.
5 For sin hath so inclos'd me,
and compass'd me about,
That I am without remedy,
if mercy help not out:
6 For mortal man cannot release or mitigate my pain,
But only Christ, my Lord and God,
who for my sins was slain:
7 Whose bloody wounds are yet to see,
though not with mortal eye;
Yet do thy saints behold them all,
and so I trust shall I.
8 Though sin doth hinder me awhile,
when thou shalt see it good,
I shall enjoy the sight of him who shed for me his blood.
9 And as thy angels and thy saints
do now behold the same,
So trust I to possess that place,
with them to praise thy Name.
10 But whilst I live here in this vale,
where sinners do frequent, Assist me ever with thy grace
my sins still to lament:
11 Lest that I tread the sinners path,
and give them my consent
To dwell with them in wickedness, whereto my nature's bent.
12 Only thy grace must be my let that with me remain; [stay,
For if I fall, then of myself
I cannot rise again.
13 Wherefore this is yet once again
my suit and my request,
To grant me pardon for my sin,
that I in thee may rest:
14 Then shall my heart and tongue be instruments of praise, [also
And in thy Church and house of saints
sing psalms to thee always.

The Lamentation of a Sinner.

O LORD, turn not thy face
away
from him that lies prostrate, Lamenting fore his sinful life
before thy mercy gate;
2 Which thou dost open wide to that do lament their sin: [those,
O shut it not against me, Lord,
but let me enter in.
3 O call me not to strict account,
how I have lived here;
For then I know right well, O
Lord,
most vile I shall appear.
4 I need not to confess my life,
for surely thou canst tell;

What I have been, and what I am,
thou knowest very well.

5 O Lord, thou know'st what things be past,
also the things that be;
Thou know'st also what is to come,
nothing is hid from thee.

6 Before the heav'ns and earth were
made,

thou knew'st what things were
then;
As all things else that have been among the sons of men. [done

7 And can the things that I have done

be hidden from thee then?
No, no, thou know'st them all, O
Lord,

where they were done, and when.

8 Wherefore, with tears I come to
to beg and to intreat, [thee, Ev'n as a child that hath done ill,
and feareth to be beat;

9 So come I to the throne of Grace where mercy doth abound, Desiring mercy for my sin,
to heal my deadly wound.

10 O Lord, I need not to repeat what I do beg or crave;

For thou dost know before I ask,
the thing that I would have.

11 Mercy good Lord, mercy I ask,
this is the total sum:

For mercy, Lord, is all my suit,
O let thy mercy come.

Another Metre.

O LORD, in thee is all my trust,

give ear unto my woful cry;
Refuse me not that am unjust,
but cast on me thy heav'nly eye.

2 Behold, how I do still lament
my sins wherein I do offend:

Shall I for them have punishment,
since thee to please I do intend?

3 No, no, thy will is not so bent, to deal with sinners in thine ire;

But when in heart they do repent, with speed thou grantest their desire.

4 To thee therefore still will I cry,
to wash away my sinful crime;

Thy blood, O Lord, is not yet dry,
but that it may help me in time.

5 Hasten then, O Lord, therefore I pray,

to pour on me thy gifts of grace,
That when this life shall pass away,

in heav'n with thee I may have
place;

6 Where thou dost reign eternally, with God, which once thee down did send;

Where angels do incessantly sing praise to thee world without end.
